VII. And be it enacted, That any printed Copy of the London Gazette, purporting to be printed and published by the Person or Persons having Authority to print and publish the same, shall be admitted as Evidence by all Courts, Judges, Justices, and others in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions of any Treasury Warrant and of any Regulations or Restrictions which shall be issued or made under or by virtue of this Act, and contained in any such Gazette, and of the due issuing thereof, and of the Contents of any such Warrant, Regulations, or Restrictions, without any further or other Proof.

Act to be deemed a Post Office Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Post Office Act, and that the several Terms and Expressions used in this Act shall be construed according to the respective Interpretations contained or referred to in the said Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, so far as those Interpretations are not repugnant to the Subject or inconsistent with the Context of such Terms and Expressions.

Act may be amended, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXIX.

An Act to continue for Two Years, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and to amend, an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to extend and render more effectual for Five Years an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His late Majesty George the Fourth, to amend an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His Majesty George the Third, for preventing the administering and taking unlawful Oaths in Ireland.

50 G. 3. c. 102. 4 G. 4. c. 87. 2 & 3 Vict. c. 74. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 78. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 55.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more effectually preventing the administering and taking of unlawful Oaths in Ireland, and for the Protection of Magistrates and Witnesses in Criminal Cases: And whereas the said Act was amended by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and render more effectual the Provisions of an Act made in the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign for preventing the administering and taking unlawful Oaths in Ireland: And whereas the Provisions of the said last-recited Act were extended and rendered more effectual by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to extend and render more effectual for Five Years an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His late Majesty George the Fourth, to amend an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His Majesty George the Third, for preventing the administering and taking unlawful Oaths in Ireland: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue for One Year an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to extend and render more effectual for Five Years an Act passed in the 'Fourth Year of His late Majesty George the Fourth, to amend an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of 'His Majesty George the Third, for preventing the administering and taking unlawful Oaths in 'Ireland,' the said last-recited Act was continued for the further Period of One Year from the First Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-four: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue for Two Years, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and to amend an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to extend and render more effectual for Five Years an Act passed in the Fourth Year of 'His late Majesty George the Fourth, to amend an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His Majesty 'George the Third, for preventing the administering and taking unlawful Oaths in Ireland,' the said Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, (subject to an Amendment in the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her present Majesty contained) was continued in force for the further Period of Two Years from the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And it is expedient that the said recited Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty should be further continued and amended as herein-after provided:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty shall be and continue in full Force and Effect from the passing of this Act, for the further Period of Two Years, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Recited Act of 2 & 3 Vict. to continue in force for a further Period of Two Years.

II. And be it enacted, That if Information upon Oath shall be given to any Justice of the Peace in Ireland, that there is Cause for believing that any Society or Societies within the Meaning of the said recited Acts or any of them is or are held, or is or are about to be held, or that any Persons are met or assembled, or are about to meet or assemble, for treasonable or seditious Purposes or Objects, or for the Discussion of treasonable or seditious Purposes or Objects, in any House, Room, Building, or any other Place whatsoever, it shall be lawful for such Justice to issue his Warrant to any County Inspector, Sub-Inspector, or Head Constable, authorizing and empowering him to enter any such House, Room, Building, or other Place, and to stay or remain in such House, Room, Building, or other Place, for so long a Time as such County Inspector, Sub-Inspector, or Head Constable may think fit, and to seize all Books, Papers, and Writings, which shall appear to such County Inspector, Sub-Inspector, or Head Constable to be or to afford Evidence of the holding or of the Existence of any such Society or Societies, or of any treasonable or seditious Purposes or Objects, and all Arms and Ammunition of every Description whatsoever, that may be found in such House, Room, Building, or other Place, and to search all Parts of such House, Room, Building, or other Place for the Purpose of discovering the same; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such County Inspector, Sub-Inspector, or Head Constable, with such Constables and other Persons as he shall deem necessary for that Purpose, to enter such House, Room, Building, or other Place, and, if need be, to use Force for that Purpose, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to remain with such Constables and other Persons as aforesaid, in such House, Room, Building, or other Place for so long a Time as such County Inspector, Sub-Inspector, or Head Constable shall think fit, and to seize all such Books, Papers, and Writings, and all Arms and Ammunition of every Description whatsoever, that may be found in such House, Room, Building, or other Place, and to search all Parts of such House, Room, Building, or other Place for the Purpose of discovering the same.

Constables with Warrant may enter and search Houses, and seize Papers and Arms, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue in force from the passing thereof for Two Years, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Duration of Act.

CAP. XC.

An Act to regulate the Times of Payment of Rates and Taxes by Parliamentary Electors. [31st August 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make further Regulation as to the Payment of Rates and Taxes 'now necessary to be made in order to qualify Persons to be registered as Voters in the Election 'of Members of Parliament;' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine no Person shall be required, in order to entitle him to have his Name inserted in any List of Voters for any City, Town, or Borough in England, to have paid any Poor's Rates or Assessed Taxes, except such as shall have become payable from him previously to the Fifth Day of January in the same Year; and that no Person shall be entitled to be on any such List of Voters, unless the Poor's Rates and Assessed Taxes payable from him previously to the Fifth Day of January shall be paid on or before the Twentieth Day of July next following.

Time at which Rates and Taxes must be paid to entitle Parties to be on the List of Voters for Members of Parliament.

CAP. XCI.

An Act to make Provision for the Payment of Parish Debts, the Audit of Parochial and Union Accounts, and the Allowance of certain Charges therein. [31st August 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make some Provisions as to the Payment in certain Cases of Debts 'incurred by the Overseers of the Poor in Parishes after their Year of Office has expired:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if the Overseers of the Poor in any Parish shall lawfully, by virtue of their Office, contract any Debt on account of the Parish within Three Months prior to the Termination of their Year of Office, and the same shall not have been discharged by them before their Year of Office shall have determined, such Debt shall be payable by and recoverable from their immediate Successors in Office, and chargeable upon the Poor Rate of the said Parish, in like Manner as the same would have been payable and chargeable by such first-mentioned Overseers during their Year of Office; and if any such Debt shall have been contracted during their Year of Office, but more than Three Months prior to its Termination, the same shall be payable by and recoverable from their immediate Successors in Office, if the Rate-payers of the Parish in Vestry assembled, and the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in England, shall consent, but not otherwise.

If Overseers contract Debts within Three Months of Termination of their Year of Office, their immediate Successors shall discharge the same.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That where any Proceedings have been commenced or shall be hereafter carried on, for or on behalf of any Parish, in a Court of Law, regarding any Matter affecting for legal Proceedings.

Provision for Payment of Bills of Costs

affecting the Poor Rates of such Parish, it shall not be necessary that the Bill of Costs of the Solicitor or Attorney engaged therein shall be paid before the Termination of the Proceedings, but in any such Case the Amount of the Bill, when duly taxed, if otherwise chargeable against the Parish, shall be payable out of the Poor Rates within the Space of One Year next following the Termination of the Proceedings, but not afterwards, unless the Commissioners aforesaid shall by their Order authorize the Payment of the Costs and Expenses attending any such Proceedings by annual Instalments not exceeding Five, to commence from such Termination.

Parties who have advanced Money on behalf of Unions and Parishes to be reimbursed.

III. 'And whereas in many Cases Sums of Money expended by Officers or other Persons on behalf 'or for the Benefit of Unions and Parishes, without legal Authority, have not been allowed by the 'Auditors, though the Guardians of the Unions and the Rate-payers of the Parishes interested have 'been willing and desirous that such Sums should be paid out of the Funds of those Unions or Parishes 'respectively, and great Loss, in consequence of such Sums not being allowed, has been sustained by 'Individuals; and it is desirable that Power should be given for the Relief of such Persons, under 'certain Circumstances:' Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person, since the passing of the Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in England and Wales, and before the passing of this Act, have advanced or expended Money on behalf and for the Benefit of any Union or Parish, without having had due legal Authority for such Advance or Expenditure, and the same shall not have been allowed in the Accounts of the Union or of the Parish on behalf of which it has been expended or advanced, and the major Part of the Guardians of such Union or Parish, or the Rate-payers of such Parish in Vestry assembled, as the Case may be, shall express their Consent to the Reimbursement of such Sum of Money out of the Funds of the Union or Parish so interested, the Commissioners aforesaid may, if they think fit, by their Order authorize the Reimbursement of such Sum of Money by the Guardians of the Union or Parish, or the Overseers of the Parish, as the Case may require, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall deem most advisable, so however that if the same be not repaid at once it shall be repaid by equal annual Instalments not exceeding Five; and all Payments subsequently made in conformity with such Order, but not otherwise, shall be allowed by the Auditor in the Accounts of the Guardians, Overseers, or other Officers who shall make the Payment in obedience to such Order: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to authorize the Repayment of any Sum of Money which has been paid on any other Account than that of the Relief of the Poor, or in respect of some Matter chargeable upon or connected with the Poor Rate.

4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76.

Appeal against Disallowances, &c. may be determined by the Poor Law Board on the Merits, and such Disallowances, &c. may be remitted.

IV. And be it enacted, That where any Appeal shall be made to the said Commissioners against any Allowance, Disallowance, or Surcharge made by any Auditor in the Accounts of any Guardians, Overseers, or their Officers, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to decide the same according to the Merits of the Case; and if they shall find that any Disallowance or Surcharge shall have been or shall be lawfully made, but that the Subject Matter thereof was incurred under such Circumstances as make it fair and equitable that the Disallowance or Surcharge should be remitted, they may, by an Order under their Seal, direct that the same shall be remitted, upon Payment of the Costs, if any, which may have been incurred by the Auditor or other competent Authority in the enforcing of such Disallowance or Surcharge.

Mode of certifying as to Balances to Officers.

V. 'And whereas Doubts exist as to the Powers and Duties of Auditors in certifying the Sums due 'from the Overseers and other Officers, and it is desirable to remove such Doubts:' Be it therefore enacted, That where any Overseer or Officer shall be continuing in Office at the Time when the Accounts are audited, the Auditor shall certify as due such Sums of Money only as shall be disallowed or surcharged by him in the Accounts so audited; but where the Term of Office of such Overseer or Officer shall have expired at the Time when the Accounts are audited, he shall ascertain the Balance which he shall find to be then due on the Accounts so audited, together with the Sums (if any) which he shall have disallowed or surcharged, and shall give Credit for all Sums which shall be proved before him to have been paid in respect of such Balance to the succeeding Overseers or Officers, or otherwise lawfully applied on behalf of the Parish or Union interested therein, before the Date of his Audit, and he shall certify, report, and recover, in the Manner provided by Law, the Balance remaining due after such Credit shall have been given; and every Certificate made by any Auditor, if made according to the Forms set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, or to the like Effect, shall be deemed to be sufficient: Provided always, that where the Sum, or the Aggregate of the Sums, disallowed by the Auditor in the Account of any Officer, shall not amount to Forty Shillings, the same may be paid over with the Balance due from such Officer, instead of being paid to the Treasurer.

Sums paid by Overseers to Constables, &c. by Order of Justices under 18 G. 3. c. 19. or 5 & 6 Vict. c. 109. not to be disallowed by Auditors.

VI. And be it enacted, That where any Money shall have been paid by an Overseer to a Constable, Headborough, Tithingman, or other Peace Officer, in obedience to any Authority in Writing purporting to be an Order of a Justice made according to the Provision of the Act passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Third, for the Payment of the Charges of Constables in certain Cases, or an Order of Justices in Petty Sessions assembled, purporting to be made in conformity with the Provisions contained in the Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, for the Appointment and Payment of Parish Constables, it shall not be disallowed by any Auditor or other Authority competent to examine, allow, and disallow the Accounts of Overseers, on any Ground whatsoever.

Notice of Audit to be advertised.

VII. And be it enacted, That in addition to the Notices now required by Law to be given by the Auditor, he shall also give Notice by Advertisement in some Newspaper circulating in the County wherein the Union or the greater Part of it, or, in the Case of a Parish not comprised in a Union, wherein wherein such Parish shall be situated, a reasonable Time prior to the holding of his Audit; and the Production of a Copy of such Newspaper shall in all Courts and for all Purposes be deemed sufficient Evidence of the Notice of the Audit; and, except where a Party, not being an Officer bound to account to the Auditor, shall be surcharged by such Auditor, it shall not be necessary to prove that the Audit of any Accounts was adjourned, and that Notice of any such adjourned Audit was given.

As to Proceedings necessary to be taken against Persons now liable to be surcharged by Auditor, and to whom no Notice is required to be given.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if an Auditor shall see Cause to surcharge any Person now liable by Law to be surcharged by him, and to whom no Notice is now required by Law to be given, with any Sum of Money in reference to any Payment considered by him to have been illegally or improperly made, he shall, if the Person be not present at such Audit, cause Notice in Writing of his Intention to make such Surcharge to be given, by Post or otherwise, to the Person against whom he shall propose to make this Surcharge, addressed to him at his last known Place of Abode, and shall adjourn the Audit, so far as it shall relate to such particular Matter, for a sufficient Time to allow of such Person appearing before him, and showing Cause against such Surcharge, and at such Time the said Auditor shall hear the Party, if present, and determine according to the Law and Justice of the Case.

What shall be required to be proved by Auditors in order to recover Sums certified by them to be due.

IX. And be it enacted, That in any Proceedings to be taken by an Auditor, or by his Attorney, before Justices, to recover Sums certified by him to be due, it shall be sufficient for him to produce a Certificate of his Appointment under the Seal of the Poor Law Commissioners, or of the Commissioners aforesaid, and to state and prove that the Audit was held, that the Certificate was made in the Book of Account of the Union or Parish to which the same relates, and that the Sum certified to be due had not been paid to the Treasurer of the Guardians of the Union or of the Parish, as the Case may require, within Seven Days after the same had been so certified, nor within Three clear Days before the laying of the Information, of which Nonpayment a Certificate in Writing purporting to be signed by the Treasurer, shall be sufficient Proof on the Part of the Auditor; and if at the Hearing of such Information it shall be proved that the said Sum had been paid to the Treasurer subsequently to the Date of such last-mentioned Certificate, the Costs incurred by such Auditor shall be paid by the Party against whom the Information shall be laid, unless he prove that Notice of such Payment had been given to the Auditor Twenty-four Hours at least prior to the laying of the Information.

Auditor may, upon Cause being shown, appoint a Deputy.

X. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may at any Time, upon sufficient Cause being shown to them, authorize any Person, selected by the Auditor, to act temporarily as his Deputy, and shall communicate to the several Unions and Places forming his District the Name of the Person so appointed to act as his Deputy, and such Person shall thereupon be empowered to act in all respects, and with the same Authorities, and subject to the same Duties and Liabilities, as the Auditor himself is entitled or subject to.

Power for Parishes, with Consent of Vestries, mutually to bear the Costs of several Appeals involving the same common Principle.

XI. And be it enacted, That where Appeals are brought at the same Time against the Poor Rates of several Parishes, which may appear to involve some common Principle, it shall be lawful for the Overseers or other Authorities therein, with the Consent of the respective Vestries of such Parishes, to enter into an Agreement, to be approved of by the said Commissioners, mutually to bear the Costs which may be properly incurred in and about the Trial of such Appeals on the Part of the several Respondents, as well as Costs of the Appellants, if any, which may be awarded against the Respondents, in such Proportions as shall be fixed and determined with reference to the Amount of Interest of the several Parishes in the Question, or otherwise as shall appear just; and the said Agreement shall continue binding upon the several Parishes and their respective Overseers in succession until the several Appeals shall have been finally determined.

Power for Guardians of Parishes, &c. under Local Acts to grant Out-door Relief, in the same Manner as in Unions formed under 4&5 W.4. c.76.

XII. 'And whereas in certain Parishes and Unions wherein the Relief of the Poor is administered by 'Guardians or other competent Authorities under the Provisions of particular Statutes or Local Acts 'applicable thereto Doubts have been entertained whether any poor Person can be relieved by such 'Guardians or other Authorities out of the Workhouses belonging to such Parishes and Unions respectively, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts, and to give Authority for such Relief out of the 'Workhouse:' Be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Relief of the Poor is administered in any Parish or Union under the Provisions of any Local Act it shall be lawful for the Guardians or other competent Authority administering the Relief to the Poor in any such Parish or Union, if they think fit, to administer such Relief in all respects in like Manner and with the like Powers and Authorities as any Board of Guardians of a Union formed under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, aforesaid, is now or shall hereafter be authorized to do; and all Relief heretofore granted by such Guardians or other Authority shall, if otherwise lawfully granted, be held lawful for all Purposes, although the same shall have been granted out of the Workhouse of such Parish or Union, as the Case may be, and the Costs and Charges thereof shall not be disallowed by any Auditor, Justice, or other competent Authority in that Behalf, on the Ground that the same was granted out of the Workhouse: Provided always, that the Cost of all such Relief so given or to be given shall be charged among the Parishes in the same Union in like Manner and in like Proportion as the Relief heretofore or hereafter to be given in the Workhouse of such Parish or Union is now or shall hereafter be chargeable.

Interpretation of Act.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the several Words used in this Act shall be construed in the Manner prescribed by the said herein-before recited Act, and the Acts explaining and extending it.

CAP. XCII.

An Act for the Protection and Improvement of the Salmon, Trout, and other Inland Fisheries of Ireland. [31st August 1848.]

5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries: And whereas the same was amended by an Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her said Majesty, and further amended by an Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years and by an Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her said Majesty: And whereas by reason of the Want of Co-operation among the several Parties exercising the Rights of Salmon and Trout Fishing, and the Extent of the common or public Rights of such Fishing on the Sea Coast and in the Estuaries and Rivers of Ireland, and the varied and conflicting Interests involved therein, Measures have not been taken for the due Protection of these Fisheries, and the Enforcement of the Law in respect of the same; and it is expedient, with a view to the Increase and Improvement of the said Fisheries, to make Provision for more effectually carrying out the Provisions of the said Acts: And whereas it is expedient that Funds should be provided for defraying the Cost of such additional Protection, and it is just and right that the same should be levied from the Persons for the Time being using any Engine or Device whatsoever for the Capture of such Fish:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, as Commissioners of Fisheries, together with the Inspecting Commissioners of Fisheries herein-after mentioned, shall be Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; and shall for the Purposes of this Act and the said recited Acts have and use all the Powers, Privileges, and Authorities vested in the Commissioners for the Execution of the said Acts; and the said recited Acts and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland to be Commissioners under this Act.

Construction of Acts.

Two existing Inspectors of Fisheries to be Inspecting Commissioners.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Two existing Inspectors of Fisheries appointed under the Provisions of the said recited Acts shall be denominated and shall, during the Pleasure of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, be Inspecting Commissioners of Fisheries, and shall be associated with the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the Time being, and with them be Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act; and in the Case of any Vacancy in the Office of the said Inspecting Commissioners, or either of them, by Death, Resignation, or Dismissal, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from Time to Time to appoint, during their Pleasure, in the Room of each such Inspecting Commissioner so dying, resigning, or being dismissed, another Inspecting Commissioner of Fisheries, who shall be associated with the said Commissioners of Public Works in like Manner; and the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall be empowered from Time to Time to fix such Salaries for any such Inspecting Commissioners as they shall think fit; and such Inspecting Commissioners of Fisheries shall and may, for the Purposes of the said recited Acts and this Act, have, use, and exercise all and every the like Powers and Authorities and have like Privileges as are by the said recited Acts or any of them vested in or given to the said Commissioners of Public Works, or any of them, as Commissioners of Fisheries; and all and every the Powers and Authorities in and by the said recited Acts and this Act given to or vested in the said Commissioners of Public Works, or which under the Provisions of this Act may be used by or be vested in such Inspecting Commissioners of Fisheries, may be exercised by the said Commissioners of Public Works, or by such Inspecting Commissioners of Fisheries, or by any one or more of them.

Commissioners for executing this Act to divide Ireland into Districts for

III. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall, before the End of this present Year, or at any Time afterwards, as they may find it expedient, divide Ireland and the Sea Coast and Islands thereof into Districts for the Purposes of this Act, and shall cause the said Districts to be defined and described by suitable Notices and Maps to be published for that Purpose; and and each such District shall be so formed as to embrace One or more River or Rivers, or Lake or Lakes, with the Tributaries thereof, which are frequented by Salmon, Trout, or Pollen, or Fish of the Salmon Kind, or Eels, together with such Portions of the Sea Coast and Islands adjacent thereto as shall be described by such Maps; and the said Commissioners shall subdivide each such District into Two or more Electoral Divisions, to be called the Upper or Fresh Water and Lower or Tidal Electoral Divisions of such Districts, and upon the Maps aforesaid the said Commissioners shall cause to be delineated the Limits and Boundaries of such Electoral Divisions as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time, if it shall appear to them expedient or necessary so to do, to alter any such District or Electoral Division and fix other Boundaries for the same, duly publishing and describing the same as herein-before provided. the Purposes of this Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That for each such District as aforesaid Conservators of Fisheries shall be annually elected and appointed as herein-after provided. Conservators of Fisheries to be annuallyelected.

V. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall be authorized and empowered to determine and declare the Number of Conservators, not less than Three nor more than Nine, which shall be elected and returned from each such Electoral Division to represent the same, and the Persons so to be returned for each Electoral Division shall be the elected Conservators of Fisheries for the District until the next annual Election. Commissioners to prescribe Number of Conservators to be elected.

VI. And be it enacted, That if in any District One or more Persons shall possess a several or exclusive Fishery or Fisheries therein, as Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, valued under the Acts for the more effectual Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland at One hundred Pounds yearly or upwards, he or they shall be entitled to sit with the elected Conservators for such District, and shall be deemed ex officio a Conservator or Conservators for the same, so long as he or they shall possess such Fishery or Fisheries, and shall have a Vote in all Matters, and shall have all the Powers and Privileges under this Act which the said elected Conservators may individually possess: Provided always, that where a Fishery so rated shall be held by several Persons as Owners, Lessees, or Occupiers, One Person alone shall sit and act as a Conservator as aforesaid in respect of such Fishery. Owners of several Fisheries of a certain Value to be Conservators in like Manner as elected Conservators.

VII. And be it enacted, That the elected Conservators shall be elected annually by the Persons who shall have paid Licence Duty and been licensed within each Electoral Division of a District in the current Year, under the Provisions of this Act, in the Manner herein-after mentioned. Conservators to be chosen by Persons paying Licence.

VIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, all Engines, Nets, Instruments, or Devices whatsoever used for the taking of Salmon, Trout, Pollen, or Fish of the Salmon and Trout Kind, or for the taking of Eels, and all fixed Salmon, Trout, or Eel Fisheries within any District, or on or off the Sea Coast thereof, shall, except as herein-after provided, before the same be used in the said Year or any subsequent Year, be duly licensed and rated in the Manner herein-after prescribed, upon Payment of the Licence Duty or Rate, as the Case may be, herein-after provided. All Engines, Nets, &c. for Salmon and Trout Fishing, &c. to be licensed and pay an annual Duty.

IX. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall have paid Licence Duty under this Act, within and for any such Electoral Division within any Year, shall be entitled to vote at the Election of the Conservators to be chosen for such Division held for such current Year, either in Person or by Proxy, according to such Regulations and Forms for the Election as shall be fixed and directed by the Commissioners before mentioned, such Proxy being a qualified Elector, and shall be entitled to have a Vote or Votes thereat according to the following Scale; (that is to say,) if the Licence Duty so paid by such Person shall not amount to Two Pounds One Vote; if the same shall amount to Two Pounds, and not to Five Pounds, Two Votes; and if the same shall amount to Five Pounds, and not to Ten Pounds, Three Votes; and if the same shall exceed Ten Pounds, Four Votes. Persons who have paid Licence Duty entitled to vote for Conservators. Votes to be cumulative.

X. And be it enacted, That, for the Purposes of the First Meetings in each and every Electoral Division under this Act for the Election of Conservators as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall fix and determine the Scale of Licence Duties and Rates to be paid as aforesaid in respect of all Engines, Nets, Instruments, or Devices whatsoever used for the taking of Salmon, Trout, Pollen, or Fish of the Salmon or Trout Kind, and for the taking of Eels, and for all fixed Salmon, Trout, or Eel Fisheries within each District, or on or off the Sea Coast thereof, and shall give public Notice of the same within each Electoral Division, and such Scale of Licence Duties and Rates shall remain in force until the same shall be altered under the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that such Licence Duties and Rates respectively shall not exceed the Amount of the respective Licence Duties and Rates specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed. Commissioners for Purposes of first Elections to fix and publish the Scale of Licence Duties and Rates for each District.

XI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall appoint the Places and Times at which all Persons who shall have paid the Licence Duty as herein provided in each Electoral Division of each District for the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine shall assemble in the Month of July in that Year, the Commissioners giving Two Weeks Notice thereof by Hand-bills and Advertisements in Two or more Newspapers circulating in such District; and all Persons who shall have paid any such Licence Duty for such Year within such Electoral Division shall be entitled to vote at such respective Meeting, and shall choose a Chairman to preside thereat: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any One or more of them, to attend and preside at any such first Meeting, instead of such Chairman. First Meetings of Persons paying Licence Duty for the Election of Conservators to be called by Commissioners. Commissioners may preside.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Persons so assembled in each Electoral Division at such first Meetings, and at all annual Meetings for such Elections, and who shall be qualified to vote under this Act, shall have Power to elect the appointed Number of Persons as herein provided to represent them as Conservators Persons assembled at such first Meetings and at future annual Meetings to elect Conservators of Fisheries for the Year.

Conservators of the Fisheries for the ensuing Year; and it shall and may be lawful for the Chairman as aforesaid, or the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, to receive the Votes of the Persons so assembled as aforesaid, and to declare the Persons who shall have received the greater Number of Votes to be the elected Conservators as aforesaid; and the Chairman of such Meeting, or the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, shall certify under his or their Hand the Election of each Conservator, and furnish him with a Certificate, which shall be sufficient Authority for him to act as such Conservator as herein provided, and shall also within Four Days after such Election cause a List of such Conservators, with a Statement of the Residence and Post Town of each, to be transmitted to the Office of the said Commissioners; and the Persons so elected for each Electoral Division of a District shall conjointly form, with any such ex-officio Conservators as aforesaid, a Board of Conservators of Fisheries for such District, until the Formation of a new Board in like Manner in the ensuing Year, and so in like Manner in each succeeding Year.

Power to Boards of Conservators, after the Year 1849, to alter and fix, subject to Approval of Commissioners, the Licence Duty and Rates.

XIII. And be it enacted, That after the first Board of Conservators of Fisheries for any District shall have been formed, the Board of Conservators for each such District shall be and are hereby empowered from Time to Time, as they shall think fit, to fix and determine, subject to the Approval of the Commissioners, the Amount of Licence Duty to be paid for each Year after the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine for every Engine, Net, Instrument, Weir, or Device, set forth in the Schedule to this Act, used for the taking of Salmon, Trout, Pollen, or Fish of the Salmon Kind, and for the taking of Eels, within each such District, or on or off the Sea Coast thereof, and for every Engine, Net, Instrument, Weir, or Device for any such Purpose which may be proposed to be used, and which is not enumerated in the said Schedule; and the Board of Conservators are hereby also empowered to fix and determine, subject to the Approval of the Commissioners from Time to Time, the Rate per Centum to be paid for each Year after the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, upon the Poor Law Valuation, in the Cases of fixed and established Salmon, Trout, or Eel Fisheries, which are designated Several Fisheries, as herein-before mentioned, within each District, or on or off the Sea Coast thereof: Provided always, that no Licence Duty or Rate to be fixed by the said Conservators shall exceed the respective Amount of Duty specified in the said Schedule, or the Rate of Ten per Centum on the Poor Law Valuation of established or Several Fisheries; and that any Alteration in the same so to be made shall commence and have effect on and from the First Day of January in the then succeeding Year.

Board of Conservators to fix Times and Places of Meetings.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Board of Conservators of each District shall from Time to Time fix and determine and duly publish Notice of the Times and Places for the General Meetings of such Board, and also the Times and Places for the then next Annual Meetings of Electors in each Electoral Division for the Election of Conservators for the same.

In case of Failure of any Electoral Divisions to elect, other Divisions may act.

XV. And be it enacted, That if the Persons entitled to meet and elect such Representatives or Conservators in any One or more Electoral Division or Divisions of a District shall fail or neglect for any Year so to do, the Representatives or Conservators of any other One or more Electoral Division or Divisions of such District for which Conservators shall have been elected shall be empowered, nevertheless, to act in all Matters and Things relating to such District under the Provisions of this Act.

On Failure of Election former Board to act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if no One Electoral Division in a District shall in any Year elect Conservators as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the previously existing Board of Conservators for such District to continue to act as, and to all Intents and Purposes they shall be, Conservators for such District for that Year.

Quorum of Boards of Conservators.

Chairman to have a casting Vote.

XVII. And be it enacted, That, for the Purposes of this Act, at all District Meetings of the Board of Conservators, Three of the Persons entitled and empowered to act and vote thereat, as herein-before provided, shall form a Quorum, and all Matters and Things shall be determined and decided by the Majority of such Persons so assembled; and if on any Matters upon which a Difference may arise the Votes shall be equal, the Chairman shall, in addition to his original Vote, be entitled to give a casting Vote.

How Meetings of Board of Conservators are to be called.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any such Board of Conservators assembled at a District Meeting to fix Time and Place for holding a General Annual Meeting, and hold adjourned Meetings; and it shall be lawful for any Three Conservators from Time to Time to call Special Meetings, provided that Notice of the Place and Time of each such Special Meeting, subscribed by Three or more Conservators, or by the Clerk of the Board, on their Requisition to him, shall be inserted at least Twice in some Two Newspapers circulating in the County or Counties in which such District shall be situate, at least Ten Days before such Meeting shall be held, or that the Clerk of such Board shall, on such Requisition as aforesaid, give Ten Days Notice in Writing of such Meetings to each Conservator entitled to act within such District.

Board of Conservators at the Annual Meetings to nominate Treasurer, Clerk, Inspectors, and Water Bailiffs.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Board of Conservators for each such District, at the Annual General Meeting or some other Meeting specially appointed by them before the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundered and forty-nine, and in each subsequent Year, at any Time when it may be necessary or expedient, to nominate and appoint a Clerk or Clerks, with reasonable Salary or Salaries, as the said Board may think necessary, and to appoint some Bank to act as Treasurer or Treasurers of such Board, and also to appoint as many Inspectors and Water Bailiffs as may be necessary, with reasonable Salaries, but only to the Extent which the Funds at their Disposal will admit of, for the Protection of the Fisheries in the District, and for generally enforcing the Fishery Laws within the same: Provided always, that no elected or other Conservator shall be eligible to hold any Appointment under this Act from which any Salary or Emolument shall be derived; and it shall be lawful for the Board of Conservators from Time to Time to remove any such Clerks, Inspectors, or Water Bailiffs, and to nominate others in their Stead.

Conservators may apply Funds of District towards providing Passes for Fish through natural and artificial Obstructions.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Board of Conservators of any District shall be and are hereby empowered to apply from Time to Time any Portion of the Funds in the Hands of the Treasurers to the Credit of such District which they may think fit, for the Purpose of making Passes in or over Weirs, or removing or making Passes in or over natural Obstructions in any River in such District, subject to the Sanction of the said Commissioners, under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign; and upon obtaining the Sanction of the said Commissioners it shall be lawful for the said Board of Conservators to place to the Credit of the said Commissioners such Sum of Money as shall have been for that Purpose approved and sanctioned by them, and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners thereupon, as they shall think fit, to construct such Works and make such Alterations in the Bed of any River as shall effectually secure a free and uninterrupted Passage for Fish, or to direct and cause such Alterations to be made in any Weir, Dam, or Dyke erected in or across any River frequented by Salmon, for affording a free and uninterrupted Passage for Fish, pursuant to the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign.

For Engines, Nets, &c. not enumerated in Schedule, Licences, before the Formation of Boards, to be fixed by Commissioners, afterwards by the Board of Conservators.

XXI. And be it enacted, That for any Engine, Instrument, Net, Weir, or Device whatsoever not enumerated in the Schedule to this Act, and which may be proposed to be used for fishing for Salmon, Trout, Pollen, or Fish of the Salmon or Trout Kind, or for Eels, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners at any Time before a Board of Conservators shall be formed, and after the Formation of such Board it shall be lawful for such Board of Conservators for the District, as the Case may be, to fix and determine the Licence Duty on Payment of which the same may be used in such District, regard being had, as far as practicable, to the relative Capability of Capture and Productiveness of the same, as compared with those set forth in the said Schedule, and the relative Proportion of the Duties therein set forth: Provided always, that the Party proposing to use any such Engine, Instrument, Net, Weir, or Device not enumerated in such Schedule shall previously give Notice to some Constabulary or Coast Guard Officer of the District, or to some Inspector appointed under this Act, of his Intention to use the same, who shall and is hereby required to forward to the said Commissioners or the said Conservators, as the Case may be, a Description thereof, as to its relative Capability of Capture as compared with the Engines, Instruments, Nets, Weirs, or Devices set forth in the said Schedule, and shall furnish the Name by which it shall be designated, upon which the Commissioners or the said Conservators, as the Case may be, may authorize the Use of the same, upon Payment of the Licence Duty which they may fix, and cause the same to be inserted in the Schedule of Licences for the said District: Provided always, that Rods used singly for taking Trout, Perch, Pike, or other Fish, save and except Salmon, shall not be subject to any Licence Duty under this Act: Provided also, that if any Person using a Rod shall, under Pretence or otherwise of fishing for Trout, Perch, Pike, or other Fish, take or kill Salmon with such Rod, such Person shall be subject to a Penalty of the like Amount as the Licence Duty for the Time being payable for a Salmon Rod, and the same shall be recoverable before a Justice or Justices in like Manner as other Penalties under the said recited Acts or this Act: Provided also, that all Cross Lines used with a Rod or Rods for taking Fish of any Kind whatsoever shall be subject to the Licence Duty payable under this Act for the Time being upon Cross Lines and Rods, until the same shall be altered as herein provided.

Saving as to Rods not used for Salmon.

Penalty on using Engines, Nets, &c. without Licence.

Forfeitures to be applied to the Funds of the District.

Recovery of Forfeitures and Penalties.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall use or erect any Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device whatsoever, subjected to Licence Duty as aforesaid, for the taking of Salmon, Trout, Pollen, or Fish of the Salmon or Trout Kind, or Eels, or by any Means fish within any fixed Salmon, Trout, or Eel Fishery in any Year, without the same respectively being duly licensed for such Year under the Provisions of this Act, every such Engine, Net, Instrument, and Devices, and such Means of Fishing, shall be forfeited and sold, or otherwise disposed of as the Justice or Justices shall deem fit, and the entire Proceeds thereof shall be added to the general Funds of the District constituted under this Act in which the same shall be erected or used; and any Person erecting or using the same shall be liable to pay such Penalty, not less than Half nor exceeding the Whole of the Licence Duty at which under this Act the Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device he shall have been so using or erecting would for the Time being be subject to under this Act, as such Justice or Justices shall think fit; such Forfeitures and Penalties to be proceeded for and recovered under the Warrant of such Justice or Justices, in the Manner and subject to the Regulations in the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign provided as to the Recovery of Forfeitures and Penalties thereunder.

All Several Fisheries to be subject to an annual Rate according to Valuation.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of fixed and established Salmon, Trout, or Eel Fisheries which under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act are designated "Several Fisheries," or are now or may hereafter be claimed or possessed or used as Several Fisheries, whether the same be fished by means of Weirs extending entirely or partly across Rivers or Estuaries, with Boxes, Baskets, or Cruives, or be fished by means of existing natural or artificial Obstruction stopping the Fish, or by Draft, Pole, Loop, or other Nets, or by Rod and Line, or by any other Means or Device whatsoever, the Persons using, occupying, or holding such Fisheries, whether such Occupation and holding shall be by Lease, Demise, Agreement, or Tenancy at Will, or in Fee Simple, Fee Tail, or for Life, shall in each Year pay as an annual Rate, in Two equal half-yearly Gales, on the First Day of February and the First Day of July, in every Year after the passing of this Act, such Sum in addition to the Licence Duty by this Act provided to be paid for the Engines, Instruments, Nets, or Devices erected or used in fishing such Fishery, as shall be equal to the Amount of the Difference between the Sums paid by such respective Persons for such Licence Duty or Duties as aforesaid, and the annual Sum of Ten per Centum upon the Poor Law Valuation of such Fishery, subject to such Alteration of such Per-centage as may from Time to Time be made by the Board of Conservators of the District under the Provisions of this Act.

Last-mentioned Rate recoverable before Justices as Wages, or by Civil Bill, or by Action.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That any such last-mentioned Rate may be recovered in a summary Way before any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, in like Manner as Wages, or by Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister of the respective County, or by Action in the Superior Courts, at the Suit of the said Commissioners, if no Board of Conservators of the District shall have been formed, or if such Board shall have been formed, then at the Suit of the Clerk of the said Board of Conservators, as the Case may be.

Valuation of such Fisheries.

XXV. And be it enacted, That in any Cases where any such Fisheries as last aforesaid may not be or have not been valued by the Persons appointed as Valuators for the Purposes of the Poor Laws in force in Ireland, the said Commissioners, on the Application of the Board of Conservators, may and are hereby empowered to call upon the Poor Law Commissioners of Ireland to cause the same to be valued separately and distinctly from other Property for the Purposes of this Act.

Collection of such annual Rate.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That such last-mentioned Rate shall be collected by such Persons as the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, at any Time before the Formation of a Board of Conservators for the District, or after the Formation of such Board, then as the said Board, as the Case may be, shall from Time to Time appoint, adequate Security being taken by the said Commissioners or the said Conservators, as the Case may be, from the Persons authorized to receive the same for the duly accounting for the same and for the due Performance of the Duties which the said Commissioners or the said Conservators, as the Case may be, may prescribe for them, and the Cost of any Allowance to be made for the Collection of the same shall be charged to the Expenses of the District for which the same shall be collected.

All Monies received for Licences, Rates, Penalties, &c. in each District to be lodged in the Bank, and applied to defray the Expenses of such District under this Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the total Amount of all Sums of Money received for all Licence Duties and Rates, and from the Sale of forfeited Engines, Nets, or Instruments as aforesaid, and from Penalties (save so much as shall be paid to any Informer as herein-after mentioned) under the Provisions of this Act, shall, until the Appointment of a Treasurer for each respective District as herein provided, be lodged in the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit of the said Commissioners, in the Matter of the District for which the same shall have been received, and shall be applied to the Purposes of such respective District as herein provided; and regular Accounts of the Receipts and Disbursements on account of each District shall be kept and furnished by the said Commissioners, until the Appointment of such Treasurer as aforesaid; and upon the Appointment of a Treasurer of each District respectively as herein provided, the Commissioners shall cause the Monies lodged in the Bank of Ireland in the Matter of such respective District to be transferred and lodged with all Accounts relating to such District to and with the respective Treasurer of such District, and thenceforth all Sums of Money received for Licence Duties and Rates, and for Forfeitures and Penalties, for each such District, shall be paid over by the Parties receiving the same to and received by such Treasurer of such District and be applied to the Purposes of such District under the Provisions of this Act; and such Treasurer shall pay such Sums of Money as shall be required for the Purposes of the District from Time to Time upon a Draft or Order signed by the Chairman at any General Meeting of the Board of Conservators and by Two other Conservators.

Form of Licences, &c.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That all Licences under this Act shall be prepared and printed in such Form as the said Commissioners shall prescribe or from Time to Time think necessary to adopt; and a separate Licence shall be issued for each separate Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device for taking Fish, and each Licence issued before the Formation of a Board of Conservators for the District shall be stamped with the Seal of the said Commissioners, and if issued after the Formation of such Board shall be stamped with the Seal of such Board, which Seal shall be provided for such Purpose: Provided always, that the Year for which such Licence shall issue, and a Name, Number, or Letter describing the District, and the Electoral Division for the Purposes of this Act in which the Licence shall be used, and the Name of the Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device for which the same shall be issued, shall be printed thereon in clear and legible Characters; and such Licence shall be only good and valid for the Year, District, and Purpose for which the same shall be issued, and for no other; and that any Party using or presenting the same for any other Year, District, or Purpose, or in any Manner altering or fraudulently counterfeiting the same, shall be liable to a Penalty, not less than the whole Amount of the Licence Duty for which the same shall have been issued, or which the Party so misusing or counterfeiting the same would be liable to under this Act, and not exceeding double the Amount of the same, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices before whom the Offence may be tried.

Penalty for misusing or counterfeiting the same.

Penalty on Persons using or having Engines, Nets, &c. not producing Licence when required.

Parties having them for Sale,

XXIX. And be it enacted, That any Person using any such Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device as aforesaid, or having the same erected or in fishing Order, or found with the same in his Possession, in or near any Fishing Place, or going to or returning from Fishing, shall and is hereby required to produce to any of the said Commissioners or any Officer of the said Commissioners, or any Conservator of the District, or any Inspector, Water Bailiff, or Officers, or Men of the Navy, Coast Guard, or Constabulary, when demanded, the Licence for the same, under and subject to like Penalties (in case of Failure) as in the last preceding Provision mentioned: Provided always, that such Parties as shall to the Satisfaction of the Justices or Justice be proved to have them in possession as Manufacturers or Sellers of the same, and not for the Purposes of using the same within the Year in which such Demand shall be made of them respectively, shall be exempt from any such Penalty. &c. exempt from Penalty.

and

XXX. And be it enacted, That such Licences as aforesaid under this Act shall be publicly sold either by licensed Stamp Distributors, or by such Persons and in such and so many Places throughout each District, as the said Commissioners before the Formation of a Board of Conservators for the District, or after the Formation of such Board, then as such Board of Conservators, as the Case may be, shall from Time to Time appoint, adequate Security being taken by the said Commissioners or the said Board of Conservators, as the Case may be, from the Persons authorized to sell the same, for duly accounting for the same and for the due Performance of their Duty; and the Cost for any Allowance to be made for the Sale of the same shall be charged to the Expenses of the District for which the same shall be issued: Provided always, that if any Person shall have paid a Licence Duty for a Rod within any District as aforesaid, such Person shall not be liable to pay an additional Sum for a Licence in any other District by reason only of angling with a Rod in any other District. Licences how sold.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That all Persons whosoever demanding to purchase any such Licences, and tendering to any Person so appointed to distribute the same the Amount of Licence Duty for the Time being to be paid under the Provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to receive the same without any Question or Objection whatsoever arising either from the Time when, the Purpose for which, or the Right in virtue of which he or they may desire to use such Licence, or on any other Grounds whatsoever: Provided always, that nothing herein contained with reference to the Possession of any such Licence, or the Payment of the Licence Duty or Rates under this Act, shall be construed to give or confer any Right of fishing or of using any Instrument or Device for taking Fish by any Means or in any Place which the Party having or using such Licence would not have possessed if this Act had not been passed, or to alter or affect the Rights of any other Persons. Licences to be sold to all Persons demanding to purchase, but not to give Rights not otherwise possessed; but not to alter Rights of Parties.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That all Persons whom the Commissioners or Board of Conservators, as the Case may be, shall appoint to sell Licences as aforesaid, shall furnish to the said Commissioners or Board of Conservators, as the Case may be, an Account of such Sales monthly, or so often as they may require, and shall set forth in such Accounts the Sums received for Licences for each particular Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device, the Names and Residences of the Persons who shall have purchased such Licences as aforesaid, and the District and Electoral Division of such District for which such Licences shall have been obtained. Account of Sales of Licences to be furnished.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Board of Conservators of each District shall take sufficient Security from any Clerk whom they may appoint, and any other Officer or Person having the Care or Custody of Money to be received by virtue of this Act, for the due Execution of the Duties of his respective Office, or for duly accounting for such Money, as the said Board of Conservators shall think proper; and such Clerks shall attend the stated and other Meetings of the said Board, and shall, in a proper Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, enter and keep a true Account of all the Monies to be received by virtue of this Act, and of the Application of the same, and of all the Acts, Proceedings, and Transactions of the said Board, by virtue of and under the Authority of this Act, and shall perform such other Duties as the said Board may direct; and every Conservator shall and may at all convenient Times have Access to and peruse and inspect the same, and each such Board are hereby empowered and required to cause their said Clerk to furnish to the said Commissioners annually, or as often as they may require, an Account of all Monies received and disbursed relating to each such District under the Authority of the Board of Conservators. Security to be given by the Clerk of the Conservators, and Duties to be performed by him and other Officers.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That such Inspectors and Water Bailiffs as shall be appointed under the Provisions of this Act shall have, for the Enforcement of the said recited Acts and this Act, the Powers of Constables, and all the Powers and Authorities conferred on Water Bailiffs, or Officers or Men of the Constabulary Force or Coast Guard, or Navy, under the said recited Acts, or any of them. Powers of Inspectors and Water Bailiffs.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures under this Act not hereinbefore provided for shall be recoverable in like Manner and subject to like Provisions as Penalties and Forfeitures under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, and one Moiety of every Sum of Money levied as a Fine or Penalty for any Offence under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or this Act (save and except Penalties for Nonpayment of any such Licence Duty as aforesaid) shall be paid to the Informer or Person who shall be the Means of bringing to Justice any Person offending against any of such Provisions, and the other Moiety shall (anything in the said recited Acts to the contrary notwithstanding) be applied to the Purposes of this Act for the District formed under this Act in which such Offence shall have been committed. How Fines and Penalties under recited Acts and this Act to be recovered and applied.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Appointment of Officers under this Act shall not be subject or liable to the Payment of any Stamp Duty. Appointment of Officers free from Duty.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to lessen or abridge the Powers conferred by the said recited Acts on the said Commissioners, or on any Inspectors, Water Bailiffs, Officers, and Men of the Navy, Coast Guard, or Constabulary, but the same shall remain and be in full Force and Effect for the Purposes of the said Acts, and for aiding the Officers, Inspectors, and Water Bailiffs to be appointed under this Act for enforcing the Provisions of the said Acts and this Act. Nothing herein to abridge the Powers of Commissioners, &c. under recited Acts.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall be empowered to attend any Meeting of any Board of Conservators, held under the Provisions of this Act, and to advise, consult, and confer with them upon the Regulation, Management, and Improvement of the Fisheries, and shall and may Commissioners may attend and advise at Meetings of Conservators.

may at all convenient Times have Access to and peruse, when they shall think fit, the Books and Accounts kept for the Purposes of any District under this Act.

Defining Powers of Commissioners to alter Close Seasons.

XXXIX. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign the said Commissioners are empowered, in manner in the said Act directed, to decide that the Period in the said Act appointed for the Close Time of the Fisheries therein mentioned respectively should cease, and that such other Period as should then be fixed upon by them as the Close Time for any of such Fisheries should be kept and observed in lieu thereof, or to alter, as therein mentioned, the Period within which it should not be lawful to hang any Coghill or other Nets in the Gaps, Eyes, or Sluices of Eel or other Weirs, or make use of fixed Engines for taking Eels, subject to the Provisions in the said Act contained: And whereas by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign so much of the said first-recited Act as specified the Close Time or Close Season in which no Fish of the Salmon Kind should be taken is repealed, and new Periods for the Close Time as to Fish of the Salmon Kind are by the said Act prescribed and substituted: And whereas Doubts may be entertained whether the Powers of the said Commissioners to alter the Close Time or Close Season as to such Fish of the Salmon Kind as aforesaid, under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act are still subsisting and unaffected by the Provisions of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign;' and for the Removal of such Doubts, be it enacted, That, notwithstanding anything in the last-mentioned Act contained, all the Powers and Authorities vested in the said Commissioners under the said first-recited Act relating to the altering the Close Time or Close Season for any such Fisheries in the said Act mentioned, and also for altering any Close Time or Close Season for any Estuary or Portion of the Sea Coast, or for any Tideways, or for any River or Lake above the Tideway or Portion thereof where the Tide ebbs and flows, prescribed and established by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, and may be used and exercised as to any of such Close Seasons in like Manner and subject to like Provisions as directed and contained in the said first-recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty's Reign: Provided always, that in case the said Commissioners shall decide upon altering any of such Close Seasons as aforesaid, such Change or Alteration shall commence and take effect at the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Date of the Publication of the said Decision in the Dublin Gazette, anything in the said first-recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case Commissioners alter Close Seasons, Notice to be given of same.

Alteration of Close Season in certain Rivers above Tideways.

XL. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign certain Periods are fixed as the Close Times or Close Seasons during which Fish of the Salmon Kind shall not be killed, destroyed, or taken, and, amongst other things, it is provided that (save as hereinafter mentioned, and save in the Counties of Antrim, Tyrone, Donegal, Londonderry, Mayo, Fermanagh, Leitrim, and Sligo,) no Fish of the Salmon Kind shall be killed, destroyed, or taken by any Person or by any Means whatsoever in or from any Part of any River or Lake above the Tideway, or Portion thereof where the Tide ebbs and flows, at any Time between the Fifteenth Day of September in each Year and the last Day of February in the Year following, both the said Days inclusive; provided always, that in any such Part of any River or Lake above the Tideway, or Portion thereof where the Tide ebbs or flows, no Fish of the Salmon Kind shall be killed, destroyed, or taken between the First and Fourteenth Days of the Month of September, both the said Days inclusive, by any Person by means of any Weir, Crib, Cruive, Box, Trap, Draw Net, Haul Net, Fixed Net, or other Net or Device whatsoever, save by Rods and Lines only: And whereas by means of the said Provisions the Open Time for fishing with Rods and Lines in the Portions of Rivers and Lakes above the Tideways is shorter by Fourteen Days than the Open Time for fishing in any Estuary or on the Sea Coast, or in the Tideway of any River or Lake: And whereas it is expedient and equitable to equalize the Periods of Open Time for Fishing with Rods and Lines:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, as regards all Parts of Ireland and the Sea Coast thereof (save the said Eight Counties and the Sea Coast thereof herein-before mentioned), the Close Time during which it shall not be lawful to kill, destroy, or take Fish of the Salmon Kind, in or from any Part of any River or Lake above the Tideway with Rods and Lines only, shall be between the Twenty-ninth Day of September in each Year and the last Day of February in the Year following, both the said Days inclusive, unless and until such Close Time shall be altered by the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act as herein-before mentioned.

Penalty for killing or taking Fish in or from Several Fisheries.

XLI. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons not being authorized by the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of a Several Fishery as defined under the first-recited Act shall enter into or upon such Several Fishery for the Purpose or under the Pretence of killing Fish therein or taking Fish therefrom, or shall kill Fish therein or take Fish therefrom, he or they shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not less than Ten Shillings nor more than Five Pounds, the same to be recoverable in a summary Way before a Justice or Justices, as provided by the said first-recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign.

Minimum of Penalties in certain Cases.

XLII. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, in the Section of the said Act numbered Thirty-six in the Copies thereof printed by the Queen's Printers, it is provided, that the several Persons who shall commit any of the Offences in the said Section mentioned shall forfeit and pay any Sums not exceeding the several and respective Sums in the said Section mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that a minimum Penalty should be specified in each such Case:' Be it therefore enacted, That every Person who shall commit any of the Offences in the said Section of the said Act specified shall (in addition to any other Forfeiture thereby specified) forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding the Sum for such Offence respectively specified in the said Section of the said Act, and not less in any Case than the Sum of Ten Shillings: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to legalize any Fishery or Weir not being legal at the Time of the passing of this Act.

Act may be amended, &c

XLIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCIII.

An Act to confirm the Incorporation of certain Boroughs. [31st August 1848.]

'WHEREAS Charters of Incorporation have been lately granted to the Boroughs of Wolverhampton, Warrington, Wakefield, Ashton under Lyne, and Salford, to extend over certain Districts mentioned in such Charters respectively, and Doubts have arisen respecting the Validity of the said Charters: And whereas it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said several Charters of Incorporation, and all Elections, Acts, or Proceedings done or had in pursuance thereof, or by virtue of the same, before the passing of this Act, shall be deemed good and lawful from the Time of such several Grants, Elections, Acts, and Proceedings respectively, and that the Costs and Expenses of such Charters, Elections, Acts, and Proceedings respectively shall and may be levied by a Rate upon the Occupiers of all Buildings, Lands, and Hereditaments within the said several Boroughs.

Certain Proceedings in incorporated Boroughs before passing of this Act declared good and valid.

II. And be it enacted, That the Districts set forth in the said several Charters as those intended to be comprised in such Charters respectively shall be deemed and taken to be the Extent of such Municipal Boroughs respectively.

Districts named in Charters to be the Extent of Boroughs.

CAP. XCIV.

An Act to regulate certain Offices in the Petty Bag in the High Court of Chancery, the Practice of the Common-Law Side of that Court, and the Enrolment Office of the said Court. [31st August 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the Offices of the Clerks of the Petty Bag of the High Court of Chancery, the Practice of the Common-Law Side of that Court, and also the Enrolment Office of the said Court:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine the Offices of the said Senior, Second, and Third Clerks of the Petty Bag of

After 1st Jan. 1849 the Offices of the Senior,

Second, and Third Clerks abolished.

of the said High Court of Chancery shall be and the same are hereby abolished, and shall then cease and determine, without Prejudice nevertheless to the Rights and Remedies of the present Holder of any of the said Offices to receive or recover any Money which shall or may then be due or payable to him by virtue of his Office for Fees or otherwise.

Clerk of the Petty Bag to be appointed, who is to execute his Duties in Person, except in case of Sickness, &c., when he may appoint a Deputy, with Consent of the Master of the Rolls.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine there shall be an Officer of the said Court who shall be and be called the Clerk of the Petty Bag, and who shall execute and perform the Duties of his Office in Person, and not by Deputy: Provided always, that whenever the Clerk of the Petty Bag for the Time being, by reason of Sickness or other unavoidable Cause, shall be unable to perform the Duties of or shall have occasion to be absent from the Business of his Office, it shall be lawful for such Clerk, by any Writing under his Hand, with the Approbation of the Master of the Rolls, in Writing under his Hand, to appoint to be his Deputy such Person, and for such Time, to be limited in such Appointment and Approbation, as the Master of the Rolls shall or may approve of as fit and proper for that Purpose: Provided also, that whenever the said Clerk for the Time being shall from any Cause be unable to execute or perform or be absent from the Attendance upon the Duties of his Office, without having appointed or renewed the Appointment of a Deputy in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Master of the Rolls, by any Writing under his Hand, to appoint such Person to be and act as the Deputy of such Clerk during such Inability or Absence of the said Clerk for the Time being as the said Master of the Rolls shall think fit; and every Deputy appointed in manner aforesaid, and who shall accept of such Appointment shall during the Time for which he shall be appointed have and possess all and every of the same or the like Powers and Authorities as the Clerk of the said Petty Bag for the Time being, and shall perform and be subject to all and every of the like Duties and Regulations as the said Clerk for the Time being; and every Deputy appointed in manner aforesaid shall be paid such Sum out of the Salary of his Principal as the Master of the Rolls shall by any Writing under his Hand direct; and the Appointment and Approbation of every such Deputy as aforesaid shall be filed of Record, and preserved in the Office of the Petty Bag, or such other Office as the Master of the Rolls shall order or direct.

Appointment of First and other Clerks of Petty Bag, who are to hold Office during good Behaviour, and on Vacancy to be filled up by the Master of the Rolls.

III. And be it enacted, That Francis George Abbott shall be the First Clerk of the Petty Bag; and that whenever and so soon as any Vacancy shall occur in the Office of the said Francis George Abbott or any future Clerk of the Petty Bag, whether by Death, Resignation, Removal, or otherwise, the Master of the Rolls shall, by some Writing under his Hand, appoint some fit and proper Person to be Clerk of the Petty Bag, every Person so appointed being a Person who for the Space of Five Years has been an Attorney of One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law, or a Solicitor of the High Court of Chancery, and has during that Period actually practised as such Attorney or Solicitor, and for whose Appointment no pecuniary or other Consideration whatsoever shall be directly or indirectly paid, given, or received; and the said Francis George Abbott, and every qualified Person so appointed as aforesaid, shall hold his Office during good Behaviour, and shall or may be removed from his Office by the Master of the Rolls, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Chancellor, for such Misconduct or other Cause as by him shall be deemed sufficient to justify such Removal; and every such Appointment of a Clerk as aforesaid, and every Order for the Removal of a Clerk from his Office, shall be filed of Record in the said Office, or such other Office of the said Court as the said Master of the Rolls shall order or direct.

Clerk of the Petty Bag to perform all the Duties and be subject to all the Regulations of the Senior and other Clerks, but not to be an Attorney of the Court.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Petty Bag for the Time being appointed by or in pursuance of this Act shall have, possess, and exercise all and every of the Powers, Authorities, Rights, and Privileges which now are or heretofore have been held, possessed, or exercised by the said Senior, Second, and Third Clerks whose Offices are hereby abolished; and the said Clerk of the Petty Bag for the Time being shall also perform and be subject and liable to all and every of the Services, Duties, and Regulations which the said Senior, Second, and Third Clerks, or any of them, now are or but for the passing of this Act would be bound to perform or be subject or liable to: Provided always, that the said Clerk of the Petty Bag for the Time being shall not by virtue of his Office be an Attorney of the said Court, and shall not, directly or indirectly, by himself or together with any Partner, in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person, practise, be, or act as the Attorney, or the Agent of any Attorney, of any Person whomsoever, in, about, or for the Purpose of any Action, Suit, Writ, Proceeding, Matter, or Thing in the said Office of the Petty Bag, or upon or in the Common-Law Side of the said Court of Chancery.

Clerk of the Petty Bag not to act as Attorney or Solicitor.

V. And be it enacted, That no Person to be appointed to the Office of Clerk of the Petty Bag at any Time after the said Francis George Abbott shall have ceased to hold the said Office shall at any Time whilst he shall continue to hold the said Office, either directly or indirectly, by himself or together with any Partner or Person, in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person, practise or act as an Attorney or Solicitor, or as the Agent of the Attorney or Solicitor, in any Court of Law or Equity: Provided also, that in case the Salary payable to the said Francis George Abbott in pursuance of this Act shall at any Time hereafter be increased so as to amount to Eight hundred Pounds per Annum, then and in such Case the said Francis George Abbott shall not at any Time whilst he shall continue to hold the said Office, either directly or indirectly, by himself or together with any Partner or Person, or other Person, in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person, practise or act as an Attorney or Solicitor, or as the Agent of any Attorney or Solicitor, in any Court of Law or Equity.

Salary of Clerk of Petty Bag.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Clerk of the Petty Bag shall receive by way of Salary for performing the Duties of his Office the Sum of Six hundred Pounds per Annum, but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of all Salaries or Sums or Money by any Act or Acts in force directed or authorized authorized to be paid thereout, the said Salary to commence and be computed from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and be paid and payable quarterly, under Orders to be for that Purpose made by the Lord Chancellor: Provided always, that in case Parliament or the Lord Chancellor shall, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, at any Time or Times hereafter transfer to the said Office of the Petty Bag any further or other Portion of the Business of or in the said Court of Chancery, or shall assign any Business or Service for the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery to be done or transacted by the said Clerk of the Petty Bag, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor (if he shall think fit), with such Advice and Assistance as aforesaid, to order and direct that the Salary of the said Clerk of the Petty Bag shall be increased to such Amount, not exceeding Eight hundred Pounds per Annum, but subject as aforesaid, as the Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Assistance as aforesaid, shall think proper and reasonable, having due Regard to the whole of the Duties to be performed by such Clerk.

Clerk of Petty Bag may appoint such Clerks to assist him as the Master of the Rolls may direct, who shall be paid by Salary.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Petty Bag may appoint to assist him in the Business of his Office such Clerk or Clerks as the Master of the Rolls shall from Time to Time by any Order direct, and may from Time to Time remove any such Clerk, and fill up all Vacancies in the Office of such Clerks, whether occasioned by Death, Resignation, or Removal, and that every such Clerk shall be entitled under this Act to such Salary as the Lord Chancellor shall, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, by any Order direct; provided that if there shall be only One such Clerk his Salary shall not exceed the Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, and that if such Clerks shall be more than One at the same Time the Amount of such Salaries shall not in any One Year exceed the Sum which if equally divided between them would admit of a Salary of Two hundred and fifty Pounds for each such Clerk.

Salaries and Expenses to be paid out of the Suitors Fee Fund.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Salaries of the said Clerk of the Petty Bag, and of his Clerks or Assistants, together with the necessary and unavoidable Expenses of the Petty Bag Office, shall be paid and payable out of and be charged and chargeable upon the Fund standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, and intituled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account" (but subject as aforesaid).

Penalty on Officers for taking Gratuities, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That if any Officer or Clerk of the said Court, appointed or to be appointed under or by virtue of this Act, shall, for anything done or pretended to be done relating to his Office or Employment, or under colour of doing anything relating to his Office or Employment, or for forbearing to do any Act properly appertaining thereto, demand or accept, or allow any Person whatsoever to take for him or on his Account, or for or on account of or in trust for him, or any other Person named by him, any Gratuity, Perquisite, or Reward, or anything of Value other than and except the lawful Fees of his Office for which he is accountable, and the Salary or Remuneration allowed or to be allowed to such Officer or Clerk, it shall be lawful for the Master of the Rolls, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Chancellor, and he is hereby empowered and required, in every such Case, upon his being satisfied that any such Officer or Clerk charged with any such Offence is guilty thereof, to remove him from his Office or Employment; and every Person so removed shall be and he is hereby rendered incapable for ever thereafter of holding any Office, Situation, or Employment in any of the Courts of Law or Equity in the United Kingdom, or of otherwise serving Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in any Manner whatsoever; and every Order for removing any such Officer or Clerk as aforesaid shall be filed of Record in such Office as the Master of the Rolls shall order or direct.

Power to Lord Chancellor and Master of the Rolls to regulate the Transfer of Business from Time to Time.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls for the Time being, from Time to Time to transfer any of the Business heretofore done in the said Office of the Clerk of the Petty Bag to any other Office of the High Court of Chancery, and to transfer any Portion of the Business of any other Office of the High Court of Chancery to the Office of the Clerk of the Petty Bag, and thereupon the Officers respectively charged with the Duties of such Offices to which such Business shall be transferred shall do and perform the Duties consequent on such Transfer in like Manner as if the same had been theretofore performed in such Office to which the same shall be transferred, subject to such Regulations, as to the Payment of Fees and otherwise, as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, shall order or direct.

Seal of Office to be provided and kept, and may be cancelled or altered from Time to Time.

XI. And be it enacted, That a Seal shall be provided and kept for the said Court, which shall be and be called the Chancery Common-Law Seal, and such Seal shall be in such Form as the Lord High Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, shall or may from Time to Time order or direct; and the said Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Assistance as aforesaid, shall or may from Time to Time order or direct that any Seal for the Time being so provided or kept as aforesaid shall be cancelled or laid aside, and another Seal substituted, kept, and used in lieu thereof; and all Courts, Tribunals, Judges, Justices, Officers, and other Persons whomsoever shall take notice of the said Seal, and receive Impressions thereof in Evidence, in like Manner as Impressions of the Great Seal are received in Evidence, and shall also take notice of and receive in Evidence, without further Proof, all and every of such Writs, Proceedings, Instruments, Documents, and Writings whatsoever which shall purport or appear to be sealed or stamped with the said Chancery Common-Law Seal for the Time, in like Manner as if the same had been sealed with the Great Seal.

Copies of Documents sealed to be admissible in Evidence.

XII. And be it enacted, That every Document sealed with the said Chancery Common-Law Seal for the Time being, and purporting to be a Copy of any Record or other Document of any Description, shall be deemed to be a true Copy of such Record or other Document, and shall, without further Proof, be admissible sible and admitted and received in Evidence, as well before either House of Parliament as also before any Committee thereof, and also by and before all Courts, Tribunals, Judges, Justices, Officers, and other Persons whomsoever, in like Manner and to the same Extent and Effect as the original Record or other Document as would or might be admissible or admitted or received if tendered in Evidence, as well for the Purpose of proving the Contents of such Record or other Document, as also proving such Record or other Document to be a Record or Document of or belonging to the said Court of Chancery, but not further or otherwise.

Writs, &c. issued out of Petty Bag Office to be sealed with the Chancery Common-Law Seal.

XIII. And be it enacted, That all such Writs, Records, Instruments, Documents, Proceedings, and Writings such as are or have been usually issued or delivered out of the Petty Bag Office, and made under or sealed with the Great Seal, except Writs of Summons and Writs of Election issued on the calling of a new Parliament, and Writs of Restitution issued on the Appointments of Archbishops and Bishops, shall be made under or sealed or stamped with the said Chancery Common-Law Seal for the Time being; and every Writ, Record, Document, Instrument, Proceeding, and Writing which shall or may be made under or sealed or stamped with the said Chancery Common-Law Seal for the Time being shall be of the like Validity and shall have the same Force and Effect as if the same had been or were made or sealed with the Great Seal.

Specifications and Disclaimers enrolled under 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 83. to be enrolled in the Enrolment Office only.

XIV. And be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine every Specification or Instrument in Writing for describing or ascertaining any Invention, and to be enrolled in Chancery in pursuance of Letters Patent under the Great Seal, shall be enrolled in the Enrolment Office of the Court of Chancery; and every Disclaimer and Memorandum of Alteration to be enrolled in pursuance of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Law touching Letters Patent for Inventions, shall also be enrolled in the said Enrolment Office, whether the Specification of the Invention to which such Disclaimer or Memorandum of Alteration shall relate shall or shall not have been enrolled in the said Enrolment Office; and the Enrolment of every such Disclaimer and Memorandum of Alteration in the said Enrolment Office shall be and be deemed to be the Enrolment thereof in the proper Office, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act.

Seal as approved by Master of the Rolls to be provided for the Enrolment Office.

XV. 'And whereas it is expedient to facilitate the Proof of the due Enrolment of Specifications, 'Deeds, and other Instruments in the said Enrolment Office, and also of Copies of the Enrolments 'thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That such a Seal or Stamp as the Master of the Rolls shall approve of shall be provided and kept in the said Enrolment Office, and from Time to Time, when the Master of the Rolls shall think fit, a new Seal or Stamp shall be provided in place of any Seal or Stamp for the Time being kept and used in the said Office, and whenever any new Seal or Stamp shall be so provided the old Seal shall be forthwith cancelled; and the Seal for the Time being kept and used in the said Enrolment Office in pursuance of this Act shall be and be called the Seal of the Enrolment Office in Chancery, and all Courts and other Tribunals, Judges, Justices, Officers, and other Persons whomsoever, shall take notice of the said Seal of the Chancery Enrolment Office, and shall take notice of and receive in Evidence every Instrument and Writing purporting or appearing to be sealed or stamped therewith, without Proof that the same has been so sealed or stamped.

Certificates of Enrolment to be given, and, when sealed, shall be admitted as Evidence.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the said Enrolment Office, or his Deputy or Assistant, shall, upon Request, and Payment of the proper Fees payable in respect thereof, endorse or write upon every Specification, Instrument, and Document which at any Time heretofore has been or at any Time hereafter shall be enrolled in the said Enrolment Office, a Certificate that such Specification, Instrument, or Document has been or was enrolled in Chancery, and the Day on which such Enrolment was made, and shall cause such Certificate to be sealed or stamped with the said Seal of the Chancery Enrolment Office; and every such Certificate purporting or appearing to be so sealed or stamped shall be admitted and received in Evidence by all Courts and other Tribunals, Judges, Justices, and others, without further Proof, and as sufficient primâ facie Evidence that the Specification, Document, or Instrument therein mentioned was duly enrolled in the Court of Chancery on the Day and at the Time mentioned in such Certificate.

Copies of Enrolments stamped with Seal of Enrolment Office to be admitted in Evidence.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every Document or Writing sealed or stamped or purporting or appearing to be sealed or stamped with the said Seal of the Chancery Enrolment Office, and purporting to be a Copy of any Enrolment or other Record, or of any other Document or Writing of any Description whatsoever, including any Drawings, Maps, or Plans thereunto annexed or endorsed thereon, shall be deemed to be a true Copy of such Enrolment, Record, Document, or Writing, and of such Drawing, Map, or Plan (if any) thereunto annexed, and shall, without further Proof, be admissible and admitted in Evidence, as well before either House of Parliament as also before any Committee thereof, and also by and before all Courts, Tribunals, Judges, Justices, Officers, and other Persons whomsoever, in like Manner and to the same Extent and Effect as the original Enrolment, Record, Document, or Writing could or might be admissible or admitted in Evidence, as well for the Purpose of proving the Contents of such Enrolment, Record, Document, or Writing, and the Drawing, Map, or Plan (if any) thereunto annexed, as also proving such Enrolment, Record, Document, or Writing to be an Enrolment, Record, Document, or Writing of or belonging to the said Court of Chancery, and that such Enrolment, Record, Document or Writing was made, acknowledged, prepared, filed, or entered on the Day and at the Time when the original Enrolment, Record, Document, or Writing shall purport to have been made, acknowledged, prepared, filed, or entered.

XVIII. And

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit any Seal made, provided, used, or kept in pursuance of this Act for or in the said Court or any Office thereof, or shall falsely make or alter any Seal, so as to resemble, purport, or appear to be a Seal made, provided, used, or kept in pursuance of this Act or for or in the said Court or any Office thereof, or shall use or tender in Evidence or utter any Impression made by any Seal so falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered as aforesaid, knowing the same to have been so falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered as aforesaid, or shall forge or shall unlawfully and falsely make or alter any Writ, Record, Document, Instrument, Proceeding, or Writing of or belonging to or made or prepared in or issuing out of, or appearing or purporting to be of or belonging to or made or prepared in or issuing out of, any such Office as aforesaid, or out of the said Court of Chancery, or shall use or tender in Evidence or utter any Writ, Record, Document, Instrument, Proceeding, or Writing so unlawfully or falsely made or altered, as aforesaid, knowing the same to have been so unlawfully or falsely made or altered, or shall unlawfully and falsely seal or stamp with any Seal made, prepared, kept, or used for or in any of the said Offices, or for or in the said Court of Chancery, any Writ, Record, Document, Instrument, Proceeding, or Writing purporting or appearing to be or resembling, or intended to purport or appear to be or resemble, a Writ, Record, Document, Instrument, Proceeding, or Writing of or belonging to or made or prepared in or issuing out of any of the said Offices or the said Court of Chancery, or shall fraudulently use or tender in Evidence or utter any Writ, Record, Document, Instrument, Proceeding, or Writing so unlawfully or falsely sealed or stamped as aforesaid, then and in every such Case every Person so offending, and every Person knowingly and willingly aiding, abetting, or assisting any Person in committing any such Offence, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony. Punishment for forging or altering any Seal or Document.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, and he is hereby required, on or before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, to establish and ordain a Table of Fees to be thereafter taken by the said Clerk of the Petty Bag, and for the Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Assistance as aforesaid, from Time to Time afterwards to vary and modify the same as he shall think fit, and the Fees so for the Time being established or ordained shall be deemed and taken to be the lawful Fees of the Petty Bag Office: Provided always, that no Fees whatever shall be demanded or received by the Clerk of the Petty Bag, or by any Person employed by him in the said Office, for or in respect of any Act, Duty, or Service required to be done, performed, or rendered by him, them, or any of them in the course of any Proceedings carried on in the said Office directly at Her said Majesty's Instance, Suit, and Charge; and the said Clerk of the Petty Bag, and the several Persons employed by him in the said Office, are hereby authorized and required to perform and render such Acts, Duties, and Services as may be required in the course of such last-mentioned Proceedings, without Payment of any Fee whatsoever in respect thereof. Power to Lord Chancellor, &c. to fix a Table of Fees. No Fees to be taken in respect of Duties performed at Her Majesty's Suit.

XX. And be it enacted, That the said Clerk of the Petty Bag shall cause a true and accurate Account to be kept of all Fees received in his Office or by virtue thereof, and shall pay the full and just Amount of such Fees into the Bank of England, to be placed to the Account there standing in the Name of the Accountant General, intituled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," at such Times and under such Regulations as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, shall by any Order direct. Clerk of Petty Bag to keep Accounts of Fees received, and pay the same into the Suitors Fee Fund.

XXI. And be it enacted, That every Person who has heretofore been admitted a Solicitor of the said Court of Chancery, and who is now a Solicitor of the said Court, shall, by virtue of his Admission and this Act, become and be an Attorney of the said Court; and every Person hereafter to be admitted a Solicitor of the said Court shall be also admitted and become an Attorney of the said Court; and the Solicitor of Her Majesty, the Solicitor of each of the several public Boards of this Realm, and every Person so to become or be admitted an Attorney of the said Court as aforesaid, shall be allowed and entitled to practise as an Attorney on the Common-Law Side of the said Court of Chancery, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding, upon Payment, nevertheless, of such Fees as shall or may be payable in respect of the Business transacted by the said Attornies; and all such Documents, Proceedings, Writings, Acts, Duties, Services, Matters, and Things as before the passing of this Act were or ought to be prepared, conducted, done, or performed by the said Senior, Second, and Third Clerks of the Petty Bag respectively, as the Attornies of or for their Clients respectively, shall or may, from and after the said First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, be prepared, conducted, done, and performed by such Clients respectively in their own proper Persons, or by some Person who shall become or be admitted and actually be an Attorney of the said Court by virtue of this Act, and not by any other Person whomsoever. Solicitors to be entitled to practise as Attornies in the Common-Law Side of Chancery.

XXII. And be it enacted, That every Writ of any Description whatsoever hereafter to be issued out of the said Office of the Petty Bag shall or may be issued or tested on any Day, not being a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, whether such Day shall be in Term-Time or in Vacation; and every such Writ so issued or tested on any Day in Vacation, and which, according to any present Law or Usage or Practice of or in the said Court of Chancery, ought to be tested on some Day in Term-Time, shall be of the like Validity, Force, and Effect as if the Day of the issuing or testing of such Writ was actually a Day in Term-Time. Writs may be tested in Term-Time, or in Vacation.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That every Writ of any Description whatsoever hereafter to be issued out of the said Office of the Petty Bag, whether the same shall or may be returnable in the same Court or in any other of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law, shall or may be made returnable and returned Writs may be made returnable in Term-Time or in Vacation.

returned on any Day certain to be in such Writ mentioned (not being a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day), whether such Day shall be in Term-Time or in Vacation, or forthwith after the Execution thereof; and every such Writ which shall be made returnable or returned on any Day in Vacation, and which, according to any present Law or Usage or Practice of or in the said Office of the Petty Bag, ought to be made returnable or to be returned on some Day in Term-Time, shall be of the like Validity, Force, and Effect as if the Day upon which the same Writ shall or may be returned or made returnable was actually a Day in Term-Time: Provided always, that in every Case in which any particular Period of Time ought to elapse between the Teste and Return of any Writ, such Writ, if made returnable forthwith after the Execution thereof, shall be returned immediately after the Execution thereof, and after such Period shall have elapsed.

Proceedings of the Court may be in either Term-Time or in Vacation.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every Rule, Order, Pleading, Judgment, Execution, Proceeding, Act, Business, Matter, and Thing to be made, entered, intituled, filed, given, issued, taken, transacted, done, or performed in or by the said Court of Chancery at any Time after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, shall or may be so made, taken, transacted, done, or performed on any Day, not being a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, whether such Day shall be in Term-Time or in Vacation; and every such Rule, Order, Pleading, Judgment, Execution, Proceeding, Act, Business, Matter, and Thing as aforesaid, which shall be so made, entered, intituled, filed, given, issued, taken, transacted, done, or performed in Vacation, or on any Day in Term-Time or in Vacation, and which, according to any present Law, or any present Practice or Usage of the said Office of the Petty Bag, can or ought only to be made, entered, intituled, filed, given, issued, taken, transacted, done, or performed in Term-Time, or as in Term-Time, or as on any or some particular Day or Days in Term-Time, shall be of the like Validity, Force, and Effect as if the Day upon which the same shall or may be so made, entered, intituled, filed, given, issued, taken, transacted, done, or performed, was actually a Day in Term-Time, and as if the same was actually made, entered, intituled, filed, given, issued, taken, transacted, done, or performed in Term-Time, and not in Vacation, and the Day or one of the Days in Term-Time required by any such Law, Practice, or Usage as aforesaid.

Writs of Scire facias may be directed to Sheriff of any County.

XXV. And be it enacted, That any Writ of Scire facias for repealing, cancelling, or vacating any Letters Patent or Charter, which shall or may at any Time hereafter be issued in any Action at the Suit of Her Majesty, hereafter to be commenced, whether at the Instance of any of Her Majesty's Subjects or otherwise, shall or may be directed and sent to the Sheriff of any County in England or Wales, although the Record upon which such Writ shall be founded or issued may be or remain in the County of Middlesex or any other County, and that it shall not be necessary that any such Writ which at any Time hereafter may be issued and directed to the Sheriff of any such County as aforesaid shall be a Testatum Writ, or founded upon any previous Writ directed or sent to the Sheriff of Middlesex or any other County.

Prosecutors Names to be inserted in Writs of Scire facias.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That in every Action of Scire facias hereafter to be commenced at the Instance of any Person, being One of Her Majesty's Subjects, for the Purpose of repealing, cancelling, or vacating any Letters Patent or Charter, the Name and Addition of such Person shall be inserted in the Writ for commencing such Action as the Person suggesting or informing Her Majesty of the Matters or Reasons for which such Letters Patent or Charter may be sought to be repealed, and such Person shall be and be deemed to be the Prosecutor of such Action and Writ; and the Name and Address of the said Prosecutor's Attorney (if any) shall be endorsed upon the same Writ, and upon all Pleadings (if any) in the Action: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the issuing of any such Writ of Scire facias aforesaid without the Fiat or Leave of Her Majesty's Attorney General.

Declarations, &c. in Scire facias to be delivered, and not filed.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in case any Defendant in any such Action of Scire facias already or hereafter to be commenced for repealing, cancelling, or vacating any Letters Patent or Charter shall appear in the said Court of Chancery in Person or by Attorney to answer the Writ issued in such Action, it shall not be necessary to file any Declaration, but the Prosecutor of such Action or his Attorney shall deliver the Declaration to such Defendant or his Attorney, and shall also at the same Time deliver to such Defendant or his Attorney the Notice of Objections (if any) required by the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Law touching Letters Patent for Inventions, and it shall not be necessary at any Time hereafter to file any Notice of Objections required by the said last-mentioned Act, but only to deliver the same to the Defendant or his Attorney, as required by this Act.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 83.

Pleas in Scire facias to be delivered, and not filed.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in any such Action of Scire facias as aforesaid no Demurrer, nor any Plea or Pleading subsequent to the Declaration, shall be filed in the said Office of the Petty Bag or otherwise in the said Court of Chancery; and that in every such Action, every such Plea and subsequent Pleading shall be delivered by the Party pleading it or his Attorney to the opposite Party or his Attorney, and that the Issue in any such Action shall be delivered only, and not filed, and shall or may be made up and delivered by either Party or his Attorney to the opposite Party or his Attorney; and for the Purposes of this Enactment, and also for the Purposes of managing and conducting every such Action of Scire facias as may contain the Name of any Prosecutor, such Prosecutor shall be deemed to be a Party thereto, and to represent the Plaintiff therein, subject nevertheless to the Control of Her Majesty's Attorney General, in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Issues in Scire facias may be tried in any of the Superior Courts.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That in case any Issue respecting any Matter of Fact to be tried by the Country has at any Time heretofore been or shall at any Time hereafter be joined between Her Majesty and any Patentee or other Person in any Action of Scire facias heretofore or hereafter to be commenced, for the Purpose of cancelling, repealing, or vacating any Letters Patent or Charter, or Recognizance, then and in every such Case the Record shall be made up and filed in the Office of the Petty Bag; and it shall and may be lawful to try such Issue in Fact in any One of the Three Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer of Pleas; and in every such Case the Writ of Venire facias juratores for summoning a Jury to try such Issue shall or may be made returnable and returned in such of the said Three Courts as the Issue is intended to be tried in; and a Transcript of the said Record in Chancery, containing such Issue, shall or may thereupon be sent or taken into the Court in which such Writ of Venire facias shall be made returnable, in like Manner as Records containing Issues between Her Majesty and any Patentee or other Person may now be sent or taken by the said Court of Chancery into the Court of Queen's Bench, and it shall not be necessary to issue any Writ of Mittimus or other Writ for the sending or taking such Transcript into either of the said Courts; and in case such Writ of Venire facias shall be made returnable in either of the said Courts of Common Pleas or Exchequer of Pleas, such Court shall, upon the Transcript of the said Record being brought into such Court, proceed to try such Issue either at Bar or at Nisi Prius as such Court shall think fit, and in like Manner as such Issue would or might have been tried in the Court of Queen's Bench in case such Writ of Venire facias had been made returnable in that Court, and the said Transcript, or the original Record, had been taken or deemed to be taken by the Lord Chancellor into that Court; and upon any such Transcript as aforesaid being taken or brought into either of the said Courts of Common Pleas or Exchequer of Pleas such Court shall or may issue such Writs, make such Rules, and proceed therein in all respects for the Trial or other lawful Determination of the Issue therein contained, in like Manner as the Court of Queen's Bench could or might have done if such Transcript or the original Record had been taken into the Court of Queen's Bench, and with full Power to set aside or vacate any Trial, Verdict, or other Proceeding in like Manner as could or might have been done by the said Court of Queen's Bench; and upon the Trial of any such Issue as aforesaid had or completed a Transcript of the Verdict of the Jury and Proceedings of the Court upon such Issue or the Trial thereof shall be taken into the said Court of Chancery, to the end that the said last-mentioned Court shall or may give Judgment therein according to the Law and Custom of England; and no Writ of Mittimus or other Writ shall be necessary for the Purpose of remanding or taking a Transcript of any such Verdict and Proceedings as aforesaid into the said Court of Chancery.

Issues upon Traverses to be tried in like Manner as Issues in Scire facias.

XXX. And be it enacted, That every Issue of Fact to be tried by the Country which has already been joined or which may at any Time hereafter be joined upon any Traverse to an Inquisition shall or may be tried in any or either of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law, in like Manner as by this Act provided with respect to the Trial of Issues in Fact by the Country in Actions of Scire facias to repeal, cancel, or vacate Letters Patent or Charters.

Record of Issue to be filed in the Office of the Petty Bag.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That in case any Issue in Law, on Demurrer or otherwise, shall be joined in any Action of Scire facias, or upon any Traverse of an Inquisition, then and in such Case the Record of such Issue shall be made up and filed in the Office of the Petty Bag, and a Transcript of the said Record shall or may thereupon be sent or taken into any One of the Three Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer; and such Court shall, upon the Transcript being brought into any such Court, proceed to hear and determine the same, in like Manner as Records of Issues in Law from the Common-Law Side of the said Court of Chancery may now be heard and determined in the Court of Queen's Bench; and upon the Determination of any such Issue in Law a Transcript of the Judgment of such Court upon such Issue shall be taken into the said Court of Chancery, to the end that the said last-mentioned Court shall or may give Judgment therein according to the Law and Custom of England.

Costs to be taxed.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Party shall be entitled to the Costs of any such Issues, or of any other Proceedings or Matters provided for by this Act, in any of the said Courts, such Costs shall be taxed and regulated by One of the Masters of the said Court respectively, who shall endorse his Allocatur on the Postea or Rule, as the Case may be, before the same shall be taken or returned into the Court of Chancery as aforesaid.

Writs and Proceedings to be prepared by Parties or their Attornies.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That every Writ which shall or may, at any Time after this Act shall come into operation, lawfully issue out of the said Office of the Petty Bag, under the said Chancery Common Law Seal, at the Instance of any Person, and every Record and Proceeding whatsoever on the Common Law Side of the said Court of Chancery, shall be prepared, engrossed, and issued by the Party requiring or conducting the same, subject nevertheless to such Rules and Regulations as shall or may be made and for the Time being in force, by virtue of this Act or otherwise, for regulating the Practice of the Common-Law Side of the said Court of Chancery, and also subject to the Payment of such lawful Fees as shall or may be payable for or in respect thereof; and upon Payment of such Fees, and complying with such Rules, such Writs, Records, and Proceedings shall (when necessary, and if lawful and regular,) be duly sealed.

Judges may dispose of Matters raising or incident to any Action on the Common-Law Side of the Court of Chancery

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That in every Action, Suit, and Proceeding now pending or which at any Time hereafter shall be commenced or pending in the said Court of Chancery on the Common-Law Side thereof, it shall be lawful for the Superior Courts of Common Law, and the Judges thereof respectively, and they are hereby respectively required, to hear and determine all such Matters or Applications arising in or incident to any such Action, Suit, or Proceeding as aforesaid, as before the passing of this Act might have been heard and determined by the Lord Chancellor and the Master of the Rolls, or either of them, and also to transact, do, and perform all such Business, Matters, and Things in, about, touching, or concerning any Action, Suit, or Proceeding on the Common-Law Side of the said Court of Chancery as by virtue of any Orders or Regulations for the Time being in force by virtue of this Act may be transacted, done, or performed by such Judge, subject nevertheless and according to the Provisions of this

Act,

Act, and the Laws, Rules, and Regulations for the Time being in force for the Regulation of the said Court, and the Practice and Proceedings thereof.

Master of the Rolls may make Orders for the Custody, &c. of the Records.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Master of the Rolls to make such Rules, Orders, and Regulations from Time to Time for the Transfer, Care, and Custody of the Records, Enrolments, Indexes, Books, Documents, or other Proceedings now or hereafter to be filed, lodged, or be in the said Office of the Petty Bag, or in the Custody of the said Clerk of the said Office, and the Endorsement thereof, and the filing of Writs and other Proceedings, and all other Matters and Things relating to the Matters aforesaid, as to the Master of the Rolls shall seem fit and proper.

General Rules and Orders may be made.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, from Time to Time hereafter to make such Alterations, Orders, Rules, and Regulations as he shall, with such Advice and Assistance as aforesaid, think fit, in and respecting the said Office of the Petty Bag, and the Business and Practice thereof, the Duties of the said Clerk, and the Transaction, Management, and Conduct of the Business thereof, and also in and respecting the Modes of suing out, preparing, engrossing, issuing, sealing, signing, serving, executing, and returning Writs, Process, Rules, Notices, and other Instruments issuing out of or authorized or required by the said Court or the Practice thereof, and also from Time to Time to rescind, alter, or vary such Alterations, Orders, Rules, and Regulations: Provided always, that no such Alterations, Orders, Rules, or Regulations as aforesaid shall be contrary to or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act.

Officers Privilege of suing abolished.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That no Person whomsoever who now is or at any Time hereafter shall be an Officer of the said Court of Chancery shall at any Time after the passing of this Act have or be entitled as such Officer to any Privilege to commence or prosecute any Action or Suit in the said Court of Chancery, other than and except such Actions and Suits as may be commenced in the said Court by every or any other Person.

Proviso as to existing Actions by or against Officers.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall hinder or prevent any Action or Suit already commenced by or against any Officer of the said Court of Chancery from being prosecuted, and that the Parties in or to every such Action or Suit shall or may, by themselves or by their Attorneys respectively (to be by them respectively appointed), prosecute and defend such Action or Suit, and that Judgment shall or may be given in such Action or Suit, or such Action or Suit or otherwise disposed of, in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed, subject nevertheless to such Rules, Orders, and Regulations as shall or may be made in pursuance of this Act.

Parties or Attornies to cause Names to be entered in a Book at the Petty Bag Office.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That every Person, Party to any Action, Suit, or Proceeding now pending in the said Court of Chancery on the Common-Law Side thereof, shall, before taking any fresh Step in or about any such Action, Suit, or Proceeding, cause to be entered in a Book to be kept in the said Petty Bag Office, if he intends to act in Person and not by Attorney therein, his own Name and Address, and if he intends to act by Attorney and not in Person, then the Name and Address of his Attorney; and if any such Person or Attorney resides more than Three Miles from the said Office, some Place within that Distance shall be mentioned and entered in the said Book, at or to which Pleadings, Notices, and other Proceedings may be left or sent for such Person or his Attorney; and every Attorney shall, before he acts as the Attorney of any Person in the said Court, cause to be entered in such Book as aforesaid his Name and also his Address, or some Place at or to which Pleadings, Notices, or other Proceedings may be left for or sent to him.

Affidavits may be sworn before Clerk of Petty Bag.

XL. And be it enacted, That any Affidavit, Affirmation, or Declaration to be sworn or made or taken, and read or used in the said Court, shall or may be sworn, made, or taken by or before the Clerk of the Petty Bag for the Time being, who is hereby authorized and required to administer, receive, or take the necessary and proper Oath, Affirmation, or Declaration to every Person desirous of swearing, making, or taking any such Affidavit, Affirmation, or Declaration as aforesaid; and every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly swear, affirm, or declare falsely in any such Affidavit, Affirmation, or Declaration, shall be guilty of Perjury, and shall be prosecuted and punished accordingly.

Saving the Jurisdiction of Lord Chancellor and Master of the Rolls.

XLI. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act expressed or contained shall take away or in anywise diminish or prejudice the Jurisdiction or any of the Powers, Rights, or Privileges of the Lord Chancellor, as Judge of the said Court of Chancery, or otherwise howsoever, or the Jurisdiction or any of the Powers, Rights, or Privileges of the Master of the Rolls, as the Keeper of the Records of the said Court, or as a Master or Judge of the said Court, or otherwise.

Forms of Writs to be settled and approved by Lord Chancellor, &c.

XLII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, from Time to Time to ordain, settle, and approve of the Form of any Description of Writ or Writs which may be deemed necessary to be issued for the Purpose of giving Effect to any Description of Judgment, Order, Proceeding, or Matter of or pending in or to be taken in the said Court of Chancery, or for the Furtherance of the Business of or originating in the said Court of Chancery.

Courts of Common Law to take cognizance of Writs.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That every of Her Majesty's Courts of Common Law, and all other Courts, Judges, Officers, and others, shall take cognizance of all and every of Writs as aforesaid, and give effect thereto in such Manner as may be requisite, and, if necessary, the Judges of such Courts respectively shall and they are hereby required to make such Rules and Regulations for the Practice of their respective Courts thereupon as to them respectively shall seem fitting, which shall be signed by the Judge or by the major Part in Number of the Judges of the said Courts respectively, and if there be more than One Judge of any such Court the Chief Judge of such Court (if there be a Chief Judge) shall be one.

XLIV. And

XLIV. And be it enacted, That all Monies paid into the said Court for Her Majesty's Use shall continue to be received as heretofore by the said Clerk of the Petty Bag, and the several Accounts of Fines, Issues, Amerciaments, Penalties, and Recognizances set, lost, imposed, or forfeited to or for the Use of Her Majesty in the said Office of the Petty Bag, required by any Act now in force to be rendered and made by the said Clerk of the Petty Bag, and all other Acts, Duties, and Services now done, performed, and rendered by the said Clerk of the Petty Bag touching the Receipt and Payment of Monies to or for the Use of Her Majesty, and the Accounts to be rendered thereof, shall continue to be done, performed, and rendered as heretofore by the said Clerk of the Petty Bag. Monies paid into Court for Her Majesty's Use shall continue to be received as heretofore, &c.

XLV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to award such Compensation, in such Manner and upon such Conditions as he may think fit, to the Senior and Second Clerk of the said Office of Petty Bag, in consideration of the Loss they will or may have respectively sustained by the Abolition of their Offices, and that such Compensations shall be paid by the said Accountant General, by virtue of an Order to be made by the Lord Chancellor, out of the Fund intituled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account." Power to grant Compensations, with Consent of Treasury.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act the Expression "Her Majesty" shall extend to, include, and mean, not only Her present most Excellent Majesty, but also Her Heirs and Successors; the Expression "Lord High Chancellor," and also the Expression "Lord Chancellor," shall extend to, include, and mean, as well the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the Time being, as also the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal for the Time being, and also the Lords Commissioners for the Time being for the Custody of the Great Seal of this Realm, and the major Part in Number of such Commissioners; and that the Expression "Court of Chancery" shall mean the High Court of Chancery held before the said Lord Chancellor or Lords Commissioners, or major Part of the said Lords Commissioners; the Expression "Great Seal" shall mean the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and the Expression "Master of the Rolls" shall mean the Master of the Rolls for the Time being; and also that Words importing Persons only shall extend to Corporations; that Words importing the Singular Number only shall include the Plural Number; and Words importing the Plural Number only shall include the Singular Number; save and except where there shall or may be something in the Subject or the Context repugnant to or inconsistent with any such Construction as aforesaid. Construction of Terms in this Act.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

C A P. XCV.

An Act to carry into effect the Arrangements of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish of Wolverhampton in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield. [31st August 1848.]

'WHEREAS by an Act commonly called or known by the Name of "The Pelsall Mining Act," passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and intituled An Act for enabling the Dean of Windsor and Wolverhampton, and his Successors, to grant Leases and Licences for opening and working Mines within the Lands belonging to the Manor of Wolverhampton, and for augmenting the Income of the Sacrist of the Collegiate Church or Royal Free Chapel of Wolverhampton, after reciting that the Duties of the said Church were under the Care of a Clergyman denominated the Sacrist or Sexton, and there were Three other Assistant Ministers of the same Church called Readers, and that the Income of the said Sacrist was very inadequate to his Dignity and Station, and with a view to the Augmentation thereof, and the making a more suitable Provision for the due Discharge of the Ministerial Duties of the said Church, the Dean of the said Collegiate Church was willing that the Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of the said Offices, when vacant, should devolve upon and be annexed to the Office of the said Sacrist for the Time being, and that the said Dean was desirous that an Income of a given Amount should be appropriated and secured to the said Sacrist from a Fund to be raised out of the Rents to be reserved by Leases to be granted by the Dean for the Time being, and that it was expedient that the said Sacrist should thereafter be denominated the Perpetual Curate of the said Parish of Wolverhampton, it was enacted, that the said officiating Minister theretofore called Sacrist or Sexton should from thenceforth be denominated the Perpetual Curate of the said Parish of Wolverhampton; and it was further enacted, that on the Death or other Avoidance of the Three then Assistant Readers the Office of such Reader or Assistant Minister, and the Right to nominate any Successor to the same Office, should cease and be extinguished, and the Duties of each of the same Offices respectively, when the same should respectively become extinct, should devolve on and be performed by the Perpetual Curate for the Time being, and that all the Salaries, Perquisites, and Emoluments belonging to such Offices respectively should belong and be payable to and might be demanded and recovered by such Perpetual Curate; and it was further enacted, that One Fourth Part of the Rents payable to the said Dean for the Time being under the Licences and Leases therein mentioned should yearly, until the Sum of Eight thousand Pounds Three per Centum Annuities should have been purchased, as therein-after mentioned, be applied by the said Dean for the Time being in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated Annuities in the joint Names of the Most Reverend the Archbishop of Canterbury, the said Dean, and the said Perpetual Curate for the Time being, and that such Perpetual 51 G. 3. c. 182.

' Curate

'Curate should, either in his own Person or by his Attorney, be authorized to receive the Dividends 'and Income of so much of the said Three per Centum Annuities as from Time to Time should have 'been purchased, and that all or any Part of the said Three per Centum Annuities might be sold for 'the Purpose of being laid out in the Purchase of Lands held in Fee Simple, and situate in the County 'of Stafford, in manner therein mentioned, and that the said Lands, when so purchased, should be 'conveyed to and vested in the said Perpetual Curate, to hold to him and his Successors for the Time 'being, and that the said Perpetual Curate should be a sole Corporation, and that he should be capable 'of holding the same Lands; and it was further enacted, that all the Rents payable from Time to 'Time in respect of the Lands so to be purchased, and the Dividends and Income payable in 'respect of the said Stock, or the Residue thereof, should belong and be payable to the Perpetual 'Curate for the Time being, as Part of his Income, and Increase thereof: And whereas by a certain 'Act commonly called or known by the Name "Hobart's Estate Act," passed in the Session of Parlia-'ment held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth,
5 & 6 W. 4. c. 25. 'and intituled An Act to authorize the making of Grants or Leases of Mines within and under Parts 'of the Lands belonging to the Perpetual Curacy of the Parish of Wolverhampton in the County of 'Stafford, after reciting (amongst other things) that Henry Lewis Hobart Doctor in Divinity was 'Dean of the said Collegiate Church of Wolverhampton and Prebendary of the Prebend of Wolver-'hampton aforesaid, and was in right of such his Deanery and Prebend Patron and Ordinary of the said 'Collegiate Church, and that the Reverend George Oliver Clerk was the officiating Minister of the 'said Collegiate Church, and as such was denominated the Perpetual Curate of the Parish of Wolver-'hampton aforesaid, and that there belonged to the said Collegiate Church and Perpetual Curacy certain 'Lands and Hereditaments situate within and in the Neighbourhood of the Town of Wolverhampton 'aforesaid, and there were under the same Lands divers Mines of Coal, Ironstone, and other Minerals 'of considerable Value, and that by Articles of Agreement under the respective Hands of the said 'George Oliver and of George Jones, Coal and Iron Master, and dated the Fourteenth Day of May One 'thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, for the Sale to and Purchase of by the said George Jones all 'the Mines of Clay, Coal, Ironstone, and other Mines and Minerals whatsoever under Two several 'Closes of Land situate in Wolverhampton aforesaid, and comprised in the Schedule to the now-reciting 'Act, at or for the Price of Three thousand seven hundred and fifty-one Pounds Eighteen Shillings 'and Sixpence, to be paid in manner therein-after mentioned, it was enacted, that from and after the 'passing of the now-reciting Act it should be lawful for the said George Oliver, or other the Perpetual 'Curate for the Time being of the said Parish of Wolverhampton, with the Consent of the Governors 'of the Bounty of Queen Anne, testified as therein mentioned, on Payment by the said George Jones, 'his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, of the said Sum of Three thousand seven hundred and fifty-'one Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Sixpence, to carry into effect the said recited Articles of Agree-'ment according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, or with such Variations or Modifications as 'the said George Oliver or other the Perpetual Curate for the Time being and the said Governors 'should think fit; and it was further enacted, that the said Sum of Three thousand seven hundred and 'fifty-one Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Sixpence should be paid by the said George Jones to the 'Treasurer for the Time being of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augment-'ation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, and that the Receipts of the said Treasurer should be a 'good and effectual Discharge for the same; and it was further enacted, that after Payment of all Costs 'and Expenses attending the making and executing of the said recited Contract, and attending or in 'anywise relating to the making and passing of the now-reciting Act, and of all other incidental Costs 'and Expenses, the Residue of the Monies to arise from such Sale should be invested by the said 'Governors, in their Names, in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, and be 'placed to the Credit of the said Perpetual Curacy of Wolverhampton, and applied for the perpetual 'Augmentation of such Curacy, in such and the like Manner as the same would have been applicable 'in case the Amount thereof had arisen by means of any Grant made by the said Governors for the 'Augmentation of the said Curacy: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in
3 & 4 Vict. c. 113. 'the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to carry into effect, with certain 'Modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, and 'another Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her
4 & 5 Vict. c. 39. 'Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to explain and amend Two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical 'Commissioners for England: And whereas at the passing of the thirdly-recited Act the Church of 'Saint Peter, Wolverhampton, was a Collegiate Church consisting of a Dean and Eight Prebendaries, 'of which the Dean was One, and a Sacrist or Sexton, and the said Sacrist was also the Perpetual 'Curate of Wolverhampton: And whereas by the said thirdly-recited Act it was enacted, that no new 'Appointment should be made to the Deanery of Wolverhampton, but that the said Deanery should 'upon the Vacancy thereof be suppressed, and that no Presentation or other Appointment to the Offices 'therein mentioned, nor to any Prebend not residentiary, in any Collegiate Church in England, should 'convey any Right or Title whatsoever to any Lands, Tithes, or other Hereditaments, or any other 'Endowments or Emoluments whatsoever, then belonging to any such Office or Prebend, and that all 'Lands, Tithes, and other Hereditaments, (excepting any Right of Patronage,) and all other Emolu-'ments and Endowments whatsoever, belonging to the said Deanery of Wolverhampton and certain 'other Deaneries therein mentioned, and to any Prebend not residentiary in any Collegiate Church in 'England, or enjoyed by the Holder of any such Deanery, Dignity, Office, or Prebend as such Holder, 'should,

'should, as to all such of the said Deaneries, Dignities, Offices, and Prebends respectively as might be 'vacant at the passing of the said Act, immediately upon its so passing, and as to all others immediately 'upon the Vacancies thereof respectively, without any Conveyance or Assurance in the Law other than 'the Provisions of the same Act, accrue to and be vested absolutely in the said Commissioners and 'their Successors for the Purposes of such Act; and by the fourthly-recited Act it was enacted, that all 'the Provisions in the said last-recited Act contained relating to Lands, Tithes, or other Hereditaments 'or Endowments belonging to Prebends not residentiary, should apply also to all Lands, Tithes, and 'other Hereditaments or Endowments belonging to the Office of Sacrist in any Collegiate Church or 'enjoyed by the Holder thereof in right of such Office, as fully and effectually as if such Office had 'been expressly named as subject to such Provisions: And whereas by the said thirdly-recited Act it 'was enacted, that out of the Endowments, of whatsoever Kind, belonging to the said Collegiate Church 'of Wolverhampton, better Provision should be made by the Authority therein mentioned for the Cure 'of Souls in the Districts or Places with which the said Church is connected: And whereas under the 'Provisions of the said thirdly and fourthly herein-before recited Acts the said Deanery of Wolver- 'hampton, on the Death of the Honourable and Very Reverend Henry Lewis Hobart Doctor of Divinity, 'the late Dean thereof, which happened on the Eighth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and 'forty-six, became suppressed: And whereas the Reverend George Oliver Doctor of Divinity, the late 'Sacrist and Perpetual Curate of the said Collegiate Church, vacated the said Offices by resigning the 'same on the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and no Successor hath 'been appointed to the said Office of Sacrist, but the Reverend John Osmonde Dakeyne Master of Arts 'hath been instituted to and is now the Perpetual Curate of the said Perpetual Curacy of Saint Peter's 'Wolverhampton aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 'Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for establishing a 10 & 11 Vict. 'general Cemetery at Wolverhampton in the County of Stafford, and for making certain direct Roads c. cclxxv. 'and Approaches to the said Cemetery from the Town of Wolverhampton and the Neighbourhood thereof, 'it was amongst other things enacted, that the Incumbents or officiating Ministers for the Time being 'of the said Church of Saint Peter and the Chapels of Saint John and Saint George in Wolverhampton 'aforesaid should and they were thereby required to officiate as Ministers or Chaplains in the Perform- 'ance of the Burial Service at the said Cemetery over the Bodies of Persons dying within the respective 'Ecclesiastical Districts of the said Churches or Chapels, and brought thence for Interment within the 'consecrated Portion of the said Cemetery, and that for the Performance of such Burial Service each of 'such Incumbents or Officiating Ministers should receive a yearly Salary or Stipend of not less than the 'Sum of Twenty Pounds, over and above all Fees or Sums of Money payable to each such Incumbent 'or officiating Minister under the Provisions of the now-reciting Act: And whereas the Monies already 'vested in pursuance of the Provisions contained in the herein-before recited Act called "The Pelsall 'Mining Act," and standing in the Names of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William 'Howley deceased, late Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the said Henry Lewis Hobart deceased, and 'the said George Oliver, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, amount 'to the Sum of Three thousand two hundred and eighty-three Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Eight-pence 'Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities, in part of the said Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, 'like Annuities, by the said Act directed to be invested as aforesaid, exclusive of a certain Sum of 'Three hundred and eighteen Pounds, or thereabouts, now in the Hands of and to be accounted for by 'the Executors of the said Henry Lewis Hobart deceased, and the Monies invested in pursuance of the 'Provisions contained in the said recited Act called "Hobart's Estate Act," and standing in the Names 'of the "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the perpetual Augmentation of the Maintenance 'of the Poorer Clergy," in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, amount 'to the Sum of Three thousand four hundred and fifty-five Pounds Twelve Shillings and Sixpence 'Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities: And whereas the Parish of Wolverhampton 'aforesaid is divided into so much of the said Parish as is included in the District of Ettingshall and 'Sixteen other Districts the Names of which said Districts respectively are set forth in the Schedule 'hereunto annexed: And whereas for the Purposes of Visitation and spiritual Superintendence, One of 'the said Districts called the District of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton hath been assigned to the said 'Collegiate Church by the Lord Bishop of Lichfield the Ordinary of the said Church, under the Provi- 'sions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the First and Second Years of the Reign 'of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and render more effectual 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 38. 'an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act 'to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building of additional Churches in populous 'Parishes,' but the said Perpetual Curate, in right of his said Perpetual Curacy, is or claims to be 'entitled to the Perception of Surplice Fees throughout the whole Parish of Wolverhampton aforesaid: 'And whereas the Incumbent of the said Church of Saint Peter, Wolverhampton, by virtue of such 'Incumbency, and under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 'Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for 58 G. 3. c. 45. 'building and promoting the building of additional Churches in populous Parishes, claims the Right of 'Patronage of the said District Churches or Chapels of Saint George, Wolverhampton, and Saint Mary, 'Bilston, which it is expedient and the said Incumbent is willing should be transferred to the Bishop 'for the Time being of the Diocese in which such District Churches or Chapels are respectively situate: 'And whereas the present Income of the Perpetual Curate of the Parish of Wolverhampton aforesaid

'consists of the Dividends arising from the said Two several Sums of Three thousand two hundred and 'eighty-three Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Eight-pence and Three thousand four hundred and fifty-five 'Pounds Twelve Shillings and Sixpence, and of Surplice Fees arising from the whole Parish of Wolver- 'hampton producing about Four hundred Pounds per Annum, and sundry small Endowments, which, 'including the said Sum of Twenty Pounds so payable by the said Cemetery Company, amount to a 'further Sum of Sixty-one Pounds Sixteen Shillings and Eight-pence, making together a total yearly 'Income of about Six hundred and sixty-five Pounds Six Shillings and Eight-pence, but which said 'Income would, upon the Completion of the Investment of Eight thousand Pounds Consolidated Bank 'Annuities, according to the Provisions of the said Act called the "Pelsall Mining Act," amount to 'about Eight hundred Pounds per Annum: And whereas there is no House of Residence nor any Land 'adapted for the Site of a House of Residence belonging to the said Perpetual Curacy: And whereas 'the Fabric of the Church of Saint Peter Wolverhampton is in a State of great Dilapidation: And 'whereas it is expedient, and would be greatly conducive to the spiritual Interests of the Parish of 'Wolverhampton aforesaid, and to the better Cure of Souls therein, that new and further Arrangements 'should be made respecting the Constitution and Endowment of the several Districts in the said Parish 'of Wolverhampton; and the said Commissioners, with the Consent of the Reverend John Lord Bishop 'of Lichfield, as Ordinary of the said Parish, and Patron of the said Church of Saint Peter, and the said 'John Osmonde Dakeyne, as Perpetual Curate of the said Parish, are desirous that the same should be 'made; and the said Commissioners have proposed certain Arrangements for effecting the Purposes 'aforesaid to be carried into execution under their Control and Management; but the same cannot be 'carried into complete Effect without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Provisions contained in the said Act called "The Pelsall Mining Act," for the Investment of One Fourth Part of the Rents to arise as in the said Act mentioned, and for the Application of the Rents, Dividends, and Profits of the Land or Stock directed to be purchased therewith, and also the Provisions contained in the said Act called "The Hobart's Estate Act," respecting the Residue of the Monies to arise from such Sale or Sales as in the said Act mentioned, after Payment of the Costs and Expenses therein specified, are hereby repealed; and the said several Sums of Three thousand two hundred and eighty-three Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Eight-pence and Three thousand four hundred and fifty-five Pounds Twelve Shillings and Sixpence Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and Three hundred and eighteen Pounds Sterling, and all other the Sum or Sums of Money and Stock invested or liable to be invested and due as aforesaid under and by virtue of the Provisions contained in the said Acts of Parliament herein-before referred to, and respectively called the "Pelsall Mining Act," and "Hobart's Estate Act," and the Interest and Dividends due in respect of the same Sums respectively from the First Day of May now last past, shall immediately upon the passing of this Act become and be vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for the Purposes and to be disposed of in the Manner expressed in the said thirdly-recited Act of and concerning the Endowments of the said Collegiate Church of Wolver- hampton, and subject thereto for their said Common Fund, and shall be transferred and paid to the said Commissioners by the said George Oliver, the Representatives of the said Henry Lewis Hobart deceased, and the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty respectively, and other the Person or Persons in whose Name or Names the same may be now standing, or who now have or are entitled to the Order and Control or are liable to the Payment of the said several Sums or any Part thereof.

Monies raised, &c. under Pelsall Mining Act and Hobart's Estate Act vested in Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

'II. And be it declared and enacted, That the said Office of Sacrist of the said Collegiate Church of Wolverhampton shall be and the same is by this Act abolished, and all the Estates, Rents, Endowments, and other Emoluments (excepting any Rights of Patronage) formerly belonging or appertaining to the said Office in the said Collegiate Church of Wolverhampton, subject to any valid existing Lease or Leases thereof, and all other the Funds, Dividends, Fees, Emoluments, and Profits whatsoever belonging thereto, and also a certain Field or Parcel of Land numbered 1221 in the Tithe Commutation Map of the Township of Wolverhampton in the said Parish, forming Part of the Endowments of the said Perpetual Curacy, are and shall be vested in the said Commissioners, and shall be held by them and their Successors for the Purposes by the said thirdly-recited Act expressed concerning the Endowments late belonging to the said Collegiate Church of Wolverhampton, and subject thereto for their said Common Fund, freed and absolutely discharged of and from all and every the Claims or Demands of the said John Osmond Dakeyne and his Successors, Perpetual Curates of Wolverhampton aforesaid.

Office of Sacrist of Collegiate Church of Wolverhampton abolished.

III. And be it enacted, That the District of the Parish of Wolverhampton, which has been so assigned to the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter as aforesaid, shall be and the same is by this Act constituted a Rectory; and the Reverend John Osmond Dakeyne, and his Successors, Incumbents of the said Church for the Time being, shall henceforth be and be styled Rectors of Saint Peter's Wolver- hampton, and by that Name and Style shall have and enjoy all the Rights, Privileges, and Emoluments which would have belonged to the Perpetual Curate of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton aforesaid for the Time being, save and except so far as the same are otherwise appropriated or disposed of by the said thirdly and fourthly recited Acts or this Act; and the Minister for the Time being of each of the several other Districts of the said Parish of Wolverhampton specified in the Schedule to this Act, and of the District of Ettingshall so far as the same is in the said Parish of Wolverhampton, shall, immediately after the present Minister thereof respectively shall have given his Consent to this present Constitution of the Rectory of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton.

Act

Act (to be testified by Writing under his Hand, and to be deposited and kept in the Registry of the Diocese), be entitled to have and receive all the Surplice Fees arising or accruing within the same District, and as to the respective Ministers of the said Districts of Saint John and Saint George, in addition to the said yearly Stipend of Twenty Pounds apiece payable to them by the said Wolverhampton General Cemetery Company, freed and discharged from all Claim in respect thereof by the said Incumbent of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton.

Ecclesiastical Commissioners to provide a Rectory House, and allow 750*l.* a Year to the Rector.

IV. And be it enacted, That in consideration of the Premises the said Commissioners shall, out of the Endowments late belonging to the said Collegiate Church or the Common Fund vested and to be vested in them by the said thirdly and fourthly recited Acts or this Act, as the said Commissioners shall see fit, and under the Authority provided by the said thirdly recited Act, provide a Sum not exceeding Seven hundred and fifty Pounds for or towards the Purchase of a Site, and a Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds for or towards the Erection of a suitable Rectory House for the said District of Saint Peter's under the Sanction and Control of the said Commissioners, and to be conveyed to and vested in the Rector of Saint Peter's and his Successors Rectors of the said Rectory for ever; and the said Commissioners shall also out of such Endowments or Common Fund as aforesaid pay and allow to the said John Osmond Dakeyne and his Successors Rectors for the Time being of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton an annual Sum of Six hundred Pounds to be payable and paid half-yearly on the First Day of November and the First Day of May in each and every Year, the First Payment to be made on the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, as and for an additional Endowment of the said Rectory over and above the Fees to arise within the said District of Saint Peter's, and the said yearly Sum of Twenty Pounds payable from the said Wolverhampton General Cemetery Company, and all other Endowments belonging to the said Rectory: Provided always, that if at the End of Three Years from the said First Day of May next before the passing of this Act, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the average annual Income of the said Rectory during those Years, inclusive of the said annual Sum of Six hundred Pounds, shall not have amounted to Seven hundred and fifty Pounds, then and in that Case the said annual Sum of Six hundred Pounds shall be augmented by such Amount as with the said annual average Income during such Three Years will make up the said annual Sum of Seven hundred and fifty Pounds, and such augmented annual Sum shall thenceforth and for ever thereafter be payable to the Rector for the Time being of the said Rectory by the said Commissioners, out of the said Endowments of the said Collegiate Church, or of their Common Fund, as they may see fit, in lieu of the said annual Sum of Six hundred Pounds, and irrespective of any subsequent Variation in the annual Income of the said Rectory; and then and in that Case also the said Commissioners shall at the End of the said Three Years, out of the said Endowments or Common Fund, pay to the said John Osmond Dakeyne, or the Incumbent of the said Rectory for the Time being, such an Amount as shall make up the Deficiency in the said Income for that Period; and if the said John Osmond Dakeyne shall by Death, Resignation, or otherwise have ceased to be Rector of the said Rectory during the said Term of Three Years, then such last-mentioned Amount shall be payable to the said John Osmond Dakeyne or his Representatives, and the succeeding Rector, in such Proportions, or wholly to one, exclusively of the other, as under the Circumstances shall to the said Commissioners appear just and proper: Provided also, that in case the said Commissioners shall at any Time or Times hereafter under the Authority provided by the said thirdly-recited Act endow the said Rectory of Saint Peter's with any of the Lands or Hereditaments or any Rent-charge or Rent-charges late belonging to the said Collegiate Church of Wolverhampton aforesaid, the said yearly Sum of Six hundred Pounds, or such augmented annual Sum to be paid in lieu thereof as aforesaid, shall thenceforth and at all Times thereafter be diminished by the net Amount of such Rent-charge or Rent-charges or of the net yearly Rental or Value of the Lands or Hereditaments at the Time or respective Times of such Endowment, such net Amount to be ascertained and defined by the Surveyor for the Time being of the said Commissioners by Certificate under his Hand to be deposited and kept in the Registry of the Diocese.

As to Performance of Burial Service at the General Cemetery.

V. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid Provision contained in the said fifthly-recited Act requiring the Incumbents or Officiating Ministers for the Time being of the said Collegiate Church of Saint Peter and the said Chapel of Saint John and Saint George in Wolverhampton aforesaid respectively to officiate as Minister or Chaplain in the Performance of the Burial Service at the said Cemetery is hereby repealed, except so far as regards the Burial of Persons dying within their respective Parishes or Districts; and the Incumbents or Officiating Ministers of the several other Ecclesiastical Parishes or Districts in Wolverhampton aforesaid shall and they are hereby required to officiate as Ministers or Chaplains in the Performance of the Burial Service at the said Cemetery over the dead Bodies of Persons dying within their respective Parishes or Districts, in like Manner and subject to the like Qualifications as the Incumbents or Officiating Ministers of Saint Peter, Saint John, and Saint George are by the said last-mentioned Act required to perform such Service, and which they are by this Act required still to perform in the Case of Persons dying in their respective Districts; and such Incumbents or Officiating Ministers respectively shall be entitled to the like Fees for the Performance of such Burials as are thereby made payable to the Officiating Ministers for Interments: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to deprive the said Rector of Saint Peter, or the respective Incumbents or Officiating Ministers of Saint Peter, Saint John, and Saint George for the Time being of his or their Right to receive the yearly Sum or Stipend of Twenty Pounds apiece, by the said Act made payable to them by the said Company, over and above the Burial Fees thereby made payable, but the same yearly Sums or Stipends shall continue payable to them in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed:

Provided always, that this present Clause shall not take effect in any such Parish or District unless or until the Wolverhampton General Cemetery Company shall consent thereto by Writing under their Common Seal, to be deposited and kept in the Registry of the said Diocese.

Rector to employ One or more Curates to officiate at Saint Peter's.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said John Osmond Dakeyne and his Successors Rectors of the said Rectory for the Time being shall at all Times hereafter retain and employ One or more Curate or Curates to assist in the accustomed Ordinances and Services to be duly performed in the said Church of Saint Peter, and in the Cure of Souls in the said District, and that such Curate or Curates shall be nominated by the Rector for the Time being under and subject to the Orders and Regulations as to Licence and Duties and otherwise of the Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocese for the Time being and all other usual Laws and Regulations applicable to Stipendiary Curates: Provided always, that in case such Rector for the Time being shall neglect or fail to nominate a Spiritual Person to supply any Vacancy occasioned by the Death, Resignation, or Revocation of the Licence of any such Curate as aforesaid within the Space of Fifty Days after he shall have had Notice of such Vacancy, it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the Diocese to license a Curate or Curates for such Parish, and every Curate so licensed shall be entitled to have and receive all Stipends, Endowments, and other Emoluments belonging to or provided for such Curate as aforesaid from the Period of such Death, Resignation, or Revocation of Licence, in such and the same Manner as a Curate or Curates appointed and licensed to a Living under Sequestration is or are entitled to have, hold, and enjoy the same.

Bishop to appoint a Curate in case of Neglect of Rector.

Ecclesiastical Commissioners may contribute out of Estates towards Repair of Saint Peter's Church.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, under the Authority aforesaid, to allow and contribute at any Time or Times hereafter, out of such Estates and Property or Common Fund as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be deemed by them the said Commissioners reasonable and necessary towards the Costs, Charges, and Expenses to be incurred in the necessary Reparation of the Church of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton aforesaid, but without Prejudice nevertheless to the Liability (if any) of the said Commissioners or the Liability of their Lessees to maintain in good and substantial Repair the Chancel of or belonging to the said Church.

Right of Patronage of Saint George Wolverhampton and of Saint Mary Bilston vested in the Bishop.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Advowson, Right of Patronage to, and of Nomination, Presentation, or Appointment of the Spiritual Persons to be Incumbents of the said District Churches or Chapels called Saint George Wolverhampton and Saint Mary Bilston respectively, so far as the same was heretofore in any way vested in the Incumbent for the Time being of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton aforesaid, shall no longer be exercised by the said Perpetual Curate or the Rector of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton aforesaid, but that the Advowson, Right of Patronage to, and of Nomination, Presentation, or Appointment of the Spiritual Persons to be from Time to Time Incumbents of the said District Churches or Chapels of Saint George Wolverhampton and Saint Mary Bilston respectively, shall from henceforth and for ever hereafter become and be transferred to and vested in, and shall and may be held, possessed, and exercised by, the Bishop for the Time being of the Diocese in which the same District Churches or Chapels are respectively situate.

One Set of Fees only to be payable.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the Diocese and he is hereby directed, at such Time and in such Manner as he may see fit, to settle and adjust all Questions not settled by this Act respecting any double Surplice Fees at present payable in any of the Districts of Wolverhampton aforesaid, so and in such Manner that One Set of Fees only of such Amount as the said Bishop shall determine shall be payable in any Case or on any Occasion in any of the said Districts.

Saving Rights of Clerk.

X. Provided, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall deprive the present Clerk of the Church of Saint Peter's Wolverhampton aforesaid of any Fees or Perquisites to which he is by Law or Custom entitled in or out of any of the said Districts, but from and after his Death, Resignation, or Removal all Fees to the Clerk of the Rectory of Saint Peter's payable from or out or in respect of any other District shall be and the same are hereby abolished.

Powers vested in Her Majesty in Council and Ecclesiastical Commissioners by thirdly and fourthly recited Acts extended to this Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities vested in Her Majesty in Council, and in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by the said Two herein thirdly and fourthly recited Acts relating to the said Commissioners, and passed respectively in the Sessions of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years and in the Fourth and Fifth Years respectively of Her present Majesty's Reign with reference to the Matters therein respectively contained, and all other the Provisions of the same Acts relating to Schemes and Orders prepared, made, and issued for the Purposes thereof, and also all other the Provisions of the same Acts, so far as they are applicable, and not inconsistent with or repugnant to any thing herein contained, shall be extended and shall apply to all Matters contained in and all the Purposes of this Act as fully and effectually as if the said Powers, Authorities, and other Provisions were repeated herein.

As to Constitution of Districts into separate Parishes.

XII. And be it enacted, That, by such Authority as is provided by the said last-mentioned Acts, and at such Time or Times and from Time to Time as by such Authority shall be deemed expedient, it shall be lawful to constitute and declare the several Districts and Parishes mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, or any of them, or any other Districts or Parishes to be hereafter constituted in the said Parish of Wolverhampton, to be separate Parishes and Vicarages and the Incumbents thereof Vicars, but on such Conditions and with such respective Grants of Money or Augmentation of Income, or without the same, as to them the said Commissioners shall appear expedient and reasonable, and as shall be directed by the like Authority; and that on every such District being constituted a Vicarage the then existing Incumbent shall be the first Vicar thereof, and that every such Vicar shall be a Corporation Sole, and may receive, take, and hold such Lands, Tithes, or other Hereditaments as are vested in him as Incumbent of the District so constituted a Vicarage at the Time of the passing of this Act, or any future Augmentation Augmentation thereof, in as full, ample, and beneficial a Manner as any other Corporation Sole can receive, hold, and take the same.

Saving Rights of Patronage.

XIII. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prejudice or affect the Right of Patronage, or of Nomination, Presentation, or Appointment of the Rector of the said Rectory of Saint Peter's, or of any of the Incumbents or Ministers of the Churches or Chapels of the several other Districts in Wolverhampton aforesaid, except with respect to the Church or Chapel of Saint George Wolverhampton and Saint Mary Bilston, so far as the Right of Patronage or Presentation is expressly transferred by this Act.

Altering Boundaries.

XIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful, by the like Authority, and with the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese for the Time being, at any Time or Times within Five Years from and after the passing of this Act, as to all Districts and new Parishes now existing in the said Parish of Wolverhampton, and as to all other Districts or new Parishes to be hereafter assigned or constituted in the said Parish within Five Years from the Date of the Licence of the Minister or Perpetual Curate first licensed to any such District or new Parish, to alter the Boundaries of such Districts or new Parishes; provided always, that the Scheme for making any such Alteration shall be subject to all the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to make better Provision for the Spiritual Care of populous Parishes, and in another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better Provision for the Spiritual Care of populous Parishes, relating to Schemes for constituting Districts thereunder, and that any Portion of any such District or new Parish which, by any such Alteration as aforesaid, shall become detached or excluded therefrom, shall to all Intents and Purposes again belong to and form Part of the Parish or District out of which such Portion was taken, upon such District or new Parish being originally constituted, or to and of any new District, as shall be determined by the like Authority.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 37.

7 & 8 Vict. c. 94.

Nothing herein to affect the Poor Laws or Municipal Regulations, &c.

XV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall affect or in any Manner be construed to affect the Laws relating to the Relief, Maintenance, Settlement, or Management of the Poor, nor any Municipal or Parliamentary Laws or Regulations, nor prejudice or affect any Rights, Trusts, or Privileges incident or relating to any Free School or any Almshouses or Hospitals, nor any Rights of Sepulture in any existing Churchyard, Burial Grounds, Vaults, and Catacombs, within the Limits of the said existing Parish of Wolverhampton, nor any Offices, Trusts, Rights, Privileges, or Capacities whatsoever, which the Parishioners for the Time being of the said Parish are, in respect of their being such Parishioners, eligible or entitled to or capable of exercising or enjoying.

Not to affect Church Rates, &c.

XVI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall alter or affect any Law, Statute, or Custom relating to the making, levying, or applying Church or Chapel Rates within the Limits of the Parish of Wolverhampton aforesaid, or to the Election or Duties of Churchwardens or Chapelwardens for the Parish of Wolverhampton aforesaid, or for any Church or Chapel within the existing Limits thereof, so far as relates to such making, levying, or applying, nor increase or diminish any Liability of any Inhabitant of the said existing Parish of Wolverhampton in respect of any Church or Chapel Rates.

Expenses of Act, how to be paid.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution shall be borne and paid by the said Commissioners out of the Estates, Property, or Endowment late belonging to the said Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Wolverhampton, or the Common Fund aforesaid.

CAP. XCVI.

An Act to continue certain Turnpike Acts for limited Periods. [31st August 1848.]

Continuance of certain Acts respecting Turnpike Roads in Great Britain, except as after mentioned.

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the several Acts herein-after specified should be continued for 'limited Times:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Act now in force for regulating, making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road in Great Britain, which will expire on or before the End of the next Session of Parliament, shall be continued until the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, except as herein-after mentioned.

6 G. 4. c. clx. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. xli. 7 G. 4. c. xc. 5 & 6 W. 4. c. xxiii. and 3 & 4 W. 4. c. lxxxv. continued till 1st November 1849 only.

II. And be it enacted, That the following Acts, (videlicet,) an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for making and maintaining a Turnpike Road from Brompton and Earles Court in the Parish of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington in the County of Middlesex, to communicate with the Road called Fulham Fields Road at North End in the same County; and for making another Turnpike Road to communicate therewith from the High Road from London to Fulham in the said County; an Act passed in the Session of the First and Second Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the Road leading from Flimwell Vent in the Parish of Ticehurst in the County of Sussex to the Town and Port of Hastings in the said County; an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the same Reign, intituled An Act for making a Turnpike Road from Saint John's Chapel in the Parish of Saint Marylebone to the North-east End of Ballard's Lane, abutting upon the North Road in the Parish of Finchley, with a Branch therefrom, in the County of Middlesex; an Act passed in the Session of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to incorporate the Avenue Road in the Parish of Saint Marylebone with the Marylebone and Finchley Turnpike Roads in the County of Middlesex; and an Act passed in the Session of the Third and Fourth Years of the same Reign, intituled An Act for continuing certain Powers to the Trustees of the New North Road, leading from the South End of Highbury Place, Islington, to Haberdashers Walk in the Parish of Saint Leonard Shoreditch, in the County of Middlesex, shall continue in force until the First Day of November in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and no longer, unless Parliament shall in the meantime continue the said last-mentioned Acts.

Act may be amended, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCVII.

An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs upon the Importation of Sugar, and to impose new Duties in lieu thereof. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for granting certain Duties on Sugar and Molasses, certain Duties of Customs were imposed upon the Importation of Sugar and Molasses: And whereas it is expedient that the said Duties should be repealed, and that other Duties should be raised and levied in lieu thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Duties on Sugar and Molasses imposed by the said recited Act shall be and they are hereby repealed; and that from and after the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight in lieu thereof there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon Sugar or Molasses already or hereafter to be imported into the United Kingdom, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures, and according to the respective Dates and Periods following; (that is to say,) 9 & 10 Vict. c. 63.

Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, allow Importation of Sugar, &c. from British Possessions in the East Indies at the lower Rate of Duty when Foreign Sugar is prohibited.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at any Time satisfactory Proof shall have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, that as respects any British Possession the Importation of Foreign Sugar has been prohibited, it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, and She is hereby empowered, from Time to Time, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare that Sugar and Molasses the Growth or Produce of any such British Possession may be imported from thence into the United Kingdom, and entered at the lower Rates of Duty herein-before imposed on Sugar and Molasses the Growth or Produce of British Possessions into which the Importation of Foreign Sugar is prohibited; and from and after the Publication of such Order, whilst the same shall continue in force, the Sugars and Molasses therein mentioned may be so imported and entered accordingly.

Such Sugar, &c. to be entered at lower Rates of Duty, on the Conditions on which Bengal Sugar was admissible under 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 26.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Sugars or Molasses the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter in which the Importation of Foreign Sugar is or shall be prohibited, which shall be entered for Home Use at the lower Rates of Duty herein-before imposed on Sugar and Molasses the Produce of such Possessions, shall be entered in the same and the like Manner, and under the same or the like Conditions, in and under which Sugar the Growth of the Presidency of Bengal might be entered for Home Use, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the granting to His Majesty, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, certain Duties on Sugar imported into the United Kingdom, for for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, at the lower Rate of Duty therein mentioned.

Collection of Duties to be under the Management of the Customs, under 8 & 9 Vict. c. 90. and 8 & 9 Vict. c. 92.

IV. And be it enacted, That the several Duties, Bounties, and Allowances by this Act imposed and allowed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and shall be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, allowed, and applied or appropriated under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for granting Duties of Customs, and of another Act passed in the same Years, intituled An Act to grant certain Bounties and Allowances of Customs, and of any other Act or Acts in force relating to the Customs.

Commissioners of Customs to provide Standard Samples of White Clayed Sugar.

None to be deemed such unless it shall equal Standard Samples.

V. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Customs shall provide Samples of White Clayed Sugar and of Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to White Clayed Sugar, with reference to Colour, Grain, and Saccharine Matter, which Samples shall be deemed to be Standard Samples for the Purpose of comparing therewith such White Clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to White Clayed Sugar, as from and after the passing of this Act may be entered for Home Consumption; and such Standard Samples shall from Time to Time be renewed whenever the said Commissioners may deem it expedient; and no Sugar shall, as regards the Payment of Duty, be deemed or taken to be White Clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to White Clayed, unless it shall, with reference to Colour, Grain, and Saccharine Matter, equal the Standard Samples so respectively provided by the said Commissioners.

Commissioners of Customs to provide Standard Samples of Brown Clayed Sugar.

None deemed such unless equal to Standard Samples.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Customs shall provide Samples of Brown Clayed Sugar, and of Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to Brown Clayed Sugar, which Samples shall be deemed to be Standard Samples for the Purpose of comparing therewith such Brown Clayed Sugar or Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to Brown Clayed Sugar, as from and after the passing of this Act may be entered for Home Consumption; and such Standard Samples shall from Time to Time be renewed whenever the said Commissioners may deem it expedient; and no Sugar shall, as regards Payment of Duty, be deemed or taken to be Brown Clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to Brown Clayed Sugar, unless it shall equal the Standard Samples so respectively provided by the said Commissioners.

Sugar or Molasses imported or in Warehouse to be liable to the Duties imposed by this Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That all Sugar or Molasses imported, but not entered, or which shall have been warehoused without Payment of Duty on the first Importation thereof, and which shall be in Port or Warehouse at the respective Periods at which the Duties imposed by this Act shall become chargeable, shall be deemed and taken to be liable to the Duties so imposed by this Act; and the Rate or Rates of Duty chargeable by this Act upon Sugar or Molasses, from the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight to the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, shall be deemed and taken to be applicable to Sugar or Molasses delivered for Home Consumption prior to the passing of this Act, and subsequently to the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Orders in Council to be published in the Gazette;

VIII. And be it enacted, That every Order in Council to be made under the Authority of this Act shall, as soon as may be after the making thereof by Her Majesty in Council, be published in the London Gazette.

and may be revoked.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by an Order in Council, from Time to Time to revoke or alter any Order in Council previously made under the Authority of this Act.

Copies of Orders in Council to be laid before Parliament.

X. And be it enacted, That a Copy of every Order of Her Majesty in Council made under the Authority of this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the issuing of the same, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, then within Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCVIII.

An Act to amend the Law for the Trial of Election Petitions. [4th September 1848.]

7 & 8 Vict. c. 103. repealed, except as to Acts done, &c.

Repeal of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 103. not to revive 9 G. 4. c. 22. and certain Parts of 42 G. 3. c. 106. and 47 G. 3. c. 14.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law for the Trial of Election Petitions: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Law for the Trial of controverted Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, shall be repealed, except as to any Act done or any Proceeding incident to any Election Petition presented under the said recited Act, all which Acts and Proceedings shall have effect, and shall, save as herein-after specially provided, be continued and completed as if this Act had not passed: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not revive an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, repealed by the said Act, nor shall it revive so much of an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland, nor so much of an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to amend several Acts for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, so far as the same relate to Ireland, as requires the Parties appearing before any Select Committee to interchange before the said Committee Lists of the Votes and Names of Voters to which either of the Parties intends to object, and Statements in Writing respecting the Matters which either of the said Parties mean to insist upon, contend for, or to object to, or as provides that no Witness shall be called or examined to anything not specified in such Lists or Statements, also repealed by the firstly-recited Act.

Reception of Petitions.

What shall be deemed Election Petitions.

II. And be it enacted, That every Petition presented to the House of Commons within the Time from Time to Time limited by the House for receiving Election Petitions, and complaining of an undue Election or Return of a Member to serve in Parliament, or complaining that no Return has been made according to the Requisition of any Writ issued for the Election of a Member to serve in Parliament, or complaining of the special Matters contained in any such Return, and which Petition shall be subscribed by some Person who voted or had a Right to vote at the Election to which the same relates, or by some Person claiming to have had a Right to be returned or elected thereat, or alleging himself to have been a Candidate at the Election, shall be deemed an Election Petition.

Before Petition presented Recognizances to be entered into.

III. And be it enacted, That before any Election Petition shall be presented to the House a Recognizance shall be entered into by One, Two, Three, or Four Persons, as Sureties for the Person subscribing such Petition, for the Sum of One thousand Pounds, in One Sum, or in several Sums of not less than Two hundred and fifty Pounds each, for the Payment of all Costs and Expenses which under the Provisions herein-after contained shall become payable by the Person subscribing the Petition to any Witness summoned in his Behalf, or to the sitting Member or other the Party complained of in such Petition, or to any Party who may be admitted to defend such Petition, as herein-after provided.

Persons entering into Recognizances to make Affidavits of Sufficiency.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person who enters into any such Recognizance shall testify upon Oath in Writing to be sworn at the Time of entering into the said Recognizance, and before the same Person by whom his Recognizance is taken, that he is seised or possessed of Real or Personal Estate (or both), above what will satisfy his Debts, of the clear Value of the Sum for which he is bound by his said Recognizance; and every such Affidavit shall be annexed to the Recognizance.

Form of Recognizance as set forth in Schedule.

V. And be it enacted, That in every such Recognizance shall be mentioned the Names and usual Places of Residence or Business of the Persons becoming Sureties as aforesaid, with such other Description of the Sureties as may be sufficient to identify them easily; and such Recognizance may be in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule to this Act, with such Alteration as may be necessary to adapt such Form to the Circumstances of each Case.

Persons signing Election Petition may pay Money into the Bank, instead of finding Security.

VI. And be it enacted, That any Person by whom an Election Petition is signed may, instead of procuring a Recognizance for the full Amount of the Sum herein-before required, pay into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Speaker and the Examiner of Recognizances, as Trustees for the like Purposes for which the Recognizance is herein-before required, any Amount of Money which he thinks fit, not being less than Two hundred and fifty Pounds; and in such Case the Person by whom the Petition is signed shall be required to find Sureties for so much only of the Sum of One thousand Pounds as the Sum paid into the Bank falls short of that Sum; and no Money shall be deemed for the Purposes of this Act to be paid into the Bank of England until a Bank Receipt or Certificate for the same is procured, and delivered to the Examiner of Recognizances.

No Petition to be received unless endorsed by the Examiner of Recognizances.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Election Petition shall be received unless at the Time it is presented to the House it be endorsed by a Certificate under the Hand of the Examiner of Recognizances, that the Recognizance herein-before required has been entered into and received by him, with the Affidavit thereunto annexed, and, if the Recognizance have not been taken for the whole Amount, that a Bank Receipt or Certificate for so much Money as the Recognizance falls short of One thousand Pounds has been delivered to him, as herein-before required.

How Petitions may be withdrawn.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Petitioner may, at any Time after the Presentation thereof, withdraw the same, upon giving Notice in Writing under his Hand, or under the Hand of his Agent, to the Speaker, and also to the sitting Member or his Agent, and also to any Party who may have been admitted to oppose the Prayer of such Petition, that it is not intended to proceed with the Petition; and in such Case the Petitioner shall be liable to the Payment of such Costs and Expenses as have been incurred by the sitting Member or other Party complained of in such Petition, and also by any Party admitted to oppose the Prayer of such Petition, to be taxed as herein-after provided.

Examiner of Recognizances.

Speaker to appoint Examiner.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Speaker of the House of Commons shall appoint a fit Person to be Examiner of Recognizances; and every Person so appointed shall hold his Office during the Pleasure of the Speaker, and shall execute the Duties of his Office conformably to such Directions as he may from Time to Time receive from the Speaker.

Appointment of Deputy in case of Illness, &c.

X. And be it enacted, That in case of the Illness, temporary Disability, or unavoidable Absence of the Examiner of Recognizances, the Speaker may appoint a fit Person to perform the Duties of Examiner of Recognizances during such Illness, Disability, or Absence; and throughout this Act the Expression "Examiner of Recognizances" shall be deemed to include and apply to the Person so appointed, and for the Time being performing such Duties.

Entering into Recognizances.

How Recognizances are to be entered into.

XI. And be it enacted, That every Recognizance herein-before required shall be entered into, and every Affidavit herein-before required shall be sworn, before the Examiner of Recognizances or a Justice of the Peace, and the said Examiner, and also every Justice of the Peace, is hereby empowered to take the same; and every such Recognizance and Affidavit taken before a Justice, being duly certified under the Hand of such Justice, shall be delivered to the Examiner of Recognizances.

XII. And

Names of Sureties, &c. to be kept in Examiner's Office, and to be open to Inspection.

XII. And be it enacted, That on or before the Day when any such Petition is presented to the House the Names and Descriptions of the Sureties, when there are Sureties, as set forth in the Recognizance, shall be entered in a Book to be kept by the Examiner of Recognizances in his Office; and the said Book, and also the Recognizance and Affidavits, and the Bank Receipt for any Money paid into the Bank of England, shall be open to the Inspection of all Parties concerned.

Recognizance may be objected to for Invalidity, or for Insufficiency of Sureties.

XIII. And be it enacted, That any sitting Member petitioned against, or any Electors petitioning and admitted Parties to defend the Election or Return, may object to any such Recognizance on the Ground that the same is invalid, or that the same was not duly entered into or received by the Examiner of Recognizances, with the Affidavit thereunto annexed as herein-before required, or on the Ground that the Sureties or any of them are insufficient, or that a Surety is dead, or that he cannot be found or ascertained from the Want of a sufficient Description in the Recognizance, or that a Person named in the Recognizance has not duly acknowledged the same; provided that the Ground of Objection shall be stated in Writing under the Hand of the objecting Party or his Agent, and shall be delivered to the Examiner of Recognizances within Ten Days or not later than Twelve of the Clock at Noon of the Eleventh Day after the Presentation of the Petition, if the Surety objected to reside in England, or within Fourteen Days or not later than Twelve of the Clock at Noon of the Fifteenth Day after the Presentation of the Petition if the Surety objected to reside in Scotland or Ireland: Provided also, that if either such Eleventh or such Fifteenth Day happen to be a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, it shall be sufficient if such Notice of Objection be delivered to the Examiner of Recognizances not later than Twelve of the Clock at Noon of the following Day.

Notice of Objections to be published in Examiner's Office, and Copies may be taken.

XIV. And be it enacted, That as soon as any such Statement of Objection is received by the Examiner of Recognizances he shall put up an Acknowledgment thereof in some conspicuous Part of his Office, and shall appoint a Day for hearing such Objections, not less than Three nor more than Five Days from the Day on which he received such Statement; and the Petitioner and his Agent shall be allowed to examine and take Copies of every such Objection.

Examiner of Recognizances to decide on the Objections.

XV. And be it enacted, That at the Time appointed the Examiner of Recognizances shall inquire into the alleged Objections, on the Grounds stated in the Notice of Objection, but not on any other Ground; and for the Purpose of such Inquiry the Examiner of Recognizances may examine upon Oath any Persons tendered by either Party for Examination by him, and may also receive in Evidence any Affidavit relating to the Matter in dispute before him, sworn before him, or before any Master of the High Court of Chancery or Justice of the Peace, each of whom is hereby authorized to take and certify such Affidavit; and the Examiner of Recognizances may, if he think fit, adjourn the said Inquiry from Time to Time until he decide on the Validity of such Objection, and he may, if he think fit, award Costs to be paid by either Party to the other, which Costs shall be taxed and recovered as herein-after provided for the Costs and Expenses of prosecuting or opposing Election Petitions; and the Decision of the Examiner of Recognizances shall be final and conclusive against all Parties.

In case of Death of a Surety, the Petitioner may pay the Money into the Bank.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Surety die, and his Death be stated as a Ground of Objection before the End of the Time allowed for objecting to Recognizances, the Petitioner may pay into the Bank of England, on the Account of the Speaker and the Examiner of Recognizances, the Sum for which the deceased Surety was bound; and upon the Delivery of a Bank Receipt for such Sum to the Examiner of Recognizances within Three Days after the Day on which the Statement of such Objection was delivered to the Examiner of Recognizances, the Recognizances shall be deemed unobjectionable, if no other Grounds of Objection thereto be stated within the Time before mentioned for stating Objections to Recognizances.

Examiner of Recognizances to report whether or not Recognizances are objectionable.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if the Examiner of Recognizances have received any Statement of Objection to the Recognizances to any such Election Petition, and have decided that such Recognizances are objectionable, he shall forthwith report to the Speaker that such Recognizances are objectionable; but if he shall have decided that such Recognizances are unobjectionable, or if he have not received any such Statement of Objection, then, as soon as the Time herein-before allowed for stating any such Objection has elapsed after the Presentation of the Petition, or as soon thereafter as he has decided upon the Statement of Objection, the Examiner of Recognizances shall report to the Speaker that the Recognizances to such Petition are unobjectionable; and every such Report shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes; and he shall make out a List of all Election Petitions on which he has reported to the Speaker that the Recognizances are unobjectionable, in which List the Petitions shall be arranged in the Order in which they are so reported upon; and a Copy of such List shall be kept in the Office of the Examiner of Recognizances, and shall be open to the Inspection of all Parties concerned.

Admission of Parties to defend.

Proceedings when the Seat becomes vacant, or the sitting Member declines to defend his Return.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if at any Time before the Appointment of a Select Committee, as herein-after provided, to try any Election Petition, the Speaker of the House of Commons be informed, by a Certificate in Writing subscribed by Two of the Members of the said House, of the Death of any sitting Member whose Election or Return is complained of in such Petition, or of the Death of any Member returned upon a double Return whose Election or Return is complained of in such Petition, or that a Writ of Summons has been issued under the Great Seal of Great Britain to summon any such Member to Parliament as a Peer of Great Britain, or if the House of Commons have resolved that the Seat of any such Member is by Law become vacant, or if the House be informed, by a Declaration in Writing subscribed by any such Member, and delivered to the Speaker within Fourteen Days after the Day on which any such Petition was presented, that it is not the Intention of such Member to defend his Election or Return, in every such Case Notice thereof shall immediately be sent by the Speaker to the General

Admission of Parties to defend.

Committee of Elections, and to the Members of the Chairmen's Panel, herein-after mentioned, and also to the Sheriff or other Returning Officer for the County, City, Borough, District of Burghs, Port or Place, to which such Petition relates; and such Sheriff or other Returning Officer shall cause a true Copy of such Notice to be affixed on or near the Door of the County Hall or Town Hall, or of the Parish Church, nearest to the Place where such Election has usually been held; and such Notice shall also be inserted, by Order of the Speaker, in one of the next Two London Gazettes, and shall be communicated by him to the House.

Voters may become a Party to oppose the Petition.

XIX. And be it enacted, That at any Time within Fourteen Days after the Day on which any Election Petition was presented, or within Twenty-one Days after the Day on which any Notice was inserted in the Gazette, to the Effect that the Seat is vacant, or that the Member returned will not defend his Election or Return, or if either of the said Periods expire during a Prorogation of Parliament, or during an Adjournment of the House of Commons for the Easter or Christmas Holidays, then, on or before the Second Day on which the House meets after such Prorogation or Adjournment, any Person who voted or had a Right to vote at the Election to which the Petition relates may petition the House of Commons, praying to be admitted as a Party to defend such Return, or to oppose the Prayer of such Petition; and such Person shall thereupon be admitted as a Party, together with the sitting Member, if he be then a Party against such Petition, or in the Room of such Member if he be not then a Party against the Petition; and every such Petition shall be referred by the House to the General Committee of Elections herein-after mentioned.

Members having given Notice of their Intention not to defend, not to appear as Parties.

XX. And be it enacted, That whenever the Member whose Election or Return is so complained of in such Petition has given Notice as aforesaid of his Intention not to defend the same, he shall not be afterwards allowed to appear or act as a Party against such Petition in any Proceedings thereupon, and he shall also be restrained from sitting in the House of Commons or voting on any Question until such Petition has been decided upon.

Double Return.

Provision for Cases of double Return where the Member complained of declines to defend his Return.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if in the Case of an Election Petition complaining of a double Return the Member whose Return is complained of in such Petition have given Notice as aforesaid that it is not his Intention to defend his Return, and if no Party, within the Period herein-before allowed for that Purpose, have been admitted to defend such Return, then, if there be no Election Petition complaining of the other Member returned on such double Return, it shall be lawful for the last-mentioned Member or other the Persons who subscribed the Petition complaining of such double Return to withdraw such Petition by Letter addressed to the Speaker; and thereupon the Order for referring such Petition to the General Committee of Elections shall be discharged, and the House shall give the necessary Directions for amending the said double Return, by taking off the File the Indenture by which the Person so declining to defend his Return was returned, or otherwise, as the Case may require.

General Committee.

At the Beginning of every Session the Speaker to appoint a General Committee.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in the first Session of every Parliament, on the Day after the last Day allowed by the House of Commons for receiving Election Petitions, and in every subsequent Session, as soon as convenient after the Commencement of the Session, the Speaker shall by Warrant under his Hand appoint Six Members of the House who are willing to serve, and against whose Return no Petition is then depending, and none of whom is a Petitioner complaining of any Election or Return, to be Members of a Committee to be called "The General Committee of Elections;" and every such Warrant shall be laid on the Table of the House, and, if not disapproved by the House in the course of the Three next Days on which the House meets for the Despatch of Business, shall take effect as an Appointment of such General Committee.

If first Appointment disapproved a new one to be made.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if the House disapprove any such Warrant, the Speaker shall, on or before the Third Day on which the House meets after such Disapproval, lay upon the Table of the House a new Warrant for the Appointment of Six Members, qualified as aforesaid, and so from Time to Time until Six Members have been appointed by a Warrant not disapproved by the House.

Disapproval may be general or special.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the Disapproval of the Warrant may be either general in respect of the Constitution of the whole Committee, or special in respect of any Member named in the Warrant.

Members not disapproved may be again named.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Speaker may, if he think fit, name in the second or any subsequent Warrant any of the Members named in any former Warrant whose Appointment has not been specially disapproved by the House as aforesaid.

For what Time the Appointment shall be.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That after the Appointment of the General Committee every Member appointed shall continue to be a Member of the Committee until the End of that Session of Parliament, or until he cease to be a Member of the House of Commons, or until he resign his Appointment (which he may do by Letter to the Speaker), or until the General Committee report that he is disabled by continued Illness from attending the Committee, or until the Committee be dissolved as herein-after provided.

As to Vacancies in General Committee.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in every Case of Vacancy in the General Committee of Elections the Speaker, on the First Day on which the House meets after such Vacancy is known by him, shall make known the Vacancy to the House, and thereupon all Proceedings of the General Committee shall be suspended until the Vacancy is supplied as herein-after provided.

General Committee may be dissolved in certain Cases.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That if the General Committee of Elections at any Time report to the House that, by reason of the continued Absence of more than Two of its Members, or by reason of irreconcileable Disagreement of Opinion, the said Committee is unable to proceed in the Discharge of its Duties, or if the House resolve that the General Committee of Elections be dissolved, the General Committee shall be thereby forthwith dissolved.

XXIX. And

General Committee.

How Vacancies shall be supplied, and Re-appointments made.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That every Appointment to supply a Vacancy in the General Committee, and every Re-appointment of the General Committee after the Dissolution thereof, shall be made by the Speaker by Warrant under his Hand, laid upon the Table of the House on or before the Third Day on which the House meets after the Dissolution of the Committee or Notification of the Vacancy (as the Case may be); and the Warrant shall be subject to the Disapproval of the House in the like Manner as is herein-before provided in the Case of the first Warrant for the Appointment of the General Committee; and upon any Re-appointment of the General Committee the Speaker may, if he think fit, re-appoint any of the Members of the former Committee who are then willing and not disqualified to serve on it.

Time and Place of First Meeting. Committee to be sworn.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the Speaker shall appoint the Time and Place of the First Meeting of the General Committee of Elections, and the Committee shall meet at the Time and Place so appointed; but no Member shall act upon such Committee until he have been sworn at the Table of the House, by the Clerk, truly and faithfully to perform the Duties belonging to a Member of the said Committee, to the best of his Judgment and Ability, without Fear or Favour.

Members necessary to enable the Committee to act.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That no Business shall be transacted by the General Committee of Elections unless at the least Four Members thereof be then present together; and no Appointment of a Select Committee by the General Committee, to be made as herein-after provided, shall be of force unless at the least Four Members then present of the General Committee agree in the Appointment.

Regulation of Committee Business.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That, subject to the Provisions of this Act, the General Committee shall make Regulations for the Order and Manner of conducting the Business to be transacted by them.

Clerk to keep Minutes of Proceedings, to be laid before the House.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the General Committee shall be attended by One of the Committee Clerks of the House selected for that Purpose by the Clerk of the House, and such Committee Clerk shall make a Minute of all the Proceedings of the Committee, in such Form and Manner as shall be from Time to Time directed by the Committee, and a Copy of the Minutes so kept shall be laid from Time to Time before the House of Commons.

Speaker during Suspension of Proceedings may adjourn any Business.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That if at the Time of the Dissolution or Suspension of the Proceedings of the General Committee of Elections there be any Business appointed to be transacted by such General Committee on any certain Day, the Speaker may adjourn the Transaction of such Business to such other Day as to him seems convenient.

Panels.

Members wholly excused from serving.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That every Member more than Sixty Years old shall be wholly excused from serving on Election Committees, provided that on or before the Reading over of the Names of such excused Members as herein-after mentioned, or upon his afterwards becoming entitled to make such Claim, he claim to be excused, by declaring in his Place, or in Writing under his Hand delivered to the Clerk at the Table, that he is more than Sixty Years old; but no Member shall be so excused who does not claim to be excused before he is chosen to serve, as herein-after provided.

Names of Members claiming to be excused to be called over.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That in the First Session of every Parliament, on the next Meeting of the House after the last Day allowed for receiving Election Petitions, and in every subsequent Session on the next Meeting of the House after the Speaker has laid on the Table his Warrant for the Appointment of the General Committee of Elections, the Clerk of the House shall read over the Names of all the Members who have so claimed to be excused.

Members temporarily excused from serving.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That every Member having Leave of Absence from the House shall be excused from serving on Election Committees during such Leave; and if any Member in his Place offer any other Excuse, either at the reading over of the said Names or at any other Time, the Substance of the Allegations shall be taken down by the Clerk, in order that the same may be afterwards entered on the Journals, and the Opinion of the House shall then be taken thereon; and if the House resolve that the said Member ought to be excused he shall be excused from serving on Election Committees for such Time as to the House seems fit, but no Member shall be so excused who does not claim to be excused before he is chosen to serve; and every Member who has served on One Election Committee, and who within Seven Days after such Committee has made its final Report to the House notifies to the Clerk of the General Committee his Claim to be excused from so serving again, shall be excused during the Remainder of the Session, unless the House at any Time resolve, upon the Report of the General Committee, that the Number of Members who have not so served is insufficient; but no Member shall be deemed to have served on an Election Committee who on account of Inability or Accident has been excused from attending the same throughout.

Members temporarily disqualified from serving.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That every Member who is a Petitioner complaining of an undue Election or Return, or against whose Return a Petition is depending, shall be disqualified to serve on Election Committees during the Continuance of such Ground of Disqualification.

A corrected List, distinguishing the excused or disqualified Members, to be printed, and distributed with the Votes.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the House of Commons shall make out an alphabetical List of all the Members, omitting the Names of such Members as have claimed to be wholly excused from serving on Election Committees as aforesaid; and the Clerk shall also distinguish in such List the Name of every Member for the Time being excused or disqualified, and shall also note in the List every Cause of such temporary Excuse or Disqualification, and the Duration thereof; and such List shall be printed, and distributed with the Votes of the House, and the Names of all the Members so omitted shall be also printed, and distributed with the Votes.

Further Correction of List.

XL. And be it enacted, That during Three Days next after the Day of the Distribution of such corrected List further Corrections may be made in such List by Leave of the Speaker, if it appear that any any Name has been improperly left in or struck out of such List, or that there is any other Error in such List.

Selection of Members to serve as Chairmen of Election Committees.

XLI. And be it enacted, That the List so finally corrected shall be referred to the General Committee of Elections; and the General Committee shall thereupon select, in their Discretion, Six, Eight, Ten, or Twelve Members, whom they think duly qualified to serve as Chairmen of Election Committees; and the Members so selected shall be formed into a separate Panel, to be called the Chairmen's Panel, which shall be reported to the House; and while the Name of any Member is upon the Chairmen's Panel he shall not be liable or qualified to serve on an Election Committee otherwise than as Chairman; and every Member placed on the Chairmen's Panel shall be bound to continue upon it till the End of the Session, or until he sooner cease to be a Member of the House, or until, by Leave of the House, he be discharged from continuing upon the Chairmen's Panel: Provided always, that every Member of the Chairmen's Panel who has served on One or more Election Committees, and who notifies to the Clerk of the General Committee of Elections his Claim to be discharged from continuing upon the Chairmen's Panel, shall be so discharged accordingly; and every such Member shall be excused from serving upon any Election Committee, either as Chairman or otherwise, during the Remainder of the Session; but no Member of the Chairmen's Panel shall be deemed to have served on an Election Committee who on account of Inability or Accident has been excused from attending the same throughout.

List to be divided into Five Panels.

XLII. And be it enacted, That after the Chairmen's Panel has been so as aforesaid selected, the General Committee shall divide the Members then remaining on such List into Five Panels, in such Manner as to them seems most convenient, but so nevertheless that each Panel may contain as nearly as may be the same Number of Members, and they shall report to the House the Division so made by them; and the Clerk shall decide by Lot at the Table the Order of the Panels as settled by the General Committee, and shall distinguish each of them by a Number denoting the Order in which they were drawn; and the Panels shall then be returned to the General Committee of Elections, and shall be the Panels from which Members shall be chosen to serve on Election Committees.

General Committee to correct the Panels from Time to Time.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That the General Committee of Elections shall correct the said Panels from Time to Time by striking out of them the Name of every Member who ceases to be a Member of the House, or who from Time to Time becomes entitled and claims as aforesaid to be wholly excused from serving on Election Committees, and by inserting in One of the Panels to be chosen by the General Committee, at their Discretion, the Name of every new Member of the House not entitled and not having claimed as aforesaid to be wholly excused, and shall also from Time to Time distinguish in the Manner aforesaid in the said Panels the Names of the Members for the Time being excused or disqualified for any of the Reasons aforesaid; and the General Committee shall, as often as they think fit, report to the House the Panels as corrected; and as often as the General Committee reports the said Panels to the House they shall be printed, and distributed with the Votes.

Power to transfer to another Panel Names of Members obtaining Leave of Absence.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That when Leave of Absence for a limited Time has been granted by the House to any Member, the General Committee of Elections may transfer the Name of such Member from the Panel in which it has been placed to some other Panel subsequent in Rotation, if they think fit so to do, having regard to the Length of Time for which such Leave of Absence has been granted, and to the Number of Select Committees then about to be appointed.

For supplying Vacancies, and increasing the Chairmen's Panel.

XLV. And be it enacted, That whenever any Member of the Chairmen's Panel ceases to be a Member of the House, or is by Leave of the House discharged from continuing upon the Chairmen's Panel, or is so discharged by reason of Service under the Provision herein-before contained, the General Committee shall forthwith select another Member to be placed upon the Chairmen's Panel in his Room; and in case it at any Time appear to the General Committee that the Chairmen's Panel is too small, they may select Two, Four, or Six additional Members to place upon it, so nevertheless that the Chairmen's Panel shall not at any Time consist of more than Eighteen Members, without the Leave of the House first obtained.

Appointment of Select Committees.

Election Petitions to be referred to the General Committee; who shall make out a List of the same.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That all Election Petitions received by the House shall be referred by the House to the General Committee of Elections, for the Purpose of choosing Select Committees, as hereinafter provided, to try such Petitions; and the Speaker shall communicate to the House and to the General Committee every Report by the Examiner of Recognizances to him concerning the Recognizances to any Election Petition; and in every Case in which any Election Petition is withdrawn, or the Examiner of Recognizances reports to the Speaker that the Recognizances are objectionable, the Order for referring such Petition to the General Committee of Elections shall be discharged, and no further Proceeding shall be had upon such Petition; and the General Committee shall make out a List of all Election Petitions in which the Examiner of Recognizances has reported to the Speaker that the Recognizances are unobjectionable, and in which the Proceedings are not suspended, in which List the Petitions shall be arranged in the Order in which they were so reported upon; and in every Case in which the Proceedings in any Petition inserted in such List are afterwards suspended the Petition shall be struck out of the List, and shall be again inserted at the Bottom of the List at the End of such Suspension of Proceedings.

Proceedings to be suspended in certain Cases.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That when Notice of the Death or Vacancy of the Seat of any Member petitioned against, or that it is not the Intention of such Member to defend his Election or Return, is given to the General Committee of Elections by the Speaker, as herein-before provided, the General Committee shall suspend their Proceedings in the Matter of the Petition referred to in such Notice, until Twenty-one Days after the Day on which Notice of such Death or Vacancy, or Intention not to defend, has has been inserted in the Gazette, under the Provision herein-before contained, unless the Petition of some Person claiming to be admitted as a Party in the Room of such Member be sooner referred to them.

Provision for Cases where more than One Petition.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That when more than One Election Petition relating to the same Election or Return are referred to the General Committee of Elections, they shall suspend their Proceedings in the Matter of all such Petitions until the Report of the Examiner of Recognizances upon each of such Petitions, or such of them as have not been withdrawn, is received by them; and upon Receipt of the last of such Reports they shall place such Petitions at the Bottom of the then List of Election Petitions, bracketed together, and such Petitions shall afterwards be dealt with as One Petition.

Committees to be chosen for Petitions according to their Order in the List.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the General Committee of Elections shall choose the Committees to try the Election Petitions standing in the said List of Petitions in the Order in which such Petitions stand in such List, and they shall from Time to Time determine how many Committees shall be chosen in each Week for trying such Petitions, and the Days on which they will meet for choosing such Committees, having regard to the Number of Select Committees which may then be sitting for the Trial of Election Petitions, and to the whole Number of such Committees then to be appointed, and they shall report to the House from Time to Time the Days appointed by them for choosing such Committees.

Committees to be appointed for Petitions standing over on a Prorogation of Parliament.

L. And be it enacted, That if Parliament is prorogued after any Election Petition has been presented, but before the Appointment of a Select Committee to try such Petition, the General Committee of Elections appointed in the following Session shall, within Two Days after their First Meeting, in case the Sureties have been then reported unobjectionable, appoint a Day and Hour for selecting a Committee to try the Petition so standing over as aforesaid: Provided always, that if the Number of Petitions so standing over be so great that the Times for selecting Committees to try the whole thereof cannot, in the Judgment of the General Committee, be conveniently appointed within Two Days after their First Meeting, the said General Committee shall, within Two Days after their First Meeting, appoint the Times for selecting Committees to try so many of the said Petitions as the said General Committee deems convenient, and shall afterwards, from Time to Time, as soon as conveniently may be, appoint the Times for selecting the Committees to try the Remainder of such Petitions.

Notice of Time &c. when any Committee will be chosen shall be published with the Votes.

Notice of Suspension of Proceedings to be published; and sent to Returning Officer by Post.

LI. And be it enacted, That Notice of the Time and Place at which the Committee will be chosen to try any Election Petition shall be published with the Votes, not less than Fourteen Days before the Day on which such Committee is appointed to be chosen; and in case the Conduct of the Returning Officer is complained of, such Notice shall be sent to him through the Post, not less than Fourteen Days before the Day on which such Committee is appointed to be chosen; and every such Notice shall direct all Parties interested to attend the General Committee of Elections, by themselves or their Agents, at the Time and Place appointed for choosing the Select Committee; and if (after any such Notice has been published with the Votes, or sent to the Returning Officer as aforesaid,) the Proceedings in the Matter of such Petition become suspended, Notice of such Suspension shall be immediately published with the Votes; and in case the Conduct of the Returning Officer is complained of, such Notice shall be sent to him through the Post.

Provision for Cases where the sitting Member does not defend, and no Party has been admitted to defend.

LII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if Notice of the Death or Vacancy of the Seat of any Member petitioned against, or that it is not the Intention of such Member to defend his Election or Return, have been inserted in the Gazette, by Order of the Speaker, as herein-before provided, and no Party has been admitted to defend such Election or Return, then, if the Conduct of the Returning Officer is not complained of in such Petition, it shall not be necessary to insert such Petition at the Bottom of the then List of Petitions, but the General Committee of Elections shall meet for choosing the Select Committee to try such Petition as soon as conveniently may be after the Expiration of the Time allowed for Parties to come in to defend such Election or Return, and not less than One Day's Notice of the Time and Place appointed for choosing such Committee shall be given in the Votes; and in such Case it shall not be necessary to deliver to the Clerk of the General Committee of Elections a List of the Voters intended to be objected to, as herein-after is required in other Cases.

General Committee empowered to change the Day for choosing Select Committee.

LIII. And be it enacted, That the General Committee of Elections may change the Day and Hour appointed by them for choosing a Select Committee to try any Election Petition, and appoint some subsequent Day and Hour for the same, if in their Judgment it be expedient so to do, giving Notice in the Votes of the Day and Hour so subsequently appointed; and in every Case in which any such Change is made by them they shall forthwith report the same to the House, with their Reasons for making such Change.

Notice of Petitions and Panels.

LIV. And be it enacted, That Notice shall be published with the Votes of the Petitions appointed for each Week, and of the Panel from which Committees will be chosen to try such Petitions, and each Panel shall serve for a Week, beginning with the Panel first drawn, and continuing by Rotation in the Order in which they were drawn, and not reckoning those Weeks in which no Select Committee is appointed to be chosen.

Lists of Voters intended to be objected to shall be delivered to the Clerk of the General Committee.

LV. And be it enacted, That the Parties complaining of or defending the Election or Return complained of in any Election Petition shall, except in the Case herein-before provided for, by themselves or their Agents, deliver in to the Clerk of the General Committee Lists of the Voters intended to be objected to, giving in the said Lists the several Heads of Objection, and distinguishing the same against the Names of the Voters excepted to, not later than Six of the Clock in the Afternoon on the Sixth Day next before the Day appointed for choosing the Committee to try the Petition complaining of such Election or Return; and the said Clerk shall keep the Lists so delivered to him in his Office open to the Inspection of all Parties concerned.

LVI. And

Appointment of Select Committees.

Committee for trying Petitions to be chosen.

LVI. And be it enacted, That the General Committee shall meet at the Time and Place appointed for choosing the Committee to try any Election Petition, and shall choose from the Panel in Service Four Members, not being then excused or disqualified for any of the Causes aforesaid, and not specially disqualified for being appointed on the Committee to try such Petition for any of the following Causes; (that is to say,) by reason of having voted at the Election, or by reason of being the Party on whose Behalf the Seat is claimed, or related to him or to the Sitting Member by Kindred or Affinity in the First or Second Degree according to the Canon Law.

In case General Committee do not agree in choosing a Committee to try the Petition, they shall adjourn.

LVII. And be it enacted, That if at the least Four Members then present of the General Committee of Elections do not agree in choosing a Committee to try any Election Petition the General Committee shall adjourn the choosing of that Committee, and of the remaining Committees appointed to be chosen on the same Day, to the following Day, and the Parties shall be directed to attend on the following Day, or if such following Day happen during an Adjournment of the House, then on the Day to which the House stands adjourned, and so from Day to Day until all such Committees are chosen, or until the General Committee of Elections is dissolved, as herein-before provided; and the General Committee shall not in any Case proceed to choose a Committee to try an Election Petition until they have chosen a Committee to try every other Election Petition standing higher in the List aforesaid, the Order for referring which has not been then discharged, except in the Case where the Day originally appointed for choosing a Committee has been changed under the Provision herein-before contained.

Chairman to be chosen by the Members on the Chairmen's Panel, and his Name communicated to the General Committee.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That on the Day appointed by the General Committee to choose an Election Committee the Members upon the Chairmen's Panel shall select One of such Members to act as the Chairman of such Election Committee, and when they have been informed by the General Committee that Four Members of such Election Committee have been chosen they shall communicate the Name of the Member so selected by them to the General Committee; but no Member shall be so selected who would be disqualified from serving on such Committee if not upon the Chairmen's Panel: Provided always, that if, with reference to any Petition for trying which they are about to appoint a Chairman, the Members of the Chairmen's Panel receive Notice from the Speaker, under the Provision herein-before contained, of the Death or Vacancy of the Seat of the sitting Member petitioned against in such Petition, or that it is not his Intention to defend his Seat, they shall suspend their Proceedings with regard to the Appointment of a Chairman to try such Petition until the Day appointed by the General Committee of Elections for selecting a Committee to try such Petition.

Members upon Chairmen's Panel to make Regulations.

LIX. And be it enacted, That the Members upon the Chairmen's Panel may from Time to Time make such Regulations as they find convenient for securing the Appointment or Selection of Chairmen of Election Committees and for distributing the Duties of Chairmen among all of them.

When Committee chosen, Parties to be called in to hear Names read.

LX. And be it enacted, That as soon as the General Committee of Elections has chosen Four Members of a Committee to try any Election Petition, and has received from the Members of the Chairmen's Panel the Name of a Chairman to serve on such Committee, the Parties in attendance shall be called in, and the Names of the Members so chosen and of the Chairman shall be read over to them.

General Committee to proceed in order with all the Petitions appointed for that Day.

LXI. And be it enacted, That after hearing the said Names the Parties present shall be directed to withdraw, and the General Committee may proceed to choose another Committee to try the next Petition appointed for that Day, and so on until all the Committees appointed to be chosen on that Day are chosen, or until the choosing of any Committee is adjourned as aforesaid; and after any such Adjournment the General Committee shall not transact any more Business on that Day, except with regard to those Petitions for trying which Committees have been previously chosen.

Within a certain Time Parties may object to Members on account of Disqualification.

LXII. And be it enacted, That within One Half Hour at furthest from the Time when the Parties to any Election Petition have withdrawn, or if the Parties to any other Election Petition be then before the General Committee of Elections, then, after such other Parties have withdrawn, the Parties in attendance shall be again called before the General Committee in the same Order in which they were directed to withdraw; and the Petitioners and sitting Member, or such Party as may have been admitted as aforesaid to defend the Return or Election, or their Agents, beginning on the Part of the Petitioners, may object to all or any of the Members chosen, or to the Chairman, as being then disqualified or excused for any of the Reasons aforesaid from serving on the Committee for the Trial of that Election Petition, but not for any other Reason.

If General Committee allow the Disqualification, a new Committee to be chosen.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That if at the least Four Members then present of the General Committee be satisfied that any Member so objected to is then disqualified or excused for any of the Reasons aforesaid, the Parties present shall be again directed to withdraw, and the General Committee shall proceed to choose from the same Panel another Committee to try that Petition; or if the Member to whom any such Objection is substantiated be the Chairman, they shall send back his Name to the Members on the Chairmen's Panel, and the Members on the Chairmen's Panel shall proceed to choose another Chairman to try that Petition, and shall communicate his Name to the General Committee, and so as often as the Case requires.

In the new Committee, Members not before objected to may be included.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That in the Second or any following Committee the General Committee may, if they think fit, include any of the Members previously chosen by them to whom no Objection has been substantiated; and no Party shall be allowed to object to any Member included in the Second or any following Committee who was not objected to when included in the Committee first chosen to try that Petition.

When Committee chosen,

LXV. And be it enacted, That when Four Members and a Chairman have been chosen, to none of whom any Objection has been substantiated, the Clerk of the General Committee of Elections shall give

Notice

Notice thereof in Writing to each of the Members so chosen; and with every such Notice shall be sent a Notice of the general and special Grounds of Disqualification and Excuse from serving herein-before mentioned, and of the Time and Place when and where the General Committee will meet on the following Day; and Notice of the Time and Place of such Meeting shall be published with the Votes.

Notice to be sent to every Member thereof.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That the General Committee shall meet on the following Day at the Time and Place mentioned in such Notice as last aforesaid; and if any such Member then and there prove, to the Satisfaction of at least Four Members then present of the General Committee, that for any of the Reasons aforesaid he is disqualified or excused from serving on the Committee for which he has been so chosen, or if any such Member prove, to the Satisfaction of at least Four Members then present of the General Committee, that there are any Circumstances in his Case which render him ineligible to serve on such Select Committee, such Circumstances having regard, not to his own Convenience, but solely to the impartial Character of the Tribunal, the General Committee shall proceed to choose a new Committee to try that Petition, in like Manner as if that Member had been objected to by any Party to the Petition; and if within the Space of One Quarter of an Hour after the Time mentioned in the Notice no Member so appear, or if any Member so appearing do not prove his Disqualification or Excuse, to the Satisfaction of at least Four Members then present of the General Committee, the Select Committee shall be taken to be appointed.

If any Member chosen proves a Disqualification, another Committee to be chosen.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That at the Meeting of the House of Commons for the Despatch of Business next after any such Select Committee has been appointed the General Committee of Elections shall report to the House the Names of the Select Committee appointed, and shall annex to such Report all Petitions referred to them by the House which relate to the Return or Election of which such Select Committee is appointed to try the Merits, and all Lists of Voters which shall have been delivered to them by either Party, and such Report shall be published with the Votes.

Select Committee to be reported to the House.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That at or before Four of the Clock on the next Day on which the House meets for the Despatch of Business after such Report the Five Members chosen to be the Select Committee shall attend in their Places, and shall before departing the House be sworn at the Table by the Clerk well and truly to try the Matter of the Petitions referred to them, and a true Judgment to give according to the Evidence, and shall be taken to be a Select Committee legally appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Return or Election so referred to them by the House, and the Legality of such Appointment shall not be called in question on any Ground whatever; and the Member so appointed from the Chairmen's Panel shall be the Chairman of such Committee; and they shall not depart the House until the Time for the meeting of such Committee is fixed by the House, as herein-after provided.

Members of Select Committee to be sworn.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Member of the said Select Committee do not attend in his Place within One Hour after Four of the Clock on the Day appointed for swearing the said Committee (provided the House sits so long, or if not, then within the like Time on the following Day of sitting), or if, after attending, any Member depart the House before the said Committee is sworn, unless the Committee be discharged, or the swearing of the said Committee be adjourned, as herein-after provided, he shall be ordered to be taken into the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending the House, for such Neglect of his Duty, and shall be otherwise punished or censured, at the Discretion of the House, unless it appear to the House, by Facts specially stated, and verified upon Oath, that such Member was by a sudden Accident or by Necessity prevented from attending the House.

Members of Committee not present within One Hour after Four o'Clock to be taken into Custody by the Serjeant at Arms.

LXX. And be it enacted, That if any such absent Member be not brought into the House within Three Hours after Four of the Clock on the Day first appointed for swearing the said Committee (provided the House sits so long, or if not, then within the like Time on the following Day of sitting), and if no sufficient Cause be shown to the House before its rising whereon the House dispenses with the Attendance of such absent Member, the swearing of the Committee shall be adjourned to the next Meeting of the House; and all the Members of the said Committee shall be bound to attend in their Places, for the Purpose of being sworn, on the Day of the next Meeting of the House, in like Manner as on the Day first appointed for that Purpose.

If any such Member is not present within Three Hours after Four o'Clock, the Proceedings to be adjourned.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That if on the Day to which the swearing of the said Committee is so adjourned all the Members of the Committee do not attend, and be sworn, within One Hour after Four of the Clock (provided the House sits so long, or if not, then within the like Time of the following Day of sitting), or if on the Day first appointed for swearing the said Committee sufficient Cause be shown to the House before its rising why the Attendance of any Member of the Committee should be dispensed with, the said Committee shall be taken to be discharged; and the General Committee shall meet on the following Day, or if such following Day happen during an Adjournment of the House, then on the Day to which the House stands adjourned, and shall proceed to choose a new Committee from the Panel on Service for the Time being, in the Manner herein-before provided, and Notice of such Meeting shall be published with the Votes.

If all the Members do not attend after Adjournment, the Committee to be discharged.

Proceedings of Election Committees.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That the House shall refer the Petitions and Lists annexed to the Report of the General Committee of Elections to the Select Committee so appointed and sworn, and shall order the said Select Committee to meet at a certain Time to be fixed by the House, which shall be within Twenty-four Hours of their being sworn at the Table of the House, unless a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday intervene; and the Place of their meeting shall be some convenient Room or Place adjacent to the House of Commons, properly prepared for that Purpose.

Petitions and Lists to be referred to Committee, and Time and Place of meeting appointed by the House.

Proceedings of Election Committees.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That every such Select Committee shall meet at the Time and Place appointed for that Purpose, and shall proceed to try the Merits of the Election Petition so referred to them, and they shall sit from Day to Day, Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday only excepted, and shall never adjourn for a longer Time than Twenty-four Hours, unless a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday intervene, and in such Case not for more than Twenty-four Hours exclusive of such Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, without Leave first obtained from the House, upon Motion, and special Cause assigned for a longer Adjournment; and if the House be sitting at the Time to which such Select Committee is adjourned, then the Business of the House shall be stayed, and a Motion shall be made for a further Adjournment for any Time to be fixed by the House: Provided always, that if such Select Committee have occasion to apply or report to the House, and the House be then adjourned for more than Twenty-four Hours, such Select Committee may also adjourn to the Day appointed for the meeting of the House.

Committees not to adjourn for more than Twenty-four Hours without Leave of the House.

Evidence to be confined to Objections specified in Lists.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That no Evidence shall be given before the Select Committee, or before any Commission issued by such Committee, against the Validity of any Vote not included in One of the Lists of Voters delivered to the General Committee as aforesaid, or upon any Head of Objection to any Voter included in any such List other than One of the Heads specified against him in such List.

No Member of Committee to absent himself.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That no Member of any such Select Committee shall absent himself from the same without Leave obtained from the House, or an Excuse allowed by the House at the next Sitting thereof, for the Cause of Sickness, verified upon the Oath of his Medical Attendant, or for other special Cause shown and verified upon Oath; and in every such Case the Member to whom such Leave is granted or Excuse allowed shall be discharged from attending, and shall not be entitled again to sit or vote on such Committee; and such Select Committee shall never sit until all the Members to whom such Leave has not been granted, nor Excuse allowed, are met; and in case all such Members do not meet within One Hour after the Time appointed for the First Meeting of such Committee, or within One Hour after the Time to which such Committee has been adjourned, a further Adjournment shall be made, and reported to the House by their Chairman, with the Cause thereof.

No Sitting till all be met. On Failure within One Hour, to adjourn.

Absentees to be directed to attend the House.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That every Member whose Absence without Leave or Excuse is so reported shall be directed to attend the House at its next Sitting, and shall then be ordered to be taken into the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending the House, for such Neglect of his Duty, and shall be otherwise punished or censured, at the Discretion of the House, unless it appear to the House, by Facts specially stated, and verified upon Oath, that such Member was by a sudden Accident or by Necessity prevented from attending the said Select Committee.

Committee not to be dissolved by the Death or Absence of not more than Two Members.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That an Election Committee shall not be dissolved by reason of the Death or necessary Absence of One Member or Two Members thereof only, but the remaining Members shall thenceforward constitute the Committee; and if there ever be occasion for electing a new Chairman on the Death or necessary Absence of the Chairman first appointed, the remaining Members of the Committee shall elect One of themselves to be Chairman, and if in that Election there be an equal Number of Voices the Member whose Name stands foremost in the List of the Committee as reported to the House shall have a second or casting Vote.

Committee reduced to less than Three by the Non-attendance of its Members to be dissolved, unless by Consent

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if the Number of Members able to attend any such Select Committee be, by Death or otherwise, unavoidably reduced to less than Three, and so continue for the Space of Three sitting Days, such Select Committee shall be dissolved (except in the Case herein-after provided), and another shall be appointed to try the Petition referred to such Committee; and the General Committee and Members of the Chairmen's Panel shall meet for that Purpose as soon as conveniently may be after the Occasion arises, at a Day and Hour to be appointed by the General Committee, and Notice of such Meeting shall be published with the Votes; and all the Proceedings of such former Committee shall be void and of no Effect: Provided always, that, if all the Parties before the Committee consent thereto, the Two remaining Members of the Committee, or the sole remaining Member, if only One, shall continue to act, and shall thenceforward constitute the Committee.

When Committee is deliberating, the Room to be cleared.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That whenever any such Select Committee thinks it necessary to deliberate among themselves upon any Question arising in the course of the Trial, or upon the Determination thereof, or upon any Resolution concerning the Matter of the Petition referred to them, as soon as they have heard the Evidence and Counsel on both Sides relative thereto, the Room where they sit shall be cleared, if they think proper, whilst the Members of the Committee consider thereof.

Questions to be decided by a Majority.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That all Questions before the Committee, if for the Time being consisting of more than One Member, shall be decided by a Majority of Voices; and whenever the Voices are equal the Chairman shall have a second or casting Voice; and no Member of the Committee shall be allowed to refrain from voting on any Question on which the Committee is divided.

Names of Members voting for or against any Question to be reported.

LXXXI. And be it enacted, That whenever the Select Committee is divided upon any Question, the Names of the Members voting in the Affirmative and in the Negative shall be entered in the Minutes of the said Committee, and shall be reported to the House, with the Questions on which such Divisions arose, at the same Time with the final Report of the Committee.

Committee to be attended by a Short-hand Writer.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That every such Committee shall be attended by a Shorthand Writer, appointed by the Clerk of the House of Commons, and sworn by the Chairman faithfully and truly to take down the Evidence given before such Committee, and from Day to Day, as occasion requires, to write or cause the same to be written in Words at Length for the Use of the Committee.

LXXXIII. And

Proceedings of Election Committees.

Committee empowered to send for and examine Persons, Papers, and Records.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That every such Select Committee may send for Persons, Papers, and Records, and may examine any Person who has subscribed the Petition which such Select Committee are appointed to try, unless it otherwise appear to such Committee that such Person is an interested Witness, and they shall examine all the Witnesses who come before them upon Oath, which Oath the Clerk attending such Select Committee may administer; and if any Person summoned by such Select Committee, or by the Warrant of the Speaker of the House of Commons (which Warrants the Speaker may issue from Time to Time as he thinks fit), disobey such Summons, or if any Witness before such Select Committee give false Evidence or prevaricate, or otherwise misbehave in giving or refusing to give Evidence, the Chairman of such Select Committee, by their Direction, may at any Time during the course of their Proceedings report the same to the House for the Interposition of the Authority or Censure of the House, as the Case requires, and may, by a Warrant under his Hand directed to the Serjeant at Arms attending the House of Commons, or to his Deputy or Deputes, commit such Person (not being a Peer of the Realm or Lord of Parliament) to the Custody of the said Serjeant, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours, if the House be then sitting, and if not, then for a Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours after the Hour to which the House stands adjourned.

Witnesses misbehaving may be reported to the House, and committed to the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms.

How Oaths to be administered.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That where in this Act anything is required to be verified on Oath to the House of Commons, it shall be lawful for the Clerk of the House of Commons to administer an Oath for that Purpose, or an Affidavit for such Purpose may be sworn before any Justice of the Peace or Master of the High Court of Chancery.

Giving false Evidence to be Perjury.

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That every Person who wilfully gives false Evidence before the House of Commons, or before any Election Committee, or before the Examiner of Recognizances or Taxing Officer of the House of Commons, under the Provisions of this Act, or who wilfully swears falsely in any Affidavit authorized by this Act to be taken, shall, on Conviction thereof, be liable to the Penalties of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Committee to decide, and to report their Decision to the House.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That every such Select Committee shall try the Merits of the Return or Election complained of in the Election Petition referred to them, and shall determine by a Majority of Voices, if for the Time being consisting of more than One Member, whether the sitting Members, or either of them, or any and what other Person, were duly returned or elected, or whether the Election be void, or whether a new Writ ought to issue, which Determination shall be final between the Parties to all Intents and Purposes; and the House, on being informed thereof by the Committee, shall order such Report to be entered in their Journals, and shall give the necessary Directions for confirming or altering the Return, or for ordering a Return to be made, or for issuing a Writ for a new Election, or for carrying the said Determination into execution, as the Case may require.

Committee may report their Determination on other Matters to the House.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any such Select Committee come to any Resolution other than the Determination above mentioned, they shall, if they think proper, report the same to the House for their Opinion, at the same Time that they inform the House of such Determination, and the House may confirm or disagree with such Resolution, and make such Orders thereon as to them seems proper.

Committees not dissolved by the Prorogation of Parliament.

LXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if the Parliament be prorogued after the Appointment of any Select Committee for the Trial of any Election Petition, and before they have reported to the House their Determination thereon, such Committee shall not be dissolved by such Prorogation, but shall be thereby adjourned to Twelve of the Clock on the Day immediately following that on which Parliament meets again for the Despatch of Business (Sunday, Good Friday, and Christmas Day always excepted); and all Proceedings of such Committee, and of any Commission to take Evidence issued under the Authority of such Committee, shall be of the same Force and Effect as if Parliament had not been so prorogued; and such Committee shall meet on the Day and Hour to which it is so adjourned, and shall thenceforward continue to sit from Day to Day in the Manner herein-before provided, until they have reported to the House their Determination on the Merits of such Petition.

Costs.

Costs where Petition reported frivolous or vexatious.

LXXXIX. And be it enacted, That whenever any Committee appointed to try an Election Petition reports to the House that such Petition was frivolous or vexatious, the Parties, if any, who have appeared before the Committee in opposition to such Petition, shall be entitled to recover from the Persons, or any of them, who signed such Petition, the full Costs and Expenses which such Parties have incurred in opposing the same, such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner herein-after directed.

Costs where Opposition reported frivolous or vexatious.

XC. And be it enacted, That whenever such Committee reports to the House that the Opposition made to any such Petition by any Party appearing before them was frivolous or vexatious, the Persons who signed such Petition shall be entitled to recover from the Party with respect to whom such Report is made the full Costs and Expenses which such Petitioners have incurred in prosecuting their Petition, such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner herein-after directed.

Costs where no Party appears to oppose a Petition.

XCI. And be it enacted, That whenever no Party has appeared before any such Committee in opposition to such Petition, and such Committee reports to the House that the Election or Return, or the Omission or Insufficiency of a Return, complained of in such Petition, was vexatious or corrupt, the Persons who signed such Petition shall be entitled to recover from the sitting Members (if any) whose Election or Return is complained of in such Petition (such sitting Members not having given Notice as aforesaid of their Intention not to defend the same), or from any other Persons admitted by the House as aforesaid to oppose such Petition, the full Costs and Expenses which such Petitioners have incurred in prosecuting their Petition, such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner herein-after directed.

Costs.

Costs upon frivolous Objections to Voters.

XCII. And be it enacted, That if any Ground of Objection be stated against any Voter in any List of Voters intended to be objected to as herein-before provided, and if such Select Committee be of opinion that such Objection was frivolous or vexatious, they shall report the same to the House of Commons, together with their Opinion on the other Matters relating to the said Petition, and the opposite Party shall in such Case be entitled to recover from the Party on whose Behalf any such Objections were made the full Costs and Expenses incurred by reason of such frivolous or vexatious Objections, such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner herein-after directed.

Costs upon unfounded Allegations.

XCIII. And be it enacted, That if either Party make before the said Select Committee any specific Allegation with regard to the Conduct of the other Party or his Agents, and either bring no Evidence in support thereof, or such Evidence that the Committee is of opinion that such Allegation was made without any reasonable or probable Ground, the Committee may make such Orders as to them seem fit for the Payment, by the Party making such unfounded Allegation, to the other Party, of all Costs and Expenses incurred by reason of such unfounded Allegation, such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner herein-after directed.

Costs, how to be ascertained.

XCIV. And be it enacted, That the Costs and Expenses adjudged by any such Select Committee as aforesaid to be paid, or which otherwise may become payable, under the Provisions of this Act or the said recited Act of the Eighth Year of Her Majesty, to any Party prosecuting or opposing or preparing to oppose any Election Petition, or to any Witness summoned to attend before any Committee, under the Provisions of this or the said recited Act, shall be ascertained in manner following; (that is to say,) on Application made to the Speaker of the House of Commons by any such Petitioner, Party, or Witness, for ascertaining such Costs and Expenses, not later than Three Calendar Months after the Determination of the Merits of such Petition, or after any Order of the House for discharging the Order of Reference of such Petition to the General Committee of Elections, or after the Withdrawal of any Petition as herein-before provided, the Speaker shall direct the same to be taxed by the Examiner of Recognizances or by the Taxing Officer of the House of Commons; and the said Examiner or Taxing Officer shall examine and tax such Costs and Expenses, and shall report the Amount thereof, together with the Name of the Party liable to pay the same, and the Name of the Party entitled to receive the same, to the Speaker, who shall, upon Application made to him, deliver to the Party a Certificate, signed by himself, expressing the Amount of the Costs and Expenses allowed in such Report, with the Name of the Party liable to pay the same, and the Name of the Party entitled to receive the same; and such Certificate so signed by the Speaker shall be conclusive Evidence for all Purposes whatever as well of the Amount of the Demand as of the Title of the Party therein named to recover the same from the Party therein stated to be liable to the Payment thereof; and the Party claiming under the same shall, upon Payment thereof, give a Receipt at the Foot of such Certificate, which shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same.

Persons appointed to tax Costs empowered to examine on Oath.

XCV. And be it enacted, That the Examiner of Recognizances or the said Taxing Officer may examine upon Oath any Party claiming any such Costs or Expenses, and any Witnesses tendered to him for Examination, and may receive Affidavits, sworn before him, or before any Master of the High Court of Chancery or any Justice of the Peace, relative to such Costs or Expenses.

Recovery of Costs when taxed.

XCVI. And be it enacted, That the Party entitled to such taxed Costs and Expenses, or his or her Executors or Administrators, may demand the whole Amount thereof, so certified as above, from any One or more of the Persons liable to the Payment thereof, and in case of Nonpayment thereof, on Demand, may recover the same by Action of Debt in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to declare that the Defendant is indebted to him in the Sum mentioned in the said Certificate; and the said Plaintiff shall, upon filing the said Declaration, together with the said Certificate and an Affidavit of such Demand as aforesaid, be at liberty to sign Judgment as for Want of Plea by Nil dicit, and take out Execution for the said Sum so mentioned in the said Certificate, together with the Costs of the said Action, according to due Course of Law: Provided always, that the Validity of such Certificate (the Handwriting of the Speaker thereunto being duly verified) shall not be called in question in any Court.

Persons paying Costs may recover a Proportion from other Persons liable thereto.

XCVII. And be it enacted, That in every Case it shall be lawful for any Person from whom the Amount of such Costs and Expenses have been so recovered to recover in like Manner from the other Persons, or any of them (if such there be) who are liable to the Payment of the same Costs and Expenses, a proportionate Share thereof, according to the Number of Persons so liable, and according to the Extent of the Liability of each Person.

Recognizances when to be estreated, &c.

XCVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person having subscribed an Election Petition presented under this Act, or under the said recited Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, neglect or refuse, for the Space of Seven Days after Demand, to pay to any Witness summoned on his Behalf before any Committee under the Provisions of this or the said recited Act the Sum so certified as aforesaid by the Speaker, under the Authority of this or the said recited Act, to be due to such Witness, or if such Petitioner neglect or refuse, for the Space of Six Months after Demand, to pay to any Party opposing the said Petition the Sum so certified by the Speaker as aforesaid to be due to such Party for his Costs and Expenses, and if such Neglect or Refusal be, within One Year after the granting of such Certificate, proved to the Speaker's Satisfaction, by Affidavit sworn before any Master of the High Court of Chancery (and such Master is hereby authorized to administer such Oath, and is authorized and required to certify such Affidavit under his Hand), in every such Case every Person who has entered into a Recognizance relating to such Petition under the Provisions of this or the said recited Act shall be be held to have made Default in his said Recognizance, and the Speaker of the House of Commons shall thereupon certify such Recognizance into the Court of Exchequer in England, if the Person who entered into such Recognizance reside in England, or into the Court of Exchequer in Ireland if such Person reside in Ireland, or into the Court of Exchequer in Scotland if such Person reside in Scotland, and shall also certify that such Person has made Default therein, and such Certificate shall be conclusive Evidence of the Validity of such Recognizance and of such Default; and the Recognizance, being so certified, if the Person who entered into such Recognizance reside in England, shall be delivered by the Clerk or One of the Clerks Assistant of the House of Commons into the Hands of the Lord Chief Baron or One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in England, or of some Officer appointed by the Court to receive the same, or if such Person reside in Ireland or Scotland shall be transmitted through the Post, in manner herein-after mentioned, to the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, or to One of the Judges of the Court of Session discharging for the Time the Powers and Duties of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as the Case may require, and in every such Case such Delivery or Transmission of such Recognizance shall have the same Effect as if the same were estreated from a Court of Law, and the Validity of such Certificate (the Handwriting of the Speaker thereunto being duly verified) shall not be called in question in the said Court.

Transmission of Recognizances of Parties in Ireland or Scotland through the Post.

XCIX. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of transmitting any such Recognizance through the Post as aforesaid the Clerk or One of the Clerks Assistant of the House of Commons, or some other Person appointed by the Speaker for that Purpose, shall carry such Recognizance, under a Cover directed to the Lord Chief Baron or One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, or to One of the Judges of the Court of Session discharging for the Time the Powers and Duties of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as the Case may require, to the General Post Office in London, and there deliver the same to the Postmaster General for the Time being, or to such other Person as the said Postmaster General shall depute to receive the same (and which Deputation such Postmaster General is required to make), who on Receipt thereof shall give an Acknowledgment in Writing of such Receipt to the Person from whom the same is received, and shall keep a Duplicate of such Acknowledgment, signed by the Parties respectively to whom the same is so delivered; and the said Postmaster General shall despatch all such Recognizances by the First Post or Mail after the Receipt thereof to the Person to whom the same is directed, accompanied with proper Directions to the Postmaster or Deputy Postmaster of the Town or Place to which the same is directed, requiring such Postmaster or Deputy Postmaster forthwith to carry such Recognizance, and to deliver the same to the Person to whom the same is directed, who (or some Officer appointed by the Court for that Purpose) is hereby required to give to such Postmaster or Deputy Postmaster a Memorandum in Writing under his Hand, acknowledging the Receipt of every such Recognizance, and setting forth the Day and Hour the same was delivered by such Postmaster or Deputy Postmaster, which Memorandum shall also be signed by such Postmaster or Deputy Postmaster, and by him transmitted by the First or Second Post afterwards to the said Postmaster General, or his Deputy, at the General Post Office in London.

Monies received under Recognizances to be paid into the Bank, and applied in Payment of Costs.

C. And be it enacted, That all Monies which shall be received or recovered by reason or in pursuance of the estreating of any such Recognizance as aforesaid shall, after deducting all Expenses incurred in respect thereof, be forthwith paid by the proper Officer for that Purpose into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Speaker and of the Examiner of Recognizances, and shall be applied by them, in manner herein-after mentioned, in satisfaction, so far as the same will extend, of the Costs and Expenses intended to be secured by such Recognizance.

Surety may pay Money into the Bank in discharge of his Recognizance.

CI. And be it enacted, That any Person who has entered into any such Recognizance may, before the same has been estreated, pay the Sum of Money for which he is bound by such Recognizance into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Speaker and the Examiner of Recognizances; and upon Production to the Examiner of Recognizances of a Bank Receipt or Certificate for the Sum so paid in, he shall endorse on the Recognizance in respect of which such Money has been so paid in a Memorandum of such Payment, and thereupon such Recognizance shall, so far as regards the Person by or on whose Behalf such Money has been so paid, be deemed to be vacated, and shall not afterwards be estreated as against him, but such Recognizance shall continue to be in force as regards any other Person who has entered into the same.

Examiner of Recognizances to order Payment of Expenses out of Money so paid into the Bank.

CII. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which any Money is paid into the Bank of England to the Account of the Speaker and the Examiner of Recognizances, as herein-before provided, a Bank Receipt or Certificate of the Amount so paid in shall be delivered to the Examiner of Recognizances by the Person paying in the same, and such Money shall, in the first place, and in such Order of Payment as the Examiner of Recognizances in his Discretion, but with the Approbation of the Speaker, thinks fit, be applied in satisfaction of all the Costs and Expenses for securing Payment of which such Investment was made, or so much thereof as can be thereby satisfied, and thereafter the Residue (if any) shall be paid to or transferred to the Account of the Party by whom or on whose Account the same was paid in.

Miscellaneous.

Returning Officer may be sued for neglecting to return any Person duly elected.

CIII. And be it enacted, That if any Sheriff or other Returning Officer shall wilfully delay, neglect, or refuse duly to return any Person who ought to be returned to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough, District of Burghs, Port, or Place within Great Britain or Ireland, such Person may, in case it have been determined by a Select Committee appointed in the Manner herein-before directed that such Person was entitled to have been returned, sue the Sheriff or other Officer having so wilfully delayed, neglected, or refused duly to make such Return at his Election, in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and shall recover Double the Damages he has sustained by reason thereof, together with full Costs of Suit; provided such Action be commenced within One Year after the Commission of the Act on which it is grounded, or within Six Months after the Conclusion of any Proceedings in the House of Commons relating to such Election.

Commencement of Act.

CIV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from the End of this Session of Parliament.

Provision for Election Petitions remaining at the Close of the present Session.

CV. And be it enacted, That if at the Close of the present Session of Parliament there be any Election Petitions before the House, the Order for taking which into consideration has not been discharged, and for trying which no Committees have been appointed, such Election Petitions shall, in case the Sureties relating thereto have been reported unobjectionable, be tried by Committees to be chosen under the Provisions of this Act, and shall be referred to the General Committee of Elections before any Petition presented in the next Session; and the General Committee shall, within Two Days after their first Meeting, appoint a Day and Hour for selecting a Committee to try every such Petition; and if the present Parliament be prorogued after the Appointment of a Select Committee for the Trial of any such Petition as aforesaid, and before they have reported to the House their Determination thereon, such Committee shall not be dissolved by such Prorogation, but shall be adjourned in manner herein-before provided in the Case in which Parliament is prorogued after the Appointment of a Select Committee for the Trial of an Election Petition, and before they have reported to the House their Determination thereon; and in the Case of all such Petitions as aforesaid, all such further Proceedings shall be had with reference thereto as if this Act had been in force when such Petitions were presented; and the Recognizances entered into in respect of such Petitions shall be taken to be and remain in force, and shall take effect for securing Payment of all Costs and Expenses which the Petitioners shall be liable to pay, as if the same had been entered into under the Provisions of this Act.

No Stamps on Recognizances or Affidavits.

CVI. And be it declared and enacted, That no Recognizance entered into, or Affidavit sworn, under the Provisions of this Act, shall require to be impressed with any Stamp.

Short Title.

CVII. And be it enacted, That in citing this Act it shall be sufficient in all Cases to use the Expression "The Election Petitions Act, 1848."

Interpretation of Act.

CVIII. And be it enacted, That in construing this Act Words importing the Singular Number only shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number only shall include the Singular, unless there be something in the Subject or the Context repugnant to such Construction; and the Words "Oath" and "Affidavit" respectively shall mean Affirmation in the Case of Quakers, or any Declaration lawfully substituted for an Oath in the Case of Persons allowed by Law to make a Declaration instead of taking an Oath.

Act may be amended, &c.

CIX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCIX.

An Act to further extend the Provisions of the Act for the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons. [4th September 1848.]

8 & 9 Vict. c. 118.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons and Lands held in common, the Exchange of Lands, and the Division of intermixed Lands, to provide Remedies for defective or incomplete Executions, and for the Nonexecution, of the Powers of General and Local Inclosure Acts, and to provide for the Revival of such Powers in certain Cases: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Act to facilitate the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to extend the Provisions of the Act for the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons: And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Acts should be further extended:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners in their Provisional Order in the Matter of any Inclosure to set forth any special Agreement or Matter concerning or affecting the Lands to be inclosed, and to make the same a Condition of such Inclosure; and that where, after an Application shall have been made to the Commissioners to sanction an Inclosure, or to certify the Expediency of an Inclosure, under the Provisions of the said firstly-recited Act, any Person interested within the Meaning of the said Act in Land not subject to the Operation of the Inclosure proposed to be made under such Application shall, by Application in Writing to the Commissioners, submit to the Operation of the proposed Inclosure such Land, or any Easement or other Right or Interest in such Land, in consideration of any Allotment, Easement, or Benefit to be made or secured under such Inclosure, and shall specify his Estate and Interest in such Land, the Commissioners, if they shall think the Proposal beneficial, may embody in their Provisional Order in the Matter of the said Inclosure any Directions and Agreements in reference to such Proposal, and make such Directions and Agreements a Condition of such Inclosure; and an Award made in the Matter of such Inclosure, in pursuance of any Provisional Order containing such Condition, and signed by the Person making such Application, shall have as full Effect and be as binding, as well as respects the Land or Right or Interest in Land which shall have been so submitted to the Operation thereof as the Lands subject to be inclosed under the original Application, as if the Land or Right or Interest in Land so submitted had been Land subject to be inclosed under the original Application, and as if such Person so interested had signed the same Application: Provided always, that if such Person shall refuse or neglect to sign such Provisional Order, such Inclosure may proceed as regards the Land the immediate Subject of such Inclosure as if no Application by such Person had been made, and as if the Directions and Agreements in reference to such Proposal had not been embodied in such Provisional Order: Provided also, that no such Direction or Agreement as last aforesaid shall be embodied in a Provisional Order unless Notice of the Intention so to do shall have been given by Advertisement in Two successive Weeks, and One Calendar Month shall have elapsed from the Publication of the last of such Advertisements; and in case before the Expiration of such Month any Person entitled to any Estate in or to any Charge upon the Land to be so submitted to the Operation of the Inclosure shall give Notice to the Commissioners of his Dissent from such Direction or Agreement, the Commissioners shall not embody such Direction or Agreement in such Provisional Order unless such Dissent shall be withdrawn, or it shall be shown to the Commissioners that the Estate or Charge of the Party so dissenting shall have ceased.

Persons not interested in Lands to be inclosed may apply to submit Land to Operation of Inclosure.

II. 'And whereas the Provision of the said firstly-recited Act, that the Map to be annexed to the 'Valuer's Report shall comprise and show the Lands in respect of which any Allotments have been made, 'occasions unnecessary Expense in certain Cases:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the Matter of any Inclosure, if they shall think fit, by Order under their Seal, to direct that such Lands shall not be comprised nor shown in such Map, and after such Direction shall have been made by any such Order in the Matter of any Inclosure, it shall not be necessary for the Valuer to comprise or show any such Lands in any such Map to be annexed to his Report.

Maps of old inclosed Lands may be dispensed with.

III. And be it enacted, That where the Valuer, acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, shall certify in Writing to the Commissioners that the Value of the Allotment of any Person interested in the Lands to be inclosed, in case such Allotment should be made, would not exceed Five Pounds in Value, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the Consent of such Person, to direct the Valuer under their Seal to award to such Person, in lieu of such Allotment, a Sum of Money which he shall deem equivalent in Value to the Allotment which would have been made to him in respect of his Right and Interest under the said recited Act; and every such Sum shall be set forth in the Valuer's Report before the same is deposited; and the Sum of Money which may be awarded in respect of such Right and Interest may be raised in the same Way that Money may be raised for Expenses incident to Inclosures under the Provisions of the said recited Act, and shall be paid to the Party for the Time being interested, as in the Case of Surplus of Purchase Money on the Sale of Part of an Allotment for Expenses.

Allotments of less than Five Pounds Value may be compensated in Money.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure may, where he shall think fit, set out such Private or Occupation Roads and Ways through the Land to be inclosed as by reason of the Alteration of public Roads or Ways, or otherwise, he shall think requisite for the Use, wholly or in part, of Persons interested in other Lands; and any Expenses which the Valuer may incur in relation to the setting out or Formation or Completion of such private Roads, or any of them, shall, unless the Valuer shall otherwise direct, be paid by such of the Owners for the Time being of the Land the Subject Matter of such Inclosure, and of the Owners of Land for whose Use the said Roads shall have been set out, or of either of such Classes, and in such Shares and Proportion as the Valuer shall direct; and after the Formation and Completion of such private Roads and Ways the same shall be maintained and kept in repair by and at the Expense of such of the said several Owners, in such Shares and Proportions and in such Manner as the Valuer shall direct: Provided always, that the Grass and Herbage on such Roads shall be subject to the same Regulations as if they had been Private or Occupation Roads set out under the said firstly-recited Act.

Valuer may set out Private and Occupation Roads in certain Cases for Use of Lands other than Lands to be inclosed.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer, with the Sanction of the Commissioners, by his Award to direct that the Expenses of repairing, cleansing, and maintaining all or any of the private Roads and Ways, Common Ponds, Ditches, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, and Bridges, thereby directed to be set out and made, enlarged, or altered and maintained, shall be raised by Rate to be be levied on the Lands of which the Owners for the Time being might have been directed by such Award to repair, cleanse, and maintain the same Roads, Ponds, Ditches, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, and Bridges respectively, in such Proportions as he shall by his Award direct.

Rating Officer may be appointed for repairing private and common Ronds, Ditches, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That where the Expenses of repairing, cleansing, and maintaining any Private or Occupation Roads and Ways, Common Ponds, Ditches, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, or Bridges shall have been directed to be raised by Rate as aforesaid, a Meeting shall be called by the Commissioners of the Owners of the Lands subject to such Rate, at such Time after the Confirmation of the Award as the Commissioners shall by Notice on the Church Door appoint; and the major Part in Value of such Owners present, by themselves or their Agent authorized in this Behalf, at such Meeting, shall elect a fit Person to be Rating Officer; and every such Officer so to be elected as aforesaid, or to be elected or re-elected at any subsequent Meeting, shall continue in Office until the Expiration of Fifteen Days after the Day of the Annual Meeting of such Owners then next following, and no longer, unless he shall be re-elected at such Annual Meeting; and such Owners shall ever after such first Meeting meet for the Election of a Rating Officer on the First Monday in February in every Year; and the Owners assembled at such Meetings shall from Time to Time fix, increase, or diminish the Salary or Payment to be made to every such Rating Officer; and any such Rating Officer may be removed by Four Fifths in Value of the Owners of such Lands present, by themselves or their Agents authorized in this Behalf, at any Meeting called for the Purpose, by Fourteen Days Notice on the Church Door, under the Hands of any Two such Owners; and in case any such Rating Officer shall die while he shall hold such Office, or shall be removed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Majority in Value of Owners of such Lands present as aforesaid at any Meeting, which upon such Vacancy any Two Owners may call, by Fourteen Days Notice on the Church Door, to appoint a Rating Officer in his Place, who shall hold the Office until the Expiration of Fifteen Days after the then next Annual Meeting; and a Certificate in Writing, under the Hands and Seals of Two Justices of the Peace, of the Election of any Rating Officer, (which Certificate any Two Justices of the Peace are authorized, if they think fit, to give, on the Request and upon the Declaration of any Owner of such Lands, or the Agent of any such Owner, present at the Meeting at which the Election shall have taken place,) shall, in all Matters and Proceedings whatsoever in which any Acts done by any Rating Officer in the Execution of his Office shall be in question, be Evidence that he was duly appointed Rating Officer.

How Rates to be raised.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Rating Officer for the Time being shall, subject to such Orders and Instructions in Writing as may from Time to Time be agreed on by the Majority in Value of the Owners of such Lands as aforesaid at their yearly Meetings, maintain and keep in order the said Roads, Ways, Common Ponds, Ditches, Drains, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, and Bridges, and shall, for the Payment to be made to Rating Officers, and all Expenses in and about the Premises, under the Directions of any such Meeting of Owners, from Time to Time, make a Rate on the respective Owners for such Sum as the Majority in Value of Owners present at such Meeting shall think requisite, and every such Rate shall be apportioned and paid by the Owners according to the Proportions directed by the Award as aforesaid, and shall be paid to the Rating Officer on Demand thereof, and in case the same shall not be paid within Fourteen Days after Demand thereof shall be recoverable by such Rating Officer by Distress; and any such Demand or Distress may be made of or on the Occupier of any such Land as if the Occupier were the Owner liable to the Payment of such Rate, and such Rate may be paid by any such Occupier on Demand thereof; and the Money so paid by such Occupier shall be deemed a Payment on account of his Rent, and shall be allowed by his Landlord accordingly.

Money raised for Expenses to be paid to Commissioners.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where any Persons shall, under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, mortgage their Allotments or demise the same in trust, for the Purpose of raising Money to defray the Inclosure Expenses, the said Money shall be paid to the Commissioners, and the Receipt of the Commissioners shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Mortgagee or Lessee for the Receipt of such Money; and such Money shall be applied by the Commissioners for the Purpose for which it may be raised under the said recited Act.

How Claims may be made.

IX. And be it enacted, That notwithstanding anything in the said first-recited Act contained it shall be lawful for the Valuer in the Matter of any Inclosure to receive any Claims in Writing made by any Persons claiming any Common or other Right or Interest in such Inclosure, although such Claims may not contain the several Particulars in respect whereof they are made, nor distinguish the Claims in respect of Freehold, Copyhold, or Customary and Leasehold Property from each other, nor mention therein the Places of Abode of the respective Claimants or their Agents; but such Claims shall be good and valid if the Persons making the same shall state therein that they claim Common or other Right or Interest in the Land proposed to be inclosed in respect of the Land, Premises, or Right named in such Claims: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Valuer to require Persons delivering any Claims to amend the same in such Particulars and on such Conditions as the said Valuer shall think just and reasonable, and no such Claims shall be inserted in the Statement of Claims to be deposited by him under the Provisions of the said Act until the Places of Abode of the respective Claimants, or their Agents, shall have been given in Writing in the said Claims or indorsed thereon.

How Person trespassing where Rights suspended or extinguished, or Allotments

X. And be it enacted, That where the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall, under the Authority and Direction of the Commissioners, and in manner provided by the said first-recited Act, have ordered all or any Part of the Rights of Sheep-walk, Common, or other Rights in or over the Land to be inclosed, or any Part thereof, to be extinguished, or the Exercise thereof to be suspended, or where such Valuer shall have directed any of the Allotments to be made in such Inclosure to be entered upon upon by the Persons respectively for whom the same shall be intended, if any Person shall wilfully or maliciously commit any Damage, Injury, or Spoil to or upon any Fences, Ditches, or other Works made or done for the Purposes of such Inclosure, or to or upon any such Allotment, the Person so offending, being convicted thereof before Two Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the County or Place, shall forfeit and pay such Sum of Money as shall appear to such Justices to be a reasonable Compensation for the Damage, Injury, or Spoil so committed, not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, and such Sum shall be paid to the Valuer, to be applied by him in aid of the Expenses in such Inclosure, or to the Person in possession of such Allotment, as the Justices may think fit and direct; and the Provisions of the Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to malicious Injuries to Property, concerning the Apprehension of Offenders and the Prosecution of Offences punishable on summary Conviction under such Act, and the Form of such Conviction, and concerning the Cases of a summary Conviction under such Act, where the Sum which shall be forfeited for the Amount of the Injury done shall not be paid, and all other Provisions of such Act consequent upon or in relation to such Proceedings and Conviction, shall be applicable to the Offences under this Act, and the Prosecution and Conviction for the same respectively, save that any Matter by the said Act directed to be done by the Justice shall be done by Two Justices as aforesaid.

entered upon, may be proceeded against.

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 30.

XI. And be it enacted, That where the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall have directed any of the Allotments to be entered upon by the Persons for whom the same shall be intended, it shall be lawful for any Person who shall have entered upon or taken possession of any such Allotment by virtue of such Direction, or his Tenant, to commence, prosecute, and maintain any Action of Trespass, Ejectment, or other Suit at Law for any Entry upon or Injury or Damage that may be done or committed to such Allotment, or the Soil or Herbage thereof, or the Fences thereof, or for the Recovery of the Possession thereof, although the Award in the Matter of such Inclosure may not have been made, without Prejudice nevertheless to the Power of the Valuer, under the said Acts, to make Alterations in Allotments.

Person having taken possession of Allotment may maintain Action for Damage.

XII. And be it enacted, That where any Person to whom an Allotment shall have been made by an Award in the Matter of any Inclosure, or the Owner for the Time being of such Allotment, shall refuse or neglect to make any Ditch or Fence which, according to the Directions of such Award, ought to be made by or at the Expense of the Owner of such Allotment, it shall be lawful for the Owner or Occupier of any other Allotment made in the same Inclosure, who shall be aggrieved in the Enjoyment of his Allotment by such Refusal or Neglect, to cause the Person so refusing or neglecting to be served, in the Manner herein-after mentioned, with a written Notice, signed by the Owner or Occupier so aggrieved, or his Agent, of his Intention to proceed under the Authority of this Act to make such Ditch or Fence, in case the same should not be made within Three Calendar Months from the Time of serving such Notice; and in case such Ditch or Fence shall not be made within such Three Calendar Months, it shall be lawful for the Owner or Occupier so aggrieved, or his Agent (if such Owner or Occupier shall so think fit), to make or cause to be made such Ditch or Fence in such Manner as the same ought to have been made according to the Directions of the said Award, by the Owner so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, and for such Purpose, with Labourers and Workmen, to enter upon the Allotment by the Owner of which such Ditch or Fence ought to have been made, and to do all such Acts as may be necessary or proper; and all Costs and Expenses incurred in such Work by the Owner or Occupier so aggrieved shall be reimbursed to him by the Owner so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, and may be recovered by Action of Debt or on the Case, and if the Amount claimed in respect thereof shall not be more than Twenty Pounds shall be recoverable in the County Court of the District where the Work shall be done; and any Notice as aforesaid may be served either personally or by leaving the same with some Person being in and apparently residing at the Place of Abode of the Owner for the Time being of the Allotment to which such Notice shall relate; but if such Owner cannot be found, and his Place of Abode shall not be known, or Admission thereto cannot be obtained for serving such Notice, the posting of such Notice conspicuously on the Allotment to which the same shall relate shall be deemed good Service on the Owner thereof: Provided always, that neither the Power herein-before contained, nor the making of such Ditch or Fence by the Owner or Occupier so aggrieved as aforesaid, shall affect any Right or Remedy which such Owner or Occupier would otherwise have had in respect of the Neglect to make such Ditch or Fence, or of any Trespass or Damage occasioned thereby.

On Neglect of Owner of an Allotment to fence, Owner of any other Allotment prejudiced by his Neglect may obtain Possession and do the necessary Work.

XIII. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said recited Acts concerning Exchanges 'should extend to Partition:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application in Writing of the Persons interested, according to the Definitions in the said first-recited Act contained, in the several undivided Parts or Shares of any Land not subject to be inclosed under the said first-recited Act, or in Land subject to be inclosed under such Act as to which no Proceedings for an Inclosure shall be pending, and who shall desire to effect a Partition of such Land, to direct Inquiries whether such proposed Partition would be beneficial to the Owners of such undivided Parts or Shares, and in case the Commissioners shall be of opinion that such Partition would be beneficial, and that the Terms of the proposed Partition are just and reasonable, they shall, unless Notice of Dissent to the proposed Partition shall be given, under the Provision herein by Reference contained, cause to be framed and confirmed an Order of Partition, with a Map or Plan thereunto annexed, in which Order shall be specified and shown the Land allotted in Severalty to each Person so interested in respect of the undivided Part or Share in which he shall be so interested respectively; and the Land allotted in Severalty upon every such such Partition, in respect of each such undivided Part or Share, shall be and enure to, for, and upon the same Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, and subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the undivided Part or Share in respect whereof the same shall be allotted would have stood limited or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

Provisions of Inclosure Acts concerning Exchanges of Land not subject to be inclosed, &c. extended to Partition.

Provisions of Inclosure Acts applicable to such Exchange to apply to Partition under this Act.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Provisions of the said first-recited Act concerning Notice, Dissent, and Confirmation and Expenses with respect to an Exchange of Lands not subject to be inclosed under such Act, or of Lands subject to be inclosed under such Act, as to which no Proceedings for an Inclosure shall be pending, and all other Provisions of the said first-recited Act and of the Acts for amending and extending the same, applicable to such Exchange as aforesaid, shall be applicable to a Partition of Land under this Act.

In Common Wood Inclosure Power to pay Value of Allotments to Crown in Money.

XV. 'And whereas by the Provisional Order made by the Inclosure Commissioners in the Matter of 'the Inclosure of Common Wood situate in the Parish of Holt in the County of Denbigh, dated the 'Twenty-ninth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, it was declared that One 'Twentieth Part in Value of the said Common Wood should be allotted to Her Majesty as Lady of the 'Manor of Bromfield and Yale in respect of Her Right and Interest in the Soil, exclusively of all Right 'and Interest of Her Majesty in all Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata under the said Common 'Wood: And whereas it is expedient that the said One Twentieth Part in Value of the said Common 'Wood should be compensated by a Money Payment, and not by an Allotment of Land:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer in the Matter of the said Inclosure to award, and for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being to receive, on behalf of Her Majesty, the Value of the said One Twentieth Part of the said Common Wood in Money, the same to be accounted for and applied in the same Manner as Monies received by them in respect of Sales of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England; and from and immediately after Payment thereof as aforesaid such Payment shall be in full Satisfaction of all the Right, Title, and Interest of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in, to, over, and upon the said Common Wood, save and except of the Rights and Interests in Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata reserved to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by the said Provisional Order.

Recited Acts deemed Part of this Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be taken to be Part of the said recited Acts of the Eighth and Ninth, of the Ninth and Tenth, and of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty.

CAP. C.

An Act to permit the Distillation of Spirits from Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle in the United Kingdom. [4th September 1848.]

10 & 11 Vict. c. 6.
4 G. 4. c. 94.
6 G. 4. c. 80.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to further encourage the Distillation of Spirits from Sugar in the United Kingdom; and in an 'Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to grant certain Duties of Excise upon Spirits distilled from Corn or Grain in Scotland and Ireland, and upon Licences for Stills for making such Spirits, and to provide for the better collecting and securing such Duties, and for the warehousing of such Spirits without Payment of Duty, it is 'enacted, "that it shall not be lawful for any Distiller in Scotland or Ireland licensed under this Act to '"make or brew any Wort or Wash or to make or distil any Spirits from Sugar, or from any Materials '"other than Malt, Corn, or Grain, or any Mixture thereof; and if any such Distiller shall make or '"brew any Wort or Wash or shall make or distil any Spirits from Sugar, or from any Materials other '"than Malt, Corn, or Grain, or some Mixture thereof, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two '"hundred Pounds, and all such Wort, Wash, and Spirits shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any '"Officer of Excise;" and in another Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties payable in respect of Spirits distilled in England, and of Licences for distilling, rectifying, or compounding such Spirits, and for the Sale of Spirits, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to provide other Regulations for the Collection of the said Duties, and for the Sale of Spirits, and for the warehousing of such Spirits, without Payment of Duty, for Exportation, there are enacted the following Clauses, Provisions, and Regulations: "That it shall '"not be lawful for any Distiller to make or brew at the same Time any Wort or Wash or to make or '"distil any Spirits from Malt, Corn, or Grain, or any Mixture thereof, and from Sugar or Potatoes or '"any Mixture thereof respectively, or to make or brew any Wort or Wash or distil any Spirits from '"any other Materials whatsoever; and if any such Distiller shall at the same Time make or brew any '"Wort or Wash or shall make or distil any Spirits from Malt, Corn, or Grain, or any Mixture thereof, '"and from Sugar or Potatoes or any Mixture thereof respectively, or shall at any Time make or brew '"any Wort or Wash or distil any Spirits from any other Materials whatsoever, such Distiller shall '"forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Wort, Wash, and Spirits shall be forfeited, and '"may be seized by any Officer of Excise;" and further, "that every Distiller who shall, under the '"Regulations of this Act, intend or desire to distil Spirits from Worts or Wash brewed and made from '"Sugar or Potatoes only, shall, Six Days before he shall commence to brew or make any Wort or Wash, '"give Notice in Writing to the proper Officer surveying such Distillery, in which Notice shall be '"stated that such Distiller intends to use Sugar or Potatoes only, not being mixed with any other '"Materials whatever; and if at any Time after such Notice shall have been given any Corn, Grain,

‘ “ or Malt, ground or bruised, or other Material for Distillation except Sugar or Potatoes, according to ‘ “ such Notice as aforesaid, shall be found in such Distillery, or in any Store, Mill, or other Premises ‘ “ thereto belonging, or if any Wort or Wash made of any Materials save and except Sugar or Potatoes
‘ “ only, as the Case may be, according to such Notice, shall be found in the Distillery of such Distiller, ‘ “ or in any Store belonging to such Distillery, then and in each and every such Case such Distiller shall ‘ “ (except in the Case herein-after provided) forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds;” provided “ that ‘ “ if any Distiller who shall have given any such Notice of using Sugar or Potatoes only as aforesaid ‘ “ shall intend to commence or to recommence to use the other of them, or to use Corn or Grain and ‘ “ Malt, at any Time when there shall not be any Wort or Wash or Sugar or Potatoes respectively in ‘ “ the Distillery of such Distiller, such Time being at least One Calendar Month distant from the Time ‘ “ such Distiller began to use Sugar or Potatoes only under any such Notice, it shall be lawful for such ‘ “ Distiller, on giving Six Days previous Notice to the proper Officer, so to commence or recommence
‘ “ to use the other of them, or to use Corn or Grain and Malt, and such Distiller shall not thereafter be ‘ “ liable to any such Penalty aforesaid; provided also, that if any Distiller using Corn or Grain and Malt ‘ “ shall be desirous of commencing or recommencing to use Sugar or Potatoes only as aforesaid, at any ‘ “ Time when there shall not be any Wort or Wash, or Malt, Corn, or Grain, in the Distillery of such ‘ “ Distiller, such Time being at least One Calendar Month from the Time such Distiller shall have com‘ “ menced or recommenced using Corn or Grain and Malt as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such ‘ “ Distiller, on giving Six Days Notice as aforesaid, so to commence or recommence to use Sugar or ‘ “ Potatoes only;” and further, “ that from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight ‘ “ hundred and twenty-six it shall be lawful for any Licensed Distiller in Scotland or Ireland to make ‘ “ or brew any Wort or Wash and to make or distil Spirits from Sugar only, or from Potatoes only, ‘ “ anything in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; provided always,
‘ “ that whenever Sugar or Potatoes are used for that Purpose the same shall be done under the like ‘ “ Rules and Regulations as are contained in a certain Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His ‘ “ present Majesty, for granting certain Duties of Excise upon Spirits distilled from Corn or Grain in ‘ “ Scotland and Ireland, and upon Licences for Stills for making such Spirits, and to provide for the ‘ “ better collecting and securing such Duties, and for the warehousing of such Spirits without Payment
‘ “ of Duty, for making or brewing Wort or Wash and making and distilling Spirits from Malt only,
‘ “ unmixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain, except that in the annual Account of every such Dis-
‘ “ tiller, so far as shall relate to Spirits made or distilled from Sugar, he shall be chargeable and charged ‘ “ with Duty after the Rate or Proportion of One Gallon of Proof Spirits for every Four Degrees of ‘ “ the declared Gravity of the Worts from which such Spirits were made or distilled:” And whereas it
‘ is expedient to repeal the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign aforesaid, and so much of the said
‘ Acts of the Fourth and of the Sixth Years of the Reign aforesaid as are before recited, and to permit
‘ the Distillation of Spirits from Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle in the United Kingdom, under the Regu‘ lations after mentioned:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign aforesaid, and so much of the said Acts of the Fourth and of the Sixth Years of the Reign aforesaid as are before recited, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except as to any Allowance granted by the said Act of the Tenth Year aforesaid, and payable for or in respect of any Spirits distilled before the passing of this Act, and save and except as to any Penalty or Forfeiture before then incurred under the said Act of the Tenth Year aforesaid, or under any of the Clauses of the said Acts of the Fourth and of the Sixth Years aforesaid, before recited.

Repeal of first-recited Act and of Part of the Two last-recited Acts.

II. And be it enacted, That every Licensed Distiller in England may make or brew Worts or Wash and may distil Spirits from Sugar only, or from Potatoes only, or from Molasses only, or from the Extract or Preparation from Sugar or Molasses commonly known or called by the Name of Treacle, or from any Mixture of Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle, or of any Two of them, or from any Mixture of Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle, or any of them, and Malt or Grain, under the Provisions of this Act and of the said Act of the Sixth Year aforesaid (so far as the same is not hereby repealed), and under and subject to the Duties and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, now by Law imposed for and in respect of Spirits distilled in England; and every Licensed Distiller in Scotland or Ireland may make or brew Worts or Wash and may distil Spirits from any of the Materials aforesaid, or from any Mixture of the Materials, as before specified, under the Provisions of this Act and of the said Act of the Fourth Year aforesaid (so far as the same is not hereby repealed), and under and subject to the respective Duties and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, now by Law imposed for and in respect of Spirits distilled in Scotland and Ireland respectively.

Licensed Distillers may distil from Sugar only, or from Potatoes only, or from Molasses only, or from Treacle, or from any of these Materials and Malt or Grain mixed.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in the annual Account on which a Charge of Duty may be made on every such Distiller, by the said Acts of the Fourth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, when the Spirits are distilled from Sugar only, he shall be chargeable and charged with Duty after the Rate or Proportion of One Gallon of Proof Spirits for and in respect of every One hundred Gallons of the Worts or Wash attenuated during the Period of such annual Account for every Four Degrees of the Gravity specified in the Notice or Notices given by such Distiller of the Gravity of the Worts intended to be made by him during such Period in his Distillery; and when the Spirits are distilled from Sugar and any Mixture of such Materials, as before specified, he shall be chargeable and charged with Duty after the Rate or Proportion aforesaid for and in respect of the Worts made from Sugar, and for and after the Rate or Proportion of One Gallon of Proof Spirits for and in respect Charge on annual Account when Sugar only is used, and when Sugar mixed with Grain, &c. is used in the brewing the Worts.

respect of every One hundred Gallons of the Worts or Wash attenuated during the Period of such annual Account for every Five Degrees of the Gravity specified in such Notice or Notices as aforesaid for and in respect of the Worts made from Grain, Molasses, and Treacle; and for the Purpose of ascertaining what Proportion of the whole Worts made during the Period comprised in such annual Account has been made from Sugar, and what from Grain, Molasses, and Treacle, it shall be calculated that the Quantity of Sugar necessary to make One Gallon of Worts at the Gravity specified in such Notice is the Quantity in Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of solid Extract per Imperial Gallon as indicated by the Saccharometer and such Tables as are approved of by the Commissioners of Excise for that Purpose, with Five per Centum added for Moisture and Impurities in the Sugar to such indicated Weight, and the total Number of Gallons of Worts made from Sugar shall be so calculated from the Quantity of Sugar removed from the Store-room in the Presence of the proper Officer to the Mash Tun or other Vessel, as in this Act after mentioned, and actually used in brewing or making the Worts distilled during the Period of such annual Account, and such Quantity of Worts being deducted from the whole Quantity of Worts made during the Period comprised in such annual Account, the Residue shall be deemed and taken to have been made from Grain, Molasses, and Treacle.

Distiller not to distil from other Materials than Malt and Grain, except as provided by this Act and 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 74.

IV. And be it enacted, That, except as provided by this Act, and by an Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to permit the Distillation of Spirits from Mangel Wurzel, it shall not be lawful for any Licensed Distiller in England, Scotland, or Ireland to make or brew any Worts or Wash or to distil any Spirits from any other Materials whatsoever than Malt, Corn, or Grain, or some Mixture thereof; and if any Licensed Distiller in England, Scotland, or Ireland makes or brews any Worts or Wash or distils any Spirits otherwise than as aforesaid he shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Materials, Worts, Wash, and Spirits shall be forfeited.

Notice to be given by the Distiller of his Intention to use Sugar, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That every Distiller who is desirous of distilling Spirits from Worts or Wash made or brewed from any of the Materials as aforesaid, or from any Mixture of the Materials, as before specified, under the Provisions of this Act, shall, Six Days before he commences to brew any such Worts or Wash, give Notice in Writing to the proper Officer surveying his Distillery of his Intention so to do, specifying in such Notice which of the particular Materials aforesaid, or what Mixture of the Materials, as before specified, he intends to use, and that the same are not mixed with any other Materials whatever; and if at any Time after such Notice has taken effect any other Materials for Distillation than according to such Notice are used in the Distillery of such Distiller, or are found in any Place in or about such Distillery, other than the Rooms or Places entered for keeping such Materials, then and in every such Case such Distiller shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, and all Materials found contrary hereto shall be forfeited.

Distiller may change his Materials, on Notice.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Distiller who has given any such Notice as aforesaid is desirous of commencing or recommencing to use any other of the Materials aforesaid, or any other of the Mixtures of Materials in this Act before specified, and other than as mentioned in the Notice by him before given, such Distiller may do so at any Time (such Time being at the Close of a distilling Period, and at least Seven Days distant from the Time when such Distiller began to use such Materials under the Notice last given by him), on giving Six Days previous Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of his Intention so to do.

No Sugar or Molasses to be received by Distillers except from the Customs Warehouse, and in same State as when cleared on Payment of Duty, the same to be accompanied with a Certificate from the proper Officer of Customs.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Distiller of Spirits using Sugar or Molasses for the Distillation of Spirits shall receive into his Custody or Possession any such Sugar or Molasses except from the Warehouse in which the same was warehoused under the Laws and Regulations of the Customs, and in the same State, and in the same Hogsheads, Puncheons, Casks, Bags, or Packages, with the same Marks and Numbers thereon, in which the same was cleared and delivered from such Warehouse on Payment of the Duty; and all such Sugar or Molasses shall be accompanied with a Certificate from the proper Officer of Customs, setting forth the Name of the Warehouse or Place from which the Sugar or Molasses is removed, and the Name of the Distillery and Distiller where and to whom the same is to be carried, and the Kind or Quality of such Sugar or Molasses, and the Number of Hogsheads, Puncheons, Casks, Bags, and Packages in which the same is contained, together with the Marks and Numbers thereon respectively, with the Tare and Net Weight of each, and the Amount and Rate of Duty paid on such Sugar or Molasses, together with the Date of such Payment; and every Distiller who receives into his Custody or Possession any Sugar or Molasses except as aforesaid, or without the same being accompanied with such Certificate as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Sugar or Molasses shall be forfeited.

No Treacle to be received by Distillers except from the Refiner or Manufacturer, and in the same State and Packages as when first packed, and unless accompanied with Certificate from

VIII. And be it enacted, That no Distiller of Spirits using Treacle as aforesaid for the Distillation of Spirits shall receive into his Custody or Possession any such Treacle except from the Warehouse of the Sugar Refiner or Manufacturer of such Treacle from Sugar or Molasses, and in the same State, and in the same Hogsheads, Puncheons, or Casks, (none of them being less than of the Content of Fifty Gallons,) with the same Marks and Numbers thereon, in which the same was first prepared and packed in Warehouse; and all such Treacle shall be accompanied with a Certificate from the Sugar Refiner or Manufacturer by whom the same was made or prepared, setting forth the Name of the Warehouse or Place where such Treacle was made and from which the same was removed, and the Name of the Distillery and Distiller where and to whom the same is to be carried, and the Number of Hogsheads, Puncheons, and Casks, not being less than aforesaid, in which the same is contained, together with the Marks and Numbers thereon respectively, with the Tare and Net Weight of each; and every Distiller who receives into his

Custody

Custody or Possession any Treacle except as aforesaid, or without the same being accompanied with such Certificate as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Treacle shall be forfeited. the Refiner or Manufacturer.

IX. And be it enacted, That every Distiller intending to use Sugar or Molasses or Treacle, as aforesaid, in the Distillation of Spirits, shall provide and keep a separate and convenient and secure Storehouse or Room for each (if so required by the Commissioners of Excise) at his Distillery, which has sufficient Light, and is approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, for the Purpose of depositing, storing, and securing therein respectively the Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle received by him for the Distillation of Spirits, and every such Storehouse or Room, when so approved of, shall be specially entered by such Distiller for the Purpose aforesaid, and the proper Collector or Supervisor of the District shall provide and affix proper Locks and Fastenings thereto, at the Expense of such Distiller, who may, if he please, affix other Locks and Fastenings thereto, the Keys of which last-mentioned Locks he may keep; and in such separate Storehouse or Room every such Distiller shall keep all Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle received by him as aforesaid, to be deposited therein in the Presence of an Officer of Excise, and on such Notice as after mentioned; and no such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle shall be delivered or removed out of any such Storehouse or Room except in the Presence of an Officer of Excise, and on such Notice as after mentioned, and except for the Purpose of being conveyed immediately to the Mash Tun or to such other Vessel as with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Excise is entered for that Purpose, to be there immediately dissolved and used in the Manufacture of Spirits; and if any such Distiller refuses or neglects to provide and keep any such Storehouse or Room, or to make Entry thereof, as aforesaid, or refuses or neglects to pay for any Lock, Key, or Fastening for securing the same provided and fixed by such Collector or Supervisor as aforesaid, or obtains Admission or Entrance into any such Storehouse or Room, or has the Means of so doing, or deposits any Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle therein, or removes any Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle therefrom, except in the Presence of and upon due Notice to the proper Officer of Excise, and except for such Purpose as aforesaid, or does not deposit in a separate and secure Storehouse or Room as aforesaid all Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle received by him, every such Distiller shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, and all Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle deposited or removed contrary hereto shall be forfeited. Distiller using Sugar, &c. to provide Storehouses at his Distillery, to be approved of, in which all Sugar, &c. received by him shall be deposited, and secured under Lock of the proper Officer. No Sugar, &c. to be removed out of such Storehouse, except in the Presence of an Officer of Excise. Penalty.

X. And be it enacted, That every Distiller using Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, as aforesaid, for the Distillation of Spirits, shall, before receiving any such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, give Twelve Hours previous Notice in Writing to the Officer surveying his Distillery of the Time of Arrival of such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle; and every such Distiller shall, on the Attendance of the Officer on such Notice, produce to him all the Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, as the same have been respectively received by him, in the same State, and in the same Hogsheads, Puncheons, Casks, Bags, or Packages, with the same Marks and Numbers thereon, as the same was cleared and delivered from the Customs Warehouse on Payment of Duty, if Sugar or Molasses, (or as the same was prepared and packed in the Warehouse of the Sugar Refiner or Manufacturer thereof if the same be Treacle,) and such Distiller shall at the same Time deliver up to such Officer the Certificate which accompanied such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, and, on being required by the Officer, such Distiller shall weigh or cause to be weighed and shall give the Officer all necessary Assistance in taking Account of all such Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise may direct; and such Officer, after due Examination, and on being satisfied therewith, shall permit and suffer such Distiller to deposit the same in a separate locked-up Storehouse or Room, as before mentioned; and if any such Distiller receives any such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle without having given such Notice, or fails to produce such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, or to deliver up such Certificate as aforesaid, or makes any Alteration in the Quantity or Quality of such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, or in the Hogsheads, Puncheons, Casks, Bags, or Packages containing the same, or in the Marks or Numbers thereon, from that which the same respectively were when such Sugar or Molasses was cleared and delivered from the Customs Warehouse, or when such Treacle was prepared and packed in the Warehouse of the Sugar Refiner or Manufacturer thereof, and before such Officer as aforesaid has seen such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle weighed or taken account of and deposited as aforesaid, every such Distiller so offending shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle shall be forfeited. Distiller to give Twelve Hours Notice of receiving Sugar, &c., and produce the same in the same State, with the Certificate, to be deposited in the Storehouse.

XI. And be it enacted, That when any Distiller using Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, as aforesaid, in the Distillation of Spirits, is desirous of taking or removing any Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle out of such Storehouse or Room as aforesaid, for the Purpose of the same being conveyed to the Mash Tun, or to such other Vessel as, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Excise, is entered for that Purpose, to be there dissolved and used in the Manufacture of Spirits, such Distiller shall give Six Hours previous Notice in Writing to the Officer surveying the Distillery of the Time when and the Quantity of Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle which he is desirous of removing as aforesaid; and every such Officer receiving such Notice shall attend in pursuance thereof at the Time therein mentioned, and shall unlock the Storehouse or Room from which such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle is to be removed, and shall see weighed out therefrom the Quantity of Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle expressed in such Notice, or such Part thereof as the Distiller may desire; and all such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle shall be delivered from such Storehouse or Room in the original Package only; and all such Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle shall then be conveyed by the Distiller directly from such Storehouse or Room to the Mash Tun, or to such other Vessel as aforesaid in the Distillery of such Distiller, to be there dissolved and used in the Manufacture of Spirits, or shall forthwith be deposited again by such Distiller in such separate Storehouse Six Hours Notice before removing from the Storehouse to the Mash Tun.

house or Room as aforesaid, under the Lock of the Officer, until the same is again removed on like Notice as aforesaid; and if any such Distiller removing any Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle as aforesaid does not convey the same directly from the Storehouse or Room to the Mash Tun, or to such other Vessel as aforesaid, and there dissolve and use the same in the Manufacture of Spirits, or does not forthwith deposit the same again as aforesaid, or removes or disposes of the same otherwise than as aforesaid, every such Distiller so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and all Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle so removed, which are not conveyed, dissolved, and used, or again deposited as aforesaid, and all Sugar, Molasses, and Treacle which are found deposited in any other Place in the Distillery, or in any Premises adjoining thereto, except in the separate Storehouse or Room, or Mash Tun or such other Vessel as aforesaid, shall be forfeited.

To be conveyed direct from the Storehouse to the Mash Tun, or re-deposited. Penalty 200*l.* and Forfeiture.

XII. And be it enacted, That the proper Officer of Excise shall, in such Manner and at such Times as the Commissioners of Excise may direct, keep an Account, by way of Debtor and Creditor, of the Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle as aforesaid in Stock in each separate Storehouse or Room provided by every Distiller using Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle in the Distillation of Spirits as aforesaid, and shall in such Account credit such Stock with the full Quantity of Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle which is from Time to Time deposited in such Storehouse or Room as aforesaid, and shall debit such Stock with the full Quantity of Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle which is from Time to Time weighed by him and removed from such Storehouse or Room for the Purpose of the same being conveyed to the Mash Tun or to such other Vessel as, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Excise, is entered for that Purpose, to be there dissolved and used in the Distillation of Spirits; and if at any Time, upon striking a Balance on such Account, the Quantity of Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle in such Storehouse or Room as aforesaid is found to exceed the Quantity which by the Stock Account kept by such Officer as aforesaid ought to be in such Storehouse or Room, every such Distiller shall be deemed and taken to have deposited Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle therein without the same having been deposited in the Presence of and upon due Notice to the proper Officer of Excise, and all such Excess of Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle shall be forfeited; and if the Quantity of Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle in such Storehouse or Room as aforesaid is found to be less than the Quantity which by the Stock Account kept by such Officer as aforesaid ought to have been in such Storehouse or Room, every such Distiller shall be deemed and taken to have removed Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle therefrom without the same having been removed in the Presence of and upon due Notice to the proper Officer of Excise; and every such Distiller shall, over and above all other Penalties, forfeit the Penalty of Twenty Pounds: Provided always, that such last-mentioned Penalty shall not be incurred if such Deficiency is proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise to have arisen from unavoidable Accident or Loss.

Officer to keep Account of Stock in the Storehouse.

XIII. And be it enacted, That every Distiller using Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle as aforesaid in the Distillation of Spirits, and providing such Storehouses or Rooms as aforesaid, shall keep sufficient and just Scales and Weights therein respectively, and shall, when thereunto required by any Officer of Excise, arrange and place all Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle deposited in such Storehouse or Room so as to enable such Officer easily and conveniently to weigh and take an Account of the same; and such Distiller shall, by himself or his Servants, assist the Officer, as thereunto required, in weighing and taking an Account of all such Stock, and in weighing and taking an Account of all Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle received and deposited in each such Storehouse or Room as aforesaid, or removed therefrom for the Purpose of being conveyed to the Mash Tun or to such other Vessel as, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Excise, is entered for that Purpose; and if any such Distiller keeps any false, unjust, or insufficient Scales and Weights, or by any Art, Device, or Contrivance prevents or impedes such Officer from taking a just and true Account of such Stock or Commodities as aforesaid, he shall incur the Penalties and Forfeitures now in that respect imposed by the Laws of Excise in such Case made and provided; and if any such Distiller does not arrange and place such Stock as aforesaid, or does not assist such Officer as aforesaid, he shall for each and every such last-mentioned Offence incur the Penalty of One hundred Pounds.

Distiller to provide Scales and Weights, and assist the Officer in weighing the Sugar, &c.

XIV. And for encouraging the Use of Sugar in the Distillation of Spirits, be it enacted, That every Distiller who, under the Regulations of this Act, distils Spirits from Worts or Wash brewed or made from Sugar only, or from Molasses only, or from any Mixture of these Materials and Treacle or Malt or Grain, shall at the Close of every brewing and distilling Period be entitled, under such Regulations, Provisoes, and Restrictions as after mentioned, to an Allowance at and after the Rate specified in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed for and in respect of every One hundred and twelve Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of the Sugar actually used by him in the brewing or making of the Worts or Wash from which the Spirits were distilled during such Period, and to an Allowance at and after the Rate specified in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed for and in respect of every One hundred and twelve Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of the Molasses actually used by him in the brewing or making of the Worts or Wash from which the Spirits were distilled during such Period, such respective Allowances being severally granted for and in respect of the Duty charged upon the Sugar or Molasses respectively deposited in such Storehouse or Room as aforesaid, and afterwards removed therefrom to be conveyed to the Mash Tun or to such other Vessel as with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Excise is entered for that Purpose, and actually dissolved there, and used in making the Worts or Wash from which the Spirits distilled during such Period and charged with Duty have been made.

Allowance to Distiller on Spirits made from Worts or Wash in which Sugar or Molasses is used for every 112 lbs. Weight of the Sugar used according to Schedule (A.), and of the Molasses used according to Schedule (B.)

XV. And be it enacted, That every Distiller who uses Sugar or Molasses in the Distillation of Spirits, and claims any such Allowance aforesaid, shall from Time to Time, and at the End of every distilling Period,

Distiller who claims the Al-

Period, deliver to the proper Officer an Account in Writing of the Quantity of Sugar and Molasses removed from his locked-up Storehouse or Room, and conveyed to the Mash Tun or such other Vessel as aforesaid, and actually dissolved there, and used in brewing or making Worts or Wash distilled during such Period; and such Officer shall thereupon transmit such Account, and at the same Time make a Return in Writing, signed by such Officer, to the Collector of Excise, specifying the Quantity of Sugar and Molasses which appears by the Stock Account kept by such Officer of the Sugar and Molasses in such Storehouse or Room as aforesaid to have been removed therefrom for the Purpose of being conveyed to the Mash Tun or to such other Vessel as aforesaid, to be used in the Distillation of Spirits, during such Period, and of the Quantity of Proof Spirits with which such Distiller has been charged with Duty for or in respect of such Worts or Wash as aforesaid, and whether such Worts or Wash had been made from Sugar only, or from Molasses only, or from any Mixture of these Materials and Treacle or Malt or Grain; and every such Distiller, or the principal Manager of his Distillery, shall make and subscribe a Declaration to the Truth of the Account so delivered by him as aforesaid, in the Form or to the Effect following:

Allowance to deliver an Account of the Quantity of Sugar or Molasses used;

and to make Declaration thereto.

'I A.B. [Distiller, or principal Manager of the Distillery of C.D., as the Case may be,] do solemnly declare, That within the brewing Period commencing on the Day of and ending on the Day of both inclusive, there were actually removed from locked-up Storehouse or Room, situate at Distillery, and conveyed to the Mash Tun or to the Vessel entered for that Purpose at the said Distillery, the Quantity of Pounds Weight of Sugar [or Molasses, or both, as the Case may be], and no more, and that within the said Period there were actually dissolved and used in the Distillation of Spirits Pounds Weight of Sugar, [or Molasses, or both, as the Case may be], and no more, and that all the Duties of Customs on the whole of the Sugar [or Molasses, or both, as the Case may be,] so dissolved and used were duly paid, and that all the Spirits distilled in the aforesaid Period have been duly brought to charge and charged with Duty by the proper Officer.'

And if such Declaration is untrue in any Particular the Distiller by whom or on whose Behalf such Declaration has been made shall forfeit all such Allowance, and also the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty for false Declaration.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Collector of Excise who receives such Account, and Declaration thereto, and the Return in Writing aforesaid, shall, on being satisfied therewith, pay or allow to such Distiller, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise may direct, in respect of the Sugar used, a Sum after the Rate specified in Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act for and in respect of every One hundred and twelve Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of Sugar which appears by such Account and Return in Writing as aforesaid to have been actually used in the brewing or making of the Worts or Wash from which the Spirits were distilled during such Period; and in respect of the Molasses used such Collector shall in like Manner allow a Sum after the Rate specified in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, for and in respect of every One hundred and twelve Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of Molasses which appears by such Account and Return in Writing as aforesaid to have been actually used in the brewing or making of the Worts or Wash from which the Spirits were distilled during such Period: Provided always, that in every Case of such Allowance as aforesaid, if the Distiller has been charged with or owes any Duty or Duties, or is liable to the Payment of any Penalty or Penalties adjudged against such Distiller for any Offence against this Act, or any other Act relating to the Revenue of Excise, such Collector may from Time to Time apply the Amount of every such Allowance, or a sufficient Part thereof, in satisfaction of such Duty or Duties, Penalty or Penalties, or any of them.

The Collector, on receiving such Account and Declaration, to pay the Allowance according to the Quantity of Sugar and Molasses actually removed.

If the Distiller owes Duties or Penalties, the same may be deducted from the Allowance.

XVII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CI.

An Act to provide for the Expenses of erecting and maintaining Lock-up Houses on the Borders of Counties. [4th September 1848.]

5 & 6 Vict. c. 109.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Appointment and Payment of Parish Constables, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, if they should think fit, to order that Lock-up Houses for the temporary Confinement of Persons taken into Custody by any Constable, and not yet committed for Trial, or in execution of any Sentence, should be provided in such Places within their County as the said Justices should think fit, and for that Purpose to purchase and hold Lands and Tenements, or to appropriate to that Purpose any Lands and Tenements belonging to the County which were not needed for the Purpose to which they were applied or intended to be applied before such Appropriation, or, instead of providing new Lock-up Houses, to order that the Lock-up Houses, Strong-rooms, or Cages belonging to any Parish be appropriated for the Purpose of that Act, and, if necessary, be enlarged or improved, and that the Expenses of building, hiring, or otherwise providing, repairing, and furnishing such Lock-up Houses should be defrayed out of the County Rates: And whereas it is often desirable that on the Borders of Two or more Counties or Places having respectively a separate General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or in some other Situation convenient for the common Use of such Counties or Places, a Lock-up House for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned should be provided and maintained, to which Persons apprehended by Constables or remanded by Justices in each of such Counties or other Places may be temporarily confined previously to their being committed for Trial, or in execution of any Sentence:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace in and for any County, and for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of any Borough (having a separate Commission of the Peace), to agree with the Justices of the Peace of any One or more County or Counties, or with the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of any One or more such Borough or Boroughs, that a Lock-up House shall be erected, hired, or otherwise provided at some Place or Places on or near any common Boundary, or in any other Situation convenient for the Purposes aforesaid, or that a Lock-up House for any County or Borough, or any Lock-up House, Strong-room, or Cage which might have been appropriated for a County under the said Act, and which shall be in a Situation convenient for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be appropriated, and, if necessary, enlarged or improved for such Purposes accordingly, and that the same shall be so provided or appropriated, enlarged and improved, and shall be from Time to Time repaired and furnished, and a Superintendent Constable appointed and paid for taking charge thereof, at the joint Expense of the Counties and Boroughs, by the Justices and Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of which respectively such Agreement shall be made, in such Manner and Proportions as in the said Agreement shall be specified: Provided always, that no such Lock-up House shall be erected, hired, provided, appropriated, enlarged, or improved, except upon such Plan as shall be approved of by One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State: Provided also, that every such Lock-up House shall be subject to the Inspection of the Inspectors of Prisons.

Power to Justices to enter into Agreements for providing Lock-up Houses for Two or more Counties, &c. which shall be maintained at their joint Expense; but no Lock-up House to be erected except as approved by Secretary of State.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County in General or Quarter Sessions assembled (and due Notice having been previously given according to the Practice of the said Sessions) to take into consideration the Expediency of making any such Agreement as aforesaid with any such Parties as aforesaid, and if the Justices then and there assembled shall resolve that it is expedient that such Agreement should be made, to appoint not less than Three and not more than Five Justices for the said County to be a Committee for treating with any Committee appointed by any other of the Parties aforesaid for the Purposes aforesaid, and from Time to Time at such Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment thereof, to fill up any Vacancy in the said Committee; and it shall be also lawful for the Council of any such Borough, at a Special Meeting to be called for that Purpose, to take into into consideration the Expediency of making any such Agreement as aforesaid with any of such Parties as aforesaid, and if the Council shall resolve that it is expedient that such Agreement should be made, to appoint not less than Three and not more than Five Persons, being Members of such Council or Justices for such Borough, to be a Committee for treating with any Committee appointed by any other of the Parties aforesaid for the Purposes aforesaid, and from Time to Time at a quarterly Meeting of the Council to fill up any Vacancy in the said Committee.

may appoint a Committee of Councillors to make such Agreement.

III. And be it enacted, That the Committees so appointed shall be deemed to represent severally each of the contracting Parties, and shall meet and form One Joint Committee, and may draw up an Agreement for the Purposes of this Act, which Agreement, when subscribed by the greater Number of the Members of such Joint Committee severally representing each of the contracting Parties, and approved as herein-after directed, shall be binding upon all the said Parties to all Intents and Purposes; and every such Agreement shall specify the Place where such Lock-up House is to be situated, and the Salary of the Superintendent Constable, and the Proportion in which the Expenses of purchasing (where a Site is to be purchased) the Site, and of building or enlarging, improving and fitting and furnishing, such Lock-up House, and of repairing the same; and the Salary of such Superintendent Constable shall be borne by each of the contracting Parties; and such Agreement may specify or provide where a Site is to be purchased for the Appointment of Trustees to and in whom the same shall be conveyed and vested in trust for all the Counties and Boroughs on behalf of which the same shall be purchased; and such Agreement shall provide how the Appointment of the Superintendent Constable of such Lock-up House shall be from Time to Time made.

Committees so appointed may unite for the Purpose of forming One Committee.

Agreements to specify Situation of Lock-up House.

IV. And be it enacted, That wherever any Agreement shall have been so entered into and signed, the Committee appointed by each County and Borough respectively shall report the Agreement for Approval to the General or Quarter Session of the Peace of every such County holden next after the making thereof, and to a Special Meeting of the Council of every such Borough, to be convened for the Purpose, and shall deliver to the Court and Council respectively a Duplicate of the Agreement to be filed by the Clerk of the Peace and by the Town Clerk of each of the said Parties respectively, to be by them kept with the Records of the several Parties aforesaid: Provided always, that if such Agreement be not so approved, it shall be lawful for the said contracting Parties severally to refer the same back for Reconsideration to the said Joint Committee, after which the same shall be again reported until finally approved as aforesaid, or until any of the Parties shall break off the Agreement or Treaty; and after such Agreement shall have been approved the Justices of each County and the Council of each Borough concerned therein may direct the Committees by them respectively appointed to re-assemble, or may from Time to Time appoint other Committees to meet, together with Committees appointed by the Justices or Council, as the Case may be, of the other County or Borough concerned therein, to execute such Agreement, and to do all necessary Acts consequent upon such Agreement as Occasion may require; and such Committees shall have Power to do all necessary Acts accordingly, and may cause to be purchased and conveyed in such Manner as by such Agreement shall be provided, or as the Justice or Justices and Council, Parties to any such Agreement, may direct, any Land which may be required for the Purposes of this Act.

Agreements to be approved by General or Quarter Sessions and Councils of Boroughs respectively.

Committees may be directed to re-assemble, or other Committees may be appointed, for carrying the Agreement into execution.

V. And be it enacted, That so far as respects the Power to detain therein and remand thereto, and to convey thereto and therefrom, Persons taken into Custody, every such Lock-up House shall be deemed a Lock-up House in and for each of the Counties and Boroughs for the joint Use of which the same shall be provided, and all Justices, Constables, and others shall have Authority accordingly.

Lock-up Houses to be deemed Lock-up Houses for each County, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Superintendent Constable so appointed as aforesaid to take charge of such Lock-up House as aforesaid shall be entitled to hold his Office during good Behaviour, or until he shall be dismissed therefrom by the Orders of such Justices and Council, or otherwise as by such Agreement may be provided, and shall be paid such Salary, and in such Manner, and at such Times, and in such Proportions, out of the County, Borough, or other Rates, as shall be provided by such Agreement; and every such Superintending Constable shall have all the Powers and Immunities of a Parish Constable under the said recited Act, and shall have the Superintendence of all the Parish Constables appointed in such Parishes as shall be specified in the said Agreement, and under such Regulations as shall be therein provided.

Superintendents to hold Office during good Behaviour, and be paid a Salary, and have Powers of Parish Constables.

VII. And be it enacted, That in this Act the Word "County" shall include every Riding, Part, or Division of a County having a separate Commission of the Peace, and every Liberty having a separate Commission of the Peace; the Word "Borough" shall include a City, Town, or Port; Words importing the Plural Number shall include the Singular Number, and Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number.

Interpretation of Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CII.

An Act to enlarge the Powers of an Act empowering the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to form a Royal Park in Battersea Fields; to facilitate the raising of Monies authorized to be raised by the said Commissioners for Metropolitan Improvements; and to regulate and simplify the Mode of keeping the Accounts of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 38.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 83.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to form a Royal Park in Battersea Fields in the County of Surrey, the said Commissioners, with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for the Time being for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom, were authorized, out of any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, to be advanced and lent to them by the Commissioners for issuing Exchequer Bills for Public Works, to purchase Lands for a Royal Park in the Parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the County of Surrey: And whereas by an Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners for the Issue of Loans for Public Works and Fisheries to make Loans in Money to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, in lieu of Loans heretofore authorized to be made in Exchequer Bills, the Commissioners for Loans for Public Works and Fisheries were empowered to make Loans to the Commissioners of Woods in Money, in lieu of Exchequer Bills, and the Provisions in the said first-recited Act contained with respect to Loans in Exchequer Bills were extended to Loans in Money: And whereas the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods have proceeded to execute the said first-recited Act, and have contracted to purchase Lands required for the Site of the said intended Park, under the Powers and pursuant to the Directions in the said Act contained; but the Commissioners for the Issue of Loans for Public Works and Fisheries have not at present Funds at their Command whereout they can advance sufficient Monies to enable the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to complete such Purchases, and much Inconvenience to the Public and Injury to Individuals may be occasioned if the Completion of the said Purchases and the Formation of the said Park be suspended:' In remedy whereof may it please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every Case where the Value of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any subsisting Leases, Terms, Shares, Estates, or Interests therein or Charges thereon, which have been or shall be agreed to be purchased by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, (hereinafter designated as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods,) under the Powers or for the Purposes of the said first-recited Act, or the Price or Consideration to be paid for the same has been or shall be agreed upon or ascertained, and such Price or Consideration shall remain unpaid, and the Person or Persons entitled thereto shall be willing to receive Security on the Land Revenues of the Crown for such Price or Consideration, in lieu of immediate Payment of the same, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners for the Time being for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom, or any Three or more of them, upon such Conveyances of the Premises as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods for the Time being shall require being executed, and delivered to the said Commissioners, to make out and deliver to the Person or Persons to whom such Price or Consideration shall be due, or to their respective Trustees or Trustee, a Certificate under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of any Two of them, in the Form or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

Commissioners of Woods, &c. empowered to give Securities for Purchase Money.

Form of Certificate to be granted of such Security.

'IN pursuance of a Warrant from the Lord High Treasurer [or from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, as the Case may be], we, A. and B., Two of the Commissioners for executing an Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act" [here insert the Title of the first-recited Act], in exercise of the Powers vested in us by the said Act, and by another Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Queen Victoria [here insert the Title of this Act] do certify that the Sum of Pounds, being the Consideration agreed to be paid to C.D. [insert the Name or Description of the Person or Persons entitled thereto] for the Purchase of his [her or their] Interest [or Interests] in certain Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments [state the Nature and Description of the Premises sold], which has [or have] been purchased by the said Commissioners for the Purposes of the said first-recited Act, remains due and unpaid to the said C.D., and that the said Sum of Pounds, being such Purchase Money as aforesaid, is to, and shall immediately from the Date hereof, by virtue of the said last-recited Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, become and be a Charge on [the whole, or any particular Portion, to be therein described,] of the Land Revenues of the Crown (other than Royal Parks and Palaces, and the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in the County of Middlesex and City of London respectively), and such Revenues, other than as aforesaid, shall (save and except so far as the same are liable for any existing Loans advanced on the Credit thereof, or Charges thereon,) henceforth be subject and liable to the Payment to the said C.D., his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of the said Principal Sum so due to him [or them], on the Day of [insert the Time or Times of Payment agreed upon], and to the Payment of Interest for the same, or for so much of the said Principal Sum as shall from Time to Time remain unpaid,

'unpaid, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum [or lower Rate, as the Case may be], 'such Interest to be computed from the Date hereof, and to be paid, without any Deduction (save the 'Income or Property Tax, if any, for the Time being), by half-yearly Payments, until the whole of 'the said Principal Sum, and Interest thereon, shall be fully paid and discharged. Given under our 'Hands and Seals, this Day of One thousand eight hundred and .'

Certificates to be enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments.

And every such Certificate shall be witnessed by One of the Secretaries (if any) or Clerks of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, and shall be enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, and a Minute or Extract thereof shall be entered and preserved in the Office of the said Commissioners; and every such Certificate, when so given, granted, and enrolled, shall be and is hereby declared to be conclusive Evidence of the Purchase Money remaining due to the Person or Persons receiving such Certificate: Provided always, that the aggregate Amount for or in respect of which such Certificates may be granted by the said Commissioners shall not exceed the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds.

Land Revenues charged with the Payment of Principal and Interest of Monies expressed in Certificates.

II. And be it enacted, That when any such Certificate shall be so signed, and enrolled, and entered as aforesaid, every Sum or Sums of Money therein expressed or acknowledged to be due as such Purchase Money as aforesaid shall be and the same is and are hereby charged upon the whole, or such particular Portion as shall be therein described, of the Land Revenues of the Crown, other than Royal Palaces and Parks, and the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in the County of Middlesex and City of London respectively, and such Revenues, other than as aforesaid, and the Income thereof, shall from thenceforth be subject and liable to the Payment of the same and the Interest thereof, and such Principal and Interest shall be paid and satisfied out of the said Revenues and the Income thereof at the Time or Times and in the Manner mentioned and appointed for the Payment thereof in and by every such Certificate, and such Principal and Interest, when and as the same shall become due and payable, shall be paid and payable out of the said Land Revenues of the Crown, other than as aforesaid, and the Income thereof, prior to any other Application of such Revenues and Income, except the Payment of Interest due and payable on any existing Loan or Loans antecedently advanced on the Credit thereof, and except so far as such Revenues, or the Income thereof, are or ought to be applied in the Repayment of any such Loan or Loans, or in the Payment of any Charges to which such Revenues are now by Law liable.

Delivery of Certificates to be deemed equivalent to Payment of Money awarded for Purposes of first-recited Act.

III. 'And whereas by the said first-recited Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign 'certain Powers and Authorities are given to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, to be 'exercised after Payment or legal Tender of the Sum or Sums of Money, Recompence, and Satisfaction 'to be agreed for, awarded, or assessed as therein mentioned:' Be it enacted, That the Certificates hereby authorized to be granted by the said Commissioners for any Purchase Monies, Price, or Consideration due to any Person or Persons shall, on Delivery of the same, be deemed and taken to be and be equivalent to and as Payment of Money agreed for, awarded, or assessed for all the Purposes of the said first-recited Act; and all the Powers, Authorities, and Provisions in the said Act contained shall and may, on the Delivery of each such Certificate, be exercised and carried into effect as fully and amply as if the Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in each such Certificate, and the Interest thereof, had been actually paid.

Loans by Public Works Commissioners to be applied in Redemption of Certificates.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Monies to be advanced by the Commissioners for the Issue of Loans for Public Works and Fisheries, et cætera, upon the Security mentioned in the said first-recited Act, shall, when received by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, be appropriated and applied by them in paying off and discharging the Securities which may be granted by them upon the Land Revenues of the Crown under the Authority of this Act.

4 & 5 Vict. c. 40.

V. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourth and Fifth Years 'of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods to raise Money for certain Improvements in the Metropolis on the Security of the Land 'Revenues of the Crown within the County of Middlesex and City of London, it was enacted, that 'it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, 'and Buildings for the Time being, with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commis-'sioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer as therein mentioned, notwithstanding any 'Provisions, Restrictions, or Clauses contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Her Majesty's 'Land Revenue, from Time to Time to borrow and take up, at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Five 'Pounds per Centum per Annum, and on such Terms and Conditions as they should think proper, such 'Sum or Sums of Money as the said Commissioners, with such Consent as aforesaid, should judge 'necessary, for the Purpose of carrying into effect and completing the several Improvements and new 'Streets authorized and directed to be made by them by the several Acts therein recited or referred to, 'on Mortgage of all or any Part or Parts of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments 'of or belonging to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, within the County of Middlesex and City of 'London, or either of them, (other than Royal Palaces and Parks,) and to secure the Repayment of the 'Sum or Sums so to be borrowed, or any Part or Parts thereof, with Interest for the same, with such 'Consent as aforesaid, by Grant, Demise, or Mortgage of all or any Part or Parts of the same Houses, 'Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act passed 'in the Seventh Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enlarge the Powers of an Act of the 'Fourth and Fifth Years of Her present Majesty, empowering the Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods to raise Money for certain Improvements in the Metropolis, on the Security of the Land Revenues 'of the Crown within the County of Middlesex and City of London, after reciting to the Effect herein-

7 & 8 Vict. c. 1.

'before recited, and also reciting that Doubts had been entertained whether the said recited Act extended 'to empower the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and certain other public Companies 'and Corporations, to advance and lend Monies to the said Commissioners on the Security of the said 'Land Revenues of the Crown, it was by the Act now in recital enacted, that it should be lawful for the 'Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and for any Person whomsoever, and any Bodies 'Politic or Corporate, or Companies whatsoever, to advance and lend from Time to Time to the Com-'missioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings any 'Sum or Sums of Money for the Purposes of the said several Acts in the said first herein-before recited 'Act recited or referred to, on Mortgage of any of the Hereditaments of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or 'Successors, (other than Royal Palaces and Parks,) within the County of Middlesex and City of London, 'or either of them, in manner therein mentioned; but it was by the Act now in recital provided, that 'the Sum to be advanced by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England under the Provisions 'thereof should not exceed in the whole the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds: And 'whereas it is expedient that the last-mentioned Restriction should be removed, to the Extent of 'allowing the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to advance any Sum or Sums of Money 'which the said Commissioners are authorized to borrow, in addition to the said Sum of Two hundred 'and fifty thousand Pounds, by the said last-recited Act authorized to be advanced, not exceeding the 'further Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds:' Be it therefore enacted, That notwithstanding the aforesaid Proviso and Restriction in the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of Her present Majesty contained, it shall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, if they shall think fit, from Time to Time to advance and lend to the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act and this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money which the said Commissioners are authorized to borrow, over and above and in addition to the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds by the said last-recited Act limited as the Sum to be advanced by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, not exceeding the further Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds; and that all and every the Provisions of the said last-recited Act shall be and continue in force and apply as if the Restriction as to the total Amount of Monies to be advanced by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England had not been therein contained.

Power to Bank of England to advance additional Money not exceeding 300,000*l.*

Regulations as to Payment of Interest on Loans charged under various Acts on "The London Bridge Approaches Fund."

VI. 'And whereas the said Commissioners are by divers Acts of Parliament authorized to charge 'certain Funds, Duties, and Revenues constituting a Fund which is commonly called "The London 'Bridge Approaches Fund" with certain Sums of Money amounting altogether to the Sum of Four 'hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds, with Interest on such Sums respectively, for the Purpose of 'effecting certain Improvements in the Metropolis, and the said Commissioners are authorized to raise 'Monies for the aforesaid Improvements on the Credit of the Funds, Duties, and Revenues so charged, 'but by reason of prior existing Charges, which wholly absorbed and will for some Time continue to 'absorb the said Funds, Duties, and Revenues, the said Commissioners were, by the said Act of the 'Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, herein-before recited, authorized to borrow Monies as 'aforesaid, for the Purposes of the said Improvements, on the Security of the Land Revenues of the 'Crown, as in the said Act is mentioned; and by the said Act it was provided that all such Monies as 'should come to the Hands of the said Commissioners by means of Leases or Sales of Property purchased 'for effecting the said Improvements, and the Income thereof, and Monies to be borrowed on the Credit 'of Charges made by the said Commissioners on the said Duties, Funds, and Revenues called "The 'London Bridge Approaches Fund," and otherwise, as in the said Act is mentioned, should be applied 'in Repayment of such Sums of Money as might be borrowed on the Credit of the Land Revenues of 'the Crown, and the Interest thereof: And whereas the said Commissioners have from Time to Time, 'by and out of the Principal Monies borrowed on the Security of the Land Revenues of the Crown for 'the Purposes aforesaid, and other the Monies which came to their Hands in the Exercise of the Powers 'granted to them for the Purpose of effecting the said Improvements, paid Interest, which has from 'Time to Time accrued on the Sums so borrowed by them, and when such Principal and other Monies 'have for the Time been exhausted they have paid such Interest out of the annual Income of the Land 'Revenues of the Crown: And whereas it was intended that the Monies which the said Commissioners 'were so as aforesaid authorized to charge on the said Fund called "The London Bridge Approaches 'Fund," and the Interest thereon, and other the Monies which should come to the Hands of the said 'Commissioners in respect of the said Improvement, should be applicable to the Payment, not only of 'all Principal Monies which might be borrowed on the Security of the Land Revenues of the Crown, 'but of all Interest thereon, and to the Intent that thereby the Land Revenues of the Crown, although 'liable to the Mortgagees for the Monies charged and secured thereon, should by the Means aforesaid be 'wholly indemnified from the Payment of any Part of the Monies applicable to the aforesaid Improve-'ments:' Be it therefore enacted, That all Payments heretofore made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, out of any Principal Monies so borrowed by them as aforesaid, or out of Interest arising from any temporary Investment of any such Principal Monies, in respect or by way of Interest accrued on any such Principal Monies, shall be and the same are hereby declared valid, and are hereby confirmed; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being, from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, to pay and apply any Principal Monies which they have borrowed or may hereafter borrow, or the Interest arising from any Investment of any such Principal Monies, or any other Monies which shall come to their Hands by reason of the Premises, in discharge of the Interest accruing due on any Monies so borrowed or to be borrowed as aforesaid, and thereout also to reimburse and repay to the Credit of the Income arising from the Land Revenues of the Crown all such Sums of Money as the said Commissioners have paid or may hereafter pay out of such Income for Interest upon Monies borrowed by them for the Purposes of the said Improvement.

Rights of Mortgagees not to be affected.

VII. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in anywise alter or affect any Security by way of Mortgage on the Land Revenues of the Crown already made, or which may hereafter be made thereof, in pursuance of the Powers aforesaid, but that the same shall continue and be in all respects, as regards the Rights of the Mortgagees in any such Mortgage, in all respects as if the Provision lastly herein-before contained had not been made.

10 G. 4. c. 50.

VIII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King 'George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Management 'and Improvement of His Majesty's Woods, Parks, and Chases, of the Land Revenue of the Crown 'within the Survey of the Exchequer in England, and of the Land Revenue of the Crown in Ireland, and for 'extending certain Provisions relating to the same to the Isles of Man and Alderney, it was amongst other 'things enacted, that the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land 'Revenues should and they were thereby required, within Thirty Days after the Commencement of the 'Session of Parliament which should be in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and also 'within Thirty Days after the Commencement of the first Session of Parliament in every following Year, '(without any special or other Requisition to be made to them for that Purpose,) to certify and report 'in Writing under their Hands and Seals to the King's most Excellent Majesty and both Houses of 'Parliament what Leases, Sales, Purchases, and Grants should have been made during the Year preceding 'the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and during each subsequent Year 'comprised in each Report, and also the other Matters and Things therein mentioned relating to the 'Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown which had been granted or done by them as therein is 'mentioned, and also a Statement of the Income and Expenditure of the Monies which should have 'arisen from the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which that Act related, and of any 'other Monies placed under the Management of the said Commissioners during the Period comprised in 'each Report: And whereas by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty

2 & 3 W. 4. c. 1.

'King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for uniting the Office of Surveyor General of His Majesty's 'Works and Public Buildings with the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and 'Land Revenues, and for other Purposes, His Majesty was authorized to appoint, in the Place of the 'Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and of the Surveyor General of 'His Majesty's Works and Buildings, Three Persons for performing the Duties and exercising the Powers 'then performed and exercisable by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land 'Revenues, and the Duties and Powers then performed and exercisable by the Surveyor General of His 'Majesty's Works and Buildings, to be called "The Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, 'Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings:" And whereas by reason that the Accounts of other Depart-'ments of the Public Service are made up to the Thirty-first Day of March in each Year it is expedient 'that the aforesaid Accounts and Statements of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, 'Works, and Buildings should also be made up to the Thirty-first Day of March in every Year, and that 'the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury should be empowered to make 'from Time to Time such Regulations as they may think convenient with respect to the Manner in 'which the Accounts and Payments of or to or on account of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall be kept and made:' Be it therefore enacted, Annual Reports of Commissioners of Woods to be made up to 31st March instead of 5th January in every Year.

That the annual Report by the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth directed to be made within Thirty Days after the Commencement of every Session of Parliament shall hereafter be made, according to the Terms and Provisions of the said Act, within Three Calendar Months after the Thirty-first Day of March in every Year, instead of within Thirty Days after the Commencement of every Session of Parliament, and that the next annual Report shall be made of all Matters and Things as from the Fifth Day of January last up to the Thirty-first Day of March next, and in all respects, except as regards the Time of making such Report, as by the said recited Act is directed and provided; and that in each of such annual Reports as aforesaid a Statement of all Debts or Debts incurred by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and the Amount of Interest due on such Debt or Debts, shall be laid before Parliament.

Treasury empowered to make Rules and Regulations for keeping the Accounts of the Commissioners of Woods.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, at any Time after the passing of this Act, and from Time to Time, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to make such Rules and Regulations as he or they shall think expedient with respect to the Receipt and Payment of Monies by or on behalf of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, the Persons to be employed in conducting such Receipts and Payments, and the Manner, Form, and Place in which the Accounts of such Receipts and Payments shall be kept; and all such Rules and Regulations shall extend, not only to the Monies to be received and paid in respect of the Land Revenues of the Crown, but to all Monies to be received and paid by or to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods (and whether incorporated for any particular Object or not), or to any Officer duly authorized on their Behalf, under or by virtue of any Act of Parliament or otherwise; and where by any Act of Parliament now in force any Monies are directed to be paid to the said Commissioners in any Capacity, and whether as Part of the Land Revenues of the Crown or otherwise, or to a particular Account, the same may be paid into any Account, and either general or special, at the Bank of England or the Bank of Ireland, as the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall, by any General or Special Order, direct, and the Receipt of the Cashier of the Bank of England or the Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Persons or Bodies respectively paying the same, and without such Persons or Bodies being bound to inquire as to any such Order or Direction, and in all respects as if such Monies had been paid in pursuance of the Directions contained in any Act of Parliament in that Behalf; and any Monies now or hereafter standing to any particular Account of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings may be transferred to such other general or separate Account or Accounts, or otherwise, as the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall from Time to Time direct.

Power to Treasury to regulate the Mode of drawing Monies.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, to make Rules and Orders from Time to Time as to the Form in which Cheques or Orders for the Payment of Monies placed to any Account of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall be drawn, any Act of Parliament, Law, or Custom whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding, and also from Time to Time to authorize the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, by Power of Attorney, from Time to Time to nominate and appoint One or more Person or Persons, in the Names of them the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods for the Time being, to draw Cheques or Orders for Monies standing to the Account of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings at the Banks of England or Ireland, or otherwise (so that nevertheless such Power of Attorney shall continue in force until absolutely revoked, and notwithstanding any Change in the Commissioners appointing such Attorney); and also it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to authorize the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, from Time to Time to nominate a Person or Persons whose Duty it shall be to countersign such Cheques, and any Monies so placed to such Account may be drawn for by such Cheques, signed by such Person or Persons so appointed as aforesaid, and countersigned by such Person or Persons so appointed as aforesaid, and shall be paid and payable according to the Direction in such Cheques or Orders contained, any Act of Parliament or other Provision to the contrary notwithstanding; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings from drawing for any such Monies as aforesaid as they are now authorized to draw, except so far as the contrary may be directed by any Order of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury as aforesaid.

Extent of Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend to Scotland and Ireland.

Act may be amended, &c.

XII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

An Act to prohibit the Importation of Sheep, Cattle, or other Animals, for the Purpose of preventing the Introduction of contagious or infectious Disorders. (a) [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient, in order to prevent the Introduction of contagious or infectious Disorders among Sheep, Cattle, Horses, and other Animals, that Power should be given to Her Majesty in Council to take such Measures as may appear to be necessary for preventing or regulating the Importation of Animals from Parts beyond the Seas where such infectious or contagious Disorders prevail:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from Time to Time, by Order in Council, to prohibit the Importation or Introduction into the United Kingdom, or into any particular Port or Ports thereof, of Cattle, Sheep, Horses, or other Animals, either generally or from any Place or Places that may be named in such Order, for such Period or Periods as She may deem to be necessary, for the Purpose of preventing the Introduction of any infectious or contagious Disorder among the Sheep, Cattle, Horses, or other Animals in this Country. Power to prohibit, by Order in Council, the Importation of Sheep, Cattle, &c., in order to prevent Contagion.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time, by Order in Council, to make such Regulations for subjecting Sheep, Cattle, Horses, or other Animals to Quarantine, or for causing the same to be destroyed upon their Arrival in this Country, or for destroying any Hay, Straw, Fodder, or other Article whereby it appears to Her that Infection or Contagion may be conveyed, and generally to make such Regulations with respect to the Importation of Sheep, Cattle, Horses, or other Animals, as She may consider to be necessary in order to prevent the Introduction of any contagious or infectious Disorder. Power to make, by Order in Council, Regulations for subjecting Sheep, &c. to Quarantine.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Cattle, Sheep, Horses, or other Animals be imported or introduced, or attempted to be imported or introduced, contrary to the Provisions of any Order or Orders in Council made in pursuance of this Act, the same shall be forfeited in like Manner as Goods prohibited to be imported by any Act relating to the Customs; and all Persons importing or introducing or attempting to import or introduce the same shall be liable to such Penalties as are imposed on Persons importing or attempting to import Goods prohibited by Acts relating to the Customs. Cattle, &c. imported contrary to Provisions of Orders in Council to be forfeited. Penalty on importing, &c.

(a) See post, c. 107.

IV. And

Orders in Council may be revoked in whole or in part from Time to Time.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any further Order or Orders in Council, from Time to Time to revoke the whole or any Part of any Order or Orders issued by Her Majesty in Council under the Authority of this Act; and that from and after a Day to be named in such Order or Orders of Revocation such Order or Orders issued under the Authority of this Act, or such Part thereof as shall be specified in such Order or Orders of Revocation, shall cease and determine.

Orders in Council to be published in the London Gazette.

V. And be it enacted, That every Order or Orders in Council issued under the Authority of this Act shall, within Fourteen Days after the issuing thereof, be twice published in the London Gazette; and that a Copy of every Order or Orders in Council issued under the Authority of this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after issuing the same, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, then within Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CVI.

An Act to amend an Act of the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, for rendering valid certain Proceedings for the Relief of Distress in Ireland by Employment of the Labouring Poor, and to indemnify those who have acted in such Proceedings. [4th September 1848.]

10 & 11 Vict. c. 10. s. 3.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to render valid certain Proceedings for the Relief of Distress in Ireland by Employment of the Labouring Poor, and to indemnify those who have acted in such Proceedings, it is amongst other things enacted, that all 'Undertakings therein recited which had been or should be accepted and acted upon, and all Presentments 'for Works mentioned and referred to in such Undertakings respectively made at any Sessions called 'and held before the passing of the said Act, under the Provisions of the Act therein recited, in whatever 'Form or at whatever Time or Times such Undertakings respectively might have been or should be so 'given or accepted and acted upon, and in whatever Form or at whatever Time or Times such Present-'ments respectively might have been made, should be ratified and confirmed to all Intents and Purposes, 'and such Undertakings respectively should be valid and binding upon the Person or Persons respectively 'giving the same, and upon the Lands therein respectively specified; and the Money mentioned in any 'such Undertaking, or so much thereof as by an Award to be made by the said Commissioners of Public 'Works, or any Two of them, and which said Award the said Commissioners or any Two of them were 'authorized and required to make, should appear to have been expended upon any of the Lands specified 'in any such Undertaking, should be a Charge on the Lands specified in such Undertaking and Award; 'and the Money mentioned in any such Award, with Interest thereon at the Rate of Three Pounds Ten 'Shillings per Centum per Annum, should be charged upon, raised, and levied from and out of the 'Lands so specified in such Award, and should be payable at the Time or Times appointed in such 'Award by the Person or Persons who, under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the 'Reign of Her Majesty therein mentioned, and of the several Acts for the Amendment thereof, would 'be liable for the Repayment of the same, provided the same had been expended and charged on the 'said Lands for Works of Drainage executed under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Acts, and 'should be raised, levied, and recovered by such Persons as the Commissioners of the Treasury should 'from Time to Time appoint, in the same Manner, and by the like Remedies, and with the like Powers 'and Authorities, and subject to the like Provisions, as by the said last-mentioned Acts is provided for 'the Recovery of Money for Works of Drainage, in so far as the same might be applicable for the 'Purposes of the said Act: And whereas no Provision is made by the said recited Act for giving notice 'of such Awards to the Parties interested therein, or for the Registry of the same, and it is advisable 'that the said Act should be amended in that and other respects:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases in which the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland shall make or have already made any Award under the Provisions of the said Act of the Tenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, the said Commissioners of Public Works shall cause a Copy of such Award to be transmitted by Post, or in such other Manner as they shall think fit, to the Proprietor or Proprietors, as in the said Act mentioned, of the Lands which shall be the Subject of such Award; and the said Commissioners shall execute a Copy or Duplicate of every such Award as and for a Memorial thereof for the Purposes of Registry, and forthwith cause such Award to be registered in the Office for the Registry of Deeds in the City of Dublin; and the Registrar of the said Registry Office, his Deputies and Assistants, and other Officers, shall and he and they are hereby required to register every such Award in the same Manner as any Deed or Instrument is registered in the said Office, and to file, retain, and enter such Duplicate or Memorial in the Abstract Books and Indexes of or relating to Deeds and Memorials registered and kept in the said Office; and no Fees whatsoever shall be payable for or in respect to such Registration, anything in any former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Copy of any Award made by Commissioners of Public Works to be sent to Persons affected by same.

Award to be registered.

Lands mentioned in the Award to become chargeable, and Award to be conclusive.

II. And be it enacted, That the Lands specified in that Behalf in every such Award shall, from and after the Registry thereof as aforesaid, become and the same are hereby charged with the Amount mentioned in such Award, with Interest thereon at the Rate of Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, such Interest to be calculated from the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and to be payable by half-yearly Instalments on the Days and Times in such Award mentioned mentioned; and such Amount and Interest shall have Priority over all Charges affecting the same Lands; and every such Award in respect of the Lands therein specified shall be binding upon all Persons having any Estate or Interest in such Lands, or Lien or Incumbrance thereon; and every such Award shall be conclusive Evidence that all Requisites by the said last-mentioned Act and this Act with respect thereto have been fully complied with; and it shall not be lawful for any Person to question the Validity of such Award of the said Commissioners of Public Works in respect of anything whatsoever done or omitted to be done, or for any other Reason whatsoever.

Award free of Stamp Duty.

III. And be it enacted, That no such Award, or Memorial thereof, shall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatever.

Principal, &c. may be paid off within Period fixed for Repayment.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor for the Time being of the Lands specified in any such Award, at any Time within the Period fixed by such Award for Repayment, to pay off in One Sum the Amount of Principal and Interest charged upon the said Lands, and which may then be due and payable thereout.

Upon Payment of Amount due Lands to be released.

V. And be it enacted, That upon Payment of the Sum mentioned in such Award, or such Portion thereof as may from Time to Time be due on Foot thereof, together with the Interest due thereon, and also upon Payment of all Costs, Charges, and Expenses (if any) incurred in proceeding to recover the same, or in relation thereto, the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland for the Time being shall and he is hereby required, at the Request of the Party paying the same, to execute a Release of the Lands so charged as aforesaid, at the Cost and Expense of the Party to whom such Release shall be granted.

Act may be amended, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CVII.

An Act to prevent, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the End of the then Session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious Disorders among Sheep, Cattle, and other Animals. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS a contagious or infectious Disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola 'Ovina, now prevails among the Sheep in some Parts of the United Kingdom, and it is 'necessary to take Measures to prevent such Disorder from spreading:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, Infected Sheep exposed for Sale may be seized and destroyed, together with Pens, Hurdles, &c.

That in case any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said Disorder, or any Disorder of the like Nature, be exposed or offered for Sale, or be brought or attempted to be brought for the Purpose of being so exposed or offered for Sale, in any Market, Fair, or other open or public Place where other Animals are commonly exposed for Sale, then and in any such Case it shall be lawful for any Clerk or Inspector or other Officer of such Fair or Market, or for any Constable or Policeman, or for any other Person authorized by the Mayor, or by any Two Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place, or for any Person authorized or appointed by Her Majesty in Council, to seize the same, and to report such Seizure to the Mayor or any Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place; and it shall be lawful for such Mayor or Justice either to restore the same, or to cause the same, together with any Pens, Hurdles, Troughs, Litter, Hay, Straw, or other Articles which he may judge likely to have been infected thereby, to be forthwith destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such Manner as he shall deem proper, or as may be directed in manner herein-after provided; and any Person bringing or attempting to bring any Sheep, Lambs, Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, or other horned Cattle, into any such Market, Fair, or open or public Place as aforesaid, knowing such Sheep, Lambs, or Cattle to be infected with or labouring under either of such Disorders as aforesaid, shall, upon Conviction thereof, forfeit and pay for each and every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Parties exposing Cattle for Sale, knowing them to be diseased.

Penalty on Persons depasturing diseased Sheep, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That if any Person turn out, keep, or depasture any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said Disorder in or upon any Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, waste Land, open Field, Road Side, or other undivided or uninclosed Land, such Person shall, on Conviction thereof, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Persons exposing for Sale Meat unfit for Human Food.

III. 'And whereas it is expedient' for the Preservation of the public Health to make more effectual 'Provision for preventing the Exposure for Sale of any Meat unfit for Human Food:' Be it enacted, That if any Meat unfit for Human Food be exposed or offered for Sale in any Market, Fair, or other open or public Place, it shall be lawful for such Clerks, Inspectors, Constables, Policemen, or other Persons authorized as aforesaid to seize the same, and to report such Seizure to such Mayor or Justice as aforesaid; and such Mayor or Justice may either order the same to be restored, or to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as aforesaid; and any Person publicly exposing or offering such Meat for Sale shall, upon Conviction, forfeit and pay for each and every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Privy Council may make Regulations as to Removal of Sheep, &c.;

IV. And for the more effectually preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious Disease, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any Two or more of them, from Time to Time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the Purpose of prohibiting or regulating the Removal, to or from such Parts or Places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of Sheep, Cattle, Horses, Swine, or other Animals, or of Meat, Skins, Hides, Horns, Hoofs, or other Parts of any Animals, or of Hay, Straw, Fodder, or other Articles likely to propagate Infection; and also for the Purpose of purifying any Yard, Stable, Outhouse, or other Place, as to purifying Yards, Stables,

&c., and Disposal of Animals dying in an infected State; and Notice of Appearance of Disease, &c.

Place, or any Waggons, Carts, Carriages, or other Vehicles; and also for the Purpose of directing how any Animals dying in a diseased State, or any Animals, Parts of Animals, or other Things seized under the Provisions of this Act, are to be disposed of; and also for the Purpose of causing Notices to be given of the Appearance of any Disorder among Sheep, Cattle, or other Animals, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the Purpose of giving Effect to the Provisions of this Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and all Provisions for any of the Purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like Force and Effect as if the same had been inserted in this Act; and all Persons offending against the same shall for each and every Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or such smaller Sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any Case by such Order direct.

Penalty for offending.

Orders, &c. to be published in Gazette, and in Country Newspapers;

V. And be it enacted, That all Orders and Regulations made under the Authority of this Act shall, within Fourteen Days after the issuing thereof, be twice published in the London Gazette; and in case such Orders or Regulations apply to any particular Places or Districts, then the same shall also be twice published, within Fourteen Days as aforesaid, in some Newspaper or Newspapers circulating in the County or Counties within which each of such Places or Districts, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, is or are situated.

and to be laid before Parliament.

VI. And be it enacted, That a Copy of every such Order or Orders shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after issuing the same, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, then within Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Penalty for obstructing Persons in the Execution of this Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That in case any Person wilfully obstruct or impede any Person acting under the Authority of this Act, or of any Order or Regulation made in pursuance of this Act, every Person so offending, and all others aiding and assisting therein, shall and may be seized and detained by such Person so acting under the Authority of this Act as aforesaid, or any Person or Persons he may call to his Assistance, until such Offender or Offenders can be conveniently taken before some Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the County or Place wherein such Offence shall be committed, and when convicted before such Justice as aforesaid (who is hereby authorized and required, upon Complaint to him upon Oath, to take cognizance thereof, and to act summarily in the Premises,) shall, in the Discretion of such Justice, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and in default of Payment thereof shall and may be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless the Amount of the Penalty shall have been sooner discharged.

Penalties to be summarily recovered before Two Justices.

VIII. And be it enacted, That every Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act may be recovered by summary Proceeding before Two Justices; and upon the Exhibition of any Information in Writing before any Justice such Justice shall issue a Summons requiring the Party complained against to appear before Two Justices having Jurisdiction, at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and every such Summons shall be served on the Party offending, either in Person or by leaving the same with some Inmate at his last or usual Place of Abode; and upon the Appearance of the Party complained against, or in his Absence, after Proof of the Service of such Summons, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices having Jurisdiction to proceed to the hearing of the Complaint; and upon Proof of the Offence, either by the Confession of the Party complained against or upon the Oath of One credible Witness or more, it shall be lawful for such Justices to convict the Offender, and upon such Conviction to adjudge the Offender to pay such Penalty as may seem fit, and not greater than the Penalty or Forfeiture specified in this Act, as well as such Costs attending the Conviction as such Justices shall think fit.

Penalties to be levied by Distress.

IX. And be it enacted, That if forthwith upon any such Adjudication as aforesaid the Amount of the Penalty or Forfeiture, and of such Costs as aforesaid, be not paid, the Amount of such Penalty and Costs shall be levied by Distress, and such Justices, or either of them, or any other Justice having Jurisdiction as aforesaid, shall issue their or his Warrant of Distress accordingly.

In default of Distress, Justices may commit the Offender to Prison.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Justice to order any Offender so convicted as aforesaid to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to the Warrant of Distress to be issued for levying such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs, unless the Offender give sufficient Security, by way of Recognizance or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Justice, for his Appearance before him on the Day appointed for such Return, such Day being not more than Eight Days from the Time of taking such Security; but if before issuing such Warrant of Distress it shall appear to the Justice, by the Admission of the Offender or otherwise, that no sufficient Distress can be had within the Jurisdiction of such Justice whereon to levy such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs, he may, if he think fit, refrain from issuing such Warrant of Distress; and in such Case, or if such Warrant shall have been issued, and upon the Return thereof such Insufficiency as aforesaid shall be made to appear to the Justice, then such Justice shall by Warrant cause such Offender to be committed to Gaol, there to remain without Bail for any Term not exceeding Three Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs be sooner paid and satisfied.

Distress, how to be levied.

XI. And be it enacted, That where in this Act any Sum of Money, whether in the Nature of Penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by Distress, such Sum of Money shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party liable to pay the same; and the Overplus arising from the Sale of such Goods and Chattels, after satisfying such Sum of Money, and the Expenses of the Distress and Sale, shall be returned, on Demand, to the Party whose Goods shall have been distrained.

Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

XII. And be it enacted, That no Distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the the Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceedings relating thereto, nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser ab initio on account of any Irregularity afterwards committed by him, but all Persons aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action upon the Case.

Application of Penalties.

XIII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures recovered under this Act shall be applied as follows; one Half thereof shall be paid to the Person who shall sue or proceed for the same, and the other Half to Her Majesty's Use, and shall be paid to the Sheriffs of the County, City, or Town where the same shall have been imposed, and shall have been duly accounted for by him; and that all Convictions before Justices, and all Fines, Forfeitures, or Penalties imposed in consequence of such Convictions, shall be returned to the Court of Quarter Sessions, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the more speedy Return and levying of Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and Recognizances estreated.

Convictions to be returned to Quarter Sessions under 3 G. 4. c. 46.

Penalties to be sued for within Two Months after Commission of Offence.

XIV. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be liable to the Payment of any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by virtue of this Act for any Offence made cognizable before a Justice, unless the Complaint respecting such Offence shall have been made before such Justice within Two Months next after the Commission of such Offence.

Penalty on Witnesses making default.

XV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice to summon any Person to appear before him as a Witness in any Matter in which such Justice shall have Jurisdiction under the Provisions of this Act, at a Time and Place mentioned in such Summons, and to administer to him an Oath to testify the Truth in such Matter; and if any Person so summoned shall without reasonable Excuse refuse or neglect to appear at the Time and Place appointed for that Purpose, having been paid or tendered a reasonable Sum for his Expenses, or if any Person appearing shall refuse to be examined on Oath, or to give Evidence before such Justice, every such Person shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form, nor removed by Certiorari.

XVI. And be it enacted, That no Warrant of Commitment consequent upon any summary Conviction under this Act shall be held void by reason of any Defect in such Warrant, provided it be therein alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same; nor shall any Conviction, Order, or other Proceeding in pursuance of this Act be quashed or vacated for Want of Form, nor shall the same be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of the Superior Courts.

Parties aggrieved may appeal to Quarter Sessions, on giving Security.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by any Determination or Adjudication of any Justice with respect to any Penalty or Forfeiture under the Provisions of this Act, he may appeal to the General Quarter Sessions for the County or Place in which the Cause of Appeal shall have arisen; but no such Appeal shall be entertained unless it be made within Four Months next after the making of such Determination or Adjudication, nor unless Ten Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Nature and Grounds thereof, be given to the Party against whom the Appeal shall be brought, nor unless the Appellant forthwith after such Notice enter into Recognizances, with Two sufficient Sureties, before a Justice, conditioned duly to prosecute such Appeal, and to abide the Order of the Court thereon.

Court may make such Order as they think reasonable.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That at the Quarter Sessions for which such Notice shall be given the Court shall proceed to hear and determine the Appeal in a summary Way, or they may, if they think fit, adjourn it to the following Sessions; and upon the hearing of such Appeal the Court may, if they think fit, mitigate any Penalty or Forfeiture, or they may confirm or quash the Adjudication, and order any Money paid by the Appellant, or levied by Distress upon his Goods, to be returned to him, and may also order such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured as they may judge reasonable; and they may make such Order concerning the Costs, both of the Adjudication and of the Appeal, as they may think reasonable.

If Suit brought on account of Seizure, and the Judge shall certify that there was probable Cause, Plaintiff to have 2*d.* Damages, and Defendant fined not more than 1*s.*

XIX. And be it enacted, That in case the Mayor or Justice to whom the Seizure of any Sheep, Lambs, or Cattle supposed to be infected as aforesaid, or of any Meat supposed to be unfit for Human Food, may have been reported, shall upon Inquiry order the same to be restored, and in case it appear to such Mayor or Justice that there was a probable Cause of Seizure, then and in such Case such Mayor or Justice shall grant a Certificate to the Party making the Seizure that there was such probable Cause, and in such Case the Person or Persons who made such Seizure, being a Person or Persons acting under the Authority of this Act, or of any Order made in pursuance hereof, shall not be liable to any Action, Indictment, or other Suit or Prosecution on account of such Seizure; and in case any Action, Indictment, or other Suit or Prosecution shall be commenced and brought to Trial against any Person or Persons, being a Person or Persons acting under such Authority as aforesaid, on account of the Seizure of any Animals, Parts of Animals, Hay, Straw, Fodder, or other Articles seized as forfeited under the Provisions of this Act, or of any Order or Orders made under the Authority of the same, wherein a Verdict shall be given against the Defendant or Defendants, if the Court or Judge before whom such Information or Suit shall have been tried shall have certified on the said Record that there was a probable Cause for such Seizure, then the Plaintiff, besides the Things seized or the Value thereof, shall not be entitled to above Two-pence Damages, nor to any Costs of Suit, nor shall the Defendant or Defendants in such Prosecution be fined above One Shilling.

Act to continue in force for Two Years.

XX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of September in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and if Parliament be then sitting then further until the End of the then Session.

Act not to affect the Rights, &c. of the City of London.

XXI. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or derogate from the Estates, Rights, Interests, Privileges, Franchises, Jurisdiction, or Authority of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London or their Successors, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, nor prohibit, defeat, alter, or diminish any Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction which at the Time of passing this Act the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, or the said Lord Mayor for the Time being, possess, by Custom, Charter, or otherwise, for the Regulation, Management, and Control of Markets, or the Sale of infected Meat, Hides, Skins, Horns, Hoofs, or other Part of any infected Animal, or infected Hay, Straw, Fodder, or other Article, or the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, or the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, under or by virtue of any Act of Parliament, did or might lawfully claim, use, or exercise.

Act may be amended, &c.

XXII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. CVIII.

An Act for enabling Her Majesty to establish and maintain Diplomatic Relations with the Sovereign of the Roman States. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS Doubts exist whether Her Majesty can lawfully establish and maintain Diplomatic 'Relations and hold Diplomatic Intercourse with the Sovereign of the Roman States; and it is 'expedient that such Doubts should be removed:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, notwithstanding anything contained in any Act or Acts now in force, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to establish and maintain Diplomatic Relations and to hold Diplomatic Intercourse with the Sovereign of the Roman States.

Her Majesty empowered to establish Diplomatic Relations with Sovereign of Roman States.

No Person in Holy Orders to be received as Ambassador, &c. from Court of Rome.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, to receive at the Court of London, as Ambassador, Envoy Extraordinary, Minister Plenipotentiary, or other Diplomatic Agent, accredited by the Sovereign of the Roman States, any Person who shall be in Holy Orders in the Church of Rome, or a Jesuit or Member of any other Religious Order, Community, or Society of the Church of Rome, bound by Monastic or Religious Vows.

Nothing to affect any Laws now in force for upholding the Supremacy of the Crown.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall repeal, weaken, or affect, or be construed to repeal, weaken, or affect, any Laws or Statutes, or any Part of any Laws or Statutes, now in force for preserving and upholding the Supremacy of our Lady the Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, in all Matters Civil and Ecclesiastical within this Realm and other Her Majesty's Dominions, nor those Laws or Parts of Laws now in force which have for their Object to control, regulate, and restrain the Acts and Conduct of Her Majesty's Subjects, and to prohibit their Communications with the Sovereigns of Foreign States on the said Matters, all which Laws and Statutes ought for ever to be maintained for the Dignity of the Crown and the Good of the Subject.

CAP. CIX.

An Act to authorize the Inclosure of certain Lands in pursuance of a Special Report of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales. [4th September 1848.]

8 & 9 Vict. c. 118.

'WHEREAS the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales have, in pursuance of an Act 'passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate 'the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons and Lands held in Common, the Exchange of Lands, 'and the Division of intermixed Lands; to provide Remedies for defective or incomplete Executions, 'and for the Nonexecution of the Powers of general and local Inclosure Acts; and to provide for the 'Revival of such Powers in certain Cases, since the Date of their Third Annual General Report, issued 'their Provisional Orders for and concerning the proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this 'Act, and the requisite Consents thereto have been given: And whereas the said Commissioners have, by 'a Special Report, certified their Opinion that such proposed Inclosures would be expedient; but the 'same cannot be proceeded with without the previous Authority of Parliament:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said several proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act be proceeded with.

Inclosures mentioned in Schedule may be proceeded with.

Short Title.

II. And be it enacted, That in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Second Annual Inclosure Act, 1848."

Commissioners may, if they think fit, order the Warley Inclosure to be proceeded with, as if it had been mentioned in Schedule.

III. 'And whereas since the Presentation by the Inclosure Commissioners of the said Special Report 'the necessary Consents to the Provisional Order have been given in the Matter of the Warley Inclo- 'sure in the County of York: And whereas the several Parties consenting thereto are desirous that 'certain Agreements already entered into between the Lord of the Manor of Wakefield, of which the 'Township of Warley is Parcel, and Commoners thereof, who have consented to such Provisional Order, 'should be carried out with respect to certain Matters which unless provided for it would not be advisable 'that such Inclosure should proceed:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, and they are hereby authorized, by Order under their Seal, to direct that the said Inclosure be proceeded with, upon the Terms and Conditions of such Provisional Order and of the said Agreements, or such of them as the said Commissioners shall think just and reasonable; reasonable; and thereupon such Inclosure shall be proceeded with, and the Award to be made in pursuance of such Order shall be binding and conclusive, in the same Manner as if the said Warley Inclosure had been mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, and as if the Terms and Conditions of the said Agreements, or such of them as the Commissioners shall think just and reasonable as aforesaid, had been included in and incorporated with the Provisional Order in the Matter of such Inclosure, and had been authorized by the said recited Act.

CAP. CX.

An Act to alter the Provisions relating to the Charges for the Relief of the Poor in Unions.

[4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76.
'England and Wales, Provision is made for the Formation of Unions for the Relief of the Poor and for 'the Charge for the Relief of the Poor belonging to the several Parishes comprised therein; and it is 'expedient to alter the Mode in which the Relief of certain poor Persons is now chargeable:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That after the Thirtieth Day of September next until the Thirtieth Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, the Cost of the Relief to be given to any poor Person chargeable or becoming chargeable in any Union formed or to be formed under the Provisions of the said Act, being a destitute Wayfarer or Wanderer or Foundling, as well as the Cost of the Burial of the Body of any such Person dying within such Union, shall be chargeable to the Common Fund of such Union.

Costs for Relief of wandering Poor, &c. to be charged to the Common Fund of Unions.

II. And be it enacted, That where any poor Person having a fixed Place of Abode in a Parish in any such Union shall hereafter, by reason of Accident, bodily Casualty, or sudden Illness occurring to him while in some other Parish, in which he has no legal Settlement, require Relief, the Cost of all the Relief given by lawful Authority in that Behalf, as well medical as otherwise, shall, if the poor Person be at the Time in receipt of Relief, be paid or reimbursed in like Manner and by the same Union or Parish as any other Relief shall be then payable, but if he be not then in receipt of Relief, it shall be paid or reimbursed, as the Case may require, by the Parish in which such poor Person shall then have his Place of Abode, unless by reason of any Provision of the Law he would, if otherwise chargeable, have been chargeable to the Common Fund of such Union, in which Case the Payment or Reimbursement shall be made by the Guardians of the Union comprising such Parish, and shall be charged to the Common Fund of the Union; and it shall be lawful for the Guardians of any Union, if they think proper, to pay for any medical or other Assistance which shall be rendered to any poor Person on the happening

Poor Persons having a fixed Place of Abode meeting with Accidents, &c. in some other Parish where they have no legal Settlement to be relieved by the Parishes of their Abode or previous Chargeability.

happening of any Accident, bodily Casualty, or sudden Illness, although no Order shall have been given for the same by them or any of their Officers, or by the Overseers, and to charge the same to some one Parish in the Union, or to the Common Fund of the Union, according as such Parish or Union would have been liable for the ordinary Relief of such poor Person; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the Guardians of the Union or Parish, or their Officers, or the Overseers of the Parish in which such poor Person shall require Relief by reason of such Accident, bodily Casualty, or sudden Illness, from their Liability to supply the requisite Relief to such poor Person whilst in such Union or Parish.

Paupers rendered irremovable by the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66. rendered chargeable to the Common Fund of the Union.

III. And be it enacted, That after the Thirtieth Day of September next until the Thirtieth Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine all the Costs incurred in the Relief, as well medical as otherwise, of any poor Person, who, not being settled in the Parish where he resides, shall, by reason of some Provision of the Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Removal of the Poor, be or become exempted from the Liability to be removed from the Parish where he resides, shall, where the said Parish shall be comprised in any such Union as aforesaid, be charged to the Common Fund of such Union, so long as such Person shall continue to be so exempted; and the Expenses of the Burial of any such Person so exempted at the Time of his Death shall, if legally payable by the Guardians of the Union, likewise be charged to the said Common Fund.

Questions arising as to Cost of Relief, &c. may be referred to and decided by the Poor Law Board; whose Orders shall not be removable after a Time, nor be quashed for Want of Form.

IV. And be it enacted, That where in any such Union a Question shall arise between any Parishes therein, or between the Guardians and any Parish or Parishes therein, with reference to the charging of the Cost of his Relief, as to whether any Pauper be so exempted as aforesaid, the Parties may jointly submit such Question to the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in England, who may thereupon, if they think proper, entertain such Question, and by an Order under their Seal determine the same; but no such Order shall be liable to be removed, by Writ of Certiorari or otherwise, into the Court of Queen's Bench, after the Expiration of the Term next ensuing the Time when the Copy thereof shall have been sent to the Guardians, nor shall the same be quashed for any Defect of Form therein; and every such Order not rescinded or quashed shall be in all Courts and for all Purposes final and conclusive between the Guardians and every Parish in the Union interested in the Matter.

Guardians may assist in the Emigration of certain Poor, and charge the Cost upon the Common Fund of the Union or Parish.

V. And be it enacted, That the Guardians of any Union or Parish may, with the Order of the said Commissioners and in conformity with such Regulations as they shall make, procure or assist in procuring the Emigration of any poor Person rendered irremovable by virtue of the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, and chargeable or who would, if relieved, be chargeable upon the Common Fund of such Union, or in the Case of any Parish not comprised in a Union who may, though not settled therein, be irremovable as aforesaid therefrom; and such Guardians shall in the Case of a Union charge the Costs and Expenses incurred in such Emigration upon the Common Fund, and in the Case of a Parish not in a Union, upon the Monies in their Hands for the Relief of the Poor.

Mode of charging the Relief.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Cost of all the Relief which under the Provisions of this Act shall be chargeable to the Common Fund of any Union shall be charged to the Common Fund of such Union, in the same Manner as Union Expenses are directed to be charged by the herein first-recited Act.

Guardians may cause a Valuation to be made at any Time of Property alleged to be rateable.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Guardians of any Union may, on the Application of the major Part of the Overseers of any Parish comprised in it, or of any Person assessed to the Poor Rate in any such Parish, cause a Valuation to be made at any Time of any Property alleged to be rateable to the Relief of the Poor, being a Part only of the rateable Property of such Parish, and may charge the Expenses of such Valuation to the Overseers of such Parish, or to such Person so applying as aforesaid.

Guardians may obtain Orders of Maintenance, and charge Expenses in like Manner as Churchwardens, &c. can.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Guardians of any Union shall be entitled to obtain Orders of Maintenance upon the Relations liable under any Statute now in force to maintain any poor Person whose Relief would be chargeable to the Common Fund of the Union, in like Manner as the Churchwardens and Overseers of any Parish can now obtain the same, and may expend in respect of such Person, out of such Fund, any Money for any Purpose which the Overseers of the Parish to which such Person, if chargeable, would have belonged might have done; and all Relief to be granted by the Guardians to any Pauper upon Loan, and which shall be chargeable to the Common Fund of the Union, or to any Parish therein, may be recoverable in the County Court or other Court for the Recovery of Small Debts for the District wherein the Union or the major Part thereof shall be comprised, on the Plaint of the said Guardians, who may apply and be heard in such Court by any Officer appointed by them for such Purpose, in manner prescribed by the Statutes enabling them to appoint Officers to act for them: Provided nevertheless, that the Remedy already provided by Law for the Recovery of the Relief granted on Loan shall be in force and applicable to the Relief so chargeable to the Common Fund as aforesaid.

Relief advanced by way of Loan may be recovered in County Court, &c.

Persons being chargeable upon the Common Fund of a Union, and being convicted of any Offence, may be committed by a Justice to

IX. And be it enacted, That if any Person herein-before made chargeable upon the Common Fund of the Union shall be convicted before any Justice of any Offence committed in any Workhouse while maintained therein, or of deserting or running away from any Workhouse, and carrying away Clothes or other Property therefrom, and be liable to be committed to any Gaol or House of Correction, the Justice before whom such Person shall be convicted may commit such Person to the Gaol or House of Correction of the County or Place containing the Parish in which such Person, if chargeable to the Common Fund by reason of being exempt from Removal under the Statute herein-before mentioned, shall have been residing, when admitted into the Workhouse, or to that of the County or Place comprising the the major Part of such Union, in the Case of any other Person herein rendered chargeable on the said Common Fund, notwithstanding such Workhouse may not be situated in such County or Place, or that such Justice may not be a Justice of such County or Place; and the Charges of the Conveyance of such Person to such Gaol or House of Correction, and all other Charges consequent upon such Committal, shall be borne by such County or Place in like Manner as the Charges of Persons committed in the ordinary Mode to the Gaol thereof shall be borne. the Common Gaol, &c., the Expenses of which shall be charged upon the County, &c.

X. And be it enacted, That upon Application for Relief by Admission to the Workhouse of any such Union as aforesaid or otherwise by any poor Person professing to be a destitute Wanderer or Wayfarer, the Master, Porter, or other Officer of such Workhouse, or the Relieving Officer of such Union or Overseer of any Parish to whom such Application for Relief shall be made, may search such Person, or cause him to be searched, and may take from such Person any Money which shall be found upon him, and shall deliver the same to the Guardians, to be by them applied in aid of the Common Fund of the Union; and every Person who shall apply for Relief at any Workhouse, or to any Relieving Officer or Overseer, having at the Time of such Application in his Possession and under his immediate Control any Money or other Property, of which, on Inquiry made by the Guardians or their Officers, or by Overseers, he shall not make correct and complete Disclosure, shall be taken to be an idle and disorderly Person within the Meaning of the Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth for the Punishment of idle and disorderly Persons and Rogues and Vagabonds in England, and shall be punishable and dealt with in all respects and with the like Proceedings as idle and disorderly Persons under the said Act. Poor Persons may be searched on Admission to Workhouse. Persons in possession of Means applying for Relief, punishable as idle and disorderly Persons.

XI. And be it enacted, That in any Court and before any Justice or Justices, and for all Purposes, a Certificate of the Chargeability of any Person named therein in the Form prescribed in the Schedule marked C. to the Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty for the Amendment of the Laws for Relief of the Poor in England, and purporting to have been executed in the Manner prescribed by that Act, shall be received within the Space of Twenty-one Days from the Date thereof as sufficient Evidence of the Chargeability of the Person named therein unless the contrary be otherwise shown. Certificate of Chargeability in Form prescribed in Schedule to 7&8Vict.c.101. deemed sufficient Evidence.

XII. And be it enacted, That the several Words used in this Act shall be construed in the Manner prescribed by the said first herein-recited Act, and the Statutes explaining and extending it. Interpretation of Act.

XIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. CXI.

An Act to amend an Act of the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, for amending the Laws relating to the Removal of the Poor. [4th September 1848.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Removal of the Poor, after reciting that it was expedient that the Laws relating to the Removal of the Poor should be amended, it was enacted, that from and after the passing of that Act no Person should be removed nor should any Warrant be granted for the Removal of any Person from any Parish in which such Person should have resided for Five Years next before the Application for the Warrant: Provided always, that the Time during which such Person should be a Prisoner in a Prison, or should be serving Her Majesty as a Soldier, Marine, or Sailor, or reside as an In-Pensioner in Greenwich or Chelsea Hospitals, or should be confined in a Lunatic Asylum, or House duly licensed or Hospital registered for the Reception of Lunatics, or as a Patient in a Hospital, or during which any such Person should receive Relief from any Parish, or should be wholly or in part maintained by any Rate or Subscription raised in a Parish in which such Person does not reside, not being a bonâ fide charitable Gift, should for all Purposes be excluded in the Computation of Time therein-before mentioned, and that the Removal of a Pauper Lunatic to a Lunatic Asylum under the Provisions of any Act relating to the Maintenance and Care of Pauper Lunatics should not be deemed a Removal within the Meaning of that Act: Provided always, that whenever any Person should have a Wife or Children having no other Settlement than his or her own, such Wife and Children should be removable whenever he or she is removable, and should not be removable when he or she is not removable: And whereas by Reason of the Generality of the Expressions used in the last Proviso Doubts are entertained as to the Meaning thereof, and it is desirable to remove such Doubts:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said last Proviso be repealed, and that instead thereof the following be enacted: Provided always, that whenever any Person should have a Wife or Children having no other Settlement than his or her own, such Wife and Children should be removable from any Parish or Place from which he or she would be removable, notwithstanding any Provisions of the said recited Act, and should not be removable from any Parish or Place from which he or she would not be removable by reason of any Provision in the said recited Act. 9&10Vict.c.66. Repealing Proviso in 9&10Vict.c.66. in relation to Removal of Wives and Children, and substituting another in lieu thereof.

II. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall affect any Appeal of which Notice shall have been given before the passing of this Act. Not to affect Appeals of which Notice has been given.

CAP. CXII.

An Act to consolidate, and continue in force for Two Years and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Metropolitan Commissions of Sewers. [4th September 1848.]

23 H. 8. c. 5.

'WHEREAS by virtue of the Act concerning Sewers passed in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, and the several Acts continuing, amending, and explaining the same, there have been from Time to Time issued several Commissions of Sewers for several Districts near the City of London, commonly known as the Districts of the Tower Hamlets, of Saint Katherine's, of Poplar and Blackwall, of Holborn and Finsbury, of Westminster and Part of Middlesex, of Surrey and Kent, and of Greenwich respectively; and the Jurisdiction and Powers of certain of the said Commissions of Sewers have been extended by several Acts of Parliament; and the Commissions of Sewers for the said several Districts, except for the said District of Saint Katherine's, now in force, respectively bear Date at Westminster the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven; and the Commission for the said District of Saint Katherine's bears Date at Westminster the Fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven: And whereas an Act was passed in the City of London. 11 G. 3. c. 29.

Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for consolidating, extending, and rendering more effectual the Powers granted by several Acts of Parliament for making, enlarging, amending, and cleansing the Vaults, Drains, and Sewers within the City of London and Liberties thereof, and for paving, cleansing, and lighting the Streets, Lanes, Squares, Yards, Courts, Alleys, Passages, and Places, and preventing and removing Obstructions and Annoyances within the same;

33 G. 3. c. 75. 4 G. 4. c. cxiv.

and an Act was passed in the Thirty-third Year of the same Reign, to explain, amend, and render more effectual the said last-mentioned Act; and an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, for altering and amending the said Two last-mentioned Acts; and by virtue of the said Acts the sole Power of ordering, designing, making, enlarging, widening, deepening, raising altering, removing, repairing, cleansing, and scouring of all Common Sewers, Drains, and Vaults, and of paving, cleansing, and lighting the several Streets, Lanes, Squares, Yards, Courts, Alleys, Passages, and Places within the said City of London and Liberties thereof, is vested in the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City; and the Persons who by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the said City, in Common Council assembled, are from Time to Time nominated, and, under the Common Seal of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, appointed for that Purpose, together with the Recorder and Common Serjeant of the said City for the Time being, are Commissioners for carrying the said Acts into execution, and are herein-after referred to as the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the

5 G. 4. c. 100.

Fourth, intituled An Act for more effectually paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and regulating the Regent's Park, together with the new Street from the Regent's Park to Pall Mall, and the new Streets and Improvements in the Neighbourhood of Parliament Street and Privy Gardens, and for maintaining a convenient Sewage for the same, the Commissioners for executing that Act are appointed Commissioners of Sewers for maintaining and keeping in repair the Principal or Common Sewer extending from the Regent's Park aforesaid to Charing Cross, and from thence to the River Thames, and other Drains, Watercourses, and Communications under the Authorities and Provisions therein contained, and the Powers of such Commissioners have been extended by other Acts of Parliament: And whereas an Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 22. 4 & 5 Vict. c. 45.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to Sewers, and the said Act was amended by an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty; but the said Acts contain Savings which exclude the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, and the Commissioners for executing the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, and certain of the Commissions herein-before mentioned, wholly or in part from the Operation of such Acts: And whereas it is expedient that the Districts comprised within the Limits of the several Commissions of Sewers herein-before mentioned, and the Parts subject to the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners of Sewers appointed under the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, with such other Places herein-after mentioned as it may be convenient for Drainage Purposes to annex thereto, should be subject to the Jurisdiction of One Commission of Sewers, and that the Powers vested in the said several Commissions of Sewers, and the Commissioners lastly herein-before mentioned, should be amended, and should be exercised by such One Commission, subject to the Provisions of this Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Constitution, &c. of Commission.

Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to cause to be issued from Time to Time under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland One Commission of Sewers for the City and Liberties of Westminster and the Borough of Southwark, and all Parts within the Limits mentioned in the said several Commissions bearing Date the Thirtieth Day of November and the Fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and the Parts subject to the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, and such other Places or Parts in the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, and Kent, or any of them, being not more than Twelve Miles distant in a straight Line from Saint Paul's Cathedral in the City of London, but not being within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, as shall from Time to Time be named in such Commission, or comprised within the Limits therein, or in any Map which may be annexed to such Commission, mission, and taken as Part thereof, described or set forth; and no Place or Part comprised within such Limits shall be exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners by reason of the same being extra-parochial, or being beyond the Ebb or Flow of the Tide, or by reason of any other Exemption or supposed Exemption from the general Law of Sewers previously to the passing of this Act. Constitution, &c. of Commission.

Power to Her Majesty to cause to be issued One Commission of Sewers for the Metropolitan Districts.

II. And be it enacted, That every Commission to be issued under this Act shall continue in force for the Term of Two Years next ensuing the Date thereof, notwithstanding any Demise of the Crown, unless determined by reason of any new Commission or by Writ of Supersedeas; and all Bye Laws, Decrees, and Acts made or done by any Court of Sewers during the Continuance and by virtue of any such Commission shall, notwithstanding the Expiration or Determination of the Commission under which such Bye Laws, Decrees, and Acts shall have been made or done, continue to have the same Force and Effect as if such Commission had not expired or determined. Duration of Commission. Bye Laws, &c. to continue in force after Expiration of Commission.

III. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners who shall be from Time to Time named in such Commission, together with such other Persons as shall be from Time to Time Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act under the Provisions herein contained, shall be styled "The Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers." Style of Commissioners.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being shall by virtue of his Office be a Commissioner; and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, shall, with all convenient Speed after the issuing of every Commission under this Act, appoint Four Persons, being Members of the Court of Aldermen or of the Common Council, to be Commissioners; and so often as any Person so appointed shall die, resign, or, under the Provisions herein-after contained, cease to be a Commissioner, it shall be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the said City, in Common Council assembled, in like Manner to appoint a Person, being a Member of the Court of Aldermen or of the Common Council, to be a Commissioner in the Place of the Commissioner so dying, resigning, or ceasing to be a Commissioner; and every Appointment of such Persons and Person as aforesaid shall be certified under the Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City to the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers; and the said Lord Mayor, and the Persons for the Time being appointed as aforesaid, shall, at the Courts, and in respect of the Matters at and on which they are authorized to sit and vote under this Act, have the same Powers and be subject to the same Provisions as if they had been named in the Commission. Lord Mayor and Four Persons, being Members of the Common Council, to be appointed Commissioners under this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Commissioners for the Time being may continue to act notwithstanding any Vacancy in or Nonappointment of the Persons hereby authorized to be appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, and notwithstanding any Vacancy or Vacancies by any Means in the Commission. Commissioners may act during Vacancies.

VI. And be it enacted, That in case any Commissioner named in any Commission under this Act, or appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, shall be declared bankrupt, or shall apply to take the Benefit of or shall become subject to any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or shall compound with his Creditors, or if any Commissioner shall accept or hold any Office under the Commissioners, or in any Manner be concerned or interested in any Contract or Work made with or executed for the Commissioners, or, being appointed by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, shall cease to be a Member of the Court of Aldermen or of the Common Council, then and in every such Case such Person shall, except in the Case next herein-after provided, cease to be a Commissioner; provided that no Person, being a Shareholder of any Joint Stock Company established by Act of Parliament, or by Charter, shall be disabled from continuing or acting as a Commissioner by reason of any Contract between such Company and the Commissioners, or of any Work executed by such Company, but no such Commissioner shall vote upon any Question in which such Company is interested; and any Person who shall act as a Commissioner after ceasing to be a Commissioner as aforesaid, or any Commissioner, being a Shareholder in any such Joint Stock Company, who shall vote upon any Question in which such Company is interested, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt: Provided always, that all Acts and Proceedings of any Person ceasing to be a Commissioner or disabled as aforesaid shall, if done previously to the Recovery of such Penalty, be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. Disqualifications of Commissioners.

VII. And be it enacted, That upon the issuing of the First Commission under this Act the said several Commissions bearing Date respectively the Thirtieth Day of November and the Fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven shall determine; and all Lands, Buildings, Works, and Hereditaments, Utensils, Materials, Books, Plans, Maps, Papers, Effects, Monies, Securities, and other Property, which shall then be vested in or held in trust for the Commissioners of Sewers under such several Commissions, or which would have been vested in or held in trust for such Commissioners in case such several Commissions had not determined, for all such Estate and Interest as and in the same respectively as shall then be or would have been in or in trust for such last-mentioned Commissioners or any of them, and all Sewers vested in or under the Management of such last-mentioned Commissioners and the Commissioners acting in execution of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth respectively, with all Rights of Way and Passage now used and enjoyed by such respective Commissioners over and to such respective Sewers, shall be vested in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers; and all Persons who shall then owe any Money to the Commissioners of Sewers under the said Commissions bearing Date respectively the Thirtieth Day of November and the Fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, or any of them, or to any Person on behalf of such Commissioners, shall pay the same to the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, or as they shall direct; and all Monies which shall be then due Transfer of Property, Rights, Liabilities, &c. of former Commissions to Commissions under this Act. Property of Sewers, &c. vested in Commissioners. Transfer of Debts and Liabilities to Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers.

Transfer of Property, Rights, Liabilities, &c. of former Commissions to Commissions under this Act.

due and owing by or recoverable from the Commissioners under the said last-mentioned Commissions or any of them shall be paid by or recoverable from the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers; and all Contracts, Agreements, Mortgages, Bonds, Covenants, and Securities made or entered into before the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, to, with, or in favour of, or by or for the Commissioners under the said Commissions, which will be determined by the issuing of such Commission, or under the previous Commissions of Sewers for the same Limits or any of them, or any Person on behalf of such Commissioners respectively, shall take effect, and may be proceeded on and enforced, as near as Circumstances will admit, in favour of, by, against, and with reference to the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, in such Manner as the same would have taken effect and might have been proceeded on and enforced in favour of, by, against, and with reference to the Commissioners under the Commissions so determined, or any of them, if this Act had not been passed, and such determined Commissions had continued in full Force; and all Sewers which the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers shall from Time to Time make within the Limits of their Commission, and all other Sewers made and to be made within such Limits, except Sewers made or to be made by any Person or Persons for his or their own Profit, or for the Profit of Proprietors or Shareholders, and the Materials and Works belonging to such respective Sewers, shall be vested in such Commissioners.

Actions, &c. not to abate, but to continue for or against Metropolitan Commissioners.

VIII. And be it enacted, That no Action, Suit, Prosecution, or other Proceeding whatsoever commenced or carried on either by or against the Commissioners under the said Commissions bearing Date respectively the Thirtieth Day of November and Fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, or any of them, previously to the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, shall abate or be discontinued or prejudicially affected by the Determination of such first-mentioned Commissions, but shall continue and take effect both in favour of and against the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, in the same Manner in all respects as the same would have continued and taken effect in relation to the Commissioners under the Commissions so determined, or any of them, if this Act had not been passed, and such determined Commissions had continued in full Force; and all Decrees and Orders made, and all Fines, Amerciaments, and Penalties imposed and incurred respectively previously to the issuing of such First Commission, shall and may be enforced, levied, recovered, and proceeded for, and all Presentments and administrative Proceedings commenced previously to the issuing of such first Commission shall and may be continued, proceeded with, and completed, in such or the like Manner as if this Act had not been passed, the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers being, in reference to the Matters aforesaid, in all respects substituted in the Place of the Commissioners under the respective Commissions so determined.

Rates made under former Commission to be recoverable under this Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That all Rates which shall have been made or re-enacted by the Commissioners under the said Commissions bearing Date respectively the Thirtieth Day of November and the Fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, or any of them, previously to the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, or so much thereof as shall not have been levied and paid, shall be paid to and levied by the Commissioners under this Act; and such Commissioners shall have the same Rights and Remedies in all respects in relation thereto as would have been had and might have been exercised by the Commissioners by whom such Rates shall have been made in case their respective Commissions had not been determined; and all such Rates respectively shall, so far as Circumstances will admit, be applied to the same Purposes as the same would have been applicable to in case such first-mentioned Commissions had not determined.

Officers under former Commissions to continue until removed.

X. And be it enacted, That every Clerk, Surveyor, Collector, and other Officer appointed by virtue of or acting under the Authority of the Commissions which will be determined by the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, or any of them, and not acting contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall hold and enjoy his Office and Employment, together with the Salary or Emolument thereunto annexed, until he shall be removed therefrom; and every such Clerk, Surveyor, Collector, and Officer shall have the like Power and Authority, for the Purposes of this Act, and for carrying the same into execution, and shall be subject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties, and to the like Power of Removal, and to the Provisions of this Act, and the Bye Laws of the Commissioners, in all respects as if he had been appointed by virtue of this Act.

Courts, Proceedings thereat, &c.

Six or more Commissioners may act.

XI. And be it enacted, That such of the Commissioners as shall be present at any Court of Sewers, or the Majority of them, the whole Number present not being less than Six, may exercise and perform all the Powers, Authorities, and Duties by this Act or otherwise vested in the Commissioners.

Lord Mayor and Persons appointed by Common Council may vote on Questions affecting the City of London; such Questions to be discussed only at Special Courts, and Notice to be given thereof.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Mayor of the City of London, and the said Persons for the Time being appointed as aforesaid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, to sit and vote at all Courts of Sewers upon all Questions relative to the Exercise of the Powers hereby given to the Commissioners of directing any Sewer to be deepened or enlarged within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and any Sewer to be made within such City and Liberties, and any other Work to be done in relation to Sewers within such City and Liberties, and settling, ascertaining, and assessing the Amount of Expenses, or the Portion or Residue of Expenses, to be borne or paid by the City of London under this Act; and no such Question as aforesaid shall be discussed or decided except at a Special Court, of which and of the Object of which Notice shall be given in manner herein-after provided; and the said Lord Mayor, and the said Persons for the Time being appointed as aforesaid, shall not sit or vote at any Court of Sewers, or exercise the other Powers of Commissioners under this Act, except as aforesaid.

Appointment of Chairman of Courts.

XIII. And be it enacted, That a Chairman shall be appointed at each Court of Sewers; and if any Difference shall arise upon the Choice of a Chairman at any Court, such Chairman shall be chosen by the Majority of Commissioners present thereat; and in case there be an equal Number of Votes upon such Choice, then, except in the Case herein-after mentioned, the Person proposed whose Name shall stand first in the Commission shall be the Chairman; but in case the Lord Mayor of the City of London shall be present and authorized to sit and vote at such Court under the Provisions of this Act, and shall be One of the Persons proposed, then the said Lord Mayor shall be Chairman. Courts, Proceedings thereat, &c.

the

XIV. And be it enacted, That at all Courts of Sewers the Questions there considered shall be decided by the Votes of the Majority present; and if there be an equal Division of Votes upon any Question, the Chairman at such Court shall, in addition to his own Vote as a Commissioner, have a second or casting Vote. Questions to be decided by Majority of Votes.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall hold their First Court at such Time and Place as shall be directed in the Commission in this Behalf, and if a Time or Place respectively shall not be appointed therein, then at the Court House of the Commissioners under the said Commission for Westminster and Part of Middlesex, on the First Wednesday after the issuing of the Commission under this Act, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon. Provision for Commissioners holding their First Court.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may hold Monthly Courts for the Purposes of this Act, and may from Time to Time fix the Day and Hour for holding such Courts; and upon any such Day and Hour being fixed the Commissioners for the Time being are required to attend such Courts without any Notice. Monthly Courts may be held.

XVII. And be it enacted, That no new Laws shall be adopted nor any extraordinary Business discussed at the Monthly Courts, unless due Notice thereof shall have been given at a prior Court, and the Subject of such Business notified to each Commissioner by means of written or printed Notices delivered or sent in the Manner herein provided. Notice to be given of extraordinary Business at Monthly Courts.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to hold Special Courts; and every such Special Court shall be convened by the Clerk, upon a Requisition in Writing to the Clerk by any Three or more of the Commissioners, in which shall be specified the Time, Place, and Objects of such Court; but, except in Cases of Emergency, no such Court shall be held unless Notice thereof shall be given to each Commissioner in manner herein provided. Power to hold Special Courts.

XIX. And be it enacted, That any Court of Sewers to be holden under the Authority of this Act may adjourn from Time to Time to such Day and Hour, and to the same or any other Place, as such Court may think fit; and if there shall not be Six Commissioners present within One Hour after the Time appointed for holding any Court of Sewers, then it shall be lawful for the Commissioners present, or the major Part of them, or any One Commissioner if only One be present, or for the Clerk if no Commissioner be present, to adjourn such Court in manner aforesaid; and Notice of every adjourned Court, and of the Objects or Business thereof (where Notice of such Objects or Business would be required in the Case of an original Court), shall be given in manner herein provided. As to the Adjournment of Courts.

XX. And be it enacted, That Two Days at the least before the holding of each Court of which or of the Objects or Business of which Notice is hereby required to be given a Notice specifying the Time and Place of holding such Court, and the Objects or Business thereof (where Notice of such Objects or Business is hereby required to be given), shall be delivered to each Commissioner personally, or left at his Place of Abode, or transmitted through the Post Office to him; and where Notice is hereby required to be given to the said Lord Mayor, and the Persons appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, the like Notice shall be delivered to the Chamberlain of the City of London personally, or left at his Office. Notices for holding of Courts to be given.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners present at any Court to appoint a Committee for any Purposes which in the Discretion of the Commissioners would be better regulated and managed by means of such Committee, and to fix the Quorum of such Committee, and at any Court to continue, alter, or discontinue such Committee: Provided always, that the Acts of every such Committee shall be from Time to Time submitted to a Court of Sewers for their Approval. Power for Commissioners to appoint Committee.

XXII. And be it enacted, That every Committee so appointed may meet from Time to Time, and may adjourn from Place to Place, as they may think proper, for carrying into effect the Purposes of their Appointment; but no Business shall be transacted at any Meeting of the Committee unless the Quorum of Members (if any) fixed by the Commissioners, or if no Quorum be fixed Three Members of the Committee, be present; and at all Meetings of the Committee One of the Members present shall be appointed Chairman; and all Questions at any Meetings of the Committee shall be determined by the Votes of the Members present; and in case of an equal Division of Votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting Vote. Powers of Committee.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners present at any Court to appoint One or Two Commissioners to investigate any Accounts, or to direct or superintend any Work or Operation which may be conveniently directed or superintended by One or Two Commissioners: Provided always, that the Acts of the Commissioner or Commissioners so appointed shall be from Time to Time submitted to a Court of Sewers for their Approval. Commissioners to investigate Accounts, &c.; their Acts to be submitted to Court of Sewers.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Commissioners shall keep the Record of their Proceedings at their Courts and Minutes of the Proceedings of Committees in proper Books; and the said Record and Minutes shall be deposited in such Place as by the Laws or Regulations of the Commissioners shall from Time to Time be directed, and in default of such Directions at the principal Office of the Commissioners. Clerk to record Proceedings, which shall be deposited.

Seal, Offices, and Officers.

Common Seal to be provided.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall cause a Seal to be made for their Commission, and shall cause to be sealed or stamped therewith any Decrees, Orders, or Records of Proceedings; and all Decrees, Orders, and Records of Proceedings, or Copies thereof, purporting to be sealed or stamped with such Seal, shall be received as Evidence of the same, without further Proof thereof.

Commissioners to provide Offices.

A Book to be kept for Entry of Complaints.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall provide and keep a principal Office, and also such Branch Offices for their Surveyor and Officers, in convenient Places within the Limits of the Commission, as they may think fit, and shall cause due Notice of all Offices which shall from Time to Time be provided by them to be given Twice at the least in Three daily Morning Newspapers circulating in London and Westminster; and the Commissioners shall at such Offices as they may think convenient, and during all Days of Business, keep open a Book in which shall be entered all reasonable Complaints made orally or by Letter by any Inhabitant or the Owner or Occupier of any Land within the Limits of the Commission, of any Matter cognizable by the Commissioners; and the proper Officer of the Commissioners shall forthwith inquire into the Truth of all such Complaints, and report thereon to the Commissioners; and such Report shall be entered in the said Book; and such Book shall be open at all reasonable Times to any Inhabitant or Owner or Occupier of Land within the Limits of the Commission.

Power to Commissioners to appoint Officers and Servants, and assign Salaries, &c.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall and may from Time to Time appoint, employ, and continue in Office respectively such Clerks, Treasurers, Surveyors, Collectors of Rates, Workmen, and other Officers and Servants as may be necessary or proper for the Execution of the Powers vested in the Commissioners, and assign and allow Salaries, Wages, or Remuneration to such Officers or Servants, and from Time to Time remove and dismiss such Officers and Servants respectively; and if any Officer or Person appointed, employed, or continued in Office by the Commissioners shall be afflicted with some permanent Infirmity disabling him from the Execution of his Office or Duty, and shall be desirous of resigning the same, or if, for any Length of Service or other meritorious Cause, the Commissioners shall at any Time hereafter deem it just that any Officer or other Person who shall have been employed under the said Commissions which will be determined by the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, or any of them, or under any former Commissions for the same Limits, and who shall not be continued in Office under such First Commission, or any Officer or other Person so appointed, employed, or continued in Office by the Commissioners, should be paid any retiring Pension or Allowance, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time, and as often as it shall occur, to order the Payment of such Pension or Allowance, and on such Terms, and out of such Funds under the Disposal of the Commission, as to the Commissioners shall seem meet.

Clerk and Treasurer not to be the same Person.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That no Person holding the Office of Treasurer, nor his Partner, nor any Person in the Service or Employ of them or either of them, shall hold, be eligible to, or shall in any Manner assist or officiate in the Office of Clerk; and neither the Person holding the Office of Clerk, nor his Partner, nor any Person in the Service or Employ of them or either of them, shall hold, be eligible to, or shall in any Manner assist or officiate in the Office of Treasurer; and every Person offending in any of the Cases specified in this Provision shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt.

Penalty on Officers, &c. being interested in Contracts or exacting Fees.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That no Officer or Servant of the Commissioners shall be in anywise concerned or interested in any Contract or Work made with or executed for the Commissioners; and if any such Officer or Servant be so concerned or interested, or shall, under colour of his Office or Employment, exact, take, or accept any Fee or Reward whatsoever, other than his proper Salary, Wages, and Allowances, and the Fees or Sums authorized to be charged by this Act or any Bye Law of the Commissioners, he shall be incapable of afterwards holding or continuing in any Office or Employment under the Commissioners, and shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt; provided that no Person, being a Shareholder of any Joint Stock Company established by Act of Parliament, or by Charter, shall be prevented from being employed as an Officer or Servant by reason of any Contract between such Company and the Commissioners, or of any Work executed by such Company.

Officers, &c. intrusted with Money to give Security for duly accounting for the same.

XXX. And be it enacted, That before any Officer or Servant shall enter upon any Office or Employment under the Commissioners, by reason whereof he will or may be intrusted with the Custody or Control of Money, the Commissioners shall require and take from him such Security for the faithful Execution of such Office or Employment, and for duly accounting for all Monies which may be intrusted to him by reason thereof, as they may think sufficient; and every such Officer or Servant employed in the Collection of Rates under the Authority of this Act shall, within Seven Days after he shall have received any Monies on account of such Rates, unless the Commissioners shall appoint a shorter Time for that Purpose, and then within such Time as the Commissioners shall appoint, pay over the same to the Treasurer, and shall, as and when the Commissioners may direct, deliver a List, signed by him, containing the Names of all Persons who have neglected or refused to pay any Rate, and the Sums respectively due from them; and every Officer and Servant of the Commissioners as well during his Continuance in Office or Employment as upon his Resignation, Dismissal, or ceasing to hold his Office or Employment, shall respectively, when and in such Manner as shall be required by the Commissioners, make out and deliver a true and perfect Account in Writing, signed by him, of all Monies received by him for the Purposes of this Act, and stating how, and to whom, and for what Purpose such Monies have been disposed of, and shall, together with such Account, deliver the Vouchers or Receipts for all Payments made by him, and pay over to the Treasurer all Monies owing by him upon the Balance of Accounts; and if any such Officer or Servant fail to render such Account, or to produce and deliver up such of the said Vouchers and Receipts as may be in his Possession or Power, or to pay over any such Monies as aforesaid, or if for the Space of Five Days after being thereunto required he fail to deliver up to the Commissioners all Books, Papers, Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, and Things in his Possession or Power belonging to the Commissioners, then and in every such Case a Justice shall, on Complaint being made to him in that Behalf, summon the Party charged to appear and answer the Complaint before Two Justices at a Time and Place to be specified in the Summons; and upon the Appearance of the Party charged, or upon Proof that the Summons was personally served upon him, or left at his last known Place of Abode, and if it appear to the last-mentioned Justices that he has failed to render any such Account, or to produce and deliver up any such Vouchers or Receipts, or any such Books, Papers, Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, or Things as aforesaid, and that he still fails or refuses so to do, it shall be lawful for them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to commit the Offender to Gaol, there to remain, without Bail, until he shall have rendered such Account, and produced and delivered up all such Vouchers, Receipts, Books, Papers, Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, and Things in respect of which the Charge was made; and if it appear that the Party charged has failed to pay over any such Monies as aforesaid, and that he still fails or refuses so to do, it shall be lawful for the last-mentioned Justices, by a like Warrant, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of his Goods and Chattels, and in default of any sufficient Distress to commit him to Gaol, there to remain without Bail for a Period of Three Months, unless such Monies be sooner paid: Provided always, that if the Complainant, by Deposition on Oath, show to the Satisfaction of any Justice that there is probable Cause for believing that the Party charged intends to abscond, it shall be lawful for such Justice, without previous Summons, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause him to be forthwith apprehended; and in such Case the said Party shall, within Twenty-four Hours after Apprehension, be brought before the same or some other Justice, who may order that he be discharged from Custody, if such Justice think that there is no sufficient Ground for Detention, or that he be further detained until he be brought before Two Justices at a Time and Place to be named in the Order, unless Bail to the Satisfaction of the Justice be given for the Appearance of the Party before such Two Justices: Provided also, that no such Proceeding shall be construed to relieve or discharge any Surety of the Offender from any Liability whatsoever.

count, &c., Justices may commit Offender to Prison.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Officer or Servant of the Commissioners who shall resign or be dismissed or removed from his Office shall be in possession of any Land, Buildings, or Works belonging to or vested in the Commissioners, and shall refuse or neglect to deliver up the Possession thereof within Two Days after he is required to deliver up the same, by Notice in Writing given to him, or left at his last or most usual Place of Abode, or if the Wife, Widow, Family, or Representatives of any such Officer or Servant who shall die, shall, after like Notice given to her, them, or any or either of them, refuse or neglect to deliver up Possession of the same within the like Time after she, they, any or either of them, shall be required so to do, then and in any of the said Cases it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by Warrant under the Seal of the Commission, and under the Hands of Six Commissioners, to order a Constable or other Peace Officer, with such Assistance as shall be deemed necessary, in the Daytime, to enter into and upon and take possession of such Land, Buildings, or Works, and to remove the Persons who shall be found in or upon such Land, Buildings, or Works, together with their Goods, out of such Premises, and to put the Commissioners or their Officers or Servants in possession thereof.

If Officers in possession of Property of Commissioners refuse to deliver it up, they may be removed from the same.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall proceed with or cause to be made or completed a Survey of the Area within the Limits of their Commission, and of any adjoining Parts which the Commissioners may think necessary to include in such Survey for the Purposes of this Act, and a Map or Maps thereof, on such Scale or respective Scales, and with such Indications of Levels, and Particulars of Sewers and underground Works, and of the Surface, as the Commissioners shall think necessary or expedient for the Purposes of this Act or for the general Advantage of the Rate-payers; and the Commissioners may cause such Map or Maps, or any Part thereof, to be from Time to Time copied, engraved, and published as they may think proper; and the Commissioners shall from Time to Time cause such Map or Maps to be revised, and such Additions made thereto as may show the new Sewers and Drains, and the new Roads, Houses, or other Alterations, and the Date of Revision shall be expressed thereon; and every such Map shall be kept in the chief Office of the Commissioners, and the same or a Copy thereof shall be open at all seasonable Times to the Inspection of the Owners or Occupiers of any Lands within the Limits of the Commission.

Mapping, &c. of Area, Division thereof into Sewerage Districts, and Jurisdiction of Commissioners.

Commissioners to cause Survey of Area within Limits to be made, and Map of same to be prepared.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That, without Prejudice to any Contract or Arrangement under any former Commission which may become obligatory on the Commissioners under this Act, the Commissioners may agree either with the principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance that such Survey or any Part thereof shall be made by surveying Officers appointed by them, or may contract for that Purpose with any competent Persons, for such Remuneration as shall be agreed upon between such Parties respectively and the Commissioners.

Commissioners may agree with Officers of Ordnance for making Survey.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall from Time to Time divide or form so much of the Area within the Limits of their Commission as are included in the Divisions, Districts, or Levels formed within the Limits of the said several Commissions which will be determined by the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, and also the Parts under the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners for executing the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, and also such other Parts within the Limits of the Commission under this Act as shall appear to the Commissioners to require the Exercise of all or any of the Powers vested in the Commissioners, if and as Occasion shall require, into separate Sewerage Districts, having regard in such Division or Formation to the Nature of the Ground, to the Main Power to form separate Sewerage Districts.

Main Lines of Sewers by which such separate Districts are or shall be drained, or to the Main Lines of Sewers which it may appear to the Commissioners expedient to form for the Drainage of such Sewerage Districts, and to the equal Benefit, as far as may be, of all Lands and Buildings comprised in such Districts; and the Commissioners shall from Time to Time mark and describe on a Map to be kept at their chief Office the Limits of such Sewerage Districts.

Power to Commissioners to alter Boundaries of separate Sewerage Districts, and, until altered, existing Districts to form separate ones.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to subdivide or unite, or extend, contract, or alter, the Limits or Boundaries of any such separate Sewerage Districts; but, until the Commissioners shall otherwise direct, the Divisions, Districts, or Levels formed within the Limits of the said several Commissions which will be determined by the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, and the Area within the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners for executing the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, shall respectively form separate Sewerage Districts under this Act; and the Provisions of this Act in relation to separate Sewerage Districts shall apply to such respective Divisions, Districts, or Levels, and such Area as last aforesaid, as if the same had been formed into such separate Sewerage Districts by the Commissioners.

Power to Commissioners to postpone Exercise of Jurisdiction in certain Cases.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may, if they think fit, forbear to exercise their Jurisdiction, either wholly or in part, over any Place within the Limits of their Commission chiefly used for agricultural Purposes, or which, in the Judgment of the Commissioners, shall be in such a State as not to require the Exercise of all or any of the Powers vested in the Commissioners, until such Time, under such Circumstances, and in such Manner as they shall think fit.

All Sewers, Drains, &c. to be subject to Survey, &c. of Commissioners.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That all Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, Weirs, Dams, Banks, Defences, Gratings, Pipes, Conduits, Culverts, Sinks, Vaults, Cesspools, Privies, Reservoirs, Engines, Sluices, Penstocks, and other Works and Apparatus for the Collection or Discharge of Rain Water, surplus Land or Spring Water, waste Water or Filth, or Fluid or Semifluid Refuse of all Descriptions, and for the Protection of Lands from Floods or Inundation within the Limits of the Commission, shall be subject to the Survey, Order, and Control of the Commissioners, according to the Provisions and subject to the Regulations and Restrictions of this Act.

Works, &c. to be done by Commissioners, and Regulations for improved Drainage.

Power for Commissioners to repair, &c. all Sewers vested in them, and from Time to Time to construct new ones, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall from Time to Time repair the Sewers which shall be from Time to Time vested in them, or such of them as shall not be discontinued, closed up, or destroyed under the Powers herein contained, and shall cause to be made such Sewers and Works, or such Diversions or Alterations of Sewers and Works, as may be necessary for effectually draining the Area within the Limits of the Commission, and shall cause any Banks or Defences abutting on any River, Stream, Canal, or Watercourse to be raised, strengthened, or altered, where it may be necessary so to do, for effectually draining or protecting from Floods or Inundation such Area; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to carry any such Sewers through, across, or under any Turnpike Road, or any Street or Place laid out as or intended for a Street, or through or under any Cellar or Vault which may be under the Pavement or Carriageway of any Street, and (if upon the Report of the Surveyor it should appear to be necessary) into, through, or under any Lands whatsoever, making Compensation for any Damage done thereby as herein-after provided; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to enlarge, contract, raise, lower, arch over, or otherwise improve or alter all or any of the Sewers, Watercourses, and Works which shall be from Time to Time vested in them or subject to their Order and Control, and to discontinue, close up, or destroy such of them as they may deem to have become unnecessary: Provided always, that the Discontinuance, Closing up, or Destruction of any Sewer as aforesaid shall be so done as not to create a Nuisance; and if by reason thereof any Person shall be deprived of the lawful Use of any Sewer, it shall be the Duty of the Commissioners to provide some other Sewer or a Drain as effectual for his Use as the Sewer of which he is so deprived: Provided also, that where the Commissioners shall improve or alter any Sewer, or provide a new Sewer in substitution for a Sewer discontinued, closed up, or destroyed, they may contract or otherwise alter the private Drains communicating with the Sewer so improved or altered, or with the Sewer so discontinued, closed up, or destroyed, or may close up or destroy such private Drains, and provide new Drains in lieu thereof, as the Circumstances of the Sewerage may appear to them to require, but so that in every Case the altered or substituted Drain shall be as effectual for the Use of the Person entitled thereto as the Drain previously used.

Commissioners of Sewers for the City of London to execute Works required by the Commissioners appointed under this Act.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That where, for the Purpose of more effectually carrying off the Water or Drainage flowing through any Sewer within the Limits of the Commission, it shall appear to the Commissioners expedient that any such Sewer should be carried into or through the City of London or the Liberties thereof, or should be made to communicate with any Sewer within such City or Liberties, or that a new Sewer communicating or to communicate with any Sewer within the Limits of the Commission should be constructed within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, or that any existing Sewer within the said City or Liberties should be diverted, repaired, raised, lowered, deepened, widened, enlarged, contracted, or otherwise altered or improved, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London to carry such Sewer into or through the City of London or the Liberties thereof, or to make such Communication with the Sewers of the last-mentioned Commissioners, or to construct a new Sewer within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, or to divert, repair, raise, lower, deepen, widen, enlarge, contract, or otherwise alter or improve any existing Sewer within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, which shall communicate or be intended to communicate with any Sewer within the Limits of the Commission; and the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London shall, immediately upon the Receipt of such Requisition, proceed to comply therewith, and to do and perform perform the several Works and Things therein set forth, in such Manner as shall therein be expressed, and shall carry on and complete the same with all reasonable Despatch, and to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners under this Act.

How Expenses of Works required to be executed in the City of London are to be paid.

XL. And be it enacted, That the Expense of such Works as shall be so required by the Commissioners to be done within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, in case the same shall not be required for the effective Drainage of the said City and Liberties, but shall be wholly for the Benefit of any Lands or Buildings and for the Purpose only of facilitating the Drainage of any District within the Limits of the Commission, shall be defrayed by the Commissioners, and shall, on Demand thereof, be repaid by them to the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London; but in case any such Works shall be for the mutual Benefit of Lands or Buildings within the Limits of the Commission and of Lands or Buildings within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, then the Expense of such Works shall be divided between the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and the District or Districts which shall be benefited thereby, in such Manner as that the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London shall be liable to such Portion only of such Expense as shall be equal to the Benefit which they shall derive from such Works, and the Residue of such Expense shall be defrayed by the Commissioners under this Act.

As to Settlement of the Proportion to be paid by each Party in case of Difference of Opinion.

XLI. And be it enacted, That the Question as to whether the Expense of the Works which may be required by the Commissioners to be done within the City of London or the Liberties thereof shall be defrayed wholly by the Commissioners, or shall be apportioned between them and the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, and also any Question which may arise as to the Extent to which any Lands or Buildings within the City of London or the Liberties thereof may be benefited by such Works, and consequently as to the Share or Proportion of such Expense to which the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London ought to be liable, shall be decided by the Commissioners under this Act, and such Decision shall be final and conclusive, unless the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London shall object thereto, and then and in such Case every or any such Question shall be settled by the President for the Time being of the Board of Trade.

Expenses of Works executed in the City of London how to be recovered.

XLII. And be it enacted, That in case the Expenses, or, as the Case may be, the Share or Proportion of the Expenses of Works required by the Commissioners to be done within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, to which the Commissioners may be liable, shall not, on Demand thereof, be repaid by them to the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, such Expenses, or such Share or Proportion thereof, as the Case may be, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid, shall and may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Treasurer of the Commissioners, or, at the Option of the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, may, without Prejudice to any other Mode of Recovery, be recovered by the Appointment of a Receiver in the Manner herein directed with reference to the Recovery of Principal or Interest Money by any Mortgagee lending Money to the Commissioners under the Authority of this Act.

If Commissioners of Sewers for the City of London do not execute the Works required, the Commissioners under this Act to execute them.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That in case the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London shall not immediately upon the Receipt of such Requisition from the Commissioners under this Act as hereinbefore is mentioned proceed to comply therewith, and to do and perform the several Works and Things set forth in such Requisition, in the Manner therein mentioned, or, in case such Works shall not be after their Commencement carried on and completed with all reasonable Despatch, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners under this Act to construct, do, and perform such Works and Things, and for that Purpose to enter upon any Land or Ground within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, anything in this Act or in any other Act passed or which may be passed in this present Session of Parliament contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Power to Commissioners to do Works of Improvement in Sewers, &c., the Expense of which to be divided between the Party liable and the District.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That wherever any Party shall be, by Prescription, by reason of Tenure, or otherwise liable by Law to maintain or do any Repairs to Sewers, Banks, Watercourses, or Works which the Commissioners shall judge it necessary to alter or improve, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to make such Alterations or Improvements therein as they think proper, and to divide the Expense of such Alterations or Improvements between the Party liable to such Maintenance or Repairs and the District or Persons who would have been wholly liable to the Expense of such Alterations or Improvements if no Party had been liable as aforesaid, so as to throw on the Party liable to such Maintenance or Repairs such Part of the Expense of Alterations or Improvements as may be equal to what would be incurred for such Maintenance or Repairs, and to throw on the District or Persons aforesaid the Residue of such Expense, and to settle and adjust such Proportions either by some general Regulation or by Order in each particular Case, as they may think proper: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt from Liability to do any Works, or to pay the whole Cost thereof, any Person who, by Prescription, by reason of Tenure, or otherwise by Law, is so liable.

Commissioners to cause Sewers, &c. vested in them to be cleansed and emptied from Time to Time.

XLV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall cause the Sewers which shall be from Time to Time vested in them to be constructed, covered, and kept so as not to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health, and to be properly cleared, cleansed, and emptied; and for the Purpose of clearing, cleansing, and emptying the same they may construct and place, either above or under Ground, such Reservoirs, Sluices, Engines, and other Works as may be necessary, and may cause all or any of such Sewers to communicate with and be emptied into such Places as may be fit and necessary, or may cause the Sewage and Refuse therefrom to be collected for Sale or for any Purpose whatsoever, but so as not to create a Nuisance; subject nevertheless and without Prejudice to the Rights and Privileges, Powers and Authorities, given to and vested in the Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company by an Act of Parliament passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to incorporate Saving of Rights of Company formed under 9 & 10 Vict. c. ccexeviii.

porate a Company by the Name of "The Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company," and by another Act of Parliament passed in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company to alter their Line of Works, and for other Purposes.

10 & 11 Vict. c. xxxviii.

After issuing Commission under this Act, no House to be built or rebuilt without proper Drains.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act it shall not be lawful newly to build any House within the Limits of the Commission, or to rebuild any House within such Limits which may have been pulled down to or below the Floor commonly called the Ground Floor, or to occupy any House so newly built or rebuilt, unless the lowest Floor be made at such a Level as shall admit of the proper Drainage thereof as herein-after mentioned; and if One or more of the Sewers of the Commissioners be within One hundred Feet of the House to be built or rebuilt, or of the Inclosure about the same, properly adapted, in the Judgment of the Commissioners, for the Drainage of such House and its Appurtenances, the Commissioners shall order the Owner or Occupier to drain such House, by continuing such Sewer of the Commissioners, or (if more than One) such One of such Sewers of the Commissioners as they shall direct, up to and along the entire Front, Side, or Back of such House and Inclosure, and by constructing, in such Manner as they may direct, a covered Drain to lead from such House to such Sewer, and where there shall already be a Sewer along any Front, or Side, or the Back of any such House to be built or rebuilt as aforesaid which the Commissioners shall be satisfied is or may be adapted to the Drainage thereof and its Appurtenances, the Commissioners shall order such Owner or Occupier to construct, in such Manner as they may direct, a covered Drain to lead from such House to such Sewer, and also to contribute such Sum as the Commissioners shall deem just towards the Expense of the original Construction of such Sewer, provided it shall have been made within Thirty-five Years before the passing of this Act, such Contribution to be paid to the Person or Body who may have built the same; and if there shall be no such Sewer as aforesaid within the Distance aforesaid, then the Commissioners shall order the Owner or Occupier to construct, in such Manner as they may direct, a covered Drain to lead from such House into a covered Cesspool or other Place not being under any House, nor within such Distance from any House as the Commissioners shall direct; but if the Commissioners shall have ordered the Construction, or shall have under Consideration the Construction of any Sewer which they may think proper for the Drainage of such House, the Commissioners may make such other Order in relation to the Drainage thereof as under the Circumstances they may think fit; and if any House built before or after the passing of this Act within the Limits of the Commission and its Appurtenances shall not be drained to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, the Commissioners shall make the like Order for the Drainage of the same as they are hereby authorized to make in the Case of a House built or rebuilt after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act; and if during Twenty-eight Days after Notice from the Commissioners to the Owner or Occupier in any of the Cases aforesaid to do such Works as aforesaid such Notice shall not be complied with, or the Works shall not be, after their Commencement, carried on and completed with all reasonable Despatch, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to construct such Works; and the Expenses incurred by them in such Construction shall be ascertained by the Decree of the Commissioners, and shall be paid by an Improvement Rate upon the Premises, or shall be paid as Charges for Default, as the Commissioners shall by their Decree direct; and the Commissioners may levy the Amount of such Contribution as aforesaid by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels either of the Owner or of the then present or future Occupier of the Premises.

If Houses built before passing of this Act are not properly drained, Commissioners may order the same to be done.

Notices of building Houses pursuant to 7 & 8 Vict. c. 84. to be sent by Surveyors to Commissioners under this Act; such Surveyors to give Information to Commissioners, of Drains, &c. not conformable to this Act.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That Returns of all Notices of building or rebuilding Houses and Buildings in Places within the Limits of the Commission which shall be given pursuant to an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Construction and the Use of Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood, shall be transmitted by the Surveyors who shall receive the same to the Commissioners at such Periods and in such Form as the Commissioners may direct; and it shall be the Duty of the Surveyors under the last-mentioned Act to give Information to the Commissioners of any Drain or Work which shall not be conformable with the Directions of this Act, and of the Omission or Neglect to make or do any Drain or Work which ought to be made or done according to the Directions of this Act, and, in case the Commissioners shall so direct, to act in relation to such Drain or Work in the same Manner as in the Case of any Work or other Thing done contrary to the Rules or Directions of the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her present Majesty; and all the Provisions with regard to Drains, Sewers, and Cesspools contained in the last-mentioned Act, so far as the same are inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall be repealed from and after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act.

Houses not to be built without proper Water-closets, &c.

All Houses built before or after issuing First Commission under this Act to be provided with Water-closets, &c.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act it shall not be lawful newly to erect any House, or to rebuild any House pulled down to the Extent aforesaid, without a sufficient Water-closet or Privy and an Ashpit furnished with proper Doors and Coverings, and whosoever shall offend against this Enactment shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and if at any Time, upon the Report of their Surveyor, it shall appear to the Commissioners that any House, whether built before or after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act, is without a sufficient Water-closet or Privy and an Ashpit furnished with proper Doors and Coverings, the Commissioners shall give Notice in Writing to the Owner or Occupier of such House, requiring him forthwith, or within such reasonable Time as shall be specified in such Notice, to provide a sufficient Water-closet or Privy and an Ashpit so furnished as aforesaid, or either of them, as the Case may require; and if such Notice be not complied with it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause to be constructed a sufficient Water-closet or Privy and an Ashpit, or either of them, or do such other Works as the Case may require; and the Expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be ascertained by the Decree of the Commissioners, and shall be paid by an Improvement Rate upon the Premises, or shall be paid as Charges for Default, as the Commissioners shall by their Decree direct: Provided always, that where a Water-closet or Privy has been and is used in common by the Inmates of Two or more Houses, or if in the Opinion of the Commissioners a Water-closet or Privy may be so used, they need not require the same to be provided for each House.

Works, &c. to be done by Commissioners, and Regulations for improved Drainage.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall provide that all Drains whatsoever, and the Water-closets, Privies, Cesspools, and Ashpits within the Limits of the Commission, are constructed and kept so as not to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health; and it shall be lawful for the Surveyor, by written Authority of the Commissioners, (who are hereby empowered to grant such Authority, upon the written Application of any Person, stating therein the Name and Place of Abode of the Applicant, and showing that the Drain, Water-closet, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit in respect of which Application is made is a Nuisance or injurious to Health, but not otherwise,) and after Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing, or in case of Emergency without Notice, to the Occupier of the Premises to which such Drain, Water-closet, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit is attached or belongs, to enter such Premises, with or without Assistants, and cause the Ground to be opened, and examine and lay open any Drain, Water-closet, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit; and if the Drain, Water-closet, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit in respect of which such Examination is made be found to be in proper Order and Condition, he shall cause the Ground to be closed, and any Damage done to be made good as soon as can be, and the Expenses of the Works shall be defrayed by the Commissioners; but if upon such Examination such Drain, Water-closet, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit appear to be in bad Order and Condition, or to require Cleansing, Alteration, or Amendment, or to be filled up, the Commissioners shall cause Notice in Writing to be given to the Owner or Occupier of the Premises upon or in respect of which the Examination was made, requiring him forthwith, or within such reasonable Time as shall be specified in such Notice, to do the necessary Works; and if such Notice be not complied with by the Person to whom it is given the Commissioners may, if they shall think fit, execute such Works; and the Expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be ascertained by the Decree of the Commissioners, and shall be paid by an Improvement Rate upon the Premises, or shall be paid as Charges for Default, as the Commissioners shall by their Decree direct.

Drains, Water-closets, &c. to be constructed so as not to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health.

L. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall drain, cleanse, cover, or fill up, or cause to be drained, cleansed, covered, or filled up, all Ponds, Pools, open Ditches, Sewers, Drains, and Places containing or used for the Collection of any Drainage, Filth, Water, Matter, or Thing of an offensive Nature, or likely to be prejudicial to Health; and they shall cause written Notice to be given to the Person causing any such Nuisance, or to the Owner or Occupier of any Premises whereon the same shall exist, requiring him, within a Time to be specified in such Notice, to drain, cleanse, cover, or fill up any such Pond, Pool, Ditch, Sewer, Drain, or Place, or to construct a proper Sewer or Drain for the Discharge of such Drainage, Filth, Water, Matter, or Thing, as the Case may require; and if the Person to whom such Notice is given fail to comply therewith, the Commissioners shall execute the Works mentioned or referred to therein; and the Expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be ascertained by the Decree of the Commissioners, and shall be paid by an Improvement Rate upon the Premises, or shall be paid as Charges for Default, as the Commissioners shall by their Decree direct: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, where they shall think it reasonable, to order that the whole or a Portion of the Expenses incurred in respect of any such last-mentioned Works be defrayed out of the District Sewers Rate to be levied under this Act, and in case of any such Order the whole or such Portion of the Expenses as may be mentioned therein shall be defrayed and levied accordingly: Provided also, that where the Commissioners shall propose to direct by their Decree that the whole or any Portion of such last-mentioned Expenses shall be paid by an Improvement Rate or as Charges for Default, Notice of such proposed Decree shall be given to the Owner or Occupier of the Premises One Month before such Decree shall be made; and where within such One Month after such Notice any such Owner or Occupier shall serve Notice on the Commissioners of his Desire that the Matter be settled by Arbitration, the Question whether all or any or what Portion of such Expenses shall be so paid shall be settled by Arbitration under the Provisions herein-after contained: Provided also, that where any Work by the Commissioners done or required to be done in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act shall interfere with or prejudicially affect any ancient Mill, or any Right connected therewith, or other Right to the Use of Water, full Compensation shall be made to all Persons sustaining Damage thereby in manner herein provided concerning Compensation to Persons sustaining Damage by reason of the Exercise of any of the Powers of this Act; or it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to contract for the Purchase of such Mill, or any such Right connected therewith, or other Right to the Use of Water; and the Provisions of this Act with respect to the Purchases by the Commissioners herein-after authorized shall be applicable to every such Purchase as aforesaid.

Commissioners to cause offensive Ditches, Drains, &c. to be cleansed or covered by Owners or Occupiers, and to give them Notice of the same.

If Persons, after receiving Notice, fail to comply, Commissioners may execute the same, and charge the Expenses, &c.

Where Works done in pursuance of this Act shall interfere with any ancient Mill, &c., Compensation to be made, or Rights therein purchased.

LI. And be it enacted, That when and so often as it shall appear to the Commissioners that any Street, or any common Stairs, or Passage or other Place common to the Inhabitants of several Tenements situate within the Limits of the Commission, shall not be sufficiently cleansed, or that the Refuse therefrom shall not be removed so effectually or completely or so often as the Commissioners shall deem necessary for the Preservation of the public Health, Decency, or Comfort, the Commissioners shall cause such Street, Stairs, Passage, or Place, and also the Walls of any Houses therein, where there shall be

Power to Commissioners to order Streets, &c. to be cleansed for Preservation of Health, and to lay on Water Pipes, &c. within their Limits.

be an Accumulation of Filth or Dirt, to be effectually cleansed, and the Refuse to be removed, as they shall think fit; and for effecting the Purpose of this Provision the Commissioners may lay on Water Pipes or place Plugs and Standcocks in any Streets or public or common Places within the Limits of their Commission: Provided always, that where there shall be any Paving Commissioners or other Persons having under any Local Act of Parliament Authority to cleanse such Street, Stairs, Passage, or Place, and to remove such Refuse, and such Commissioners or Persons shall take Order for the effectual cleansing of such Street, Stairs, Passage, or Place, and the removing the Refuse therefrom, at such Periods and in such Manner as shall be satisfactory to the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, such last-mentioned Commissioners shall, while the same shall be so effectually cleansed and removed respectively, permit the Duty of cleansing and removing the same respectively to be resumed or discharged by such Paving Commissioners or Persons as aforesaid, without Prejudice to the Right of the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers to resume the Exercise of their Powers under this Provision, upon any subsequent Default or Neglect.

Power to Commissioners to fill up Ditches by the Side of Roads, and substitute Pipes.

LII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, where they shall think fit, to cause the Ditches at the Sides of or across public Roads and Byeways and public Footways to be filled up, and to substitute Pipe Drains alongside or across such Roads and Ways, with appropriate Shoots and Means of conveying Water from such Roads and Ways thereinto, and from Time to Time to repair and amend the same; and the Surface of Land gained by filling up such Ditches may, if the Commissioners shall so think fit and direct, be thrown into such Roads and Ways, and be repairable as Part thereof, and be under the Control of the Surveyors of the Highways, or other Person in charge of such Roads, Byeways, or Footways.

Power to Commissioners to provide public Water-closets, &c.

LIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to provide and maintain Water-closets, Privies, and like Conveniences, in Situations where they shall deem such Accommodation to be required, and to defray the Expense thereof, and any Damage occasioned to any Person by the Erection thereof, and the Expense of keeping the same in good Order, out of the District Sewers Rate.

Protection of Drainage Works.

No Buildings to be made in or over Sewers, without Leave.

Cellars, &c. not to interfere with Sewers.

Penalty on constructing Drains without Authority, and on throwing hard Rubbish, &c. into Sewers.

LIV. And be it enacted, That no Building shall be erected in, over, or under any Sewer vested in the Commissioners, without the Consent of the Commissioners first obtained in Writing, and that all Vaults and Cellars adjoining their Sewers shall be substantially made, and so as not to interfere or communicate with any such Sewers; and if any Building, Vault, or Cellar be erected or made contrary to the Provisions herein contained, the Commissioners may demolish or fill up the same, and the Expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the Person erecting such Building or making such Vault or Cellar, and shall be recoverable as Charges for Default; and that any Person, not being authorized for that Purpose by the Commissioners, who shall make any Drain or Opening into any of their Sewers, shall, on Presentment by the Surveyor, forfeit to them a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for each Drain or Opening; and the Commissioners may cause such Drain or Opening to be removed, stopped up, or re-made, as they may think fit; and all the Expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the Person making such Drain or Opening, and shall be recoverable from him as Charges for Default; and that any Person who shall lay or throw in or into any Sewer of the Commissioners any Cinders, Bricks, Stones, or solid Rubbish, shall, on such Presentment, forfeit to the Commissioners a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every such Offence.

Exclusive Control of Gulley Shoots, &c. vested in Commissioners.

No Openings to be made into Sewers without Consent of Commissioners.

LV. And be it enacted, That the exclusive Control of all Gulley Shoots, Grates, and Openings in any Street or Road, not being within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, communicating, directly or indirectly, with the Sewers vested in the Commissioners, by whomsoever the same Shoots, Grates, and Openings may have been made, or may be maintained or managed, shall belong to and the same are from and after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act vested in the Commissioners; and all Powers given by any Public or Local Act or Acts to any Trustees or Commissioners of paving or cleansing, or other Bodies or Persons, to make or place in Streets or Roads under their Jurisdiction Shoots, Grates, Openings, or Communications into or with such Sewers, without the Consent of the Commissioners of Sewers, shall be and are hereby repealed.

Notice to be given to Commissioners of laying and relaying Streets.

LVI. And be it enacted, That before beginning to lay the Pavement or hard Surface of any new Street, or to relay the Pavement or hard Surface of any existing Street, the Officers or Persons authorized or intending so to do shall give to the Commissioners Fourteen Days Notice thereof in Writing, accompanied by a Plan, showing by Reference to some Datum Line established by the Commissioners the proposed Level and Surface Inclination of such Street, and the Nature of Pavement or hard Surface proposed to be made or laid therein; and the Commissioners, within Seven Days after receiving such Notice, may specify by Notice in Writing given to such Officers or Persons, any and what Alterations in the proposed Level, Inclination, or Material they think requisite to be made to ensure the due Drainage and cleansing of such Street, and such Officers or Persons as aforesaid shall make such Alterations accordingly; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to prevent the Admission into their Sewers of the Surface Drainage of Streets or Roads, where such Streets or Roads are badly paved, or where the paving or the Surface Inclinations thereof are such as to accumulate Deposit and discharge the same into the Sewers in such Quantities as to occasion Obstructions therein.

Commissioners may prevent Admission of Surface Drainage into their Sewers.

Commissioners may execute Works of Drainage at Expense of Owners.

LVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by Agreement with and at the Expense of the Owners or Occupiers of any Lands or Premises within the Limits of their Commission, to execute any Drainage Works on such Lands or Premises which such Owners or Occupiers may be desirous to have so executed thereon.

LVIII. And

Commissioners may dispose of Refuse of Sewers, and apply Money to Purposes of Act.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That, subject and without Prejudice to the Rights saved under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to sell and dispose of, as they shall think fit, the Sewage and Refuse from their Sewers, and the Drainage, Refuse, or Rubbish arising from any Work, or collected and removed in the Course of any Work or Operation which the Commissioners shall execute, do, or perform under this Act, and to apply the Money arising from such Sale and Disposition to the general Expenses of the Commission, or such of the Expenses to be incurred by them under this Act as they shall think fit.

Procedure before Execution of Works, &c.

Commissioners may act through their Surveyor.

LIX. And be it enacted, That where under this Act the Commissioners are authorized to do or direct to be done any Work, or to remove or repair, or direct to be removed or repaired, any Nuisance or Default, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to exercise and put in force all the Powers of this Act in relation to the Premises, upon the Information or Presentment of their Surveyor, without any other Presentment in relation thereto.

Notice to be given before commencing Works chargeable to Special Rates.

LX. And be it enacted, That, Fourteen Days at the least before commencing any Works the Expense of which under this Act might be defrayed wholly or in part by a Special Sewers Rate, the Commissioners shall cause to be made Plans and Sections of the intended Works, and shall give public Notice thereof, or special Notice to the Owners or Occupiers of the Lands or Tenements on which such Special Sewers Rate may be made, of such Works, and of the Place where such Plans and Sections may be seen; and in case within such Fourteen Days any Person interested in such Lands or Tenements shall give Notice to the Commissioners of any Objection to such Works, the Commissioners shall appoint a Time and Place to consider the Objections to the intended Works, and the Commissioners, attended by their Surveyor, shall meet at the Time and Place specified in such Notice, to consider any Objections to the intended Works; and all Persons interested therein shall be entitled to be then and there heard by themselves, or their Agents, before the Commissioners; and thereupon the Commissioners may, subject to the other Provisions of this Act, execute, abandon, or make such Alterations in the said intended Works as they may think fit.

Persons objecting to Works to give Notice to Commissioners, who shall appoint a Time to hear the same.

Works of urgent Necessity may be done without Notice.

LXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Commissioners may undertake any Work of any Description without any Notice or other Proceeding herein-before required, where, from Flood, Storm, or other urgent Cause, the Commissioners shall deem it necessary that the Delay occasioned by such Proceedings should be avoided.

Powers of Entry, &c. for Execution of Works.

Power to enter on Lands for Purposes of the Act.

LXII. And be it enacted, That where it shall be necessary for the Purpose of making such general Survey as herein-before mentioned, or making any Survey or Examination of or preparatory to any Work of Sewers, or for the Purpose of viewing the Sewers or Drains within the Limits of the Commission, or making or repairing or cleansing any Sewer or Works, and otherwise for the Purpose of carrying into execution the Powers intrusted to the Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Surveyor, or any other Persons authorized by the Commissioners, at reasonable Times in the Daytime, to enter, examine, and lay open any Lands or Premises: Provided always, that, except in Cases of Emergency, no Entry shall be made or Works commenced under the Powers of this Enactment, unless, Twenty-four Hours at the least previously thereto, Notice of the intended Entry and of the Object thereof be given to the Occupier of the Premises intended to be entered; and that Compensation be made for any Damage occasioned by such Entry and Works as aforesaid to all Persons other than the Owners and Occupiers of any Land or Building in respect of which any private Drain or Sewer, or the State of Drainage, shall be inspected, cleansed, or repaired, and the Owners or Occupiers of any Premises where any Nuisance may exist, and the Person who may have caused such Nuisance.

Power to stop up Streets during Progress of Works, and to alter Position of Pipes.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That from Time to Time, when and as it shall be found necessary for the Execution of Works and Operations under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to dig into, open, or break up the Roadway or Pavement of any Street, and to stop up any Street, and prevent Persons from passing along and using the same, for a reasonable Time, before and during the Construction, Alteration, Repair, or Demolition of any Sewer or Drain, or the laying or placing of any Pipe, Plug, Cock, or Stand-pipe in or under such Street, and to use any Street, or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of depositing Materials, Implements, or Things in or about such Works, or in or about the cleansing of Sewers, Cesspools, or Privies, or executing the Purposes of this Act, the Commissioners doing as little Damage and causing as little Obstruction as may be, and making good all Damage to the Roadway and Pavement occasioned by the Exercise of the Powers aforesaid: Provided always, that all Openings and Excavations which the Commissioners may cause to be made in any Street for the Purposes of this Act shall, during the Progress of their Works therein, be effectually secured and fenced to prevent Accidents, and that the Roadway or Pavement taken up shall be by the Commissioners, at their Expense, reinstated and replaced in as good Condition as the same was before the Street was so opened or excavated, and as expeditiously as Circumstances will admit of; and in default thereof the Surveyor, Officer, or Contractor of the Commissioners employed on such Work shall forfeit to the Trustees or Commissioners having the Care of such Roadway or Pavement any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings nor less than Ten Shillings for every Day that such Opening or Excavation shall not be properly secured, or such Roadway and Pavement not properly reinstated.

Openings in Streets to be secured, and afterwards to be reinstated by Commissioners.

Penalty on Contractor, &c. for Neglect.

Power to Commissioners to require Situation of Gas and Water Pipes to be altered.

LXIV And be it enacted, That if and when for the Purposes of this Act the Commissioners deem it necessary to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the Situation of any Water or Gas Pipes, Mains, Plugs, or other Waterworks or Gasworks laid in or under any Street, they may by Notice in Writing require the Person to whom the Pipes, Mains, Plugs, or Works belong, to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the Situation of the same in such Manner and within such reasonable Time as shall be specified in such Notice; and the Powers of Entry, &c. for Execution of Works.

No Alteration to be required that will injure Pipes.

Expenses attendant upon or connected with any such Alteration, where the same shall be required for the Purpose of repairing or altering any Sewer which was made before such Pipes, Mains, or Plugs were laid, shall be paid by the Person to whom the Pipes, Mains, or Plugs belong, and in all other Cases shall be paid by the said Commissioners out of Rates levied under this Act; and if such Notice be not complied with the said Commissioners may make the Alteration required: Provided always, that no such Alteration shall be required or made which will permanently injure any such Pipes, Mains, Plugs, or Works, or prevent the Water or Gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as usual; provided also, that where under any Local Act of Parliament the Expenses attendant upon or connected with the raising, sinking, or otherwise altering the Situation of any Water or Gas Pipes, Mains, Plugs, or other Water-works, or Gasworks, are or shall be directed to be borne by the Person to whom such Pipes or Works belong, his Liability in that respect shall continue in the same Manner and under the same Conditions in all respects as if this Act had not been passed.

Contracts.

Power to Commissioners to enter into Contracts for carrying Act into execution.

Power to compound for Penalties in respect of Breach of Contracts.

Estimates to be prepared before commencing Works of the Value of 200*l.*

LXV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may enter into all such Contracts as they may think necessary for carrying this Act into execution; and every such Contract for Works or Materials whereof the Value or Amount shall exceed Ten Pounds shall be in Writing or Print, or partly in Writing and partly in Print, sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners; and every Contract so entered into, and duly executed by the other Parties thereto, shall be binding on the Commissioners and their Successors, and upon all other Parties thereto: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to compound with any Contractor or other Person in respect of any Penalty incurred by reason of the Nonperformance of any Contract entered into as aforesaid, whether such Penalty be mentioned in any such Contract or in any Bond or otherwise, for such Sum of Money or other Recompence as to the Commissioners may seem proper: Provided also, that before contracting for the Execution of any Works of the Value or Amount of Two hundred Pounds or upwards the Commissioners shall obtain from their Surveyor an Estimate in Writing, as well of the probable Expense of executing the Work in a substantial Manner as of the annual Expense of repairing the same, also a Report as to the most advantageous Mode of contracting, that is to say, whether by contracting only for the Execution of the Work, or for executing and also maintaining the same in repair during a Term of Years, or otherwise.

Power to purchase Lands, &c. and contract for Supply of Water.

Power to Commissioners to purchase Lands, &c. for the Purposes of this Act; and to contract with any Company for Supply of Water.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to purchase by Agreement, or to take on Lease for such Term as they may think fit, any Land which may be necessary for the Formation or Protection of any Works which the Commissioners are authorized to execute under this Act, also any Offices and other Buildings, Yards, Stations, or Places for Deposit of Refuse Materials and Things, or any Land for the Erection and Formation of such Offices and other Buildings, Yards, Stations, or Places for Deposit; and also to contract for the Purchase, Removal, or Abatement of any Mill-dam, Pound, Weir, Bank, Wall, Lock, or other Obstruction to the Flow of Water, whereby Sewerage or Drainage is interrupted or impeded, and for the Purchase of any Land, or any Right or Easement in or over any Land, which it may be necessary or expedient to purchase, to prevent the Obstruction of Sewerage or Drainage within the Limits of the Commission; and also to purchase by Agreement or take on Lease as aforesaid the whole or any Part of any Streams or Springs of Water, or any Rights therein which it shall appear to the Commissioners necessary to acquire and use for the Purposes of cleansing Sewers and Drains, and the other Purposes of the Commission, or any Land which it shall be deemed advisable by the Commissioners to purchase or take on Lease for the Purpose of drawing or obtaining Water from Springs, or by sinking of Wells, and for making and providing Reservoirs, Tanks, Aqueducts, Watercourses, and other Works, or for any other Purpose connected with the Works for obtaining such Supply of Water as aforesaid; and also to contract with any Company or Person for the Supply to the Commissioners of Water for the Purposes aforesaid, provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the said Commissioners to supply Water to any Parties for domestic, manufacturing, or commercial Purposes; and also to purchase and procure, erect and work, Kilns, Ovens, and Machinery, and to make and manufacture Pipes, Traps, and other Apparatus or Things requisite for any Works which the Commissioners are authorized to execute.

Certain Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated with this Act.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," except the Provisions of that Act "with respect to the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement," "with respect to the Recovery of Forfeitures, Penalties, and Costs," "with respect to Lands acquired by the Promoters of the Undertaking under the Provisions of the 'Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845,' or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, but which shall not be required for the Purposes thereof," and "with respect to the Provision to be made for affording Access to the special Act by all Parties interested," and except the Clauses numbered respectively 134 and 135 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall, so far as respects such Purchases by the Commissioners as aforesaid, be incorporated with this Act; and for the Purposes of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, shall mean the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers.

Power to Commissioners to sell Lands, &c. not wanted.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to sell and dispose of any Lands or other Property vested in them by virtue of this Act, or acquired by them under the Powers herein contained, or any Part thereof, which it may appear to the Commissioners may be properly sold or disposed of; and for completing and carrying any such Sale of Lands into effect the Commissioners may make and execute a Conveyance of the Lands sold and disposed of as aforesaid unto the Purchaser, or as he shall direct; and such Conveyance shall be under the Hands of Six of the Commissioners, and under the Seal of the Commissioners; and the Word "grant" in such Conveyance shall have the same

Operation

Operation as by the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, is given to the same Word in a Conveyance of Lands made by the Promoters of the Undertaking; and a Receipt under the Hands of Six of the Commissioners shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Purchaser of any such Lands for the Purchase Money in such Receipt expressed to be received; and the Money to arise from such Sale shall be applied to such of the Purposes of this Act as the Commissioners shall think fit.

Compensation to Parties damaged by Exercise of Powers.

Compensation for Damages sustained, &c.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That full Compensation shall be made out of such Rates to be levied under this Act as the Commissioners shall by their Decree direct to all Persons sustaining any Damage by reason of the Exercise of any of the Powers of this Act; and in case of Dispute as to Amount the same shall be settled by Arbitration in the Manner provided by this Act; or, if the Compensation claimed do not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, the same may be ascertained by and recovered before Justices in a summary Manner.

Arbitration.

Mode of referring to Arbitration.

LXX. And be it enacted, That in case of Dispute as to the Amount of any Compensation to be made under the Provisions of this Act (except where the Mode of determining the same is specially provided for), and in case of any Matter which by this Act is authorized or directed to be settled by Arbitration, then, unless, both Parties concur in the Appointment of a single Arbitrator, each Party, on the Request of the other, shall appoint an Arbitrator, to whom the Matter shall be referred; and every such Appointment, when made on the Behalf of the Commissioners, shall be under their Seal, and on the Behalf of any other Party under his Hand, or if such Party be a Corporation Aggregate under the Common Seal thereof; and such Appointment shall be delivered to the Arbitrators, and shall be deemed a Submission to Arbitration by the Parties making the same; and after the making of any such Appointment the same shall not be revoked without the Consent of both Parties, nor shall the Death of either Party, nor the Determination of the Commission, operate as a Revocation; and if for the Space of Fourteen Days after any such Matter shall have arisen, and Notice in Writing by one Party who has duly appointed an Arbitrator to the other Party, stating the Matter to be referred, and accompanied by a Copy of such Appointment, the Party to whom Notice is given fail to appoint an Arbitrator, the Arbitrator appointed by the Party giving the Notice shall be deemed to be appointed by and shall act on behalf of both Parties; and the Award of any Arbitrator or Arbitrators appointed in pursuance of this Act shall be binding, final, and conclusive upon all Persons, and to all Intents and Purposes whatever.

Provision in case of Death, &c. of any of the Arbitrators.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That if, before the Determination of any Matter so referred, any Arbitrator die or refuse or become incapable to act, the Party by whom such Arbitrator was appointed may appoint in Writing another Person in his Stead; and if he fail so to do for the Space of Seven Days after Notice in Writing from the other Party in that Behalf, the remaining Arbitrator may proceed ex parte; and every Arbitrator so appointed shall have the same Powers and Authorities as were vested in the Arbitrator in whose Stead the Appointment is made; and in case a single Arbitrator die, or refuse or become incapable to act, before the making of his Award, or fail to make his Award within Twenty-one Days after his Appointment, or within such extended Time, if any, as shall have been duly appointed by him for that Purpose, the Matters referred to him shall be again referred to Arbitration under the Provisions of this Act, as if no former Reference had been made.

Appointment of Umpire.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That in case there be more than One Arbitrator, the Arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the Reference, appoint, by Writing under their Hands, an Umpire; and if the Person appointed die, or refuse or become incapable to act, the Arbitrators shall forthwith appoint another Person in his Stead; and in case the Arbitrators neglect or refuse to appoint an Umpire for Seven Days after being requested so to do by any Party to the Arbitration, the Court of General or Quarter Sessions shall, on the Application of any such Party, appoint an Umpire; and the Award of the Umpire shall be binding, final, and conclusive upon all Persons, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and in case the Arbitrators fail to make their Award within Twenty-one Days after the Day on which the last of them was appointed, or within such extended Time, if any, as shall have been duly appointed by them for that Purpose, the Matters referred shall be determined by the Umpire; and the Provisions of this Act with respect to the Time for making an Award, and with respect to extending the same, in the Case of a single Arbitrator, shall apply to an Umpirage.

Time within which Award must be made.

LXXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Time for making an Award under this Act shall not be extended beyond the Period of Three Months from the Date of the Submission, or from the Day on which the Umpire shall have been appointed (as the Case may be).

Arbitrators may require the Production of Documents, &c.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Arbitrator, Arbitrators, or Umpire appointed by virtue of this Act may require the Production of such Documents in the Possession or Power of either Party as they or he may think necessary for determining the Matters referred, and may examine the Parties or their Witnesses on Oath; and the Costs of and consequent upon the Reference shall be in the Discretion of the Arbitrator or Arbitrators or of the Umpire (in case the Matters referred are determined by an Umpire, under the Power herein-before contained in that Behalf); and any Submission to Arbitration under the Provisions of this Act may be made a Rule of any of the Superior Courts, on the Application of any Party thereto.

Submission to Arbitration may be made Rule of Court.

Declaration to be made by Arbitrator and Umpire.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That before any Arbitrator or Umpire shall enter upon any such Reference as aforesaid he shall make and subscribe the following Declaration before a Justice of the Peace; (that is to say,)

'I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my Skill and Ability, hear and determine the Matters referred to me under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled [here insert the Title of this Act]. A.B.'

And

And such Declaration shall be annexed to the Award, when made; and if any Arbitrator or Umpire shall wilfully act contrary to such Declaration he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Rates.

Power to Commissioners to levy a District Sewers Rate for apportioned Part of general Expenses of the Commission, and for the Expenses special to the District.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, to levy and raise on each separate Sewerage District within the Limits of the Commission a separate Rate, to be called "The District Sewers Rate," in respect of such Portion as in the Judgment of the Commissioners should be borne by such separate Sewerage District of the Expenses of repairing, cleansing, and maintaining in effective Action the Sewers already made and completed, and which from Time to Time shall be made and completed within the Limits of the Commission, and the Payments to and general Expenses of the Commissioners and their Officers and Servants, and the Expense of making and completing the said Map and Survey, and such other Expenses authorized by this Act as shall in the Opinion of the Commissioners be incurred for or on account of or enure to the common Benefit of all the Sewerage Districts, or shall not be defrayed out of any other Rate or Rates hereby authorized to be made, and in respect of any Expenses or Portion of Expenses of making, or of enlarging, contracting, or otherwise improving, or altering, discontinuing, closing, or destroying, any Sewer, or of any other Works of a permanent Nature, where such Expenses or Portion of Expenses, in the Judgment of the Commissioners, shall be incurred for the special Benefit of such separate Sewerage District, or ought to be charged thereon under this Act, and also in respect of any Mortgages or other Debts or Liabilities which would have been paid or answered out of Rates raised in such District in case this Act had not been passed; and such District Sewers Rate shall in each Case be levied on the Persons and in respect of the Property within such District by Law rateable to the Relief of the Poor, or shall be raised by Precepts in manner herein-after provided: Provided always, that the District Sewers Rate shall not exceed in any One Year the Sum of One Shilling in the Pound of the net annual Value of the Property rateable thereto, such Value being ascertained as herein mentioned: Provided also, that where in any separate Sewerage District any Property is by Law or by the Practice of the existing Commissions or Commissioners of Sewers entitled to Exemption, wholly or partially, from, or to any Reduction or Allowance in respect of the Sewers Rate, the Commissioners shall in making the District Sewers Rate observe and allow such Exemption, Reduction, or Allowance.

Maximum of District Rate.

Existing Exemptions to be allowed.

District Rates to be prospective for future Expenses, or retrospective for Expenses already incurred.

As to the Payment of Expenses for permanent Works.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That every District Sewers Rate to be made under this Act shall be made for or in respect of a specified Period, not exceeding One Year; and every such Rate may be made prospectively, in order to raise Money for the Payment of future Expenses, or retrospectively, in order to raise Money for the Payment of Expenses already incurred; provided that as respects all Expenses (other than the Expenses of executing permanent Works, the Expense of making and completing the said Map and Survey, and such other Expenses as herein-after mentioned,) the Commissioners shall cause the same to be defrayed by Rates made prospectively, or by Rates made not more than One Year after such Expenses shall have been incurred; but as respects the Expenses of executing permanent Works, and the Expenses of making and completing the said Map and Survey, and any other Expenses for Purposes of permanent or durable Benefit, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to raise by Rates such Sums as in their Judgment will be sufficient to discharge the Amount of such Expenses, or the Money borrowed in respect thereof, under the Powers herein-after contained, with the Interest and incidental Charges in respect thereof, within such Period, not exceeding Thirty Years, as the Commissioners, having regard to the Nature or Durability of such Works or Benefit, shall in each Case determine.

Commissioners may impose District Rate in gross on Parishes, or assess Occupiers.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners either to impose the District Sewers Rate in gross upon Parishes or Places in whole or in part within the Areas rateable thereto respectively, and wherein any Poor Rate or other equal Pound Rate is collected, or to assess, levy, and collect such Rates upon and from the Occupiers of the Property rateable, as they from Time to Time shall think proper.

Tenant not liable to Sewers Rate to be repaid District Rate by Landlord.

LXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That as between Landlord and Tenant, every Tenant, whether his Tenancy shall have commenced before or after the passing of this Act, and who if this Act had not been passed would have been entitled to deduct against or to be repaid by his Landlord any Sum paid by such Tenant on account of the Sewers Rate, shall in like Manner be entitled to deduct against or to be repaid by his Landlord any Sum which shall be paid by him on account of a District Sewers Rate under this Act.

As to District Rate not imposed in gross.

Where no Poor Rate, Estimate to be made in Manner prescribed by 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 96.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That the District Sewers Rate, where the same shall not be imposed in gross on Parishes or Places, shall be assessed upon the net annual Value of the Property rateable thereto ascertained by the Rate (if any) for the Relief of the Poor made next before the making of the respective Assessments under this Act: Provided always, that if in any District or Part of a District there be no Rate for the Relief of the Poor, the said District Sewers Rate shall be made upon an Estimate of the net annual Value of the several Premises liable thereto in such District or Part of a District, by a fit Person appointed by the Commissioners in that Behalf; and such Estimate shall be made, as near as Circumstances will permit, in the Manner prescribed in an Act passed in the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate Parochial Assessments, or any other Act for the Time being in force for regulating Parochial Assessments.

Power to levy, in certain Cases, a Special Sewers Rate.

LXXXI. And be it enacted, That when in the Judgment of the Commissioners the Expenses of making, or of enlarging or otherwise improving or altering, any Sewer, shall be incurred in whole or in part for the special Benefit or Drainage of any Street or Place, Lands or Tenements, not co-extensive with any separate Sewerage District, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to levy on the Occupiers of the Lands or Tenements in such Street or Place, or of the Lands or Tenements so specially specially benefited, a Rate to be called "A Special Sewers Rate," such Special Sewers Rate to be in each Case of such Amount as in the Judgment of the Commissioners will be sufficient to discharge the Amount of such Expenses, or such Portion thereof as ought in the Judgment of the Commissioners to be charged on such Occupiers, with Interest thereon at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds in the Hundred, within such Period not exceeding Thirty Years as the Commissioners shall in each Case determine; and such Special Sewers Rate shall be made for or in respect of a specified Period, not exceeding One Year, and may be made prospectively, in order to raise Money for the Payment of future Expenses, or retrospectively, in order to raise Money for the Payment of Expenses already incurred, and shall be assessed and levied upon the Occupiers of such Lands or Tenements in proportion to the several Lengths of Frontage abutting on such Sewer as aforesaid, or, where all the Lands or Tenements specially benefited or drained by such Works as aforesaid shall not abut on or adjoin such Sewer, or where in any other Case an Assessment according to Frontage shall appear to the Commissioners inequitable, then in such Proportion as the Commissioners shall determine such Lands or Tenements to be benefited by such Works: Provided always, that the Special Sewers Rate shall not exceed in any One Year the Sum of Sixpence per Foot of Frontage of any Lands or Tenements on which the same shall be charged, except in the Case of a Square or other open wide Space in front, and in such Case the Rate shall not exceed One Shilling per Foot of Frontage as aforesaid.

Power to Commissioners to levy an Improvement Rate in certain Cases.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That whenever the Commissioners shall have incurred any Expenses which are authorized by this Act to be paid by an Improvement Rate, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to levy upon the Occupier of the Premises in respect of which the Expenses have been incurred a Rate to be called "An Improvement Rate," of such Amount in each Case as in the Judgment of the Commissioners will be sufficient to discharge such Expenses, with Interest thereon at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds in the Hundred, within such Period not exceeding Thirty Years as the Commissioners shall in each Case determine, and such Improvement Rate shall be made for or in respect of a specified Period not exceeding One Year: Provided always, that the Amount to be levied by Improvement Rates, or as Charges for Default, in respect of Works of private Benefit to any Property, shall not in any Term of Ten successive Years exceed One Year's Rack Rent of the Property on which the same shall be charged, without the written Consent of the Owner of such Property.

Amount of Improvement Rate and Charges for Default limited.

Commissioners to ascertain Amount of Expenses to be defrayed by the respective Rates.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to settle and ascertain the Amount of the Expenses in respect of which the several Rates hereby authorized should be made, and to apportion as between several Rates any Expenses incurred or to be incurred under this Act, and also to apportion, as between Two or more separate Sewerage Districts, the Amount to be levied on such separate Sewerage Districts respectively in respect of any Expenses or Portion of Expenses which shall be incurred for the general Benefit of such Two or more Districts, and also to apportion, as between several Premises or the Occupiers thereof, any Expenses which are authorized by this Act to be raised by a Special Sewers Rate, or an Improvement Rate, or as Charges for Default respectively; and the Certificate in Writing under the Hand of a Surveyor of the Commissioners, stating the total Expense of any Work in respect of which any Special Sewers Rate or any Improvement Rate shall be made, or any Sum shall be decreed to be paid as Charges for Default, shall be conclusive Evidence of the Amount of such Expense.

Certificate of Surveyor Evidence of Expense of special Works.

Owners of unoccupied Premises to pay Special and Improvement Rates.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That whenever any Premises in respect of which any Special Sewers Rate or Improvement Rate shall be made shall be unoccupied at the Time of the making of such Rate, or shall become unoccupied before the same shall be fully paid, such Rate shall be charged upon or shall become a Charge upon and shall be paid by the Owner of the Premises so long as the same shall continue to be unoccupied: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to recover such Rate from any future Occupier of such Premises: Provided also, that every Occupier shall be entitled to deduct against or to be repaid by his Landlord the whole of any such Rate as shall be recovered as aforesaid from such Occupier, where the Period for which such Rate shall have been made shall have expired before he shall have become the Occupier, and such Portion of such Rate as shall be proportioned to such Part of the Period for which such Rate shall have been made as shall have expired before he became the Occupier where the Period for which such Rate shall have been made shall not have expired before he became the Occupier.

Landlord to be rated for Tenements under the annual Value of 10*l.*, &c.

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That when the net annual Value of any Premises liable to Assessment under this Act shall not exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, or where any Premises liable to such Assessment shall be let to weekly or monthly Tenants, or in separate Apartments, and the Rents shall become payable or shall be collected at any shorter Period than quarterly, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to compound with the Owner of such Premises for the Payment of the District Sewers Rates to be made under this Act, upon such reduced Estimate of the net annual Value, not being less than Two Thirds or more than Four Fifths of the net annual Value at which the Premises are then assessed, as the Commissioners shall deem to be reasonable; and any Owner who shall refuse to enter into such Composition shall be rated to and pay the District Sewers Rates assessed upon such Premises in respect of which the Composition is offered; and if at any Time the Amount of Composition, or any such Rate to which an Owner is assessed as last aforesaid, be due and unpaid, the same may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Owner in default, wheresoever they may be found, or of the Occupier or Occupiers of the Premises, in the same Manner as is herein provided with respect to the Recovery of Rates made under this Act: Provided always, that no such Owner shall be assessed in respect of any increased Rent which may become payable to him by reason of his so compounding for or becoming liable to any Rates as aforesaid: Provided also, that the Occupier or Occupiers of any such Premises as last aforesaid shall be liable to Distress and Sale of his or their Goods and Chattels for the Nonpayment of such Amount of Composition or Rates as may become due in respect of the Premises occupied by him or them during his or their Tenancy, but shall never be liable to pay any greater Sum than the Amount of the Rent actually due from him or them for such Premises; and he or they may deduct any Amount paid by him or them from the Rent due or from Time to Time to become due from him or them, unless there be an Agreement to the contrary; and the Receipt for the Amount paid by him or them shall to that Extent be as against the Owner in default a sufficient Discharge for Rent.

Description of Owner or Occupier in Rates if his Name unknown.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That whenever the Name of any Owner or Occupier liable to be rated under this Act is not known to the Commissioners, it shall be sufficient to assess and designate him in the Rate as "the Owner" or "the Occupier" of the Premises in respect of which the Assessment is made, without further Description.

Power to Commissioners to inspect Poor Rates, and to take Copies, &c. of the same, and may require the Collector to examine and verify the same.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by Order in Writing, to authorize their Clerk, or any Person on their Behalf, from Time to Time to inspect any of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor in any Parish or Place within the Limits of the Commission, and the Books in which are contained the Assessments by which the same are made, and to take Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom respectively; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by Order in Writing, to require the Collector or Person having the Custody of such Rates or Books as aforesaid for such Parish or Place to furnish without Delay a true Copy of such Rate Book, or of such Part of the Rate Book in his Custody as shall include all the Persons and Property within the Bounds marked upon any Plan annexed to or referred to in the Order for such Copy, on Payment or Tender for such Copy at the Rate of Sixpence for every Twenty-four Names (inclusive of all the Particulars in the several Columns of the Rate, so far as such Particulars have reference to such Names respectively), and such Copy shall be examined and signed by such Collector or Person, and shall be verified by his solemn Declaration, if the Commissioners shall require the same, which solemn Declaration any Justice of the Peace is hereby empowered to administer; and any Person having the Custody of such Rates or Books respectively, who shall not at all reasonable Times produce the same respectively to such Clerk or Person so authorized as aforesaid, and permit him to inspect the same, and take Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom, as he shall think fit, or who shall refuse or neglect to make such Copy or such solemn Declaration as aforesaid, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

Proportion of Special Rate and Improvement Rate may be deducted from Rent.

LXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if the Occupier by whom any Special Sewers Rate or Improvement Rate shall be paid shall hold the Premises in respect of which the Rate shall be made at a Rent not less than the Rack Rent, he shall be entitled to deduct Three Fourths of the Amount paid by him on account of such Rate from the Rent payable by him to his Landlord; and if he hold at a Rent less than the Rack Rent he shall be entitled to deduct from the Rent so payable by him a Sum bearing the same Proportion to Three Fourths of the Amount so paid by him on account of Rate as his Rent shall bear to the Rack Rent; and if the Landlord from whose Rent any Deduction shall be made under the Provision last aforesaid be himself liable to the Payment of Rent for the Premises in respect of which the Deduction shall be made, and hold the same for a Term of which less than Twenty Years shall be unexpired, but not otherwise, he may deduct from the Rent so payable by him a Sum bearing the same Proportion to the Sum deducted from the Rent payable to him as the Rent payable by him shall bear to the Rent payable to him; and so in succession with respect to every Landlord (holding for a Term of which less than Twenty Years shall be unexpired) of the same Premises, both receiving and liable to pay Rent in respect thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to entitle any Person to deduct from the Rent payable by him more than the whole Sum deducted from the Rent payable to him.

Owners, &c. may redeem Special and Improvement Rates.

LXXXIX. And be it enacted, That at any Time before any Expenses in respect of which Special Sewers Rates or Improvement Rates may be made under this Act, with the Interest thereon, shall be fully paid, it shall be lawful for the Owner or Occupier of the Property rateable thereto to redeem the same by paying to the Commissioners the Expenses in respect of which such Special Sewers Rates or Inprovement Rates may be imposed, or such Part thereof as shall remain unpaid after applying the Rate or Rates (if any) previously levied towards the Discharge of such Expenses, with Interest.

Notice of District Rate.

XC. And be it enacted, That Notice of the Intention of making every District Sewers Rate, and of the Time at which the same is intended to be made, and of the Place where the proposed Rate is deposited for Inspection, shall be given by the Commissioners, by Advertisement in Three daily Morning Newspapers circulating in London or Westminster in the Week immediately previous to the Day on which the Rate is intended to be made, and at least Seven Days previously thereto; and at the Day appointed for making the Rate the Commissioners shall receive and consider the Objections in Writing of any Parties interested therein before they shall make such Rate; and every District Sewers Rate not imposed in gross shall be fairly transcribed in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and may be in the Form given in the Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will permit; and every such Rate shall be signed by not less than Six of the Commissioners; and Notice of every District Sewers Rate made, and of the Court Days to be held within One Month thereafter on which Appeals may be heard against the same, shall be affixed on a Board provided for that Purpose in the principal Office of the Commissioners, and shall be affixed in the Branch Office (if any) of the Commissioners in the District.

Form of Rate when not imposed in gross.

XCI. And

XCI. And be it enacted, That a Notice of every Special Sewers Rate and Improvement Rate shall be given to the Owner or Occupier of the Land or Tenement affected thereby, in manner herein provided for giving Notices to Owners or Occupiers; and every Special Sewers Rate and Improvement Rate shall be sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners, and signed by their Clerk. Notices to be given of Special and Improvement Rates.

XCII. And be it enacted, That every proposed Rate, and every Rate immediately after the same is made, shall be open to the Inspection of any Officer or Person interested, or rated in or to such Rate, at all reasonable Times; and such Officer or Person may take Copies or Extracts of or from such proposed Rate, or Rate, without Fee or Reward; and any Clerk or Person having the Custody of such proposed Rate, or Rate, who shall not permit any such Inspection, or any such Copies or Extracts to be taken as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds. Proposed Rates, and Rates when made, to be open to Inspection. Penalty on Clerk, &c. refusing Inspection.

XCIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to amend any Rate, by substituting the Name of any Person as Owner or Occupier for the Name of any Person whose Name may have been incorrectly inserted in such Rate, or by inserting therein the Name of any Person who ought to have been rated, or by striking out the Name of any Person who ought not to have been rated, or by raising or reducing the Sum at which any Person has been rated, where such Person shall appear to the Commissioners to have been under-rated or over-rated, as the Case may be, or by making such other Amendments therein as will make such Rate conformable to the Provisions of this Act; and no such Amendment shall be held to avoid the Rate: Provided always, that the Persons whose Rates are altered shall be entitled to Seven Days Notice of such Alteration before their Rates shall be payable, and that all Persons shall have the same Right of Appeal from any such Alteration as they would have had if the Alteration had been originally Part of the Rates, and as respects such Persons the Rates shall be considered to have been made at the Time when they received Notice of such Alteration. Power to Commissioners to amend Rates from Time to Time.

XCIV. And be it enacted, That whenever any District Sewers Rate is imposed in gross on any Parish or Place it shall be lawful for the Overseers of such Parish, or other Officers having the Control of the Collection and Receipt of the Poor Rate, or if there be no Poor Rate then for the Officers or Persons having the Collection or Receipt of any other public Pound Rate charged therewith, within One Month after the making of any such Rate, to appeal against the same to the Commissioners, if they consider their Parish or Place to be thereby over-rated or otherwise aggrieved: Provided always, that Fourteen Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Grounds thereof, shall be given by the Parties intending to appeal to the Commissioners: Provided also, that such Rate shall be levied, notwithstanding such Appeal, until the Decision of the Commissioners shall be had upon such Appeal; but if upon the hearing of such Appeal the Commissioners shall order any Rate or Assessment to be set aside, decreased, or lowered, and it shall appear to the Commissioners that any Parish or Place has previously to the Determination of such Appeal paid any Money in consequence of such Rate or Assessment which ought not to have been paid or charged thereon, then the Commissioners shall order such Proportion of such Sum or Sums of Money as shall have been so paid by any Parish or Place subsequently to the Notice of Appeal given, to be repaid or returned to the Parish or Place which paid the same, or to be carried to the Account of the next District Sewers Rate thereon. As to Appeals against District Rates where imposed in gross.

XCV. And be it enacted, That whenever any District Sewers Rate shall be made under this Act, and shall not be imposed in gross, and in every Case where a Special Sewers Rate or an Improvement Rate shall be made under this Act, it shall be lawful for any Occupier or for any Owner or Person interested in or rated to such Rate, who shall consider himself aggrieved thereby, within One Month after the making of any such Rate to appeal against the same or the Apportionment thereof on him, on the Ground of Nonliability to pay the same, or of Unfairness or Incorrectness in the Apportionment or Assessment thereof, such Appellant giving Fourteen Days Notice of such Appeal and of the Grounds thereof, in Writing under his Hand, to the Commissioners, and if the Ground of such Objection shall be the unequal Assessment or Apportionment of Third Parties, a like Notice being given to such Parties. As to Appeals against Rates when not imposed in gross.

XCVI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall, on their usual Court Days during the Period of Appeal, or at some Adjournment thereof, proceed to investigate the Matter of such Appeal as aforesaid, by the Examination of such Witnesses and Evidence as the Parties shall produce, or by the Examination of such other Witnesses and Evidence as to the Commissioners shall seem right; and on the hearing of such Appeal the Commissioners may amend, alter, or quash the Rate or Assessment, or correct the Apportionment objected to, as they may think proper; and the Decision of the Commissioners shall be final; nevertheless the Commissioners are hereby empowered to try such Question by a Jury, in the same Manner as a Traverse of a Presentment of Rateability is triable according to the Laws and Usages of Sewers; and in case no Complaint shall be made against such Rate or the Apportionment thereof within One Month after the making of such Rate, the same shall be final and conclusive on all Parties and Places whatsoever. Proceedings on Appeals.

XCVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners (if they think fit) to issue Precepts requiring Payment to their Treasurer, within Times in such Precepts respectively to be limited, of the Sums assessed in gross on Parishes or Places within the Limits of the Commission, to the Officers intrusted and empowered by Law to levy Rates in such Parishes or Places respectively, and such Officers shall obey and execute the same Precepts in manner herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) in the Case of a Parish wholly situate within the Limits of the Commission, and comprised within a Poor Law Union of Parishes, such Precept to issue to the Guardians of such Union requiring them to pay the Rate thereon assessed by the Commissioners for each such Parish of their Union out of the Monies held or to be As to Collection of Rates imposed in gross; from Guardians of Unions; received by them on its Behalf, and such Precept shall have Force in every such Union in regard to every such Parish, notwithstanding that the Place of Meeting of the Guardians may not be situate within the Limits of the Commission, and the said Guardians shall raise the Monies required by such Precept to be paid in like Manner as the Monies required by such Guardians for the Relief of the Poor, and the said Guardians shall pay such Monies at the Times limited and in the Manner prescribed by such Precept, and may pay separately to the Treasurer of the Commissioners the whole Sum or Sums (but not less than the whole Sum or Sums) charged on any One or more of such Parishes respectively; and in the Case of a Parish wholly or in part situate within the Limits of the Commission not comprised in a Poor Law Union, such Precept to issue to the Overseers or other Managers of the Poor of such Parish, to pay the Rate thereon assessed by the Commissioners out of the Monies held or to be received by them on its Behalf, and the said Overseers or Managers of the Poor shall raise the Monies required by such Precept in like Manner as the Monies by them required for the Relief of the Poor; and in the Case of a Parish comprised in a Poor Law Union a Part only of which Parish is situated within the Limits of the Commission, and in the Case of every Place not maintaining its own Poor, but in which any public Pound Rate is collected, such Precept to issue to the Vestrymen or other Persons empowered by Law to levy such public Pound Rate thereon, to pay the Rate assessed on such Part of a Parish or such Place out of the Monies held or to be received by them in its Behalf, and such Vestrymen or Persons shall raise the Money required by such Precept in like Manner as any such public Rate.

from Overseers of Parishes not in Union; from other Persons where Part only of a Parish in Union is under the Commission, but is a District for Rating.

Enforcement of Precepts originally issued to Guardians.

XCVIII. And be it enacted, That in case the said Guardians do not pay within the Time limited in such Precept the Sum or Sums of Money therein required to be paid on behalf of any Parish in their Union, the Commissioners may cause to be issued to the Overseers of the Poor, or other Officers or Persons empowered by Law to levy Poor Rates or other public Rates in such Parish, a Warrant to collect and pay to the Treasurer of the Commissioners, within a Time to be limited in such Warrant, the Rate charged by the Commissioners on such Parish, together with an Addition to such Rate in the Proportion of One Shilling to every Ten, and such Addition to the said Rate shall be applied in like Manner as the original Amount of such Rate; and such Overseers or other Officers or Persons may reimburse themselves, as well for such additional Sum as for the original Amount of such Rate, out of the Monies which they are respectively empowered to raise or levy; and if the Overseers or other Persons as aforesaid refuse, make default, or neglect to pay to the Treasurer of the Commissioners within the Time limited as aforesaid the Sum or Sums of Money specified in such Warrant, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace and he is hereby required, on Complaint by the Clerk or Treasurer of the Commissioners, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Defaulters or Defaulter.

For indemnifying Parishes whose Funds are anticipated from Default of other Parishes in the Union.

XCIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in every Case where any Parish comprised in a Union has, on or before the Day on which any Precept should be obeyed, contributed Money sufficient to enable the Guardians of the Union to pay the Sum or Sums required by such Precept to be paid in respect of such Parish, as well as to provide for the immediate Relief of the Poor of such Parish, and to satisfy all other the Obligations of the said Guardians in respect of such Parish in force on that Day, and where, through the Default of any other Parish or Parishes in the same Union in contributing Money to such Guardians, or through the Neglect of such Guardians to demand sufficient Contributions from any other Parish or Parishes in the same Union, the said Guardians have applied the Money of such first-mentioned Parish to the Use of such other Parish or Parishes, and are thereby rendered unable to pay the Money so required by such Precept on behalf of such first-mentioned Parish, and such Parish is by reason thereof compelled to pay the additional Sum of One Shilling in every Ten, as herein-before provided, in every such Case the Guardians of the Union shall reimburse such first-mentioned Parish such additional Sum, and all Costs incurred by reason of the Premises, out of the Monies of such other Parish or Parishes which may next thereafter come into the Hands of such Guardians; and in case more than One Parish be in default as aforesaid the said Guardians shall charge such additional Sum and Costs among such Parishes in proportion to the Amount of the Deficiency of the Contribution of each Parish respectively on the Day on which the said Precept should have been obeyed.

Enforcement of Precepts not originally issued to Guardians.

C. And be it enacted, That in case the Overseers or other Managers of the Poor of any Parish, or the Vestrymen or other Persons empowered to levy Rates in any Part of a Parish or in any Place as aforesaid, to whom any Precept shall have been issued under this Act, refuse, make default, or neglect to pay to the Treasurer of the Commissioners, within the Time limited in such Precept as aforesaid, the Sum or Sums of Money specified therein, and if the Clerk or Treasurer of the Commissioners make Complaint thereof to any Justice of the Peace, such Justice may, by Warrant under his Hand, levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Defaulter or Defaulters.

Power for Commissioners, where Rate is not made in gross, to collect it, to consolidate the Assessment and Collection with the Poor Rate or other Rate, and issue Precepts for the same.

CI. And be it enacted, That in case any District Sewers Rate shall not be imposed in gross, and in the Case of Special Sewers Rates and Improvement Rates, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to collect the same respectively from the Parties rated or liable thereto, and for such Purpose raise and levy the same by Distress and Sale in manner herein provided, and otherwise to enforce the same according to the Law of Sewers; or the Commissioners may, if they think fit, consolidate the Collection thereof with the Poor Rate, or any other equal Pound Rate for public or local Purposes, levied on the Occupiers of the Lands or Tenements rateable, or other Persons who of right ought to pay such Rates under this Act, and for that Purpose may issue Precepts to the Overseers or other Persons having the Collection of such Poor Rate or other Pound Rate, specifying the Property and Persons rateable and chargeable, and the Amount of Rate to be from Time to Time collected from them, and requiring

Payment

Payment thereof to the Treasurer of the Commissioners at a Time therein mentioned; and such Precept shall be enforced and executed by the Persons to whom the same is addressed in the same Manner as the Warrant or Authority to levy the Rate with the Collection of which such Rate under this Act is consolidated may be enforced and executed. Rates.

Precepts and Warrants to specify Exemptions, &c.

CII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where Part only of a Parish or Place shall be subject to a District Sewers Rate, and where in any Parish or Place any Property shall be entitled to any Exemption, Reduction, or Allowance from or in respect of any District Sewers Rate, the Commissioners shall in their Precept or Warrant specify (as the Case may require) the Part so subject, and the Particulars of every such Exemption, Reduction, or Allowance, and the Commissioners may also in any such Precept or Warrant make an Allowance to a Parish or Place for Premises therein in respect of which a Composition for Payment of the District Sewers Rate upon a reduced Estimate of the net annual Value might have been made by the Commissioners with the Owners under the Provision herein-before contained.

As to the Service of Precepts.

CIII. And be it enacted, That the several Precepts and Warrants of the Commissioners herein-before mentioned may be delivered or sent by Post as a registered Letter according to the Regulations of the Postmaster General for the Time being in that Behalf; and every Precept delivered or tendered to the Address of the Person to whom it is addressed shall be deemed to have been served on the Person to whom the same was so delivered or tendered, and if delivered or tendered to the Clerk or other like Officer acting for the Guardians of a Union or other Managers of the Poor shall be deemed to have been served on the whole of the said Guardians or Managers, and if delivered or tendered to any One Overseer or Vestryman shall be deemed to have been served on the whole of the Overseers or Vestrymen of the Place.

Officer levying Rate imposed in gross to allow Exemption, &c. and give Receipts showing Sums levied in respect of the Rate.

CIV. And be it enacted, That the Guardians and other Persons empowered by any Precept or Warrant of the Commissioners to raise Monies in any Parish or Place in respect of any District Rate imposed in gross under this Act shall, where Part only of the Parish or Place shall be subject to such Rate, raise such Monies upon the Part only which shall be so subject, and shall in every Case in raising the same observe and allow the Exemptions, Reductions, or Allowances specified in such Precept or Warrant, and shall also give or cause to be given to every Person by whom any Money shall be paid in respect of such Rate a Receipt or Certificate showing the Amount paid by such Person in respect of such Rate, with Notice that the same may be deducted from the Rent payable in respect of the Premises for which such Money shall be so paid where such Tenant would be authorized to deduct Sewers Rate, and such Tenant shall be entitled to deduct or to be repaid the same in like Manner as if the Amount so paid by him had been paid on account of a District Sewers Rate originally assessed upon him by the Commissioners.

Extra Allowance may be made to Poor Rate Collectors.

CV. And be it enacted, That the said Guardians, Overseers, Managers of the Poor, Vestrymen, and other Persons empowered to levy Rates may give to their Collectors or other Officers employed in the Collection and Levy of Rates such Poundage or other Allowance for their Trouble in the Collection of Rates under this Act as to the Commissioners shall seem reasonable and meet.

Mortgage of Rates.

Power to Commissioners to borrow Money on Mortgage of the Rates.

CVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the Purposes of defraying any Expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the Execution of this Act, to borrow and take up at Interest on the Credit of all or any of the Rates authorized to be made or collected under this Act any Sums of Money necessary for defraying any such Expenses; and for the Purpose of securing the Repayment of any Sums so borrowed, together with such Interest as aforesaid, the Commissioners may mortgage and assign over to the Persons by or on behalf of whom such Sums shall be advanced the respective Rates upon the Credit of which such Sums shall be borrowed; and the respective Mortgagees shall be entitled to a Proportion of the Rates comprised in their respective Mortgages according to the Sums in such Mortgages mentioned to have been advanced; and each Mortgagee shall be entitled to be repaid the Sums so advanced, with Interest, without any Preference over any other Mortgagee or Mortgagees by reason of any Priority of Advance or the Date of his Mortgage.

No Priority amongst Mortgagees.

Commissioners of Public Works under 5 & 6 Vict. c. 9. may make Advances to Commissioners under this Act.

CVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of an Act passed in the Second Session of the Fifth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to authorize the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited Amount for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries and Employment of the Poor, and to amend the Acts authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills for the like Purposes, and in the Execution of any of the Acts recited in that Act, or or of any Act or Acts for amending or continuing the same Acts or any of them, to make Advances to the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers upon the Security of all or any of the Rates to be levied by them under this Act, and without requiring any further or other Security than a Mortgage of such Rates.

Money may be borrowed at lower Rates of Interest to pay off Securities bearing a higher Rate.

CVIII. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners can at any Time borrow at a lower Rate of Interest than that secured by any Mortgage previously made by them, and then outstanding and in force, it shall be lawful for them so to borrow accordingly, in order to pay off and discharge any of the Securities bearing a higher Rate of Interest, and to charge the Rates which they are authorized to mortgage under this Act with Payment of the Sum so borrowed, together with the Interest thereon, in such Manner and subject to such Regulations as are herein contained with respect to other Monies borrowed upon Mortgage.

Power to borrow Money to pay off former Mortgages.

CIX. And be it enacted, That if at the Time appointed in any Mortgage Deed for Payment of the Principal Money secured thereby the Commissioners are unable to pay off the same, it shall be lawful for them to borrow such Sum of Money as may be necessary for the Purpose of paying off the whole or any Part of the said Principal Monies, and to secure the Repayment of the Money so borrowed, and the Interest to be paid thereon, in the same Manner in all respects as in the Case of Monies borrowed for defraying Expenses incurred by the Commissioners in the Execution of this Act.

Form of Mortgage.

CX. And be it enacted, That every Mortgage authorized to be made under this Act shall be by Deed duly stamped, truly stating the Date, Consideration, and the Time of Payment, and shall be sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners, and may be made according to the Form contained in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, or with such Variations or Additions in each Case as the Commissioners and the Party advancing the Money intended to be thereby secured may agree to; and there shall be kept at the Office of the Commissioners a separate Register of the Mortgages upon each Kind of Rate, and within Fourteen Days after the Date of any Mortgage an Entry shall be made in the proper Register, of the Number and Date thereof, and of the Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto, as stated in the Deed; and every such Register shall be open to public Inspection during Office Hours at the said Office, without Fee or Reward; and any Clerk or other Person having the Custody of the same, refusing to allow such Inspection, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Register of Mortgages.

Repayment of Money borrowed at a Time agreed upon.

CXI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may, if they think proper, fix a Time or Times for the Repayment of all or any Principal Monies borrowed under this Act, and the Payment of the Interest thereof respectively, and may provide for the Repayment of such Monies, with Interest, by Instalments, or otherwise as they may think fit; and in case the Commissioners shall fix the Time or Times of Repayment they shall cause such Time or Times to be inserted in the Mortgage Deed; and at the Time or Times so fixed for Payment thereof such Principal Monies and Interest respectively shall, on Demand, be paid to the Party entitled to receive the same accordingly; and if no other Place of Payment be inserted in the Mortgage Deed, the Principal and Interest shall be payable at the principal Office of the Commissioners.

Interest on Mortgages to be paid half-yearly.

As to Repayment of Money borrowed when no Time has been agreed upon.

CXII. And be it enacted, That, unless otherwise provided by any Mortgage, the Interest of the Money borrowed thereupon shall be paid half-yearly; and if no Time be fixed in the Mortgage Deed for the Repayment of the Money so borrowed, the Party entitled to receive such Money may, at the Expiration or at any Time after the Expiration of Twelve Months from the Date of such Deed, demand Payment of the Principal Money thereby secured, with all Arrears of Interest, upon giving Six Months previous Notice for that Purpose; and in the like Case the Commissioners may at any Time pay off the Money borrowed, on giving the like Notice; and every such Notice shall be in Writing or Print, or both, and if given by a Mortgagee shall be given in manner herein provided for Service of Notices on the Commissioners, and if given by the Commissioners shall be given either personally to such Mortgagee or left at his Residence, or if such Mortgagee or his Residence be unknown to the Commissioners, or cannot be found after diligent Inquiry, such Notice shall be given by Advertisement in the London Gazette; and if the Commissioners shall have given Notice of their Intention to pay off any such Mortgage at a Time when the same may lawfully be paid off by them, then at the Expiration of such Notice all further Interest shall cease to be payable thereon, unless, on Demand of Payment made pursuant to such Notice, or at any Time thereafter, the Commissioners fail to pay the Principal and Interest due, at the Expiration of such Notice, on such Mortgage.

Interest to cease on Expiration of Notice to pay off a Mortgage Debt.

Payment of Principal and Interest may be enforcedby the Appointment of a Receiver.

CXIII. And be it enacted, That if at the Expiration of Six Months from the Time when any Principal Money or Interest has become due upon any Mortgage made under this Act, and after Demand in Writing, the same be not paid, the Mortgagee may, without Prejudice to any other Mode of Recovery, apply for the Appointment of a Receiver to Two Justices, who are hereby empowered, after hearing the Parties, to appoint, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, some Person to collect and receive the whole or a competent Part of the Rates liable to the Payment of the Principal or Interest in respect of which the Application is made, until such Principal or Interest, or both, as the Case may be, together with the Costs of the Application and the Costs of Collection, are fully paid; and upon such Appointment being made all such Rates, or such competent Part thereof as aforesaid, shall be paid to the Person appointed, and when so paid shall be so much Money received by or to the Use of the Mortgagee or Mortgagees of such Rates, and shall be rateably apportioned between or among them: Provided always, that no such Application shall be entertained unless the Sum or Sums due and owing to the Applicant amount to One thousand Pounds, or unless a joint Application be made by Two or more Mortgagees to whom there may be due, after such Lapse of Time, and Demand, as last aforesaid, Monies collectively amounting to that Sum.

Accounts of Commissioners to be open to Mortgagees at all seasonable Times.

CXIV. And be it enacted, That the Books of Account of the Commissioners shall be open at all seasonable Times to the Inspection of the Mortgagees or Transferees of Mortgagees under this Act, with Liberty to make Extracts therefrom without Fee or Reward; and any Clerk or other Person having the Custody of such Books, and refusing to allow such Inspection or such Extracts to be made, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Transfer of Mortgages.

CXV. And be it enacted, That any Mortgagee or other Person entitled to any Mortgage under this Act may transfer his Estate and Interest therein to any other Person by Deed duly stamped, truly stating its Date, the Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto, and the Consideration for the Transfer; and such Transfer may be according to the Form contained in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and there shall be kept at the Office of the Commissioners a separate Register of the Transfers of Mortgages charged upon each Kind of Rate; and within Thirty Days after the Date of such Deed of Transfer, if executed within the United Kingdom, or within Thirty Days after its Arrival in the United Register of Transfers.

United Kingdom if executed elsewhere, the same shall be produced to the Clerk, who shall, upon Payment of the Sum of Five Shillings, cause an Entry to be made in such Register of its Date, and of the Names and Description of the Parties thereto, as stated in the Transfer; and upon any Transfer being so registered the Transferee, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to the full Benefit of the original Mortgage, and the Principal and Interest secured thereby; and every such Transferee may in like Manner transfer his Estate and Interest in any such Mortgage; and no Person, except the Person to whom the same shall have been last transferred, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to release or discharge any such Mortgage, or any Money secured thereby.

Mortgage of Rates.

CXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers from Time to Time to settle and ascertain the Expenses incurred by them in respect of any Works within the City of London or the Liberties thereof which shall be rendered necessary by the Neglect or Default of the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London to do or perform the same, and to raise the same by Precept to the Chamberlain of the City of London, as herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to raise by such Precept as aforesaid any further or greater Proportion of such Expenses than ought, under or by virtue of the Provisions of this Act, to be borne or defrayed by the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London.

Expenses of Works within the City of London.

Expenses for Works within the City of London to be paid by the Chamberlain.

CXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to issue a Precept to the Chamberlain of the City of London, requiring Payment to their Treasurer of any Sum which the Commissioners shall be entitled to have repaid to them by the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London; and the said Chamberlain shall, out of any Monies in the Chamber of the said City, pay to the Treasurer of the said Commissioners the Sum required by such Precept, within Three Months after the Service thereof; and all Payments to be so made by the said Chamberlain shall be charged by him against and reimbursed to him out of any Rates which the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London may levy under the said Act of the Eleventh Year of King George the Third, and the said Acts amending the same; and such last-mentioned Commissioners shall from Time to Time make or cause to be made such Rates as shall be necessary for that Purpose.

Metropolitan Commissioners to issue a Precept to Chamberlain of London.

General Provisions as to Application of Monies.

CXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to apply any Monies received by them in respect of any Rates, or otherwise under this Act, in the Discharge of any Monies owing by the Commissioners, or in any Payment authorized by this Act; but such Application shall not affect the Power of the Commissioners to make any Rate or Addition to Rate in respect of any Money borrowed or Expenses which shall have been paid or defrayed out of any Rate or Rates other than the Rate or Rates primarily applicable thereto, nor extend the Liability of any Person in respect of any Rate or Payment to which he would be otherwise subject under this Act.

Commissioners may apply Rates to any Purposes of the Act, &c.

CXIX. And be it enacted, That in order to provide a Fund for the Discharge of any Money which shall have been borrowed under the Powers of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to cause any Money received by them under this Act, and which for the Time being shall not be required for any other Purposes of this Act, to be invested in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills, or Government Stocks, Funds, or Securities, and from Time to Time to cause to be invested in like Manner the Interest and Dividends thereof, so as to accumulate the same at Compound Interest until the same can be applied for the Discharge of such Money borrowed, or for any other Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners may form a sinking Fund for Discharge of Mortgages.

Accounts.

CXX. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall cause Books to be provided and kept, and full and correct Accounts to be entered therein of all Rates and other Monies levied, received, and recovered by the Commissioners, and of the Application thereof, distinguishing the Times and Purposes when and for which Monies were received and paid, and the respective Districts or Places in and for which Monies were collected and expended; and the Commissioners, and the Rate-payers, and every Creditor on the Rates, may at all reasonable Times inspect and take Copies of or Extracts from such Books, without Fee or Reward; and any Clerk or other Person having the Custody of such Books, who shall not, on any reasonable Demand of any such Commissioner, Rate-payer, or Creditor as aforesaid, permit him to inspect such Books, or to take such Copies or Extracts as aforesaid, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence; and the Commissioners shall in the Month of January in every Year cause their Accounts to be balanced up to the Thirty-first Day of December of the preceding Year; and the Commissioners shall cause a full Statement and Account to be drawn out of the Amount of all Contracts entered into and of all Monies received and expended by virtue of this Act during such preceding Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, and also of all Arrears of Rates and other Monies then owing to the Commissioners, and of all Mortgages and other Debts then owing by the Commissioners; and the Commissioners shall give public Notice by Advertisement to be inserted not less than Twice in each of Two daily Morning Newspapers circulating in London and Westminster, that such Statement and Account is prepared and ready for the Inspection of the Rate-payers and Creditors on the Rates, and of the Day fixed for auditing the Accounts; and the Commissioners shall allow such Statement and Account to remain for Inspection at their principal Office; and every such Rate-payer and Creditor may at all reasonable Times before the Day of Audit inspect such Statement and Account, and compare the same with the Books and Documents relating thereto in the Possession of the Commissioners, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Inspection.

Commissioners to cause Books of Accounts to be kept open to Inspection.

Penalty for refusing Inspection.

Accounts to be balanced, and an annual Statement to be prepared, and when deposited at the Office to be open for Inspection.

CXXI. And be it enacted, That One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall, in the Month of January in each Year, by Order under his Hand, appoint One or more fit Person or Persons to examine and audit the Accounts of the Commissioners for the preceding Year; and every such Auditor shall be paid by the Commissioners Two Guineas for every Day he shall be fully employed on such Audit, and Auditors to be appointed by Secretary of State, and remunerated by Commissioners.

Auditors to give Notice to Commissioners, who shall produce their Accounts to him, with all Vouchers for Support of the same.

Accounts to be audited in Presence of Commissioners and Rate-payers who may desire to attend.

and all such Expenses as he shall be put to in the auditing of such Accounts; and the Auditor or Auditors appointed as aforesaid shall, in the Month of February in each Year, on such Day or Days as shall be fixed by him or them for the Audit of the Accounts, attend at the principal Office of the Commissioners, and shall give to the Commissioners at least Fourteen Days previous Notice in Writing of the Time so fixed for such Audit; and the Commissioners shall, by their Clerks, Treasurers, and other Officers, produce and lay before the Auditor or Auditors at every such Audit the Accounts of the Commissioners for the Year preceding, together with the Statement and Account herein-before mentioned, accompanied by proper Vouchers for the Support of the same, and submit to his or their Inspection all Books, Papers, Instruments, and Writings in their Custody or Control relating thereto; and such Auditor or Auditors, in the Presence of such of the Commissioners and of the Rate-payers and Creditors on the Rates as shall desire to attend, shall audit the Accounts herein-before mentioned, and may examine any of the Commissioners or their Officers whom he or they shall deem accountable (and whom he or they is and are hereby empowered to summon to appear before him or them for the Purpose of such Examination) touching the said Accounts, and shall also hear any Complaint which any such Rate-payer or Creditor shall at the Time of such Audit make touching such Accounts; and if such Accounts be found correct, such Auditor or Auditors shall sign the same, in token of his or their Allowance thereof, and such Allowance shall be final and conclusive on all Parties.

Abstract of annual Accounts and Report to be laid before Parliament.

CXXII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall, after such Audit of Accounts as aforesaid, cause an Account in Abstract to be prepared, showing the Receipt and Expenditure under this Act for the preceding Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with the Statement of the Allowance of the Auditor or Auditors, if he or they shall have allowed such Accounts, or of the Parts, if any, which he or they shall have disapproved of such Accounts, and also a summary Statement and Report of all Contracts entered into by the Commissioners in such preceding Year, and of the Monies owing to and Debts owing by the Commissioners on the Thirty-first Day of December of such preceding Year, and of the Works commenced and completed respectively in such preceding Year, and the Works remaining in progress at the Termination of such Year; and such Account in Abstract and Statement and Report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in the Month of March in each Year, if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within One Month after the next Meeting of Parliament; and in the Month of March in each Year a Copy of such Account in Abstract and Statement and Report respectively for each Parish wholly or in part within the Limits of the Commission comprised in a Union of Parishes shall be sent to the Guardians of such Union, and for each Parish wholly or in part within such Limits not comprised in a Union shall be sent to the Managers of the Poor of such Parish.

Bye Laws.

Power to Commissioners to make Bye Laws for Purposes herein named.

CXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may from Time to Time make, alter, and repeal Bye Laws for all or any of the Purposes following; (that is to say,) for regulating the Business and Proceedings at Courts of Sewers and of Committees, the Appointment and Removal of Officers and Servants of the Commissioners, and their Duties, Conduct, and Remuneration; for regulating, in regard to Drainage, the Plans, Level, Surface Inclination, and the Material of the Pavement and Roadway of new Streets and Roads, and the Plans and Levels of Sites for building, and for regulating the Drainage of Roads and Streets into their Sewers; for regulating the Dimensions, Form, and Mode of Construction, and the keeping, cleansing, and repairing, of the Pipes, Drains, and other Means of communicating with Sewers, and the Traps and Apparatus connected therewith; for the emptying, cleansing, closing, and filling up of Cesspools and Privies, and for such other Works of cleansing and of removing and disposing of Refuse as the Commissioners are authorized to perform or require; for regulating the Assessment and Collection of Rates, Charges, and Contributions, and the Consolidation thereof with any existing Rate; the Periods for the Repayment of the Expenses of Works by the Persons or Rates chargeable with the Repayment thereof; the Forms of Rates, and the Mode and Period of and for Appeals from Special Sewers Rates and Improvement Rates, and Charges for Default; for regulating the Form of Contracts with Commissioners, and generally for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act; and the Commissioners may thereby impose such reasonable Penalties as they think fit, not exceeding Five Pounds, for each Breach of such Bye Laws, and in case of a continuing Offence a further Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each Day after Notice of the Offence from the Commissioners: Provided always, that under every such Bye Law it shall be lawful for the Justices before whom any Penalty imposed thereby is sought to be recovered to order the whole or Part only of such Penalty to be paid, or to remit the whole Penalty: Provided also, that no Bye Laws shall be repugnant to the Laws of England or to the Provisions of this Act; and that no Bye Law shall be of any Force or Effect unless and until the same be submitted to and confirmed by a Special Court of Sewers, at which not less than Ten Commissioners shall be present; and no Bye Law shall be confirmed unless public Notice of such Bye Law, and of the Intention to submit the same to the Special Court for Confirmation, shall have been given One Month at least before the same shall be so submitted.

Penalty for Breach of Bye Laws.

Power to Justices to remit Penalties.

No Bye Laws to take effect till confirmed.

Publication of Bye Laws.

CXXIV. And be it enacted, That all Bye Laws made and confirmed as aforesaid by the Commissioners in pursuance of this Act shall be printed, with the Date of the Confirmation thereof, and hung up in the principal Office of the Commissioners, and Copies thereof shall be delivered to any Person applying for the same, on Payment of such Sum, not exceeding Sixpence, as the Commissioners shall direct; and such Bye Laws, when so confirmed and published, shall be binding upon and be observed by all Parties, and shall be sufficient to justify all Parties acting under the same; and the Production of a printed Copy of such Bye Laws, authenticated by the Seal of the Commissioners, shall be Evidence of the Existence, and of the due Making, Confirmation, and Publication of such Bye Laws, in all Prosecutions under the same, without adducing Proof of the Seal of the Commissioners, or of the Fact of such Confirmation or Publication of such Bye Laws. Bye Laws.

of

Suits, &c. by and against Commissioners.

CXXV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may sue and be sued, at Law and in Equity, in the Name of their Clerk for the Time being; and in any Action of Ejectment which shall be brought or prosecuted by the Commissioners for recovering the Possession of any Land, Buildings, or other Property to be vested in the Commissioners under this Act it shall be sufficient to lay the Demise in such Action in the Name of such Clerk; and no Action or Suit to be brought or commenced by or against such Clerk in manner aforesaid shall abate or be discontinued by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of such Clerk, or by the Expiration or other Determination of the Commission of Sewers under which such Clerk may act as aforesaid; provided that no Execution shall issue or be had in any such Action or Suit against such Clerk until Six Months Notice shall have elapsed after final Judgment in such Action or Suit shall have been obtained; and every such Clerk in whose Name or by or against whom any such Action or Suit shall be brought, commenced, or sued shall be fully reimbursed and paid all such Costs, Charges, Damages, and Expenses as by the Event or in consequence of any Action, Suit, or Proceeding he shall pay, sustain, or be put unto or become chargeable with or liable to by reason of his being Plaintiff or Defendant as aforesaid, or of his Name being used as aforesaid, by and out of the Funds under the Control of the Commissioners; and if any Person against whom the Commissioners shall have any Claim or Demand become bankrupt, or take the Benefit of or become subject as an Insolvent to the Operation of any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, the Clerk of the Commissioners in all Proceedings in the Bankruptcy or Insolvency may represent the Commissioners, and act in their Behalf, in all respects as if such Claim or Demand had been the Claim or Demand of such Clerk, and not of the Commissioners.

Suits and Proceedings by and against Commissioners to be carried on in the Name of the Clerk, who shall be reimbursed.

Proof of Debts in Bankruptcy.

Clerk, though a Plaintiff, &c. to be a competent Witness.

CXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Clerk, being the Plaintiff, Prosecutor, or Defendant, or otherwise acting in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding as aforesaid, shall be competent to be a Witness therein, in the same Manner as he might have been if his Name had not been made use of as the Plaintiff, Defendant, or otherwise in any such Action, Suit, or Proceeding.

Notice of Action.

Limitation of Actions.

Venue.

General Issue.

Tender of Amends, &c.

CXXVII. And be it enacted, That no Writ or Process shall be sued out against or served upon the Commissioners or their Clerk, or any Clerk, Surveyor, or other Officer or Person whomsoever acting under the Direction of the Commissioners, for anything done or intended to be done under the Powers of the Commissioners or of this Act, until the Expiration of One Month next after Notice in Writing shall have been delivered as herein provided concerning the Service of Notices upon the Commissioners, or, where the Action shall be against such other Officer or Person, shall have been delivered to him, or left at his Office or Place of Abode, explicitly stating the Cause of Action, and the Name and Place of Abode of the intended Plaintiff, and of his Attorney or Agent in the Cause; and upon the Trial of any such Action the Plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into Evidence of any Cause of Action, except such as is stated in the Notice so delivered, and unless such Notice be proved the Jury shall find for the Defendant; and every such Action shall be brought or commenced within Six Months next after the Accrual of the Cause of Action, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and tried in the County or Place where the Cause of Action occurred, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant shall be at liberty to plead the General Issue, and give this Act and all special Matter in Evidence thereunder; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or any Person to whom any such Notice of Action is given as aforesaid, to tender Amends to the Plaintiff, his Attorney or Agent, at any Time within One Month after Service of such Notice, and in case the same be not accepted to plead such Tender in bar, and (by Leave of the Court) with the General Issue or other Plea or Pleas; and if upon Issue joined upon any Plea pleaded to the whole Action the Jury find generally for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff be nonsuited or discontinue, or if Judgment be given for the Defendant, then the Defendant shall be entitled to full Costs of Suit, and have Judgment accordingly; and in case Amends have not been tendered as aforesaid, or in case the Amends tendered be insufficient, it shall be lawful for the Defendant, by Leave of the Court, at any Time before Trial, to pay into Court, under Plea, such Sum of Money as he may think proper, and (by the like Leave) to plead the General Issue or other Plea or Pleas, any Rule of Court or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Tender of Amends deemed insufficient, Defendant may pay Money into Court.

Persons acting in execution of Act not to be personally liable.

CXXVIII. And be it enacted, That no Matter or Thing done or Contract entered into by the Commissioners, or by any Clerk, Surveyor, or other Officer or Person whomsoever acting under the Direction of the Commissioners, shall, if the Matter or Thing were done or the Contract were entered into bonâ fide for the Purpose of executing this Act, subject them or any of them personally to any Action, Liability, Claim, or Demand whatsoever; and any Expense incurred by any such Commissioners, Clerk, Surveyor, or other Officer or Person acting as last aforesaid, shall be borne and repaid out of the Funds under the Control of the Commissioners.

Miscellaneous.

Commissioners may examine on Oath; and false Evidence punishable as Perjury.

CXXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to administer an Oath to and examine upon Oath or otherwise any Person, for their more certain Information on any Matters depending before them; and every Person who on any Examination by the Commissioners upon Oath as aforesaid shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence shall be liable to the Penalties of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Commissioners may allow Witnesses Money for Expenses and Loss of Time.

CXXX. And be it enacted, That any Court of Sewers may, at its Discretion, order to be paid, out of any Monies to be received by the Commissioners under this Act, to any Witness attending to give Evidence before the said Court, such Sum or Sums of Money for Expenses and Loss of Time as to the said Court shall seem just.

CXXXI. And

Miscellaneous.

Commissioners may decree and assess Costs.

CXXXI. And be it enacted, That in any Order or Decree of any Court of Sewers touching any Matter or Thing within the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners it shall be lawful for any such Court of Sewers to order and decree that the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incidental to the making and putting in force such Order or Decree shall be paid and borne by the Person upon or against whom, or by reason of whose Default, or for whose Benefit, such Order or Decree shall be made, which Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall and may be ascertained and settled by or by the Authority of such Court of Sewers, and shall and may be demanded and received by the Treasurer or other Person appointed by the Commissioners to receive the same; and when any such Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall be ordered and decreed to be paid as aforesaid, and such Order or Decree shall not be previously altered, reversed, or quashed by or at any subsequent Court of Sewers, or by any other Court or Courts, upon Removal of the same by Certiorari or otherwise, the same Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall and may, at any Time after the Court of Sewers immediately following the making of such Order or Decree, such Court being at the Distance of Twenty-one Days at the least from the Service of such Order or Decree, be levied and raised, together with the Costs and Charges of raising and levying the same, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person by whom the same shall or may respectively be ordered or decreed to be paid as aforesaid; but if no sufficient Distress can be found it shall be lawful for the Commissioners (if they shall think fit) to charge the Amount of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, or of such Portion thereof as shall not be raised by such Distress as aforesaid, upon any Lands or Tenements within the Limits of the Commission of or belonging to the Person by whom such Costs, Charges, or Expenses shall have been ordered or decreed to be paid; and in such Case the same shall be levied upon the Occupier of such Lands or Tenements in such and the same Manner as an Improvement Rate; and the Amount so levied on such Occupier shall be deducted against or repaid by the Person by whom such Costs, Charges, and Expenses were ordered or decreed to be paid; and all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may be raised or levied as aforesaid by or for the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of any Officer of Sewers shall be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer or other Person appointed by the Commissioners to receive the same, and shall be subject to the Order and Disposition of the Commissioners, paid, applied, and disposed of, so far as the same will extend, in defraying and reimbursing the Costs, Charges, and Expenses which shall have been incurred as aforesaid.

Sums received as Charges for Default to be paid to the Treasurer.

CXXXII. And be it enacted, That all Sums which the Commissioners are authorized to charge and recover as Charges for Default under this Act shall and may be demanded and received by the Treasurer or other Person appointed by the Commissioners to receive the same, and, if not paid upon Demand, shall and may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person upon whom such Charges for Default shall be imposed, and shall be applied by the Commissioners in satisfaction of the Expenses occasioned by such Default.

Penalty for obstructing Officers in execution of this Act.

CXXXIII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully obstruct any Surveyor, Officer, or Person duly employed by the Commissioners, or any Workman or other Person acting under his Authority, in the Execution of this Act, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for defacing Notice Boards.

CXXXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall destroy, pull down, injure, or deface any Board placed by Authority of the Commissioners in or about any of their Offices or Premises, upon which any Bye Law or Notice of the Commissioners shall be painted or placed, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty upon Occupiers obstructing Execution of Works, or not disclosing Owner's Name.

CXXXV. And be it enacted, That if the Occupier of any Premises shall prevent the Owner thereof from carrying into effect, with respect to such Premises, any of the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Justice, by Order in Writing (which may be according to the Form contained in the Schedule (D.) to this Act, or to the like Effect), to require such Occupier to permit the Execution of the Works required to be executed; and if after the making of such Order the Occupier against whom the same shall be made refuse or neglect to comply therewith, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during the Continuance of such Refusal or Neglect; and if the Occupier of any Premises, when requested by or on behalf of the Commissioners to state the Name and Description of the Owner of the Premises occupied by him, shall refuse or wilfully omit to disclose or wilfully misstate the same, it shall be lawful for any Justice to summon the Party to appear before him or some other Justice at a Time and Place to be appointed in such Summons, and if the Party so summoned neglect or refuse to attend at the Time and Place so appointed, or if he do not show good Cause for such Refusal, or if such wilful Omission or Mis-statement be proved, the Justice before whom the Party is so summoned may impose upon the Offender a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Recovery of Penalties, Forfeitures, &c.

CXXXVI. And be it enacted, That every Offender who shall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act, or by any Bye Law of the Commissioners, for the Recovery whereof Provision is not herein otherwise made, and also any Person liable to make Compensation which is herein authorized to be ascertained and recovered before Justices in a summary Manner, shall be proceeded against, and such Penalty or Forfeiture and Compensation respectively shall be awarded, recovered, and enforced, in the same Manner as the Persons liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures and to make the Amends for Hurt and Damage which respectively are imposed and may be ordered to be paid by and under an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for further improving the Police in and near the Metropolis; and such last-mentioned Penalties, Forfeitures, and Amends may by Law be proceeded against, awarded, recovered, and enforced respectively, and all Provisions, Powers, and Rights which are by Law applicable to and consequent upon Proceedings against Persons liable to the Penalties

2 & 3 Vict. c. 47.

Miscellaneous.

and Forfeitures and to make the Amends for Hurt and Damage which respectively are imposed and may be ordered to be paid by and under the said Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, shall be applicable to the Proceedings against Offenders who shall be liable to Penalties and Forfeitures, and Persons liable to make Compensation under this Act as aforesaid: Provided always, that every Sum which shall be recovered in respect of any such Penalty and Forfeiture as last aforesaid, other than any Penalty or Forfeiture which shall be imposed upon the Commissioners or any of them, or any of their Officers or Servants, shall be paid to the Commissioners, and shall be applicable to the general Expenses of the Commission; and that every Sum recovered in respect of any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed on the Commissioners or any of them, or on any of their Officers or Servants, shall be applicable in the same Manner as if such Penalties and Forfeitures had been imposed by the said Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty; provided that the Magistrate or Justices by whom the Conviction or Order shall be made may award any Part of such last-mentioned Penalty or Forfeiture to any Person aggrieved by the Offence.

No Proceeding for Recovery of Penalties, &c. to be taken other than by a Party aggrieved, without Consent of Attorney General.

CXXXVII. And be it enacted, That no Proceeding for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred under the Provisions of this Act shall be had or taken by any Person other than by a Party grieved, or by or on behalf of the Commissioners, without the Consent in Writing of Her Majesty's Attorney General; and that no such Penalty or Forfeiture incurred shall be recovered unless Proceedings for the Recovery thereof shall have been commenced within Six Months after the Commission or Occurrence of the Offence upon which the Penalty or Forfeiture shall attach; and if the Application of the Penalty or Forfeiture be not otherwise provided for, One Half thereof shall go to the Informer, and the Remainder shall go to the Commissioners, or if the Commissioners be the Informers the whole of the Penalty recovered shall go to the Commissioners; and all Sums which shall go to or be recovered by the Commissioners on account of any Penalty by the Commissioners shall be paid to their Treasurer, and shall be applicable to the general Expenses of the Commission; provided that in every Case where the Commissioners or any of them shall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture the whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall go to the Informer.

Service of Notices, &c. on Commissioners.

CXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That any Summons or Notice, or any Writ or other Process, at Law or in Equity, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever, required to be served upon the Commissioners, or any of them, except where herein otherwise provided, or upon their Clerk, may lawfully be served by delivering the same personally to the Clerk of the Commissioners, or to some Inmate at his usual Place of Abode, or by leaving the same at the principal Office of the Commissioners.

As to Service of Notices on Owners or Occupiers.

CXXXIX. And be it enacted, That all Notices by this Act required to be given to the Owner or Occupier of any Land or Premises may be served personally on such Owner or Occupier, or left with some Inmate of his Place of Abode, or, if there be no Occupier, may be affixed to some conspicuous Part of such Land or Premises, and it shall not be necessary in any such Notice to name the Owner or Occupier of such Land or Premises: Provided always, that where there shall be no Occupier, and the Owner of any such Land or Premises, and his Place of Abode, be known to the Commissioners, they shall cause such Notice to be served on such Owner personally, or left with some Inmate of his Place of Abode, or shall transmit the same to such Owner through the Post Office.

Authentication of Documents.

CXL. And be it enacted, That every Notice, Summons, and Demand given by or on behalf of the Commissioners, by any of their Officers under this Act, may be in Writing or Print, or partly in Writing and partly in Print, and may and shall be sufficiently authenticated if signed by the Clerk of the Commissioners, or by the Officer by whom the same may be given.

Distresses, how to be made.

CXLI. And be it enacted, That where in this Act any Sum of Money whatsoever is authorized to be raised or levied by Distress, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to issue a Warrant under the Seal of the Commissioners, directing any Person to levy such Sum of Money, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of such Warrant, and of executing the same, by Distress of the Goods and Chattels of the Person against whom such Warrant shall be issued; and if within Five Days next after any Distress shall be made such Sum of Money, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of such Warrant, and of making such Distress, and of keeping such Goods and Chattels, shall not be paid, then the Person authorized by the said Warrant shall cause the said Goods and Chattels to be appraised, and to be sold, either on the Premises where the same shall be distrained or elsewhere, or such Part thereof as in his Judgment shall be sufficient to pay such Sum of Money, and the reasonable Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Warrant and Distress, and of the keeping and removing, appraising and selling such Goods and Chattels, and shall return the Overplus (if any) to the Owner of such Goods and Chattels, upon Demand thereof made by him; and such Warrant may be in the Form contained in the Schedule (E.) to this Act, or to the like Effect; and no Distress levied under the Authority of this Act shall be unlawful, nor shall any Person making the same be a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Warrant of Distress or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall be a Trespasser ab initio on account of any Irregularity afterwards committed by him, but all Persons aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction in an Action upon the Case.

Distress not unlawful for Defect or Want of Form.

After issuing of First Commission the Acts mentioned in Schedule (F.) to be repealed;

CXLII. And be it enacted, That from and after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act the several Acts mentioned in the Schedule (F.) to this Act shall be and the same are hereby repealed; provided that such Repeal shall not prejudice or affect any Rates made, or any Act, Matter, or Thing whatsoever done or commenced, or any Rights or Liabilities acquired, created, or arising under or reserved or saved by the said Acts or any of them.

Miscellaneous.

and Powers of Commissioners under Regent Street Act with respect to Sewers, &c. to cease.

CXLIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the issuing of the First Commission under this Act the Powers of the Commissioners under the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, and the Acts extending the Powers of the Commissioners for executing such last-mentioned Act, so far only as respects the making, maintaining, and keeping in repair, and Management, Survey, Control, and Direction of Sewers, Drains, and Watercourses, and the Communications therewith, and making Sewers Rates for such Purposes, and the Exemptions in such Acts contained from the Powers of other Commissioners of Sewers, and from Liability to Sewers Rate, other than the Rates under the same Acts, shall cease: Provided always, that the Commissioners under the same Acts shall continue from Time to Time to make Sewers Rates for the Discharge of any Mortgage and other Debts and Interest which might have been discharged out of the Sewers Rates to be made by such Commissioners in case this Act had not been passed, until the same shall be discharged; and such last-mentioned Rates, while they shall continue payable, shall, with reference to the Limitation of the Powers of rating under this Act, be deemed Part of the District Rate assessed on the Property rateable thereto.

Proviso for making Rates to discharge Mortgages.

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 22. and 4 & 5 Vict. c. 45. not to apply to this Act.

CXLIV. And be it enacted, That the said Acts of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, and of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, shall not apply to any Commission which shall be issued under this Act, or to the Proceedings and Acts by and in relation to such Commission.

General Law of Sewers to be applicable to Commissions under this Act.

CXLV. And be it enacted, That, save as herein-before excepted, the Provisions and Powers of the said Act of the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, and of the several Acts of Parliament continuing, amending, and explaining the same, so far as the same are consistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall continue in force and be applied and may be exercised for the Purposes of this Act, as if every Commission to be issued under this Act had been issued under the said Act of the Twenty-third Year of King Henry the Eighth, except that the Provisions concerning the Oath to be taken by Commissioners, and the Qualifications of Commissioners, and the Penalties for sitting unsworn or without being qualified, and the Powers of Impressment of Workmen and Labourers, the Right of Pre-emption of Timber and Necessaries for Works and Reparations, and the Powers of decreeing and ordaining Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments from the Owners thereof, for Lack of Payment of Lots or Charges thereon, shall not be applicable to or exercised by the Commissioners under this Act; and all Savings and Provisions in Turnpike, Railway, Waterworks, Improvement, and other Acts, saving and providing for the Rights, Powers, and Authorities of the Commissioners of Sewers for any of the Parts which shall be within the Limits of the Commission to be issued under this Act, shall, so far as the same shall not be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, continue and be in force in favour of and with reference to the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers.

Commissioners of Sewers of London may exercise Powers within the City for enforcing House Drainage, &c.

CXLVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London to exercise and put in force within the said City and the Liberties thereof the like Powers and Authorities for enforcing House Drainage, and for providing that Drains, Water-closets, Privies, Cesspools, and Ash-pits are constructed and kept so as not to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health, and for defraying Expenses incurred by such Commissioners in relation to the Matters aforesaid, by Improvement Rates or Charges for Default, as are hereby given to the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers within the Limits of their Commission.

C A P. CXIII.

An Act for the further Amendment of the Acts relating to the Dublin Police.

[4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace, and for the more effectual Prevention of Felonies within the District of Dublin Metropolis, and the said Act was amended by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth: And whereas another Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, whereby a new and more efficient System of Police was established within the Limits of the said District: And whereas by several Acts passed in the First Year, and in the Sessions of Parliament holden respectively in the First and Second, Second and Third, and Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, the Limits of the said District were altered, and divers Enactments made in reference to the said District, and for the more effectual Maintenance and Regulation of the Police therein: And whereas by an Act of the Fifth Year of Her said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for improving the Dublin Police, further Provisions were made relating to the same: And whereas it is expedient to amend certain of the Provisions of the said Acts in manner following: And whereas an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament the Laws relating to Hackney and other Carriages plying in the City of Dublin, its Suburbs and Liberties, and within Seven Miles thereof, which Act has been amended by several subsequent Acts: And whereas by the said recited Acts of the Thirty-seventh and Forty-eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third it is, amongst other things, provided, that the Superintendent Magistrate and Divisional Justices appointed under the said Acts respectively shall retain and employ certain Clerks and other Officers, under the Regulations therein mentioned, and it is expedient to amend the said Provisions:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the Power of Appointment of all such Clerks and Officers as aforesaid, and of all other Clerks in the Police Department of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, or in the Department relating to such Hackney or other Carriages as aforesaid, or to the Receipt of Rents, Fines, Penalties, or Monies in respect of the same, shall be vested in the Chief Secretary or the Under Secretary for the Time being of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and not in the Divisional Justices or any of them.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 24.

37 G. 3. (I.)

Appointment of Clerks and Officers in Dublin Police Offices vested in the Chief or Under Secretary of Lord Lieutenant.

II. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in any Case where the Value of any House or Tenement assessed under the said Act shall not amount to Five Pounds, if the Occupier and his Immediate Lessor, by any Writing under their Hands, shall require, and if the said Justices shall by a Minute agree thereto, such Immediate Lessor shall be rated instead of such Occupier, and such Rebate from the Rate may be made (not exceeding Ten per Centum) as the said Justices shall by such Minute allow, and subject to such further Regulations as in the said Act contained:' Be it enacted, That in any Case where the Immediate Lessor of any House or Tenement may under the said recited Act be rated instead of the Occupier, if at the Time of making any Rate the Name of such Immediate Lessor be not accurately known to the Persons making the Rate it shall be sufficient to describe him therein as "the Immediate Lessor," with or without any Name or further Addition; and such Rate shall be held to be duly made on him or her by such Description, and shall be recoverable from him or her accordingly, notwithstanding any Error or Defect in his or her Name or Description, or the entire Omission of such Name therein.

Immediate Lessor rated under 2 & 3 Vict. c. 78. may be described as the "Immediate Lessor" in certain Cases.

III. 'And

Powers for the Recovery of Police Tax.

III. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the several Collectors authorized or appointed to receive the Police Tax or Rate under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or any of them (after such Demand made as in the said recited Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty's Reign mentioned), in addition to all other Modes and Powers heretofore provided by any former Act or Acts, to collect, levy, sue for, and recover the said Police Tax or Rate, or any Part of the same, from all and every Persons and Person who now are or is or hereafter shall be liable to pay the same, by all the Ways and Means, and with the like Remedies and Powers in case of Nonpayment, as the Grand Jury Cess, or the Money applotted on the several Persons liable to pay the same, may be collected and levied in any County in Ireland; and the Divisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, or any One of them, shall, for the Purposes of raising, levying, or enforcing Payment of such Police Tax or Rate, have and exercise the same Powers, Authorities, and Jurisdiction within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis as any Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County in Ireland has or have or can or shall lawfully have or exercise within his or their respective County with respect to any Grand Jury Cess to be raised within the same.

Divisional Justices to have same Powers within Dublin Metropolis as Justices have in any County in Ireland.

Power to Divisional Justices to reduce the Fines upon Licences in respect of Carriages under Irish Act 37 G. 3., and to increase the same again.

IV. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Parliament of Ireland passed in the Thirty-seventh 'Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending and 'reducing into One Act of Parliament the Laws relating to Hackney and other Carriages plying in the 'City of Dublin, its Suburbs and Liberties, and within Seven Miles thereof, it is, amongst other things, 'enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent Magistrate, in case he shall see Occasion, from 'Time to Time to alter and increase the Fines to be paid or the Rents to be reserved upon the Licences 'by him granted under the said Act now in recital, provided the same be not increased above One 'Fourth Part more than the Fines and Rents therein-before particularly mentioned and expressed, and 'to make such Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the Purpose as to him shall seem meet, and to alter, 'vary, amend, or annul the same, provided every such Alteration, Rule, Order, and Regulation respecting 'the Fines or Rents so made by the Superintendent Magistrate shall be approved of by the Lord Chan-'cellor or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, and the Chief Judges, or any Three of them: And 'whereas no Power is thereby given to reduce the said Fines or Rents, and it is expedient that such 'Power should be given:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Divisional Justices of the said Police District, in case they shall think fit, with the Approval of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, from Time to Time to reduce the Fines to be paid or the Rents to be reserved upon the Licences heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted in respect of any Carriages under the said last-recited Act, or any Act amending the same, or afterwards from Time to Time, with like Approval, to increase the same as they may see fit, provided that any such Fines or Rents shall not be increased so as at any Time to exceed the Amount now payable for the same.

Power to Commissioners of Police to alter Hackney Coach Stands.

V. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Police of Dublin, with the written Approval of the Chief or Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, from Time to Time to appoint or to alter, as Occasion may require, the Stands or Stations for Hackney or other Carriages, and also Stations commonly called Hazzards for the same, within the Borough of Dublin and the District adjoining the same, as defined in the said last-recited Act, or any Act amending the same.

Power to Commissioners of Police to license any Stage Carriage or Omnibus to ply in Dublin or the District adjoining.

VI. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding anything in the said last-recited Act, or any Act or Acts, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Police to license any Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus to ply or carry Passengers between any Part of the Borough of Dublin and any other Part of the said Borough or of the District adjoining the same as defined under the said recited Act of the Thirty-seventh Year of King George the Third, or any Act amending the same, or between any Part of the said District and any other Part of the said District, and to fix such Rates of Fines and Rents to be paid in respect of such Licence of any such Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, as the said Commissioners shall deem fit, and as shall be approved by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; provided that such Rents and Fines shall not exceed the highest Rate of Rent or Fine now or for the Time being payable in respect of any other Hackney Carriage in Dublin, and no other Duty shall be payable for the same; and the Provisions of the said last-recited Act, and of any Act or Acts amending the same, shall extend and apply to such Carriages, and to such Rents and Fines, so far as the same are applicable and not repugnant to this Act.

Power to Commissioners to grant Licences to Drivers of Hackney Carriages, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant a Licence to act as Driver of Hackney, Job, and other Carriages licensed for the Accommodation and Conveyance of Passengers, or as Driver or as Conductor of Metropolitan Stage Carriages or Omnibuses, (as the Case may be,) to any Person who shall produce such a Certificate as shall satisfy the said Commissioners of his good Behaviour and Fitness for such Situation respectively; provided always, that no Person shall be licensed as such Driver as aforesaid who is under Sixteen Years of Age; and in every such Licence shall be specified the Number of such Licence, and the proper Name and Surname, and Place of Abode, and Age, and a Description of the Person to whom such Licence shall be granted; and every such Licence shall bear Date on the Day on which the same shall be granted, and shall continue in force until and upon the Thirty-first Day of December next after the Date thereof, or if granted in the Month of November or December in any Year, then to continue in force until and upon the Thirty-first Day of December in the Year next following that in which the same shall be granted, except in either Case the same shall be sooner revoked, and except the Time (if any) during which any such Licence shall be suspended; suspended; and on every Licence of a Driver or Conductor the said Commissioners shall cause proper Columns to be prepared, in which every Proprietor (if any) employing the Driver or Conductor named in such Licence shall enter his own Name and Address, and the Days on which such Driver or Conductor shall enter and shall quit his Service respectively; and in case any of the Particulars entered or endorsed upon any Licence in pursuance of this Act shall be erased or defaced, every such Licence shall be wholly void and of none Effect; and the said Commissioners shall, at the Time of granting any Licence, deliver to the Driver or Conductor to whom the same shall be granted an Abstract of the Laws in force relating to such Driver or Conductor, and of the Penalties to which he is liable for any Misconduct, and also a Metal Ticket, upon which there shall be marked or engraved his Office or Employment, and a Number corresponding with the Number which shall be inserted in such Licence.

When Licence granted Abstract of the Laws and a Ticket to be given to Driver.

VIII. And be it enacted, That there shall be charged upon and in respect of every such Licence to be granted under the Authority of this Act, except as herein-after provided, a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and upon every Renewal of such Licence a Sum of One Shilling to be paid to the said Commissioners, and to be by them applied, after Payment of the Expense of such Ticket, for the Purposes of the said Police Tax or Rate.

A Fee of 2s. 6d. to be paid for Licences granted under this Act, and 1s. for every Renewal.

IX. And be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine it shall not be lawful for any Person to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or Conductor of any Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, whether such Person shall or shall not be the Proprietor of such Carriage, within the Limits of the said Police District, unless in each Case such Person shall have a Licence so to do, and a numbered Ticket granted to him under the Authority of this Act, and remaining in force; and after the Day last aforesaid every Person who shall act as such Driver or Conductor without such Licence and Ticket, and also every Person to whom a Licence and Ticket shall have been granted, who shall, except in compliance with the Provisions of this Act, transfer or lend such Licence, or permit any other Person to use or wear such Ticket, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and every Proprietor who shall knowingly suffer any Person not duly licensed under the Authority of this Act to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or as Conductor of any Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, of which he shall be the Proprietor, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall subject to any Penalty any Proprietor who shall employ any unlicensed Person to act as such Driver or Conductor as aforesaid for any Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours, or any unlicensed Person who shall be so employed for the said Time, upon Proof being adduced by the Proprietor, to the Satisfaction of the Justice before whom such Proprietor, Driver, or Conductor shall be required to attend to answer for such Offences respectively, that such Employment was occasioned by unavoidable Necessity; and that every Proprietor who shall so employ such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, and every such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, shall be subject to all the Powers, Provisions, and Proceedings of and under this Act for any Act done by such Driver or Conductor during such Employment, in like Manner as if such Driver or Conductor had been duly licensed.

Penalty on Persons acting as Drivers, &c. without having Licence and Ticket; and on Proprietors suffering unlicensed Persons to act as Drivers, &c.

Proviso.

X. And be it enacted, That before any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted, a Requisition for the same, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time appoint for that Purpose, and accompanied with such Certificate as herein-before is required, shall be made and signed by the Person by whom such Licence shall be required, and in every such Requisition all such Particulars as the said Commissioners shall require shall be truly set forth; and every Person applying for or attempting to procure any such Licence, who shall make or cause to be made any false Representation in regard to any of the said Particulars, or who shall endeavour to obtain a Licence by any forged Recommendations, or who shall not truly answer all Questions which shall be demanded of him in relation to such Application for a Licence, and also every Person to whom Reference shall be made who shall in regard to such Application wilfully and knowingly make any Misrepresentation, shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to proceed for recovering of such Penalty before any Divisional Justice at any Time within One Calendar Month after the Commission of the Offence, or during the Currency of the Licence so improperly obtained.

Persons applying for Licences to sign a Requisition, &c. for the same.

Penalty on Persons making false Representation.

XI. And be it enacted, That as often as any Driver or Conductor shall change his Place of Abode he shall give Notice thereof in Writing signed by him to the said Commissioners, specifying in such Notice his new Place of Abode, and shall at the same Time produce his Licence to the said Commissioners, who shall endorse thereon a Memorandum specifying the Particulars of such Change; and every Driver or Conductor who shall change his Place of Abode, and shall neglect for Two Days to give Notice of such Change, and to produce his Licence in order that such Memorandum as aforesaid may be endorsed thereon, shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Person employed by them for that Purpose, to sue for such Penalty at any Time during the Currency of such Licence.

When Drivers or Conductors change their Residence, they shall give Notice to Commissioners.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Particulars of every Licence which shall be granted as aforesaid shall be entered in Books to be kept for that Purpose at the Office of the said Commissioners; and in all Courts, and before any Divisional Justice of the Peace, and upon all Occasions whatsoever, a Copy of any Entry made in any such Book, and certified by the Person having the Charge thereof to be a true Copy, shall be received as Evidence, and be deemed sufficient Proof of all Things therein registered, without requiring the Production of the said Book, or of any Licence or of any Requisition or other Document upon which any such Entry may be founded; and every Person applying at all reasonable Times

Particulars of Licences to be entered in a Book at the Office of Commissioners, which shall be Evidence.

Times shall be furnished with a certified Copy of the Particulars respecting any licensed Person, without Payment of any Fee.

Licensed Drivers, &c. to wear their Tickets conspicuously.

XIII. And be it enacted, That every licensed Driver or Conductor shall at all Times during his Employment, and when he shall be required to attend before any Divisional Justice of the Peace, wear his Ticket conspicuously upon his Breast in such Manner that the whole of the Writing thereon shall be distinctly legible; and every Driver or Conductor who shall act as such, or who shall attend when required before any Justice of the Peace, without wearing such Ticket in manner aforesaid, or who, when thereunto required, shall refuse to produce such Ticket for Inspection, or to permit any Person to note the Writing thereon, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings.

Expired Licence to be delivered up to Commissioners. Penalty for Neglect.

XIV. And be it enacted, That upon the Expiration of any Licence granted under this Act the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall deliver such Licence and the Ticket relating thereto to the said Commissioners; and every such Person who after the Expiration of such Licence shall wilfully neglect for Three Days to deliver the same to the said Commissioners, and also every Person who shall use or wear or detain any Ticket, without having a Licence in force relating to such Ticket, or who shall, for the Purpose of Deception, use or wear or have any Ticket resembling or intended to resemble any Ticket granted under the Authority of this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or for any Person employed by them for that Purpose, to prosecute any Person so neglecting to deliver up his Licence or Ticket, at any Period within Twelve Calendar Months after the Expiration of the Licence; and it shall be lawful for any Constable or Peace Officer, or any Person employed for that Purpose by the Commissioners, to seize and take away any such Ticket, wheresoever the same may be found, in order to deliver the same to the said Commissioners.

When Tickets are defaced or lost, new ones to be delivered, on Payment of 2*s.* for the same.

If Ticket shall be found, to be delivered up o Commissioners. Penalty for Neglect.

XV. And be it enacted, That whenever the Writing on any Ticket shall become obliterated or defaced so that the same shall not be distinctly legible, and also whenever any Ticket shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners to have been lost or mislaid, the Person to whom the Licence relating to any such Ticket shall have been granted shall deliver such Ticket (if he shall have the same in his Possession) and shall produce such Licence to the said Commissioners, and such Person shall then be entitled to have a new Ticket delivered to him, upon Payment of a Sum of Two Shillings, to be applied as aforesaid: Provided always, that if any Ticket which shall have been proved as aforesaid or represented to have been lost or mislaid shall afterwards be found, the same shall forthwith be delivered to the said Commissioners; and every Person into whose Possession any such Ticket as last aforesaid shall be or come who shall refuse or neglect for Three Days to deliver the same to the said Commissioners, and also every Person licensed under the Authority of this Act who shall use or wear the Ticket granted to him after the Writing thereon shall be obliterated, defaced, or obscured so that the same shall not be distinctly legible, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings.

Forgery of Licence or Ticket, or knowingly uttering a forged Licence or Ticket, deemed a Misdemeanor.

XVI. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall forge or counterfeit, or who shall cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Licence or Ticket by this Act directed to be provided for the Driver of a Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or for the Driver or the Conductor of a Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, and also every Person who shall sell or exchange or expose to Sale or utter any such forged or counterfeited Licence or Ticket, and also every Person who shall knowingly, and without lawful Excuse (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused), have or be possessed of such forged or counterfeited Licence or Ticket, knowing such Licence or Ticket to be forged or counterfeited, and also every Person knowingly and wilfully aiding and abetting any Person in committing any such Offence as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted shall be liable to be punished by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, such Imprisonment to be in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, and either with or without hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit; and it shall be lawful for any Person to detain any such Licence or Ticket, or for any Constable or Peace Officer, or any Person employed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, to seize and take away any such Licence or Ticket, in order that the same may be produced in Evidence against such Offender, or be disposed of as the said Commissioners shall think proper.

Proprietor to retain the Licence of Drivers or Conductors employed by him, and produce them in case of Complaint.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every Proprietor of a Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, and of every Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, who shall permit and employ any licensed Person to act as the Driver or Conductor thereof, shall require to be delivered to him and shall retain in his Possession the Licence of such Driver or Conductor while such Driver or Conductor shall remain in his Service; and in all Cases of Complaint where the Proprietor of a Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or of a Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, shall be summoned to produce the Driver or Conductor of such Carriage before a Divisional Justice of the Peace, he shall also produce the Licence of such Driver or Conductor, if at the Time of receiving the Summons such Driver or Conductor shall be in his Service; and if any Driver or Conductor complained of shall be adjudged guilty of the Offence alleged against him, the Justice of the Peace before whom he shall be convicted shall in every Case endorse upon the Licence of such Driver or Conductor the Nature of the Offence and the Amount of the Penalty inflicted; and every Proprietor who shall neglect to require to be delivered to him and to retain in his Possession the Licence of any Driver or Conductor during such Period as such Driver or Conductor shall remain in his Service, or who shall refuse or neglect to produce such Licence as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Magistrates to hear and determine Disputes.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Divisional Justice to hear and determine all Matters of Complaint between any Proprietor of a Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Metropolitan Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, and the Driver or Conductor of the same respectively, and to order Payment of any Sum of Money that shall appear to be due to either Party for Wages or for the Earnings in respect of any such Carriage, or on account of any Deposit of Money, and to order Compensation to the Proprietor in respect of Damage or Loss which shall have arisen through the Neglect or Default of any Driver or Conductor to the Property of his Employer intrusted to his Care, or in respect of any Sum of Money which such Proprietor may have been lawfully ordered by a Divisional Justice of the Peace to pay, and which has been actually paid pursuant to such Order, on account of the Negligence or wilful Misconduct of his Driver or Conductor, and to order such Compensation to either Party in respect of any other Matter of Complaint between them as to such Justice shall seem proper; and any Money ordered to be paid as aforesaid may be recovered in like Manner as any Penalty under this Act.

Agreements between Drivers, &c. and Proprietors to be in Writing.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful, either in any Court of Law or before any Divisional Justice of the Peace, to enforce the Payment of any Sum of Money claimed from any Driver or Conductor by any Proprietor on account of the Earnings of any Hackney Carriage or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, unless under an Agreement in Writing which shall have been signed by such Driver or Conductor in the Presence of a competent Witness; and no such Agreement shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

Proceedings with respect to Licences on quitting Service.

XX. And be it enacted, That when any licensed Driver or Conductor shall leave the Service of any Proprietor, such Proprietor shall, upon Demand thereof, return to him his Licence: Provided always, that if the said Proprietor shall have any Complaint against the said Driver or Conductor it shall be lawful for such Proprietor to retain the Licence for any Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours after the Demand thereof, and within that Time to apply to the Police Court of the District in which the said Proprietor shall dwell, for a Summons against him; and the said Proprietor, at the Time of applying for the Summons, shall deposit the Licence with the Clerk of such Police Court or Divisional Justice; and in case any Proprietor who, upon Demand thereof, shall have refused or neglected to deliver to any Driver or Conductor his Licence, shall not within Twenty-four Hours, exclusive of Sunday, or any Day on which the Police Court shall not sit, apply for such Summons, and deposit the Licence as aforesaid, or shall not appear to prosecute his Complaint at the Time mentioned in the Summons, it shall be lawful for such Driver or Conductor to apply at the same Police Court, or to some Divisional Justice as aforesaid, for a Summons against such Proprietor; and upon hearing and deciding the Case, the Justice, if he shall think there was no just Cause for detaining the Licence, or that there has been needless Delay on the Part of the Proprietor in bringing the Matter to a Hearing, shall have Power to order the said Proprietor to pay such Compensation to the said Driver or Conductor as the said Justice shall think reasonable; and Payment of such Compensation shall be enforced in the same Manner as any Penalty may be enforced under the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of Her Majesty's Reign; and the Justice shall cause the Licence to be delivered to the said Driver or Conductor, unless any Misconduct shall be proved against him, by reason whereof the Justice shall think that such Licence shall be revoked or suspended; and so long as any Proprietor shall neglect to apply for such Summons and deposit the Licence, after Demand thereof, any Divisional Justice of the Peace may in like Manner from Time to Time order Compensation to be paid by him to the same Driver or Conductor; and no Proprietor shall, under any Pretence or by virtue of any Claim whatever, retain beyond the Time aforesaid the Licence of his Driver or Conductor.

Licences may be revoked or suspended by Justices.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Divisional Justice of the Peace before whom any Driver or Conductor shall be convicted of any Offence, whether under this Act or any other Act, if such Justice, in his Discretion, shall think fit, to revoke the Licence of such Driver or Conductor, and also any other Licence which he shall hold under the Provisions of this Act, or to suspend the same for such Time as the Justice shall think proper, and for that Purpose to require the Proprietor, Driver, or Conductor in whose Possession such Licence, and the Ticket thereunto belonging, shall then be, to deliver up the same; and every Proprietor, Driver, or Conductor who, being so required, shall refuse or neglect to deliver up such Licence and any such Ticket or either of them, shall forfeit, so often as he shall be so required and refuse or neglect as aforesaid, a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and the Justice shall forthwith send such Licence and Ticket to the Commissioners, who shall cancel such Licence, if it has been revoked by the Justice, or if it has been suspended shall at the End of the Time for which it shall have been suspended redeliver such Licence, with the Ticket, to the Person to whom it was granted.

Penalty on Person acting as Driver, whether licensed or not, without Consent of Proprietor.

XXII. And be it enacted, That every Driver or Conductor authorized by any Proprietor to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or Conductor of any Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, who shall suffer any other Person to act as Driver of such Hackney or other Carriage, or as Driver or Conductor of such Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, without the Consent of the Proprietor thereof, and also every Person, whether duly licensed or not, who shall act as Driver or as Conductor of any such Carriage, without the Consent of the Proprietor thereof, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings; and every Driver or Conductor charged with such Offence, who, when required by a Divisional Justice of the Peace so to do, shall not truly make known the Name and Place of Abode of the Person so suffered by him to act as Driver or Conductor without Consent of the Proprietor, and also the Number of the Ticket of such Person (if licensed), shall be liable to a further Penalty of Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for any Police Constable, without any Warrant for that Purpose, to take into Custody any Person unlawfully acting as a Driver or as a Conductor, and to convey convey him before any Divisional Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law, and also, if necessary, to take charge of the Carriage and every Horse in charge of such Person, and to deposit the same in some Place of safe Custody until the same can be applied for by the Proprietor.

Punishment for furious Driving and wilful Misbehaviour.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That every Driver of a Hackney Carriage or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Driver or Conductor of a Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, who shall be guilty of wanton or furious Driving, or who by Carelessness or wilful Misbehaviour shall cause any Hurt or Damage to any Person or Property, being in any Street or Highway, and also every Driver or Conductor who during his Employment shall be drunk, or shall make use of any insulting or abusive Language, or shall be guilty of any insulting Gesture or any Misbehaviour, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; or it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom such Complaint shall be brought, if in his Discretion he shall think proper, instead of inflicting such Penalty, forthwith to commit the Offender to Prison for any Period not exceeding Two Calendar Months, with or without hard Labour, as the Justice shall direct; and in every Case where any such Hurt or Damage shall have been caused, the Justice, upon the Hearing of the Complaint, may adjudge as and for Compensation to any Party aggrieved as aforesaid a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and may order the Proprietor of the Hackney Carriage or Metropolitan Stage Carriage the Driver or Conductor of which shall have caused such Hurt or Damage forthwith to pay such Sum, and also such Costs as shall have been incurred, and Payment thereof may be enforced against such Proprietor as any Penalty or Sum of Money may be recovered under and by virtue of this Act; and any Sum which shall be so paid by the Proprietor shall in like Manner be recovered in a summary Way before a Justice of the Peace from the Driver or Conductor through whose Default such Sum shall have been paid, upon Proof of the Payment thereof pursuant to the Order of the Justice; or it shall be lawful for the Justice, in the first instance, to adjudge the Amount of such Compensation to be paid by such Driver or Conductor to the Party aggrieved.

Providing for Cases where there are more Proprietors than One.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in every Case where there shall be more than One Proprietor of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Metropolitan Stage Carriage or Omnibus, it shall be sufficient, in any Information, Summons, Order, Conviction, Warrant, or any other Proceeding under the Provisions of this Act or of the said recited Act of the Reign of His late Majesty, to name One of such Proprietors, without Reference to any other or others of them, and to describe and proceed against him as if he were sole Proprietor.

Power to mitigate Penalties.

XXV. And be it enacted, That all Complaints under this Act may be heard and all Penalties incurred under this Act may be recovered by or before One or more of the said Divisional Justices of the Peace in like Manner and subject to like Provisions as Penalties under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty may be recovered; and it shall be lawful for any Divisional Justice of the Peace by whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence under this Act, or under the said recited Act of the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, or any Act or Acts amending the same, or relating to Hackney or other Carriages as aforesaid, or under any Rules, Orders, Bye Laws, or Regulations made pursuant to the said Acts or any of them, to lessen the Penalty or Term of Imprisonment in such Manner as he may think fit.

Act may be amended, &c.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXIV.

An Act to prevent District Auditors from taking Proceedings in certain Cases. [4th September 1848.]

Nothing in any Act passed this Session as to Payment of Parish Debts, &c. shall authorize Auditor to proceed to recover Sums certified by him to be due, &c.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing contained in any Act passed in this present Session of Parliament for making Provision for the Payment of Parish Debts, the Audit of Parochial and Union Accounts, and the Allowance of certain Charges therein, shall authorize any District Auditor to proceed to recover any Sum certified by him to be due in respect of which Proceedings in any Court or before any Justice or Justices shall have been taken and determined before the passing of this Act.

CAP. CXV.

An Act to vest in Her Majesty the Property of the Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, and to dissolve the said Institution. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS great Distress prevailed in Ireland in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and a Committee of Relief was formed in the City of London, which, with the Aid of the King's Letter, raised a Sum of Three hundred and eleven thousand and eighty-one Pounds Five Shillings and Seven-pence, by Subscription, for the suffering Poor; and from the Residue of the said Subscription, after affording Relief during the Scarcity of Food, the said Committee appropriated Sums, amounting in the whole to the Sum of Fifty-five thousand one hundred and eighty-five Pounds Six Shillings and Eleven-pence, to be lent at Interest to the industrious Poor in the several Counties of Clare, Cork, Galway, Kerry, Leitrim, Limerick, Mayo, Roscommon, Sligo, and Tipperary, in Ireland; and the said Committee appointed Trustees in the said several Counties for managing the same, and subjected the same to the general Superintendence of a Board of Directors in London; and the said Committee appropriated certain Funds for the special Purpose of defraying the Expenses of the 'said

'said Board of Directors; and the said charitable Association was subsequently carried on or superintended by such Committee or the Board of Directors under the Name or Style of "The Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution:" And whereas the several Trustees in the said respective Counties lent out the Monies so intrusted to them, or some Parts thereof, to local Committees or Associations, by whom the same were applied to the Purposes of the said Charity, as well as to individual Borrowers, and considerable Interest accrued and was received thereon, considerable Sums of which still remain due and outstanding which it is fitting should be recovered and applied under the Provisions of this Act: And whereas from the Residue of the Subscription above mentioned, the Sum of Six thousand Pounds was granted by the said Committee of Relief to certain Members of that Committee and others as Trustees, to be expended in the Promotion of Agricultural Schools in the Provinces of Munster and Connaught: And whereas a Portion of that Sum has been expended in Connaught for that Purpose, and a Balance of Five thousand Pounds not so expended has been transferred to the Control of the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution subject to its original Trust and Appropriation, and is included in the Funds, Property, and Money of the said Institution herein-after mentioned: And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for the Regulation of the Charitable Loan Societies in Ireland, it was amongst other things enacted, that the Trustees and Agents in Ireland of the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, and every Institution or Society of Persons which then was or thereafter should be instituted or associated together in Ireland by or in connexion with the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, for the Purpose of making charitable Loans of Money, or for providing, by way of Loan, Implements of Labour, Seeds, or raw Materials for Manufacture of Goods to be used or employed in any Trade, should and might have, exercise, use, and enjoy all the Powers and Authorities, Rights, and Remedies, in the now-reciting Act contained in respect to the lending-out, recovering, and investing Monies, and otherwise in relation to their Affairs: Provided always, that the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution should, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of the now-reciting Act, or, in the Case of Trustees and Agents to be thereafter appointed, and of Societies to be thereafter established, within Three Calendar Months after the Appointment or Establishment thereof, send, under the Hand and Seal of their Chairman, countersigned by the Secretary or Manager, to the Secretary of the Loan Fund Board in Dublin, a written List, Description, or Specification of all Trustees and Agents of the said Society authorized to act in relation to the Affairs of the said Institution in Ireland, and of all such Loan Societies or Institutions as then were or might thereafter be established in Ireland by or in connexion with the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution; and it was by the said Act further provided, that it should not be lawful for any Trustee or Agent of the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, or for any Society claiming Exemption in consequence of their Connexion therewith, to take or hold upon Debentures or other Securities, or to lend out, under the Provisions of the now-reciting Act, any Monies, Implements, Goods, or Effects, other than the Monies, Implements, Goods, and Effects of the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution: And whereas the said Board of Directors in London was in the Month of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-four incorporated by Royal Charter, constituting them a Body Politic by the Name of "The Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution:" And whereas under the Powers of the said Charter certain Bye Laws were made and Regulations established or continued for regulating the Proceedings and Duties of the Boards of Trustees in the said several Counties, and the Securities to be taken from the said Local Committees or Associations: And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, for amending the herein-before recited Act, after noticing that the said Institution had been incorporated, it was provided that the Enactments in the said recited Act contained respecting the said Charitable Loan Societies in Ireland, and the Officers thereof, and the Societies in connexion therewith, should apply and extend to the said Corporation, and the Trustees and Officers thereof, and the Societies in connexion therewith: And whereas the Funds and Property of the said Corporation, exclusively of the Balances or Sums of Money herein-after mentioned, now consist of the several Particulars mentioned in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, and in such Schedule are distinguished the Sums arisen from or now constituting the Fund appropriated for defraying Expenses as aforesaid, and the said Corporation is entitled to several Balances or Sums of Money in the Hands or under the Control of the Trustees of the said several Counties in Ireland, or of the local Committees or Associations, or Persons, to whom they have lent or intrusted the same: And whereas it has been found that the Business of the said Corporation cannot be continued with Advantage to the Public, and the said Corporation have therefore agreed to surrender their Charter, and that their Funds and Property, and the Debts owing to them, should be vested in Her Majesty, to be applied as herein-after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Funds and Property of the said Corporation, and all Funds and Property vested in and all Debts due to any Members, Agents, or Trustees of the said Corporation, on behalf of the said Corporation, subject as herein-after mentioned, and also all Funds and Property of the said Corporation vested in or under the Control of any of the said local Trustees or local Committees or Associations acting under them as aforesaid, or of any Societies in connexion with the said Corporation, and also all Debts and Sums of Money due to the said Corporation from any Persons or Person whomsoever, shall immediately after the passing of this Act be vested in Her Majesty, and shall and may be sued for and recovered in the Name of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or by and in the Name of any Person or Persons appointed for that Purpose by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury,

6 & 7 Vict. c. 91.

Funds of the Corporation to vest in Her Majesty.

Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, by all or any such Proceedings as may by Law be adopted or used for recovering Debts or Demands due to any Loan Society in Ireland, freed however from the Limitation as to Amount recoverable in the said recited Acts contained, or by such other Proceedings at Law or in Equity as might have been adopted or used by the said Corporation for recovering such Debts, Funds, Property, and Sums of Money respectively in case this Act had not been passed.

Such Funds to be applied to charitable Purposes in certain Counties in Ireland.

II. And be it enacted, That any such Funds or Monies belonging to the said Corporation which have been or may be paid over to Her Majesty's Treasury, and all such other Monies as aforesaid which under the Provisions of this Act shall be recovered or received from any Party or Parties in Ireland, shall be applied and disposed of for such charitable Purposes or Objects of public Utility not otherwise provided for in whole or in part by local Rate or Assessment, including the Instruction in and the Promotion of Agricultural Science, in the several Counties of Leitrim, Sligo, Roscommon, Mayo, Galway, Clare, Limerick, Tipperary, Cork, and Kerry, in Ireland, as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall from Time to Time direct and appoint, but so nevertheless that the Sums already recovered and hereafter to be recovered from each such County of the Monies originally appropriated thereto, as shown in the Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed, and Profits which have accumulated or may hereafter accumulate thereon, shall be applied to such Purposes within such respective County exclusively: Provided always, that the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, which as appears by Accounts laid before Parliament was specifically appropriated for the Establishment of an Agricultural School of Industry in the Province of Munster, shall be received out of the said Fund to be applied in aid of local Funds for the establishing an Agricultural School or Schools in that Province, in such Manner as the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, with the Approval of the Lords of the Treasury, shall direct, such Sum to be applied, so far as possible, in aid of Contributions locally collected for the same Purpose.

Within Three Months after Act passed Corporation may apply certain Sums in Payment of Debts, &c., and Compensations to Officers.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Corporation, at any Time within Three Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, to apply so much of the said Sums, mentioned in the said Schedule (A.) as now constituting the Fund appropriated for defraying Expenses as aforesaid, as shall be necessary, in paying the Debts, Liabilities, and Expenses of the said Corporation, and such Compensations to Persons now or heretofore employed by or under the said Corporation, or the said Association before the Incorporation thereof, as the said Corporation shall think reasonable, which said Compensations may be made either by Payment of Sums of Money, or by the Purchase of Annuities, or otherwise; and the said Corporation shall within the said Three Calendar Months deliver to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury the Bond mentioned in the said Schedule, or such Amount of Principal and Interest as shall have been paid thereon, and transfer and pay over to the said Commissioners the Balance of the several Sums of Stock and Money mentioned in the said Schedule (A.), or of other the Sums of Stock and Money which at the Time of the passing of this Act shall form the Property of the said Corporation, exclusively of so much of the said Balances or Sums of Money, and of the Money owing on the said Bond, which shall not have been realized by the said Corporation, together with all Vouchers, Books, Accounts, and Papers now under their Control and Custody, and relating in any way to the said Charity or any Portion of the Funds under the Control and Management of the said Corporation, except such Vouchers, Accounts, and Papers as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall think fit to leave in the Possession of the Trustees and local Associations as being necessary to enable such Trustees and local Associations to collect the Funds intrusted to them respectively; and upon such Transfer, Payment, and Delivery the said Corporation, and all the present and former Governors and Members thereof, and all the several Persons who were at any Time Members of the Committee of Relief or Charitable Association in London previously to the Date of the Charter aforesaid, or of the Board of Directors of the said Charitable Association in London, and their respective Estates, shall be fully released and discharged from all Claims and Demands and all Liability whatsoever by or to Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Persons or Person whatever, for or in respect of any Matter or Thing whatsoever connected with or relating to the said Corporation, or the said Committee of Relief or Charitable Association, or the Funds or Property of the said Corporation, or any Funds or Property whatever at any Time vested in or received by the said Committee of Relief or Charitable Association, or any Members or Member, Officers or Servants thereof, or for or in respect of any Matter in anywise connected with the Premises.

Act not to release Trustees from Liabilities.

IV. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall release the Trustees in the said several Counties in Ireland from any Liability in respect of the Monies intrusted to them respectively out of the Funds vested in the Governors of the said Corporation, and any Obligation to collect and enforce Payment thereof, and of the Accumulations thereof, as such Trustees respectively would have been subject to in case this Act had not been passed; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, may from Time to Time appoint any Person or Persons to collect and receive from such Trustees, or from the Party or Parties liable to pay the same, such of the Monies hereby vested in Her Majesty as may be payable by such Trustees or other Parties respectively; and the said local Committees, Associations, or other Borrowers shall continue liable to the said Trustees in the same Manner and to the same Extent as if this Act had not been passed, and the Bye Laws and Regulations made, established, or continued under the Authority of the said Charter, so far as the same are consistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall continue to be obligatory on the said Trustees and the said local Committees or Associations respectively, in the same Manner and to the same Extent as if this Act had not passed, but no further, but so nevertheless that no Monies recovered or received by the the said Trustees or the said local Committees or Associations shall be re-issued or again advanced on Loan, except such Amounts or Portions of the Sums repaid as may be sanctioned by the Governors of the said Corporation within Three Months from the passing of this Act, or may be hereafter sanctioned by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or by such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may appoint to receive the Monies hereby vested in Her Majesty.

County Trustees, or local Committees, &c. acting under them, to have the Powers of Recovery of Monies as under Charitable Loan Society Acts.

V. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding the Dissolution of the said Corporation, it shall and may be lawful for any of the said County Trustees in Ireland, or any local Committees, Associations, or Parties acting under any of the said Trustees in Ireland, having lent Monies before the passing of this Act by virtue or in respect of Connexion with the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, or by virtue or in respect of Connexion with any of the said County Trustees thereof, or having lent Monies after the passing of this Act, with the Sanction of the Governors of the said Corporation within such Three Months as aforesaid, or with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or of such Person or Persons as they may appoint to receive the Monies hereby vested in Her Majesty, to use and exercise the Powers, Authorities, Rights, and Remedies contained and provided in any Act or Acts for the Regulation of Charitable Loan Societies in Ireland for the Recovery of Monies, and subject to like Provisions or any Means or Remedies provided by Law for the Recovery of Debts, unless the Proceedings for the Recovery of such Monies shall at any Time be directed by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to be suspended.

In such Cases, Certificate of Three Trustees to be Evidence, in lieu of Certificate under Corporate Seal.

VI. 'And whereas by the said Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years and of the Seventh and Eighth 'Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty such Certificate as in the said Acts mentioned, under the 'Corporate Seal of the said Corporation, is made Evidence of the Facts therein certified, and of Con-'nexion with the said Corporation:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act a Certificate given in the Form prescribed in the Schedule marked (B.) to this Act annexed, signed by any Three Persons professing to be Trustees of the Funds heretofore belonging to the said Corporation in and for the County in which any such local Committee, Association, or Party acting under the said Trustees shall have lent such Monies or taken any Securities, shall be Evidence in like Manner and be of like Force as a Certificate under the Corporate Seal of the said Corporation would have been under the said recited Acts or either of them, and it shall not be necessary to prove that any Person signing such Certificate as a Trustee shall be a Trustee as aforesaid.

Issuing of Certificate to be signified at a Meeting of the Trustees.

VII. And be it enacted, That all Trustees of the Funds heretofore belonging to the said Corporation who shall give any Certificate under the Provision herein-before contained shall forthwith after giving every such Certificate convene a Meeting of the Trustees according to the Bye Laws regulating such Meetings, and shall notify to such Meeting the issuing of such Certificate, and shall transmit to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury a Duplicate or Copy of such Certificate, signed by the Trustees who shall have issued the same, and by the Chairman of such Meeting; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time cause a List, Description, or Specification of the Trustees of the Funds heretofore vested in the said Corporation, and of the Associations or Loan Societies or Institutions heretofore established in Ireland by or in connexion with the said Corporation, who shall remain in possession of any Monies heretofore belonging or accruing from the Monies belonging to the Corporation, and vested in Her Majesty by this Act, to be sent to the Secretary to the Loan Fund Board in Dublin; and such List, Description, or Specification so sent shall have the same Force and Effect as the List, Description, or Specification which by the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty was required to be sent by the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution to the said Secretary of the Loan Fund Board in Dublin.

Lists of Loans and Securities to be deposited with Clerk of the Peace within Three Months.

VIII. And be it enacted, That within Three Months after the passing of this Act all such Trustees as aforesaid in and for any County, and all such local Committees, Associations, or other Parties acting under any such Trustees, holding Securities for any such Funds or Monies lent as aforesaid, except such as shall have been lent by the Trustees to Associations or to Parties to re-lend, shall and are hereby required to deposit with the Clerk of the Peace for such respective County within which such Loans have been made Duplicate Lists of all such Loans and Securities, and the Amount then due thereon respectively, according to the Form marked (C.) in the Schedule annexed to this Act; and the said Trustees, local Associations, or other Parties acting under such Trustees as aforesaid, making Loans after the passing of this Act, with the Sanction of the Governors, or of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or with the Sanction of the Parties who may be appointed as aforesaid by the said Commissioners, shall and are hereby required to transmit to the Clerk of the Peace, within Seven Days from the granting of such Loans, Duplicate Lists of such Loans, according to the same Form, so far as the same is applicable; and all such Duplicate Lists as aforesaid shall be duly certified by the Inspector to such Trustees; and in every Case such Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to take charge of and retain one of such Lists, and to transmit the other of such Lists, within Two Days after the Receipt thereof, to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury: Provided always, that all Loans and Monies to be recovered in manner herein-before provided shall be included in such Lists as aforesaid respectively.

County Trustees, on receiving back Loans advanced to local Committees, to

IX. And be it enacted, That when any such County Trustees as aforesaid shall have advanced any such Funds or Monies as aforesaid to any local Committee, Association, or Party acting under them, for the Purpose of re-lending the same, and shall have received back from such local Committee, Association, or Party the Monies so advanced, the said Trustees shall, within Forty-eight Hours after the Receipt notify the same to the Clerk of the Peace.

Receipt thereof, notify in Writing to the Clerk of the Peace of such County such Receipt, and the Discharge of such Debt or Advance, as mentioned in any such Certificate marked (B.) in the said Schedule annexed to this Act; and such Clerk of the Peace, on Receipt of such Notification, shall forthwith notify the same in Writing to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and also to the Justices of the Peace at the Petty Sessions for the District or Districts next adjoining the Place where such local Committee, Association, or Party has been acting as aforesaid.

Penalty on Persons giving false Certificate under this Act.

X. And be it enacted, That any Person, not being a Trustee, who shall as a Trustee sign any such Certificate as aforesaid, and any such Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid giving any false Certificate under this Act, or not giving Notice as aforesaid to the respective Clerk of the Peace of the Payment and Discharge of any such Loan or Advance made to any such local Committee, Association, or Party acting under such Trustees, shall be liable to forfeit Four Times the Amount of the Sum specified in such Certificate, one Half to the Informer, and the other Half to Her Majesty, and to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, or by Proceedings in a summary Way before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, in like Manner and subject to like Provisions as any Penalty or Forfeiture may be recovered under the said recited Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her Majesty.

Penalty for using Certificate for Recovery of Sums beyond the Amount advanced by County Trustees.

XI. And be it enacted, That if any Trustee or Trustees, or any Member or Members of any local Committee or Association or Party acting under any such Trustees as aforesaid, shall proceed to recover any Monies lent out by them respectively beyond the Amount of the aggregate Sum advanced to them by any such County Trustees as aforesaid, and the Accumulations by the Profits derived from the Interest, Fines, and Charges paid thereon by Borrowers thereof, and for such Purpose shall use any Certificate or other Evidence of Connexion with the said Corporation, or any such Certificate of a Trustee or Trustees as in this Act provided, every such Trustee or Trustees, or Member of a local Committee or Association, or Party, so offending, shall forfeit the Amount of such Demand so sought to be recovered, and shall likewise be subject to the further Penalty of Four Times the Amount of such Demand, One Half thereof to be paid to the Informer, and One Half to Her Majesty, and such Penalty to be recovered in the Manner herein-before provided as to Penalties above mentioned; provided that such Penalty hereby inflicted shall not exonerate such Party or Parties from any Penalties he or they may incur to be paid to the Loan Fund Board in Ireland.

Treasury may make Allowances to Officers of the Trustees.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of the Monies vested in Her Majesty by this Act, to allow any Secretaries or other Persons heretofore employed by the said Trustees such Allowance in respect of Length of Service or other meritorious Cause, and also to pay to such Persons as may be from Time to Time employed, by or with the Sanction of the said Commissioners, in collecting, managing, and applying, or otherwise in relation to the Funds hereby vested in Her Majesty, such Salaries or Allowances as the said Commissioners shall think fit.

Dissolution of Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution.

XIII. And be it enacted, That after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months from and after the passing of this Act the said Corporation of the Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution shall be dissolved to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Accounts to be made up annually, and laid before Parliament.

XIV. And be it enacted, That an annual Account showing the Receipts and Disbursements under this Act shall be made up to and for the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Ten Days of their next Sitting by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

Public Act.

XV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act, and shall be taken notice of as such in all Courts whatsoever.

Act may be amended, &c.

XVI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXVI.

An Act for carrying into effect the Treaty between Her Majesty and the Republic of the Equator for the Abolition of the Traffic in Slaves. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS on the Twenty-fourth Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-one a Treaty was concluded and signed at Quito between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Republic of the Equator, for the Abolition of the Traffic in Slaves, whereby it was agreed as follows:

'ARTICLE I.—Great Britain and the Republic of the Equator declare the Traffic in Slaves abolished for ever; and in order to avoid any Doubts that may hereafter occur from any Circumstance proving prejudicial to the Interests of Commerce and Navigation for Want of a proper Explanation of the real Spirit of the Phrase "Traffic in Slaves," do here mutually declare to be understood by such Traffic such only which is carried on in Negroes brought from Africa in order to transport them to other Parts of the World for Sale, but in no Manner whatever the conveying from one Port or Place to another belonging to the Republic the Slaves existing within it, be such undertaken either with the Object of selling them or with any other not prohibited by the Laws.

'ARTICLE II.—The Republic of the Equator agrees to treat as Pirates, and to punish with the Penalties which the existing penal Laws impose on Pirates, all such Equatorians who on the High Seas, or in any other Place under the Jurisdiction of the Republic, may be found embarking, transporting, or disembarking One or more Persons brought from Africa as Slaves.

'ARTICLE III.—The Republic of the Equator will promulgate every other legislative Provision that may be deemed requisite for the Prevention of her Citizens engaging in any way in the said Traffic in Slaves, and for the complete Extinction thereof; seeing that the same are in harmony with those which may be promulgated by Great Britain for the like Object, and with the constitutional Principles of the Republic.

'ARTICLE IV.—In order more completely to prevent all Infringement of the Spirit of the present Treaty, the High Contracting Parties mutually consent that those Ships of their respective Navies which shall be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, as herein-after mentioned, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may upon reasonable Grounds be suspected of being engaged in the Traffic in Slaves, or of having been fitted out for that Purpose, or of having during the Voyage on which they are met by the said Cruisers been engaged in the Traffic of Slaves, contrary to the Provisions of this Treaty; and that such Cruisers may detain and send or carry away such Vessels, in order that they be brought to Trial in the Manner herein-after agreed upon.

'In order to fix the reciprocal Right of Search in such a Manner as shall be adapted to the Attainment of the Object of this Treaty, and at the same Time to avoid Doubts, Disputes, or Complaints, the Right of Search shall be understood in the Form and according to the Rules following:

'First,—It shall never be exercised except by Vessels of War authorized expressly for that Object, according to the Stipulations of this Treaty.

'Secondly,—In no Case shall the Right of Search be exercised with respect to a Vessel of the Royal or National Navy of either of the Two Powers, but only as regards Merchant Vessels.

'Thirdly,—Whenever a Merchant Vessel is searched by a Ship of War, the Commander of the said Ship shall, in the Act of so doing, exhibit to the Commander of the Merchant Vessel the 'Document

'Document by which he is duly authorized to that End, and shall deliver to him a Certificate, 'signed by him, stating his Rank in the Naval Service of his Country, and the Name of the 'Vessel he commands, and which also delares that the only Object of the Search is to ascertain 'whether the Vessel is employed in the Slave Trade, or if it is fitted up for the said Traffic. When 'the Search is made by an Officer of the Cruiser who is not the Commander, the said Officer 'shall exhibit to the Captain of the Merchant Vessel a Copy of the before-mentioned special 'Orders, signed by the Commander of the Cruiser, and in like Manner deliver a Certificate 'signed by him, stating his Rank in the Navy, the Name of the Commander by whose Orders he 'proceeds to make the Search, that of the Cruiser in which he sails, and the Object of the Search, 'as has been already laid down. If it appears from the Search that the Papers of the Vessel are 'in regular Order, and that it is employed on licit Objects, the Officer shall then enter in the 'Log Book of the Vessel that the Search has been made in pursuance of the aforesaid special 'Orders, and the Vessel shall be left at liberty to pursue its Voyage. The Rank of the Officer 'who makes the Search must not be less than that of Lieutenant of the Royal or National Navy, 'unless the Command, either by reason of Death or other Cause, is at the Time held by an Officer 'of inferior Rank.

'ARTICLE V.—In order to regulate the Mode of carrying the Provisions of the preceding Article into execution it is agreed,—

'First,—That all the Ships of the respective Navies of the Two Nations which shall be here-'after employed to prevent the Traffic in Slaves shall be furnished by their respective Governments 'with a Copy, in the English and Spanish Languages, of the present Treaty, of the Instructions 'for Cruisers annexed thereto marked A., and of the Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice 'annexed thereto, marked B., which Annexes respectively shall be considered as integral Parts of 'the Treaty.

'Secondly,—That each of the High Contracting Parties shall from Time to Time communicate 'to the other the Names of the several Ships furnished with such Instructions, the Force of each, 'and the Names of their several Commanders. The said Commanders ought to hold the Rank of 'Captain in the Navy, or at least of Lieutenant; it being nevertheless understood that the 'Instructions originally issued to an Officer holding the Rank of Lieutenant of the Navy or other 'superior Rank shall be sufficient, in case of Death or temporary Absence of the same, to autho-'rize the Officer on whom the Command of the Vessel has devolved to make the Search, although 'the said Officer may not hold the aforesaid Rank in the Service.

'Thirdly,—That if at any Time the Commander of a Cruiser of either of the Two Nations shall 'suspect that any Merchant Vessel under the Escort or Convoy of any Ship or Ships of War of 'the other Nation carries Slaves on board, or has been engaged in the Traffic of Slaves, or is 'fitted out for the Purpose thereof, the said Commander of the Cruiser shall communicate his 'Suspicions to the Commander of the Convoy, who, accompanied by the Commander of the 'Cruiser, shall proceed to the Search of the suspected Vessel; and in case that the Suspicions 'appear well founded, according to the Tenor of this Treaty, then the said Vessel shall be con-'ducted or sent to One of the Points where the Mixed Courts of Justice are stationed, in order 'that the just Sentence may there be pronounced.

'Fourthly,—It is further mutually agreed, that the Commanders of the Ships of the Two 'Navies respectively who shall be employed on this Service shall adhere strictly to the exact Tenor 'of the aforesaid Instructions.

'ARTICLE VI.—As the Two preceding Articles are entirely reciprocal, the Two High Contracting 'Parties engage mutually to make good any Losses which their respective Subjects may incur by 'the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels; it being understood that this Indemnity shall 'be borne by the Government whose Cruiser shall have been guilty of such arbitrary and illegal 'Detention, and that the Visit and Detention of Vessels specified in the Fourth Article of this 'Treaty shall only be effected by those British and Equatorian Ships which may form Part of the 'Two respective Navies, and by such of those Ships only as are provided with the special Instructions 'annexed to the present Treaty, in pursuance of the Provisions thereof. The Indemnification for 'the Damage of which this Article treats shall be made within the Term of One Year, reckoning 'from the Day in which the Mixed Court of Justice pronounces its Sentence on the Vessel for the 'Detention of which such Compensation is claimed.

'ARTICLE VII.—In order to bring to Adjudication with as little Delay and Inconvenience as 'possible the Vessels which may be detained according to the Tenor of the Fourth Article of this 'Treaty, there shall be established, as soon as may be practicable, Two Mixed Courts of Justice, 'formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, and named for this Purpose by 'their respective Governments.

'These Courts shall reside, one in a Possession belonging to Her Britannic Majesty, the other 'within the Territory of the Equatorian Republic; and at the Period of the Exchange of the 'Ratifications of the present Treaty the Two Governments shall declare, each for its own Dominions, 'in what Place these Courts shall respectively reside.

'But each of the Two High Contracting Parties reserves to itself the Right of changing at its 'Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Court held within its own Dominions: Provided always,

'that one of the Courts shall be held upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in some Part of the 'Territory of the Equator.

'And these Courts, from which there shall be no Appeal, shall judge the Causes submitted to 'them according to the Provisions of the present Treaty, and according to the Regulations and 'Instructions which are annexed to the present Treaty, and which are considered as integral Parts 'thereof.

'ARTICLE VIII.—In case the Commanding Officer of any of the Ships of the respective Navies of 'Great Britain and the Equator, duly commissioned according to the Provisions of Article IV. of this 'Treaty, shall deviate in any respect from the Stipulations of the said Treaty or the Instructions 'annexed to it, the Government which shall conceive itself to be wronged thereby shall be entitled 'to demand Reparation, and in such Case the Government to which such Commanding Officer may 'belong binds itself to cause Inquiry to be made into the Subject of the Complaint, and to inflict 'upon the said Officer a Punishment proportioned to any wilful Transgression which he may have 'committed.

'ARTICLE IX.—It is hereby further mutually agreed, that every Merchant Vessel, British or 'Equatorial, which shall be visited by virtue of the present Treaty, may lawfully be detained, and 'sent or brought before the Mixed Courts of Justice established in pursuance of the Provisions 'thereof, if in her Equipment there shall be found any of the Things herein-after mentioned; namely,

'First,—Hatches with open Gratings, instead of the close Hatches which are usual in Merchant 'Vessels.

'Second,—Divisions or Bulkheads in the Hold or on Deck in greater Number than are necessary 'for Vessels engaged in lawful Trade.

'Third,—Spare Planks fitted for laying down a Second or Slaves Deck.

'Fourth,—Shackles, Bolts, or Handcuffs.

'Fifth,—A larger Quantity of Water in Casks or in Tanks than is requisite for the Consumption 'of the Crew of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

'Sixth,—An extraordinary Number of Water Casks, or of other Vessels for holding Liquid, 'unless the Master shall produce a Certificate from the Custom House at the Place from which he 'cleared Outwards, stating that a sufficient Security had been given by the Owners of such Vessel 'that such extra Quantity of Casks or other Vessels should only be used to hold Palm Oil, or for 'other Purposes of lawful Commerce.

'Seventh,—A greater Quantity of Mess Tubs or Kids than are requisite for the Use of the 'Crew of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

'Eighth,—A Boiler of an unusual Size, and larger than requisite for the Use of the Crew of the 'Vessel as a Merchant Vessel, or more than One Boiler of the ordinary Size.

'Ninth,—An extraordinary Quantity either of Rice, of the Flour of Brazil, of Manioc or 'Cassada commonly called Farinha, of Maize or Indian Corn, or of any other Article of Food 'whatever, beyond what might probably be requisite for the Use of the Crew, such Rice, Flour, 'Maize or Indian Corn, or other Article of Food, not being entered on the Manifest as Part of 'the Cargo for Trade.

'Tenth,—A Quantity of Mats or Matting greater than is necessary for the Use of the Crew of 'the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

'Any One or more of these several Things, if proved to have been found on board, shall be considered 'as primâ facie Evidence of the actual Employment of the Vessel in the Slave Trade, and the Vessel 'shall thereupon be condemned and declared lawful Prize, unless satisfactory Evidence upon the Part 'of the Master or Owners shall establish that such Vessel was at the Time of her Detention or 'Capture employed in some legal Pursuit.

'ARTICLE X.—If any of the Things specified in the preceding Article shall be found in any 'Merchant Vessel, neither the Master nor Owner, nor any Person whatever interested in her Equip- 'ment or Cargo, shall be entitled to Compensation for Losses or Damages, even though the Mixed 'Courts of Justice should not pronounce any Sentence of Condemnation in consequence of her 'Detention; but the same Tribunal shall be authorized to pay out of the Prize Fund, if they think 'it in Equity required, some Sum of Money proportionate to the Demurrage suffered, and according 'to the Circumstances of the Case.

'ARTICLE XI.—It is agreed between the Two High Contracting Parties, that in all Cases in which 'a Vessel shall be detained under this Treaty by their respective Cruisers as having been engaged 'in the Slave Trade, or as having been fitted out for the Purpose thereof, and shall consequently be 'adjudged and condemned by the Mixed Courts of Justice to be established as aforesaid, the said 'Vessel shall, immediately after its Condemnation, be broken up entirely, and shall be sold in 'separate Parts after having been so broken up.

'ARTICLE XII.—The Negroes who are found on board of a Vessel detained by a Cruiser, and 'condemned by the Mixed Courts of Justice, in conformity with the Stipulations of this Treaty, 'shall be placed at the Disposition of the Government whose Cruiser has made the Capture, but on 'the Understanding that not only they shall be immediately put at liberty and kept free, the Govern- 'ment to whom they have been delivered guaranteeing the same, but likewise engaging to afford 'from Time to Time, and whenever demanded by the other High Contracting Party, the fullest

'Information

'Information as to the State and Condition of such Negroes, with a view of insuring the due 'Execution of the Treaty in this respect.

'For this Purpose the Regulations annexed to this Treaty marked C., as to the Treatment of 'Negroes liberated by Sentence of the Mixed Courts of Justice, have been drawn up, and are declared to form an integral Part of this Treaty. The Two High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves the Right to alter or suspend, by common Consent and mutual Agreement, but not otherwise, the Terms and Tenor of such Regulations.

'ARTICLE XIII.—The Acts and Instruments annexed to this Treaty, and which it is mutually agreed upon shall form an integral Part thereof, are as follows:

'A Instructions for the Ships of the Royal and National Navies of both Nations destined 'to prevent the Traffic of Slaves.

'B Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice which are to hold their Sittings on the 'Coast of Africa and in the Territory of the Republic of the Equator.

'C Regulations as to the Treatment of liberated Negroes.

'ARTICLE XIV.—The present Treaty, consisting of Fourteen Articles, shall be ratified, and the Ratifications thereof exchanged in Quito, within the Space of Two Years from this Date, or sooner if possible.

'In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed in duplicate Two Originals, in English and Spanish, of the present Treaty, and have thereunto affixed their respective Seals.

'Done in Quito this Twenty-fourth Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight 'hundred and forty-one.

'ANNEX A.

'to the TREATY between GREAT BRITAIN and the REPUBLIC of the EQUATOR, for the ABOLITION of the 'SLAVE TRADE of the REPUBLIC of the EQUATOR.

'Instructions for the Ships of the British and Equatorial Navies employed to prevent the Traffic 'in Slaves.

'ARTICLE I.—The Commander of any Ship belonging to the Navy of Her Britannic Majesty 'or of the Republic of the Equator, which shall be furnished with these Instructions, shall have a 'Right to visit, search, and detain any British or Equatorial Merchant Vessel which shall be 'actually engaged or which shall be suspected to be engaged in the Slave Trade, or to be fitted 'out for the Purposes thereof, or to have been engaged in the Traffic in Slaves during the Voyage 'in which she may be met with by such Ship of the British or Equatorial Navy; and such 'Commander shall thereupon bring or send such Merchant Vessel as soon as possible for Judgment 'before that Mixed Court of Justice, established in virtue of the Seventh Article of the said 'Treaty, which shall be the nearest to the Place of Detention, or which such Commander shall, 'upon his own Responsibility, think can be soonest reached from such Place.

'ARTICLE II.—Whenever a Ship of either of the said Navies, duly authorized as aforesaid, shall 'meet a Merchant Vessel liable to be visited under the Provisions of the said Treaty, the Search 'shall be conducted in the mildest Manner, and with every Attention which ought to be observed 'between allied and friendly Nations; and the Search shall in all Cases be made by an Officer 'holding a Rank not lower than that of a Lieutenant in the Navy of Great Britain or in that of 'the Republic of the Equator respectively (unless the Command shall by reason of Death or 'otherwise be held by an Officer of inferior Rank), or by the Officer who at the Time shall be 'Second in command of the Ship by which the Search is made.

'ARTICLE III.—The Commander of any Ship of the Two Navies, duly authorized as aforesaid 'who may detain any Merchant Vessel in pursuance of the present Instructions, shall leave on 'board the Vessel so detained the Master, the Mate or Boatswain, and Two or Three at least of 'the Crew thereof, the whole of the Slaves, if any, and all the Cargo.

'The Captor shall at the Time of Detention draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, 'which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Vessel; and such Declaration shall 'be signed by himself, and shall be given in or sent, together with the captured Vessel, to the 'Mixed Court of Justice before which such Vessel shall be carried or sent for Adjudication.

'The Captor shall deliver to the Master of the detained Vessel a certified List of the Papers 'seized on board the same, as well as a Statement of the Number of Slaves found on board at the 'Moment of Detention.

'In the authenticated Declaration which the Captor is hereby required to make, as well as in 'the certified List of the Papers seized, he shall insert his own Name, the Name of the capturing 'Ship, the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place, and 'the Number of Slaves found on board the Vessel at the Time of the Detention.

'The Officer in charge of the Vessel detained shall, at the Time when he brings the Vessel's 'Papers into the Mixed Court of Justice, deliver into the Court a Paper, signed by himself, and 'verified on Oath, stating any Changes which may have taken place in respect to the Vessel, her 'Crew, the Slaves, if any, and her Cargo, between the Period of her Detention and the Time of 'delivering in such Paper.

'ARTICLE IV.—The Slaves shall not be disembarked till after the Vessel which contains them 'shall have arrived at the Place of Adjudication, and even after the Vessel has arrived at such 'Place they shall not be landed without the Permission of the Mixed Court of Justice.

'But if urgent Reasons, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, from the State of Health of 'the Slaves, or from other Causes, should require that either the whole or a Portion of the Negroes 'should be disembarked or be transhipped before the Vessel can arrive at the Place at which One 'of the said Courts is established, or after her Arrival there, and before Adjudication, the Com-'mander of the capturing Ship may take upon himself the Responsibility of so disembarking or 'transhipping the Negroes, provided that such Necessity, and the Causes thereof, be stated in a 'Certificate in proper Form, and that this Certificate be entered at the Time on the Logbook of 'the detained Vessel.

'The undersigned Plenipotentiaries have agreed, in conformity with the Thirteenth Article of 'the Treaty signed by them on this Day, the Twenty-fourth of May One thousand eight hundred 'and forty-one, that the preceding Instructions, consisting of Four Articles, shall be annexed to 'the said Treaty, and shall be considered as an integral Part thereof.

'The Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

'ANNEX B.

'To the TREATY between GREAT BRITAIN and the REPUBLIC of the EQUATOR, for the ABOLITION of the 'SLAVE TRADE of the REPUBLIC of the EQUATOR.

'Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice which are to reside on the Coast of Africa and in the 'Republic of the Equator.

'ARTICLE I.—The Mixed Courts of Justice to be established under the Provisions of the Treaty 'of which these Regulations are declared to be an integral Part shall be composed in the following 'Manner:

'Each of the Two High Contracting Parties shall name a Judge and an Arbitrator, who shall be 'authorized to hear and to decide, without Appeal, all Cases of the Capture or Detention of Vessels 'which, in pursuance of the Stipulations of the aforesaid Treaty, shall be brought before them.

'The Judges and the Arbitrators shall, before entering upon the Duties of their Office, respec-'tively make Oath before the principal Magistrate of the Places in which such Courts respectively 'shall reside, that they will judge fairly and faithfully, that they will have no Preference either for 'the Claimants or the Captors, and that in all their Decisions they will act in pursuance of the 'Stipulations of the aforesaid Treaty.

'There shall be attached to each of such Courts a Secretary or Registrar, who shall be appointed 'by the Government of the Country within whose Territories such Court shall reside. Such 'Secretary or Registrar shall register all the Acts of such Court, and shall, before he enters upon 'his Office, make Oath before the Court to which he is appointed, that he will conduct himself 'with due Respect for its Authority, and will act with Fidelity and Impartiality in all Matters 'relating to his said Office.

'The Salary of the Secretary or Registrar of the Court to be established on the Coast of Africa 'shall be paid by Her Britannic Majesty, and that of the Secretary or Registrar of the Court to 'be established in the Republic of the Equator shall be paid by the Government of that Republic.

'Each of the Governments shall defray Half of the aggregate Amount of the incidental Expenses 'of such Courts.

'ARTICLE II.—The Expenses incurred by the Officer charged with the Reception, Maintenance, 'and Care of the detained Vessel, Slaves, and Cargo, and with the Execution of the Sentence, and 'all Disbursements occasioned by bringing the Vessel to Adjudication, shall, in case of Condemna-'tion, be defrayed out of the Funds arising from the Sale of the Materials of the broken-up 'Vessel, of the Ship's Stores, and of such Parts of the Cargo as shall consist of Merchandize; and 'in case the Proceeds arising from this Sale should not prove sufficient to defray such Expenses, 'then the Deficiency shall be made good by the Government of the Country within whose Terri-'tories the Adjudication shall have taken place.

'If the detained Vessel shall be released, the Expenses occasioned by bringing her to Adjudica-'tion shall be defrayed by the Captor, excepting in the Cases specified and otherwise provided 'for by Article X. of the Treaty to which these Regulations form an Annex, and by Article VIII. 'of these Regulations.

'ARTICLE III.—The Mixed Courts of Justice are to decide upon the Legality of the Detention 'of such Vessels as the Cruisers of either Nation shall, in pursuance of the said Treaty, detain.

'These Courts shall judge definitively, and without Appeal, all Questions which shall arise out of 'the Capture and Detention of such Vessels.

'The Proceedings of these Courts shall take place with as little Delay as possible; and for this 'Purpose the Courts are required to decide each Case, as far as may be practicable, within the 'Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from the Day on which the detained Vessel shall have been 'brought into the Port where the deciding Court shall reside.

'If in consequence of such Proceedings the Vessel whose Case is brought before the Court shall 'be found to have been employed in the Slave Trade, or to have been fitted out for the Purposes 'thereof,

'thereof, such Vessel, her Cargo of Merchandize, and her Equipments, shall be condemned by the 'Court, and shall be declared lawful Prize; and any Slaves who may have been put on board such 'Vessel for the Purposes of Traffic shall be emancipated.

'The final Sentence shall not in any Case be delayed beyond the Period of Two Months, either 'on account of the Absence of Witnesses or for any other Reason, except upon the Application 'of any of the Parties interested; in which Case, if such Party or Parties shall give satisfactory 'Security that they will take upon themselves the Expense and Risks of the Delay, the Courts 'may, at their Discretion, grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months.

'Either Party shall be allowed to employ such Counsel as he may think fit, to assist him in 'conducting his Cause.

'All the Acts and essential Parts of the Proceedings of the said Courts shall be written down in 'the Language of the Country in which the Courts shall respectively reside.

'ARTICLE IV.—The Form of the Process shall be as follows:—

'The Judges appointed by the Two Governments respectively shall, in the first place, proceed to 'examine the Papers of the detained Vessel, and to take the Depositions of the Master or Com- 'mander, and of Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board such Vessel, as well as 'the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should such Declaration appear to be necessary, in order 'to enable them to judge and to pronounce whether the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, 'according to the Stipulations of the aforesaid Treaty, and in order that according to this Judgment 'the Vessel may be condemned or released.

'In the event of the Two Judges not agreeing as to the Sentence which they ought to pronounce 'with respect to the Legality of the Detention of any Vessel, as to the Liability of the Vessel to 'Condemnation, as to the Compensation to be allowed to the Owners, or as to any other Question 'which may arise out of any Capture, or if any Difference of Opinion should arise between them as 'to the Mode of proceeding in the said Court, they shall in any such Case draw by Lot the Name 'of One of the Two Arbitrators appointed as is stated in Article I. of this Annex, and the 'Arbitrator whose Name shall be so drawn shall, after he has considered the Proceedings which 'have taken place, consult with the Two above-mentioned Judges, and the final Sentence or 'Decision shall be pronounced in conformity with the Opinion of the Majority of the Three.

'ARTICLE V.—If the detained Vessel shall be restored by the Sentence of the Court, the Vessel 'and the Cargo, in the State in which they shall then be found, shall forthwith be given up to the 'Master or to the Person who represents him; and such Master or other Person may before the 'same Court claim to have a Valuation made, in order to ascertain the Amount of the Damages to 'which he shall be entitled. The Captor himself, and in his Default his Government, shall remain 'responsible for the Damages which may definitively be pronounced to be due to the Master of such 'Vessel, or to the Owners of the Vessel or of her Cargo.

'The Two High Contracting Parties bind themselves to pay, within the Term of a Year from the 'Date of the Sentence, the Costs and Damages which may be awarded by the aforesaid Court, it 'being mutually understood and agreed that such Costs and Damages shall be made good by the 'Government of the Country of which the Captor shall be a Subject or Citizen.

'ARTICLE VI.—If a detained Vessel shall be condemned she shall be declared lawful Prize, 'together with her Cargo, whatever it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who shall have 'been found on board; and the said Vessel, in conformity with the Regulations in Article XI. of the 'Treaty of this Date, shall, as well as her Cargo, be sold by public Sale, for the Profit of the Two 'Governments, subject to the Payment of the Expenses herein mentioned.

'The Slaves shall receive from the Court a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered 'over to the Government to whom belongs the Cruiser which made the Capture, to be dealt with 'according to the Regulations and Conditions contained in the Annex to this Treaty, Letter C.

'ARTICLE VII.—The Commander and the Crew of a Vessel condemned under this Treaty, and all 'Persons found on board who shall have been Accomplices in her Slave Trade Undertaking, shall, 'on Condemnation of the Vessel, be sent as Prisoners to the nearest Settlement of the Country of 'which they are Subjects or Citizens, and shall be there delivered over to the Authorities of the 'Place, to be tried according to the Laws of their Country, for the Offences which they have 'committed against those Laws. The Commander of the Cruiser which made the Capture of the 'Vessel shall, on the Requisition of the Members of the Mixed Courts of Justice, take charge of 'the Commander, the Crew, and Accomplices on board of the captured Vessel, and shall convey 'them and deliver them over as before mentioned.

'The Charges incurred for the Support and Return Voyage of the Commander, the Crew, and the 'Accomplices, thus sent as Prisoners, shall be defrayed by the Government of which they are the 'Subjects or Citizens.

'ARTICLE VIII.—The Mixed Courts of Justice shall also take cognizance of, and shall decide 'definitively, and without Appeal, all Claims for Compensation on account of Losses occasioned to 'Vessels and Cargoes which shall have been detained under the Provisions of this Treaty, but 'which shall not have been condemned as legal Prize by the said Courts; and in all Cases wherein 'Restitution of such Vessels and Cargoes shall be decreed (save as mentioned in a subsequent Part 'of these Regulations, and in Article X. of the Treaty to which these Regulations form an Annex,) 'the Court shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or to his or their lawful Attorney or Attornies,

'for

'for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification for all Costs of Suit; and for all Losses 'and Damages which the Owner or Owners may have actually sustained by such Capture and 'Detention; (that is to say,)

'First,—In case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified,—

'A For the Ship, her Tackle, Equipment, and Stores.

'B For all Freights due and payable.

'C For the Value of the Cargo of Merchandize, if any, deducting all Charges and Expenses 'payable upon the Sale of such Cargo, including Commission of Sale.

'D For all other regular Charges in such Case of total Loss.

'Secondly,—In all other Cases not of total Loss, save as herein-after mentioned, the Claimant 'or Claimants shall be indemnified,—

'A For all special Damages and Expenses occasioned to the Ship by her Detention, and 'for Loss of Freight when due or payable.

'B For Demurrage, according to the Schedule annexed to the present Article.

'C For any Deterioration of the Cargo.

'D For all Premium of Insurance on additional Risks.

'Further, the Claimant or Claimants shall be entitled to Interest at the Rate of Five per Centum 'per Annum on the Sum awarded, until such Sum is paid by the Government to which the capturing 'Ship belongs. The whole Amount of such Indemnification shall be calculated in the Money of 'the Country to which the detained Vessel belongs, and shall be paid at the Rate of Exchange 'current at the Time of the Award.

'The Two High Contracting Parties, however, have agreed, that if it shall be proved to the 'Satisfaction of the Judges of the Two Nations, and without Recourse to the Decision of an 'Arbitrator, that the Captor has been led into Error by the Fault of the Master or Commander of 'the detained Vessel, the detained Vessel shall in such Case not receive for the Time of her Detention 'the Demurrage stipulated by the present Article, nor any other Compensation for Losses, Damages, 'or Expenses consequent upon such Detention.

'SCHEDULE of Demurrage or daily Allowance for a Vessel of

'100	Tons to	120	inclusive	-	-	£ 5	per Diem.
'121	„	150	„	-	-	6	„
'151	„	170	„	-	-	8	„

'And so on in proportion.

'ARTICLE IX.—Neither the Judges, nor the Arbitrators, nor the Secretaries of the Mixed Courts 'of Justice, shall demand or receive from any of the Parties concerned in the Cases which shall 'be brought before such Courts any Emolument or Gift, under any Pretext whatsoever, for the 'Performance of the Duties which such Judges, Arbitrators, and Secretaries have to perform.

'ARTICLE X.—The Two High Contracting Parties have agreed, that in the event of the Death, 'Sickness, Absence on Leave, or other legal Impediment of One or more of the Judges or Arbi- 'trators composing the above-mentioned Courts, the Post of such Judge or of such Arbitrator shall 'be supplied ad interim in the following Manner:

'First,—On the Part of Her Britannic Majesty, and in that Court which shall sit in One of the 'Possessions of Her said Majesty, if the Vacancy be that of the British Judge, his Place shall be 'filled by the British Arbitrator; and either in that Case, or if the Vacancy be originally that of 'the British Arbitrator, the Place of such Arbitrator shall be filled successively by the Governor 'or Lieutenant Governor resident in such Possession, by the principal Magistrate of the same, 'and by the Secretary of the Government; and the said Court so constituted as above shall sit, 'and shall proceed to adjudge all Cases brought before them for Adjudication, and shall pass 'Sentence accordingly.

'Secondly,—On the Part of Great Britain, and in that Court which shall sit in some Place 'within the Territories of the Republic of the Equator, if the Vacancy be that of the British 'Judge, his Place shall be filled by the British Arbitrator; and either in that Case, or if the 'Vacancy be originally that of the British Arbitrator, the Place of British Arbitrator shall be 'filled successively by the British Consul and British Vice Consul, if there be a British Consul 'or British Vice Consul appointed to and resident in such Place; and if the Vacancy be both of 'the British Judge and of the British Arbitrator, then the Vacancy of the British Judge shall be 'filled by the British Consul, and that of the British Arbitrator by the British Vice Consul, if 'there be a British Consul and a British Vice Consul appointed to and resident in such Place; 'and if there shall be no British Consul or British Vice Consul to fill the Place of British 'Arbitrator, then the Equatorial Arbitrator shall be called in, in those Cases in which a British 'Arbitrator, if there were any, would be called in; and in case the Vacancy be both of the 'British Judge and British Arbitrator, and there be neither British Consul nor British Vice

'Consul

'Consul to fill ad interim the Vacancies, then the Equatorial Judge and Equatorial Arbitrator 'shall sit, and shall proceed to adjudge all Cases brought before them for Adjudication, and shall 'pass Sentence accordingly.

'Thirdly,—On the Part of the Equatorial Republic, and in that Court which shall sit within 'the Territories of the said Republic, if the Vacancy be that of the Equatorial Judge, his Place 'shall be filled by the Equatorial Arbitrator; and either in that Case, or if the Vacancy be 'originally that of the Equatorial Arbitrator, the Place of such Arbitrator shall be filled 'successively by the Judges of First Instance, according to their Seniority, resident in the Place 'where such Court shall sit, or by an Advocate appointed for the Purpose; and the said Court so 'constituted as above shall sit, and shall proceed to adjudge all Cases brought before them for 'Adjudication, and shall pass Sentence accordingly.

'Fourthly,—On the Part of the Equatorial Republic, and in that Court which shall sit within 'the Possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, if the Vacancy be that of the Equatorial Judge, his 'Place shall be filled by the Equatorial Arbitrator; and either in that Case, or if the Vacancy be 'originally that of the Equatorial Arbitrator, the Place of Equatorial Arbitrator shall be filled 'successively by the Equatorial Consul and Equatorial Vice Consul, if there be an Equatorial 'Consul or Equatorial Vice Consul appointed to and resident in such Possession; and if the 'Vacancy be both of the Equatorial Judge and of the Equatorial Arbitrator, then the Vacancy 'of the Equatorial Judge shall be filled by the Equatorial Consul, and that of the Equatorial 'Arbitrator by the Equatorial Vice Consul, if there be an Equatorial Consul and an Equatorial 'Vice Consul appointed to and resident in such Possession, and if there be no Equatorial Consul 'or Equatorial Vice Consul to fill the Place of Equatorial Arbitrator, then the British Arbitrator 'shall be called in, in those Cases in which an Equatorial Arbitrator would be called in; and in 'case the Vacancy be both of the Equatorial Judge and Equatorial Arbitrator, and there be 'neither Equatorial Consul nor Vice Consul to fill ad interim the Vacancies, then the British 'Judge and British Arbitrator shall sit, and shall proceed to adjudge all Cases brought before 'them for Adjudication, and shall pass Sentence accordingly.

'The highest Civil Authority of the Settlement wherein either of the Mixed Courts of Justice 'shall sit shall, in the event of a Vacancy arising either of the Judge or of the Arbitrator of the 'other High Contracting Party, forthwith give Notice of the same to the highest Civil Authority 'of the nearest Settlement of such other High Contracting Party, in order that such Vacancy may 'be supplied at the earliest Period; and each of the High Contracting Parties agrees to fill up 'definitively, as soon as possible, the Vacancies which may arise in the above-mentioned Courts, 'from Death or from any other Cause whatever.

'The undersigned Plenipotentiaries have agreed, in conformity with the Thirteenth Article of 'the Treaty signed by them on this Day, the Twenty-fourth of May One thousand eight hundred 'and forty-one, that the preceding Regulations, consisting of Ten Articles, shall be annexed to 'the said Treaty, and considered as an integral Part thereof.

'The Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

'ANNEX C.

'To the TREATY between GREAT BRITAIN and the REPUBLIC of the EQUATOR, for the ABOLITION of the 'SLAVE TRADE of the REPUBLIC of the EQUATOR.

'Regulations for the good Treatment of liberated Negroes.

'ARTICLE I.—The Object of these Regulations is to secure to Negroes liberated by virtue of the 'Stipulations of the Treaty to which these Regulations form an Annex (marked C.), permanent good 'Treatment, and full and complete Freedom, in conformity with the humane Intentions of the High 'Contracting Parties.

'ARTICLE II.—Immediately after Sentence of Condemnation shall have been passed by a Mixed 'Court of Justice established under the Treaty to which these Regulations form an Annex, on a 'Vessel charged with being concerned in Slave Trade, all Negroes who were on board such Vessel, 'and who were brought on board for the Purpose of Traffic, shall be delivered over to the Government 'to whom belongs the Cruiser which made the Capture.

'ARTICLE III.—If the Cruiser which made the Capture is British, the British Government engages 'that the Negroes shall be treated in exact Conformity with the Laws in force in the British Colonies 'applicable to free-born or to emancipated Negroes.

'ARTICLE IV.—If the Cruiser which made the Capture is Equatorial, then the Negroes shall be 'delivered over to the Equatorial Authorities of that Place in the Dominions of the Republic of the 'Equator in which the Mixed Court of Justice is established; and the Equatorial Government 'solemnly engages that such Negroes shall be there treated strictly according to the Regulations in 'force at the Time being in the Republic of the Equator with respect to free Negroes. The 'Republic of the Equator further engages that those Regulations shall always be framed with the 'view of securing, honestly and faithfully, to emancipated Negroes, unmolested Liberty, good 'Treatment, a Knowledge of the Tenets of the Christian Religion, Advancement in Morality and 'Civilization, and sufficient Instruction in the Mechanical Arts to enable the said emancipated 'Negroes to earn their own Subsistence as Artisans, Mechanics, or Servants.

'ARTICLE

'ARTICLE V.—For the Purpose which is explained in the following Article, there shall be kept 'in the Office of the Governor, in that Part of the Possessions of the Republic of the Equator where 'the Mixed Court of Justice resides, a Register of all emancipated Negroes; and in such Register 'shall be entered, with scrupulous Exactness, the Names given to the Negroes, the Names of the 'Vessels in which they were captured, the Names of the Persons to whose Care they have been 'committed, and any other Circumstances likely to contribute to the full and permanent Liberty and 'Welfare of such emancipated Negroes.

'ARTICLE VI.—The Register to which the preceding Article refers will serve to form a general 'Return, which the Governor of that Part of the Possessions of the Republic of the Equator where 'the Mixed Court of Justice resides shall be bound to deliver every Six Months to the aforesaid 'Mixed Commission, in order to show the continued Freedom of the Negroes emancipated under 'this Treaty, the Improvement effected in their Condition, and the Progress made in their Religious 'and Moral Instruction, and in their Acquirement of the Arts of Life; the aforesaid Return shall 'also specify the Names and Descriptions of such of the emancipated Negroes as shall have died 'since the Period of the last Return.

'ARTICLE VII.—The High Contracting Parties agree, that if in future it should appear necessary 'to adopt new Measures, in consequence of those which are laid down in this Annex turning out 'inefficacious, the said High Contracting Parties will consult together, and will agree upon other 'Means better adapted for the complete Attainment of the Objects they have in view.

'The undersigned Plenipotentiaries have agreed, in conformity with the Thirteenth Article of the 'Treaty signed by them on this Day, the Twenty-fourth of May One thousand eight hundred and 'forty-one, that this Annex, consisting of Seven Articles, shall be united to the said Treaty, and be 'considered an integral Part thereof.

'The Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

'ARTICLES ADDITIONAL to the Treaty concluded on the Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand 'eight hundred and forty-one between Her Britannic Majesty and the Republic of the Equator 'for the Suppression of Slave Trade.

'ARTICLE I.—It is agreed and understood, that if there should be any Delay in appointing the 'Judge and Arbitrator to be nominated on the Part of the Republic of the Equator to act in each 'of the Mixed Courts of Justice to be established under this Treaty, or if those Officers, after being 'appointed, should at any Time be absent, then and in either of such Cases the Judge and Arbitrator 'who shall be appointed on the Part of Her Britannic Majesty, and who shall be present in the 'said Courts, shall, in the Absence of the Equatorial Judge and Arbitrator, proceed to open the 'said Courts, and to adjudge such Cases as may be brought before them under the Treaty; and 'the Sentence pronounced upon such Cases by the said British Judge and Arbitrator shall have 'the same Force and Validity as if the Judge and the Arbitrator on the Part of the Republic of the 'Equator had been present and acting with them.

'ARTICLE II.—It is also agreed, notwithstanding the Provisions of the First Article of the 'Annex B., that so long as no Equatorial Judge and Arbitrator shall have been nominated it will 'be unnecessary for the Republic of the Equator to nominate the Secretary or Registrar mentioned 'in the said Article; that in the meanwhile the Secretary or Registrar of the Court which may 'exist within the Territory of the Republic of the Equator shall be named and paid by the Govern- 'ment of Her Britannic Majesty, and that the entire Expense of both the Courts to be established 'under this Treaty shall be borne by the Government of Her Britannic Majesty.

'The present additional Articles shall form an integral Part of the Treaty for the Abolition of 'the Slave Trade of the Republic of the Equator signed this Day, and shall have the same Force 'and Validity as if they were inserted Word for Word in that Treaty, and shall be ratified in the 'same Form and at the same Time.

'The Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

'FURTHER ADDITIONAL ARTICLE to the Treaty concluded on the Twenty-fourth Day of May One 'thousand eight hundred and forty-one between Great Britain and the Republic of the Equator 'for the Abolition of the Traffic in Slaves.

'Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Excel- 'lency the President of the Republic of the Equator, having deemed it convenient and necessary to 'prorogue the Term stipulated in the Fourteenth Article of the Treaty concluded on the Twenty- 'fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-one, between Great Britain and the 'Republic of the Equator, for the Abolition of the Traffic in Slaves, have named and authorized as 'their Plenipotentiaries ad hoc; (that is to say,)

'Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Walter Cope 'Esquire, Her Majesty's Consul in the Equator:

'And His Excellency the President of the Republic of the Equator, General José Maria Urbina, 'Minister of State in general:

'Who

'Who, after having exchanged their full Powers, found to be in good and due Form, have agreed 'upon the following:

'The Term stipulated for the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Treaty for the Abolition of 'the Traffic in Slaves, signed by the Plenipotentiaries of Great Britain and the Equator on the 'Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-one, is prorogued, and in 'virtue of that Prorogation it is agreed by the Two Contracting Parties that the said Treaty shall 'be ratified, and the Ratifications exchanged in Quito, within the Space of Two Years from the 'Date hereof, or sooner if possible.

'In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed this Agreement in Duplicate, and 'have sealed it with their respective Seals.

'Done in the City of Cuença on the Fifteenth Day of January in the Year of our Lord One 'thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

Ratifications of Treaty exchanged on the 5th July 1847.

'And whereas the said Treaty was ratified between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of 'Great Britain and Ireland and the Republic of the Equator, and such Ratifications exchanged at Quito 'on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven: And whereas it is expedient 'and necessary that effectual Provision should be made for carrying into execution the Provisions of the 'said Treaty, and Annexes thereto, and additional Articles:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any Officer commanding any Ship of War of Her Majesty or of the Republic of the Equator not below the Rank of Lieutenant of the Royal Navy (unless the Command shall by reason of Death or otherwise be held by an Officer of inferior Rank), or by the Officer who at the Time shall be Second in Command of the Ship, and who shall be duly instructed and authorized according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, to visit and search any Merchant Vessel of either of the said Two Nations, which shall upon reasonable Grounds be suspected of being engaged in the Traffic in Slaves or Negroes from Africa, in order to transport them to other Parts of the World for Sale, or any Vessel fitted out for that Purpose, or of having been engaged in such Traffic during the Voyage in which such Vessel is met, and to detain and send or carry away such Vessel, together with its Masters, Sailors, Passengers, Slaves, and Cargo, for the Purpose of such Vessel being brought to Adjudication before One of the Mixed Courts of Justice to be established in virtue of the Seventh Article of the said Treaty; and all such Commanders and other Officers in the Exercise of such Rights shall comply with the several Provisions and Instructions of the said Treaty which apply thereto respectively.

Officers commanding Ships of Her Majesty, or of the Republic of the Equator, being duly authorized and empowered, to visit and search Merchant Ships.

II. And be it enacted, That all Ships and Vessels belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's Subjects which shall be suspected upon reasonable Grounds of being engaged in the said Traffic in Slaves, or of having been fitted out for that Purpose, or of having been engaged in such Traffic during the Voyage in which such Vessel is met, and all Boats, Apparel, and Cargoes therein, shall be subject to Search and Detention by British or Equatorian Vessels of War duly authorized for that Purpose according to the Stipulations of the said Treaty, and subject to Condemnation or other Judgment by the Judges and Arbitrators of the Mixed Courts to be appointed according to the Provisions of the said Treaty.

Ships suspected of having been fitted out for the Purpose of the said Traffic in Slaves liable to Search and Detention.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, to appoint such Judges and Arbitrators as are in and by the said Treaty mentioned to be appointed by Her Majesty, and from Time to Time to supply any Vacancies which may arise in such Offices by appointing other Persons thereto, and to grant Salaries to such Judges and Arbitrators as aforesaid, not exceeding such annual Sums as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct; and such Judges and Arbitrators shall be empowered to examine and decide all such Cases of Detention, Captures, and Seizures of Vessels and their Cargoes as aforesaid, detained, seized, or captured under the said Treaty, as are by the said Treaty and by this Act made subject to their Jurisdiction, and to proceed therein, and give such Judgments, and make such Orders therein, and do all other Things appertaining thereto, agreeably to the Provisions of the said Treaty, as fully as if special Powers for that Purpose were inserted in this Act.

Her Majesty may appoint Judges and Arbitrators to decide Cases of Detention.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, to appoint a Secretary or Registrar to each of the Mixed Courts which shall be established, and from Time to Time to supply by other Appointments any Vacancy which may thereafter occur in such Office, and to grant a Salary to such Secretary or Registrar, not exceeding such annual Sum as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct; and such Secretary or Registrar shall be empowered to perform all the Duties of such Office set forth by the said Treaty, and to do all such Things as may be necessary for the due Discharge of the Duties of his said Office.

Her Majesty may appoint a Secretary or Registrar to the Mixed Court.

V. And be it enacted, That in the Case of the Death, Sickness, Absence on Leave, or any other legal Impediment of any such British Judge of either of the said Courts established by virtue of the said Treaty, the British Arbitrator of such Court shall fill the Office of such Judge ad interim until the Office shall be thereafter filled by some Person appointed by Her Majesty, or until such Judge shall resume the Duties of his said Office; and that in case of such Vacancy of the Office of British Arbitrator of the Court established by virtue of the said Treaty in the Possessions of Her Majesty, or in case of the Death, Sickness, Absence on Leave, or other Impediment of the said Arbitrator of the said Court, the Office of such Arbitrator shall be filled ad interim successively by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in such Possession, by the principal Magistrate in the same, and by the Secretary of the Government, until the said Office shall be filled by some Person appointed by Her Majesty's Government, or until such Arbitrator shall resume the Duties of his said Office; and that in case of the Death, Sickness, Absence on Leave, or other legal Impediment of the British Arbitrator in the Court established by virtue of the said Treaty within the Possessions of the Equatorian Republic, or of his assuming ad interim the Duties of a Judge of the said Court as aforesaid, the Office of such British Arbitrator shall be filled ad interim successively by the British Consul and British Vice Consul resident in such Possession; and in case of such Vacancy of the Offices both of such British Judge and British Arbitrator, then that such Office of Judge shall be filled by the British Consul, and such Office of British Arbitrator by the British Vice Consul; and in case there shall be no British Consul or Vice Consul at such Place, then that it shall be lawful for the Equatorian Arbitrator to act in all those Cases in which a British Arbitrator, if there were any, would be required to act; and in case of such Vacancy in the Offices both of British Judge and British Arbitrator, and there should be neither a British Consul nor British Vice Consul resident at such Place, then that it shall be lawful for the Equatorian Judge and Equatorian Arbitrator of such Court to sit alone in such Court, and in all Cases brought before them for Adjudication to adjudge the same, and pass Sentence accordingly, until the said Offices shall respectively be thereafter filled by some Person or Persons appointed by Her Majesty, or until the said British Judge and British Arbitrator shall resume the Duties of their said Offices respectively.

In case of the Death or Incapacity from Illness of any British Judge of such Courts, or of the British Arbitrator.

Judges and Arbitrators to take an Oath.

VI. And be it enacted, That every such Judge and Arbitrator so appointed by Her Majesty, before he shall enter upon the Execution of any of the Duties of such his Office, shall take an Oath in the Presence of the principal Magistrate then residing and acting in the Colony, Settlement, or Place in which the Court shall be established, whether belonging to Her Britannic Majesty or to the Republic of the Equator, which Oath any such Magistrate shall be authorized to administer in the Form following; (that is to say,)

Form of Oath.

'I A.B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office as faithfully, impartially, fairly, and without Preference or Favour either for Claimants or Captors or any other Persons; and that I will, to the best of my Judgment and Power, act in pursuance of and according to the Stipulations, Regulations, and Instructions contained in the Treaty between Her Majesty and the Republic of the Equator signed at on the in the Year One thousand eight hundred and .'

Secretary or Registrar's Oath.

And every Secretary or Registrar appointed by Her Majesty under the Provisions of the said Treaty, and of this Act, before he enters on the Duties of his said Office, shall take an Oath before One of the Judges of the said Court, who shall be empowered to administer the same, in the Form following; (that is to say,)

'I A.B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office, and that I will conduct myself with respect to the Authority of the Judges and Arbitrators of the Court to which I am attached, and will act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to my Charge, and without Preference or Favour either for Claimants or Captors or any other Persons.'

Judges and Arbitrators may administer Oaths.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Judges or Arbitrators, or either of them, or for any such Secretary or Registrar, to administer Oaths to and take the Depositions of all Parties, Witnesses, and other Persons who may come or be brought before them to be examined, or for the Purpose of deposing, in the course of any Proceeding before the said Judges or Arbitrators under the said Treaty and this Act; and it shall also be lawful for the said Judges and Arbitrators to summon before them all Persons whom they may deem it necessary or proper to examine in relation to any Proceeding under their Cognizance, and to send for and issue Precepts for the producing of all such Papers as may relate to the Matters in question before them, and to enforce all such Summonses, Orders, and Precepts by such and the like Means, Powers, and Authorities as any Court of Vice Admiralty may do.

Punishing Persons giving false Evidence.

VIII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence in any Examination or Deposition had or Affidavit taken in any Proceeding before the Judges or Arbitrators aforesaid, under the said Treaty or this Act, shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and being thereof convicted shall be subject and liable to all the Pains and Penalties to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable; and every such Person may be tried for any such Perjury either in the Place where the Offence was committed or in any Colony or Settlement of Her Majesty near thereto in which there is a Court of competent Jurisdiction to try any such Offence, or in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in England, and that in case of any Prosecution for such Offence in Her Majesty's said Court of Queen's Bench the Venue may be laid in the County of Middlesex.

Pendency of Suits before the Judges to be a Bar to any Proceedings instituted for the Recovery of the Vessels detained.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Pendency of any Suit or Proceedings instituted before the said Judges or Arbitrators for the Condemnation or Restitution of any Ship or Cargo or Slaves taken, seized, or detained by virtue of the said Treaty, or the final Adjudication, Condemnation, or Judgment or Determination thereupon, may be pleaded in bar or given in Evidence under the General Issue, and shall be deemed in any Court whatever to be a complete Bar in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding, whether instituted by any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any such Ship, Vessel, or Cargo, or of any Damage or for any Injury sustained thereby, or by the Persons on board the same, in consequence of any Capture, Seizure, or Detention, or anything done in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty.

X. And

X. And be it declared and enacted, That if any of the Particulars specified in the Ninth Article of the said Treaty shall be found in the Outfit and Equipment of or on board any such Merchant Vessel engaged or to be engaged in such Traffic, and visited and detained in pursuance of the said Treaty, such Vessel, unless Proof be given to the contrary, shall be taken to have been engaged in the said Traffic, or to have been fitted out for the Purposes of such Traffic, and to be equipped and employed for the Purposes declared unlawful. Vessels equipped for Traffic in Slaves to be deemed engaged in the Slave Trade.

XI. And be it enacted, That any Ship or Vessel which shall be condemned under any such Authority as aforesaid may be taken into Her Majesty's Service, upon Payment of such Sum as the Lord High Admiral or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall deem a proper Price for the same, or, if not so taken, shall be broken up and demolished, and the Materials thereof shall be publicly sold in separate Parts, together with the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize laden therein, for the Profits of the Two Governments of Great Britain and the Republic of the Equator, and the Proceeds thereof shall be paid to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may appoint to receive the same. Vessels condemned to be sold for Her Majesty's Service or broken up.

XII. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel employed or engaged in illicit Traffic in Slaves, in violation of the said Treaty, shall be seized by any Ship or Vessel belonging to Her Majesty, duly authorized to make such Seizure under the Provisions of the said Treaty or Articles, and shall be afterwards condemned by any of the Commissioners appointed in virtue of the Treaty or Articles aforesaid, there shall be paid to the Captors the Portion to which Her Majesty is entitled, such Portion to be distributed in the Manner herein-after directed for the Distribution of Bounties on Slaves taken on board the said Vessels. Captors of Vessels shall, after Condemnation, be entitled to the Portion belonging to Her Majesty.

XIII. And be it enacted, That there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crew of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make Seizures under the said Treaty a Bounty of Five Pounds for every Man, Woman, and Child Slave seized and found on board a British or Equatorian Ship or Vessel taken and condemned in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty and of this Act, such Bounty to be distributed to and amongst the Captors aforesaid in such Manner and Proportions as Her Majesty shall think fit to order by any Order in Council or by any Proclamation to be made for that Purpose. Bounty for Slaves captured.

XIV. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel which shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Treaty shall have been or shall be demolished, and the Materials thereof publicly sold in separate Parts, as well as her Cargo, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make and making such Seizures, and in addition to the Amount which may be payable in respect of Her Majesty's Portion of the Proceeds of such Sale as herein-before mentioned, a further Bounty on the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel at the Rate of Thirty Shillings for every Ton of such Tonnage. Bounty on Tonnage of Slave Ships captured and demolished.

XV. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel having no Slaves on board shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Treaty there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make and making such Seizure an additional Bounty upon the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, at the Rate of Four Pounds for every Ton; and the Tonnage of all such Vessels shall be ascertained according to the Mode of ascertaining the Admeasurement of British Vessels, either by the principal Officer of the Customs at the Port where the Vessel may be at the Time of Condemnation, or in default thereof by the best Evidence which can be obtained, to be certified by the Commissioners by whom such Condemnation shall be pronounced: Provided always, that in every Case in which any Ship or Vessel shall be seized with Slaves on board, in which the Bounty calculated upon the Number of Slaves shall be less than the Bounty calculated upon the Tonnage, the Commanders of Her Majesty's Ships making the Seizure may elect to take the Bounty calculated according to Tonnage, instead of the Bounty which would be payable upon the Number of Slaves on board. Where no Slaves are on board a Ship seized, an additional Bounty to be paid.

XVI. And be it enacted, That all Bounties payable under this Act shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make such Seizures under the Provisions of any such Treaties or Conventions, and such Bounties shall be issued and paid by Order from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury. Bounties to be paid out of Consolidated Fund.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the said Bounty, as also all Bounties payable under any of the Acts for the Abolition or Suppression of the Slave Trade, shall not hereafter be charged with Treasury Fees or Exchequer Fees of any Description. Bounties not liable to Payment of Fees.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money the Tonnage of the Ship or Vessel so seized and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by producing a Copy, duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, or by such documentary or other Evidence as they may deem satisfactory. Proof of Tonnage.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money the Number of Men, Women, and Children so taken, delivered over, and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by producing a Copy, duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, and also a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer or Officers, military or civil, who may be appointed to receive such Slaves. Copy of Sentence of Condemnation to be produced to the Commissioners of the Treasury.

XX. And be it enacted, That where any Slaves or Persons treated as Slaves shall be seized on board any British or Equatorian Ship or Vessel taken and condemned in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty and of this Act, but who shall not have been delivered over in consequence of Death, Sickness, or One Moiety of the Bounty only to be paid in certain Cases.

or other inevitable Circumstance, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, by Warrant signed by any Three or more of them, to direct the Payment of One Moiety of the Bounty which would have been due in each Case respectively if the said Slaves had been delivered over.

Parties claiming Benefit under this Act may resort to the Court of Admiralty.

XXI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That any Party or Parties claiming any Benefit by way of Bounty under the Provisions of this Act, or of any Share of the Proceeds of any British or Equatorian Vessel confiscated in pursuance of the Provisions of the aforesaid Treaty, may resort to the High Court of Admiralty for the Purpose of obtaining the Judgment of the said Court in that Behalf; and that it shall be lawful for the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty to determine thereon, and also to hear and determine any Question of joint Capture which may arise upon any Seizure made in pursuance of this Act.

Regulations, &c. as to Prize Agents Accounts extended to Bounties, &c. under this Act.

XXII. And be it enacted, That all the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures, and Penalties respecting the Delivery by Prize Agents of Accounts for Examination, and the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize and the Per-centage due thereon to Greenwich Hospital, shall be extended to all Bounties and Proceeds to be distributed under the Provisions of this Act to the Officers and Crews of any of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Commissioners of the Treasury may order Payment of Costs awarded for Vessels of Her Majesty detained, but not condemned.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel belonging in whole or in part to Subjects of the Republic of the Equator shall have been detained and brought to Adjudication by any Officers of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and the said Ship shall be restored by Sentence of the Court, as is mentioned in the Fifth Article of the Annex B. to the said Treaty, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant signed by any Three or more of them, to direct Payment to be made out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of any Costs or Damages which may be duly awarded according to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Article: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt such Officer from his Liability to make good the Payments so made when lawfully called upon by Order of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Treasury may repay to the Seizor of any Vessel not condemned the Expenses incurred by him.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That when any Seizure shall be made by any of the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make such Seizures under the aforesaid Treaty, and Judgment shall be given against the Seizor, or when such Seizure shall be relinquished by him, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, by Warrant signed by any Three or more of them, to direct Payment to be made out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of such Costs and Expenses as the Seizor may have incurred in respect of such Seizure, or any proportional Part thereof.

CAP. CXVII.

An Act for rendering certain Newspapers published in the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man liable to Postage. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to render certain Newspapers published in the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man liable to Postage:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Postmaster General, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (signified under the Hands of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, or under the Hand of One of their Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries), may from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, charge any Newspapers printed or published in any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and sent by the Post between any of such Islands and Great Britain or Ireland, or sent by the Post in Great Britain or Ireland, with such Rates or Duties of Postage as the Postmaster General, with such Consent as aforesaid, shall think fit, but not exceeding the Rates or Duties to which such Newspapers would be liable if they were Letters sent by the Post; and the Postmaster General may from Time to Time, with such Consent as aforesaid, alter or repeal any such Rates or Duties of Postage, and charge any such Newspapers with any other Rates or Duties of Postage, not exceeding the Rates to which such Newspapers would be liable if they were Letters (or may exempt any such Newspapers from all Duties of Postage), in lieu thereof, and the Rates or Duties of Postage from Time to Time to become chargeable under or by virtue of this Act shall be paid accordingly; and the Monies paid to or received by the Post Office for such Rates or Duties shall form Part of the Revenue of the Post Office.

Newspapers from the Channel Islands or from the Isle of Man to be liable to the Payment of Rates or Duties of Postage.

Act to be deemed a Post Office Act, and Terms to be construed as directed by 3 & 4 Vict. c. 96.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken be a Post Office Act, and that the several Terms and Expressions used in this Act shall be construed according to the respective Interpretations of the Terms and Expressions contained in an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Regulation of the Duties of Postage, so far as those Interpretations are not repugnant to the Subject, or inconsistent with the Context of such Terms and Expressions.

Act may be amended, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXVIII.

An Act to explain and amend the Law as to the Licence required for the letting of Post Horses to Hire in Ireland, and the Law respecting Proceedings for Duties and Penalties under the Post Horse, Stage, and Hackney Carriage Acts in the United Kingdom. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to grant certain Duties of Excise upon Licences for the Sale of Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail, and upon Licences to Persons dealing in exciseable Commodities, in Ireland, in lieu of the Stamp Duties payable upon such Licences, and to secure the Payment of such Excise Duties, and to regulate the issuing of such Licences, and to discourage the immoderate Use of Spirituous Liquors in Ireland, and by the Schedule to that Act annexed, a certain Duty is granted and made payable upon and in respect of Licences to Persons to let to Hire any Horse for the Purpose of travelling Post by the Mile or from Stage to Stage in Ireland; and by an Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to transfer the Collection of the Duty on Licences to let Horses for Hire in Ireland from the Commissioners of Stamps to the Commissioners of Excise, such Duty is placed under the Collection and Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and directed to be denominated and taken to be an Excise Duty: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether such Licence is required to be taken out by every Person who lets any Horse for Hire, whether the same be for the Purpose of travelling Post by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, or otherwise, in Ireland:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Licence in the said Act of the Fifty-fifth Year aforesaid mentioned shall be deemed and taken to have been and to be required to be taken out, and the Duty by that Act granted paid, by every Person who has let or who lets to Hire any Horse in Ireland, and that any Person so having let or letting any Horse in Ireland without such Licence shall be subject to the Penalty of Fifty Pounds imposed by the said Act upon the letting to Hire any Horse for the Purpose of travelling Post by the Mile or from Stage to Stage, and that the Duties of Excise heretofore collected and charged for or in respect of the Licence before mentioned shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully charged on all Persons who have let to Hire any Horse in Ireland, whether the same has been for the Purpose of travelling Post by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, or otherwise, and all Penalties heretofore incurred for or in respect thereof shall be deemed and taken to have been legally incurred (save and except in any Case in which the same has been already determined to the contrary in any Court of Law of competent Jurisdiction), and all such Duties and Penalties (save and except as aforesaid) shall be recovered, paid, and applied as any other Duties or Penalties of Excise due or in arrear may now be recovered, paid, and applied under any Law or Laws of Excise; and the Commissioners of Excise, and their Officers duly authorized to grant Licences, shall be indemnified, freed, and discharged from all Actions, Causes of Action, and Damages for or in respect of any Act heretofore done by them in granting any such Licences.

55 G. 3. c. 19.

7 & 8 Vict. c. 67.

Licences to let Horses to Hire in Ireland, mentioned in recited Act 55 G. 3. c. 19., to be deemed to be taken out by all Persons letting Horses to Hire, under a Penalty of 50*l.*

II. And be it enacted, That all Duties of Excise by the said recited Acts granted, and as by this Act explained, for and in respect of the Licence to let to Hire any Horse in Ireland, and all Penalties imposed by the said Acts upon Persons so letting Horses to Hire without such Licence, and all Duties imposed on Horses let for Hire in Great Britain, and on Licences relating to the same, by an Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps on Stage Carriages and on Horses let for Hire in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, and also to consolidate and amend the Laws relating thereto, and all Duties imposed for and in respect of Stage Carriages, and of Licences for keeping or using the same, and for and in respect of Passengers conveyed upon Railways, by an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties payable on Stage Carriages and on Passengers conveyed upon Railways, and certain other Stamp Duties in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, and also to amend the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties, and all Duties imposed for and in respect of Licences to keep, use, and let to Hire Hackney Carriages within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, by an Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Hackney Carriages, and to Waggons, Carts, and Drays, used in the Metropolis, and to place the Collection of the Duties on Hackney Carriages and on Hawkers and Pedlars in England under the Commissioners of Stamps, all which several Duties are declared by Law to be Duties of Excise, and placed under the Collection and Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and all Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures imposed by the said recited Acts or any of them, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the several Duties or any of them, may, by Order of the Commissioners of Excise, be collected, sued for, recovered, levied, mitigated, paid, and applied as by the said recited Acts or any of them, or by any of the Acts aforesaid, is directed, or by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, and in like Manner, and under the same general or special Powers, Provisions, Regulations, and Directions as to Appeal, and in all other respects, as any other Duties of Excise, or any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures in such respect are directed to be collected, sued for, recovered, levied, mitigated, paid, and applied under an Act of Parliament of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise throughout Great Britain and Ireland, Commissioners may direct Proceedings to be taken for Recovery of the Duties and Penalties levied under 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 120., 5 & 6 Vict. c. 79., 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 22., 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 53., and 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 51.

Ireland, as amended by another Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise, (except so far as the same is afterwards repealed by this Act,) and as amended by any other Act or Acts relating to the Collection and Management of the Duties of Excise, anything in any Act or Acts of Parliament transferring the Collection and Management of the Duties before specified to the Commissioners of Excise to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

So much of 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 51. as is herein recited repealed.

III. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty 'King William the Fourth it is amongst other things enacted, "that every Information for the Recovery '"of any Penalty, or for the Condemnation of any Seizure, shall be exhibited before the Commissioners '"of Excise or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively within Four Calendar Months next after '"the Offence or Offences alleged in such Information shall have been committed, or the Goods, Com-'"modities, Chattels, or Things therein alleged to have been forfeited shall have been seized:" And 'whereas there is no such Limitation of Time to the like Proceedings before Justices directed by the 'said Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth:'

After passing of this Act every Information for Recovery of Penalties, &c. may be brought before the Commissioners of Excise or Justices within Six Months from Commission of Offences.

Be it enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth as is herein-before recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act every Information exhibited by Order of the Commissioners of Excise for the Recovery of any Penalty imposed, or for the Condemnation of any Seizure made as forfeited under or by virtue of any Act or Acts relating to any Duties under the Collection and Management of the Commissioners of Excise or of the Commissioners of Customs may be exhibited before the Commissioners of Excise or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively at any Time within Six Calendar Months after the Offence or Offences alleged in such Information have been committed, or the Goods, Commodities, Chattels, or Things therein alleged to have been forfeited have been seized, and all such Proceedings shall be afterwards had thereupon as by Law directed, anything in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

CAP. CXIX.

An Act to simplify the Forms of Certificates under the Act authorizing the Advance of Money for the Improvement of Land by Drainage in Great Britain. [4th September 1848.]

9 & 10 Vict. c. 101.

10 & 11 Vict. c. 11.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years 'of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize the Advance of Public Money to a limited 'Amount to promote the Improvement of Land in Great Britain and Ireland by Works of Drainage, and 'the said Act was explained and amended by an Act of the last Session of Parliament: And whereas 'Doubts have been entertained whether, in Cases where more than One Certificate for an Advance is 'issued in respect of the same Provisional Certificate under the said Acts, the Specifications of the Lands 'should not be repeated in full in every such Certificate, it is expedient that the Provisions of the said 'Acts as to such Certificates of Advance should be amended and explained as hereafter mentioned:' Be it enacted and declared, therefore, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where more than One Certificate for an Advance under the said Acts or either of them shall be issued in respect of the Works referred to in the same Provisional Certificate, it shall not be necessary in the Second or any subsequent Certificate for an Advance in respect of such Works to specify the Land in respect of which such Advance is to be made, except by way of Reference to the Specification in the First Certificate of Advance as herein-after mentioned, but it shall be sufficient that such Second and every subsequent Certificate shall certify that the Land to be charged in respect of the Advance under such Certificate is the Land which is specified in the First Certificate of Advance in respect of the Works referred to in the same Provisional Certificate, and shall state the Date of such First Certificate, and the Sum which the Commissioners shall have therein certified should be issued.

Lands in Second and subsequent Certificates may be specified by Reference to the First.

Commissioners, with Approval of Treasury, may cancel Certificates, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, where they shall think fit, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, notified by One of their Secretaries by any Memorandum in Writing under the Seal of the Commissioners, to cancel any Certificate for an Advance under the said Acts upon which no Advance shall have been actually made, and thereupon such Certificate shall be wholly void; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to proceed as if no such Certificate had been made or issued.

Where cancelled Certificate shall have been registered in Scotland, Commissioners to deliver a Memorandum of Cancellation, which shall be registered, &c.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any such Certificate which shall have been so cancelled as aforesaid shall have been registered in the General or Particular Register of Sasines in Scotland, the said Commissioners shall and may deliver to the Owner of the Lands, or the Party to whom such Certificate so cancelled as aforesaid was granted, or other Party interested, a Duplicate of the said Memorandum of such Cancellation, and such Owner or Party shall cause the said Memorandum to be duly registered in the General or Particular Register of Sasines in which such cancelled Certificate was registered, and the Keeper of such Register is hereby authorized and required to register the same accordingly, and to grant an Endorsement on the said Memorandum, certifying that the same has been duly registered.

This and recited Act One.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act and the said recited Act shall be construed together as One Act.

Act may be amended, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXX.

An Act to facilitate the Transfer of Landed Property in Ireland. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to afford further Facilities for the Transfer of Landed Property in Ireland, by diminishing the Expense of Registry Searches, and otherwise as herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the Registrar of Deeds and the Registrar of Judgments in Ireland for the Time being shall and they are hereby required, previous to giving out of said Office any Negative Search, to cause a Copy of such Negative Search to be entered on Parchment in Books to be provided for the Purpose, and to be kept in their Offices respectively among the Records thereof.

Registrar of Deeds, &c., previous to giving out any Negative Search, to cause a Copy to be recorded in Registry Office.

II. And be it enacted, That every Book wherein any such Copy of a Negative Search and Certificate as aforesaid shall be entered shall be numbered or otherwise distinguished in some appropriate and convenient Manner, and the Pages of each such Book shall be numbered consecutively, and the Number or other distinctive Mark of every such Book, and the Number or Numbers of the Page or Pages thereof, wherein any such Negative Search and Certificate shall be copied, shall be specified at Foot of the Certificate, signed by the Registrar or Assistant Registrar in manner following; (that is to say,) "Copied in Book, No. Page Number ."

Record Books to be numbered, and Number and Page of Book to be endorsed on original Search.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Registrars for the Time being shall and they are hereby required respectively to cause a sufficient Index or sufficient Indexes to be prepared, in such Form as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, shall from Time to Time direct, to the Books containing the Copies of Searches made pursuant to this Act; and in such Indexes shall be entered in some convenient Manner for Reference, the Name or Names of some One or more of the Persons whose Acts such Negative Search shall relate to; and that the said Registrar of Deeds shall also cause to be prepared another sufficient Index or other sufficient Indexes to the said Books, containing the said Copies of the said Negative Searches, in such Form as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, shall from Time to Time direct, wherein shall be entered, in some convenient Form for Reference, the Name or Names of some One or more of the Denominations of Land mentioned in the Requisition for such Negative Search; and all Persons shall be at liberty to search the said Books on Payment of the Fee mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

Indexes to be provided for the Books containing Copies of Negative Searches.

Power to search Books on Payment of Fee.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person requiring the same shall be entitled to an attested Copy of any Search so recorded as aforesaid, or any Portion thereof, upon Payment of the Fees mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and the Registrar or Assistant Registrar of Deeds and Registrar of Judgments in Ireland for the Time being, upon being furnished with a specific Requisition, shall cause to be delivered to the Person making such Requisition an attested Copy of every such recorded Negative Search, or the Portion thereof in such Requisition mentioned; and all the Penalties and Liabilities to which such Registrars and Assistant Registrars are liable in respect of Fraud, Collusion, or Neglect in making the original Searches and Certificates shall extend to the attested Copies to be given under this Act.

Attested Copies of recorded Searches to be given by Registrar, &c. upon Payment of Fee.

V. And be it enacted, That every such attested Copy of every such recorded Negative Search and Certificate, so signed as aforesaid, shall have the same Force and Effect, and shall be accepted and received in the same Manner and for the same Purposes, as an original Negative Search or Certificate to the same Extent and in the same Terms.

Such Copy to be equivalent to a new Search to the same Extent.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Fees payable to the said Registrar of Deeds and Registrar of Judgments under this Act shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the Fees payable to them under the Acts for the Regulation of their respective Offices, and shall be applied and accounted for according to the Provisions of said Acts.

Fees to be accounted for as under Act for regulating Registry Office.

VII. And whereas by the said Act of the Second and Third Years of His late Majesty King William 'the Fourth, intituled An Act for regulating the Office for registering Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills in 'Ireland, it was provided that alphabetical Indexes of the Names of the Persons and of the Lands 'affected by the Memorials registered in said Office should be made and kept in the Manner and 'according to the Form particularly specified in said Act: And whereas the making of Searches in said 'Office may be facilitated by Alterations in the Form of such Indexes:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them for the Time being, by an Order under their Hands, from Time to Time to make any Alterations in the Forms of the Indexes of Names and Lands directed by said recited Act to be made, and to order that a sufficient Index or Indexes shall be prepared to the several Books in the Office of the said Registrar of Judgments; and from the Time of making any such Order, or from any Time to be specified therein, the said Indexes shall be made and kept in such Manner and Form as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, shall in such Order specify and direct; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, in like Manner to vary or rescind any such Order as aforesaid.

Power to Treasury to alter the Forms of Indexes of Names and Lands directed by 2&3 W. 4. c. 87.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, from Time to Time to order and direct that any Expense which may appear appear to them to be requisite for or to be necessarily and properly incurred in carrying the Purposes of this Act into effect shall be defrayed out of the Balances on the Accounts of the said Registrars in respect of the said Register Offices, or in such other Manner as the said Commissioners shall think fit to direct.

Treasury n direct Exp upon this Act to be paid out of Balances in Registrar's Hands.

Power to demand Fees as specified in the Schedule to this Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That for and in respect of the Entries, Endorsements, Certificates, and other Matters or Acts hereby directed or required to be performed, the Officers discharging said Duties shall respectively be entitled to demand and receive the several Fees specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, which Schedule, and all Directions therein contained, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, by Order under their Hands, from Time to Time to alter and vary the Fees specified in the said Schedule, and to substitute other Fees therefor.

Registrar of Judgments, upon Production of Certificate of Satisfaction of Judgment, to enter Memorandum thereof upon Entry of Registry. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 90. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 105.

X. 'And whereas by an Act made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and 'Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Protection of Purchasers 'against Judgments, Crown Debts, Lis Pendens, and Commissions of Bankruptcy, and for providing 'One Office for the registering of all Judgments in Ireland, and for amending the Laws in Ireland 'respecting Bankrupts and the Limitation of Actions, Provision was made for the Registry in the Office 'created by said Act, and called the "Judgment Office," of all Judgments of the Superior Courts of 'Common Law, and of Crown Bonds and Recognizances, and of all Decrees, Rules, and Orders which, 'under the Provisions of the Act made and passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her 'Majesty, intituled An Act for abolishing Arrests on Mesne Process in Civil Actions, except in certain 'Cases, and for extending the Remedies of Creditors against the Property of Debtors, and for the further 'Amendment of the Law and better Advancement of Justice in Ireland, had the Force and Effect of Judg-'ments of the Superior Courts of Common Law, in order to make same binding as against Purchasers, 'Mortgagees, and Creditors, but no sufficient Provision was made by said recited Act for the Registry in 'said Office of the Satisfaction of Judgments, Crown Bonds or Recognizances, Decrees, Rules, or Orders 'registered therein:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Registrar of Judgments for the Time being shall, upon the Lodgment with him of a Certificate of the Entry of Satisfaction upon the Roll of any Judgment of any of the Superior Courts of Common Law which may have been registered under the said recited Act, or which may appear upon the Books of Revivals and Redocketings which under the Provisions of said recited Act were transferred to said Registrar, signed by the proper Officer of such Superior Court of Common Law, or upon the Lodgment with him of the Certificate of the cancelling or vacate of any Bond or Recognizance to the Crown, signed by the proper Officer in that Behalf, and which Certificate such Officers are hereby authorized and required respectively to give, cause a Memorandum of such Satisfaction, cancelling, or vacate to be subscribed to the Entry of the Registry of such Judgment, or of the Revival or Redocketing thereof, or of such Crown Bond or Recognizance, specifying the Date at which such Satisfaction, cancelling, or vacate appears by such Certificate to have been entered on Record, and shall sign such Memorandum, and shall, if required, endorse upon a Duplicate of such Certificate a Minute, stating that such Memorandum has been entered as aforesaid; and upon every Search made in the said Judgment Office subsequently to the Entry of such Memorandum as aforesaid, whereon such Judgment, Crown Bond or Recognizance shall appear, the Entry of such Memorandum shall be stated.

Court, &c. by whom Decree has been pronounced shall direct Officer to give Certificate thereof, &c.

In case Decree has been registered under 3 & 4 Vict. c. 105., or under 7 & 8 Vict. c. 90., a Memorandum to be annexed to the Entry of Registry.

XI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act every Court, Judge, Commissioner, or other Person by whom any Decree, Rule, or Order has been or shall be pronounced or made, which, under the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, has the Force and Effect of a Judgment, upon its being made to appear to them or him that such Decree, Rule, or Order has been fully performed, complied with, or satisfied, shall direct the proper Officer to give a Certificate thereof, and record the same in his Office; and in case the said Decree, Rule, or Order shall have been or shall be registered under the Provisions of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, or under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, the Registrar of Judgments shall, upon the Lodgment with him of such Certificate, cause a Memorandum thereof to be annexed or subscribed to the Entry of the Registry of such Decree, Rule, or Order, specifying therein the Date of such Certificate, and shall sign such Memorandum, and shall, if required, cause a Minute of the Entry of such Memorandum to be endorsed upon a Duplicate of such Certificate; and in every Search made in the said Judgment Office after the Entry of such Memorandum, whereon such Decree, Rule, or Order shall appear, the Entry of such Memorandum of Satisfaction shall also be stated.

No Judgment, &c. to be registered until Certificate of the Existence of such Judgment, &c. has been lodged with Registrar.

XII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Judgment, Crown Bond or Recognizance, Rule, Decree, Order, or Lis Pendens, shall be registered by the said Registrar of Judgments, pursuant to the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the present Reign, unless and until there shall be subscribed to the Memorandum or Minute by said Act required to be left with said Registrar a Certificate of the Existence of the Judgment, Crown Bond or Recognizance, Rule, Decree, Order, or Lis Pendens, described in said Memorandum or Minute, such Certificate to be signed by the proper Officer of the Court in which such Judgment, Crown Bond or Recognizance, Rule, Decree, Order, or Lis Pendens shall have been entered or obtained; and that the said Registrar of Judgments, upon the Lodgment with him of any such Memorandum or Minute, shall, if required, endorse upon a Duplicate thereof a Certificate of the Lodgment and Entry thereof, for which Certificate no Fee shall be paid to him beyond the Fee authorized by the said Act for such Entry.

Crown Bonds and Recogni-

XIII. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the present Reign Provision 'is made whereby no Bonds or Recognizances to the Crown to be thereafter entered into or passed shall affect

'affect Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as to Purchasers or Mortgagees or Creditors until duly 'registered according to the Directions of the said Act, but no similar Provision is made with respect to 'Obligations to the Crown previously existing: And whereas Bonds and Recognizances to the Crown 'passed or entered into at remote Periods, and filed as of Record in Her Majesty's Courts in Ireland, 'remain in full Force, and operate as Incumbrances on Land, notwithstanding that the Conditions upon 'which they were passed or entered into may have been long since satisfied and performed, and no Claim 'may exist on Foot thereof on the Part of the Crown, and it is expedient to extend the Principle of the 'aforesaid Provision to such Cases, and thereby further facilitate the Transfer of Landed Property:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of January next no Bond or Recognizance to the Crown so filed as of Record in Ireland which shall be more than Twenty Years old from the Date thereof shall affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as to Purchasers or Mortgagees or Creditors, unless and until a Memorandum or Minute, duly authenticated, containing the Name and usual or last known Place of Abode, and the Title, Trade, or Profession, of the Person whose Estate is intended to be affected, the Sum for which such Bonds or Recognizance was passed or entered into, and the Date of the same, shall be left with the Registrar of Judgments, who shall forthwith enter the same Particulars in a Book to be entitled "Re-docketed Crown Bonds and Recognizances," to be kept in alphabetical Order by the Name of the Person whose Estate is intended to be affected by such Bonds or Recognizances; and for every such Entry the said Registrar shall be entitled to the same Fee as is authorized by the said Act for each Entry in the Book intituled "The Index of Debtors and Accountants to the Crown;" and all Persons shall be at liberty to search the said Book, as well as the Books directed by the said Act to be kept by the said Registrar, on Payment of the Fee by the said Act authorized.

Recognizances more than Twenty Years old not to affect Purchasers or Mortgagees, unless redocketed in the Office of Registrar of Judgments.

XIV. 'And whereas by the Operation of this Act the Duties of certain Offices may be diminished, and 'it will therefore be expedient, having regard to Economy, to discontinue them as separate Offices, and 'to provide for the Discharge of such Duties as may remain to be performed:' Be it therefore enacted, That in such Cases the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them for the Time being, shall have Power, if they shall think fit, by their Warrant, after the passing of this Act, to order that a Consolidation of any Office so affected shall take place with some existing Office of the Court to which it belongs; and any Order made as aforesaid for the Regulation of the Business of such Office shall be of as much Force as if it had been specifically enacted herein, and the Officer to whom the Duties as aforesaid shall be so transferred shall have as full Power and Jurisdiction for all official Purposes as were enjoyed or belonged to the Officer whose Duties shall be so transferred.

Power to Treasury to consolidate Offices.

XV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

'it is expedient to repeal all such Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and
'to substitute other Regulations in lieu thereof:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act all the Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign aforesaid which are in force in respect of or in relation to Dealers in and Retailers of Spirits, and which are directed to extend and be applied to, and to be established, observed, executed, and put in force in and throughout Scotland and Ireland respectively, and in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign aforesaid, and all other Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures respecting Dealers in and Retailers of Spirits in any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Excise which are provided for by this Act, or which are repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the Provisions of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except as to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture incurred under the said Acts or any of them by any such Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits before the passing of this Act, which Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture may be recovered, enforced, and applied in the same Manner, and by the same Ways, Means, Powers, and Authorities, as if this Act had not been passed.

So much of recited Acts as relate to Dealers in and Retailers of Spirits, and all other Acts repugnant hereto, repealed.

Act not to affect former Provisions respecting Licences or Certificates or Regulations of Police respecting Retailers of Spirits, or the Removal of Spirits by Permit from the Distiller or Rectifier, or between the Three Parts of the United Kingdom.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to affect any Excise Licence required to be taken out by any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits in any Part of the United Kingdom, or any Duties of Excise in such respect (except so far as the same are otherwise specially provided for by this Act), or the Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures in force in respect of any such Licence, or in respect of any Certificate, to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, or any other Certificate, Notice, or Authority required to be produced before an Excise Licence can be obtained for the Sale of Spirits by Retail to be drunk or consumed in or upon the House or Premises where sold, or in respect of the Sale of Spirits, or the carrying on of the Business of a Retailer of Spirits, so far as the same is made subject to certain Laws, Regulations, and Provisions of Police, or the Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures under or by virtue of which any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits is required not to receive or knowingly suffer to be received into his Stock, Custody, or Possession, or to suffer any Person for him, or for his Use, or on his Account, to receive, any Spirits without the same being accompanied by a true and lawful Permit, so far as relates to the receiving of Spirits by such Dealers or Retailers from the Stock, Custody, or Possession of the Distiller or Rectifier thereof, or from any other Person not being a licensed Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits sending out such Spirits with a true and lawful Certificate as after mentioned, or from a public Sale of Spirits condemned and sold under the Direction of the Commissioners of Excise or Customs, or the Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures under which Spirits made in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively may be shipped or carried, conveyed or removed, from England to Scotland or Ireland, or from Scotland to England or Ireland, or from Ireland to England or Scotland; all which Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures shall be and remain in full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes.

Entry to be made of Premises.

III. And be it enacted, That every Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits shall make a true and particular Entry in Writing, to be signed by such Dealer or Retailer, of every Building, Room, or other Place intended to be used by him in or for the keeping of Spirits, and of every Vessel or Utensil, and of all standing or fixed Casks used or intended to be used by him in or for the keeping of any Spirits; and every such Entry shall be made by delivering the same to the proper Officer of Excise; and every such Building, Room, Place, Vessel, Utensil, and Cask shall be distinguished by a particular Letter or Number, and shall be described in such Entry by a corresponding Letter or Number; and every such Building, Room, and Place shall be open to the Entry and Inspection of any Officer of Excise, as directed by an
7 & 8 G. 4. c. 53. Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise throughout Great Britain and Ireland, and by an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His late
4 & 5 W. 4. c. 51. Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise; and every Dealer in and Retailer of Spirits shall be subject to the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures imposed by the said recited Acts, and by an Act passed in the Fourth
4 & 5 Vict. c. 20. Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to alter and amend certain Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Duties of Excise, for every Default in observing any of the Particulars aforesaid; and the said Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and all Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Matters, and Things, in the said recited Acts, or any of them, so far as the same are applicable to this Act, shall be applied to the several Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Matters, and Things contained in this Act as fully and effectually as if the same had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

IV. And

Fixed Casks used by Dealers or Retailers to to have Contents cut, &c. thereon, under Penalty of 50*l.*

IV. And for enabling the Officers of Excise the more readily to take account of Dealers and Retailers Stocks of Spirits as in this Act after mentioned, be it enacted, That upon every standing or fixed Cask used by any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits for holding or keeping any Spirits in stock, its full Measure in Gallons, or the Quantity of Liquor it is capable of containing, shall be legibly painted, cut, or branded on some conspicuous Part thereof, upon pain that the Dealer or Retailer in whose Custody or Possession any Cask so used is found, not having such full Measure thereof painted, cut, or branded thereon as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every such Default as aforesaid.

Dealers and Retailers to mark the true Strength and Quantity of compounded Spirits on the Casks.

V. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Strength of any Part of the Stock of Spirits of any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits, by being mixed or compounded with any Sugar, Syrup, Seeds, Fruit, or any other Ingredients or Materials, cannot be ascertained by Sykes' Hydrometer, every such Dealer or Retailer shall, immediately on being required so to do by any Officer of Excise, cause the true Quantity and Degree of Strength of such Spirits to be legibly marked on the Outside of the Cask or Casks or Vessel or Vessels containing the same respectively; and if the Quantity and Strength of any such Spirits is found to be untruly marked as aforesaid, or if any such Dealer or Retailer, upon being required by any Officer of Excise, refuses or neglects immediately to mark the Quantity and Strength of such Spirits as aforesaid, all such Spirits, Syrup, Seeds, Fruit, and other Ingredients, together with the Casks and Vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and every such Dealer or Retailer shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of Fifty Pounds: Provided always, that no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be incurred by any Dealer or Retailer who marks on any such Cask of Compounds as the Strength of the Spirits therein contained the Strength expressed in the Permit or Certificate with which the same were received by such Dealer or Retailer into his Stock, no Alteration having been since made therein.

True Content to be cut, branded, or painted on movable Casks, under pain of Forfeiture.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits shall cause to be legibly cut, branded, or painted on the Outside of both of the Heads or Ends of each rolling or movable Cask used by him for keeping or delivering out Spirits, and shall at all Times keep thereon so cut, branded, or painted, the full and true Number of Gallons which every such Cask is capable of containing; and every such Cask which is found containing Spirits without the full and true Number of Gallons which the same is capable of containing being so cut, branded, or painted thereon, together with the Spirits contained therein, shall be forfeited.

Penalty on Retailer sending out Spirits to a Rectifier, and on Dealer selling less than Two Gallons.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Retailer of Spirits, not being entered and licensed also as a Dealer in Spirits, who sells, sends out, or delivers any Spirits to any Rectifier or Compounder of or Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits, shall incur the Penalty of Fifty Pounds; and every Dealer in Spirits, not being entered and licensed also as a Retailer of Spirits, who sells, sends out, or delivers any Spirits in a less Quantity than Two Gallons of Spirits of the same Denomination at a Time to the same Person, shall incur the like Penalty: Provided always, that no such Penalty shall be incurred for or in respect of any Foreign or Colonial Spirits so sold whilst the same remain in the proper Warehouse of the Customs in which the same have been deposited on the due Importation thereof.

Retailer not to be a Distiller within Two Miles of his Premises, which must not communicate with a Distillery, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That no Retailer of Spirits shall be a Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits, or be in any Manner interested or concerned in the Trade or Business of a Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits, at any Premises within Two Miles of the Place at which he is entered or licensed to carry on the Business of a Retailer of Spirits; and no Person shall be licensed as a Retailer of Spirits in any House or Premises having any Communication or Way internally or through any inclosed or private Yard, Field, Passage, or private Road or Place with any House or Premises entered or used by any Distiller or Rectifier of Spirits; and if any such Retailer of Spirits is a Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits, or is in any Manner interested or concerned in such Trade or Business contrary to this Act, and if any Person is licensed as a Retailer of Spirits in any House or Premises contrary to this Act, he shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds.

Dealers in Spirits may take out a Licence to retail Foreign Liqueurs. 6 G. 4. c. 81.

IX. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act any Person duly licensed as a Dealer in Spirits under an Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal several Duties payable on Excise Licences in Great Britain and Ireland, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to amend the Laws for granting Excise Licences, may take out an additional Licence authorizing such Person to sell by Retail any Quantity (the same not being less than One reputed Quart Bottle, or in the Bottles in which the same may have been imported) of Foreign Liqueurs, not to be drunk or consumed upon the Premises.

Duty on additional Licence to be 2*l.* 2*s.*, to be under the Excise.

X. And be it enacted, That for every such additional Licence there shall be paid an annual Duty of Excise of Two Pounds Two Shillings, which said Duty shall be under the Collection and Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and shall be raised, recovered, paid, and accounted for in the same Manner, and under the same Enactments, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as other Licence Duties under the Collection and Management of the Commissioners of Excise are raised, recovered, paid, and accounted for.

Licence to be in such Form as the Commissioners of Excise direct, and to be granted by the Officers of Excise.

XI. And be it enacted, That every such Licence shall be in such Form and shall contain such Particulars as the Commissioners of Excise may direct, and shall be signed, granted, and issued by the proper Officers of Excise duly authorized to grant Licences; and every such Licence shall continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Fifth Day of July following, on which Day every such Licence shall expire, and shall be renewed if the same Business is carried on; and all the Enactments, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign aforesaid shall apply to and be in force in respect of the said additional Licence in the same Manner as if the same had been one of the Licences originally included in that Act.

Every Dealer and Retailer to provide a Book for entering therein the Particulars of Spirits received and sent out by him.

XII. And be it enacted, That every Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits shall provide himself with a Book prepared according to a Pattern to be given to him on his Application for it to the proper Officer of Excise in whose Division or Ride the Premises of such Dealer or Retailer are situated; and every such Dealer or Retailer shall, on the same Day on which he receives any Spirits into his Stock, Custody, or Possession, or at such Time on that Day as he is requested to do so by any Officer of Excise authorized to take an Account of his Stock, write and enter in such Book, and in the proper Columns prepared for such Purposes respectively, the Date when, and the Christian and Surname of the Person or the Name of the Firm from whom, and of what Place, such Spirits were received, the Number of Gallons, and the Kind or Quality of such Spirits, and the Strength thereof; and every such Dealer or Retailer shall also, on the same Day on which he sends out of his Stock, Custody, or Possession any Spirits in a Quantity requiring a Certificate as after mentioned, or at such Time afterwards as aforesaid, write and enter in like Manner in the said Book the Day when sent, and the Christian and Surname of the Person or the Name of the Firm, and of what Place, to whom such Spirits are sent, the Number of Gallons, and the Kind or Quality of such Spirits, and the Strength thereof; and every such Book shall at all Times be kept in some public and open Place of the entered Premises of such Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits for the Inspection of such Officers of Excise as aforesaid, and every such Officer of Excise may examine such Book, and take any Extract therefrom; and every such Book, after it has been filled up as aforesaid, shall be preserved by the Dealer or Retailer by whom the same has been filled up for a Period of not less than Twelve Months, and during such Time shall be produced by such Dealer or Retailer to every such Officer of Excise demanding the same; and if any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits refuses or neglects to provide any such Book, or to make or cause to be made due Entries therein as aforesaid, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or fraudulently cancels, alters, obliterates, or destroys any Part of such Book or any Entry therein, or makes any false Entry therein, or hinders or obstructs any such Officer of Excise from or in examining such Book, or making any Minute therein, or taking any Extract therefrom, or if any such Book is not preserved or is not produced by such Dealer or Retailer as herein-before directed, every such Dealer or Retailer shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of One hundred Pounds.

All Spirits sold by Dealers to be accompanied by a Certificate, and so also by Retailers when the Quantity exceeds One Gallon.

XIII. And be it enacted, That a Certificate Book, prepared with proper printed Forms for such Purposes as herein-after mentioned, shall be delivered by the proper Officer of Excise to every Dealer in and to every Retailer of Spirits who requests the same, in Writing, of such Officer; and every such Dealer or Retailer, on Receipt of such Book, shall acknowledge the same in Writing, under such Request as aforesaid, or as the Commissioners of Excise may direct; and no Spirits whatever shall be sold, sent out, or delivered from the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Dealer in Spirits, and no Spirits exceeding the Quantity of One Gallon of Spirits of the same Denomination at a Time, for the same Person, shall be sold, sent out, or delivered from the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Retailer of Spirits, without a Certificate filled up, and cut out progressively from the printed Forms contained in such Book, and signed by the Dealer or Retailer selling, sending out, or delivering such Spirits, or by some Person on his Behalf, with the Addition to his Signature of his Occupation (whether Dealer or Retailer), certifying the Person from whom, the Place from whence, the Day and Hour of the Day when sent out or delivered, the Number of Casks or other Packages in which such Spirits are sent out, the Number of Gallons and Kind or Quality and Strength of such Spirits, the Christian and Surname of the Person or the Name of the Firm to whom sold, and the Place to which, and the Conveyance by which, the same are to be sent; and every such Dealer or Retailer, before such Certificate is cut from its Counterpart, shall make a corresponding Entry in such Counterpart of the same Particulars as are stated in the Certificate, and every such Certificate shall accompany such Spirits on the Removal thereof, and shall be delivered to the Person to whom such Spirits are sold, sent out, or delivered; and every Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits shall keep the said Certificate Book in some public and open Part of his entered Premises for the Inspection of the Officers of Excise; and when such Certificate Book is completely used by filling up the same as aforesaid, or when demanded by the proper Officer, every such Dealer or Retailer shall return the same to the proper Officer of Excise, who shall give a Receipt for the same, and, if requested as aforesaid, shall thereupon deliver to him a new Certificate Book, to be acknowledged and kept by him as aforesaid; and every Dealer in Spirits who sells, sends out, or delivers any Spirits without such Certificate as aforesaid, and every Retailer of Spirits who sells or sends out any Spirits exceeding the Quantity of One Gallon of Spirits of the same Denomination at a Time, for the same Person, without such Certificate as aforesaid, and every Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits who does not make a corresponding Entry in the Counterpart of such Certificate as aforesaid, or who does not keep or return such Book as aforesaid, or who hinders or obstructs any Officer of Excise in examining such Book, or making any Minute therein or Extract therefrom, or who fraudulently cancels, alters, obliterates, or destroys any Part of such Book, or any Entry therein, or who makes any false Entry therein, shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, and all Spirits sent out or delivered as aforesaid without such Certificate shall be forfeited: Provided always, that no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be incurred for or by reason of the Strength of the Spirits not agreeing with the Certificate accompanying the same, if the Strength of the Spirits is not more than One per Centum above or Two per Centum below the Strength of the Spirits expressed in such Certificate.

Dealers under additional Licence may send out not

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or construed to require any licensed Dealer in Spirits taking out such additional Licence to retail Foreign Liqueurs as in this Act mentioned to send out or deliver such Foreign Liqueurs with such Certificate as aforesaid, aforesaid, if the Quantity of Foreign Liqueurs so sent out does not at any One Time exceed the Quantity of One Gallon, and such Liqueurs are not sent to the Stock of any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits.

exceeding One Gallon without Certificate.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits fills up and cuts out from any Certificate Book delivered to him as aforesaid any Certificate as for the Removal of Spirits from his own Stock, and sells, lends, delivers, employs, or makes use of such Certificate, or causes or suffers such Certificate to be sold, lent, delivered, employed, or made use of, for any other Purpose whatsoever than to accompany the actual Removal and Delivery of such Spirits as are therein expressed, or sells, lends, or delivers any Certificate cut out from such Book as aforesaid, but not filled up, to any Person whatever, or if any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits, or any other Person, buys, borrows, or receives any Certificate, whether filled up or not, and uses the same, so that any Account of Spirits kept or checked by any Officer of Excise, or any Examination of Spirits by any Officer authorized to demand the Production of the Certificate accompanying such Spirits, is or may be frustrated and evaded, then and in every such Case every such Dealer or Retailer or other Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and every Person having any Licence to deal in, retail, or sell Spirits shall, upon being convicted of any such Offence as aforesaid, forfeit every such Licence, and no new Excise Licence shall be granted to such Person so convicted for the Remainder of the current Year of any Licence so forfeited.

Penalty for using Certificate for any Purpose other than the due Removal of Spirits.

XVI. And be it enacted, That no Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits shall receive any Spirits which are not accompanied by a true and lawful Permit or Certificate as the same are respectively by this Act or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament required; and immediately on receiving any such Permit or Certificate every such Dealer or Retailer shall cancel the same by writing in large Letters in Ink across such Permit or Certificate, or in the Space prepared for that Purpose, the Word "Received," and the Day and Hour when received, or shall otherwise permanently cancel such Permit or Certificate by Lines drawn in Ink across the same, so as to prevent its being again used for the Removal of Spirits; and every Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits who receives any Spirits without the same being accompanied by a true and lawful Permit or Certificate as by this Act or any other Act or Acts of Parliament required shall incur the Penalty of One hundred Pounds; and all such Spirits, or an equal Quantity of Spirits of a like Kind, to be taken out of any Part of his Stock, shall be forfeited; and every Dealer in and Retailer of Spirits receiving any such Permit or Certificate as aforesaid who does not cancel the same as aforesaid shall incur the Penalty of Fifty Pounds.

No Dealer or Retailer to receive any Spirits without Permit or Certificate, and the same to be cancelled on Receipt thereof.

XVII. And be it enacted, That all Permits and Certificates received with any Spirits by any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits shall be preserved after being cancelled as aforesaid, and delivered by such Dealer or Retailer to the Officer of Excise who first inspects his Premises after the Receipt thereof; and if any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits receives any Permit or Certificate with Spirits, and does not preserve or deliver the same to such Officer as aforesaid, he shall incur the Penalty of Fifty Pounds for every such Permit or Certificate: Provided always, that no such Penalty shall be incurred if the Permit or Certificate has been lost or destroyed after the Expiry of Three Months from the Date thereof.

Permits and Certificates to be delivered to the Officer.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Certificate Book, prepared with proper printed Forms of Certificates, which by this Act is directed to be delivered by the proper Officer of Excise to every Dealer in and to every Retailer of Spirits who requests the same in Writing of such Officer, shall be printed on Paper provided under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Second Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws regulating the granting and issuing of Permits for the Removal of Goods under the Laws of Excise, to be used in Great Britain and Ireland for Permits, under and subject to the same Enactments, Rules, Regulations, Exceptions, Pains, and Penalties as is or are in the said Act contained for or in respect of the same Paper when used by the Commissioners of Excise for Permits; and the said Commissioners shall cause to be provided Plates engraved with such Marks, Stamps, Numbers, or Devices, which they may afterwards alter, as to them seems meet, and shall also cause to be provided Types cast in any particular Form that they think proper for the printing, stamping, and marking the said Paper for such Certificates; and the said Plates shall be engraven and Types cast by such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners for that Purpose authorize or appoint, and the said Plates so engraven, and the Types so cast, shall be kept by such Officer or other Person as the said Commissioners authorize or appoint; and every Person not being so authorized or appointed by the said Commissioners who engraves, casts, cuts, or makes, or causes or procures to be engraven, cast, cut, or made, or aids or assists in engraving, casting, cutting or making, any Plate or Type made or used by the Direction of the said Commissioners for the Purpose of marking or printing the Paper to be used for Certificates, and every Person (except as aforesaid) who knowingly has in his Custody or Possession, without lawful Excuse (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused), any such Plate or Type, shall for every such Offence be adjudged guilty of the like Offence, and shall suffer Punishment accordingly, as by the said Act of the Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth is provided for and enacted in respect of any Person adjudged guilty of a similar Offence for and in respect of the Plates or Types provided by the said Commissioners for the printing of Permits; and every Person who counterfeits or forges, or causes or procures to be counterfeited or forged, or assists in counterfeiting or forging, any such Certificate as aforesaid, or any Part of any such Certificate, or counterfeits any Impression, Mark, or Stamp, Number or Device, provided or appointed by the said Commissioners to be put on such Certificate, or who utters, gives, or makes use of any counterfeited or forged Certificate, knowing the same or any Part thereof to be counterfeited or forged, or who utters, gives, or makes use of any such Certificate with any such counterfeited Impression, Commissioners to provide Plates and Types for printing Certificates on Paper used for Permits. 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 16.

Unauthorized Persons counterfeiting or having counterfeit Plates or Types or Impressions to be subject to like Punishment as in recited Act.

sion, Mark, or Stamp, Number or Device, knowing the same to be counterfeited, and every Person who knowingly or willingly accepts or receives any counterfeited or forged Certificate, or any Certificate with any such counterfeited Impression, Mark, or Stamp, Number or Device thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, shall for every such Offence be adjudged guilty of the like Offence, and shall suffer Punishment accordingly, as by the said Act of the Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth is provided for and enacted in respect of every Person adjudged guilty of a similar Offence for and in respect of the Plates or Types provided by the said Commissioners for the printing of Permits: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause the Paper to be used for the printing of Permits under the said Act of the Second Year of the Reign aforesaid, or to be used for the printing of Certificates under this Act, to be made of such Quality or Texture, or with such Letters, Figures, Marks, or Devices visible in the Substance of such Paper, as the said Commissioners may direct, without such Paper having the Words "Excise Office" visible in the Substance thereof; and all Paper so made and used shall be subject to the same Enactments, Rules, Regulations, Exceptions, Pains, and Penalties as is or are contained in the said recited Act for and in respect of the Paper to be provided as directed by that Act.

Bulk not to be broken until One Hour after Receipt of Spirits.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits receiving any Spirits in any less Quantity than a Cask containing Fifty Gallons shall break Bulk or draw off any Part thereof, or add any Water or anything thereto, or in any respect alter the same, or tap any of the Casks so received, or alter or change any of the Packages containing any Spirits, or the Spirits therein removed, until One Hour after such Spirits have been received by him, under pain of forfeiting such Spirits and the Penalty of Fifty Pounds.

Stock may be taken by Supervisor, and Excess forfeited.

XX. And be it enacted, That any Officer of Excise of not less Rank than a Supervisor of Excise may at any Time take or cause to be taken by any other Officer of Excise in his Presence an Account of the Quantity of all Spirits in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits; and if it be found that the Quantity of Spirits remaining in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of such Dealer or Retailer exceeds the Quantity which appears to the Credit of such Dealer or Retailer on balancing the Book by this Act before directed to be kept by him of all Spirits received into and sent out of his Stock, Custody, or Possession, (such Spirits, and all Spirits entered in such Book, and all Spirits in the Stock of such Dealer or Retailer, being for that Purpose computed at Proof,) such Excess shall be deemed and taken to be Spirits illegally received; and a Quantity of Spirits equal to such Excess may be seized out of any Part of the Stock of such Dealer or Retailer by any Officer of Excise; and the Dealer or Retailer in whose Stock, Custody, or Possession such Excess is found shall forfeit the Penalty of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of such Excess; and every Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits who does not, when required by any Officer of Excise authorized to take an Account of his Stock, by a sufficient Number of his Servants aid and assist such Officer in taking such Account as aforesaid, shall incur the Penalty of Fifty Pounds: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise, without the Presence of such Supervisor, to enter into any Part of the entered Premises of any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits, and to examine and take Samples of any Spirits in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of such Dealer or Retailer, paying for such Samples the usual Price thereof.

Persons licensed as Dealers and Rectifiers of Spirits on the same or adjoining Premises to be surveyed as Rectifiers.

XXI. And be it enacted, That when any Person is licensed as a Dealer in Spirits and also as a Rectifier of Spirits at the same Time, and in the same or in any adjoining Premises, such Person shall not be surveyed as a Dealer in Spirits under this Act, except with the Consent of the Commissioners of Excise, and under and subject to such further Rules and Regulations as they may in that Behalf appoint; and the Account of all Spirits in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any such Person, except as aforesaid, whether in the Premises entered by him as a Dealer in Spirits, or in the Premises entered by him as a Rectifier of Spirits, shall be kept as the Stock of a Rectifier of Spirits, and taken account of by any Officer of Excise; and all Spirits sold or sent out from any Part of such Stock, whether from the one Premises or the other, shall be sent out as by a Rectifier of Spirits, and by Permit, under and subject to the Provisions and Enactments, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, now by Law applicable to Rectifiers of Spirits, and to Spirits sent out from the Stock, Custody, or Possession of a Rectifier of Spirits, anything in this or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

No Spirits to be purchased except from licensed Traders.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits receives or buys, or procures or employs any Person to receive or buy, any Spirits from any Person or Persons whomsoever, except a licensed Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits, or a licensed Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits, whose Name is painted over the outward Door of his entered Premises, in the Manner required by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, or at some public Sale of Spirits sold under the Direction of the Commissioners of Excise or Customs, every such Dealer or Retailer so offending shall incur the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds: Provided always, that no such Penalty shall be incurred for or by reason of any such Dealer or Retailer receiving or buying any Foreign or Colonial Spirits from the proper Warehouse of the Customs in which the same have been deposited, on the due Importation thereof, or receiving or buying any British Spirits from any Warehouse of Excise in which the same have been deposited before Payment of Duty, or whilst the same are lying openly on the Quays on which such last-mentioned Spirits have been lawfully landed on due Removal thereof from one Part of the United Kingdom to another, and from a licensed Dealer in such last-mentioned Spirits.

Strength at which British

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits shall receive or keep in or send out from his Stock, Custody, or Possession any British Spirits, except Spirits of Wine, of any Strength exceeding exceeding the Strength at which licensed Distillers and Rectifiers of Spirits can send out Spirits of the like Denomination from their Stock, Custody, or Possession, or any Spirits of Wine of any less Strength than the Strength of Forty-three per Centum above Hydrometer Proof, on pain of forfeiting all Spirits, and the Casks and Packages containing the same, received, kept, or sent out contrary hereto.

Spirits may be kept and sent out of Stock.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That no Spirits of any Kind whatever exceeding the Quantity of One Gallon of Spirits at a Time, of the same Denomination, for the same Person, shall be removed from any one Part or Place in the United Kingdom to any other Part or Place thereof, without a true and lawful Certificate of the proper Officer of Customs, if the Spirits be removed from a Customs Warehouse, (unless the same be under Bond on Removal from one such Warehouse to another Warehouse,) or without a true and lawful Certificate from a Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits, if the Spirits be removed from the Stock of such Trader, or without a true and lawful Permit if the Spirits be removed from the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any other Person, or from any Excise Warehouse; and all such Spirits found removing or removed without such Permit or Certificate accompanying or having accompanied the same on the last Removal thereof (unless the same be under Bond as aforesaid) shall be forfeited; and every Person in whose Custody or Possession the same are found shall incur the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, or Treble the Value of such Spirits, at the Election of the Commissioners of Excise or Customs.

All Spirits exceeding One Gallon to be removed by Permit or Certificate, otherwise Penalty and Forfeiture.

XXV. And be it enacted, That any Officer of Excise or Customs, or of the Revenue Police in Ireland, and any Officer of the Peace, having a Commission from the Commissioners of Excise, may stop or detain any Person or Persons found carrying or removing any Spirits in any Part of the United Kingdom, and may demand the Production of the Permit or Certificate accompanying such Spirits, and such Officer may endorse on such Permit or Certificate the Time, Hour, and Place of such Examination; and if any Spirits exceeding the Quantity of One Gallon of Spirits of the same Denomination at a Time for the same Person are found removing without a true and lawful Permit or Certificate accompanying the same, or if any Person found removing Spirits in such Quantity and in such Circumstances as by Law render it necessary that such Spirits should be accompanied by a Permit or Certificate refuses to produce such Permit or Certificate immediately on the Production thereof being demanded as aforesaid, every such Person so offending shall incur the Penalty of One hundred Pounds; and every such Officer is authorized and required to arrest and detain every such Person, and to convey him before One or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Person is arrested; and every such Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine, as soon afterwards as practicable, the Charge against any Person so arrested, and on the Confession of such Person, or on Proof upon Oath by One or more credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace is and are hereby authorized to administer), to convict every such Person in such Penalty as aforesaid; and no such Penalty shall be mitigated by any such Justice below the Sum of Ten Pounds; and every Person so convicted shall immediately on such Conviction pay down into the Hands of such Officer, or (if an Officer of the Peace) into the Hands of the Clerk of such Justice or Justices, for the Order and Direction of the Commissioners of Excise, the said Penalty; and if any Person so convicted does not forthwith pay down such Penalty, such Justice or Justices is and are hereby required, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, to commit such Person to any Gaol or Prison of the County, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of not exceeding Six Calendar Months nor less than One Calendar Month, unless such Penalty is sooner paid.

Persons removing Spirits in any Quantity exceeding One Gallon in any Part of the United Kingdom, and refusing to produce a proper Permit or Certificate, may be arrested, convicted, and on Nonpayment of the Penalty imprisoned for not more than Six or less than One Calendar Month.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That all Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Excise which are applicable to this Act, and are not expressly provided for therein, and are not repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the Provisions thereof, shall be enforced, used, and applied to and for the Purposes of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Former Provisions and Penalties of Excise not inconsistent herewith applied to this Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed or incurred shall be prosecuted, sued for, recovered, and applied as any other Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under or by virtue of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Excise, and as by this Act afterwards directed respecting the Distribution of such Penalties and Forfeitures.

Penalties, &c. of this Act recoverable under Laws of Excise.

XXVIII. 'And whereas Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under or by virtue of the Acts of 'Parliament relating to the Revenue of Excise are, after Deduction therefrom of all Costs and Expenses 'relating thereto, directed to be distributed in One Moiety, or Part, or in the whole, to the Officer or 'Officers of Excise or the Person or Persons who discovers, informs, or sues for the same:' Be it enacted, That no Part of any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred under or by virtue of any Act of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Excise to be hereafter recovered shall be distributed or paid to any Officer or Officers of Excise, but all (if any) Parts of such Penalty or Forfeiture which would have been payable to any Officer of Excise if this Act had not been passed shall be deemed and taken to have been recovered to the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors.

Officer of Excise to have no Interest in Penalties or Forfeitures under any Law of Excise.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Commencement of Act.

XXX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. CXXII.

An Act to amend the Laws respecting the Warehousing of British Spirits in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, and to permit Spirits made from Malt only, and Spirits made from Malt and other Grain, and Rectified Spirits, to be exported on Drawback from any Part of the United Kingdom; and respecting certain Spirit Mixtures, and the Removal of Goods subject to Excise Regulations from Customs Warehouse. [4th September 1848.]

6 G. 4. c. 80. 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 72.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties payable in respect of Spirits distilled in England, and of Licences for distilling, rectifying, or compounding such Spirits, and for the Sale of Spirits, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to provide other Regulations for the Collection of the said Duties, and for the Sale of Spirits, and for the Warehousing of such Spirits, without Payment of Duty, for Exportation, every Distiller in England is permitted to warehouse for Exportation only, or for Removal to Scotland or Ireland, any Spirits distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller, without Payment of the Duty of Excise thereon, according to the Provisions of the said Act, and of an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to impose countervailing Duties of Excise on Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, and Commodities made from or with Spirits removed from Ireland to England or Scotland, or from Scotland to England, and to grant countervailing Drawbacks on the Removal of the same, to repeal the additional Duties of Excise on Licences to Retailers of Spirits in the United Kingdom, and to alter the Laws relating to Distillers and Retailers of Spirits, and under and subject to such further Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise may from Time to Time order or direct: And whereas it is expedient to extend the same Provisions to the warehousing of such Spirits for Home Consumption in England as it is now permitted to be done by Law in Scotland and Ireland:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act every licensed Distiller in England may warehouse for Home Consumption any Spirits distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller without Payment of the Duty of Excise charged thereon according to the Provisions of the said Acts, and of this Act, and under and subject to the Payment of the full Duty of Excise payable on British Spirits distilled in England before any such Spirits are delivered out of any such Warehouse for Consumption in England, in like Manner as such Duty is directed to be paid by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty George the Fourth before any such Spirits are delivered out of any such Warehouse for Removal for Consumption in Scotland or Ireland, and under and subject to such other Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise may make in that respect.

Power for licensed Distillers in England to warehouse Spirits for Home Consumption, without Payment of the Duty till delivered out.

II. And be it enacted, That all Spirits distilled and warehoused without Payment of Duty in any Warehouse approved of by the Commissioners of Excise in any one Part of the United Kingdom under the Provisions, Enactments, Rules, and Regulations in force in such respect may, at the Desire and Risk of the Distiller thereof, and on Payment of the Duties on all Deficiencies found before the Removal thereof, (or if such Warehouse be a general Warehouse, as herein-after described, and the Spirits have been transferred therein from the Distiller to a Purchaser as after mentioned, then at the Desire and Risk of such Proprietor, and upon Payment of the Duties on all Deficiencies found in the Spirits so transferred before the Removal thereof,) be removed for Home Consumption, or for Exportation, or for the Purpose of being shipped as Stores, under such Security and Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise from Time to Time order or direct in respect thereof, from the Warehouse in which the same are warehoused to any other Warehouse approved of by the Commissioners of Excise in any other Part or Place of the United Kingdom, there to be warehoused in the Name of the Distiller thereof, or of the Proprietor thereof, if transferred as aforesaid, anything in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and all such Spirits, when so removed and re-warehoused, shall be dealt with in all respects as if the same had been distilled in the Country to which the same are removed.

Spirits warehoused in one Part of the United Kingdom may be removed to another upon Payment of Duties for all Deficiencies, for Home Consumption, for Exportation, or for Ship's Stores.

III. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Excise may appoint any general Warehouse or Warehouses in any Part or Place of the United Kingdom, for the Deposit therein of British Spirits warehoused without Payment of Duty for Home Consumption, or for Exportation, or for Use as Ships Stores, under such Security by Bond from the Proprietor or Tenant of such Warehouse, for the Payment of the Duties on all Spirits to be deposited therein, in such penal Sum and subject to such Condition and with One or more sufficient Sureties as the said Commissioners may require, and under such other Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners may make in that respect; and every licensed Distiller of any British Spirits may, under the Laws and Regulations in that respect, warehouse without Payment of Duty any Spirits distilled and removed by him either direct from his Distillery or from any other Warehouse in any such general Warehouse for all or any of the Purposes aforesaid, there to be entered and deposited by such Distiller in his Name in a Book to be kept by the proper Officer of Excise in charge of such Warehouse, in such Manner and Form as the Commissioners of Excise may direct; and the said Commissioners may at any Time revoke their Approval of any such Warehouse, in which Case all Spirits then deposited in any such Warehouse shall be removed therefrom as directed by the said Commissioners, and no other British Spirits shall be warehoused therein as aforesaid.

Commissioners of Excise may appoint general Warehouses under Bond, in which any Distiller may warehouse British Spirits.

IV. And

IV. And be it enacted, That any Distiller of any Spirits distilled and warehoused by him in any such general Warehouse, and there entered and deposited in his Name as aforesaid, may sell and transfer the same to a Purchaser in such Warehouse, upon giving Six Days Notice in Writing of his Intention so to do to the Collector of Excise, in whose Collection the Distillery of such Distiller is situated; and upon due Notice being given as aforesaid, and no Objection made to such Sale and Transfer by the Collector, or by any Person on behalf of the Commissioners of Excise, within such Six Days, it shall be lawful for such Distiller to complete the Sale by entering into a written Agreement of Sale, to be duly signed by the Parties, or by a written Contract of Sale, made, executed, and delivered by a Broker or other Person legally authorized for or on behalf of the Parties respectively; and the Officer of Excise in charge of such Warehouse shall thereupon forthwith transfer and enter the Spirits so sold and deposited in the Name of the Distiller to the Name of the Purchaser in the Book kept by such Officer for that Purpose as aforesaid, in such Manner and Form as the Commissioners of Excise may direct; and all such Spirits shall, from and after such Transfer, be discharged and released from all Claim for or in respect of any Duties, Penalties, or Forfeitures to which the Distiller by whom such Sale has been made is liable, anything in this or in any other Act of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that no such Spirits shall be delivered out of any such Warehouse for Home Consumption until Payment of the full Duties of Excise chargeable thereon, nor shall any such Spirits be removed from such Warehouse for any Purpose until such Duties are charged and paid on all Deficiencies found therein before the Removal thereof.

Spirits deposited in a general Warehouse may be transferred on Notice and Sale from the Distiller to a Purchaser, and there entered, and kept in Name of Purchaser, who shall be liable to the Duty.

Spirits not to be delivered out till full Duty paid.

V. And be it enacted, That if after any Spirits duly removed under the Provisions of this Act, and the Laws and Regulations in such respect, from a Warehouse in England, Scotland, or Ireland, to be deposited in another Warehouse without Payment of Duty in some other Part of the said Three Parts of the United Kingdom, have been duly entered and landed, and before the same have been actually deposited in such last-mentioned Warehouse, the Distiller or Proprietor makes a further Entry of such Spirits, or of some Portion or Part thereof not being less than a whole Cask, for Removal for Home Consumption, or to another Warehouse than such last-mentioned Warehouse, or for Exportation, or for the Purpose of being used as Ships Stores, the Spirits of which such further Entry is made shall be considered as virtually and constructively warehoused in such last-mentioned Warehouse, although not actually deposited therein, and may be delivered and permitted to be removed for Home Consumption, or to another Warehouse, or for Exportation, or for the Purpose of being used as Ships Stores, as if the same had been delivered from Warehouse.

Distiller or Proprietor of Spirits removed from Warehouse in one Part of the United Kingdom to another may make fresh Entry of the same after landing.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to remit the Duties payable or paid on the whole or any Portion of any British Spirits which are or have been deposited in any Warehouse approved of by them, and which are lost or destroyed by unavoidable Accident occurring on Shipboard, or in the shipping or landing of the same, or while such Spirits are deposited in such Warehouse, or in the Act of being received into or delivered out from such Warehouse, on Proof of such Loss or Destruction being being given to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners.

Commissioners of Excise may remit Duties on Spirits lost from Accident.

VII. ‘ And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King ‘ George the Fourth, intituled An Act to grant certain Duties of Excise upon Spirits distilled from 4 G. 4. c. 94.
‘ Corn or Grain in Scotland and Ireland, and upon Licences for Stills for making such Spirits, and to ‘ provide for the better collecting and securing such Duties, and for the warehousing of such Spirits
‘ without Payment of Duty, it is provided and enacted, “that any Spirits which under the Provisions
‘ “ in this Act contained shall be made from Malt only, unmixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain, and
‘ “ on which the Allowance of One Shilling for every Gallon thereof shall be made in respect of the ‘ “ Duty on such Malt, shall be stored and deposited in some Store or Place separate and apart from any ‘ “ other Spirits which shall be warehoused under this Act, and subject to and under such Rules and ‘ “ Regulations as shall be made by the Commissioners of Excise with respect to such Spirits, and that ‘ “ no such Spirits so made from Malt only, and on which such Allowance of One Shilling per Gallon ‘ “ shall have been made, shall be taken out of any such Warehouse, Store, or Place for Exportation to ‘ “ England until the Allowance so made shall have been repaid by the Proprietor or Exporter of such ‘ “ Spirits:” And whereas by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King ‘ George the Fourth, it is provided and enacted, “that no Spirits which shall be or shall have been made 6 G. 4. c. 80.
‘ “ or distilled in Scotland or Ireland respectively, from unmalted Corn or Grain, mixed or unmixed ‘ “ with Malt, shall be taken out of any Warehouse, Store, or Place for Removal to England unless such ‘ “ Spirits were made and warehoused by some Distiller having at the Time when such Spirits were so ‘ “ made and warehoused no Spirits made from Malt only, or on which any Allowance shall be or shall ‘ “ have been made in respect of the Duty on such Malt, in his or her Stock or Possession, or in such ‘ “ Warehouse, and which shall be so certified by the proper Officer at the Time of warehousing, and ‘ “ also at the Delivery thereof, nor shall any Spirits made or distilled in Scotland or Ireland from Malt
‘ “ only, or in respect of which any Allowance as aforesaid has been or shall be made, paid, or received,
‘ “ be removed to England until the Allowance so made shall have been repaid by the Proprietor of such ‘ “ Spirits to the Commissioners of Excise, or such Person as they shall order or direct to receive the ‘ “ same; and if any Person or Persons shall take out of any Warehouse, Store, or Place any Spirits ‘ “ made from unmalted Corn or Grain, mixed or unmixed with Malt for such Removal, which were not ‘ “ made and warehoused by such Distiller as aforesaid, and shall not be so certified as aforesaid, or shall ‘ “ remove any Spirits made from Malt only, or on which any such Allowance as aforesaid has been ‘ “ made or shall be made as aforesaid, to England without first repaying such Allowance thereon as ‘ “ aforesaid, all such Spirits shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of ‘ “ Excise,

‘ “ Excise, and every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty ‘ “ Shillings per Gallon for every Gallon of such Spirits so taken out or removed, or One hundred ‘ “ Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Excise or Person who shall inform or sue for the ‘ “ same:” And whereas by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King
2 & 3 W. 4. c. 29. ‘ William the Fourth, intituled An Act to reduce the Allowance on Spirits made from Malt only in ‘ Scotland and Ireland, such Allowance is reduced to Eight-pence for and upon every Gallon of Spirits
‘ at the Strength of Hydrometer Proof distilled from malted Corn only in Scotland or Ireland: And ‘ whereas by an Act passed in the Second Session of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty,
5 & 6 Vict. c. 15. ‘ intituled An Act to impose an additional Duty on Spirits, and to repeal the Allowance on Sprits made
‘ from Malt only in Ireland, it is enacted, “that no Spirits distilled in Scotland from unmalted Corn or ‘ “ Grain, mixed or unmixed with Malt, shall be taken out of any Warehouse for Removal to Ireland ‘ “ unless such Spirits were distilled and warehoused by some Distiller not having at the Time when ‘ “ such Spirits were distilled and warehoused any Spirits made from Malt only, or on which any Allow‘ “ ance shall be or shall have been made in respect of the Duty on Malt in his Stock or Possession, or in ‘ “ such Warehouse, and which shall be so certified by the proper Officer at the Time of warehousing
‘ “ and also at the Delivery thereof, nor shall any Spirits made from Malt only, or in respect of which ‘ “ any Allowance as aforesaid has been or shall be made, paid, or received, be taken out of Warehouse in ‘ “ Scotland for Removal to Ireland until the Allowance so made shall have been repaid by the Distiller
‘ “ to the Commissioners of Excise, or such Person as they shall order or direct to receive the same;
‘ “ and every Person who shall take out of any Warehouse in Scotland any Spirits made from unmalted
‘ “ Corn or Grain, mixed or unmixed with Malt, for Removal to Ireland which were not made and ware‘ “ housed by such Distiller as aforesaid, and shall not be so certified as aforesaid, or shall take out of ‘ “ Warehouse for Removal, or remove, any Spirits made from Malt only, or on which any such Allowance
‘ “ as aforesaid has been made or shall be made, to Ireland without first repaying such Allowance thereon
‘ “ as aforesaid, shall forfeit Twenty Shillings per Gallon for every Gallon of such Spirits so taken out ‘ “ or removed, or One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Excise, and all such ‘ “ Spirits shall also be forfeited:”’ Be it enacted, That so much of the before-recited Acts as requires that no Spirits made or distilled from Malt only, or in respect of which any Allowance as aforesaid has been made, paid, or received, shall be taken out of the Warehouse in Scotland for Exportation or Removal to England or Ireland until the Allowance so made has been repaid by the Distiller, Proprietor, or Exporter of such Spirits to the Commissioners of Excise, or such Person as they order or direct to receive the same, shall be repealed, and the same is and are hereby repealed accordingly.

Parts of recited Acts as to Repayment of Allowance on Malt Spirits removed from Scotland repealed.

Malt Spirits may be removed from Scotland without Payment of Duty, for Consumption in England, on Payment of full English Duty, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That Spirits which, under the Provisions of the Acts in force in such respect, have been distilled in Scotland from Malt only, unmixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain, and on which the Allowance of Eight-pence and Five per Centum for every Gallon thereof has been made, may be taken from the Warehouse in Scotland in which the same have been warehoused without Payment of the Duty, under the Regulations of the Acts in force in such respect, and of this Act, for Removal for Consumption in England on Payment of the full Duty of Excise payable on British Spirits distilled in England on such Spirits, as directed by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty George the Fourth (except so far as the same is repealed or altered by this Act), and on Repayment at the same Time of the Allowance made thereon by the Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits to the Collector of Excise or other Person employed by the Commissioners of Excise to receive the said Duty.

Under certain Regulations and Conditions Spirits made from Malt only may be removed from Scotland to England or Ireland, without Repayment of the Allowance.

IX. And be it enacted, That Spirits which, under the Provisions of the Statutes in such respect in force, have been distilled in Scotland from Malt only, unmixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain, and on which the Allowance of Eight-pence and Five per Centum for every Gallon thereof has been made, may be removed to England or Ireland without Repayment of such Allowance if such Spirits have been warehoused under the Provisions, Enactments, Rules, and Regulations in force respecting the warehousing of Spirits without Payment of Duty, and in a separate and distinct Warehouse apart from all Spirits made from any other Materials than Malt only, and at a Time when no Spirits made from unmalted Corn or Grain, or any other Materials than Malt only, were in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of the Distiller by whom such Spirits were distilled and warehoused, which shall be certified by the proper Officer at the Time of warehousing such Spirits, by Endorsement on the Permit accompanying the same, and if such Spirits when removed to England or Ireland are taken direct from the Warehouse in which the same have been warehoused to a like Warehouse in England or Ireland, and by Sea, and in such Casks and Vessels as in this Act after mentioned, and with a proper Permit accompanying the same, and under such Security and Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise may order or make in that respect.

No raw Grain Spirits to be removed on same Day Notice given to remove Malt Spirits on which Allowance not repaid.

X. And be it enacted, That no Spirits which have been made or distilled in Scotland from unmalted Corn or Grain, mixed or unmixed with Malt, or from any other Materials than Malt only, shall be removed by the Distiller thereof from his Distillery, or from any Warehouse in the same Town or Place, and on the same Day in and on which he has given Notice to remove Spirits made by him from Malt only, unmixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain, and on which the Allowance of Eight-pence and Five per Centum for every Gallon thereof has been made and not repaid, either for Exportation to Foreign Parts, or for Use as Ships Stores, or for Removal to England or Ireland, or for Removal to any other Warehouse, otherwise such Notice shall be void, and all Spirits removed contrary hereto shall be forfeited.

XI. And

Malt Spirits on which Allowance not repaid removed from Warehouse for Exportation, &c. to be entitled to a Drawback of 7½*d.*, and 5 per Cent. per Gallon at Proof, on Certification by proper Officer.

XI. And be it enacted, That all Spirits distilled in Scotland from Malt only unmixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain, on which the Allowance of Eight-pence and Five per Centum for every Gallon thereof has been made and not repaid, may be removed from any Warehouse in the United Kingdom in which the same have been deposited under the Provisions of the Acts in that respect in force and of this Act for Exportation to Foreign Parts or for Use as Ships Stores, and upon such Spirits being duly removed from Warehouse by Permit to the Port of Shipment, and being duly exported or shipped there as Stores under and according to the Laws and Regulations of Customs in such respect, the Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits shall be entitled to a Drawback of Seven-pence Halfpenny and Five per Centum for and on every Gallon of such Spirits actually exported or shipped as Stores as aforesaid, for and in respect of the Duty upon the Malt used in the Distillation of such Spirits over and above the Allowance aforesaid, upon a Certificate of the Quantity of Spirits so exported or shipped being transmitted to the Collector of Excise at or nearest to the Port where such Spirits have been so exported or shipped from the proper Export Officer of Customs or Excise at such Port, such Certificate being endorsed by such Officer upon the Permit accompanying such Spirits on their Removal from Warehouse to the Ship; and every such Officer shall transmit such Certificate and Permit as aforesaid, on the Request of the Distiller or Proprietor exporting or shipping such Spirits, to such Collector as aforesaid, and every such Collector shall, on being satisfied of the Truth thereof, pay such Drawback as aforesaid to the Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits: Provided always, that no Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits shall be entitled to such Drawback unless such Spirits were deposited and kept in a separate and distinct Warehouse apart from all British Spirits made from any other Materials than Malt only until such Spirits were actually exported or shipped as Stores; and if any Distiller or Proprietor warehousing or removing such Spirits makes any Alteration in the Quality of such Spirits, by mixing Spirits made from Grain, or from any other Material than Malt, with Spirits made from Malt only, or by substituting Spirits of the one Quality for the other, he shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds over and above all other Penalties, and all such Spirits shall be forfeited; and in case any Doubt arises whether any such Spirits are really and bonâ fide Spirits made from Malt only as described in the Permit accompanying the same, on any Removal thereof Proof shall be made by the Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise that such Spirits are Spirits made from Malt only, and are such as the same are described to be in the Permit accompanying them, otherwise no such Drawback as aforesaid shall be paid for or in respect of such Spirits.

Such Spirits to be kept separate.

Penalty on any Alteration in Quality.

Proof of same Quality to lie on Proprietor.

Allowance on Malt Spirits removed to England or Ireland, not repaid in Scotland, must be repaid before Permit granted.

XII. And be it enacted, That when any Spirits distilled in Scotland from Malt only, unmixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain, and on which the Allowance of Eight-pence and Five per Centum for every Gallon thereof has been made, have been removed from a Warehouse in Scotland to a like Warehouse in England or Ireland, without Repayment of such Allowance under the Provisions of this Act, and of the Laws and Regulations in such respect, are taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption in England or Ireland, the aforesaid Allowance of Eight-pence per Gallon and Five per Centum for every Gallon of such Spirits taken out as aforesaid shall be repaid by the Proprietor or Person requesting a Permit for the Removal of such Spirits into Consumption before any such Permit shall be granted.

Distillers in England or Ireland entitled, under same Provisions, to same Allowance and Drawback on their Malt Spirits as Distillers in Scotland warehousing for Exportation only, &c. 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 29. 4 G. 4. c. 94. 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 52. 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 29.

XIII. And be it enacted, That every licensed Distiller in England or Ireland shall be entitled to the Allowance of Eight-pence per Gallon by the said Act of the Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth granted, and Five per Centum for and upon every Gallon of Spirits, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity of Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof, and so in proportion for any greater or less Strength, distilled in England or Ireland for Exportation only, or for Use as Ships Stores, from malted Corn only, not being mixed with any unmalted Corn or Grain; provided such Spirits have been distilled under the several Provisions of the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and of an Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend certain Laws relating to the Revenue of Excise on Malt made in the United Kingdom, and for amending the Laws relating to Brewers in Ireland, and to the Allowance in respect of the Malt Duty on Spirits made in Scotland and Ireland from Malt only, and of the aforesaid Act of the Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, and of any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force respecting the Distillation of Spirits from Malt only in Scotland, and the Payment of the Allowance granted in respect thereof, and the Rules and Regulations made by the Commissioners of Excise in such respect, and such other Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners think fit to make in respect of the Payment of the like Allowance on Spirits distilled in England or Ireland from Malt only, and for the preventing of Frauds in claiming the same; and all Spirits distilled in England or Ireland from Malt only, to be entitled to any such Allowance, shall be warehoused for Exportation only, or for Use as Ships Stores, within Six Days after the same have been distilled, and under the same Provisions, Rules, and Regulations as Spirits distilled from Malt only in Scotland are by any former Act in force, or by this Act, directed to be warehoused for Exportation only, or for Use as Ships Stores; and upon any such Spirits distilled in England or Ireland from Malt only, and so warehoused, being duly removed from Warehouse by Permit to the Port of Shipment, and being duly exported or shipped there as Stores under and according to the Laws and Regulations of Customs in such respect, the Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits shall be entitled to the Drawback of Seven-pence Halfpenny and Five per Centum by this Act granted for and on every Gallon of such Spirits actually exported or shipped as Stores as aforesaid; and such Drawback shall be paid over and above the Allowance aforesaid, and at the same or some different Time, as the said Commissioners may appoint, and upon like Certificate of the Spirits having been exported or shipped, or upon Delivery of such Receipt, as in this Act after mentioned, for the Spirits, as deposited in a Warehouse of special Security, or in any Warehouse approved of by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, in like Manner as such Drawback is by this Act directed to be paid upon Spirits distilled in Scotland from Malt only when so exported or shipped or warehoused as aforesaid; and all Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures in the said Acts of the Fourth Year and of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and of the said Act of the Second Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth, or of any or either of them, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force, or of this Act, respecting the making or Use of Malt for the Distillation of Spirits from Malt only, or respecting the Distillation of such Spirits in Scotland, or the warehousing or Removal of the same for Exportation, or for Use as Ships Stores, or respecting the granting or Payment of the Allowance or Drawback granted in respect of Spirits distilled in Scotland from Malt only, or for the preventing of Frauds in claiming the same, shall be enforced, used, and applied to, and in and for the granting or Payment of the like Allowance or Drawback by this Act granted for and in respect of Spirits distilled in England or Ireland from Malt only, and for the preventing of Frauds in claiming the same, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures had been at first applied, or were now re-enacted to apply, to the making and Use of Malt for Distillation of Spirits from Malt only, and to the Distillation of such Spirits in England and Ireland respectively, and to the warehousing and Removal of the same for Exportation or for Use as Ships Stores, and to the granting and Payment of the Allowance and Drawback by this Act granted for or in respect of Spirits distilled in England and Ireland respectively from Malt only, and for the preventing of Frauds in claiming the same.

Spirits made from any other Materials than Malt only entitled to a Drawback of 1½*d.* per Gallon on Exportation or Shipment as Stores.

XIV. And be it enacted, That every Distiller, Rectifier, or Proprietor of any British Spirits distilled or made from any other Materials than Malt only, which have been duly warehoused in any Warehouse in the United Kingdom, under the Provisions of the Acts in that respect in force, and of this Act, and which are duly removed from such Warehouse for Exportation, or for the Purpose of being used as Ships Stores, shall be entitled to a Drawback of One Penny and One Halfpenny for and on every Gallon at Proof of such Spirits actually exported or shipped as Stores as aforesaid, for and in respect of the Duty upon the Malt used in the Distillation of such Spirits or as an Equivalent in respect thereof; and such last-mentioned Drawback shall be paid upon like Certificate of Shipment, or Receipt in Warehouse, as in this Act after mentioned, and in like Manner (except as to the Proviso in respect of separate Warehouse) as the Drawback in respect of Spirits made from Malt only is by this Act directed to be paid, and under such further Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise may make in that respect.

Distiller may warehouse Spirits for Exportation, or for Ships Stores, in Warehouses under the Control of the Customs, and on Production of the Warehouse Keeper's Receipt such Spirits entitled to Drawback.

XV. And be it enacted, That every licensed Distiller in England, Scotland, or Ireland may warehouse for Exportation, or for Ships Stores only, any Spirits distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller, without Payment of the Duty of Excise charged thereon in any Warehouse of special Security (as the same is defined by the Laws relating to the Customs), or in any Warehouse approved of by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs for that Purpose only in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively, according to the Laws, Rules, and Regulations there in force for the warehousing of Goods in such Warehouse, and under and subject to the same Rules and Abatement on account of a Deficiency in the Quantity or Strength of such Spirits as are made in the Case of Spirits the Produce of any British Plantation in America, or the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter; and the proper Officer of Customs at such Warehouse shall give to the Distiller or Person requiring the same for the Use of such Distiller a Receipt for such Spirits, upon the same being duly removed by Permit from the Distillery to the Warehouse, and deposited in such Warehouse, specifying the Number of the different Casks, with their Gauge, and the Quantity and Strength of the Spirits contained in them, with the Day of the Month and Year when such Spirits were so warehoused, and any Mark which may have been put on such Casks by such Distiller for distinguishing the Spirits to be his Property, and such Receipt shall be delivered over within a reasonable Time by every such Distiller to the Officer of Excise in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller; and such last-mentioned Officer shall immediately give to such Distiller a Copy thereof, signed by such last-mentioned Officer, and upon the Delivery of such Receipt, and not before, it shall be lawful for such last-mentioned Officer to deduct from the Number of Gallons of Spirits with which such Distiller is then charged or chargeable with Duty the Number of Gallons so warehoused, and to return the Charge of Duty against the Distiller to the Collector of Excise for the remaining Number of Gallons, which shall be a Charge against such Distiller accordingly; and every such Officer shall annex to such Return such Receipt as his Voucher for having made such Deduction as aforesaid; and every Distiller or other Person producing such Receipt for Spirits so deposited which are entitled to any or either of the Drawbacks for or in respect of the Duty on the Malt used in the Distillation of such Spirits by this Act granted on such Spirits being actually exported or shipped as Stores, shall be entitled to such Drawback respectively as if such Spirits had been actually exported or shipped as aforesaid; and every Distiller or other Person producing a Receipt for any Spirits deposited as aforesaid which is untrue in any of the Particulars therein mentioned shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds and double the Amount of the Drawback claimed in respect thereof.

Spirits deposited in an Excise Warehouse may be removed to Warehouses under the Con-

XVI. And be it enacted, That Spirits deposited in any Warehouse approved of by the Commissioners of Excise in one Part or Place of the United Kingdom, without Payment of the Duty of Excise thereon, may be removed for Exportation, or for Ships Stores, to any Warehouse of special Security as aforesaid, or to any Warehouse approved of by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs for that Purpose only, in any other Part or Place of the United Kingdom, under such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners sioners of Excise and Customs from Time to Time may appoint, the Duty upon all Deficiencies in such Spirits being first paid on Removal from the Excise Warehouse in which the same are deposited to the Collector of Excise of the Collection in which such last-mentioned Warehouse is situated. trol of the Customs.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every licensed Rectifier of Spirits in England, Scotland, or Ireland may warehouse for Exportation, or for Ships Stores, any Spirits by him rectified from Spirits on which the proper Duties of Excise have been paid or charged in any Warehouse of special Security as aforesaid, or in any Warehouse approved of for that Purpose only by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs in that Part of the United Kingdom in which such Spirits were rectified, such Spirits not being sweetened Spirits, or Spirits mixed with any Article, so that the Degree of Strength thereof cannot be ascertained by Sykes' Hydrometer, under the same Laws, Rules, and Regulations as Spirits the Produce of any British Plantation, or the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, and under and subject to such further Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise and Customs may from Time to Time appoint; and if any Rectifier of Spirits so warehouses any Spirits on which the proper Duties of Excise have not been paid or charged, he shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Spirits shall be forfeited. Rectifiers of Spirits may warehouse Rectified Spirits not sweetened for Exportation or Ships Stores, in Warehouses under the Control of the Customs.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That all Rectified Spirits so warehoused may be removed from one Warehousing Port in the United Kingdom to another for Exportation, or for Ships Stores only, subject to the Regulations of this Act, and to the Laws and Regulations of Customs relating to such Removals of Goods, and no such Spirits shall be admitted to Entry for Home Consumption. Such Spirits may be sent Coastwise for Exportation, &c.

XIX. And be it enacted, That Spirits distilled or rectified in England, Scotland, or Ireland may be shipped or carried, conveyed or removed from England to Scotland or Ireland, or from Scotland to England or Ireland, or from Ireland to England or Scotland, under the Provisions of this Act, and of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and of the said Act passed in the Second Session of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, in any Ship or Vessel duly registered or licensed under the Laws and Regulations of Customs, and in any Cask containing Twenty Gallons of such Spirits at the least, anything in the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Spirits distilled or rectified in one Part of the United Kingdom may be removed to another in registered Ships and Casks of Twenty Gallons.

XX. And be it enacted, That all Rectified Spirits to be warehoused in such Warehouse of the Customs as aforesaid, other than Spirits of Wine, shall be of a Strength of not less than Twenty-two per Centum under Proof, nor more than Twenty-five per Centum over Proof, and if Spirits of Wine, shall be of a Strength not less than Forty-three per Centum over Proof, as denoted by the Hydrometer called Sykes' Hydrometer; and all Rectified Spirits to be so warehoused shall be contained in Iron-bound Casks, of not less than than Twenty Gallons Content each, marked on each End of such Cask, in Letters or Figures legibly cut, branded, or painted thereon, with the Mark or Number of every such Cask, and with the full Content thereof in Gallons, and with the true Number of Gallons, and the true Strength of the Spirits contained therein, every such Cask being full at the Time of sending such Spirits from the Rectifying House to the Warehouse; and all such Spirits when so removed shall be accompanied with lawful Permit, otherwise the same shall be forfeited, and every Rectifier so removing such Spirits shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds over and above all other Penalties. Rectified Spirits warehoused to be not less than 22 per Cent. under nor more than 25 over Proof, and Spirits of Wine not less than 43 over Proof, and in Casks of Twenty Gallons.

XXI. And be it enacted, That before any such Rectified Spirits shall be received into any such Warehouse of the Customs as aforesaid, a Warehousing Entry for Exportation only shall be passed for the same, specifying the Particulars of such Spirits, as set forth on the Back of the Permit accompanying such Spirits, and the Name of the Rectifier, and of the Place where the Rectifying House is situated from which such Spirits were sent; and after such Spirits have been duly examined and warehoused by the proper Officer of Customs at such Warehouse, he shall deliver to the Rectifier warehousing such Spirits, or to any Person requiring the same for the Use of such Rectifier, a Receipt specifying the Marks, Number, and Content in Gallons of the several Casks received into such Warehouse, the Strength of each as ascertained by Sykes' Hydrometer, and the total Number of Gallons at Proof received with such Permit, and such Customs Officer shall forthwith despatch to the Collector of Excise of the Collection in which the Rectifying House from which such Spirits were sent is situated a Certificate, setting forth the Name of the Rectifier, and of the Place where such Rectifying House is situated, the Mark, Number, and Content in Gallons of the several Casks, the Strength of the Spirits in each, and the total Number of Gallons at Proof received with such Permit; and the Collector of Excise to whom such Certificate is sent shall, upon Production to him of the Receipt before mentioned, pay to the Rectifier whose Name is specified in such Certificate, or to any Person requiring the same in behalf of such Rectifier, a Drawback of the full Duties of Excise chargeable upon Spirits of the like Quantity and Strength when taken at Proof as the Spirits so warehoused, and also the Drawback before mentioned of Three Halfpence for and on every Gallon at Proof of the Spirits so warehoused, as if such Spirits had been actually exported or shipped as Stores; and if any Rectifier or other Person, for the Purpose of obtaining any such Drawback, produces a false Receipt as and for the Receipt before mentioned, or any Receipt which is untrue in any of the Particulars therein specified, the Rectifier by or on whose Behalf such Receipt is produced shall incur the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds and of double the Amount of all Drawback claimed in respect thereof. Such Spirits to be entered for Warehouse, and Officer of Customs to grant Receipt for the Spirits so warehoused, and transmit a Certificate thereof to the Collector of Excise, who, on Production of such Documents, is to pay the Rectifier a Drawback of the Duties on such Spirits.

XXII. And be it enacted, That every Rectifier warehousing such Spirits may, on giving One Day's Notice to the Officer of Customs in charge of the Warehouse in which such Spirits are deposited, add to such Spirits any sweetening or colouring Matter, or any other Ingredient or Ingredients that he thinks proper, Rectifiers warehousing such Spirits may, on giving Notice, add sweetening or colouring Matter to the same.

proper, subject nevertheless to such Regulations and Restrictions as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs may make from Time to Time; and no such Spirits, after any Matter or Ingredient has been added as aforesaid, shall be removed to any other Warehouse for Exportation or for Ships Stores, but must be removed for such Purpose directly from the Warehouse in which the same are then deposited on board the Vessel in which they are to be exported or used as Stores under the Laws and Regulations of the Customs.

Spirits of the Strength of Spirits of Wine may be removed from Stock or warehoused by any Distiller in Casks of 20 Gallons at the least notwithstanding Provisions of 4 G. 4. c. 94. 6 G. 4. c. 80.

XXIII. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George 'the Fourth it is provided, that the Strength to be expressed in any Permit to accompany Spirits sent 'out of or removed from the Distillery or Stock of a licensed Distiller in Scotland or Ireland shall be 'either Twenty-five per Centum over Proof, Eleven per Centum over Proof, or Ten per Centum under 'Proof, and that it shall not be lawful to warehouse any Spirits of any Strength other than the respective 'Strengths of Twenty-five per Centum over Proof, or Eleven per Centum over Proof, and there are like 'Provisions in the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the 'Fourth respecting licensed Distillers in England, and by such last-mentioned Act it is also provided 'that such Distillers in England shall not send out any Spirits from their Distillery or Stock in any less 'Quantity than in a Cask containing Eighty Gallons: And whereas it is expedient to amend such Laws 'in respect of Spirits of the Strength of Spirits of Wine:' Be it enacted, That nothing in the said Acts or either of them, respecting the Strength or Quantity at which Spirits may be removed from the Distillery or Stock of any Distiller, or may be warehoused by such Distiller as aforesaid, shall extend or be applied to Spirits of the Strength of Spirits of Wine, but that all British Spirits of that Strength may be sent out from the Distillery or Stock of any Distiller in England, Scotland, or Ireland, at the Strength of Forty-three per Centum above Proof, as denoted by the Hydrometer called Sykes' Hydrometer, or at any greater or higher Degree of Strength, in a Cask or Casks containing Twenty Gallons each at the least, for Home Consumption, or for Exportation, or for Use as Ships Stores, or may be warehoused for any such Purpose as aforesaid, in like Manner and under the same Laws, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures as Spirits of the Strength before specified may be sent out, removed, or warehoused by the before-recited Acts or either of them, or by this Act, anything in the said recited Acts or either of them, or in any other Act, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Penalty on Distiller, &c. fraudulently opening Warehouses, and gaining Access to Spirits.

Warehoused Spirits fraudulently altered in Quality to be forfeited, with Casks, &c., and Owner to pay Double Duties.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Distiller, Rectifier, or Proprietor of Spirits warehoused in any Warehouse approved of by the Commissioners of Excise under this Act, or the said Acts of the Fourth Year or of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, or of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth, does by any Means fraudulently open such Warehouse or gain Access to the Spirits contained therein, every such Distiller, Rectifier, or Proprietor shall incur the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds; and if after any such Spirits have been deposited in any such Warehouse, and before their actual Removal therefrom for Home Consumption or for Exportation, or for the Purpose of being shipped as Stores under the Regulations of the said Acts, or any or either of them, such Spirits are altered in Quality, Quantity, or Strength, except from natural Causes, and otherwise than as provided by this Act or the said Acts, or any of them, or by the Rules and Regulations of the Commissioners of Excise in such respect, all such Spirits, and the Casks containing the same, shall be forfeited, and the Person in whose Name such Spirits are deposited shall forfeit, over and above all other Penalties, double the Amount of Duties chargeable on Spirits distilled in that Part of the United Kingdom in which such Spirits were deposited for and in respect of every Gallon of such Spirits as are abstracted contrary to this Act, or any of the said Acts, Rules, or Regulations.

"Spirits" to include Spirit Mixtures, when Duty not paid on the Spirits.

XXV. And be it enacted and declared, That for the Purposes of this Act, and of all other Acts relating to the Revenue of Excise, the Word "Spirits" shall, in addition to the Denomination of Spirits of different Distillations now defined by Law, include and mean all Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, or Commodities into the Manufacture of which Spirits enter as the Basis or principal Ingredient in all Cases in which the Duty of Excise has not been paid upon the Spirits from or with which such Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, or Commodities have been manufactured.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 86.

XXVI. 'And whereas by an Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs, it is enacted, "that no Goods which are subject to '"any Regulations of Excise shall be taken or delivered out of the Charge of the Officers of Customs '"(although the same may have been duly entered with them, and the full Duties due thereon may have '"been paid) until such Goods shall also have been duly entered with the Officers of Excise, and Permit '"granted by them for Delivery of the same, nor unless such Permit shall correspond in all Particulars '"with the Warrant of the Officers of Customs: Provided always, that such Entry shall not be received '"by the Officers of the Excise, nor such Permit granted by them, until a Certificate shall have been '"produced to them of the Particulars of the Goods, and of the Warrant for the same, under the Hand '"of the Officers of the Customs who shall have the Charge of the Goods: Provided also, that if upon '"any Occasion it shall appear necessary, it shall be lawful for the proper Officers of Excise to attend '"the Delivery of such Goods by the Officers of the Customs, and to require that such Goods shall be '"delivered only in their Presence; and it shall be lawful for such Officers of Excise to count, measure, '"gauge, or weigh any such Goods, and fully to examine the same, and to proceed in all respects '"relating to such Goods in such Manner as they shall be authorized or required by any Act for the Time '"being in force relating to the Excise:" And whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said 'Act as is before recited, and to enact other Regulations in lieu thereof:' Be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as is before recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after

So much of Act 8 & 9 Vict. c. 86.

the passing of this Act, before any Goods which are subject to any Regulations of Excise are removed from any Warehouse or Place in which they are deposited for Security of the Duties of Customs, the Party intending to remove the same shall, on making due Entry thereof for Home Consumption, deliver to the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs One Certificate or Duplicate of such original Entry in case the whole of the Goods included in such original Entry are intended to be removed into the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any One Party, or in case it be intended to remove such Goods into the Stock, Custody, or Possession of Two or more Parties, then the Party making such Entry shall deliver to the Collector and Comptroller Two or more Certificates, or Duplicates, as the Case may require; and each Certificate or Duplicate shall contain such Particulars, and be arranged in such Form and Manner, as the Collector and Comptroller may require; and such Certificate or Certificates, Duplicate or Duplicates, as the Case may be, shall be annexed to and retained with the original Entry, until Application be made for the Removal of such Goods, whereupon the proper Officer of Customs shall, in respect of such Removal, endorse on the Certificate or Duplicate relating thereto the Marks, Numbers, and Contents of the Casks and Packages so intended to be removed, and also, if any of such Packages contain Spirits, the Degree of Strength per Centum thereof; and the Party applying for such Removal shall endorse on the Certificate or Duplicate relating thereto the Name and Address of the Person to whom or into whose Stock, Custody, or Possession, such Goods are intended to be removed; and at the Time of the Delivery of such Goods for Removal the proper Officer of Customs shall endorse on such Certificate or Duplicate the Day and Hour of Delivery, and sign his Name thereto, and shall then deliver such Certificate or Duplicate to the Party applying for the Removal of such Goods, in order that the same may accompany such Goods into the Stock, Custody, or Possession of the Party whose Name and Address is endorsed on such Certificate; and no such Goods accompanied by such Certificate or Duplicate, on Removal thereof direct from the Warehouse to the Party whose Name and Address is endorsed on such Certificate or Duplicate, shall be liable to Seizure and Forfeiture, or the Party removing or receiving the same to any Penalty, for or by reason of such Goods not being accompanied by a Permit, provided such Goods be conveyed within a reasonable Time after the Date of the Delivery thereof direct from the Warehouse to or into the Stock, Custody, or Possession of the Party whose Name and Address is endorsed on such Certificate; and every Person removing or receiving such Goods with such Certificate accompanying the same as aforesaid, or removing or receiving the same without such Certificate, (except as to Spirits, so far as the same is provided for by another Act of this present Session of Parliament,) shall be subject and liable to the same Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures in respect of such Certificate as such Person is subject and liable to under and by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Excise, for or by reason of his removing or receiving the like Goods with a true and lawful Permit accompanying the same, or removing or receiving the same without such Permit.

as is herein recited repealed, and after passing of this Act Goods subject to Excise Regulations to be removed from Customs Warehouse to the Purchaser, by Certificate endorsed by the proper Officer of Customs.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed and incurred shall be prosecuted, sued for, recovered, and applied as any other Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under or by virtue of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Excise; and the Drawbacks by this Act granted shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and shall be severally paid and accounted for as directed by this Act, and under the general or special Provisions, Clauses, Enactments, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise.

Penalties and Forfeitures of this Act recoverable, and Drawbacks payable under the Laws of Excise.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That all Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Customs or Excise respecting the warehousing of Goods or Spirits, or the Removal thereof for Exportation, or for Ships Stores, shall, so far as the same are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, be enforced, used, and applied to and for the Purposes of this Act as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Former Provisions, &c. as to warehousing, &c. for Exportation, &c. applied to this Act.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. CXXIII.

An Act to renew and amend an Act of the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy Removal of certain Nuisances, and the Prevention of contagious and epidemic Diseases. [4th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, for the more speedy Removal of certain Nuisances, and to enable the Privy Council to make Regulations for the Prevention of contagious and epidemic Diseases, will expire at the End of the present Session of Parliament; and it is necessary that other Provision should be made in lieu thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in England and Ireland, upon Receipt (or as soon afterwards as can be) by the Town Council, or by any Trustees or Commissioners for the drainage, paving, lighting, or cleansing, or managing or directing the Police of any City, Town, Borough, or Place, or by any other Body of a like Nature,

9 & 10 Vict c. 96.

In England and Ireland certain public Bodies, upon

Receipt of Notice in Writing from Two Householders, of the filthy Condition of any Building, or of the Existence of certain Nuisances, to cause Examination to be made;

Nature, or by any Commissioners of Sewers or Guardians of the Poor, or in Ireland by the Officers of Health of any Parish, of a Notice in Writing in the Form contained in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, signed by Two or more inhabitant Householders of the Parish or Place to which the Notice relates, stating that, to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of the Persons by whom such Notice is signed, any Dwelling House or Building in any City, Town, Borough, Parish, or Place within or over which the Jurisdiction or Authority of the Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body to whom such Notice is given, extends, is in such a filthy and unwholesome Condition as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, or that upon any Premises within such Jurisdiction or Authority there is any foul and offensive Ditch, Gutter, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit, or any Ditch, Gutter, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit kept or constructed so as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, or that upon any such Premises Swine, or any Accumulation of Dung, Manure, Offal, Filth, Refuse, or other Matter or Thing, are or is kept so as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, or that upon any such Premises (being a Building used wholly or in part as a Dwelling House), or being Premises underneath any such Building, any Cattle or Animal are or is kept so as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, such Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body, or some Committee thereof which may be temporarily or permanently appointed in this Behalf by such Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body, shall, after Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing, by delivering the same to some Person on the Premises referred to in such first-mentioned Notice, or (if there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served) by fixing the same upon some conspicuous Part of such Premises, (or in case of Emergency without Notice,) by themselves, their Servants or Agents, with or without Medical or other Assistants, enter such Premises, and examine the same with respect to the Matters alleged in such first-mentioned Notice, and do all such Works, Matters, and Things as may be necessary for that Purpose; and if upon such Examination, or upon the Certificate in Writing of Two legally qualified Medical Practitioners, it appear that any Dwelling House or Building so examined is in such a filthy and unwholesome Condition as aforesaid, or that upon any Premises so examined there is any such Ditch, Gutter, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, Ashpit, Swine, Cattle, or Animal, or any such Accumulation or other Matter or Thing as aforesaid, such Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body, or such Committee, shall make or cause to be made Complaint before a Justice, who shall thereupon issue a Summons (which may be according to the Form contained in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect,) requiring the Owner or Occupier of the Premises examined to appear before Two Justices to answer such Complaint; and such Summons shall be served by delivering the same, or a true Copy thereof, to some Person upon the Premises in respect whereof Complaint is made, or (if there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served) by fixing such Summons or Copy upon some conspicuous Part of such Premises; and if at the Time and Place appointed by such Summons it be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justices that any Dwelling House or Building in respect whereof Complaint is made is in such a filthy and unwholesome Condition as aforesaid, or that any such Cause or Causes of Complaint as aforesaid exists or exist, and (in case such Owner or Occupier do not appear) that such Summons or Copy was served as aforesaid, such Justices shall make an Order in Writing under their Hands and Seals, (which Order may be according to the Form contained in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect,) for cleansing, whitewashing, or purifying such Dwelling House or Building, or for the Removal or Abatement of any such Cause or Causes of Complaint, in such Manner and within such Time as shall be specified in such Order (not being more than Two clear Days, exclusive of Sunday, after Service of such Order as herein-after directed); and such Order shall be forthwith served by delivering the same or a true Copy thereof to some Person upon the Premises in respect whereof it is made, or (in case there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served) by fixing such Order or Copy upon some conspicuous Part of such Premises; and if such Order be not complied with the Owner or Occupier against whom it is made shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Shillings for every Day during the Continuance of his Default, and the Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body mentioned therein, shall, by themselves, their Servants or Agents, or by such Committee as aforesaid, their Servants or Agents, enter such last-mentioned Premises, and cleanse, whitewash, or purify the same, or remove or abate the Cause or Causes of Complaint in respect whereof the said Order shall have been made, and do all such Works, Matters, and Things as may be necessary for carrying such Order into effect; and any Dung, Manure, Offal, Filth, or Refuse, and any other Matter or Thing removed by any such Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body as aforesaid, in pursuance of this Enactment, may be destroyed or sold, and in case of Sale the Proceeds arising therefrom shall be paid to or (as the Case may require) be retained by the Guardians of the Poor, and shall be by them applied in aid of the Rate for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish, Electoral Division, or Place in which such Removal shall have been made.

and if upon such Examination, or a Medical Certificate, it appear that the Nuisance, &c. exists, public Body to make Complaint before a Justice, who shall summon the Owner or Occupier to appear before Two Justices; who shall, upon Proof, &c., order him to whitewash, &c., or remove the Nuisance complained of;

and if such Order be not complied with, the Owner or Occupier in default to be liable to Penalties, and public Body to enter the Premises, and do the Works ordered, or remove the Nuisance.

In Scotland certain public Officers, upon Receipt of Notice in Writing from Two House-

And be it enacted, That in Scotland, upon or as soon as can be after Notice in Writing in the Form contained in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, signed by Two or more of the inhabitant Householders of the Parish or Place to which the Notice relates, made to the Procurator Fiscal of any County, or the Procurator Fiscal or the Dean of Guild of any Royal Burgh, or the Procurator Fiscal of the Justices of the Peace of any County, or the Commissioners of Police or Trustees for paving, lighting, or cleansing any City, Town, Burgh, Parish, or Place, or the Inspector of the Poor

of any Parish, stating that any Dwelling House or Building within any Royal Burgh, or in any City, Town, Burgh, Parish, or Place, within or over which the Jurisdiction or Authority of any such Procurator Fiscal, or of such Dean of Guild, or Commissioners of Police, or Trustees for paving, lighting, or cleansing, or Inspector of the Poor, extends, is in such a filthy and unwholesome Condition as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, or that upon any Premises within such Jurisdiction or Authority there is any foul and offensive Drain, Ditch, Gutter, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit, or any Drain, Ditch, Gutter, Privy, Cesspool, or Ashpit kept or constructed so as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, or that upon any such Premises Swine, or any Accumulation of Dung, Manure, Offal, Filth, Refuse, or other Matter or Thing, are or is kept so as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, or that upon any such Premises (being a Building used wholly or in part as a Dwelling House), or being Premises underneath any such Building, any Cattle or Animal are or is kept so as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, it shall be competent to any such Procurator Fiscal or Dean of Guild, or the proper Officer of such Commissioners of Police or Trustees, or such Inspector of the Poor respectively, after Twenty-four Hours from the giving Notice in Writing by Service thereof upon some Person on the Premises referred to in such first-mentioned Notice, or (if there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served) by fixing the same upon some conspicuous Part of such Premises, or in case of Emergency without Notice, by himself or others acting under his Authority, with or without Medical or other Assistants, to enter such Premises, and examine the same with respect to the Matters alleged in such first-mentioned Notice, and do all such Works, Matters, and Things as may be necessary for that Purpose; and if upon such Examination, or upon the Certificate in Writing of Two legally qualified Medical Practitioners, it appear that any Dwelling House or Building so examined is in such a filthy and unwholesome Condition as aforesaid, or that upon any Premises so examined there is any such Drain, Ditch, Gutter, Privy, Cesspool, Ashpit, Swine, Cattle, or Animal, or any such Accumulation, or other Matter or Thing, as aforesaid, such Procurator Fiscal, Dean of Guild, Officer, or Inspector shall make or cause to be made Complaint to the Sheriff or Magistrates or a Justice, who shall thereupon order the Owner or Occupier of the Premises examined to appear before such Sheriff or Magistrates or Two Justices to answer such Complaint; and such Order shall be served by delivering the same, or a true Copy thereof, to some Person upon the Premises in respect whereof Complaint is made, or (if there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served) by fixing such Order or Copy upon some conspicuous Part of such Premises; and if at the Time and Place appointed by such Order it be proved to the Satisfaction of such Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices that any Dwelling House or Building in respect whereof Complaint is made is in such a filthy and unwholesome Condition as aforesaid, or that any such Cause or Causes of Complaint as aforesaid exists or exist, and (in case such Owner or Occupier do not appear) that such Order or Copy was served as aforesaid, such Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices shall make an Order in Writing under their Hands (which Order may be according to the Form contained in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect,) for cleansing, whitewashing, or purifying such Dwelling House or Building, or for the Removal or Abatement of any such Cause or Causes of Complaint, in such Manner and within such Time as shall be specified in such Order (not being more than Two clear Days, exclusive of Sunday, after Service of such Order), and such last-mentioned Order shall be forthwith served by delivering the same, or a true Copy thereof, to some Person upon the Premises in respect whereof it is made, or in case there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served, by fixing such Order or Copy upon some conspicuous Part of such Premises; and if such Order be not complied with the Owner or Occupier against whom it is made shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Shillings for every Day during the Continuance of his Default, and the Procurator Fiscal or Dean of Guild, or proper Officer of the Commissioners of Police, or Trustees or Inspectors of the Poor respectively, shall, by themselves or others acting under their Authority, enter such last-mentioned Premises, and cleanse, whitewash, or purify the same, or remove or abate the Cause or Causes of Complaint in respect whereof the said last-mentioned Order shall have been made, and do all such Works, Matters, and Things as may be necessary for carrying such Order into effect, and any Dung, Manure, Offal, Filth, or Refuse, and any other offensive or noxious Matter or Thing removed in pursuance of this Enactment, may be destroyed or sold, and in case of Sale the Proceeds arising therefrom shall be paid to or (as the Case may require) be retained by the Parochial Board for the Management of the Poor, and shall be by them applied in aid of the Funds for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish or Place in which such Removal shall have been made.

holders of the filthy Condition of any Building, or of the Existence of certain Nuisances, to cause Examination to be made; and if Nuisance, &c. exists, public Body to make Complaint before the Sheriff or a Justice, who shall order the Owner or Occupier to appear; and upon Proof, &c., whitewashing, &c. or Removal of the Nuisance complained of, to be ordered.

If such Order be not complied with, Owner or Occupier to be liable to Penalties, and the public Officers to do the Works ordered, or remove the Nuisance.

III. And be it enacted, That whenever any such Order as aforesaid for cleansing, whitewashing, or purifying any Dwelling House or Building, or for the Removal or Abatement of any such Cause or Causes of Complaint as aforesaid, has been obtained, all Costs and Expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining such Order, or in carrying the same into effect, shall be deemed to be Money paid for the Use and at the Request of the Owner or Occupier of the Premises in respect whereof such Costs and Expenses shall have been incurred, and may be recovered as such by the said Town Councils, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body, or by the said Procurators Fiscal, Deans of Guild, Commissioners of Police, or Trustees and Inspectors of the Poor respectively, as such, in any County Court, Civil Bill Court, or (in Scotland) before the Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices of the Peace; or such Town Council, Magistrates, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body, or Procurators Fiscal, Deans of Guild, or Inspectors of the Poor, may, if they shall think fit, recover such Costs and Expenses before Two Justices, or, in Scotland, before the Sheriff or Magistrates Recovery of Costs, &c. from Owner or Occupier of the Premises.

trates or Two Justices, from the Owner or Occupier of the Premises in respect of which such Order is made; and any Two Justices, or, in Scotland, the Sheriff or Magistrates or any Two Justices, upon the Application of any such Town Council, Magistrates, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, Officers of Health, or other Body, or Procurator Fiscal, Dean of Guild, or Inspector of the Poor, shall issue a Summons, or, in Scotland, an Order, requiring such Owner or Occupier to appear before them, or before him or them, at a Time and Place to be named therein; and at the Time and Place so named, upon Proof to the Satisfaction of such Justices, or such Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices, that any such Costs and Expenses have been so incurred as aforesaid, and (in case such Owner or Occupier do not appear) that a Copy of such last-mentioned Summons or Order was served by delivering the same to some Person on the Premises in respect of which the Costs and Expenses were incurred, or, if there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served, by fixing the same upon some conspicuous Part of such Premises, such Justices, or such Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices, unless they think fit to excuse the Party summoned upon the Ground of Poverty or other special Circumstances, shall, by Order in Writing, in England or Ireland under the Hands and Seals of such Justices, or in Scotland under the Hands of such Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices, order him to pay the Amount to the Applicants, together with the Costs attending such Application and the Proceedings thereon; and if the Amount be not paid within Seven Days after Demand, the same may, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the same or any other Two Justices, or, in Scotland, under the Hands of the Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices, by whom the last-mentioned Order shall have been made, or any other Two Justices, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Owner or Occupier in default; and if no Distress sufficient to satisfy the same can be found within the Jurisdiction of the Justices, or of the Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices, by whom such Warrant shall have been issued, and it so appear upon Oath before Two Justices, or, in Scotland before the Sheriff or Magistrates or Two Justices, of any other County or Jurisdiction in which any Goods or Chattels of the Defaulter may be, such last-mentioned Justices, or Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices, shall indorse their or his Signatures or Signature upon the last-mentioned Warrant, and thereupon the Amount to be levied, or so much thereof as may be unsatisfied, shall be levied of the last-mentioned Goods and Chattels, in the same Manner as if such Warrant had been originally and properly issued by the Justices, or by the Sheriff or Magistrates or Justices, of such last-mentioned County or Jurisdiction.

Certain Expenses of this Act to be defrayed out of Poor's Rates, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Costs and Expenses reasonably incurred as aforesaid in carrying into effect any of the Provisions herein-before contained, and not recovered from any Owner or Occupier of the Premises in respect of which such Expenses shall have been incurred, shall, upon an Order in Writing, specifying the Sum to be paid under the Hands and Seals of Two Justices, or, in Scotland, under the Hands of the Sheriff or Magistrates or Two Justices, (who are hereby required to make such Order, upon proper Application in this Behalf,) be retained, paid, or defrayed by the Treasurer of such Guardians or Parochial Board, or by the Overseers of the Poor, or other proper Officers or Persons, out of the Funds in their Hands applicable to the Relief of the Poor, and shall be charged to the Parish, Electoral Division, or Place maintaining its own Poor in which the Premises in respect whereof such Costs and Expenses shall have been so incurred are situated, and in other Places in England or Ireland out of any public Rates or Funds raised in such Places, or applicable thereto under the Authority of Parliament, or in case there be no such Rates or Funds as last aforesaid, then out of the Funds for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish Electoral Division, or Place nearest adjoining, or if there be Two or more Parishes or Places nearest adjoining, out of the Funds for the Relief of the Poor of such One of them as Two Justices shall, by Order in Writing under their Hands and Seals, appoint; and in case any such Costs or Expenses shall have been incurred on account or in respect of any Parish in Scotland in which it shall happen that there is not at the Time an Assessment for the Relief of the Poor imposed or levied, then the same shall be paid or defrayed out of an Assessment to be imposed and levied for that Purpose and to the Extent necessary, under and in the Manner provided by an Act of the Ninth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Relief of the Poor in Scotland, and if any such Treasurer, Overseers, or Officers or Persons, neglect or refuse to pay the Sum specified in any Order of Justices, or of any Sheriff or Magistrates, made under this Enactment, for the Space of Twenty-one Days after the Date of such Order, the same may, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the same or any other Two Justices, or, in Scotland, under the Hands of the Sheriff or Magistrates or any Two Justices, by whom such Order shall have been made, or any other Two Justices, be levied by Distress and Sale, together with the Costs of such Distress and Sale, of the Goods and Chattels of the Treasurer, Overseers, or other Officers or Persons in default.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 83.

Not to apply to Districts and Places in which the Public Health Act is in force.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall apply to any District, Parish, or Place in which the Public Health Act, 1848, or any Part thereof, shall be in force, unless and except in so far as the General Board of Health, by Order in Writing, sealed with the Seal of such Board, and signed by Two or more Members thereof, or (in case there be no such Board in existence) as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Order in Writing under his Hand, shall otherwise direct: Provided also, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to impair, abridge, or take away any Power, Jurisdiction, or Authority which may at any Time be vested in any Commissioners of Sewers, or to take away or interfere with any Course of Proceeding which might be resorted to or adopted by such Commissioners if this Act had not been passed.

Jurisdiction of Commissioners of Sewers not to be impaired.

Surveyor of Highways

VI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, 'for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Highways in England, the Surveyor and District

'Surveyor

'Surveyor or Assistant Surveyor therein mentioned are empowered to scour, cleanse, and keep open all 'Ditches, Gutters, Drains, or Watercourses; and by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of Her Majesty's 'Reign, for amending the Laws concerning Highways, Bridges, and Ferries in Scotland, the Trustees or 'Surveyors therein mentioned are empowered to cleanse the Ditches made or to be made along the Sides 'of any Highway, in case of the Neglect or Refusal of the Proprietor or Occupier to cleanse such Ditches 'when duly required so to do by such Trustees or Surveyors; and with a view to the more effectual 'Removal of Nuisances injurious to Health it is expedient that such Surveyor, District Surveyor, or 'Assistant Surveyor, Trustees or Surveyors, should not only be empowered but required to scour, cleanse, 'and keep clear, or cause to be scoured, cleansed, and kept clear, as far as may be practicable, all open 'Ditches, Gutters, Drains, and Watercourses upon, adjoining, or by or along the Sides of any Highway:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Surveyor, or District or Assistant Surveyor, Trustees or Surveyors, shall scour, cleanse, and keep clear, or cause to be scoured, cleansed, and kept clear, as far as may be practicable, all open Ditches, Gutters, Drains, and Watercourses upon, adjoining, or by or along the Sides of any Highway; and any Sewage, Drainage, Soil, Filth, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever which shall be removed by any such Surveyor, District or Assistant Surveyor, Trustees or Surveyors, from any such Ditch, Gutter, Drain, or Watercourse, in scouring, cleansing, and keeping clear the same, shall be disposed of by such Surveyor, Assistant or District Surveyor, Trustees or Surveyors, and the Proceeds arising therefrom shall be applied towards the Repair of the Highway within the Parish or Place in which such Removal shall have taken place; and the Provisions herein-before contained with respect to Ditches, Gutters, Drains, and Watercourses upon, adjoining, or by or along the Sides of Highways, shall, in so far as the same relate to England, be deemed to be Part of the said Act relating to Highways in England, and in so far as the same relate to Scotland shall be deemed to be Part of the said Act relating to Highways in Scotland.

Surveyors required to cleanse open Ditches adjoining Highways, &c. 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 50. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 41.

VII. And be it enacted, That whosoever shall suffer any Sewage, Drainage, Soil, Filth, or any Matter or Thing of a noxious or offensive Nature, to run or flow into or to remain in any open Ditch, Gutter, Drain, or Watercourse, so as to be a Nuisance to or injurious to the Health of any Person, from any Dwelling House, Building, or other Premises which shall not have been occupied before the passing of this Act, or from any Privy or Water-closet which shall not have been constructed before that Time, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, or in Scotland of an Offence punishable by Fine or Imprisonment, and shall, in addition, be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which the Offence is continued.

Drainage into open Ditches from new Houses a Misdemeanor, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That whenever it is intended to build or open any Hospital for the Reception of Patients afflicted with contagious or infectious Diseases or Disorders, the Trustees or other Persons by whose Authority such Hospital is intended so to be built or opened as aforesaid shall give Notice of such Intention to the said General Board of Health or (in Ireland) to the Commissioners of Health hereinafter mentioned; and no such Hospital shall be built or opened as aforesaid until the said General Board of Health or Commissioners of Health, as the Case may be, have approved thereof in Writing; but nothing herein contained shall apply to the building or opening of any Addition to a Building which shall have been used as a Hospital previously to such Addition.

Notice to be given to General Board, and in Ireland to Commissioners of Health, of Intention to build or open Hospitals, &c.

IX. 'And whereas it is expedient that when any Part of the United Kingdom shall appear to be 'threatened with or affected by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious Disease, Measures of 'Precaution should be taken with Promptitude, according to the Exigency of the Case:' Be it therefore enacted, That in Great Britain the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any Three or more of them, (the Lord President of the Council, or One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, being One,) and in Ireland the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council of Ireland, may, by Order or Orders to be by them from Time to Time made, direct that the Provisions herein-after contained for the Prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious Diseases be put in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, or in such Parts thereof or in such Places therein respectively as in such Order or Orders respectively may be expressed, and may from Time to Time, as to all or any of the Parts or Places to which any such Order or Orders may extend, and in like Manner, revoke or renew any such Order, and, subject to Revocation and Renewal as aforesaid, every such Order shall be in force for Six Calendar Months, or for such shorter Period as in such Order shall be expressed.

Privy Council, &c. empowered to issue Orders for putting in force the Provisions of this Act relative to the Prevention of epidemic Diseases, &c.

X. And be it enacted, That from Time to Time after the issuing of any such Order as last aforesaid, and whilst the same shall continue in force, the General Board of Health (in Great Britain), under the Seal of the said Board, and the Hands of Two or more Members thereof, and in Ireland the Commissioners of Health for the Time being, under the Hands of Two or more of them, may issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board or last-mentioned Commissioners (as the Case may be) shall think fit, for the Prevention, as far as possible, or Mitigation, of such epidemic, endemic, or contagious Diseases, and from Time to Time, in like Manner, revoke, renew, and alter any such Directions or Regulations, or substitute such new Directions and Regulations as to the said Board or last-mentioned Commissioners may appear expedient; and the said Board or last-mentioned Commissioners, as the Case may be, may by such Directions and Regulations provide for the frequent and effectual cleansing of Streets and public Ways and Places by the Surveyors, District or Assistant Surveyors of Highways, Trustees, County Surveyors, and others by Law intrusted with the Care and Management thereof, or by the Owners and Occupiers of Houses and Tenements adjoining thereto, and for the cleansing, purifying, ventilating, and disinfecting of Houses, Dwellings, Churches, Buildings, and Places of Assembly, by the Owners or Occupiers piers and Persons having the Care and ordering thereof, for the Removal of Nuisances, for the speedy Interment of the Dead, and generally for preventing or mitigating such epidemic, endemic, or contagious Diseases, in such Manner as to the said Board or last-mentioned Commissioners (as the Case may be,) may seem expedient; and the said Board or last-mentioned Commissioners may by any such Directions and Regulations authorize and require the Guardians of the Poor in England and Ireland, and the Parochial Boards for the Management of the Poor in Scotland, by themselves or their Officers, or any Persons employed by them in the Administration of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor, or by Officers specially appointed in this Behalf to superintend and see to the Execution of any such Directions and Regulations, and (where it shall appear that there may be Default or Delay in the Execution thereof, by Want or Neglect of such Surveyors, Trustees, or others intrusted as aforesaid, or by reason of Poverty of Occupiers, or otherwise,) to execute or aid in executing the same within their respective Unions and Parishes and Combinations, and in any extra-parochial Places adjoining to or surrounded by the same in which the Directions and Regulations of the said Board or last-mentioned Commissioners shall not be executed by the Inhabitants, and to provide for the dispensing of Medicines, and for affording to Persons afflicted by or threatened with such epidemic, endemic, or contagious Diseases such Medical Aid as may be required, and to do and provide all such Acts, Matters, and Things as may be necessary for superintending or aiding in the Execution of such Directions and Regulations, or for executing the same, as the Case may require; and the Directions and Regulations to be issued as aforesaid shall extend to all Parts or Places in which the Provisions of this Act for the Prevention of epidemic, endemic, or contagious Diseases shall for the Time being be put in force under such Orders as aforesaid, unless such Directions and Regulations shall be expressly confined to some of such Parts or Places, and then to such Parts or Places as in such Directions and Regulations shall be specified, and (subject to the Power of Revocation and Alteration herein contained) shall continue in force so long as the said Provisions of this Act shall be in force, under such Orders, in the Parts or Places to which such Directions and Regulations shall under this Provision extend: Provided always, that if at any Time in Ireland there shall not be any Commissioners of Health, the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by his or their Warrants, may appoint so many Persons as he or they may think fit, not being more in Number than Five, to act as Commissioners of Health in Ireland, without Salary, Fee, or Reward, and may from Time to Time remove any of such Commissioners, and appoint any other Person in his Stead; and such Commissioners shall for all Purposes be Commissioners of Health in Ireland within the Meaning and for the Purposes of this Act.

One Medical Member of General Board of Health may be appointed.

Treasury to pay Allowances appointed by Parliament.

XI. And be it enacted, That Her Majesty may from Time to Time, during the Continuance of any Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council or of any Members thereof as aforesaid, by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, appoint, in addition to the Members for the Time being of the General Board of Health, One fit Person to be a Medical Member of such Board for the Purposes of this Act, and Her Majesty may, at Her Pleasure, remove any Person so appointed; and there shall be paid to the Person or Persons so appointed such Allowance or Allowances as shall be appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of any Monies which may from Time to Time be appointed by Parliament for that Purpose.

Poor Law Commissioners, &c. may compel Guardians, &c. to execute Regulations and Directions of the General Board of Health, &c.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in England and Ireland respectively, and the Board of Supervision established under the said Act for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Relief of the Poor in Scotland, may require the Officers and Persons acting under them to inquire into, superintend, and report on the Execution of the Directions and Regulations of the General Board of Health, or Commissioners of Health, as the Case may be, under this Act, and shall have the same Powers for enforcing and directing the Execution of such Directions and Regulations by the said Guardians and Parochial Boards respectively as they now or may hereafter have in relation to any Matter concerning the Administration of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor.

Power of Entry for the Purpose of enforcing Regulations of the General Board of Health, &c.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the said Guardians and Parochial Boards acting in the Execution of any such Directions or Regulations as aforesaid, or the Officers or Persons by them in this Behalf authorized, at reasonable Times in the Daytime, may and they are hereby empowered to enter and inspect any Dwelling or Place, if there be Ground for believing that any Person may have recently died of any such epidemic, endemic, or contagious Disease in any such Dwelling or Place, or that there is any Filth or other Matter dangerous to Health therein or thereupon, or that Necessity may otherwise exist for executing, in relation to the Premises, all or any of such Directions and Regulations as aforesaid.

Expenses of Guardians, &c. to be paid out of Poor Rate, &c.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the said Guardians and Parochial Boards may appoint or employ, for the Superintendence and Execution of the said Directions and Regulations, Officers or Persons in aid of the Officers or Persons employed in the Administration of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor; and such Guardians and Parochial Boards respectively shall defray the Expenses incurred by them respectively in the Superintendence and Execution of such Directions and Regulations out of the Funds of their respective Unions, Parishes, or Combinations; and if any such Expenses shall have been incurred on account or in respect of any extra-parochial Place in England or Ireland, the same shall, upon an Order in Writing specifying the Sum to be paid, under the Hands and Seals of Two Justices, who are hereby empowered to make such Order, upon proper Application in this Behalf, be paid or defrayed out of any public Rates or Funds raised therein or applicable thereto under the Authority of Parliament, or in case there be no such Rates or Funds as last aforesaid, then out of the Funds of the Union or Parish for which the Guardians by whom the Expenses have been incurred act; and in case any such Expenses shall have been incurred on account or in respect respect of any Parish in Scotland in which it shall happen that there is not at the Time an Assessment for the Relief of the Poor imposed or levied, then the same shall be paid or defrayed out of an Assessment to be imposed and levied for that Purpose, and to the Extent necessary, under and in the Manner provided by the said Act for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Relief of the Poor in Scotland. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 83.

Orders, Directions, and Regulations to be laid before Parliament, and to be gazetted, &c.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or of the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland, and every Direction and Regulation of the said General Board of Health or Commissioners of Health under this Act, shall, forthwith upon the issuing thereof, be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not then within Fourteen Days next after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament; and every such Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any Members thereof, as aforesaid, shall be certified under the Hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the London Gazette, and every such Order of the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland shall be certified under the Hand of One of the Clerks of the Privy Council of Ireland, and shall be published in the Dublin Gazette; and every such Direction and Regulation as aforesaid when issued in Great Britain shall be published in the London Gazette and in the Edinburgh Gazette, and when issued in Ireland in the Dublin Gazette, and such Publication of any such Order, Direction, or Regulation shall be conclusive Evidence of the Order, Direction, or Regulation so published, to all Intents and Purposes.

Penalties for obstructing Execution of this Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That whosoever shall wilfully obstruct any Person acting under the Authority or employed in the Execution of this Act, or who shall wilfully violate any Direction or Regulation issued by the General Board of Health, or such Commissioners of Health as aforesaid, under this Act, shall be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and if the Occupier of any Premises prevent the Owner thereof from obeying or carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act, any Justice, or in Scotland the Sheriff or any Justice, to whom Application is made in this Behalf, shall by Order in Writing (which may be according to the Form contained in the Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect,) require such Occupier to permit the Execution of the Works required to be executed, provided that such Works appear to such Sheriff or Justice to be necessary for the Purpose of obeying or carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act; and if within a reasonable Time after the making of such Order the Occupier against whom it is made refuse to comply therewith, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day afterwards during the Continuance of such Refusal.

Recovery of Penalties in England or Ireland,

XVII. And be it enacted, That Penalties imposed by this Act for Offences committed in England or Ireland may be recovered by any Person before any Two Justices, and may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, together with the Costs of such Distress and Sale, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the Justices before whom the same shall be recovered, or any other Two Justices; and in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justices, before or after the issuing of such Warrant, either by the Confession of the Offender or otherwise, that he hath not Goods and Chattels within their Jurisdiction sufficient to satisfy the Amount, they may commit him to any Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Fourteen Days, unless the Amount be sooner paid, in the same Manner as if a Warrant of Distress had issued and a Return of Nulla bona been made thereon; and Penalties imposed by this Act for Offences in Scotland may be recovered by the Procurator Fiscal of the Court, or by any other Person, before the Sheriff or Two Justices, who may proceed in a summary Way, and grant Warrant for bringing the Parties complained upon immediately before him or them, and on Proof on Oath by One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or other legal Evidence, he or they may forthwith determine and give Judgment, without any written Pleadings or Record of Evidence, and grant Warrant for the Recovery of the Penalties and Expenses decerned for, and, failing Payment within Eight Days after Conviction, by Poinding, and Imprisonment for a Period, at the Discretion of the Sheriff or Justices, not exceeding Fourteen Days; and all Penalties whatsoever recovered under this Act shall be paid to or (as the Case may require) be retained by the Guardians of the Poor, or, in Scotland, the Parochial Board for the Management of the Poor, and shall be by them applied in aid of the Rates or Funds for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish, Electoral Division, or Place in which the Penalties may have been incurred.

and in Scotland.

Application of Penalties.

One of several joint Owners or Occupiers may be proceeded against alone.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That in case of any Demand or Complaint under this Act to which Two or more Owners or Occupiers of Premises may be jointly answerable, it shall be sufficient to proceed against any One or more of them, without in any Manner proceeding against the others or other of them; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the Parties so proceeded against from recovering Contribution in any Case in which they would now be entitled to Contribution by Law.

Unnecessary to describe Owner or Occupier by Name.

XIX. And be it enacted, That wherever in any Proceeding under this Act, whether written or otherwise, it shall become necessary to mention or refer to the Owner or Occupier of any Premises, it shall be sufficient to designate him as the "Owner" or "Occupier" of such Premises without Name or further Description.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form.

XX. And be it enacted, That no Order, nor any other Proceeding, Matter, or Thing done or transacted in or relating to the Execution of this Act, shall be vacated, quashed, or set aside for Want of Form, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, or by Suspension or Advocation, or other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of the Superior Courts.

Proceedings commenced under 9 & 10 Vict. c. 96. may be enforced.

XXI. And be it enacted, That all Proceedings whatsoever commenced or taken or to be commenced or taken under the said first-recited Act of the Tenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, and which shall not have been completed and enforced whilst the last-mentioned Act continues in force, may be proceeded with with and enforced under the Provisions of that Act, although such Provisions be no longer in force, in the same Manner in all respects and to all Intents and Purposes as if the same continued to be in force, and as if the said last-mentioned Act had not expired.

Interpretation of Terms.

XXII. CAP. CXXIV.

An Act to amend an Act of the last Session, for varying the Priorities of the Charges made on "The London Bridge Approaches Fund," and to facilitate the Completion of certain Improvements in the City of Westminster. [4th September 1848.]

4 & 5 Vict. c. 12.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods to make a new Street from Coventry Street, Piccadilly, to Long Acre, and for other Improvements in the Metropolis, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings (herein-after designated "The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods") were empowered, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, from Time to Time, as the said Commissioners should think proper, to apply out of a certain Sum of Two hundred and fourteen thousand Pounds which the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods were thereby authorized to charge on certain Funds therein specified (commonly and herein-after called The London Bridge Approaches Fund), in case they, the said last-mentioned

'mentioned Commissioners, should be empowered by any Act of Parliament to form a Communication 'between the Neighbourhood of the Houses of Parliament and that of Buckingham Palace, or in case 'any Trustees or Persons should by any such Act or Acts as aforesaid be authorized to form such Com- 'munication, then to advance and pay to such Trustees or Persons, any Sum or Sums, not exceeding 'Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, towards the Expense of forming such Communication: And whereas by 'an Act of Parliament passed in the Session held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty, 'intituled An Act for regulating the Priorities of Monies authorized to be charged on a Fund called The 5 & 6 Vict. c. 64. 'London Bridge Approaches Fund, the said Sum of Two hundred and fourteen thousand Pounds, which 'the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods were so as aforesaid authorized to charge, was reduced 'to the Sum of One hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds, out of which last-mentioned Sum the 'aforesaid Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds continued payable: And whereas the said last-mentioned 'Commissioners have, in pursuance of Directions in that Behalf in the last-recited Act contained, by an 'Instrument in Writing under their Common Seal, dated the Thirtieth Day of July One thousand eight 'hundred and forty-four, charged the aforesaid Funds, commonly called The London Bridge Approaches 'Fund, with the Payment to them of the Three annual Sums of Two hundred thousand Pounds, One 'hundred thousand Pounds, and One hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds, with Interest thereon 'at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum from the Days therein respectively mentioned: And 8 & 9 Vict. 'whereas by the Westminster Improvement Act, 1845, certain Persons thereby incorporated, under the c. clxxviii. 'Name and Style of the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, were authorized, as therein mentioned, 'to make and complete a new Street and Communication between the Neighbourhood of the Houses of 'Parliament and that of Buckingham Palace (being with certain Modifications the Street now in course 'of Formation, and intended to be called Victoria Street); and it was by the Act now in recital 'enacted, that the aforesaid Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, which by the said first-recited Act 'the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, with such Consent as aforesaid, were empowered to 'appropriate and apply towards the Expenses of forming a Communication between the Neighbourhood 'of the Houses of Parliament and Buckingham Palace, should be appropriated and applied towards the 'Expenses of making, forming, and completing the new Street and Communication by the Act now in 'recital authorized to be made, provided such new Street and Communication were made and fully 'completed according to the Plan modified and approved by Her Majesty's Commissioners of Metropolitan 'Improvements within Five Years after the passing of the Act now in recital; and that it should be 'lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, and they were thereby empowered, with 'the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any 'Three or more of them, to pay to the Commissioners acting under the Act now in recital the said 'Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, or the proportionate Part thereof, from Time to Time, with 'Interest thereon at Five Pounds per Centum per Annum from the said Tenth Day of May One thousand 'eight hundred and forty-one, by and out of the before-mentioned Sum of One hundred and eighty-nine 'thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof so charged by them, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods, pursuant to the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign as 'aforesaid, as and when the said Commissioners should receive the said Sum of One hundred and eighty- 'nine thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof or any Part thereof, or by and out of any Monies 'which might be from Time to Time borrowed or raised by them, the said last-mentioned Commissioners, 'in anticipation and on the Credit of the said Sum of One hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds, 'and the Interest thereof or any Part thereof: Provided always, that the Monies to be paid to the 'Commissioners under the Act now in recital in respect of the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds 'and Interest should not exceed in the whole the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, with Interest at 'the Rate aforesaid upon the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or on so much thereof as should from Time 'to Time remain unpaid, to be calculated from the Time of the Completion of the new Street and 'Communication thereby authorized to be made (such Completion to be certified as therein-after men- 'tioned) to the Time when the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds should be fully paid: Provided also, 'that the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof, should not be raised and 'paid in priority to any other Sums authorized to be appropriated and applied out of the said Sum of 'One hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof, but all the Sums authorized 'to be appropriated and applied out of the said Sum of One hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds, 'and the Interest thereof, should be raised and paid in equal Degree and in rateable Proportions: Pro- 'vided also, that no Part of the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, or the Interest thereof, should 'be paid to the Commissioners under the Act now in recital until the new Street and Communication 'thereby authorized to be made should have been actually made and completed to the Satisfaction of 'the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to be 'certified by Warrant under their Hands, or the Hands of any Three of them: And whereas by the 10 & 11 Vict. 'Westminster Improvement Act, 1847, certain Alterations and Modifications were made in the Plans of c. cxxxi. 'the said intended new Street as by the said Westminster Improvement Act, 1845, authorized to be 'made; and it was also by the Act now in recital enacted, that the Proviso in the said last-recited Act 'contained, that no Part of the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, or the Interest thereof, should 'be paid to the Commissioners under the said Act until the new Street and Communication thereby 'authorized to be made should have been actually made and completed to the Satisfaction of the Lord 'High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, should be repealed: 'Provided always, that no Part of the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, or the Interest thereof,

'should be paid to the said last-mentioned Commissioners before and until they should have expended 'the full Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds solely and exclusively in making and forming the new 'Street intended to be called Victoria Street, and in purchasing the Lands and Hereditaments within 'the Area of the Line of the said Street (and as little beyond such Area as the Boundaries of the 'respective Properties would allow) necessary or convenient for that Purpose, and in Payment of 'Expenses strictly and exclusively contingent upon such Purchases, not exceeding Twelve Pounds per 'Centum on the Sums expended, and should have produced Evidence of the due Expenditure of the 'said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods, to be certified in Writing under the Hands of any Two of them, and should have also deposited 'and left with the said last-mentioned Commissioners the Deeds of Conveyance and Muniments of Title 'relating to the Lands and Hereditaments purchased with the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds 'or any Part thereof, such Deeds and Muniments of Title to be held and retained by the said last-'mentioned Commissioners until the said Street intended to be called Victoria Street should have been 'wholly completed and opened to the Public to the Satisfaction of Her Majesty's said Commissioners 'in the Manner mentioned or provided in and by the said Westminster Improvement Act, 1845, of and 'concerning the Street thereby authorized to be made: And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed
10 & 11 Vict. c. 115. 'in the Session held in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to vary 'the Priorities of the Charges made on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, it was amongst other 'things enacted, that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods should, by and out of any Monies 'which should be raised by them on the Credit of all or any of the Charges so made by them as aforesaid 'on the said Fund, commonly called The London Bridge Approaches Fund, or out of any Monies which 'should from Time to Time be received by them out of or in respect of the same Fund, pay to the 'Westminster Improvement Commissioners the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, and Interest, 'not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and in preference to any other Objects 'to which such Monies were applicable under the Provisions of the Acts authorizing such Charges, 'and other Acts therein referred to, and notwithstanding anything in the same Acts or any of 'them contained; provided nevertheless, that it should not be lawful for the said Commissioners of 'Her Majesty's Woods to make any such Payment unless and until they should be satisfied, by the 'Production of such Vouchers, or otherwise as they should require, that the Westminster Improvement 'Commissioners had expended the Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds at the least towards the opening 'of the new Thoroughfare, to be called Victoria Street, and so as such Expenditure were shown to have 'been made in respect of the procuring the Land for the Area of the Street, or as near thereto as in 'the Opinion of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods the Boundaries of the Properties to 'be purchased would allow, and of the Payment of Expenses relating to such Purchases, not exceeding 'Twelve Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the Purchase Monies, and so as such Expenditure 'were shown to have been made out of Monies belonging to the said Westminster Improvement Com-'missioners, or Monies raised by a Charge on the surplus Profits to arise on the Completion of the said 'Undertaking, or otherwise on the Credit of the Bonds or Debentures of the said last-named Commis-'sioners, and so as no Part thereof should consist of Monies raised by means of any Charge on the said 'Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds and Interest so to be advanced to the said Westminster Improve-'ment Commissioners as aforesaid, or on the Monies by the said Westminster Improvement Act, 1847, 'authorized to be paid to the said Improvement Commissioners out of or in respect of certain increased 'Rates therein mentioned; and it was by the Act now in recital further enacted, that before any Part 'of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds should be paid to the Westminster Improvement Commis-'sioners the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners should deposit with the Commissioners of 'Her Majesty's Woods for the Time being the Conveyances of all the Lands and Hereditaments which 'should have been purchased by the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, under the Provi-'sions of the said Acts, with the before-mentioned Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds, and all the 'Title Deeds relating thereto which should be in their Possession, and also should be bound from Time 'to Time, until the said Street should have been formed and paved or macadamized throughout, and 'opened as a public Thoroughfare, and the necessary Vaults and Sewers completed to the Satisfaction 'of Her Majesty's said Commissioners, to deposit in like Manner the Conveyances of any other Lands 'or Hereditaments which should be acquired by them under the Powers or in the Execution of the said 'Westminster Improvement Act, 1845, and the Westminster Improvement Act, 1847, and all the Title 'Deeds relating thereto which should be in their Possession, such Deeds to remain with the said Com-'missioners of Her Majesty's Woods for the Time being until the said Street, Vaults, and Sewers 'should have been completed and opened as aforesaid, and as a Security for the Completion and opening 'thereof within Four Years from the passing of the Act now in recital; and that on the Completion 'and opening of the said Street, and Completion of the Vaults and Sewers within such Period as afore-'said, the same should be delivered up to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, freed and 'discharged from such Security; but in case the said Street, Vaults, and Sewers should not have been 'so opened and completed as aforesaid within such Time as aforesaid, then it was thereby enacted, 'that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods for the Time being, at 'any Time thereafter, at their sole Discretion, to levy and raise the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or 'so much thereof as should have been advanced by them as aforesaid to the Westminster Improvement 'Commissioners, together with Interest on the Amount of the Monies advanced, after the Rate of Five 'Pounds per Centum per Annum from the Time of advancing the same, by Sale or Mortgage of all or 'any

'any Part of the Lands and Hereditaments which should have been purchased by the said Westminster 'Improvement Commissioners, and the Conveyances whereof should have been so deposited as aforesaid; 'and that for the Purpose of such Security the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods for the 'Time being should be taken to have the first Charge on the Lands and Hereditaments so conveyed to 'the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, and the Title Deeds relating to which should have been 'deposited as aforesaid, and should hold the same freed from all Estate or Interest or Claim of the 'Westminster Improvement Commissioners, and all Persons claiming under them; and that, subject to 'the making and paying the said Monies so advanced as aforesaid, and such Interest as aforesaid, and 'to the Payment of the Costs and Expenses relating to raising the same, the said Lands and Heredita-'ments, or the unsold Part thereof, should (subject nevertheless to any Mortgage which might have been 'made under the aforesaid Power) be freed and discharged from such Charge or Lien as aforesaid in all 'respects as if such Deposit had not been made; and any Surplus to arise on any Sale, after answering 'the Purposes aforesaid, should be paid to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners; and it 'was by the Act now in recital further enacted, that if and when the Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods should have been satisfied that the full Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds had been expended 'as aforesaid, towards purchasing the Area of and forming the said Street and Works, the said last-'named Commissioners should not have at their Disposal Monies sufficient to pay to the said West-'minster Improvement Commissioners the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds so by the Act now in 'recital authorized to be paid to them as aforesaid, then and thenceforth Interest, after the Rate of Five 'Pounds per Centum per Annum, should be paid by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods 'to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners on the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or on so 'much as should remain unpaid, from the Time at which the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods should be satisfied that the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds had been expended as 'aforesaid up to the Time at which the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or the unpaid Part thereof, 'should be paid, and that such Interest should be raised and paid in all respects as the said Sum of 'Fifty thousand Pounds was authorized to be raised and paid by the Act now in recital; but in case the 'said Westminster Improvement Commissioners should borrow the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or 'any Part thereof, on the Security or Credit of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds thereby directed 'to be paid to them, and should pay for the Monies borrowed a Rate of Interest lower than the Rate of 'Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, then only the Rate of Interest which should be paid by the 'Westminster Improvement Commissioners in respect of the Principal Monies so borrowed should be 'paid by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods in respect of the said Sum of Fifty thousand 'Pounds, or so much thereof as should remain unpaid: And whereas previously to the passing of the 'said Westminster Improvement Act, 1847, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods caused an 'Estimate to be made of the probable Expense of purchasing the Area of and of opening the said Street, 'to be called Victoria Street, and it was then estimated that the Purchase Money for the whole Area 'would amount to the Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, the Expenses of the Purchase 'to the Sum of Fifteen thousand Pounds, and the Cost of opening the Street as a public Thoroughfare 'to the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds: And whereas since the Time when the said Estimate was 'made the Westminster Improvement Commissioners have either actually purchased, or entered into 'Agreements for the Purchase of, more than Half the Property required for the aforesaid Area, and 'have deposited at the Office of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods a Plan and detailed 'Description of all the Properties lying within the Area of the said proposed Street, and the Purchase 'of which is necessary for the opening of the same Street or public Thoroughfare (and which Properties 'formed the Basis of the aforesaid Estimate), and also a Statement of the Prices paid or payable, or 'now estimated to be payable, in respect of the whole of such Properties, from which it appears that 'the total Purchase Money required for the same will probably be about One hundred and ten thousand 'Pounds: And whereas, in order to facilitate the Completion of the said new Street, to be called 'Victoria Street, as a public Thoroughfare, it is expedient that such further Provisions and Enactments 'should be made as are herein-after contained:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That when and so soon as the Westminster Improvement Commissioners shall have satisfied the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods that they the said West-minster Improvement Commissioners have actually expended the Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds towards the opening of the said new Thoroughfare, to be called Victoria Street, and so as such Expen-diture be shown to have been made in respect of the procuring the Land for the Area of the Street, and as little beyond such Area as the Boundaries of the respective Proprietors will allow, as shown in the said Plan and Description so deposited as aforesaid, and at Prices not exceeding those mentioned in the aforesaid Statement, so also deposited as aforesaid, and of the Payment of Expenses relating to such Purchases, not exceeding Twelve Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the Purchase Monies, and so as such Expenditure be shown to have been made out of Monies belonging to the said Westminster Improve-ment Commissioners, or Monies raised by a Charge on the surplus Profits to arise on the Completion of the said Undertaking, or otherwise on the Credit of the Bonds or Debentures of the said last-named Commissioners, and so as no Part thereof shall consist of Monies raised by means of any Charge on the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, and Interest, so to be advanced to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners as aforesaid, or on the Monies by the said Westminster Improvement Act, 1847,

Commissioners of Woods to pay to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners 50,000*l.* out of the first Monies they receive from the London Bridge Approaches Fund, when 75,000*l.* shall have been expended in purchasing Area of new Street.

1847, authorized to be paid to the said Improvement Commissioners out of or in respect of the increased Rates therein mentioned; and when the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners shall have deposited at the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods all the Conveyances of and Title Deeds, Agreements, and other Documents in their Possession relating to the Property and Hereditaments purchased with the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds, then and thereupon the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods shall and they are hereby required to pay to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, or their Assigns, out of the First Monies which shall come to their Hands by virtue of any Charge or Charges made or to be made by them on the said London Bridge Approaches Fund, or upon the several Funds, Duties, annual Sums and Revenues constituting the same, and which by the said or any other Acts they were authorized to charge as aforesaid, the full Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, in satisfaction of the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, and Interest, so authorized to be paid to them by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, together with Interest on the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be calculated from the Day on which the Expenditure of the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds shall have been proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, and certified by them or any Two of them, anything in the said recited Acts or any of them, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and further, that from and after such Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds shall have become payable under the Provisions lastly herein-before contained, if the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods shall not have Monies in their Hands applicable to the Payment of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Interest, then the said Commissioners last aforesaid shall and they are hereby required to give to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners a Certificate under their Hands, or the Hands of any Two of them, certifying that they have been satisfied of the due Expenditure of the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds, and that such Deeds and Documents have been deposited as aforesaid, and thereupon the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, or their Assigns, shall become absolutely entitled to the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Interest, and to be paid when and as there shall be any Monies applicable to the Payment thereof, and in the meanwhile to raise Money by the Assignment or upon the Credit thereof: Provided nevertheless, that unless the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds shall have been so expended within Six Calendar Months from the passing of this Act, then and thereupon the Provisions in this Act contained shall not take effect, and then and in that Case nothing herein contained shall alter or vary any of the Provisions in the said recited Acts or any other Act or Acts contained.

5 & 6 Vict. c. ci.

II. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, intituled An Act for further extending the Approaches to London Bridge and the Avenues 'adjoining to the Royal Exchange in the City of London, and for amending the Acts relating thereto 'respectively; and for raising a Sum of Money towards opening a Street to Clerkenwell Green in the 'County of Middlesex in continuation of the new Street from Farringdon Street in the City of London, 'the Charges upon the Estates and Revenues of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City 'of London were continued until the Charges on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, then made or 'authorized to be made, were fully paid and satisfied: And whereas the said Mayor and Commonalty 'and Citizens, with the view of affording Facilities for the Completion of the Westminster Improvements, 'have consented to the varying of the Priorities as authorized by this Act:' Be it enacted, That if at the Time when such Completion of such Expenditure of the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds shall have been certified as aforesaid the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods shall not have Monies in their Hands applicable or sufficient for Payment of Interest on the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, then out of the Fund commonly called "The London Bridge Approaches Fund," but subject to the Payment of any Interest or Annuities payable in respect of any Principal Sums charged on the said Fund under any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force prior to any Sums charged or to be charged on the said Fund by or in favour of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Interest after the Rate aforesaid on the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or on so much thereof as shall from Time to Time remain unpaid, shall be paid from Time to Time to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, their Successors and Assigns, by Two even and equal half-yearly Payments in every Year, before any Part of the surplus Monies arising from or in respect of the said Fund shall be applied in redemption of any Annuities or Payment of any Principal Monies already charged on the said Fund; and a proportionate Part of One of such half-yearly Payments shall be paid up to the Fifth Day of April or to the Tenth Day of October which shall next ensue after the Day on which such Expenditure of the said Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds shall have been so certified to have been completed as aforesaid, and the subsequent half-yearly Payments on every succeeding Fifth Day of April and Tenth Day of October until the whole of the said Principal Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds shall have been fully paid and satisfied; and, subject as aforesaid, the Residue of such surplus Monies as last aforesaid shall from Time to Time be applied in such Manner and for such Purposes in all respects as the same would have been applicable in or for if this present Provision for securing Payment of Interest on the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds had not been in this Act contained: Provided also, that the Interest as aforesaid shall be paid at the Chamber of London, and that the Receipt or Receipts in Writing of the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, sealed with their Common Seal, or of their Assigns, shall be a sufficient Discharge or sufficient Discharges to the Chamber of London for Payment of the same.

How Interest on 50,000*l.* shall be paid if Commissioners of Woods have no Monies in hand after Expenditure of the 75,000*l.*

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in case the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners shall borrow the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, on the Security or Credit of the said

Interest on the 50,000*l.* to be paid at the same said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Interest, hereby directed to be paid to them, and shall pay for the Monies borrowed a Rate of Interest lower than the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, then only the Rate of Interest which shall be paid by the Westminster Improvement Commissioners in respect of the Principal Monies so borrowed shall be paid in respect of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid.

Rate (not exceeding 5*l.* per Cent.) at which Monies may be borrowed on the Credit thereof.

IV. And be it enacted, That, as between the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods and all Persons or Parties whomsoever other than the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners themselves, such Certificate shall be sufficient and conclusive Evidence that all the Conditions by this Act prescribed have been complied with, and that the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods are satisfied on the Points on which their Satisfaction is hereby required; and that the Receipt or Receipts in Writing of the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, sealed with their Common Seal, or signed by their Clerk, with the Privity of Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods, or any Two of them, testified in Writing under their Hands, shall be full and sufficient Discharges to all Persons or Bodies Corporate whomsoever advancing or paying any Monies to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners on the Security or for the Purchase of, or otherwise in respect of, the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Interest, or any Part thereof, for the Monies therein expressed to be received, and that no such Person or Body Corporate shall be in anywise required to see to the Application of the Monies so advanced or paid by them.

Certificate of Commissioners of Woods to be Evidence of Compliance with Conditions, and Receipts of Westminster Improvement Commissioners to be good Discharges.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That, as between the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, all the Monies which shall be borrowed or raised by the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners on the Security of or by the Sale of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Interest, or any Part thereof, or the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Interest, when payable, (subject to any Sale or Mortgage or other Disposition thereof, and to the Payment thereout of all Monies raised or borrowed on the Security of an Assignment thereof,) or such Part of the said Monies as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods shall think fit, shall be deposited or invested by the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners in the Names of Three Trustees, to be approved of by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, and such Trustees shall hold such Monies in trust to lay out the same in or towards procuring for the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners the Residue not previously purchased of the Land for the Area of the said Street, and as little beyond such Area as the Boundaries of the respective Properties will allow, as shown in the said Plan or Description so deposited as aforesaid, at Prices not exceeding those mentioned in the said Description, and in Payment of Expenses relating to such Purchases, not exceeding the Rate of Twelve per Centum on the Amount of the Purchase Money, and in Payment of the Costs of building and making Vaults and Sewers and paving or otherwise preparing the said Street for a public Thoroughfare; and, subject as aforesaid, the said Monies so deposited shall be in trust for the Westminster Improvement Commissioners; but the Interest from Time to Time arising from such Monies so to be deposited as aforesaid, or the Securities on which the same may be invested, shall be paid to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, to be by them applied towards the Completion and opening of the said Thoroughfare.

The 50,000*l.*, or Monies borrowed on the Credit thereof, to be invested in the Names of Trustees for completing the Purchase of the Area of the new Street, and opening the same as a public Thoroughfare.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Trustee or Trustees to be approved by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, as by this Act is provided, shall die, or refuse or become incapable to act in the Trust hereby created, before the same shall be fully performed, it shall be lawful for the Westminster Improvement Commissioners from Time to Time, by any Writing sealed with their Common Seal, to nominate and appoint any other Person or Persons (to be approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods) to be a Trustee or Trustees of the said Monies in the Place of such Trustee or Trustees so dying, or refusing or becoming incapable to act, as aforesaid, and thereupon the said Monies, or such Part thereof as shall remain unapplied, shall be transferred into the Names of the surviving or continuing Trustee or Trustees and of the said new Trustee or Trustees, to be held by them upon the Trusts before mentioned respecting the same.

As to Appointment of new Trustees in case of Death, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the said Trustees shall not nor shall any or either of them be responsible for the Failure of any Banker in whose Hands such Monies shall be deposited for safe Custody or placed at Interest, nor for any Loss whatsoever, unless the same shall arise from their or his gross or wilful Neglect or Default.

Trustees not to be liable for involuntary Losses.

VIII. And be it enacted, That as regards so much of the Area of the said intended Street as has been already purchased, the same shall be and be taken to be Part of the Area as shown in the aforesaid Plan of the said intended Street, and for ever hereafter devoted as a public Thoroughfare, when and as the same shall have been completed and opened; and when and as any other Part of the said Area shall after the passing of this Act have been purchased the same shall be and be taken to be Part of the Area of the said intended Street, and shall not be subject to any Charges, Estates, Debts, or Incumbrances made or to be made by the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners; and after the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods shall have caused a Notice to be inserted in the London Gazette that the said new Street is open as a public Thoroughfare, the said Area shall become and be and for ever thereafter remain a public Thoroughfare to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Area, when purchased, to be devoted to the Public, free from all Charges.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, their Successors and Assigns, to set apart, appropriate, and enclose such Portion of the said Area as is marked out in the said Plan for Areas to the Houses fronting upon the said Street, and to make Vaults to or for such Houses within the Limits also marked out on the said Plan, and such Areas

Improvement Commissioners may enclose Areas to Houses, and construct Vaults appurtenant to the same.

Areas and Vaults as lastly aforesaid shall for ever thereafter be appurtenant to, and held, used, and enjoyed with such Houses respectively; and also that it shall be lawful for the said last-mentioned Commissioners, their Successors and Assigns, while any House or Houses fronting on the said Street shall be in the course of Erection or Completion, from Time to Time, at their Discretion, but in the usual and proper Manner, and for a reasonable Period only, to enclose and keep enclosed a Portion or Portions of the said Street fronting such House or Houses, and not exceeding Twenty Feet in Depth, and use the Space so enclosed in erecting and completing such House or Houses, and carrying on the necessary Works for that Purpose.

Plan deposited to remain, and to be open to Inspection.

X. And be it enacted, That the said Plan so deposited as aforesaid shall remain at the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, and all Persons shall be at liberty, at seasonable Times, to inspect the same, at their Will and Pleasure, on paying the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection.

Noncompletion of Street within prescribed Period not to affect Rights of Mortgagees.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Noncompletion of the said new Street within the Period prescribed by the said Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of Her Majesty shall not in anywise prejudice or affect the Right or Title of any Mortgagee or Assignee of the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners to receive the whole or any Part of the aforesaid Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Interest.

Title Deeds to be delivered up to the Improvement Commissioners when they have expended 75,000*l.* towards Purchase of Area, and have invested the 50,000*l.* in Names of Trustees.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when and so soon as the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners shall have applied the Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds towards the Purchase of such Area as aforesaid, and shall have deposited or invested in such Names as aforesaid the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods shall require for the Purpose of being applied in the purchasing the said Area and the Completion of the said Street as aforesaid, then, and notwithstanding anything in this Act or the said recited Acts, or any of them, or any Act of Parliament contained, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods shall and they are hereby required to deliver up to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners all the Conveyances, Title Deeds, and Documents which shall have been so deposited with them as aforesaid, freed and discharged from all Lien or Charge, Powers, Estates, or Interests of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, under any of the Provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them, or any other Act whatsoever; and thenceforwards it shall not be incumbent on the said Trustees or either of them, or the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, to cause any Conveyances, Title Deeds, or Documents of or relating to any Land paid or to be paid for by such Trustees or Commissioners as aforesaid to be deposited with the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, but the same shall be given up to the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners, their Successors or Assigns.

Improvement Commissioners to have Access to Documents deposited at Office of Woods.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That during such Time as any of the Conveyances, Title Deeds, and Documents deposited or so to be deposited as aforesaid shall remain in the Custody of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, the said Improvement Commissioners and their Appointees shall, at all reasonable Hours in the Daytime, have free Access to and be at liberty to inspect, examine, and make Extracts from or Abstracts and Copies of such Conveyances, Title Deeds, and Documents, or any of them.

Bond to the Treasury to remain in force.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall invalidate or in any Manner prejudice or bar the Enforcement of a certain Bond or Obligation in Writing bearing Date the Thirtieth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, taken by Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the Provisions of the Westminster Improvement Act, 1845, by way of Security for the Formation and Completion of the new Street, by the same Act authorized to be made, and by the Westminster Improvement Act, 1847, continued in force, and extended to the Formation and Completion of the new Street to be called Victoria Street, by the last-mentioned Act authorized to be made, but such Bond or Obligation shall remain in full Force, and the Condition thereof shall not be deemed to have been performed until the Roadway or Communication described in and laid down on the Plan in the last-mentioned Act referred to shall have been constructed and fully completed to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods (such Satisfaction to be expressed by a Certificate under the Hands of any Two of the last-mentioned Commissioners), and the said Roadway or Communication shall be opened to and fit to be used by the Public, or until the Obligees in the said Bond named shall have paid within the Time therein limited the full Sum which they have thereby bound themselves to pay in case of Default.

Commissioners of Woods to continue incorporated.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall continue incorporated for the Purposes of this Act, in such Manner as by the said first-recited Act or any other Act is provided for the Purposes of such Acts.

Repeal of Provision in Westminster Improvement Acts as to Conveyances by way of Sale or Exchange.

XVI. 'And whereas in and by the Westminster Improvement Act, 1845, it was amongst other things 'enacted, that as and when Conveyances by way of Sale or Exchange or Leases should be executed 'pursuant to such last-mentioned Act, the respective Persons and Corporations to whom the Lands 'described in such Conveyances and Leases respectively should be conveyed or leased should be entitled 'to hold the same discharged from all Mortgages or other Charges previously made by the said Improve-'ment Commissioners, without the Mortgagees or Persons entitled to such Charges concurring in the 'Conveyance or Lease: And whereas the said lastly-recited Enactment has by the Westminster Improve-'ment Act, 1847, been extended to the Property comprised in and authorized to be purchased by such 'last-mentioned Act: And whereas it is expedient that such Enactment should be modified or altered in 'manner herein-after mentioned:' Now be it enacted, That, notwithstanding anything in the said Westminster Improvement Acts or either of them contained, no Lands or Hereditaments to be comprised in any Conveyance by way of Sale or Exchange, or any Lease to be made by the said Improvement Commissioners, shall be held so discharged as aforesaid from any Mortgage or Charge affecting the same, without the Mortgagee or Mortgagees or other Person or Persons entitled to such Mortgage or Charge concurring in such Conveyance or Lease, in any Case where in the Deed or Deeds creating such Mortgage or Charge it shall have been expressly agreed that the Lands and Hereditaments therein comprised shall not be discharged from such Mortgage or Charge without the Concurrence of the Person or Persons entitled thereto.

XVII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such. Public Act.

CAP. CXXVII.

An Act to reduce the Duties on Copper and Lead. [5th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce the Duty now payable upon the Importation of Copper and Lead into the United Kingdom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in lieu and instead of the Duties of Customs now payable upon the Articles mentioned in the Table to this Act annexed, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon the said Articles imported into the United Kingdom only, the several Duties of Customs respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table to this Act annexed.

After passing of this Act Duties mentioned in Table annexed to be substituted for those now payable.

II. And be it enacted, That all such Goods as are enumerated in the said Table as shall have been warehoused without Payment of Duty upon the first Importation thereof, and which shall be in the Warehouse at the Commencement of the Duties imposed by this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be liable to such Duties.

Certain Goods warehoused without Payment of Duty to be liable.

III. And be it enacted, That the Duties by this Act imposed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and shall be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and applied, or appropriated under the Provisions of any Act or Acts now in force or hereafter to be made relating to the Customs.

Duties by this Act imposed to be under Management of the Customs.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. CXXVIII.

An Act for carrying into effect the Agreement between Her Majesty and the Imaum of Muscat for the more effectual Suppression of the Slave Trade. [5th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS on the Second Day of October in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-five an Agreement was concluded and signed at Zanzibar between Captain Atkins Hamerton of Her Majesty's Royal Navy, on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and his Highness Seid Saeed Bin Sultan, the Imaum of Muscat, whereby it was agreed as follows:

'ARTICLE I.—His Highness the Sultan of Muscat hereby engages to prohibit, under the severest Penalties, the Export of Slaves from his African Dominions, and to issue Orders to his Officers to prevent and suppress such Trade.

'ARTICLE II.—His Highness the Sultan of Muscat further engages to prohibit, under the severest Penalties, the Importation of Slaves from any Part of Africa into his Possessions in Asia, and to use his utmost Influence with all the Chiefs of Arabia, the Red Sea, and the Persian Gulf, in like Manner to prevent the Introduction of Slaves from Africa into their respective Territories.

'ARTICLE III.—His Highness the Sultan of Muscat grants to the Ships of Her Majesty's Navy, as well as those of the East India Company, Permission to seize and confiscate any Vessels the Property of his Highness or of his Subjects carrying on Slave Trade, excepting such only as are engaged in the Transport of Slaves from one Port to another of his own Dominions in Africa, between the Port of Lamoo to the North, and its Dependencies, the Northern Limit of which is the North Point of Kuyhoo Island, in 1° 57′ South Latitude, and the Port of Keelwa to the South, and its Dependencies, the Southern Limit of which is the Songa Manara or Pagoda Point, in 9° 2′ South Latitude, including the Islands of Zanzibar, Pemba, and Monfea.

'ARTICLE IV.—This Agreement to commence and have effect from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven of the Year of Christ, and the Fifteenth Day of the Month of Mohunum One thousand two hundred and sixty-three of the Hejira.

'Done at Zanzibar, this Second Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five of the Year of Christ, and Twenty-ninth Day of Ramzan One thousand two hundred and sixty-one of the Hejira.

'(Signed) Seid Saeed Bin Sultan,
'Imaum of Muscat.

'(Signed) Atkins Hamerton, Captain,
'On behalf of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain
'and Ireland, Her Heirs and Successors.

'And whereas it is expedient and necessary that effectual Provision should be made for carrying into execution the Provisions of the said Agreement:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commander and other Officers of Her Majesty's Ships of War or of the East India Company to visit and detain in any Seas, except within the Limits exempted by the Terms of the Third Article of the said Agreement, any Merchant Vessel belonging to the Subjects of the Imaum of Muscat which shall upon reasonable Grounds be suspected of being engaged in the Export of Slaves from the African Dominions of the Imaum of Muscat, or the Importation of Slaves from any Part of Africa into his Possessions in Asia, excepting such only as are engaged in the Transport of Slaves from one Port to another of his own Dominions in Africa, between the Port of Lamoo to the North, and its Dependencies, the Northern Limit of which is the North Point of Kuyhoo Island, in 1° 57′ South Latitude, and the Port of Keelwa to the South, and its Dependencies, the Southern Limit of which is the Songa Manara or Pagoda Point, in 9° 2′ South Latitude, including the Islands of Zanzibar, Pemba, and Monfea, or any Vessel fitted out for that Purpose, and to send or carry away such Vessel, together with its Masters, Sailors, Passengers, Slaves, and Cargo, for the Purpose of such Vessel being brought to Adjudication as herein-after mentioned.

Power to Commanders of Ships of War and of the East India Company to visit Vessels belonging to Subjects of the Imaum of Muscat, within certain Limits, suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the High Court of Admiralty of England, and for all Courts of Vice Admiralty in any Dominions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, including those Courts of Vice Admiralty within the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, to take cognizance of and try any such Vessel which shall be detained or captured for the Violation of the said Agreement, and to condemn any such Vessel to Her Majesty, and adjudge as to the Slaves found therein, in like Manner and under such and the like Rules and Regulations as are contained in any Act or Acts of

As to the Trial of Vessels engaged in the Slave Trade.

Parliament in force in relation to the Suppression of the Slave Trade by British-owned Ships, as fully as if all the Powers and Provisions contained in such Acts were re-enacted in this Act as to such High Court of Admiralty or Courts of Vice Admiralty.

Persons giving false Evidence deemed guilty of Perjury.

III. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence in any Examination or Deposition had or Affidavit taken in any Proceeding under the said Agreement or under this Act, shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and being thereof convicted shall be subject and liable to all the Punishments, Pains, and Penalties to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable; and every such Person may be tried for any such Perjury either in the Place where the Offence was committed or in any Colony or Settlement of Her Majesty near thereto in which there is a Court of competent Jurisdiction to try any such Offence, or in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in England; and that in case of any Prosecution for such Offence in Her Majesty's said Court of Queen's Bench the Venue may be laid in the County of Middlesex.

Pendency of Suits to be a Bar to any Proceedings instituted for the Recovery of the Vessels detained.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Pendency of any Suit or Proceeding instituted for the Condemnation or Restitution of any Ship or Cargo, or Slaves, taken, seized, or detained by virtue of the said Agreement, or the final Adjudication, Condemnation, or Judgment or Determination thereupon, may be pleaded in bar, or given in Evidence under the General Issue, and shall be deemed in any Court whatever to be a complete Bar in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding, whether instituted by any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any such Ship, Vessel, or Cargo, or of any Damage or for any Injury sustained thereby or by the Persons on board the same, in consequence of any Capture, Seizure, or Detention, or anything done under or in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Agreement.

Vessels condemned to be sold for Her Majesty's Service, or broken up.

V. And be it enacted, That any Ship or Vessel which shall be condemned as aforesaid may be taken into Her Majesty's Service, upon Payment of such Sum as the Lord High Admiral or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall deem a proper Price for the same, or if not so taken shall be broken up and demolished, and the Materials thereof shall be publicly sold in separate Parts, and the Proceeds thereof shall be paid to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may appoint to receive the same.

Captains of Vessels to be paid the Proceeds belonging to Her Majesty.

VI. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel employed or engaged in such illicit Traffic in Slaves, in violation of the said Agreement, shall be seized by any Ship or Vessel belonging to Her Majesty or the East India Company, and afterwards condemned, there shall be paid to the Captors the net Proceeds to which Her Majesty is entitled, the same to be distributed in the Manner herein-after directed for the Distribution of Bounties on Slaves taken on board the said Vessels.

A Bounty of 5*l.* for every Slave found on board of Vessels seized and condemned.

VII. And be it enacted, That there shall be paid to the Commander, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships, or the Commander, Officers, and Crews of the Ships of the East India Company, a Bounty of Five Pounds for every Man, Woman, and Child Slave seized and found on board any Ship or Vessel taken and condemned in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Agreement and of this Act; such Bounty to be issued and paid by Order from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and to be distributed to and amongst the Captors aforesaid in such Manner and Proportions as Her Majesty shall think fit to order by any Order in Council, made or to be made, or by any Proclamation for that Purpose.

A Bounty to be paid on Tonnage of Slave Ships captured and demolished.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel which shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Agreement shall have been or shall be demolished, and the Materials thereof publicly sold in separate Parts, as well as her Cargo, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships or of those of the East India Company, in addition to the Amount of the Proceeds of such Sale, as herein-before mentioned, a further Bounty on the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel at the Rate of Thirty Shillings for every Ton of such Tonnage.

Where no Slaves are on board a Ship seized and condemned, an additional Bounty to be paid on Tonnage.

IX. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel having no Slaves on board shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Agreement, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships, or those of the East India Company, an additional Bounty upon the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel at the Rate of Four Pounds for every Ton; and the Tonnage of all such Vessels shall be ascertained according to the Mode of ascertaining the Admeasurement of British Vessels, either by the principal Officer of the Customs at the Port where the Vessel may be at the Time of Condemnation, or in default thereof by the best Evidence which can be obtained: Provided always, that in every Case in which any Ship or Vessel shall be seized with Slaves on board, in which the Bounty calculated upon the Number of Slaves shall be less than the Bounty calculated upon the Tonnage, the Commanders of Her Majesty's Ships, or of those of the East India Company, making the Seizure, may elect to take the Bounty calculated according to Tonnage, instead of the Bounty which would be payable upon the Number of Slaves on board.

Bounties to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

X. And be it enacted, That all Bounties payable under this Act shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships, and of the Ships of the East India Company, and such Bounties shall be issued and paid by Order from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Bounties not liable to Payment of Fees.

XI. And be it enacted, That the said Bounty, as also all Bounties payable under any of the Acts for the Abolition or Suppression of the Slave Trade, shall not hereafter be charged with Treasury Fees or Exchequer Fees of any Description.

Captors entitled to Bounty to give Proof of Tonnage.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money the Tonnage of the Ship or Vessel so seized and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by producing a Copy, duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, or by such documentary or other Evidence as they may deem satisfactory.

XIII. Pro-

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money on Slaves the Number of Men, Women, and Children so taken, delivered over, and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by producing a Copy duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, and also a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer or Officers, military or civil, who may be appointed to receive such Slaves. Copy of Sentence of Condemnation to be produced to the Treasury.

XIV. And be it enacted, That where any Slaves, or Persons treated as Slaves, shall be seized on board any Ship or Vessel taken and condemned in pursuance of the said Agreement and of this Act, but who shall not have been delivered over in consequence of Death, Sickness, or other inevitable Circumstance, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, to direct Payment of One Moiety of the Bounty which would have been due in each Case respectively if the said Slaves had been delivered over. In certain Cases Treasury may order One Moiety of the Bounty to be paid.

XV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That any Party or Parties claiming any Benefit by way of Bounty under the Provisions of this Act, or of any Share of the Proceeds of any Vessel confiscated in pursuance of the Provisions of the aforesaid Agreement, may resort to the High Court of Admiralty for the Purpose of obtaining the Judgment of the said Court in that Behalf; and that it shall be lawful for the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty to determine thereon, and also to hear and determine any Question of joint Capture which may arise upon any Seizure made in pursuance of this Act, and also to enforce any Decrees or Sentences of the said Vice Admiralty Courts relating to any such Seizure. Parties claiming Benefit under this Act may resort to the Court of Admiralty.

XVI. And be it enacted, That all the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures, and Penalties respecting the Delivery by Prize Agents of Accounts for Examination, and the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize, and the Per-centage due thereon, to Greenwich Hospital, shall be extended to all Bounties and Proceeds to be distributed under the Provisions of this Act to the Officers and Crews of any of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War. Regulations, &c. to which Prize Agents are liable extended to Bounties, &c. under this Act.

XVII. And be it enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel belonging in whole or in part to Subjects of the Imaum of Muscat shall have been detained and brought to Adjudication by any Officers of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, or of those of the East India Company, and the said Ship shall be restored by Sentence of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant signed by any Three or more of them, to direct Payment to be made out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of any Costs or Damages which may be duly awarded: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt such Officer from his Liability to make good the Payments so made, when lawfully called upon either by the Parties interested therein or by Order of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury. Treasury may order Payment of Costs awarded for Vessels detained, but not condemned.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That when any Seizure shall be made by any of the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships or of those of the East India Company, and Judgment shall be given against the Seizor, or when such Seizure shall be relinquished by him, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, by Warrant, signed by any Three or more of them, to direct Payment to be made out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of such Costs and Expenses as the Seizor may have incurred in respect of such Seizure, or any proportional Part thereof. Treasury may repay to the Seizor of any Vessel not condemned the Expenses incurred by him.

CAP. CXXIX.

An Act for amending an Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty for making preliminary Inquiries in certain Cases of Applications for Local Acts.

[5th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for making preliminary Inquiries in certain Cases of Applications for Local Acts: And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Act, and to enact other Provisions in lieu thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed, but so that such Repeal shall not affect the Liability of any Promoters or others to the Payment of any Costs, Charges, Expenses, or other Sums made payable by the said Act, and now remaining unpaid, or any Right or Remedy under any Security given for the Payment of such Costs, Charges, Expenses, or other Sums, or the Certificate of any Surveying Officer, or the Authority which any Surveying Officer would have had to certify the Amount of Expenses incurred in any local Examination under the said recited Act in case this Act had not been passed. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 106. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 106. repealed, but not to affect certain Acts done under it.

II. And be it enacted, That in any Case where it is intended to make an Application to Parliament for an Act for the Establishment of any Waterworks, or for draining, paving, cleansing, lighting, or otherwise improving any Town, District, or Place, or for making, maintaining, or altering any Burial Ground or Cemetery, or for continuing, altering, or enlarging any of the Powers or Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to any of the Purposes aforesaid, a Statement in Duplicate of the intended Objects and Provisions of the proposed Act shall, on or before the last Day of the Month of November next before the Session of Parliament in which such Application is intended to be made, or in case such Day shall fall on a Sunday then on or before the Day preceding, be sent or delivered to or at the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings; and such Statement shall be signed by the Promoter or by any Two or more of the Promoters of the proposed Act, Statement of Objects, &c. of proposed Act, accompanied by Plans, &c., to be given to the Commissioners of Woods, &c.

Act, or by some Person duly authorized on his or their Behalf; and in such Statement shall also be described and specified:

First. The public Benefit proposed by such Act:

Secondly. The Amount of Funds required for carrying the Act into effect, and the proposed Application of the same:

Thirdly. The Mode in which it is proposed to raise such Funds:

Fourthly. If it is proposed to raise such Funds by Loan, the Mode whereby, and the Period within which, such Loan is to be repaid:

And with such Statement shall be sent or delivered as aforesaid a Copy of such Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference or other Documents, if any, as may be required by the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament for the Time being to be deposited at any public Office.

Power to Commissioners of Woods, &c. to appoint competent Persons to be Inspectors to make preliminary Examinations, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall consider the same necessary or expedient, but not otherwise, and on being satisfied with the Security for Payment of the Expenses as herein-after provided, to appoint, by Writing under their Hands, One or more competent Person or Persons, as they shall think necessary, to be an Inspector or Inspectors for the Purpose of making such preliminary Examination, Survey, and Inquiries as herein-after mentioned with reference to any such proposed Act; and the said Inspector or Inspectors shall proceed to the Town, District, or Place to which the proposed Act may relate, and shall make such Examination and Survey of the same, and such Inquiries in relation to the Objects and Provisions of the proposed Act, and shall conduct his or their Proceedings in such Manner as may be directed by any Orders or Resolutions of either House of Parliament, and in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct, in case there shall be no such Orders or Resolutions, and so far as such Orders or Resolutions for the Time being shall not extend or be applicable; but so that there be a public Hearing by the said Inspector or Inspectors, at which the Promoters, Opposers, and others may be heard in relation to the proposed Act; and after such Examination, Survey, and Inquiries as aforesaid the said Inspector or Inspectors shall report the Result thereof to the said Commissioners; and every such Report, together with such other Documents as the said Commissioners shall deem necessary, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the Time at which Security for Payment of Expenses shall have been given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners as herein provided, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament: Provided always, that if by reason of any special Circumstances it shall in any Case be found impracticable to lay any such Report before both Houses of Parliament within the Time herein-before specified, the said Commissioners shall with such Report present a Statement of the special Circumstances which may have occasioned the Delay.

Inspectors to report to Commissioners of Woods, &c., who shall lay the same before Parliament, after Security for Payment of Expenses shall be given.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. to give Notice of Inquiry.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall give Fourteen Days public Notice of the Time and Place which shall have been fixed for the Purpose of the public Hearing, or first public Hearing, for the Purposes of such Examination as aforesaid, by Advertisement in One or more of the public Papers usually circulated in the Town, District, or Place, and in such other Manner as shall appear to them necessary and sufficient.

Promoters of proposed Act and Opponents to appear before Inspectors, and produce Surveys, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That at the Time and Place which shall have been so notified as aforesaid the Promoter or Promoters of the proposed Act, or some Person on his or their Behalf, shall appear before the said Inspector or Inspectors, and produce all such Surveys, Plans, Sections, and Estimates, or other Documents connected with the Matter of Inquiry, and give such Evidence in relation to the proposed Act as such Promoter, Promoters, or Person aforesaid shall think fit, and shall give such further Evidence, and produce such other Documents, as the said Inspector or Inspectors shall deem necessary; and all Persons whose Rights or Interests may be affected by any such proposed Act, and who may be desirous of being heard in opposition to the same, may also appear before the said Inspector or Inspectors, and state their Grounds of Opposition thereto, and may support the same by Evidence, and by such Plans, Sections, or other Documents as may be in their Custody or Power; and the said Inspector or Inspectors may by Summons under his or their Hand or Hands summon before him or them any Overseer or other Person having the Custody of any Map or Survey made in pursuance of the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, or of any Book containing any Rate made for the Relief of the Poor in any Parish, or for any Purpose or Place wholly or in part within the District over which such Examination shall extend, to produce such Map, Survey, or Book for his or their Inspection; and the said Inspector or Inspectors may summon in manner aforesaid any other Person whose Evidence shall, in the Judgment of the said Inspector or Inspectors, be material to his or their Inquiries, and pay or allow to every such Overseer or other Person so summoned by him or them the reasonable Charges of his Attendance; and the said Inspector or Inspectors shall also have Power to administer an Oath to all Persons who may be examined by him or them touching the Premises, and all Persons so examined shall be required to answer upon Oath all such Questions as may be put to them by the Inspector or Inspectors.

Power to Inspectors to summon Persons having Custody of Maps, &c.; also Persons to give Evidence.

Power to Inspectors to administer Oaths.

Penalty on Persons wilfully refusing to attend or give Evidence.

VI. And be it enacted, That any Person being summoned by such Inspector or Inspectors who, after the Delivery to him of such Summons as aforesaid, or of a Copy thereof, shall wilfully neglect or refuse to attend in pursuance of such Summons, or to produce such Plans, Sections, Maps, Books, or other Documents as he may be required to produce under the Provisions herein-before contained, or to answer upon Oath such Questions as may be put to him by such Inspector or Inspectors under the Powers herein contained, shall be liable to forfeit and pay a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, which may be recovered before any Two or more Justices having Jurisdiction within such Town, District, or Place; and on

Conviction

Conviction of the Offender, and in default of Payment of any such Penalty, such Justices shall be empowered and required to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, and such Penalty shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County within which such Conviction shall take place, in aid of the County Rate; provided that no Person other than the Promoters of the proposed Act, or their Agents, shall be required to attend in obedience to any Summons, unless the reasonable Charges of his Attendance be paid or tendered to him, nor to travel in obedience thereto more than Ten Miles from his usual Place of Abode.

Expenses of Inquiry to be paid by the Promoters, the Amount of which shall be certified by Commissioners.

VII. And be it enacted, That all Costs, Charges, and Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Commissioners or by the said Inspector or Inspectors in respect of the said local Examination, Survey, and Inquiries, or otherwise under the Provisions of this Act, in relation to the Application for any such Act as aforesaid, including such Sums as the said Commissioners shall fix for the Remuneration of the said Inspector or Inspectors, shall be paid by the Promoters of the proposed Act to the said Commissioners; and the Amount of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall in all Cases be certified by the said Commissioners, after first hearing any Objections that may be made to the Reasonableness of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses by the Person or Persons liable to pay the same, or some Person duly authorized on his or their Behalf; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, previous to the Commencement of such Examination, to require the said Promoters to deposit any Sum of Money, or to give such other Security for the Payment of the said Costs, Charges, and Expenses as to the said Commissioners shall seem fit; and the Certificate of the said Commissioners, certifying the Amount of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses so incurred as aforesaid, shall be taken as Proof in all Proceedings at Law and in Equity of the Amount of such respective Costs, Charges, and Expenses: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to include in such Certificate any Charge for the Attendance of any Persons who may voluntarily present themselves before such Inspector or Inspectors for Examination by him or them under the Provisions herein-before contained: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Inspector or Inspectors, where he or they shall be of opinion that the Inquiries under this Act have been prolonged by frivolous or vexatious Opposition of any Person or Persons, to direct by a Certificate under the Hand or Hands of such Inspector or Inspectors, that a Sum of Money, in such Certificate to be mentioned, be paid by such Person or Persons to the Promoters of the proposed Act, in respect of the increased Costs, Charges, and Expenses under this Act occasioned by such frivolous or vexatious Opposition; and in such Case the Promoters, or such of them as shall have paid the whole of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses to the said Commissioners, shall be entitled to sue for and recover the Sum mentioned in such last-mentioned Certificate, as Money paid to the Use and at the Request of the Person or Persons by such Certificate directed to pay the same.

Promoters to make a Deposit.

Certificate of Commissioners to be taken as Proof in Proceedings at Law.

Inspectors may charge a Portion of the Expenses on Opponents.

Commissioners may charge Opponents to proposed Act with a Proportion of Costs of Inquiries, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners (whenever they may think it necessary or proper so to do) to charge any Person or Persons, Joint Stock Company, Municipal Corporation, or other Body appearing as Opponents to any proposed Act, with such Proportion of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred in respect of such local Examination, Survey, or Inquiries, or otherwise, as aforesaid, as the said Commissioners may think fit, and likewise to require such Person or Persons, Joint Stock Company, Corporation, or other Body to deposit any Sum of Money, or to give such other Security for the Payment of the said Costs, Charges, and Expenses, as to the said Commissioners shall seem fit.

Notice to be given to the Admiralty where Applications relate to Ports or navigable Rivers.

IX. And be it enacted, That where it is intended to make Application to Parliament for an Act relating to any Port or Harbour, or to any tidal Water, or to any navigable River, or in any Manner directly or indirectly affecting the Navigation of such Port, Harbour, tidal Water, or navigable River, a Statement in Duplicate, with such Copy of Plans, Sections, Books of Reference, or other Documents as aforesaid, shall be sent or delivered to the Lord High Admiral, or to the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, in the Manner herein-before directed for sending or delivering such Statement and Documents to the Office of the first-mentioned Commissioners, in the Case of the Intention to make Application to Parliament for the other Acts above specified; and the Lord High Admiral or the said Lords Commissioners may, where he or they shall deem it necessary or expedient, cause the like Examination, Survey, and Inquiries to be made by an Inspector or Inspectors, and shall have the same Powers with respect to such Examination, Survey, and Inquiries in relation to the proposed Acts to which the Statement to be sent or delivered to him or them shall relate, as herein-before enacted, in regard to the said first-mentioned Commissioners, with respect to the Acts in relation to which a Statement is to be sent or delivered to them; and the Inspector or Inspectors who may be appointed by such Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners shall, in relation to the Purposes of their Appointment, have the same Powers and Authorities as the Inspector or Inspectors appointed by such first-mentioned Commissioners, in relation to the Purposes of their Appointment, as if all the Provisions herein-before enacted in regard to the first-mentioned Commissioners and the Inspector or Inspectors by them appointed, with respect to the Cases in which they respectively are authorized to act, had been repeated in regard to such Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners as aforesaid, and the Inspector or Inspectors appointed by him or them, with respect to the Cases in which he or they respectively are authorized to act as aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that such Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners shall not be required to lay the Reports of the said Inspectors before the Houses of Parliament unless such Reports be specially called for by either House, but such Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners shall report to Parliament, under the Hand of his or their Secretary for the Time being, on every such Act touching the Jurisdiction or Authority of the Lord High Admiral.

X. And

Inquiry may be made after Time limited by Permission of either House of Parliament.

X. And be it enacted, That in case either House of Parliament shall order that an Examination, Survey, and Inquiries be made in reference to any such Application to Parliament as herein-before mentioned by an Inspector or Inspectors, the first-mentioned Commissioners, or the said Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners, as the Case may be, shall thereupon appoint an Inspector or Inspectors, and such Inspector or Inspectors shall make the like Examination, Survey, Inquiries, and Report, in the same Manner, and shall have the same Powers and Authorities in relation thereto, as if he or they had been appointed as herein-before provided; and the Report of such Inspector or Inspectors, or the Report of the Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners, shall be laid before or made to both Houses of Parliament within such Time as by such Order shall be directed; and all the Provisions herein-before contained with reference to Surveys, Examinations, and Inquiries, and Costs, Charges, and Expenses, shall be applicable to the Examination, Survey, and Inquiries directed by every such Order as aforesaid, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses thereof.

Interpretation of Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That in this Act Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number shall include the Singular Number, and Words importing the Masculine Gender shall include Females; and any Act directed or authorized to be done by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings may be done either by the Chief Commissioner or by any Two of the said Commissioners; and the Persons whose Names shall be subscribed to any Statement which may be sent or delivered to or at the Office of the said Commissioners, or to the said Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners, shall be deemed to be Promoters of the proposed Act thereby referred to for all the Purposes of this Act, notwithstanding the Persons subscribing such Statement shall have signed for and on behalf of any other Party.

Persons signing Statements to be deemed Promoters.

Act may be amended, &c.

XII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXXX.

An Act for guaranteeing the Interest on such Loans, not exceeding Five hundred thousand Pounds, as may be raised by the British Colonies on the Continent of South America, in the West Indies and the Mauritius, for certain Purposes. [5th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Her Majesty should be enabled to guarantee the Interest, at a Rate 'not exceeding Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, on any Loan or Loans, not exceeding in the 'whole the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, which the Legislatures or other proper Legislative 'Authority of Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions on the Continent of South America, in the West 'Indies, and the Island of Mauritius, may raise and charge on the respective Revenues of such Colonies 'and Possessions, for the Purpose of promoting the Introduction of Free Labourers, or the Formation 'of Roads, Railways, Works of Drainage or Irrigation, or other public Undertakings of a similar 'Character:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to guarantee the Payment of the Interest, not exceeding the yearly Rate of Four Pounds in the Hundred, on any Principal Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds in the whole, which, in conformity with the Provisions herein contained, shall be raised for all or any of the Purposes aforesaid, by Loan, Debenture, or otherwise, and the Repayment of which, with Interest not exceeding the Rate aforesaid, within a Term to be approved by the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be provided for by a sinking Fund or otherwise, and secured and charged on the Revenues of any of the Colonies and Possessions of Her Majesty in the West Indies, on the Continent of South America, and the Island of Mauritius, in which such Taxes or other Sources of Revenue of sufficient Duration shall be by Law established, as in the Judgment of the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall be sufficient to provide for the Discharge of such Principal Sum or Sums and Interest within such Term, after satisfying any prior Charges to which under existing Laws such Revenues may for the Time be liable by any Acts or Act, Ordinances or Ordinance, to be passed or made by the Legislatures or proper Legislative Authority of such respective Colonies and Possessions, and assented to by Her Majesty; and that for giving Effect to every such Guarantee, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, to direct and cause to be issued and paid out of the Growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom, such Sums as shall be required to make good any Deficiency which shall happen in the regular Payment on the Part of the said Colonies and Possessions respectively of the Interest accruing due upon any such Loans or Loan to be raised as aforesaid.

Her Majesty may guarantee Interest, not exceeding Four per Cent., on Loans raised for the Purposes herein mentioned, not exceeding 500,000*l.*

Treasury may determine Amounts to be raised, &c.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, from Time to Time to determine the Amounts or Amount to be so raised by the said several Colonies and Possessions, or any of them; and the Sums or Sum so to be raised, and the Interest thereof respectively, shall be charged on the Revenues of such Colonies and Possessions by such respective Acts and Ordinances as aforesaid, in such Form and Manner as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners shall approve.

Advances out of Consolidated Fund of United

III. And be it enacted, That all the Sums which shall be so issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom in respect of the Interest of any such Loans or Loan, with Interest upon upon the Sums so issued, after the yearly Rate of Five Pounds in the One hundred Pounds, to be computed from the several Times of issuing the same, shall be charged upon the Revenues of the respective Colonies and Possessions for which such Issues shall have been made. Kingdom to be charged on Revenues of Colonies.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, shall from Time to Time certify to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State the Amount so paid from Time to Time on account of the Interest of any such Loan; and such Certificate shall be communicated to the Governor or Person administering the Government of the Colony or Possession for which such Loan shall have been raised, and shall be by him communicated to the Council and Assembly or other Legislative Bodies or Body of such Colony or Possession; and such Certificate shall be conclusive Evidence of the Amount so paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom, and of the Time when the same was paid on account of the Interest of the said Loan. Certificate of Amount paid out of Consolidated Fund to be sent to Colonies.

V. And be it enacted, That the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall cause to be prepared, and shall lay before both Houses of Parliament, within Fourteen Days next after the beginning of every Session, an Account of all Sums from Time to Time issued out of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom by virtue of this Act towards making good any such Deficiency as aforesaid, and also an Account of all Sums repaid by or recovered from the said Colonies or Possessions, or any of them, by reason of such Advance, with the Interest paid or recovered thereon. Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

CAP. CXXXI.

An Act to amend, and continue until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act to make Provision for the Treatment of poor Persons afflicted with Fever in Ireland. [5th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to make Provision until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven for the Treatment of poor Persons afflicted with Fever in Ireland: And whereas by another Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her said Majesty the said first-recited Act was continued, subject to certain Amendments, until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to amend and further continue the said first-recited Act as amended by the said secondly-recited Act, subject to further Amendments herein-after provided:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty shall, as amended by the said secondly-recited Act, and subject nevertheless to the Amendments herein-after contained, be continued until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, save and except so much of the said recited Acts or either of them as relates to the Appointment by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland of a Medical Officer or Officers for each and every Union for the Relief of the destitute Poor, and to the Salaries of such Medical Officers, and save and except so much of the said secondly-recited Act as relates to the Powers of the Relief Commissioners and Finance Committees therein mentioned, or the Management by Relief Committees of any Hospital or Dispensary established under either of the said Acts. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 6. 10 & 11 Vict. c. 22. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 6. continued till 1st November 1849, and to End of next Session of Parliament.

II. And be it enacted, That the Provisions of the said recited Acts and of this Act shall extend and be taken and construed to extend to all contagious or epidemic Diseases. Acts extended to all contagious Diseases.

III. And be it enacted, That immediately after the passing of this Act the said Commissioners of Health or any Two of them shall certify to the Lord Lieutenant, under their Hands, the Hospitals or Dispensaries heretofore established under the said recited Acts or either of them which they shall deem necessary to be upheld and maintained, subject to the Approval of the Lord Lieutenant, by Writing under his Hand; and when such Approval shall have been so signified the Care and Management of every such Hospital and Dispensary shall devolve upon the Board of Guardians of the Union in which the same shall be situate; and such Board of Guardians shall have the like Powers and Authorities for such Purpose, and for all Purposes relating to any such Hospital or Dispensary, as any Relief Committee could or would have had under the said secondly-recited Act; and the Provisions and Powers of the said Act shall extend and apply to the Board of Guardians, and to the Punishment of any Person resisting or opposing the Execution of their Orders, and to any Action brought against them or any of them, or any Person employed by them, in like Manner and as fully and effectually as to any Relief Committee having the Management of any such Hospital or Dispensary. The Board of Health to certify the existing Hospitals required to be upheld, the Management of which shall thereupon be in the Board of Guardians.

IV. And be it enacted, That if after the passing of this Act the Commissioners of Health or any Two of them shall certify to the Lord Lieutenant their Opinion that the Appointment of a Medical Officer or Medical Officers for any Electoral Division or Divisions or other District of any Union is expedient and necessary, on account of the Existence therein of any Fever or other contagious or epidemic Disease, and if the Lord Lieutenant shall, under his Hand, approve of the making of such Appointment, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Health or any Two of them to require the Guardians of the Poor of such Union to appoint such Medical Officer or Officers, and to fix his or their Salary or Salaries, subject Medical Officers may be appointed for any Districts on a Certificate of the Board of Health.

subject to Approval by the said Commissioners of the Persons so appointed and of the Salaries so fixed; and upon the Neglect or Default of the said Guardians to make any such Appointment or to fix any such Salary so to be approved as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to appoint any such Medical Officer at such reasonable Salary as he shall think fit; and the said Guardians shall and are hereby required, out of the Poor Rates, to pay to every such Medical Officer as aforesaid the Amount of his Salary from Time to Time, as well as to pay all other Expenses incurred in carrying out the Provisions of the said Acts and this Act in such Union and to charge the same to the Union at large; and the Appointment of every such Medical Officer shall cease so soon as the said Commissioners of Health shall certify to the Lord Lieutenant, or the Lord Lieutenant shall deem, that the Continuance of such is unnecessary or otherwise inexpedient.

Board of Guardians may appoint Committees of Management of such Hospitals, or of Hospitals hereafter established.

V. And be it enacted, That in any Case in which the Guardians of any Union shall have been or shall hereafter be required by the said Commissioners of Health to uphold and maintain or to establish any Hospital or Dispensary under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Guardians, if they shall see fit, to appoint a Committee to superintend, under the Direction and Control of the said Board of Guardians, the Management of such Hospital or Dispensary, such Committee not to exceed Seven in Number, and to be chosen by the Board of Guardians from among the ex-officio or other Members of such Board and the resident Rate-payers of the Union; and such Committee shall from Time to Time report their Proceedings to the Board of Guardians, for their Confirmation and Approval, from Time to Time, as the Board of Guardians shall direct; and the Board of Guardians shall at all Times have Power to dissolve such Committees, or alter the Constitution thereof, as to them shall seem fitting and expedient; and any such Committee shall (subject to the Control of such Board) have like Powers and Authorities relating to such Hospital or Dispensary as any Relief Committee as aforesaid; and the Provisions of the said secondly-recited Act shall (subject to such Control as aforesaid) extend and apply to any such Committee appointed under this Act, as fully and effectually as to any such Relief Committee.

Commissioners of Health may require Guardians to submit Estimates and Accounts;

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Health to require any Board of Guardians having the Management of any Hospital or Dispensary to be appointed under the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, to submit to them, when and as often as they may judge the same to be necessary, Estimates of the probable Expenditure for any such Hospital or Dispensary, and to regulate and control such Expenditure; and the Accounts of such Expenditure shall be audited as in other Cases under the Acts for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland.

and may make Orders for Regulation of Hospitals, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Health to make Orders for the Regulation and Management of Hospitals or Dispensaries under the said recited Acts or this Act.

When contagious or epidemic Disease expected, Poor Law Commissioners may require Guardians to appoint a Committee to take Precautions, which shall have same Powers as a Relief Committee.

VIII. And be it enacted, That whenever in any Union in Ireland the Approach or Occurrence of any Fever or contagious or epidemic Disease shall be reasonably apprehended or expected, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, upon the Receipt of a Certificate of the Commissioners of Health of the Expediency or Necessity thereof, to require the Board of Guardians of such Union to appoint a Committee or Committees for the whole or any Part of such Union, for the Purpose of taking Precautions against such expected or apprehended Disease; and the said Board of Guardians shall thereupon forthwith proceed to appoint such Committee or Committees who shall be under their Control; and, subject thereto, the several Enactments in the said recited Acts or either of them contained with respect to the Powers of any Relief Committee, or the Committee having the Management of any Hospital or Dispensary, and to the Punishment of any Person resisting or opposing the Execution of the Orders of any such Committee, and to any Action brought against such Committee or any Member thereof, or Person employed by the same, shall extend and be applied to every Committee appointed as lastly herein-before provided on the Requisition of the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland.

Poor Law Commissioners may dissolve such Committee.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the destitute Poor at any Time to order that any such Committee appointed as lastly herein-before provided shall be dissolved, and thenceforth all the Powers of such Committee shall cease.

Guardians, Officers, and Members of Committees, &c. not to be concerned in Contracts while in Office.

X. And be it enacted, That no Guardian, paid Officer, Member of any Committee under the said recited Acts or either of them or this Act, or other Person in whose Hands the providing for, ordering, Management, Control, or Direction of any Hospital or Dispensary or of Medical Relief under the Provisions of this Act, shall or may be placed, shall, either in his own Name or the Name of any other Person, provide, furnish, or supply, for his own Profit, any Materials, Goods, or Provisions for the Use of any such Hospital or Dispensary, or for affording such Medical Relief during the Time for which he or they shall retain such Appointment, nor shall be concerned, for his own Profit, directly or indirectly, in furnishing or supplying the same, or in any Contract relating thereto, under pain of forfeiting the Sum of Fifty Pounds, with full Costs of Suit, to any Person who shall sue for the same by Action of Debt or on the Case in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin.

58 G. 3. c. 47. and the Powers therein given, as to the Advance of Money, extended to

XI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King 'George the Third, intituled An Act to establish Fever Hospitals and to make other Regulations for the 'Relief of the suffering Poor, and for preventing the Increase of infectious Fevers in Ireland, Provision 'is amongst other things made, that whenever in any City, Town, or District any Fever or contagious 'Distemper shall appear or be known to exist among the poor Inhabitants, it shall be lawful for the Lord

'Lieutenant

'Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, upon Application to be made in manner therein provided, to appoint a Board of Health to act within such City, Town, or District in the Manner therein provided, and Authority is by the said Act given to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to order any Sum or Sums of Money to be from Time to Time advanced out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund in Ireland for the Payment of the actual Expenses incurred by or under the said Board in the Execution of the Powers by the said Act vested in it, and that such Sums so to be advanced should be repaid and raised as in the said Act provided, and it is expedient to extend such Provisions to all epidemic Diseases:' Be it therefore enacted, That all Enactments of the said Act relating to the Prevention or Mitigation of Fever or contagious Disease, and all Powers and Provisions therein contained as aforesaid relating to the Advance of Money out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund, and relating to the Presentment, raising, and Repayment of such Monies, shall be deemed and taken to extend and apply to and shall comprehend any and every epidemic as well as contagious Disease, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if epidemic Diseases had been specially mentioned in such Enactments and Provisions: Provided always, that any Member or Members of any such Board of Health so appointed as last aforesaid shall, in addition to the Powers given to them by the said last-mentioned Act, have and enjoy all the Powers and Authorities given to any Officer or Officers of Health under an Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to establish Regulations for preventing contagious Diseases in Ireland. 59 G. 3. c. 41.

XIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. CXXXII.

An Act for the Appointment of additional Taxing Masters for the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, and to regulate the Appointment of the Principal Assistants to the Masters in the Superior Courts of Law in Ireland. [5th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Appointment of a Taxing Master of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, it was amongst other things enacted, that from and after the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, the taxing of Costs in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland should be conducted by an Officer to be denominated "The Taxing Master," who should discharge his Duties in Person, except where otherwise provided by said Act: And whereas John O'Dwyer Esquire, Barrister at Law, was appointed Taxing Master under the said Act, and Edward Tandy, Solicitor, was appointed his Principal Assistant or Clerk: And whereas it has been found that One Taxing Master is insufficient for the due Performance of the Business of the said Office, and that in consequence thereof a large Arrear of Business has accumulated therein: And whereas it is expedient that Two additional Taxing Masters should be appointed, and the Office of Principal Assistant be abolished:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the taxing of Costs in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland shall be conducted by Officers to be denominated "The Taxing Masters," each of whom shall hold his Office during his good Behaviour, and shall discharge his Duties in Person, except where otherwise provided by this Act, and may be removed from his Office by the Lord Chancellor of Ireland for Misconduct; and the Business to be transacted by each such Taxing Master shall be the taxing of Costs as aforesaid, and also such other Business (if any) connected with the Court of Chancery in Ireland as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland for the Time being, shall from Time to Time by any Order direct; and the Places, Times, and Manner in which the same shall be conducted shall be such as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time by any Order direct. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 115.

Taxation of Costs in Court of Chancery, Ireland, to be conducted by Taxing Masters, who shall discharge the Duties in Person.

II. And be it enacted, That, in addition to John O'Dwyer Esquire, the Taxing Master appointed under the said recited Act, his present Principal Assistant, Edward Tandy Esquire, shall be one of such additional Taxing Masters, and that the Lord Chancellor of Ireland shall have Power to appoint some fit and competent Person to be another additional Taxing Master, being a Solicitor who shall for not less than Ten Years have practised as a Solicitor of the said Court; and that as often as any Taxing Master appointed under the said recited Act or this Act, or to be appointed, or any of his or their Successors, shall die or resign, or be removed from his Office, the Lord Chancellor shall have Power to appoint a Taxing Master, qualified as aforesaid, in the Room of the Taxing Master who shall so die, resign, or be removed: Provided always, that no such Appointment as last aforesaid shall be made while there shall be One Taxing Master continuing in Office, unless the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall have given their Consent to the making of such Appointment. In addition to the present Taxing Master, Two new ones to be appointed.

III. And be it enacted, That each such Two additional Taxing Masters under this Act, and any Successor to be appointed in the Room of either of them, or of the said John O'Dwyer Esquire, shall be entitled to receive such annual Salary, not exceeding Eight hundred Pounds, as the Commissioners of Salaries of additional Taxing Masters.

Power to appoint additional Clerks in Taxing Masters Office.

of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct; and that the Three Taxing Masters shall have, in addition to the Clerk now employed in the said Taxing Office, One or more Clerks, as the Lord Chancellor, with the Consent of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from Time to Time by any Order direct and appoint; and the Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time remove such Clerk or Clerks, and fill up all Vacancies in the Office of such Clerks, whether occasioned by Death, Resignation, or Removal; and the said Clerks shall respectively receive such Salaries as may be directed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Salaries, &c. to grow due from Day to Day, but to be payable quarterly out of the Consolidated Fund.

Expenses, &c. of Offices to be paid out of Consolidated Fund.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Salaries under the said recited Act or this Act shall grow due from Day to Day, but shall be payable on the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in every Year, or on such other Days as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time by any Order direct, and shall be paid to the Parties entitled thereto, or their respective Executors or Administrators, by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and the Expense necessarily incurred for hiring suitable Offices for the Business of such Taxing Masters, and also for the necessary Books, Stationery, and binding of Books of Costs, and other incidental Expenses of the said Offices, including such Expenses of the Nature aforesaid as have heretofore been incurred in the Office of the Taxing Master, but were not provided for by the said recited Act, shall likewise be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund.

Power to Treasury to order retiring Allowances to be paid to Taxing Masters, under Provisions of 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 24.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to order and direct to be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund to any Person executing the Office of a Taxing Master under the said recited Act or this Act, who shall be afflicted with some permanent Infirmity disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, a Superannuation or annual Allowance not exceeding the Proportions with reference to the Amount of his Salary and Period of his Service specified in and subject to the Provisions of the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service.

Powers and Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 115. to apply to Taxing Masters and Clerks appointed under this Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That any such additional Taxing Master appointed or to be appointed under this Act, and any succeeding Taxing Master, shall have and perform the like Duties and have and exercise the like Powers and Authorities as any Taxing Master appointed under the said recited Act; and, subject to the Enactments herein-before contained, and so far as may be consistent with the same, the several Provisions of the said recited Act shall extend and be applied to any Taxing Master and to any Clerk or Clerks respectively appointed or to be appointed under this Act, as fully and effectually as if such Taxing Master or Clerk or Clerks were appointed by or under the said recited Act.

Taxing Masters to present to Lord Chancellor annually a Return of Bills taxed, and of untaxed Bills lodged with them for Taxation, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That each of the said Taxing Masters shall make out and present to the Lord Chancellor an annual Return, made up to the Thirty-first Day of December preceding, containing a Statement of the Number of untaxed Bills of Costs lodged with him for Taxation during the Year next preceding, and of the aggregate Amount of the Sums included in such Bills of Costs, also a Statement of the Number of Bills of Costs taxed by him during such preceding Year, and of the aggregate Amount of the Sums included in such Bills of Costs, and also a Statement of the Number of Bills of Costs so lodged with him and remaining untaxed at the End of such Year, and of the aggregate Amount of the Sums included in such last-mentioned Bills of Costs, together with such further Information as to the Business of the said Office as the Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time require.

On Vacancy of Office of Principal Assistant, Taxing Masters to select a Clerk from their Office to fill up the Vacancy, who, when approved by the Treasury, shall perform the Duties as prescribed by 7 & 8 Vict. c. 107.

VIII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate and reduce the Expenses of the Offices attached to the Superior 'Courts of Law at Dublin payable out of the Consolidated Fund, it is amongst other things enacted, 'that when and so often as any Vacancy shall occur, by Death, Resignation, or otherwise, of any of the 'Assistants or Clerks thereby created, such Vacancy shall be filled by the Assistant or Clerk next in 'Seniority in the Department; and it is expedient to make more particular Provision in that Behalf, in 'order to ensure the Selection of the most competent Persons in the Department to fill the Office of Prin-'cipal Assistant to the Master:' Be it therefore enacted, That when and so often as a Vacancy shall occur as aforesaid in the Office of Principal Assistant to the Masters of the said Courts, it shall be lawful for the Master of each such Courts to select and appoint from amongst the Assistants and Clerks then employed in the Office under his Superintendence such Person as he may deem best fitted to be the Principal Assistant to the Master, and so soon as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being shall have signified in Writing their Approval of the Selection and Appointment made by the Master, and not before, the Person so selected and appointed shall be the Principal Assistant to the Master, as created and described in the said recited Act and the Schedules thereunto annexed.

Act may be amended, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXXXIII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks in Ireland. [5th September 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws relating to Saving Banks in Ireland, and to make other and additional Provisions respecting such Savings Banks:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks, and to the Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks, as relates to limiting the Responsibility of Trustees and Managers of Savings Banks in Ireland, shall be and the same are hereby, from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, repealed, except as to any Liability incurred or to be incurred before such Twentieth Day of November.

So much of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 83. as relates to limiting Responsibility of Trustees of Savings Banks in Ireland repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight any Trustee or Manager of a Savings Bank in Ireland who has declared or shall declare, in Writing under his Hand deposited with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, that he is willing to be answerable for a specific Amount only, such Amount being in no Case less than One hundred Pounds, shall not be liable to make good any Deficiency which may thereafter arise in the Funds of such Savings Bank beyond the Amount specified in such Writing: Provided always, that the Trustee and Manager of every Savings Bank in Ireland shall be personally liable for all Monies actually received by him on account of or to and for the Use of such Institution, and not paid over and disposed of in the Manner directed by the Rules of the Institution; and an Extract of this Provision shall be enrolled as one of the Rules of every such Savings Bank, and printed and affixed in every Office or Place where Deposits are received, with the Names and Places of Residence of the Trustees and Managers for the Time being, and the Amount, if any, to which they have collectively or individually limited their Responsibility.

Power to Trustees and Managers to limit their Responsibility.

III. And be it enacted, That the Trustees of each Savings Bank in Ireland shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, and from Time to Time in case of a Vacancy, appoint an Auditor or Auditors to audit the Accounts of the said Institution, as well as to examine and inspect the Books of the several Depositors; and the said Trustees shall, immediately after such Appointment, transmit the Signature, Name, and Address of the said Auditor or Auditors to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and the Trustees of every Savings Bank shall cause the annual and other Statements required to be transmitted under the Acts relating to Savings Banks to be certified and verified by the Auditor or Auditors appointed by the said Trustees, in addition to the Attestation by Trustees and Managers now required by the said Acts; and shall also cause a Certificate from the said Auditor or Auditors as to the Result of his or their Examination of such of the Depositors Books as may have been produced to him or them for Examination, to be transmitted with the said annual Statement to the said Commissioners: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any such Savings Bank to agree with the Trustees of any other Savings Bank or Banks as to the Appointment of a common Auditor or Auditors; and the Auditor or Auditors so appointed for all the said Banks shall be deemed and taken, as soon as the Signature, Name, and Address shall have been transmitted by each such Bank to the said Commissioners, to be the Auditor or Auditors of each such Bank.

Appointment of Auditors.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Depositor in every Savings Bank in Ireland on his first Deposit shall be furnished with a Deposit Book, in which shall be printed at Length a Copy of the certified Rules of the Savings Bank in which he shall make such Deposit, and that a Duplicate Copy of the certified Rules, and of every Alteration and Amendment thereof, and a Duplicate Copy of every annual Statement or Account required by and furnished to the said Commissioners, signed by Two Trustees or Managers of any such Savings Bank, shall be from Time to Time exhibited in the Office of such Savings Bank, and shall be open to the Inspection of every Depositor or Person intending to be such.

Depositor's Book to contain Copy of Rules.

Duplicate Copy of certified Rules, &c. to be exhibited in Office.

V. And be it enacted, That the Rules of every Savings Bank in Ireland shall specify a Number of Days, not less than Two in every Year ending on the Twentieth of November, on which the Book of each Depositor shall be produced at the Office of the said Savings Bank for the Purpose of being inspected, examined, and verified with the Books of the Institution, by the Auditor or Auditors; and in case the said Book shall not be produced on or before the last of the Days mentioned in any One Year ending as aforesaid, the said Account shall be closed, and all Interest shall cease to accrue on the Sums deposited from the last Day of the Year in which the said Book should have been so produced, in the Case of every Depositor who shall have received Notice to produce his said Book, and of every Depositor in a Savings Bank the Rules of which provide for the Production of Deposit Book once in each Year: Provided nevertheless, that the Trustees or Managers shall have the Power to re-open the said Account, but only to allow Interest thereon from the Time when the same shall have been re-opened, unless the Trustees shall be satisfied that such Depositor has been prevented by some sufficient Cause from producing the Deposit Book at the Time so specified; and an Extract of this Provision shall be enrolled as one of the Rules of every Savings Bank.

Rules to provide for Production and Inspection of Books.

VI. And be it enacted, That no Fee shall be payable to the Barrister for certifying the Rules of Savings Banks in any Case where his Certificate is required only in consequence of the Insertion of this Provision in the Rules of any Savings Bank.

No Fee to Barrister in certain Cases.

VII. And

Commissioners may close Accounts with Savings Banks in certain Cases.

VII. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the Clauses of the said recited Act and this Act, or the Orders, Directions, and Regulations of the said Commissioners, signified by the Comptroller General to the Trustees of any Savings Bank in Ireland, have not been complied with by the Trustees or Managers of any Savings Bank in Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, to close the Account of the said Savings Bank, and to discontinue the keeping any further Account with the Trustees thereof, and to direct that no further Sum shall be received at the Bank of Ireland from the Trustees of such Savings Bank to the Account of the Commissioners until such Time as such Commissioners shall think proper: Provided always, that the said Commissioners may re-open and allow the growing Interest of such Accounts during the Time of such Discontinuance, and authorize the Receipt of Money at the Bank of Ireland whenever the said Commissioners shall think fit so to do, upon such Trustees complying with the Directions of such Commissioners; and the said Commissioners shall forthwith publish a Notification of such Account being closed, or of the same being re-opened, in the Dublin Gazette, and also in some Newspaper published in the County in which the said Savings Bank shall be established.

and re-open them if they think fit.

Term of Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

'of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for altering and amending Two 'Acts, passed in the Eleventh and Thirty-third Years of His late Majesty King George the Third, for 'consolidating, extending, and rendering more effectual the Powers granted by several Acts of Parliament 'for making, enlarging, amending, and cleansing the Vaults, Drains, and Sewers within the City of 'London and Liberties thereof, and for paving, cleansing, and lighting the Streets, Lanes, Squares, Yards, 'Courts, Alleys, Passages, and Places, and preventing and removing Obstructions and Annoyances within 'the same: And whereas some of the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Acts have been found 'insufficient for the Purposes intended: And whereas it is expedient that the said Powers and Provisions 'should

'should be altered and amended, and other Powers granted for the Purposes aforesaid, and for the 'Sanatory Improvement of the City of London and the Liberties thereof:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the said several recited Acts shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save only and except so far as such Acts or any of them repeal the whole or any Part of the same or any other Act or Acts, and save only and except so far as relates to any Acts, Deeds, Contracts, Matters, or Things made or done or entered into before the Commencement of this Act, and any Offences committed before the Commencement of this Act, all which Acts, Deeds, Contracts, Matters, and Things shall be dealt with and enforced, and all which Offences shall be punished, as if this Act had not been passed.

Recited Acts repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of enabling the Commissioners to be appointed in pursuance of this Act to effect the Purchases by this Act authorized, and to carry into execution the several Purposes of this Act, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act; and the Provisions of the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act shall be applicable to the Purposes of this Act, except so far as the same Provisions or any of them are inconsistent with this Act, or are herein-after declared not to extend thereto; and in construing the said Act the Commissioners to be appointed in pursuance of this Act shall be deemed the Promoters of the Undertaking for which such Lands are required.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated with this Act.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Provisions in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act contained relating to the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement, and also the Provisions therein contained directing Lands not wanted to be sold, and that Lands not sold shall vest in the Owners of adjoining Lands, and that Lands intended to be sold shall be offered to adjoining Owners, and requiring Owners to claim their Right of Pre-emption within Six Weeks, and also with respect to the Recovery of Forfeitures, Penalties, and Costs, shall not extend to this Act or to the Purposes thereof.

Certain Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. not to apply to this Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The City of London Sewers Act, 1848."

Short Title of Act.

V. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the sole Power of ordering, designing, making, enlarging, widening, deepening, raising, altering, removing, repairing, cleansing, and scouring of all Common Sewers, Drains, and Vaults, and of paving, cleansing, lighting, and improving the several Streets within the City, shall be and the same is hereby vested in the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, to be executed by such Persons as by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the said City, in Common Council assembled, shall from Time to Time be nominated and, under the Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, be appointed for that Purpose, which said Persons so from Time to Time to be nominated and appointed shall be and they are hereby constituted Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution, and shall be called "The Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London."

Sole Power of cleansing, lighting, and paving the City vested in the Commissioners of Sewers.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, shall, at the First Common Council which shall be holden next after the Commencement of this Act, or at some special Common Council to be called by the Lord Mayor for that Purpose, nominate, and, by Deed under the Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, appoint such and so many Persons as they shall think proper, to be the Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution.

Common Council to appoint Commissioners.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, from Time to Time, when and as often as they shall think fit so to do, to nominate, and, by Deed under the Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, to appoint such Persons as they shall think proper to be Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution.

Commissioners to be appointed by Common Council.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Authority of the Commissioners for the Time being shall in nowise be suspended or taken away, save by the Appointment from Time to Time of new Commissioners.

Commissioners Powers not to be suspended, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Lord Mayor for the Time being of the City of London, and the Recorder and the Common Serjeant for the Time being of the said City, shall by virtue of their respective Offices be Three of the Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution.

Commissioners ex-officio.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to provide and maintain a fit and convenient public Office within the said City for holding the Meetings of the Commissioners and transacting the Business of the Commission, and for the Use of their Officers, and for transacting such other Business as the Commissioners shall from Time to Time think fit to allow or shall direct to be transacted therein, and for such Purpose to purchase or hire any Messuage or Tenement or Land which shall by the Commissioners be considered necessary, of and from any Person who shall be willing to sell or let the same, or otherwise to cause any new Erection or Building to be made upon any Land or Ground which shall be purchased or hired under the Provisions of this Act.

Office to be provided for holding Meetings, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall meet and assemble at the Guildhall in the City of London, or at some other convenient Place within the City, upon the First Tuesday next after the Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens shall have been affixed to their Appointment, at the Hour of Twelve of the Clock at Noon, for the Purposes of this Act, and the Commissioners shall and may, from Time to Time, by Adjournment from such Meeting, or from any subsequent Meeting to be holden under the Authority of this Act, meet together at the same Place, or at any other convenient Place to be from Time to Time appointed by them for that Purpose, and at such Hour as may from Time to Time be appointed by them; and if at any such Meeting there shall not be Seven Commissioners present within One Hour after the Time appointed for such Meeting, then it shall be lawful for the Commissioners present, or the major Part of them, or any One Commissioner, if only One be present, to adjourn such Meeting until another Day, and if no Commissioner shall be present then it shall be lawful for their Clerk to adjourn the Meeting to another Day.

Meetings of the Commissioners.

Weekly Meetings to be held.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may hold weekly Meetings for the Purposes of this Act, and may from Time to Time fix the Day and Hour for holding such Meetings, and upon any such Day and Hour being fixed the Commissioners for the Time being are required to attend such Meetings, without any Notice.

No extraordinary Business at weekly Meetings, unless Notice be given.

XIII. And be it enacted, That no new Rules or Regulations shall be adopted nor any extraordinary Business discussed at the weekly Meetings, unless due Notice thereof shall have been given at a prior Meeting, and the Subject of such Business notified to each Commissioner by means of written or printed Notices delivered or left in the same Manner as is herein required for special Meetings.

Special Meetings.

XIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to hold special Meetings; and the Lord Mayor, or any Three or more of the Commissioners, may require a special Meeting to be held; but no such Meeting shall be held unless Two Days Notice thereof at the least shall be given, except in Cases of Emergency.

How Notices of Meetings of Commissioners are to be given.

XV. And be it enacted, That all Notices of any adjourned Meeting or special Meeting of the Commissioners to be held under the Authority of this Act shall be in Writing or Print, or partly in Writing and partly in Print, and shall be delivered or sent by the Clerk, by Post or otherwise, to the usual Place of Abode or Place of Business of each of the Commissioners, Two Days at the least previous to such Meeting, except as aforesaid; and every Notice shall specify the Time and Place of meeting, and in case of a special Meeting shall specify the Object thereof, and no Business shall be transacted at any special Meeting except such as is stated in the Notice thereof.

Quorum of Commissioners.

XVI. And be it enacted, That all Powers vested in the Commissioners by this Act may be exercised by any Seven or more of the Commissioners present at any Meeting holden in pursuance of this Act, and no Business shall be transacted at any Meeting of the Commissioners unless Seven or more Commissioners shall be present at any such Meeting; and all Questions at any Meeting shall be decided by a Majority of the Votes of the Commissioners present, and in case of an equal Division of Votes the Commissioner in the Chair shall have a Second or Casting Vote, in addition to his Vote as a Commissioner.

Lord Mayor to preside when present.

XVII. And be it enacted, That at every Meeting of the Commissioners the Lord Mayor, if present, shall preside as Chairman, instead of the Chairman who may be appointed by the Commissioners under the Authority herein-after contained.

Clerk to Commissioners, &c. to attend daily at their Office.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall take care that their Clerk, or some Person duly authorized by them in that Behalf, shall attend at their Office daily, (Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday, and Days appointed for any General Fast or Thanksgiving, alone excepted,) for the Purpose of receiving Notices and transacting the ordinary Business of the Commissioners; and due Notice of the Place of the Office of the Commissioners, and of the Hours during which Attendance is given there, shall be published by the Commissioners in such Manner as they shall think proper, so that the same may be fully and generally known.

Committees may be appointed.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners present at any Meeting to appoint a Committee for any Purposes which, in the Discretion of the Commissioners, would be better regulated and managed by means of such Committee, and at any Meeting to continue, alter, or discontinue such Committee: Provided always, that the Acts of every such Committee shall be submitted to the general Body of Commissioners, for their Approval.

Lord Mayor to be a Member of Committees.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Lord Mayor shall, without any Appointment, act as Member of all Committees, in addition to the Number appointed, and shall be summoned to and be entitled to attend all Meetings of every such Committee.

Powers of Committee.

XXI. And be it enacted, That every Committee so appointed may meet from Time to Time, and may adjourn from Place to Place, as they may think proper, for carrying into effect the Purposes of their Appointment; but no Business shall be transacted at any Meeting of the Committee unless Three Members of the Committee are present; and at all Meetings of the Committee the Lord Mayor, if present, shall preside as Chairman, and in case of his Absence One of the Members present shall be appointed Chairman; and all Questions at any Meeting of the Committee shall be determined by the Votes of the Members present, and in case of an equal Division of Votes the Chairman shall have a Second or Casting Vote, in addition to his Vote as a Member of the Committee.

Appointment of Chairman.

XXII. And be it enacted, That at the First Meeting of Commissioners held next after the Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens shall have been affixed to their Appointment, or at some subsequent Meeting, the Commissioners shall, by a Majority of the Votes of the Commissioners then present, elect One of their Body to be their Chairman during the Continuance of the Commission by which they are appointed; and at the First Meeting of Commissioners which shall be held next after every subsequent Appointment of Commissioners the Commissioners shall in like Manner elect a Chairman during the Continuance of such Commission; and in case the Chairman shall die, or resign, or cease to be a Commissioner, or otherwise become disqualified to act as such, the Commissioners present at the Meeting next after the Occurrence of such Vacancy shall choose some other of their Body to fill such Vacancy; and if at any Meeting or Committee of the Commissioners neither the Lord Mayor nor the Chairman Chairman shall happen to be present, the Commissioners present shall choose some One of their Body to preside as Chairman at such Meeting or Committee.

No Resolution of Commissioners to be revoked at a subsequent Meeting, unless under certain Circumstances.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no Resolution or other Act at any Meeting shall be revoked or altered at any subsequent Meeting, unless such subsequent Meeting be called expressly for such Alteration or Revocation, by Notice given by the Clerk Two Days at least previous to the holding thereof, nor unless such Revocation or Alteration be determined upon by a Majority consisting of Two Thirds of the Commissioners present at such subsequent Meeting, if the Number of Commissioners present at such subsequent Meeting be not greater than the Number present when such Resolution was made or such Act was done; but if the Number of Commissioners present at such subsequent Meeting be greater than the Number present at such former Meeting, then such Revocation or Alteration may be determined upon by a mere Majority.

Proceedings to be entered in Books, and when signed by the Clerk to be Evidence.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall cause Entries of the Names of all the Commissioners who shall be present at any Meeting, and Notes, Minutes, or Copies, as the Case may require, of all Appointments made or Contracts entered into by or on the Behalf of the Commissioners, and of the Acts, Orders, and Proceedings of the Commissioners at their several Meetings, and of all Meetings of Committees, to be duly entered from Time to Time in Books to be provided for that Purpose, which Books shall be kept under the Superintendence of the Commissioners, and shall be signed by the Clerk for the Time being of the Commissioners; and such Entry, so signed, or a Copy thereof, under the Hand of the Clerk, shall be received as Evidence in all Courts, and before all Judges, Justices, and others, without Proof of such respective Meetings having been duly convened and held, or of the Persons making Orders being Commissioners or Members of such Committees respectively, or of the Signature of the Clerk, or of the Presence of the Chairman, all of which Matters shall be presumed, until the contrary be proved; and all such Books shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of the Commissioners.

Commissioners to appoint Clerks and Officers.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall and may from Time to Time appoint and employ such and so many Clerks, Surveyors, Collectors, Inspectors of Pavements, Inspectors of Sewers, Inspectors of Nuisances, Medical Officers of Health, Messengers, Officers, Servants, and Persons, to assist in the Execution of this Act, as the Commissioners shall think necessary and proper, and may from Time to Time remove such Clerks, Surveyors, Collectors, Inspectors, Medical Officers, Messengers, Officers, Servants, and Persons, at their Will and Pleasure, and appoint others in the Room of such as shall be so removed, or as may die or resign, or discontinue their Offices, and may make Rules and Regulations for defining and regulating the Duties and Conduct of the several Officers, Servants, and Persons so appointed or employed; and the Commissioners shall and may, out of the Monies arising or to arise by virtue of this Act, pay such Salaries, Gratuities, Wages, and Allowances as they shall think reasonable to such Clerks, Surveyors, Collectors, Inspectors, Officers, and Servants, and to all such other Persons as shall or may be employed or aiding and assisting in the Execution of this Act.

Chamberlain to be Treasurer.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Chamberlain for the Time being of the City of London shall for the Purposes of this Act be and be considered as the Treasurer of the Commissioners.

Penalty on Officers taking Fees other than those allowed.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Clerk, Surveyor, or other Officer or Servant appointed or employed by or under the Commissioners shall exact, demand, take, or accept any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward whatsoever, (other than the Salary, Allowances, and Rewards allowed or sanctioned by the Commissioners,) for or on account of anything done or to be done by virtue of his Office, or in relation to the Functions of the Commissioners, or for forbearing to do anything hereby or by the Commissioners directed to be done, or be in any Manner concerned or interested in any Bargain or Contract made by or on the Behalf of the Commissioners, he shall be incapable of being afterwards employed by the Commissioners, and shall forfeit Fifty Pounds; and any Person may sue for such Penalty, either by Action of Debt or on the Case in any of the Superior Courts, and shall on Recovery thereof be entitled to full Costs of Suit.

Commissioners to take Security from Officers intrusted with Money.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That before any Person intrusted with the Custody and Control of Money shall enter upon the Office to which he may be appointed by the Commissioners, the Commissioners shall take sufficient Security for the due and faithful Execution by him of his Office; Provided always, that the Security given by the Chamberlain to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens for the faithful Execution of his Office shall be considered as a Security given by the Treasurer to the Commissioners within the Meaning of this Act.

Officers to account.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That every Officer appointed or employed by the Commissioners under or by virtue of this Act shall from Time to Time, when required by the Commissioners, make out and deliver to them, or to any Person appointed by them for that Purpose, a true and faithful Account in Writing under his Hand of all the Monies received by him on behalf of the Commissioners; and such Account shall state how, and to whom, and for what Purpose such Monies have been disposed of; and, together with such Account, such Officer shall deliver the Vouchers and Receipts for such Payments; and every such Officer shall pay to the Commissioners, or to any Person appointed by them to receive the same, all Monies which shall appear to be owing from him upon the Balance of such Accounts.

Summary Remedies against Officers failing to account.

XXX. And be it enacted, That if any such Officer fail to render such Account, or to produce and deliver up all the Vouchers and Receipts relating to the same in his Possession or Power, or to pay the Balance thereof, when thereunto required, or if for Three Days after being thereunto required he fail to deliver up to the Commissioners, or to any Person appointed by them to receive the same, all Papers and Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, and Things, in his Possession or Power, relating to the Execution of this Act, or belonging to the Commissioners, then, on Complaint thereof being made to a Justice,

Justice, such Justice shall summon such Officer to appear before Two or more Justices at a Time and Place to be set forth in such Summons, to answer such Charge, and upon the Appearance of such Officer, or in his Absence upon Proof that such Summons was personally served upon him, or left at his last known Place of Abode, such Justices may hear and determine the Matter in a summary Way, and may adjust and declare the Balance owing by such Officer; and if it appear, either upon Confession of such Officer, or upon Evidence, or upon Inspection of the Account, that any Monies of the Commissioners are in the Hands of such Officer, or owing by him to the Commissioners, such Justices may order such Offender to pay the same, and if he fail to pay the Amount it shall be lawful for such Justices to grant a Warrant to levy the same by Distress, or in default thereof to commit the Offender to Gaol, there to remain, without Bail, for a Period not exceeding Three Months, unless the same be sooner paid.

Officer refusing to deliver up Documents may be committed to Prison.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if any such Officer refuse to make out any such Account in Writing, or to produce and deliver to the Justices the several Vouchers and Receipts relating thereto, or to deliver up any Books, Papers, or Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, or Things, in his Possession or Power, belonging to the Commissioners, such Justices may lawfully commit such Offender to Gaol, there to remain until he shall have delivered up all the Vouchers and Receipts (if any) in his Possession or Power belonging to the Commissioners: Provided always, that if any Commissioner or other Person acting on behalf of the Commissioners shall declare on Oath that he has good Reason to believe, upon Grounds to be stated in his Deposition, and does believe, that it is the Intention of any such Officer to abscond, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom the Complaint is made, instead of issuing his Summons, to issue his Warrant for bringing such Officer before Two Justices as aforesaid; but no Person executing such Warrant shall keep such Officer in Custody longer than Twenty-four Hours without bringing him before some Justice; and it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom such Officer may be brought, either to discharge such Officer, if he think there is no sufficient Ground for his Detention, or to order such Officer to be detained in Custody so as to be brought before Two Justices at a Time and Place to be named in such Order, unless such Offender give Bail to the Satisfaction of such Justice for his Appearance before Two Justices to answer the Complaint of the Commissioners.

Where Officer about to abscond, a Warrant may be issued in the first instance.

Commitment not to discharge Sureties.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That no such Proceeding against or Dealing with any such Officer as aforesaid shall deprive the Commissioners of any Remedy which they might otherwise have against any Surety of such Officer.

Commissioners may enter into Contracts.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or any Committee appointed by them, to enter into and contract in the Name of the Commissioners with any Persons for the Execution of any Works directed or authorized by this Act to be done by the Commissioners, or for furnishing Materials or Labour, or for any other Matters or Things whatsoever necessary for enabling them to carry the Purposes of this Act into full and complete Effect, in such Manner, and upon such Terms, and for such Sums of Money, and under such Stipulations, Regulations, and Restrictions as the Commissioners or such Committee shall think proper; and every such Contract shall be in Writing, and shall specify the several Works to be done, and the Materials or Labour to be furnished, and the Prices to be paid for the same, and the Times within which the said Works are to be completed, and the Materials or Labour to be furnished, and the Penalty to be incurred in case of the Nonperformance thereof; and every such Contract may also specify the Person to whose Satisfaction the same are to be completed or finished, and the Mode of determining any Dispute which may arise concerning or in consequence of such Contract.

Contracts to be executed by Seven Commissioners or by their Clerk.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That every such Contract shall be executed by any Seven or more of the Commissioners, or by the Clerk of the Commissioners on their Behalf, and also by the Person contracting to perform the Work or to supply the Materials or Labour mentioned therein; and all Contracts made according to the Provisions herein contained shall be effectual at Law, and shall be binding upon the Commissioners and all other Parties thereto, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as the Case may be; and on any Default in the Execution of any such Contract, either by the Commissioners or by any other Party thereto, such Actions or Suits may be brought either by or against the Commissioners as might have been brought had the same Contract been made between private Persons only.

Estimates to be obtained before commencing Works to the Amount of 100*l.*

XXXV. And be it enacted, That before any Contract for the Execution of any Works under the Provisions of this Act to the Amount of One hundred Pounds shall be entered into the Commissioners shall obtain from the Surveyor an Estimate in Writing, as well of the probable Expense of executing the Work in a substantial Manner as of the annual Expense of repairing the same, and also a Report as to the most advantageous Mode of contracting, that is to say, whether by contracting for the Execution of the Work only, or for executing and also maintaining the same in repair during a Term of Years or otherwise.

Previous Notice to be given of Contracts of the Amount of 200*l.* and upwards.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That before any Contract to the Amount of Two hundred Pounds and upwards shall be entered into Ten Days Notice at the least shall be given in Two London daily Morning Newspapers, expressing the Object and Purpose of such Contract, in order that any Person willing to undertake the same may make Proposals for that Purpose, to be offered to the Commissioners at a certain Time and Place in such Notice to be mentioned; and the Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to take Security for the due and faithful Performance of such Contracts.

Commissioners may compound for Breach of Contract.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to compound and agree with any Party who shall have entered into any such Contract in pursuance or under the Authority of this Act, or against whom any such Action or Suit shall be brought, for any Penalty contained in any such Contract, or in any Bond or other Security for the Performance thereof, or for or on on account of any Breach or Nonperformance of any such Contract, Bond, or Security, for such Sums of Money or other Recompence as the Commissioners may think proper.

Allowing Persons not free of the City to be employed on their Works.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may and they are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time to employ under them any fit Person, whether free of the said City or not, in or about all or any of the Works, Matters, or Things which they shall cause to be performed or done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, and to contract with any such Person for the Performance of such Works, Matters, or Things, or any of them; and that no Person who shall be so employed or contracted with in or about or for any of the Purposes of this Act, nor any Person to be set to work by or under him, shall, for any Act done or to be done in or about the Premises, be subject or liable to be sued for any Breach of the Custom of London, or for any Penalty inflicted by any Bye Law of the said City.

Materials for Works contracted for to be Property of Commissioners.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That during the Execution of any Contract which may be entered into by the Commissioners the Works in course of being done under such Contract, and all the Materials of every Description brought upon or near such Works, for the Purpose of being used in the Execution of such Contract, shall be held to be the Property of the Commissioners.

How Actions to be brought and Indictments to be preferred.

XL. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the Name of the Commissioners or of their Clerk for the Time being, to sue and be sued, and to prefer any Bill of Indictment or Information, or take any other Proceedings against any Person who shall steal, take, or carry away, or wilfully deface or injure, any Property, Article, or Thing belonging to the Commissioners; and in every such Case it shall be sufficient to state generally the Property, Article, or Thing in respect of which such Proceeding shall have been taken to be the Property of the Commissioners, as described in this Act, without naming the individual Commissioners; and no Action or Suit shall abate or be discontinued, or require to be transferred, by reason of the Death of any Commissioner, or by his ceasing to be a Commissioner.

Commissioners not to be personally liable.

XLI. And be it enacted, That nothing in any Deed or Contract by this Act authorized to be made by or on the Behalf of the Commissioners for any of the Purposes of this Act shall extend to charge or affect the Persons of any of the Commissioners, or the Clerk, or their or his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, or their or any of their or his own proper Lands or Goods, with or for the Performance of anything contained in any such Instrument; but the Amount of all Damages, Costs, and Charges recovered in any Action or Suit in consequence of any such Instrument, or which any such Commissioner, or the Clerk, shall otherwise be put to by virtue of this Act, shall respectively be discharged out of the Monies to arise by virtue of this Act, or other the Goods and Chattels vested in the Commissioners by virtue of their Office, unless such Action or Suit, or any such Damages or Charges, have arisen in consequence of wilful Neglect or Default on the Part of the Commissioners incurring the same, or of the Clerk, or unless such Action or Suit have been defended without the Order or Direction of the Commissioners; and all such Sums of Money to be recovered by the Commissioners in any such Action or Suit shall be applied to the same Purposes as "The Sewer Rate" by this Act authorized to be levied is directed to be applied.

Liability of the Funds in their Hands.

No Commissioner or Member of Court of Aldermen or Common Council to be concerned in any Contract.

Penalty.

XLII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Person, being a Commissioner, or a Member of the Court of Aldermen, or of the Common Council of the City, shall be directly or indirectly interested or concerned in any Contract which shall be made or entered into by or on behalf of the Commissioners for the Execution of any Works by this Act directed or authorized to be done or executed, or for furnishing Materials or Labour, or for any other Matter or Thing whatsoever, upon pain that every such Contract shall be null and void, and that the Person who, being a Commissioner, or a Member of the said Court of Aldermen or of the Common Council, shall be so interested or concerned therein, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered in any of the Superior Courts by Action of Debt or on the Case.

Accounts to be kept of Receipts and Disbursements, which shall be open to Inspection.

Penalty for Refusal.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall cause Books to be provided and kept, and true and regular Accounts to be entered therein of all Sums of Money received and paid for or on account of this Act, and of the several Purposes for which Sums of Money shall have been received and paid, and which Books shall at all seasonable Times be open to the Inspection of the Commissioners, and every Mortgagee of and Creditor on the Rates payable under this Act, without Fee or Reward; and the Commissioners and Persons aforesaid, or any of them, may take Copies of or Extracts from the said Books, without paying anything for the same; and any Clerk or other Person having the Custody of the said Books, who shall not, on any reasonable Demand, permit any of the Commissioners, Mortgagees, or Creditors as aforesaid to inspect the said Books, or take such Copies or Extracts as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Accounts to be examined and settled annually.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That the Accounts of the Monies received and expended by the Commissioners, together with an Abstract of the same, shall be produced at a Meeting of the Commissioners to be held some Time in or before the Month of December in every Year for that Purpose, or at some Adjournment thereof; and the Accounts shall be examined and settled by the Commissioners then present, and if the same shall be found just and true they shall be allowed by the Commissioners, and certified accordingly, under the Hand of the Chairman of such Meeting; and after such Accounts shall have been so allowed and signed the same shall be final in regard to all Persons whomsoever, unless an Appeal be prosecuted against such Accounts at One of the Two then next General Quarter Sessions, which Appeal it shall be lawful for any Person interested in such Accounts to institute, previous Notice in Writing Writing of such Appeal having been given to the Clerk Fourteen Days at least before the hearing of any such Appeal.

Statement of Accounts to be prepared, and to be open for Inspection.

XLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That Fourteen Days at the least previously to such Examination and Settlement as aforesaid the Commissioners shall cause a full and true Statement and Account to be drawn out of the Amount of all Contracts entered into and of all Monies received and expended by virtue of this Act during the preceding Year, and also of all Debts then owing by the Commissioners, and they shall allow such Statement and Account to remain for Inspection at their Office; and every Mortgagee or Creditor on the Rates payable under the Authority of this Act, and any Person acting on behalf of any such Mortgagee or Creditor, may at all reasonable Times inspect such Statement and Account; and the said Statement and Account shall be printed, and the Clerk shall, on Demand, furnish a Copy thereof to every such Mortgagee or Creditor without Fee; and Fourteen Days at the least previously to the Meeting for examining and settling such Account the Commissioners shall give public Notice of such intended Meeting, stating in such Notice that the said Statement and Account are at their Office ready for the Inspection of the Mortgagees, Creditors, or other Parties interested.

Appointment and Payment of Auditors.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That previously to the Meeting so to be held for examining and passing the Accounts of the Commissioners it shall be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons to nominate Three Persons (not being Commissioners) to be Auditors of the Accounts of the Commissioners; and the Persons so to be nominated Auditors before entering on their Offices shall make and sign before a Justice a solemn Declaration that they will faithfully and impartially discharge the Duties of their Office; and the Auditors so appointed as aforesaid shall receive such Remuneration for their Services as the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons shall have fixed for the same some Day previously to the Day of the Appointment of such Auditors, which shall be paid to the Auditors by the Chamberlain.

Auditors to examine Accounts, and sign them if found correct.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That the Auditors so appointed as aforesaid shall forthwith, or at the Time appointed for that Purpose, attend at the Office of the Commissioners, or at some other convenient Place to be appointed by the Commissioners, and from Time to Time shall, in the Presence of the Clerk, in case he shall desire to be present, proceed to audit the Accounts of the Commissioners for the Year preceding the Appointment of such Auditors; and the Commissioners shall, by their Clerk, produce and lay before such Auditors at every such Meeting the Statement and Account herein-before mentioned, accompanied with proper Vouchers in support of the same, and all Books, Papers, or Writings in their Custody or Power relating thereto; and if the said Account shall be found to be correct, such Auditors shall sign the same; and if such Auditors shall think that there is just Cause to disapprove of any Part of the said Accounts, it shall be lawful for such Auditors, or any other Person interested in the said Accounts, to appeal against any such Part of the said Accounts as shall be so disapproved of to One of the Two then next General Quarter Sessions, Notice in Writing of such Appeal being given to the Clerk Fourteen Days at the least prior to the Hearing of such Appeal.

If Auditors, &c. disapprove of Accounts they may appeal against them.

Annual Account or Abstract to be prepared, and transmitted to the Town Clerk.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall every Year cause an annual Account or Abstract to be prepared, showing the total Receipt and Expenditure of all Funds levied by virtue of this Act, for the Year ending on the Twenty-ninth Day of September, or some other convenient Day in each Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with a Statement of the Balance of such Account, duly audited and certified by the Clerk, and shall transmit a Copy of the said Account, free of Charge, to the Town Clerk of the City of London, immediately after the same shall have been duly audited and certified as aforesaid, such Account to be preserved by him in his Office, and to be open to the Inspection of the Public at all seasonable Hours, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection: Provided always, that if the Commissioners shall omit to prepare and transmit such Account as aforesaid they shall forfeit for every Omission the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for Omission.

Commissioners to cause a Map to be provided, which shall be open to Inspection.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall cause a Map and Plan to be made of the City on a Scale of not less than Sixty Inches to a Mile, and shall cause to be marked thereon the Course of all existing Sewers and Drains, as far as they can be ascertained, the Lines of Pipes or Conduits for the Collection and Distribution of Water, also the Course of the Pipes for the Distribution of Gas, and such other Works, with such other Particulars as the Case may require, and shall cause the said Map to be from Time to Time altered and amended, and Additions made thereto as may be required; and such Map, or a Copy thereof, with the Date expressed thereon of the last Time it shall have been so corrected and amended, shall be kept in the Office of the Commissioners, and shall be open at seasonable Hours to the Inspection of the Owners or Occupiers of any Houses or Buildings within the City who may desire to inspect the same.

Contour Lines to be marked on Map, and Bench Marks to be made.

L. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall cause to be inscribed on such Map and Plan a Series of Marks or Figures denoting a complete System of levelling, exhibiting the true Form or Relief of the Ground, and shall also cause to be drawn, wherever practicable, Lines of equal Altitude, commonly called Contour Lines, at every Four Feet of Elevation, at such other Intervals as may appear upon due Inquiry to be the best adapted for the Guidance of the Works of Sewerage and Drainage, for the Collection and Distribution of Water, and for other public and private Purposes within the City, and shall also cause proper Bench Marks to be inscribed and marked at convenient Distances and Places at the Corners of Streets, on Posts, Houses, or other prominent Objects within the City, which Bench Marks the Commissioners are hereby authorized to inscribe.

Ordnance Survey to be procured.

LI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Survey of the City shall have been or shall be made under the Directions of Her Majesty's Board of Ordnance, upon a Scale of not less than Sixty Inches Inches to a Mile, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to direct a Copy of such Survey to be procured for the Use of the Commissioners, who shall cause any Additions to be made thereto which shall, on the Advice of the Surveyor of the Commissioners, appear to be requisite for the Guidance of future Improvements to be made within the City; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause every such Plan to be engraved, printed, or lithographed, and coloured, in such Manner as may appear to them most convenient; and the Costs of every such Map or new Survey shall be paid by the Commissioners out of the Sewer Rate herein-after authorized to be levied.

Sewers, &c. within the City vested in the Commissioners.

LII. And be it enacted, That all the Sewers and public Drains existing within the City at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, and all Buildings, Materials, and Things connected therewith, and all other Sewers and public Drains which shall at any Time be constructed and made therein, whether constructed at the Cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and the entire Management of and Control over such Sewers and public Drains respectively, shall, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, be vested in the Commissioners.

Power to make Sewers.

LIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to cause to be constructed and made such and so many main and other Sewers, Drains, Vaults, Culverts, and Watercourses as they shall think necessary for the effectual draining of the City, together with all such Reservoirs, Engines, Sluices, Pinstocks, and other Works as shall be required for properly flushing, cleansing, and ventilating such Sewers and Drains, in, under, or across all or any of the Streets, whether dedicated to the Use of the Public or not, within the City, and, if needful, through and across all underground Cellars and Vaults which they may find under any of the said Streets, doing as little Damage as may be, and making full Compensation for any Damage wilfully or negligently done, and also to cause such and so many Rings or Openings to be made or left in the Sides of the several Sewers as will be sufficient to enable the Owners or Occupiers of any Houses or Buildings erected or built or to be erected or built in, adjoining, or near to any such Sewers to make or branch any Drain from such House into the said Sewers, as the Commissioners shall think necessary and expedient for that Purpose; and in case it shall be found necessary, for completing any of the aforesaid Works, to build, carry, and continue the same into or through or under any inclosed Land, Building, or other Place, not being a public Way, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to build, carry, and continue the same into, upon, or through or under such Land, Building, or other Place accordingly, making full Compensation to the Owners and Occupiers thereof, and also to cause such Sewers to communicate with and empty themselves into the River Thames, or into any public Stream or Watercourse, or to cause the Refuse from such Sewers to be conveyed by an appropriate Channel to the most convenient Site for its Collection and Sale, and its Application as Manure for agricultural Purposes, as may be deemed most expedient, but so that the same shall in no Case become a Nuisance or Annoyance to the Neighbourhood; and all such Sewers and other Works and Premises shall belong to and be at all Times under the Control, Care, and Management of the Commissioners, and of their Surveyors and Officers.

Commissioners may deepen and alter Sewers.

LIV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall have Authority, from Time to Time, as they shall see fit, to widen, deepen, embank, alter, arch over, amend, clean, and scour out all or any of the Sewers within the City, and also to cleanse and drain off into any Sewers and otherwise abate all stagnant Ponds, Ditches, and other Receptacles of foul Water and Filth existing within the City; and further, in Cases in which any of the existing or future Sewers vested in the Commissioners shall from any Cause whatever appear to them to have become useless or unnecessary, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think fit to do so, to take up, stop, or fill in and discontinue such old Sewer, in such Manner that the same shall not be or become a Nuisance or Annoyance to the Neighbourhood; and for the Purposes aforesaid, except that of taking up, stopping, or filling in old Sewers, the Commissioners are hereby invested with the same Powers and Authorities, and subjected to the same Restrictions, with respect to entering, and building, carrying, and continuing the Sewers in inclosed and other Lands, as have been given to and imposed upon them with respect to making new Sewers.

Water Companies to supply Water for public Purposes, if required.

LV. And be it enacted, That every present and future Water Company having any Mains or Pipes within the City shall, if they shall be required by the Commissioners so to do, furnish to the Commissioners a sufficient Supply of Water for flushing, scouring, and cleansing the Sewers and Drains, and for supplying Tanks for those Purposes, which for the Time being shall be vested in or be under the Survey and Control of the Commissioners, and for watering the Streets, and for cleansing and washing the Pavements thereof, and for flushing and cleansing Courts, Passages, and public Places, and for supplying any public Cisterns, Pumps, and Conduits, and any public Baths and Wash-houses that may be established for the Use of the poorer Classes, in such Quantities, and at such Times, and in such Places, and upon such Terms, and upon the Payment of such Remuneration as shall be agreed upon between the Commissioners and such Company; and in case of Disagreement such Remuneration shall be fixed by Two Justices, upon the Application of the Commissioners: Provided always, that if such Company shall at any Time, in consequence of a Deficiency of Water, or the unavoidable Stoppage or Suspension of their Works, be unable to supply the Commissioners with Water for the above Purposes, without Prejudice or Hindrance to the regular and sufficient Supply for the domestic Use of the Persons supplied by them with Water, then the Obligation to supply the Commissioners with Water as aforesaid shall cease, so long as any of the said Causes shall exist.

Penalty on Water Company not furnishing a suffi-

LVI. And be it enacted, That if such Company shall at any Time refuse or neglect, upon being required by the Commissioners so to do, to furnish to the Commissioners a sufficient Supply of Water for the Purposes aforesaid, such Company shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds for each and every

every Day during which they shall refuse or neglect to furnish such sufficient Supply of Water, after Notice in Writing shall have been given to the Company by the Commissioners of such Supply being insufficient; but no Penalty shall be payable by such Company if the Failure or Insufficiency of such Supply shall arise from Frost, Drought, or other unavoidable Cause or Accident.

Private Drains communicating with public Sewers to be repaired, &c. by Commissioners.

LVII. And be it enacted, That all such private Drains as now do or by Authority of the Commissioners shall hereafter be made to communicate with any of the public Sewers or Drains in the City shall be repaired and cleansed, under the Inspection and Direction of the Surveyor or other proper Officer of the Commissioners, at the Cost and Charges of the Owner or Occupier of the Houses, Buildings, or Ground to which the said private Drains do or shall respectively belong.

Owners, &c., upon Request, to repair, &c. private Drains.

Penalty if Owner, &c. neglect to repair within Fourteen Days after Notice.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That the Owner or Occupier of every House, Building, or Ground to which any private Drain may belong shall, upon being required so to do by the Commissioners, forthwith repair and cleanse such Drain, under the Inspection and to the Satisfaction of the Surveyor or other proper Officer of the Commissioners; and if any such Owner or Occupier shall refuse or neglect for the Space of Fourteen Days next after Notice requiring him so to do shall have been given to him, or left for him at or upon such House, Building, or Ground, to repair and cleanse such Drain in the Manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby empowered to cause the same to be repaired and cleansed, and to recover the Expenses incurred thereby from the Owner of such House, Building, or Ground in the Manner herein-after provided.

Commissioners not to obstruct private Drains without providing others.

LIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person shall, by means of any Alteration, Amendment, Enlargement, or Discontinuance of any Sewer, or other Proceeding of the Commissioners under this Act, be deprived of the Use or Enjoyment of any private Sewer or Drain which such Person shall theretofore have been lawfully entitled to use, but the Commissioners shall and they are hereby required so to construct or alter any such private Sewer or Drain as to render the same as effectual for the Purpose for which it was intended as any such Sewer or Drain might be at the Time of such Alteration, or to provide for the Use of such Person such other Sewer or Drain as shall be equally effectual for that Purpose; and in case the Commissioners shall refuse or neglect so to construct and alter any such private Sewer or Drain, the Use of which may be affected by the Acts of the Commissioners, or to provide such other Sewer or Drain as aforesaid, for the Space of Twenty-eight Days next after Notice in Writing be served upon them, the Commissioners shall forfeit and pay to the Party aggrieved any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day after the Expiration of such Twenty-eight Days during which the Commissioners shall refuse or neglect so to construct and alter or to provide such other Sewer or Drain as aforesaid.

Penalty on Commissioners for Neglect.

Owners or Occupiers of Property situate beyond the Limits of the City may make private Sewers, &c. into the Sewers, &c. vested in the Commissioners.

LX. 'And whereas it would be of great public Advantage if Facility were given for extending the 'Drainage in the Neighbourhood of the City:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Person, being the Owner or Occupier of any Property situate beyond the Limits of this Act, in respect to which the Owner or Occupier would not have been or be liable to the Payment of the Sewer Rate and Assessment by this Act authorized to be made, levied, and collected, with the Consent of the Commissioners, and upon Payment to them of such reasonable Sum of Money as shall be determined by them to be a fair Remuneration for the Use of their Sewers, at his own Expense, to branch into any of the Sewers or Drains vested in the Commissioners or authorized to be made by virtue of this Act any private Sewer or Drain which in respect of the said Property he may lawfully make therefrom, of such a Size and in such a Manner and Form of Communication in all respects as the Commissioners shall direct or appoint; and in case any Person, otherwise than in respect of Property situate within the City, shall branch any private Sewer or Drain into any of the said Sewers or Drains so vested in the Commissioners, or without paying to them such reasonable Sum as they shall have required for the Use of their Sewers, or shall make any such private Sewer or Drain of a larger Size or in a different Manner and Form of Communication than shall be directed or appointed by the Commissioners, every Person so offending in any of the Particulars aforesaid shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, and it shall also be lawful for the Commissioners to cut off, stop up, or prevent the Communication of such private Sewer or Drain with the Sewers or Drains so vested in the Commissioners, or authorized to be made under or by virtue of this Act.

Commissioners in certain Cases may compel Owners, &c. of Houses to construct Drains into the Common Sewer.

LXI. 'And whereas numerous Houses and Buildings have from Time to Time been erected and built 'without having proper Drains communicating therefrom with any Sewer, which Proceedings are highly 'injurious to the public Good:' Be it enacted, That in all Cases wherever any House or Building situate within the City shall at any Time be found not to be drained by a sufficient Drain communicating with some Sewer, and emptying itself into the same, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, and if a Sewer of sufficient Size, under the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners, shall pass along any Street, and within Fifty Feet of any Part of such House or Building, on a lower Level than such House or Building, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by Notice in Writing, to require the Owner of such House or Building forthwith, or within such reasonable Time as shall be appointed by the Commissioners, to construct and make from such House or Building, into the nearest Common Sewer, a covered Drain, of such Materials, of such Size, at such Level, and with such Fall as shall be adequate for the Drainage of such House or Building, and also, if practicable, of its Areas, Water-closets, Privies, and Offices, (if any,) and to carry and to convey the Soil, Drainage, and Wash therefrom into the said Sewer, and to provide a fit and proper Trap, affixed to the Mouth of such Drain, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners; and if the Owner of such House or Building shall neglect or refuse, during Twenty-eight Days after the said Notice shall have been delivered to such Owner, or left at such House or Building, to begin to construct such Drain, or shall thereafter fail to carry it on and complete it with all reasonable Despatch, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby empowered to cause the same to be constructed and made, and to recover the Expenses to be incurred thereby in the Manner herein-after provided.

No House to be built without Drains constructed to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners.

LXII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful to erect any House or other Building within the City unless a Drain be constructed to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, of such Materials, of such Size, at such Level, and with such Fall as they shall direct, so that the same shall be available for the Drainage of the lowest Floor of such Building, and also of its Areas, Water-closets, Privies, and Offices, (if any,) which Drain shall lead from the intended Site of such House to such Sewer, already made or intended to be constructed near thereto, as the Commissioners shall direct and appoint, or if there be no such Sewer existing or intended to be constructed within Fifty Feet of any Part of the intended Site of such House, then to such covered Cesspool or other Place, not being under any Dwelling House, as the Commissioners shall direct.

Notice of Buildings to be given to the Commissioners before commencing the same.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That before beginning to lay or dig out the Foundations of any new House or Building within the City, or to rebuild any House or Building therein, and also before making any Drain for the Purpose of draining Water directly or indirectly from any Land or Tenement into any Sewer under the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners, Fourteen Days Notice in Writing shall be given to the Commissioners, by the Person intending to build or rebuild such House or Building or to make such Drain; and every such Foundation shall be laid at such Level as is provided by this Act, and under such Regulations as the Commissioners shall order; and every such Branch Drain shall be made in such Direction, Manner, and Form, and of such Materials and Workmanship, as the Commissioners shall order, and the making of every such Drain shall be under the Survey and Control of the Commissioners; and in default of such Notice, or if such House, Building, or Drain shall be begun or erected or made without or in any respect contrary to any Order of the Commissioners or the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause such Building to be demolished, and to cause such Drain to be relaid, amended, or remade, as the Case may require, and to cause the Expenses thereof to be levied and repaid to them by the Owner thereof in the Manner herein-after provided.

Houses rebuilt to be on a Level determined by Commissioners.

What shall be deemed a rebuilding.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That whenever any House or Building shall be rebuilt within the City, the Level of the lowest Floor of such House or Building shall be raised sufficiently to allow of the Construction of such a Drain as is herein-before provided in the Case of Houses or Buildings to be built after the Commencement of this Act, and for that Purpose the Levels shall be taken and determined under the Direction of the Commissioners; and whenever any House or Building shall be taken down within Twelve Feet of the Surface of the Ground, for the Purpose of being built up again, such building up shall be deemed a Rebuilding within the Meaning of this Act.

Private Drains may be branched into Sewers constructed by the Commissioners, under certain Regulations.

LXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person, at his own Expense, to make or branch any Drain into any of the Sewers vested in the Commissioners, or authorized to be made by virtue of this Act or otherwise acquired by them, of such a Size and in such a Manner and Form of Communication in all respects as the Commissioners shall direct or appoint, and for that Purpose to take up and remove so much of the Pavement and other Materials of any Street as may be required, unless the Commissioners shall consent and agree, which they are hereby authorized to do, to form so much and such Portion of such Drain as shall lead from the Point of Communication in such Sewer to the Extremity of such Street; and in case any Person shall make or branch any Drain into any of the said Sewers so vested in the Commissioners, or authorized to be made under and by virtue of this Act, of a larger Size or in a different Manner and Form of Communication than shall be directed or appointed by the Commissioners, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Power to Commissioners to branch private Drains into Sewers, at the Expense of the Party to whom they shall belong.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary to take up or remove any Part of the Pavement or any of the Materials of any Street or public Place, for the Purpose of making or branching any private Drain into any of the Sewers or Drains vested in the Commissioners or authorized to be made by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in case they shall think fit so to do, to make so much and such Part of such private Drain, and also to construct so much and such Part of the Work necessary for branching the same into the public Sewers or Drains, as shall be under or in any Street, and to levy and recover the Costs and Expenses which shall be incurred thereby from the Owner of the House, Building, or Ground to which such private Drain shall belong, in the Manner herein-after provided.

Commissioners may agree to make House Drains at the Expense of Owners.

LXVII. 'And whereas it would tend to insure a greater Efficiency and Economy in the Execution of 'the Works if the same were executed by Persons under the immediate Direction and Control of the 'Surveyor of the Commissioners:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to contract and agree with the Owners of any Houses, Buildings, or Ground that any Drains required to be made, altered, or enlarged by such Owners shall be constructed, made, altered, and enlarged by the Commissioners; and the Cost Price of making, altering, or enlarging such Drains, as certified by the Surveyor of the Commissioners, shall be repaid by such Owners to the Commissioners, and in default of Payment the same may be recovered in the Manner herein-after provided.

Gullyholes, &c to be trapped.

LXVIII. 'And whereas the noxious Effluvia arising from Gullyholes of Sewers and Drains has been 'found to be unwholesome, and injurious to Health, it is therefore expedient that some Provision should 'be made in respect thereof, to obviate the same:' Be it enacted, That the Commissioners and the Owners of any private Drains shall, by providing proper Traps or other Coverings, or by Ventilation, or by such other Ways and Means as shall be practicable for that Purpose, prevent the Effluvia of Sewers and Drains from exhaling through Gullyholes, Gratings, or other Openings of Sewers in any of the Streets or other Places within the City.

Penalty on Persons sweeping Dirt into Sewers.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That no Scavenger or other Person shall sweep, rake, or place any Soil, Rubbish, or Filth, or any other Thing, into or in any Sewer or Drain, or over any Grate communicating with any Sewer or Drain; and every Scavenger or other Person who shall so offend shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Drains, Privies, &c. to be under the Control of the Commissioners, and to be kept in good Order by Owners or Occupiers.

LXX. And be it enacted, That all Drains, as well within as without the Houses or Buildings to which they belong, and all Privies and Cesspools within the City, shall be under the Survey and Control of the Commissioners, and of the Surveyors and Officers appointed by them for that Purpose, and shall be repaired and kept in proper Order at the Costs and Charges of the Owners or Occupiers of the Houses or Buildings to which the same belong; and if the Owner or Occupier of any House or Building to which any such House, Drain, Privy, or Cesspool shall belong shall neglect to repair and to put the same into good Order in the Manner required by the Commissioners, during Fourteen Days after Notice in Writing for that Purpose, signed by the Clerk or other Officer of the Commissioners, shall have been given to such Owner or left upon the Premises, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to order such Drain, Privy, or Cesspool to be repaired and put in good Order, and to levy and recover the Costs and Expenses thereof from such Owner in the Manner herein-after provided.

Power for Commissioners to authorize Inspection of Drains, Privies, and Cesspools.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or for their Surveyor or Inspector, or such other Person as they shall appoint, to inspect any Drain, Privy, or Cesspool within the City, and for that Purpose, at all reasonable Times in the Daytime, after Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing shall have been given to the Occupier of the Premises, or in case of Emergency without Notice, to which such Drain, Privy, or Cesspool is attached, or left upon the Premises, to enter, by themselves or their Surveyor or Inspector and Workmen, upon any Lands and Tenements, and also to cause the Ground to be opened in any Place they shall think fit, doing as little Damage as may be; and if such Drain, Privy, or Cesspool shall be found to be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, and in proper Order and Condition, they shall cause the same to be closed and made good as soon as may be, and the Expenses of opening, closing, and making good such Drain, Privy, or Cesspool shall be defrayed by the Commissioners, and full Compensation shall be made by them for all Damages or Injuries done or occasioned by the opening of any such Drain, Privy, or Cesspool.

Penalty on Persons making or altering Drains, &c. contrary to the Order of the Commissioners.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That in case any Sewer, Drain, Privy, or Cesspool, or other Work, shall, on Inspection, be found not to have been made according to the Directions and Regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or in case any Person, without the Consent of the Commissioners, shall construct, rebuild, clear out, unstop, or in anywise alter any Sewer, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or other Work which may have been ordered by them not to be made, or to be demolished, stopped up, or amended, every Person offending shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Ten Pounds; and in case the Person so making any Sewer, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or other Work, contrary to the Directions and Regulations of the Commissioners, or, without such Consent as aforesaid, constructing, rebuilding, clearing out, unstopping, or altering any Sewer, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or other Work which may have been ordered to be demolished, stopped up, or amended, shall not, within Seven Days after Notice in Writing by the Commissioners, cause such Sewer, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or other Work to be altered in conformity with the Directions of the Commissioners, or, as the Case may be, to be demolished, stopped up, or amended, then and in every such Case the Commissioners may cause the same to be done, and the Costs and Charges thereof shall be paid by the Person who shall have so made such Sewer, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or other Work contrary to the Directions of the Commissioners, or shall without such Consent have constructed, rebuilt, cleared out, or unstopped, or altered any Sewer, Drain, Privy, Cesspool, or other Work which they may have ordered to be demolished, stopped up, or amended.

Power for Commissioners of Sewers in the Neighbourhood of the City to make Communications into their Sewers.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into Arrangements with the Commissioners of Sewers in the Neighbourhood of the City, for enabling such last-mentioned Commissioners to turn or branch any of the Sewers or Drains which they may be enabled or authorized to make, or which may for the Time being be under their Management or Control, into any of the Sewers or Drains vested in the Commissioners, or authorized to be made by them, under the Authority of this Act, and in like Manner for enabling the Commissioners to turn or branch any of the Sewers or Drains vested in them, or authorized to be made by them, under the Authority of this Act, into any Sewers or Drains which the Commissioners of Sewers in the Neighbourhood of the City may be enabled or authorized to make, or which may for the Time being be under their Management or Control, in such Manner and upon such Terms and Conditions as shall be mutually agreed upon, and upon the Payment by the one Party to the other of such Sum and Sums of Money, either annually or in gross, as shall be a fair Remuneration for the Use of such Sewers or Drains.

In case of Differences between the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and the Metro-

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Dispute or Difference shall arise between the Commissioners under this Act and any Commissioners of Sewers for other Parts of the Metropolis or other Places, concerning the Junction of any Sewers, or the Levels, Lines, Form, or other Matter of Sewers, or concerning the Outlets, Banks, or other Matters wherein the Districts comprised in this Act and those comprised in the Limits of any Commission or Commissions of Sewers shall be interested, or concerning the Cost and Expenses of any Work, or the Proportions to be borne by the City of London and other Places

Places not comprised in this Act, or the Terms and Conditions of any such Matters, such Subject of Difference shall be submitted to the Decision of the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations; and after a Notice given Fourteen Days previously of the Intention of submitting such Subject, and which Notice may be given by and served on the Clerk of the Commissioners under this Act and the Clerk to any such Commissioners of Sewers, the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations are hereby authorized and empowered to proceed in the Matter, and to give such Notices for the Attendance of Parties, Officers, and others, and for the Production of Books, Accounts, Maps, and other Information, as may be necessary; and the said Lords of the Committee of Trade may make such Order in the Premises as shall be just; and after such Order the Commissioners under this Act, or under any Act or Commission, may proceed to do such Works for the Purpose of proper Drainage and Sewerage, and properly connecting the Lines of Sewers or otherwise, upon such Conditions, at such Period, and at the Costs of such Districts, either wholly or partially, and as the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations shall order, and for these Purposes either Commissioners may enter upon and do Works out of the District for which they may be Commissioners: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize or empower the said Lords of the Committee of Trade to order any Commissioners of Sewers, except the Commissioners under this Act, to proceed to do any such Works within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, unless the Commissioners under this Act shall refuse or neglect within a reasonable Time to do any such Works required to be done by the said Lords of the Committee of Trade.

politan Commissioners of Sewers, the same to be referred to Board of Trade.

LXXV. 'And whereas many Works, Acts, and Things are required by this Act to be done by the 'Owners and Occupiers of Houses, Buildings, or Lands, and other Persons, for the Improvement of the 'Streets, Sewers, and Drains within the City, and for other Purposes herein-before mentioned, and it is 'necessary to provide for the Execution of all such Works, Acts, or Things, in case the same shall not 'be done by the Persons required to do the same:' Be it enacted, That wherever such Work, Act, or Thing shall not be done by the Owner or Occupier or other Person required to do the same by the Provisions of this Act, in the Manner or at the Time prescribed by this Act, or by any Notice given by the Commissioners for that Purpose in pursuance of this Act, or if no Time shall be prescribed within a reasonable Time, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause such Work, Act, or Thing to be done, and the Expenses which shall be incurred by the Commissioners in respect of such Work, Act, or Thing shall be paid to them by the Owner, Occupier, or other Person by whom the same ought to have been done.

In default of Persons liable to construct Works, the Commissioners to execute the same, and recover Expenses.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Gas Company, or Person making, manufacturing, or supplying Gas, shall at any Time empty, drain, or convey, or permit or suffer to be emptied, drained, or conveyed, or to run or flow, any Washings, or foul or waste Water, or any noisome or offensive Liquid, Substance, or Thing which may arise or be produced in the making of Gas, into any public Sewer or Drain, every Gas Company or Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds for each and every Day during which any such Washing, or foul or waste Water, or other noisome or offensive Liquid, Substance, or Thing, shall be permitted or suffered to flow into any public Sewer or Drain.

No Gas Company or other Person to permit Washings, &c. to flow into any Sewer.

LXXVII. 'And whereas it is highly expedient, for the Purpose of preserving the Health of divers of 'Her Majesty's Subjects, that better Provision should be made for the Removal of certain Nuisances 'likely to promote or increase Disease:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon receiving a Certificate in Writing in the Form contained in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, signed by Two duly qualified Medical Practitioners, or by the Medical Officer of Health herein-after mentioned, of the filthy and unwholesome Condition of any Dwelling House or other Building, or of the Accumulation of any offensive or noxious Matter, Refuse, Dung, or Offal, or of the Existence of any foul or offensive Drain, Privy, or Cesspool, or of any insufficient Drainage, whereby any Nuisance shall arise, or upon the Complaint in Writing of any Owner, Trustee, or Occupier of any House or Building who shall be prejudiced or annoyed by any such Nuisance as aforesaid, stating in Writing the Particulars of the Nuisance complained of, forthwith to summon, in the Form contained in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of the Premises described in such Certificate or Complaint, or other the Person charged with the committing or causing of any such Nuisance, to appear before them, to answer the Matters alleged in such Certificate or Complaint; and if such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, or other Person, shall not appear at the Time and Place named in such Summons, or, having appeared, shall not show sufficient Cause to the contrary, or if there shall not be any Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, or any Person charged with the committing or causing of such Nuisance, or if it appears that such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, or the Person charged with the committing or causing of such Nuisance, cannot be found, and upon Proof that a Copy of the said Summons was left on the Premises or Place in the Summons mentioned, then, in either of the Cases aforesaid, the Commissioners, upon Proof to their Satisfaction of the Existence of the Nuisance in the said Certificate or Complaint described, shall forthwith make an Order in Writing under the Hand of the Clerk, in the Form contained in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, for the cleansing, whitewashing, or purifying of any such Dwelling House or other Building, or for the Removal or Abatement of the Nuisance in the said Certificate or Complaint described, within the Period and in the Manner in the said Order to be prescribed (such Period not being more than Two clear Days, of which Sunday shall not be one, after Notice of the making of the said Order shall have been given, in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act); and such Order or a true Copy of the same shall be forthwith served upon the Owner or Occupier

Commissioners, on Receipt of Medical Certificate, or on Complaint of any Owner or Occupier of any House or Building, as to Existence of Nuisances, to summon Parties complained against.

If Owner, &c. do not appear to the Summons, Commissioners, being satisfied of the Nuisance, may order Premises to be cleansed, &c.

Order, or Copy, to be served on Owner, &c., or affixed to the Premises.

Penalty on disobeying Order.

Occupier of the Premises or Place mentioned in such Order, or upon the Person charged with the committing or causing of such Nuisance, or if there be no such Owner or Occupier or Person charged as aforesaid, or if such Owner or Occupier or other Person as aforesaid cannot be served, then such Order, or a true Copy thereof, shall be forthwith affixed upon some Part of such Premises or Place as aforesaid; and if the Dwelling House or other Building in the said Order mentioned shall not be cleansed, whitewashed, or purified, or if the Nuisance in the said Order described shall not be removed or abated within the Period and in the Manner in the said Order mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or the Persons who made the Complaint, and who shall be authorized by the Commissioners so to do, by themselves, their Servants and others, to enter any Dwelling House or other Building or Place in the said Order mentioned, to cleanse, whitewash, or purify such Dwelling House or other Building, or to remove or abate the Nuisance in the said Order described; and if any Person shall wilfully obstruct any Person acting under the Authority and in pursuance of any Order made under the Provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Two Pounds for every such Offence.

Costs, &c. incurred by Commissioners or Parties complaining may be recovered from Owner or Occupier of the Premises on which the Nuisance existed.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or the Persons who shall have made such Complaint as aforesaid, to take Proceedings to recover from the Owner or Occupier of any Dwelling House or other Building or Place, or other Persons in any such Order as aforesaid mentioned, all the Costs and Expenses incurred by them in removing or abating any Nuisance, and otherwise carrying such Order into effect, and also the Costs and Expenses incurred incident to the obtaining such Order; and any Justice, upon the Application of the Commissioners, or of the Persons so complaining, shall issue an Order requiring such Owner or Occupier or other Person to appear before him at a Time and Place to be named in such Order; and upon the Appearance of such Owner or Occupier or other Person as aforesaid, or in his Absence upon Proof of due Service of the Order, such Justice, upon Proof that such Costs and Expenses have been incurred by the Commissioners or the Persons so complaining, shall (unless he shall see fit to excuse the Party so charged on the Ground of Poverty or other special Circumstances) order such Owner or Occupier or other Person to pay the Amount thereof to the Commissioners or the Persons so complaining, together with the Costs attending such Order and Hearing, and if the same shall not be paid by the Parties liable to pay the same within Seven Days after Demand, the Amount may be recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Parties liable as aforesaid, and any Justice, on Application, shall issue his Warrant accordingly.

Monies expended for Purposes of cleansing, &c. to be paid out of Consolidated Rate.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That all Expenses which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any of the Provisions of this Act relating to the cleansing of Houses or to the Abatement or Removal of Nuisances, and not recovered from Owners or Occupiers under the Provisions herein-before contained, or to any Proceedings had or taken in pursuance of any Order issued under the Authority of this Act for Prevention of any formidable contagious or epidemic Diseases, shall be retained or defrayed out of the consolidated Rate.

Appointment of Medical Officer of Health.

LXXX. 'And whereas the Health of the Population, especially of the poorer Classes, is frequently 'injured by the Prevalence of epidemical and other Disorders, and the Virulence and Extent of such 'Disorders are frequently due and owing to the Existence of local Causes which are capable of Removal, 'but which have hitherto often escaped Detection from the Want of some experienced Person to examine 'into and report upon them, and it is expedient that Power should be given to appoint a duly qualified 'Medical Practitioner for that Purpose:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to appoint One or more legally qualified Medical Practitioner or Practitioners of Skill and Experience to inspect and report periodically upon the sanatory Condition of the City, to ascertain the Existence of Diseases, more especially Epidemics increasing the Rates of Mortality, and to point out the Existence of any Nuisance or other local Causes which are likely to originate and maintain such Diseases, and injuriously affect the Health of the Inhabitants of the City, and to take cognizance of the Fact of the Existence of any contagious or epidemic Disease, and to point out the most efficacious Mode of checking or preventing the Spread of such Diseases, and also to point out the most efficient Modes for the Ventilation of Churches, Chapels, Schools, Lodging Houses, and other public Edifices within the City, and to perform any other Duties of a like Nature which may be required of him or them; and such Persons shall be called "The Medical Officers of Health for the City;" and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to pay to such Officers such Salaries as they shall think fit.

Power to Commissioners to order Houses, &c. to be whitewashed and purified.

Penalty for not complying with such Order.

LXXXI. And be it enacted, That when it shall appear to the Commissioners, either from the Report of any Officer of Health or otherwise, that any House or Part of any House, or the Premises adjoining to any House, is or are in such a filthy or unwholesome Condition that the Health of the Inmates or of the Public is thereby affected or endangered, or that the whitewashing, cleansing, or purifying of any House or any Part thereof would tend to prevent or check infectious or contagious Diseases which may have occurred therein, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time, if they shall think it expedient, to order the Owner or Occupier of any House or Dwelling, or any Part thereof, within the City, to whitewash, cleanse, and purify the same, in such Manner and within such Time as the Commissioners may deem reasonable; and if such Owner or Occupier shall not comply with such Order he shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings for every Day's Neglect thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause such House or Dwelling, or any Part thereof, to be whitewashed, cleansed, and purified, and to recover the Expense thereof from such Owner or Occupier; provided that when, on account of the Poverty of such Owner or Occupier, or other special Circumstance, it shall appear expedient to the Commissioners to pay the whole or any Part of such Expense, it shall be lawful for them so to do.

LXXXII. And

Commissioners to appoint Scavengers.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to appoint and employ a sufficient Number of Persons, or to contract with any Company or other Person, for the sweeping, cleansing, and watering of the several Streets within the City, and for collecting and removing all Dirt, Ashes, Rubbish, and Filth, and for the cleaning out and emptying of Privies and Cesspools, Sewers and Drains; and such Persons shall be called Scavengers; and such Scavengers or their Servants shall, on such Days and at such Hours and in such Manner as the Commissioners shall from Time to Time appoint, sufficiently execute all such Works and Duties as they shall respectively be employed or contract to perform; and if any such Scavenger fail to sweep and properly cleanse or water any Street which he shall contract or be employed to sweep, cleanse, or water, or shall fail to clean out or empty any Privy, Cesspool, Sewer, or Drain, at the Time and in the Manner appointed by the Commissioners, or on the lawful Request of any Owner or Occupier of any House, or to collect or remove any Dirt, Ashes, Rubbish, or Filth which he shall contract or be employed to remove, at the Time and in manner prescribed by the Commissioners for that Purpose, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Refuse collected to be vested in Commissioners, who shall dispose of the same in aid of the Sewers Rate.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Dirt, Dust, Nightsoil, and Filth by this Act authorized to be collected from the several Streets, Privies, Sewers, and Cesspools within the City, and all the Dust, Ashes, and Rubbish so authorized to be collected, taken, and carried away from all and every of the Houses or elsewhere within the City, shall be the Property of the Commissioners, and are hereby vested in them, and the Commissioners shall have full Power to sell and dispose of the same for the Purposes of this Act as they shall think proper, and the Money arising from the Sale thereof shall be applied for the Purposes of the Sewer Rate, and the Person purchasing the same shall have full Power to take, carry away, and dispose of the same for his own proper Use and Benefit.

Owners or Occupiers to pay Scavengers for Removal of Refuse of Trades.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That in case the Scavengers shall be required by the Owner or Occupier of any House or Land to remove the Refuse of any Trade, Manufacture, or Business, or of any Building Materials, such Owner or Occupier shall pay to the Scavengers a reasonable Sum for such Removal, such Sum, in case of Dispute, to be settled by any Justice; and in case of Refusal or Neglect of such Owner or Occupier to pay the Sum awarded by such Justice, within Three Days next after Demand thereof, the Justice may cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of his Goods or Chattels, the Surplus, if any, arising by such Sale, to be paid to such Owner or Occupier.

Regulations to prevent Accumulation of Dung, &c.

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That if the Dung or Soil of any Stable or Cowhouse, or other Collection of refuse Matter, (except Stable Dung in a Stable Yard, in a Pit or Heap properly prepared for the Purpose,) shall at any Time be allowed to accumulate within the City for more than Fourteen Days, or for more than Seven Days after a Quantity exceeding a Cubic Yard shall have been collected, such Dung, Soil, or Refuse shall, if not removed within Twenty-four Hours after Notice from any Officer of the Commissioners, become vested in the Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for them, or the Person for the Time being having the Contract for doing so, to remove and sell and dispose of the same as the Property of the Commissioners, and the Money thence arising shall be applied to the Purposes of the Sewers Rate; and if any Person shall allow any Dung, Soil, Dirt, Ashes, or Filth to accumulate within his Dwelling House or other Building or Place for more than Three Days after the Scavenger shall have applied to remove the same, such Person, upon being lawfully convicted, shall be subject to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings and not less than Five Shillings, to be recovered and applied as other Penalties under this Act.

Penalty for obstructing Scavengers in Performance of their Duty.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That any Occupier of any House or Lands, or other Person, who shall refuse or not permit such Dung, Soil, Dirt, Ashes, or Filth to be taken away by the Scavengers appointed by or contracting with the Commissioners as aforesaid, or who shall obstruct the said Scavengers in the Performance of their Duty, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for allowing stagnant Water to remain in any Cellar or Yard.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That any Owner or Occupier of any House, or any Person, who shall suffer any waste or stagnant Water to remain in any Cellar or Place within any Dwelling House, or in or on any Yard or Garden attached thereto, for Twenty-four Hours after Notice from the Commissioners, or from any Inspector of Nuisances, to remove the same, or shall permit or suffer the Contents of any Water-closet, Privy, or Cesspool to overflow or soak therefrom, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and a further Sum of Forty Shillings for every Day during which such Offence shall be continued; and the Commissioners shall abate every such Nuisance, and the Expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be repaid to them by the Owner or Occupier of the House or Premises in which the same exists, and be recoverable from him in a summary Manner.

Power to Commissioners to appoint Inspectors of Nuisances.

LXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby required to nominate and appoint One or more Person or Persons to superintend and enforce the due Execution of all Duties to be performed by the Scavengers appointed under the Authority of this Act, and to report to the Commissioners all Breaches of the Rules and Regulations of the Commissioners, and to point out the Existence of any Nuisances; and every such Person shall be called an Inspector of Nuisances; and the Commissioners shall require every such Inspector to provide and keep a Book, in which shall be entered all the Complaints made by any Inhabitant of the City of any Deficiency in the Supply of Water, and of any Infringement of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Rules and Regulations made by the Commissioners for the Preservation of due Order and Cleanliness or for the Suppression of Nuisances, as may be required by the Commissioners, and every such Inspector shall forthwith inquire into the Truth or otherwise of such Complaints, and report upon the same to the Commissioners at their next next Meeting, and such Report, and the Order of the Commissioners thereon, shall be entered in a Book, which shall be kept at the Office of the Commissioners, and shall be open at all reasonable Times to the Inspection of any Inhabitant within the City; and it shall be the Duty of such Inspector, subject to the Direction of the Commissioners, to make Complaints before any Justices, and take legal Proceedings for the Punishment of any Person for any Offence under this Act, or any Rules or Regulations made by the Commissioners by virtue thereof.

Places to be provided in which the Bodies of the Poor may remain until Interment.

LXXXIX. 'And whereas the Poor at all Times have great Difficulty in obtaining and frequently are 'utterly unable to obtain a fit and proper Place in which their Dead may remain until removed for Inter-'ment, but are compelled to let the Corpse remain in the Room which the Living occupy, whereby great 'Mortality is often occasioned, especially in Cases of contagious and infectious Disorders:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, from Time to Time, if they shall think fit so to do, to provide fit and proper Places in which the Poor, under proper Rules and Restrictions, may be permitted to deposit the Bodies of their Dead previously to Interment, and to cause the Bodies so deposited therein to be decently taken care of so long as the Commissioners shall allow the same to remain.

Officers of Health may require Bodies to be removed.

XC. And be it enacted, That whenever any fit and proper Places for the temporary Reception of the Dead shall have been provided by the Commissioners as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Officers of Health, in all Cases in which any dead Body shall have been suffered to remain in a Room occupied by any living Person, if they shall consider it necessary so to do, for the Purpose of preserving or benefiting the Health of the Inmates of the House in which such Body may lie, or of the Houses adjoining thereto, to cause such Body to be removed, at the Expense of the Commissioners, to the nearest Place or Building provided or erected by the Commissioners for the Reception of dead Bodies previously to Interment.

For the Registration and Inspection of Lodging Houses.

XCI. 'And whereas the Owners and Keepers of Lodging Houses of an inferior Description, for the 'Accommodation of Mendicants, Strangers, and other Persons for the Night or other short Periods, 'allow the same to be crowded, by receiving more Lodgers than such Lodging Houses are adapted to 'contain with a due Regard to Health, and allow Persons afflicted with Fever and other Diseases of a 'contagious or infectious Nature to remain in them till Infection has been communicated to other 'Lodgers, and receive other Lodgers into the Apartments and Beds from which diseased Persons have 'been removed without any purifying or other disinfecting Process:' Be it enacted, That whenever the Medical Officer of Health shall certify that the Owner or Keeper of any common Lodging House has received into such Lodging House more Lodgers than the same is adapted to contain with a due Regard to Health, or has allowed Persons afflicted with contagious or infectious Disorders to remain therein, or has received other Lodgers into the Apartments and Beds from which diseased Persons have been removed without previously purifying and disinfecting the same, and Notice of the Medical Officer of Health having so certified shall have been given by the Commissioners to the Owner or Keeper of such Lodging House, or left for him at or upon the said House, it shall not be lawful for the Owner or Keeper of such Lodging House, after such Notice shall have been so given or left as aforesaid, to accommodate or receive any Lodgers therein unless and until such House shall have been registered in a Book to be kept by the Commissioners for that Purpose; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to fix and determine the Number of Lodgers who may be accommodated in each such Lodging House, and the Names of the Keepers of such Lodging Houses shall be recorded by the Commissioners in a Register to be kept for that Purpose, and the Commissioners may order that a Ticket containing the Number of Lodgers for which the House is registered, and any Rules or Instructions of the Commissioners regarding Health, Cleanliness, or Ventilation, shall be hung up or placed in a conspicuous Part of each Room into which Lodgers are received; and the Keepers of all such Lodging Houses shall at all Times give Access thereto, when required by any Person or Persons appointed by the Commissioners for the Purpose of making an Inspection and Inquiry, or for the Purpose of introducing, using, or performing any disinfecting Process which the Commissioners may order; and the Expenses incurred by the Commissioners in so introducing, using, or performing any disinfecting Process shall be recoverable by them in a summary Manner from the Owner or Person keeping the Lodging House in which the same shall have been so introduced, used, or performed; and if any Keeper of such Lodging House shall offend against any of these Provisions he shall be liable for each such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and the like Penalty for every Day after the first upon which any such Offence shall be continued; and the Expression "common Lodging House" shall, for the Purposes of this Act, mean any public Lodging House, not being a Licensed Victualling House, in which Persons are harboured or lodged for Hire for a single Night or for less than a Week at One Time, or in which any Room is let for Hire to be occupied by more than One Family at One Time.

Existing Slaughter-houses to be registered.

XCII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Place which at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be used as a Slaughter-house shall, within Three Months after the Commencement of this Act, be registered by the Owner or Proprietor thereof at the Office of the Commissioners, under the Penalty of a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for such Offence, and the like Penalty for every Day after the first during which such Place shall be used as a Slaughter-house without having been so registered; and in case any such Slaughter-house shall be discontinued the same shall not be again used as such without having been first duly registered, under the Penalty of a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for such Offence, and the like Penalty for every Day after the first upon which the said Offence shall be continued.

XCIII. And

XCIII. And be it enacted, That on the Registration of any Slaughter-house which shall be existing at the Time of the passing of this Act there shall be paid to the Clerk such Sum as the Commissioners shall direct, not exceeding the Sum of Five Shillings. Fee on such Registration.

XCIV. And be it enacted, That no Place shall be used or occupied as a Slaughter-house which shall not have been so used previously to the passing of this Act; and in case any Person shall use as a Slaughter-house any Place not heretofore used as such, every Person so offending shall for each Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and the like Penalty for every Day after the first upon which the said Offence shall be continued. Penalty on using as a Slaughter-house Places not heretofore used as such.

XCV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to make such Rules and Regulations as to them may seem proper for the Preservation of Cleanliness in and the better Regulation and Management of every Place now used for the Purpose of or as a Slaughter-house, or for the killing of Cattle, and also to fix and appoint such pecuniary Penalties for the Nonobservance or Nonperformance of such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners may think just and reasonable, not exceeding Five Pounds for any One Offence, to be recoverable in like Manner as other Penalties under this Act may be recovered. Commissioners may make Rules for Cleanliness and Regulation of Slaughter-houses, and fix Penalties.

XCVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice before whom any Person shall be convicted of killing or dressing any Beast or Cattle contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or of the Nonobservance of any of the Rules and Regulations by this Act authorized to be made as aforesaid, in addition to the Penalty imposed on such Person under the Authority of this Act, in case such Person shall be the Owner or Proprietor of any registered Slaughter-house, to suspend for any Period not exceeding Two Months the slaughtering or killing of Cattle therein; and it shall also be lawful for such Justice, upon the Conviction of any Person for a Second or other subsequent and like Offence, in addition to the Penalty imposed under the Authority of this Act, in case such Person shall be the Owner or Proprietor of any registered Slaughter-house, to prohibit absolutely the slaughtering or killing of Cattle therein. Justice may suspend for a Time the slaughtering of Cattle in registered Houses.

XCVII. And be it enacted, That if after the Commencement of this Act any Person shall within the City carry on the Trade or Business of a Knacker, or deal in dead Horses or other Carrion, such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and the like Penalty for every Day after the first upon which such Offence shall be continued. Penalty on Persons carrying on the Trade of a Knacker.

XCVIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall, for the Purposes of this Act, and for carrying the several Provisions therein contained into full and complete Effect, have full Power and Authority to enter, or to order and direct their Surveyor, Medical Officer of Health, Inspectors of Nuisances, or other Officers or Contractors employed by them, at all reasonable Hours in the Daytime, to enter into and upon any House or Building within the City, and into and upon the Land on which any House, Building, or other Erection is built, or being built, or intended to be built, and into and upon any Ground on which there may not be any House or Building, or any Part thereof, without being liable to any Action at Law or Suit in Equity or any other legal Proceedings or Molestation whatever, for or on account of such Entry, or the Works done or to be done in pursuance of this Act. Commissioners empowered to enter upon Lands and Houses for the Purposes of this Act.

XCIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require the Owner of any House to which no sufficient Privy or Ashpit is attached to provide such proper Privy to the same, in such Situation, not disturbing any Building already erected, and with such proper Door and Covering to such Privy, and also such fit and sufficient Ashpit, and in such Situation, not disturbing any Building already erected, as the Commissioners shall consider requisite for the Use of the Inmates and Occupiers thereof; provided that a Privy and Ashpit, or Two or more Privies and Ashpits, may, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, be used in common by the Inmates and Occupiers of Two or more such Houses. Commissioners may require Owners of Houses to provide Privies and Ashpits for the same.

C. And be it enacted, That no House shall hereafter be built without there being constructed, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, either in such House or in a Yard attached to such House, a Privy, with proper Doors and Coverings to the same, and also an Ashpit, together (if required by the Commissioners) with a proper Funnel or Flue or other Means of carrying off upwards any offensive Stench from such Privy and Ashpit. No House to be built without a Privy and Ashpit being provided.

CI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think fit so to do, by Notice in Writing to the Owner or Occupier of any House or Building in which Persons of both Sexes above Twenty in Number are employed or intended to be employed at One Time in any Manufacture, Trade, or Business, to require such Owner or Occupier to provide, within a Time to be limited in such Notice, a sufficient Number of Water-closets or Privies for the separate Use of each Sex; and if any such Owner or Occupier shall neglect or refuse to comply with such Notice he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and a further Sum of Forty Shillings for every Day during which such Neglect or Refusal shall continue. Water-closets to be provided in Manufactories. Penalty for Neglect.

CII. And be it enacted, That the Owner of every House now built or hereafter to be built shall keep the Privy and Ashpit belonging to such House, or used by the Inmates or Occupiers thereof, in good Repair, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners; and if the Owner of any House shall not provide the same with a Privy, with such Door and Covering to the same, and with such Ashpit as aforesaid, or shall not repair the said Privy and Ashpit, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, within One Month next after Notice in Writing for that Purpose from the Clerk or Surveyor to the Commissioners shall have been given to such Owner, or left for him at his usual or last known Place of Abode, or upon or affixed to the Premises in respect of which the same shall be given, every Owner so making default shall Owners of Houses to keep Privies and Ashpits in repair.

shall for every such Default forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and any further Sum not exceeding Ten Shillings for every Week during which such Default shall in anywise continue unamended.

If Privies not emptied within Three Days after Notice, Commissioners may cause same to be done at Owner's Expense.

CIII. And be it enacted, That if the Owner or Occupier of any House shall not, within Three Days after Notice from the Commissioners requiring him to empty and cleanse the Privy or Cesspool belonging to such House, or used by the Inmates or Occupiers thereof, cause such Privy or Cesspool to be effectually emptied and cleansed, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause such Privy or Cesspool to be emptied and cleansed, and to dispose of the Soil removed therefrom in such Manner as they shall think fit; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to recover from such Owner or Occupier the Costs and Expenses incurred thereby in the Manner provided by this Act for the Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures.

Commissioners to cause public Conveniences to be erected.

CIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time, if they shall think fit so to do, to build, form, and erect such Urinals, Necessaries, and other similar Conveniences, in such Situations as they shall deem proper, for the Accommodation of the Public, and to alter or remove any existing Urinals, Necessaries, and other similar Conveniences.

Commissioners may require Owners of Houses to provide Cisterns.

CV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require the Owner of any House in or to which there shall not be or be attached a sufficient Cistern for Water to provide such fit and capacious Cisterns, of such Materials and in such Situations, and with such proper Coverings and Cocks and other necessary Apparatus, as the Commissioners shall consider necessary, for the Use of the Occupiers thereof, and to require such Owner, and also the Owner of every House in or to which there shall be or be attached a sufficient Cistern, to compound or agree with some Water Company for a sufficient Supply at all Times of good and wholesome Water, and to keep such Cisterns well and sufficiently cleansed, and the same, and every thing relating thereto, in good Order and Repair, so that the Occupiers of such House may at all Times be enabled conveniently to supply themselves with a sufficient Quantity of Water; provided that in Cases of Houses in Courts One Cistern, if of a sufficient Size, may, with the Consent of the Commissioners, be provided for the Inmates or Occupiers of Two or more such Houses.

No House to be built without a Cistern being provived for the same.

CVI. And be it enacted, That no House shall hereafter be built without there being erected, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, either in such House or in a Yard attached thereto, a fit and capacious Cistern, with a proper Covering and Cock and other necessary Apparatus attached thereto; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require the Owner of such House to compound with some Water Company for a due and sufficient Supply of wholesome Water.

If Owners neglect, Commissioners may order Cisterns to be provided at their Expense.

CVII. And be it enacted, That if the Owner of any House shall refuse or neglect, for the Space of Seven Days next after Notice in Writing from any Inspector of Nuisances or other Officer of the Commissioners requiring him so to do, to provide such House with a fit and capacious Cistern, with a proper Covering and Cock and other necessary Apparatus attached thereto, or properly to cleanse such Cistern, or to put the same, or the Covering or Cock or other necessary Apparatus attached thereto into good Repair, or to compound or agree with some Water Company for a sufficient Supply of wholesome Water, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners in all respects, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause a fit and capacious Cistern, with a proper Covering and Cock and other necessary Apparatus attached thereto, to be provided and set up in some convenient Place in such House or Yard, or, as the Case may be, to cause the same to be properly cleansed and put into good Repair, and to compound or agree with some Water Company for a due and sufficient Supply of wholesome Water, and for such Purposes to enter into and upon any such House or Yard at all reasonable Times, and to do all necessary Acts for any of the Purposes aforesaid; and the Costs and Expenses incurred thereby, and the Monies paid under or in respect of such Composition or Agreement, shall be repaid to the Commissioners by the Owner of such House, and in default of Payment the same may be levied and recovered in the same Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures are by this Act directed to be levied and recovered.

Commissioners may order Nuisances to be abated.

CVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Candle-house, Melting-house, Melting-place, or Soap-house, or any Boiling-house for Offal, or any Manufactory or other Building, Place, or Matter, erected, made, or commenced to be carried on in the City after the Commencement of this Act, shall be certified to the Commissioners by any of the Officers of Health, or any Two legally qualified Medical Practitioners, to be a Nuisance, and injurious to the Health of the Inhabitants, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to summon the Person by or on whose Behalf such Nuisance is carried on to appear before them, to answer the Matter alleged in such Certificate; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, after inquiring into the Matter of such Complaint, by an Order in Writing under the Hand of the Clerk to direct and order the Person by and on whose Behalf such Nuisance is carried on to discontinue and remedy the same, within such Time as to them shall appear expedient: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the Commissioners that in carrying on the Business complained of the best Means then known to be available for mitigating the injurious Effects of such Business have not been adopted, it shall be lawful for them to suspend their final Determination, upon Condition that the Person so complained against shall undertake to adopt within a reasonable Time such Means as the Commissioners shall think to be practicable, and order to be carried into effect, for mitigating or preventing the injurious Effects of such Business.

Penalty for Disobedience of Orders of Commissioners.

CIX. And be it enacted, That if any such Nuisance as aforesaid shall not be discontinued or remedied within such Time as shall be ordered by the Commissioners, the Person by or on whose Behalf such Nuisance is carried on, kept, or made shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Nuisance shall be continued or unremedied after the Expiration of such Time as aforesaid: Provided always, that when any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any such Order shall, shall, according to the Provisions contained in this Act, appeal against any such Order, such Person shall not be liable to discontinue or remedy the Nuisance mentioned therein, or to pay any Penalty, until after the Expiration of Five Days after the Determination of such Appeal and the Confirmation of such Order, unless such Appeal shall cease to be prosecuted.

After Commencement of Act, no Interment in any Grave which shall not leave Five Feet clear of the Soil above the Coffin.

CX. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act no Coffin shall be interred in any Grave in any Burial Ground within the City, in which, after the Interment thereof, there shall not be left at least Five Feet of Soil remaining below the ordinary Surface of such Burial Ground, clear of every Part of the Coffin so to be interred in such Grave; and if the Sexton or other Person having the Preparation or the immediate Charge of the Preparation of the Grave to receive such Coffin shall permit the Coffin to be interred in such Grave, or if the Minister, Churchwarden, Trustee, or other Person having the Control of the Burial Ground shall knowingly permit any Coffin to be interred in any Grave in which there shall not be left, after the Interment thereof, Five Feet at the least of Soil, measuring below the ordinary Surface of such Burial Ground, clear of any Part of the Coffin so to be interred, every such Sexton or other Person having the immediate Charge of the Preparation of the Grave, and every such Minister, Churchwarden, Trustee, or other Person having the Control of the Churchyard, Burial Ground, or Cemetery in which such Interment shall be made, shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Power to Justices to suspend Sextons from their Offices.

CXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Sexton or other Person having the Preparation or the immediate Charge of the Preparation of Graves in any Burial Ground within the City shall be guilty of a second or other subsequent Offence against this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom he shall be convicted of such second or other subsequent Offence, if such Justice shall think proper so to do, but not otherwise, instead of awarding any pecuniary Penalty in respect of such Offence, to adjudge that the Offender be incompetent to execute the Office of Sexton, or any other Office giving him the Charge of the Preparation of the Graves in any Burial Ground within the City, either permanently or for such Time as shall be declared by such Justice; and if any such Sexton or other Person, after having been so declared incompetent as aforesaid, shall during the Term of such his declared Incompetency act as Sexton, or act in any Manner in the Preparation of any Grave within the City, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Interments in Vaults or Catacombs.

Coffins to be of Lead, or inclosed in Pitch.

Penalty.

CXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Provisions herein contained for the Discontinuance or Restriction of Interments shall not apply to Vaults or Catacombs; provided further, that it shall not be lawful to place any Corpse in any Vault or Catacomb unless the same shall be inclosed in a Coffin made of or lined with Lead of sufficient Strength, and perfectly air-tight, or otherwise inclosed in Pitch of Half an Inch in Thickness between an interior and exterior Coffin of Wood; and every Person placing or aiding in placing, or permitting any Corpse to be placed, in any Vault or Catacomb, without the same being inclosed in a Coffin made of or lined with Lead of sufficient Strength, and perfectly air-tight, or inclosed in Pitch in the Manner herein-before directed, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of not less than Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Persons causing offensive Smells.

CXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall roast or burn, boil, distil, or otherwise decompose, any Root, Drug, or other Article or Thing, in any House or Building, and thereby cause offensive or injurious Smells or Vapours to be emitted therefrom, so as to become a common Nuisance, every Person so offending shall for every Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for the first Offence and Ten Pounds for every subsequent Offence.

Penalty on emptying Privies or conveying offensive Matter at improper Times.

CXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall empty or begin to empty any Privy between the Hours of Six in the Morning and Twelve at Night, or remove along any Thoroughfare any Night-soil, Soaplees, Ammoniacal Liquor, or other such offensive Matter, between the Hours of Six in the Morning and Twelve at Night, or who shall at any Time use for any such Purpose any Cart or Carriage not having a proper Covering, or who shall wilfully or carelessly slop or spill any such offensive Matter in the Removal thereof, or who shall not carefully clean and sweep any Place in which any such offensive Matter shall have been placed, slopped, or spilled, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and in default of the Apprehension of the actual Offender the Driver or Person having the Care of the Cart or Carriage employed for any such Purpose shall be deemed the Offender.

Lamps, &c. vested in the Commissioners.

CXV. And be it enacted, That all the public Lamps and Lamp Posts, and Lamp Irons and Fittings, which at the Time of the Commencement of this Act or hereafter shall be within the City, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Commissioners.

Regulations for lighting Streets.

CXVI. And for the better lighting the Streets, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to enter into Contracts with such Gas Companies and other Persons as they may think fit, to supply Gas, or to light the City by any other Mode, and to cause such and so many Lamps to be set up in such Places within the City in such Manner as they shall judge necessary and proper, and the Commissioners shall order and direct at what Time the Lights within the same shall be lighted, and how long they shall continue lighted, and shall from Time to Time give such other Orders and Directions in the Premises, and shall set such Fines for Neglect or Nonperformance of Contract as they shall think needful for the well and sufficient lighting the City.

Penalty for wilfully damaging &c. of Lamps.

CXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully take away, break, or throw down or damage any Lamp that now is or hereafter shall be set up for lighting any of the Streets, or wilfully extinguish the Light within the same, or damage the Iron or other Furniture thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person whosoever who shall see such Offence committed to seize, as also for any other Person to assist in seizing, the Offender, and by Authority of this Act, and without any other Warrant, to convey him, or to deliver him into the Custody of a Police Officer in order to be secured and conveyed, before some Justice; and if the Party accused shall be convicted of such Offence he shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings for each Lamp so broken, thrown down, or damaged, or for every Light so extinguished, or for the Iron or other Furniture thereof so damaged as aforesaid.

Persons carelessly or accidentally breaking or damaging Lamps, &c. to make Satisfaction.

CXVIII. And be it enacted, That in case any Person shall carelessly or accidentally break, throw down, or damage any of the said Lamps so set up or hereafter to be set up as aforesaid, or the Iron or other Furniture thereof, and shall not immediately upon Demand make Satisfaction for the Damage done thereto, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon Complaint to him made by any One credible Person, to summon before him the Party who shall be complained of for doing such Damage, and upon hearing the Allegations and Proofs upon Oath touching the same, or upon the Non-appearance of the Party so complained of and summoned, to award such Sum of Money by way of Satisfaction for such Damage as such Justice shall think reasonable; and in case of Refusal or Neglect of the said Party to pay the Sum of Money so awarded, within Three Days next after Demand thereof, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of his Goods or Chattels, the Surplus (if any) arising by such Distress and Sale to be paid to him.

Property of the Pavements vested in the Commissioners.

CXIX. And be it enacted, That the Property of the Pavements and other Materials as well in the Carriageways as Footways of the Streets, and all Erections and Buildings, and all Materials, Implements, and Things relating to or used or to be used in or about the making or repairing thereof, shall, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, be and the same are hereby vested in the Commissioners.

Regulations for paving Streets.

CXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to cause all or any of the Streets within the City, or any Part thereof respectively, to be paved or repaired, when and as often and in such Form and Manner and with such Materials as the Commissioners shall think fit, and to cause the Ground or Soil thereof to be raised or lowered, and the Course of the Channels running in, into, or through the same to be turned or altered, in such Manner as they shall think proper, and all such Mains and Pipes as now lie or hereafter shall be laid underground to be taken up, and new laid in such Places, Manner, and Form as they shall judge best.

Owners possessing Freehold of Courts, &c. to pave the same.

CXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever the Freehold of any Court, Passage, or public Place, not being a Thoroughfare, shall be vested in the Owner of any adjoining House, the paving of such Court, Passage, or public Place shall be done by such Owner.

Owners of Courts to flag them, and keep the Flagging in repair.

Penalty on Owners for Neglect.

CXXII. And be it enacted, That the Owner of any such Court, Passage, or public Place, not being a Thoroughfare, shall, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, sufficiently pave the same, and lay, at a proper Level, through, over, or along such Part thereof as the Commissioners may require, a Channel or Gutter, and keep such Pavement and Channel or Gutter in good Repair to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners; and if any such Owner of any Court, Passage, or public Place, not being a Thoroughfare, shall not sufficiently pave the same as aforesaid, or shall not lay down therein such Channel or Gutter, or shall not repair and keep the same respectively in good Repair, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, within Fourteen Days after Notice in Writing requiring him so to do shall have been given to him by the Commissioners, every such Person so offending shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause such Court, Passage, or public Place to be paved, or such Channel or Gutter to be laid down, or, as the Case may be, to be repaired and put into good Order, and to levy and recover the Costs and Expense thereof from such Owner in the Manner by this Act provided.

Water from Houses to be conveyed by Drains.

CXXIII. And be it enacted, That no Water shall be permitted to flow from any House upon the Footway of any Street or upon the Pavement of any Court or Passage, but all such Houses shall be drained by Pipes, to communicate with Tunnels below the Surface of the Pavement of the Footway, Court, or Passage, and where impracticable on account of the Level of the Street, Court, or Passage, by Channels formed on the Pavement of the Footway, Court, or Passage; nor shall any Water be pumped up or discharged from any House upon the Footway of any Street or upon the Pavement of any Court or Passage, but the same, when necessary to be so pumped up and discharged in consequence of any Tempest or Flood, may be conveyed over or under the Footway, or over or under the Pavement of any Court or Passage, by Spouts or Tanks, to the Drain or Channel of the Street.

Under-ground Drains to be formed.

CXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Owner or Occupier of any House or Building in any Street within the City shall cause the Water to be conveyed from such House or Building by Iron Drains or Tunnels, or Iron Drain Gutters, below the Surface of the Pavement of the Footpath, and for that Purpose it shall be lawful for any such Owner or Occupier, with the Consent of the Commissioners, to take up so much of the Pavement of any Street as may be requisite, and to lay down the said Drains or Tunnels, or fix the said Iron Drain Gutters, under the Direction of the Commissioners or their Surveyor, and all Damage which may thereby be occasioned to the Pavement of the Footpath or Carriageway shall be made good at the Expense of such Owner or Occupier.

Vaults and Cellars under Streets not to be made without the Consent of the Commissioners.

CXXV. And be it enacted, That no Vault, Arch, or Cellar shall be made under any Street within the City without the Consent of the Commissioners first obtained; and that all such Vaults, Arches, and Cellars hereafter to be made within the City shall be substantially made, and so as not to interfere or communicate with any Drains or Sewers under the Control of the Commissioners, without their Consent first obtained; and if any Vault, Arch, or Cellar shall be made contrary to the Provisions of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to fill up the same, and the Expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the Person making such Vault, Arch, or Cellar.

CXXVI. And

Commissioners to pave new Streets, on One Third of the estimated Expense being paid by the Owners.

CXXVI. And be it enacted, That in case the Owners of any Houses forming the principal Part of any new Street laid out or made or hereafter to be laid out or made within the City, which has not previously been paved or repaired by or under the Direction of the Commissioners, shall be desirous of having the same paved, or if the Commissioners shall deem it expedient or necessary that the same shall be paved, then and in either of such Cases it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be after any such new or other Street, or the Site thereof, shall be prepared and appropriated for the public Use, to lay out the Ground for proper Carriageways and Footways, and well and sufficiently to pave the same, and from Time to Time to keep such Pavement in good and sufficient Repair; and the Owners of the Houses forming the principal Part of such new Street shall, on Demand, pay to the Commissioners One equal Third Part of the Amount of the estimated Expenses of providing and laying such Pavement (such Amount to be determined by the Surveyor for the Time being of the Commissioners); and in default of Payment thereof the same may be recovered by Action of Debt or on the Case in any of the Superior Courts; and the Charges of such paving, or so much as shall be necessary in addition to the Third Part of the estimated Expense to be paid to the Commissioners as aforesaid, and of repairing such Pavement, shall be defrayed out of the Rates to be raised by virtue of this Act.

Providing for Payment of Difference between the estimated and the actual Expense of paving new Streets, &c.

CXXVII. And be it enacted, That in case the Sum of Money to be paid as the One Third Part of the Amount of the estimated Expenses of providing and laying the Pavement of any such new Street as herein-before is mentioned shall exceed One equal Third Part of the actual Charges of such paving, then a Sum of Money equal to the Difference between the Third Part of such estimated Expenses and the Third Part of such actual Charges shall be repaid by the Commissioners to the Owners of Houses by whom the said Sum of Money shall have been paid; and in case the Sum of Money to be paid as aforesaid shall be less than One Third Part of the actual Charges of such paving, then and in such Case the Owners of the Houses by whom such Sum shall have been paid shall, on Demand, pay to the Commissioners such further Sum of Money as, together with the Sum which shall have been paid, shall amount or be equal to One Third Part of the actual Amount of such paving respecting which such further Sum may be recovered, in like Manner as herein-before is directed for the Recovery of the said One Third Part of the said estimated Expenses.

Footways to be completed with Curbstones.

CXXVIII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall be required by the Commissioners, under the Provisions of this Act, to pave the Footway of any present or future Street within the City, shall not be considered to have well and sufficiently paved the same unless he shall have completed the same with Curbstones and Gutters to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners.

Commissioners may place Fences, &c. to Footways.

CXXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to place any Fences, Rails, and Posts on the Sides of any Footways or Carriageways within the City, for the Purposes of Safety, and to prevent any Carriage or Animal from going on the same, and also to place any Posts or other Erections in any Carriageways so as to make the Crossings thereof less dangerous for Foot Passengers, and also from Time to Time to repair and renew any such Fences, Rails, or Posts, or to remove the same or any other Obstruction or Encroachment on any Carriageway or Footway.

Penalty on injuring Footways by driving or unloading Carts thereon.

CXXX. And be it enacted, That if any Carter or other Person having the Charge of any Cart shall at any Time break, damage, or injure the Pavement of any of the Footways of the Streets, by driving such Cart on the same, or by discharging the Contents of such Cart thereon, he shall pay a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every such Offence; and such Penalty shall be imposed without Prejudice to any other Provision in this Act contained.

Owners liable for Damage done by Servants.

CXXXI. And be it enacted, That the Owner of any Cart shall be answerable for any such Damage done by any of his Servants or other Persons employed by him to the Pavement of the said Footways as last herein-before mentioned; and every such Servant or other Person may lawfully be convicted of such Offence before any Justice, either by the Confession of the Party offending or upon the Oath of some credible Witness; and upon such Conviction every such Owner shall pay to the Commissioners the Costs and Expenses (to be ascertained by such Justice) which they may have incurred in repairing and restoring the Pavement so broken, damaged, or injured.

Owner may recover Expenses from Servants.

CXXXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Owner who shall repay to the Commissioners any such Costs and Expenses as aforesaid to recover the Amount so paid by him from the Servant or other Person who shall have caused such Damage, by the same Means as Penalties and Forfeitures are by this Act directed to be recovered.

Pavement not to be taken up without Consent of Commissioners.

CXXXIII. And be it enacted, That no Company or Person shall take up the Pavement or otherwise disturb the Surface of any Street, for the Purpose of laying down, altering, or removing any Pipe, or for any other Purpose whatsoever, without the previous Consent in Writing of the Commissioners, under the Hand of the Clerk, every such Consent to state the Name of the Street in which the Pavement is permitted to be taken up, and the Number of Square Feet of Pavement which may be removed or disturbed; and if any Company or Person shall take up or disturb the Pavement or Surface of any Street without previous Consent as aforesaid, or shall take up or disturb a greater Number of Square Feet of Pavement or Surface than shall be permitted by such Consent, every Company or Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings for every Square Foot of Pavement which shall be so taken up or disturbed.

Notice to be given by Companies, &c. pre-

CXXXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Company or Person shall be desirous of laying down in any Street any new Line of Main Pipes for Water, Gas, or other Purposes, or of altering the Pipes or the viously to laying down or altering Line of Pipes.

the Line of any existing Main in any Street, they or he shall give at least Three Months Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of such Desire, and shall state in such Notice the Name of the Street and the particular Part thereof in which such Line of Main Pipe is intended to be laid down, and the Material and Diameter of such Pipes, and the Day on which the Work is proposed to be commenced, and the Time within which it will be completed.

Breaking up of Streets.

CXXXV. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary, from any Cause whatever, for any Company or Person to break up or open the Pavement, Surface, or Soil of any Street, such Street, and the Pavement, Surface, and Soil thereof, shall be broken up and opened, under the Superintendence of the Commissioners, at such Time and in such Manner as they shall direct.

Streets broken up to be reinstated without Delay.

CXXXVI. And be it enacted, That when the permanent Surface or Soil of any Street shall be broken up or opened by any Company or Person, they or he shall with all convenient Speed complete the Work on account of which the same shall be broken up or opened, and fill in the Ground and make good the Pavement or Surface or Soil so broken up or opened, and carry away the Rubbish occasioned thereby, and shall in the meantime cause the Place where such Pavement or Surface or Soil shall be so broken up or opened to be fenced and guarded, and shall set up and maintain upon or against the Part of the Pavement, Surface, or Soil so broken up or opened a sufficient Light during every Night that such Pavement or Surface or Soil shall be continued open or broken up.

Power to Commissioners to execute Works, and charge the Expenses to the Parties.

CXXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever the permanent Surface or Soil of any Street shall be broken up or opened, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in case they shall think it expedient so to do, to fill in the Ground and to make good the Pavement or Surface or Soil so broken up or opened, and to carry away the Rubbish occasioned thereby, instead of permitting such Work to be done by the Company or Person by whom such Surface or Soil shall have been broken up or opened; and the Costs and Expenses of filling in such Ground, and of making good the Pavement or Soil so broken up or opened, shall be repaid, on Demand, to the Commissioners, by such Company or Person, and in default thereof shall be recovered by the Commissioners from such Company or Person in the Manner herein-after mentioned.

Penalty on Persons taking up Pavements neglecting to reinstate them, and to place Lights during the Night-time, to prevent Accidents.

CXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Company or Person authorized to take up any of the Pavements of any Street, for the Purpose of laying, altering, or repairing any Gas, Water, or other Pipe, or other lawful Cause, shall not with due Diligence cause the Ground to be filled in and the Pavement to be reinstated, and the Surface to be made good in a proper and substantial Manner, and shall not in the meantime fence and guard the same, and affix and maintain Lights during the Night near to the Places where any Ground shall be open, so as to prevent any Accident, every such Company or other Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to fill in such Ground, and to remove such Rubbish, and to repair and make good the Pavement of any such Street so broken up, and properly to fence or guard any such Excavation, and to place and maintain Lights during the Night to prevent Accidents, as to them shall seem necessary; and the reasonable Costs and Charges thereof shall be paid by the said Company or Person to the Treasurer of the Commissioners, and in default of Payment thereof the Amount thereof shall be recovered from any such Company or Person as any Penalty is recoverable under this Act: Provided always, that such Pavement shall not be considered to have been reinstated in a proper and substantial Manner by such Company or any other Person having Authority to take up the same unless the same shall have been reinstated with the same or similar Materials of the like Quality and Thickness, and cemented and bound together in the same or in an equally substantial Manner as those of which it was composed, in such Manner as shall be satisfactory to the Commissioners.

Commissioners to direct Pavements injured by Water or Gas Pipes to be repaired by them.

CXXXIX. And for the more speedily and effectually repairing and relaying the Pavements of any Street which shall at any Time hereafter happen to be sunk, broken, injured, or damaged by reason or means of the breaking, bursting, or Want of Repair of any Pipe belonging to any Water or Gas or other Company, and laid beneath the Surface of such Pavement, or of relaying or repairing any such Pavement which shall be broken or taken up for the Purpose of repairing or amending any such Pipe, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall deem it proper and expedient so to do, to cause Notice to be given to the Water or Gas or other Company to whom such Pipe shall be supposed to belong forthwith well and sufficiently to repair and make good such Pavement; and if any Water or Gas or other Company to whom such Notice shall be given shall not within Twenty-four Hours next after such Notice so given them as aforesaid take up such Pavement, and well and sufficiently repair and amend such Pipe, and cause the Ground to be well and sufficiently filled in and rammed down, and the said Pavement to be relaid and repaired, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, then such Water or Gas or other Company so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for Refusal.

Company opening the Ground to repair a Pipe which shall be discovered to belong to another Company, to give Notice to such Company, and to be

CXL. And be it enacted, That in case it shall happen, or it shall be discovered, after any Pavement in any Street shall have been taken up by any Water or Gas or other Company, and the Ground shall have been opened, that the Pipe beneath the Surface of such Pavement required to be repaired and amended shall not belong to the Water or Gas or other Company to whom such Notice shall be given as aforesaid, but to some other Water or Gas or other Company, then such first-mentioned Water or Gas or other Company to whom such Notice shall have been so given as aforesaid shall, within Twenty-four Hours after such Discovery, cause a Copy of such Notice to be in like Manner given to the Water or Gas or other Company to whom such Pipe shall be discovered to belong, and require them to obey, conform to, and comply with the original Notice, instead of the Company to whom such original Notice shall shall have been given as aforesaid; and such other Company to whom such last-mentioned Notice shall have been given as aforesaid shall reimburse and pay, on Demand, to the first-mentioned Company, the reasonable Costs and Charges incurred in and about the taking up of the Pavement and opening the Ground; and the said last-mentioned Company shall obey, conform to, and comply with the said original Notice, and execute and perform the Work mentioned therein, in such and the same Manner, and within such and the same Time, in all respects, as if the said original Notice had been given to such last-mentioned Company, and they shall be liable to and shall incur the same Penalties and Forfeitures, on Neglect so to do, as they would have incurred and been liable to if the said original Notice had been given to them in manner before directed with respect to such first-mentioned Company; and if the Company by whom such Pavement shall have been first taken up, and who shall have opened the Ground, shall neglect to give the Notice hereby required to the Company to whom such Pipe shall actually belong, such Company so neglecting or offending shall for every such Neglect and Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

reimbursed Expenses.

CXLI. And be it enacted, That if any Company or Person shall displace, take up, or make any Alteration in the Pavement of any Foot or Carriage Way in any Street within the City, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners, or shall cause any Obstruction in any Street, every such Company or Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and in case the Person so displacing, taking up, or making or altering any such Pavement without such Consent as aforesaid, or causing any such Obstruction as aforesaid, shall not, within Twenty-four Hours after Notice in Writing by the Surveyor of the Commissioners, cause the said Pavement which shall have been so displaced, taken up, or altered to be reinstated and put into its former State, or such Obstruction to be removed, then and in any such Case the Commissioners may cause the same to be done, and the Costs and Charges thereof shall be paid by the Company or Persons who shall have displaced, taken up, or altered such Pavement, or have made or occasioned such Obstruction.

Penalty on Persons altering Pavements without the Consent of the Commissioners.

CXLII. And be it enacted, That if any Question shall arise between any Company or Person and the Commissioners relative to the proper Reinstatement or sufficient or insufficient Repair of any Pavement, under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon Complaint before him, to summon the Clerk or Engineer or other Officer of the Company or Person, and of the Commissioners respectively, and to hear and determine the Matter in a summary Way, and to award and adjudge such Sum of Money by way of Damage against such Company or Person, together with such Costs and Charges as to such Justice shall seem proper, and the Amount of such Damages so awarded and adjudged shall be recovered from such Company or Person by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the said Company or Person, in the same Manner as any Penalty is recoverable under this Act: Provided always, that it shall not be competent for any Justice to hear and determine any such Question as aforesaid unless Twenty-four Hours Notice shall have been given by the complaining Party to the other Party of the intended Application to such Justice, with the Grounds of such Complaint.

Justices to settle Disputes as to Reinstatement of Pavement.

CXLIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to contract and agree, for any Term of Years or otherwise, with the several Companies or Persons authorized to take up any of the Pavements or other formed Surface of any of the Streets within the City, for the filling in, paving, and restoring of such Parts of the said Streets as shall be from Time to Time required to be taken up for the Purpose of laying, altering, or repairing any Pipes or other like Purpose.

Commissioners to contract with Company for restoring Pavements.

CXLIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall by Negligence injure, destroy, or otherwise damage any of the Pavement or the Footway or Carriageway of any Street, or any of the Sewers, or any of the Articles or Things hereby vested in the Commissioners, or which may at any Time hereafter become the Property of or belong to the Commissioners, or any of the Works done by the Commissioners in pursuance of this Act, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum equal to the Amount of the Damage done: Provided always, that if such Offence shall be committed wilfully or maliciously, then every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for damaging Pavements or Materials.

CXLV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to cause to be painted or affixed on a conspicuous Part of some House or Building at or near each End, Corner, or Entrance of every Street, the Name by which such Street is to be known, and from Time to Time to alter the Name of any Street, with Consent of the major Part of the Owners of the Houses or Buildings therein, and to call it by any other Name which they the Commissioners may see fit, and also to cause every House or Building in each of the Streets to be marked or numbered, in such Manner as they shall judge most proper for distinguishing the same, which Mark or Number shall alone be allowed to be affixed to such House or Building; and if any Person shall wilfully or maliciously destroy, pull down, obliterate, or deface any such Name or Number, or any Part thereof, or shall affix or paint or set up any Name or Number different from the Name or Number directed by the Commissioners, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to obliterate and destroy such Name or Number so painted or affixed contrary to their Order.

Power to Commissioners to cause Names of Streets, &c. to be painted, &c.

CXLVI. And be it enacted, That the Occupiers of Houses or Buildings shall be bound to renew the Numbers of their Houses or Buildings as often as they shall be obliterated or defaced.

As to Numbers of Houses.

CXLVII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall have full Power and Authority to cause the Streets to be watered as often as they shall think fit, and also to cause any Wells to be dug and sunk in such Places as they shall think proper, and also to erect and fix any Pumps in any public Places, for the more effectual Supply of Water to the Inhabitants of the City.

Regulations for watering the Streets;

CXLVIII. And

for making Dust-holes, &c.

CXLVIII. And for the more effectually cleansing and keeping clean the Streets within the City, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to contract with such Persons as they may think fit for that Purpose, and upon such Terms and Conditions as they may deem meet, and to affix and set such Penalties as they may think right for any Neglect in the Contractor, and to fix and set up such moveable or fixed Dustbins or Conveniences wherein Dust and Ashes may be deposited in such of the said Streets as they shall judge necessary; and every Inhabitant and Occupier of any House shall allow to be taken away by the said Contractor all such Dust, Ashes, Cinders, and other Refuse from their respective Houses once at least in every Week.

for cleansing Footways.

CXLIX. And be it enacted, That every Occupier of any House within the City, and in respect of Houses let to Inmates every House Owner, shall, once in every Day before the Hour of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, scrape, sweep, and cleanse the Footway all along the Front of his House, or cause the same to be scraped, swept, and cleansed, and in default thereof shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings.

Footways to be swept.

CL. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause any Footway within the City to be scraped, swept, or cleansed in such Manner and at such Times as they shall think fit.

Names of Inspectors to be painted on their Doors.

CLI. And be it enacted, That any Person appointed an Inspector of Pavements, or to be appointed from Time to Time by the Commissioners to act as an Inspector of Pavements within the City, shall reside within the District to which he is appointed, and shall and he is hereby required, within Fourteen Days after the Commencement of this Act, or within Seven Days next after his Appointment, (as the Case may be,) to cause to be painted in Oil Colours in a conspicuous Manner on the Door of his Dwelling House or Office his Christian and Surname, and the Title of his Office, and the Name of the District or Place to which he shall be appointed, and such Inscriptions shall be painted in Roman Letters at least One Inch in Height and of a corresponding Width; and such Inscriptions shall be renewed or repaired and repainted as often as Occasion shall require; and if any Person appointed or to be appointed Inspector as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to cause such Inscription to be painted, or to be renewed when necessary, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Neglect or Misbehaviour of Inspectors, &c.

CLII. And be it enacted, That every Inspector or other Officer appointed under the Authority of this Act who shall neglect any of the Duties of his Office, or shall wilfully misbehave himself in the Execution thereof, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

House projecting beyond Line of Street, when taken down, to be set back.

CLIII. And be it enacted, That if any Building which shall in any Part thereof project beyond the regular Line of the Street in which the same may be situate, or beyond the Front of the Building, Wall, or Railing on either Side thereof, shall at any Time be taken down to be rebuilt or altered, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require the same to be set backwards to such a Line and in such a Manner as the Commissioners shall direct for the Improvement of such Street, the Commissioners making full Compensation to the Owner of such Building for any Damage which he may sustain thereby.

Owners, &c. to remove future Projections on Notice from Commissioners.

CLIV. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners shall consider any Porch, Shed, projecting Window, Step, Cellar Door or Window, or Steps leading into any Cellar or otherwise, Lamp, Lamp Post, Lamp Iron, Sign, Sign Post, Sign Iron, Showboard, Window Shutter, Wall, Gate, Fence, or Opening, or any other Projection or Obstruction that hereafter may be placed or made against or in front of any House or Building, to be an Annoyance, in consequence of the same projecting into or being made in or endangering or rendering less commodious the Passage along any Street, it shall be lawful for them to give Notice in Writing to the Owner or Occupier of any such House or Building to remove such Projection or Obstruction, or to alter the same in such Manner as the Commissioners shall think fit; and such Owner or Occupier shall within Fourteen Days after the Service of such Notice upon him remove such Projection or Obstruction, or alter the same in such Manner as shall have been directed by the Commissioners.

Penalty on Owners for refusing to remove Projections, &c.

Commissioners may remove the same, and charge the Expense to the Owners.

CLV. And be it enacted, That if the Owner or Occupier of any such House or Building shall neglect or refuse, within Fourteen Days after Service of such Notice upon him, to remove such Projection or Obstruction, or to alter the same in such Manner as shall have been directed by the Commissioners, he shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause the same to be removed or altered; and all the Charges for such Removal or Alteration shall be repaid to the Commissioners by such Owner or Occupier, and in default of Payment the same may be levied and recovered in the same Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures are by this Act directed to be levied and recovered.

Commissioners may remove existing Projections, and make Compensation for the same.

CLVI. And with regard to all Projections or Obstructions of a like Kind as those before mentioned, which have been erected, placed, or made against or in front of any House or Building in any Street before the Commencement of this Act, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall consider any such Projection or Obstruction to be an Annoyance, in consequence of the same projecting into or being made in or endangering or rendering less commodious the Passage along any Street, to cause the same to be removed or altered as they shall think fit: Provided always, that the Commissioners shall give Notice in Writing of such intended Removal or Alteration to the Owner or Occupier against or in front of whose House or Building such Projection or Obstruction shall be, Seven Days before such Removal or Alteration shall be commenced, and shall make reasonable Compensation (to be ascertained, in case of Dispute, by any Justice, in manner by this Act directed,) to every Person who shall incur any Loss or Damage by such Removal.

Ruinous or dangerous Houses to be taken down or

CLVII. And be it enacted, That if any House, Building, or Wall, or anything affixed therein or thereto, shall be deemed by the Surveyor of the Commissioners to be in a ruinous State, and dangerous to Passengers, or to the Occupiers of any neighbouring House or Building, such Surveyor shall immediately cause a proper Hoard or Fence to be put up for the Protection of Passengers, and shall cause Notice in Writing Writing to be given to the Owner of such House, Building, or Wall, if he be known, and resident within the City, and shall also cause such Notice to be put on the Door or other conspicuous Part of the said Premises, or otherwise to be given to the Occupier thereof (if any), requiring such Owner or Occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing, as the Case shall require; and if such Owner or Occupier shall not begin to repair, take down, or secure such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing within the Space of Three Days after any such Notice has been given, or put up as aforesaid, and complete such Repairs, or take down or secure such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing, as speedily as the Nature of the Case will admit, the said Surveyor may make Complaint thereof before Two Justices; and it shall be lawful for such Justices to order the Owner, or in his Default the Occupier (if any) of such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing to take down, rebuild, repair, or otherwise secure, to the Satisfaction of such Surveyor, the same or such Part thereof as shall appear to them to be in a dangerous State, within a Time to be fixed by such Justices; and in case the same shall not be taken down, repaired, rebuilt, or otherwise secured within the Time so limited, or if no Owner or Occupier can be found to serve such Order upon, the Commissioners shall with all convenient Speed cause all or so much of such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing as shall be in a ruinous Condition, and dangerous as aforesaid, to be taken down, repaired, rebuilt, or otherwise secured in such Manner as shall be requisite; and all the Expenses of putting up every such Fence, and of taking down, repairing, rebuilding, or securing such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing, shall be paid by the Owner thereof.

secured by Owners, &c.

If Owner, &c. neglect, Commissioners may cause the same to be done, charging Owner, &c. with the Expenses.

CLVIII. And be it enacted, That if such Owner can be found within the City, and if, on Demand of the Expenses aforesaid, he neglect or refuse to pay the same, then such Expenses may be levied by Distress, and any Justice may issue his Warrant accordingly.

The Expenses to be levied by Distress.

CLIX. And be it enacted, That if such Owner cannot be found within the City, or sufficient Distress of his Goods and Chattels within the City cannot be made, the Commissioners, after giving Twenty-eight Days Notice of their Intention to do so by posting a printed or written Notice in a conspicuous Place on such House or Building or Wall, or on the Land whereon such House, Building, or Wall stood, may take such House, Building, or Land, provided that such Expenses be not paid or tendered to them within the said Twenty-eight Days, making Compensation to the Owner of such House, Building, or Land in the Manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, in the Case of Lands taken otherwise than with the Consent of the Owners and Occupiers thereof; and the Commissioners shall be entitled to deduct out of such Compensation the Amount of the Expenses aforesaid, and may thereupon sell or otherwise dispose of the said House, Building, or Land for the Purposes of this Act.

If Owner cannot be found Commissioners may take the House or Ground, making Compensation pursuant to 7 & 8 Vict. c. 18.

CLX. And be it enacted, That if any such House, Building, or Wall, or anything affixed thereon or thereto, as aforesaid, or any Part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the Powers aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to sell the Materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be pulled down, and to apply the Proceeds of such Sale in Payment of the Expenses incurred in respect of such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing: Provided always, that the Commissioners shall restore any Overplus arising from such Sale to the Owner of such House, Building, Wall, or other Thing, on Demand; provided further, that the Commissioners, although they may sell such Materials for the Purposes aforesaid, shall have the same Remedies for compelling the Payment of so much of the said Expenses as may remain due after the Application of the Proceeds of such Sale as are herein-before given to them for compelling the Payment of the whole of the said Expenses.

Commissioners may sell the Materials, restoring to the Owner the Overplus arising from the Sale.

CLXI. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall build or begin to build, or to take down or begin to take down, any House or Wall, or alter or repair, or begin to alter or repair, the outward Part of any House or Wall, shall cause to be put up a proper and sufficient Hoard or Fence or Scaffold, in all Cases in which the Footway shall be thereby obstructed or rendered inconvenient, with a convenient Platform and Handrail, if there shall be Room enough for the same, to serve as a Footway for Passengers outside of such Hoard or Fence, and shall continue such Hoard or Fence or Scaffold, in such Cases as aforesaid, with such Platform and Handrail, standing and in good Condition, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, during such Time as may be necessary for the public Safety or Convenience, and shall, in all Cases in which the same shall be necessary, to prevent Accidents, cause such Hoard or Fence to be well lighted during the Night; and every such Person who shall fail to put up such Hoard or Fence or Scaffold, or such Platform, with such Handrail as aforessid, or who shall not, whilst the said Hoard or Fence is standing, keep the same well lighted during the Night, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and a further Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day during the Continuance of such Default.

Hoards to be erected during Repairs.

Penalty on not erecting Hoards, &c.

CLXII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to erect or set up in any Street any Hoard or Fence or Scaffold for any Purpose whatever, or any Posts, Bars, Rails, Boards, or other Things by way of Inclosure, for the Purpose of making Mortar, or of depositing Bricks, Lime, Rubbish, or other Materials, without a Licence in Writing first had and obtained from the Commissioners under the Hand of their Clerk or Surveyor; and every such Licence shall state the Name of the Street in which and the Purpose for which such Hoard or Fence or Inclosure is to be made, and the Size thereof, and the Time for which it is to be permitted to continue.

No Hoard to be erected without Licence from Commissioners.

CLXIII. And be it enacted, That for every such Licence there shall be paid to the Commissioners a Fee, according to a Scale to be prepared by the Commissioners, regulated with reference to the Space of Ground to be inclosed by such Hoard or Fence or covered by such Scaffold, and the Length of Time for which such Hoard or Fence or Scaffold is to continue: Provided always, that the Sum to be paid for such Licence shall not in any Case exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Fee on Licence.

If Hoard be erected or Materials be deposited in any Manner otherwise than to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, the same may be removed.

CLXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall erect or set up in any Street any Hoard or Fence or Scaffolding for any Purpose whatever, or any Posts, Bars, Rails, Boards, or other Things by way of Inclosure, for the Purpose of making Mortar, or of depositing Bricks, Lime, Rubbish, or other Materials, without a Licence from the Commissioners, or shall do any such Acts as aforesaid in any other Manner than as permitted by such Licence, or shall continue the same beyond the Time stated in such Licence, or shall fail to keep any Hoard, Fence, Platform, or Handrail in good Repair, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and a further Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day during the Continuance of such Offence; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause such Hoard, Fence, or Scaffolding, or other Inclosure or Erection, to be pulled down, and the Materials thereof, and also all the Bricks, Mortar, Lime, or other Building Materials or other Matters or Things contained within the same or thereto belonging, to be removed to the common Pound of the City commonly called the Greenyard, there to be deposited and kept until the Owner thereof, or his known Servant, shall pay to the Person in whose Custody the same shall be the Charges of pulling down and removing the same; and in case the same shall not be claimed and the said Charges paid within the Space of Eight Days next after such Seizure thereof, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to order the same to be sold, and by and out of the Proceeds of such Sale to pay the Costs and Charges thereby incurred, rendering any Surplus to the Owner or other Person by Law entitled thereto; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to remove to such Place as they shall think fit any Rubbish or other Matters which shall not be of sufficient Value to take to the Greenyard; and in case the Proceeds of such Sale shall be insufficient to cover the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred or occasioned by the pulling down of such Hoard or Fence or Scaffolding, or other Inclosure or Erection, and of removing the Materials thereof, and of other Materials, Matters, and Things, and of selling and disposing of such Materials, Matters, and Things, and of removing and carting away such Rubbish and Things as shall not be of sufficient Value to take to the Greenyard, the Deficiency shall be repaid by the Owner of such Materials, Matters, and Things, to the Commissioners, on Demand, and in default of Payment the same may be levied or recovered in the same Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures are by this Act directed to be levied and recovered.

Persons hitherto entitled to receive by Prescription, &c. Fees for Hoards, &c. to receive Compensation.

CLXV. And be it enacted, That every Person who by virtue of his Office shall at the Time of the Commencement of this Act be entitled to receive, by Prescription, or under the Authority of any Act of Parliament or otherwise, any Fee, Gratuity, or other Sum of Money for or in respect of the granting of any Permission or Licence for the Erection or putting up of any Hoard, Fence, or Scaffold, or for the continuing the same, or for or in respect of placing any Obstruction in any Street, shall be entitled to have from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons an adequate Compensation for the Loss of such Fees, Gratuities, or other Sums of Money, Regard being had to the Extent or Duration of his Term or Interest therein, and all other Circumstances of the Case; and every such Person shall deliver to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons a Statement under his Hand, setting forth the Amount received by him or his Predecessors in every Year during the Period of Five Years next before the Commencement of this Act, on account of the Fees, Gratuities, or other Sums of Money in respect whereof he shall claim such Compensation, distinguishing the Office, Place, Situation, Employment, or Appointment in respect whereof the same shall have been received, and containing a Declaration that the same is a true Statement, according to the best of his Knowledge, Information, and Belief, and also setting forth the Sum claimed by him as such Compensation; and if such Person shall be dissatisfied with the Amount of Compensation offered by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, he may appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions, who may make such Order as they shall think fit, and such Order shall be binding upon all Parties.

Compensation to be made to Persons sustaining Damage.

CLXVI. And be it enacted, That full Compensation shall be made out of the Rates to be levied under this Act, as the Commissioners shall by their Order direct, to all Persons sustaining any Damage by the Loss or Diminution in Value of their Offices under the Powers of this Act; and in case of Dispute as to the Amount the same shall be settled by Arbitration in the Manner provided by "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

Penalty for entering Sewers, &c.

CLXVII. And be it enacted, That every Person shall be liable to a Penalty of Forty Shillings, who, not being an Officer in the Employ of or authorized by the Commissioners, shall enter any Sewer, or wilfully injure or damage or disarrange any Gully, Trap, or other Apparatus.

Power to Commissioners to make Rates for Purposes of this Act.

"Sewer Rate."

CLXVIII. And in order to raise the Money for the carrying the several Purposes of this Act into execution, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, once in every Year, or oftener if they shall think it necessary, to direct, by Writing under the Hand of their Clerk, the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of every Ward within the said City, within Fourteen Days after the Order of the Commissioners, to make One or more Rate or Rates, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Four-pence in the Pound in any One Year, upon the Owners and Holders or Occupiers of Property within the City, in equal Proportions, to be called "The Sewer Rate," for the Purpose of constructing, altering, repairing, and cleansing the Sewers within the City, and for otherwise maintaining effectually the wholesome Sewerage and Drainage of the City, and also for the Purpose of securing, raising, and paying any Monies, and the Interest thereof, which may be borrowed on the Security of the said Sewer Rate, in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act; and in like Manner, once in every Year, or oftener if they shall think it necessary, to direct One or more Rate or Rates, not exceeding exceeding in the whole the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence in the Pound in any One Year, to be made upon the Owners and Holders or Occupiers of Property within the City, to be called "The Consolidated Rate," for the Purpose of forming, making, maintaining, keeping in repair, paving, lighting, sweeping, cleansing, and watering the Streets within the City, and of making and carrying into effect such Improvements within the City as the Commissioners are or shall or may from Time to Time or at any Time be authorized to make and carry into effect, and of constructing, altering, repairing, and cleansing the Sewers within the City, and for otherwise maintaining effectually the wholesome Sewerage and Drainage of the City, and also of defraying the Salaries, Gratuities, Wages, and Allowances of all Officers acting in the Execution of this Act, unless otherwise provided for, and all other incidental Costs, Payments, Charges, and Expenses attending the Execution of the Powers, Duties, and Authorities hereby imposed upon and given to the Commissioners, and which are not herein otherwise specially provided for, and for securing, raising, and paying any Monies, and the Interest thereof, which may be borrowed on the Security of the said Consolidated Rate, in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act; and in case a Rate shall not be made by the Alderman or his Deputy, and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of any Ward, within Fourteen Days after the Order of the Commissioners, or in case it shall be considered by the Commissioners that a fair and just Assessment has not been made in any Ward, or in any Precinct or Place, parochial or extra-parochial, (if any,) it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to direct an Assessor to make a fair and just Assessment on the net annual Value, the Expense whereof shall be added to the said Rate, and shall be paid by the Ward, Precinct, or Place in which such Rate shall not have been made, or in which the Commissioners shall consider that a fair and just Assessment shall not have been made.

"Consolidated Rate."

CLXIX. And be it enacted, That every such Rate as aforesaid shall be made by the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of each Ward upon every Person who shall inhabit, hold, occupy, possess, or enjoy any House or Building within the City, or partly within and partly without the City, (whether such Person shall be now liable in respect of such House or Building to be assessed to the Relief of the Poor, or be not liable to be assessed to the Relief of the Poor in respect thereof by reason of such House or Building being situated in any Precinct or extra-parochial Place, or otherwise,) according to the full net annual Value thereof respectively, (except in the several Cases herein-after mentioned,) the same to be ascertained in manner herein-after mentioned; and the said Rates shall from Time to Time be collected and paid yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly, or oftener, if the Commissioners shall think proper, and shall commence from such Time after this Act shall come into operation as the Commissioners shall think fit.

Rates to be levied on Persons inhabiting, holding, occupying, or enjoying any House, &c.

CLXX. And be it enacted, That where any House, with the Appurtenances held therewith, shall be situated partly in one and partly in another of the said Wards, the same shall, for the Purpose of making Rates by virtue of this Act, but for no other Purpose, be deemed to be wholly within the Ward in which the larger Part of the Space of Ground covered by or contained in the same shall be situated, and no Rate shall be paid in respect of the smaller Part thereof in the Ward wherein the same shall be situated; and where, from the equal Size of the Parts in each Ward of any such Space of Ground, or from uncertain Boundaries of the Wards, or from any other Cause, it shall be doubtful in which Ward the larger Part of such Space of Ground shall be situated, such House and Appurtenances shall be deemed to be wholly situated in such One of the Wards within which any Part thereof shall be situated as the Person assessed or rated in respect of the same shall elect.

Buildings, &c. partly in each of Two Wards to be assessed wholly in the Ward in which the larger Part is situated.

CLXXI. And be it enacted, That the annual Value of all Property rateable under this Act shall be ascertained according to the next preceding annual Assessment for the Relief of the Poor within the several Parishes within the City, except in such Cases as are herein-after mentioned.

How Value of Property to be ascertained.

CLXXII. And be it enacted, That for better enabling the Commissioners, or the Aldermen or their Deputies, and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the several Wards, to make, levy, and assess the several Rates herein-before mentioned, every Assessor or Collector of Taxes or Rates, or other Officer having the Custody of any Tax, Rate, Assessment, or Duplicate thereof, shall and he is hereby required, upon the Request of the Commissioners, or the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of any Ward, at any reasonable Time, to produce to such Person as the Commissioners, or such Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen, shall appoint, any Book in which any such Tax, Rate, Assessment, or Duplicate thereof shall be entered, and to permit such Person to examine, copy out, or take such Extracts from the same as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient.

Commissioners to have the Power of inspecting Tax Assessments, &c.

CLXXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at any Time the Rate for the Relief of the Poor shall, in the Judgment of the Commissioners, be an unfair Criterion by which the Rates under this Act should be made, or in case any Person liable to be rated under this Act shall not be liable to be assessed to the Relief of the Poor in respect of any House or Building by reason of such House or Building being situated in any Precinct or extra-parochial Place, or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause a Valuation to be made of all or any Part of the rateable Property within the City, or, as the Case may be, of the Property in such Precinct or extra-parochial Place, by some competent Person, to be appointed by them for that Purpose, and the Rates to be made by the Aldermen or their Deputies and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Wards in the said City, for the Purposes of this Act, upon the Property so valued, shall be made upon such Valuation.

If Poor Rate an unfair Criterion, a Valuation to be made.

CLXXIV. And be it enacted, That before any such Valuation shall be made the Person appointed to make any such Valuation shall make and subscribe a solemn Declaration to make such Valuation fairly and Valuer to make a Declaration.

and impartially according to the best of his Judgment; and an Entry or Minute shall be made in the Book of Proceedings of the Commissioners of the making and subscribing of such Declaration, and the Date of making the same; and any Justice to whom Application may be made for that Purpose shall administer such Declaration.

Value of Property to be computed as defined by 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 96.

CLXXV. And be it enacted, That in every such Valuation the Property rateable under this Act shall be computed at its net annual Value as defined by an Act made in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate Parochial Assessments, or any other Act for the Time being in force for regulating Parochial Assessments.

Owners and Occupiers of Markets to be subject to the same Payments as Farmers or Lessees.

CLXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Owners and Occupiers of such public Markets within the City as for the Time being shall not be let on Farm or Lease shall be subject to the Payment of the same or the like Sums of Money as the Farmers or Lessees of such Markets respectively would have been liable to by virtue of this Act if the same respectively had been let on Lease or Farm; and such Sums of Money shall be recovered from the said Owners or Occupiers, and may be compounded for by them, in like Manner as the same might have been recovered and might have been compounded for by such Farmers or Lessees.

Provision as to the rating of empty Houses.

CLXXVII. And be it enacted, That if it shall happen that any House within the City shall at the Time of making any Rate be empty, untenanted, or unoccupied, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward to rate the said House; and in such Case, as well as in case the said House shall after the making such Rate become empty, untenanted, or unoccupied, not exceeding One Half of every such Rate shall be charged on such House, and be paid by the Owner or by the first Tenant or Occupier thereof, who shall and may and is hereby authorized to deduct and retain the same out of his Rent; and the Owner of such House is hereby required to pay the same, or to allow such Deduction and Payment, upon the Receipt of the Residue of his Rent; and the said Tenant or Occupier shall be and is hereby acquitted and discharged of and for so much of his Rent as the Rate so paid by him shall amount unto.

In Houses let out in Apartments, Lodgers to be deemed the Occupiers.

CLXXVIII. And be it enacted, That where any House in respect whereof any Rate shall be made under the Authority of this Act shall be let out in Apartments by the Owner thereof, any Lodger shall be deemed the Occupier thereof for the Purposes of this Act; and that every such Lodger who shall pay any such Rate or any Part thereof, or from whom the same or any Part thereof shall be recovered in pursuance of this Act, shall and may deduct the same from and out of the next Rent due and payable or to be due and payable from him to such Owner; and the Receipt for such Payment shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Lodger to his Landlord for so much Money as he shall pay, or as shall be levied on him by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that no such Lodger shall at any Time be required to pay or be subject or liable to pay any greater Sum for or towards the Discharge of any Rate made under the Authority of this Act, and Arrears thereof, than the Amount of the Rent actually due or payable by such Lodger to the Owner of the Premises so occupied by him; provided also, that in all Cases where any Person shall remove from or quit any House which shall be rated by virtue of this Act such Person shall be liable to such Rate in proportion to the Time that he occupied the same; and in all Cases where any Person shall come into or occupy any House rated as aforesaid out of or from which any other Person who shall have been rated for the same shall be removed, or which at the Time of making any such Rate was empty or unoccupied, the Person coming into or occupying the same shall be liable to pay such Rate in respect thereof in proportion to the Time that he occupied the same; which said respective Proportions, in case of Dispute, shall be settled and ascertained by the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward, or by the Commissioners.

Provision as to the rating of Houses let at small Rents, and for the better Recovery of the Rates.

CLXXIX. And be it enacted, That when the yearly Rent or Value of any House shall not exceed Twenty-five Pounds, or when any House shall be let to any weekly or monthly Tenants, or in several Apartments, whether furnished or unfurnished, and the Rents thereof shall become payable and be collected at any shorter Period than quarterly, then and in every such Case (but subject to the Proviso herein-after contained) it shall be lawful for the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward to compound, if they think proper, with the Owners of any such House, for the Payment of the Rates to be made by virtue of this Act, at such a reduced yearly Rental as the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward shall think reasonable, so that no such House be rated at less than Two Thirds or more than Four Fifths of the Rack Rent at which the same shall then be let, or of the annual Value of the said Premises; and the Owner of every such House as shall not exceed the yearly Rent of Twenty-five Pounds, or as shall be let to any weekly or monthly Tenants, or in separate Apartments, furnished or unfurnished, as aforesaid, and the several Rents whereof shall become due and be collected at any shorter Period than quarterly, is hereby required to enter into such Composition with the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward; and in case such Owner shall refuse to enter into such Composition he shall thenceforth be rated to and from Time to Time shall pay or cause to be paid the Rates charged upon such House by virtue of this Act unto the Collector or other Person who may be appointed by the Commissioners to receive and collect the same, who, upon Nonpayment thereof or of the Amount of such Composition is hereby authorized and empowered to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Owner of the House aforesaid, wheresoever they may be found, or of the Person inhabiting the same, in such Manner as by this Act is provided for the Recovery of the Rates in other Cases: Provided always, that no such Owner shall be charged with or liable to pay for any increased Rent reserved reserved or made payable to him for or on account of such Owner having agreed to pay the Rate heretofore chargeable upon the Occupier of such House; and provided also, that the Goods and Chattels of every Person renting or occupying any such House or any Part thereof the Rate whereof the Owner is hereby made liable and subject to as aforesaid shall be liable at all Times to be distrained and sold for Payment of such of the said Rates, and of all Arrears thereof, as became due upon the said House during the Time of his Occupancy only; but no such Occupier shall at any Time be required to pay, or be subject or liable to pay, any greater Sum for or towards the Discharge of any of the said Rates, or any Arrears thereof, than the Amount of the Rent actually due or payable by such Occupier to the Owner of the House so occupied by him; provided also that every Occupier who shall pay any such Rate, or any Arrears thereof, or upon whom the same shall be levied, shall and may from Time to Time deduct the same from the Rent due and payable from him to the Owner of such House, unless there shall be some Agreement to the contrary between the Landlord and Tenant, and the Receipt for such Payment shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Occupier to his Landlord for so much Money as he shall pay in the Manner directed by this Act; provided also, that when the yearly Rent or Value of any House which shall be let out furnished, either altogether or in separate Apartments, shall exceed Twenty-five Pounds, it shall not be lawful for the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen, upon such Composition being made as aforesaid, to take less than the full Amount of the Rate which shall be assessed in respect of such House, but nevertheless such Composition shall be made in manner aforesaid for Payment of the whole of such Rate with and by the Owner of the said House.

Composition for Rates to extend to future Rates.

CLXXX. And be it enacted, That from and after any Composition at a reduced Rate shall have been made as herein-before is mentioned, the House therein comprised shall be rated according to the same reduced Rental until the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward shall think proper otherwise to rate the said House, and without any Notice to be given to the Owner of the same.

Persons receiving Rents to be deemed Owners.

CLXXXI. And in order to prevent Disputes touching the Designation of Owner of any House within the City, be it enacted, That the Person legally authorized and empowered to receive and collect, or receiving and collecting, or claiming to be entitled to receive and collect, the Rents of any House from the Tenant or actual Occupier thereof, shall be deemed and taken, for the several Purposes of this Act and every of them, to be the Owner thereof; and in all Cases in which Owners are made liable by this Act, such Person so authorized and empowered to receive and collect, or receiving and collecting, or claiming to be entitled to receive and collect, the Rents of any such House, from the Tenant or actual Occupier thereof, shall be liable as Owner thereof, unless the real Owner shall be declared by himself, or shall be distinctly and certainly known to be such to the Satisfaction of the Aldermen or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward; and such Receiver or Collector of such Rents is hereby authorized to pay the said Rates charged and payable for and on account of such House, and to deduct the same out of the Rents received or to be received by him.

When Owner not known it shall be sufficient to rate as "the Owner."

CLXXXII. And be it enacted, That whenever the Name of any Owner liable to be rated under the Provisions of this Act shall not be known to the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of the Ward, or to the Person making any Rate, it shall be sufficient to rate such Owner in the Rate Book as the Owner of the Property to be rated by the Designation of "the Owner," without stating his Name.

Ready furnished Houses how to be assessed.

CLXXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Owner of every House over and above the said yearly Rent of Twenty-five Pounds which is or shall or may be let out ready furnished to a Lodger, or, furnished or unfurnished, in separate Apartments, for Counting-houses, Offices, or other Purposes, shall be deemed and taken to be the Occupier thereof for the Purposes of this Act, and shall be liable and subject to the Rates authorized by this Act to be made, raised, and levied, according to the yearly Value of the House; and that every Person renting or occupying any such ready furnished House as aforesaid, or any Apartment of any House, shall be liable and compellable to pay the said Rates, to be recovered in manner herein directed; and the Collector for the Time being thereof is hereby authorized and empowered, upon Nonpayment thereof, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Owner of the said House, wheresoever they may be found, or of the Person occupying or renting the same, in such Manner as by this Act is provided for the Recovery of the Rates in other Places; and that every such Occupier who shall pay any Rate, or from whom the same shall be recovered, in pursuance of this Act, shall and may deduct the same, together with the Costs of recovering and levying thereof which such Occupier shall have paid, from and out of the next Rent due and payable from him to such Owner, and the Receipt for such Payment shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Occupier to his Landlord for so much Money as he shall pay or shall be levied on him by virtue of this Act; but no such Lodger shall at any Time be required to pay, or be subject or liable to pay, any greater Sum, for or towards the Discharge of the said Rates and Arrears thereof, than the Amount of the Rent actually due and payable by such Lodger to the Owner of the House so let out ready furnished to him: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prejudice or vacate any Agreement between Landlords and Tenants.

Rates to be vested in the Commissioners

CLXXXIV. And be it enacted, That every Rate shall be vested in the Commissioners, and shall be payable at such Times as the Commissioners shall order and direct.

Copy of Rate to be made, and deposited at the Office of CLXXXV. And be it enacted, That the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of each Ward shall cause to be set down in Writing, and duly signed, a Copy of every Rate which they shall from Time to Time make by virtue of this Act, in which shall be expressed the Names of Sewers, and be open to Inspection of Rate-payers.

of the Collectors or Persons who shall be appointed to collect the same, which Copy shall within Ten Days next after the making thereof be deposited in the Office of the Commissioners, where the same shall remain; and every Person liable to be rated by virtue of this Act shall and may have free Access thereto at all convenient Times, and be permitted to inspect and take Copies of or Extracts from the same, without Fee or Reward; and if any Person having the Custody of such last-mentioned Copy shall refuse or shall not permit any such Person as aforesaid to take Copies of or Extracts from such Rate, he shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty on refusing to allow Inspection.

Power to Commissioners to rectify Errors in the Rates.

CLXXXVI. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Name of any Person who ought to be included in any Rate made under the Authority of this Act had been omitted therein, or that the Name of any Person hath been inserted in such Rate as Inhabitant, Holder, or Occupier of any House for or in respect of which some other Person ought to have been rated, or that any House is not rated according to the net Value thereof, to be ascertained as herein-before is mentioned, or that any other Alteration or Amendment of any such Rate may be necessary, then and in any of such Cases it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to add to or insert in such Rate the Name of the Person so omitted, together with the Sum for which he ought to be rated, and the Amount of such Rate in respect thereof, and also to insert and substitute the Name of such Person as may be the actual Inhabitant, Holder, or Occupier of any House, instead of and for the Name of the Person incorrectly inserted in such Rate as the Inhabitant, Holder, or Occupier thereof, and also to alter the Amount of the Sum at which any House shall be rated, and otherwise from Time to Time to alter and amend the said Rates or any of them as they may from Time to Time deem just and reasonable; and that every such Addition to, Insertion, Alteration, or Amendment in any such Rate shall be valid and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes, and the Monies charged to any Person in consequence thereof shall and may be demanded, received, and recovered in the same Manner as if the Name of such Person, or other Alteration or Amendment, had been inserted and made in such Rate when the same was originally made by the Commissioners: Provided always, that any Person who shall feel aggrieved by any such Alteration shall have the same Right of Appeal therefrom as he would have had if his Name had been originally in such Rate, or if no such Alteration had been made; and every Person whose Rate shall be altered shall be entitled to Seven Days Notice of such Alteration before the Rate shall be payable.

Persons aggrieved may appeal.

Provisions for rating public Buildings, and vacant Spaces of Ground.

CLXXXVII. And forasmuch as it is reasonable that all Churches, Chapels, Churchyards, Burial Grounds, Meeting Houses, Prisons, Hospitals for sick Persons, and public Buildings, and all vacant Spaces of Ground, should be rated in a due Proportion to the Rates hereby authorized to be made, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Alderman or his Deputy and the major Part of the Common Councilmen of each Ward, and they are hereby required, at such Time as the Rates herein-before directed to be made by them shall from Time to Time be made, to rate all Parish and other Churches, Chapels, Churchyards, Burial Grounds, Meeting Houses, Prisons, Hospitals for sick Persons, and public Buildings whatsoever, and all vacant Spaces of Ground, situate, lying, and being within the City (other than and except the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, and the Churchyards and Ground within the Iron Rails encompassing the said Cathedral Church), at such Rate as the Commissioners shall order and direct for every Square Yard of such public Buildings and vacant Spaces of Ground, not exceeding the Rate of Nine-pence per Square Yard towards the Sewer Rate, and Three-pence per Square Yard towards the Consolidated Rate; and every such Rate so to be from Time to Time made upon any Parish or other Church, Chapel, Churchyard, Burial Ground, Meeting House, Prison, Hospital, or public Building as aforesaid, or upon any vacant Space of Ground, shall be paid by the Owner thereof, and in case of a Parish Church or Churchyard or Burial Ground, by the Overseers of such Parish, out of the Rates incidental to the Relief of the Poor; and in case the Owner of any such vacant Space of Ground shall not be known or cannot be found, then the said Rate to be thereon made shall be advanced by the Chamberlain out of the Cash of the said City in his Hands, and the said Ground shall be and remain a Security to the said Chamberlain and his Successors for Repayment of all Rates so to be by him advanced: Provided always, that Meeting Houses not licensed, and Meeting Houses used for any other Purpose than Divine Worship, shall be rated and assessed in the same Manner as other public Buildings.

Persons feeling aggrieved on Ground of Inequality, &c. may appeal to Commissioners.

CLXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by any Rate, on the Ground of Inequality, Unfairness, or Incorrectness in the Valuation of any rateable Property included therein, he may appeal to the Commissioners at their First Meeting which shall be holden after the Expiration of Seven Days from the Time of demanding such Rate or Assessment; and the Commissioners at their First Meeting, or any Adjournment thereof, are hereby authorized and empowered, if they shall think such Person aggrieved, to give such Relief in the Premises as to them the Commissioners shall seem reasonable.

Parties thinking themselves aggrieved by any Rate under this Act may appeal to the Quarter Sessions.

CLXXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by any Rate made under the Authority of this Act, or by any Matters included in or omitted from the same, or by any Determination of the Commissioners, he may appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions; but no such Appeal against such Rate, or any Matter contained in or omitted from the same, or against the Determination of the Commissioners, shall be entertained at such General or Quarter Sessions unless Fourteen clear Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Nature and Ground thereof, be given by the aggrieved Party to the Commissioners, but the same shall be adjourned to the next General or Quarter Sessions; nor shall any Appeal against the Determination of the Commissioners be entertained unless the Party appealing against such Determination shall, within Fourteen Days after the same shall have been made, give Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Matter or Cause thereof, to the Party in whose whose Favour such Determination shall have been made, and shall in either Case, within Five Days after such Notice, enter into a Recognizance before some Justice, with sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try the same at the then next General or Quarter Sessions, and to abide the Order of such Court, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded at such General or Quarter Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof.

Court to determine Appeal summarily, or adjourn it.

CXC. And be it enacted, That at the General or Quarter Sessions for which any such Notice of Appeal shall be given the Court shall proceed to hear and determine the Appeal in a summary Way, except when the Court shall think fit to adjourn the Appeal to the following Sessions, which they are hereby authorized to do, and in all such Cases the Court shall hear and determine the Appeal at such last-mentioned Sessions.

On Appeal, Commissioners or Quarter Sessions may amend Rate, without quashing it.

CXCI. And be it enacted, That in any Appeal against any Rate made under the Authority of this Act the Commissioners or the General or Quarter Sessions shall and may amend such Rate, in like Manner as may be necessary for giving Relief, without quashing or altering such Rate with respect to other Persons mentioned therein; but if upon Appeal against the whole Rate it shall be found necessary to set aside the same, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or the General or Quarter Sessions to order a new Rate to be made in manner herein directed.

Quarter Sessions may award Costs.

CXCII. And be it enacted, That the General or Quarter Sessions shall in any Appeal against any Rate made under the Authority of this Act, or against the Determination of the Commissioners, have the same Powers of awarding Costs to be paid by or to any of the Parties to an Appeal, and of recovering such Costs, as are now vested in such Court for awarding and recovering Costs in an Appeal against any Rate for the Relief of the Poor within the City.

Rates may be prospective or retrospective.

CXCIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to order any Rate to be made for the Purposes aforesaid prospectively to raise Money to pay Charges and Expenses to be incurred thereafter, or retrospectively to raise Money to pay Charges and Expenses already incurred.

Rates how to be recovered.

CXCIV. And be it enacted, That in case any Owner or Occupier of any House in respect whereof he shall be rated or liable to pay any Rate made under the Authority of this Act shall refuse or neglect to pay the Money rated upon him, or which he may be liable to pay by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Justice and he is hereby authorized and directed, by Writing under his Hand, on Complaint made by the Commissioners or by their Collector, to summon every Person who shall have so refused or neglected as aforesaid to appear at a Time and Place to be mentioned in such Summons before any Justice, the Collector of such Rate having previously made Oath that he had duly demanded the said Rate, and that the same was then in arrear and unpaid; and it shall be lawful for any Person authorized by the Commissioners to serve every such Summons upon every Person so refusing or neglecting to pay as aforesaid, either by delivering the same to the Person thereby intended to be summoned, or by leaving the same at his last or usual Place of Abode, or at or on the House for or in respect whereof the Rate mentioned in such Summons shall remain due and owing; and if any Person so summoned shall refuse or neglect to attend at the Time and Place mentioned in such Summons, or if he shall attend and shall not show good and sufficient Cause to such Justice as may be then and there present that he is not chargeable with or liable to pay such Rate, then and in every such Case every such Person shall pay the Rate in respect of which such Summons was issued, and also the Costs and Charges of such Summons; and in all Cases where such Rate shall not be paid upon such Return of Summons it shall be lawful for any Justice and he is hereby authorized and required, upon Oath made before him of the due Service of such Summons by the Person who shall have served the same, and Proof on Oath that such Rate is actually due and owing, if the Person shall not attend, and if the Person shall attend, and shall not show sufficient Cause to the contrary, as aforesaid, then upon such Proof that such Rate is actually due, to grant a Warrant under his Hand and Seal authorizing or directing any Person to levy such Rate and all Arrears thereof, and the Costs and Charges of the Summons (if the same shall not have been paid before), and the Costs and Charges of every such Warrant, and also the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of executing the same, by Distress of the Goods and Chattels of the Person so neglecting or refusing; and if within Five Days next after any Distress shall be made the said Rate, with all Arrears due thereon, together with all the Charges for the said Summons and Warrant, and the Charges and Expenses of executing the same Warrant, and of making such Distress, and of keeping such Goods and Chattels, shall not be paid, then the Person authorized by the said Warrant shall cause the said Goods and Chattels to be appraised, and to be sold, either on the Premises where the same shall be distrained or elsewhere, or such Part thereof as in his Judgment shall be sufficient to pay the said Rate, together with all Arrears due thereon, and the said Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the said Summons, Warrant, Distress, Removal, or keeping Possession of such Goods and Chattels so distrained, and the reasonable Costs, Charges, and Expenses of appraising and selling the same, and shall return the Overplus (if any) to the Owner of such Goods and Chattels, upon Demand thereof made by him; and in case no such Goods and Chattels can be found to be distrained by virtue of any such Warrant, or in case any such Goods and Chattels shall be locked up or secured or shall be removed, so that the Person appointed to collect the said Rate as aforesaid cannot distrain the same, or in case after such Distress and Appraisement of Sale as herein-before are directed the Proceeds thereof shall not be sufficient to pay the said Rate, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses as aforesaid, then and in every such Case, upon Information thereof given to any Justice, it shall be lawful for such Justice and he is hereby authorized and required to issue a Warrant under his Hand and Seal for the Apprehension of any such Person making default in the Payment of such Rate and the Arrears thereof or of any Part thereof, and of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, or any of them, and to commit such Person to the House of Correction for the City, there to remain, without Defaulters to summoned.

Bail

Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding the Space of One Calendar Month, unless such Rate, and all Arrears thereof, and all Costs, Charges, and Expenses, or so much thereof as shall remain unsatisfied by any such Distress, or otherwise, shall be sooner paid.

Costs of Distresses as in 57 G. 3. c. 93.

CXCV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in Cases where the Amount of such Rate shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty-five Pounds the Costs and Charges levied for the Distress shall not exceed the Costs and Charges specified in an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate the Costs of Distresses levied for Payment of Small Rents.

Form of Warrant of Distress.

CXCVI. And be it enacted, That the Warrant of Distress for Nonpayment of any Rate or Composition to be made by virtue of this Act may be in the Form or to the Effect mentioned in the Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed.

In Cases of Persons removing their Goods, how Rates to be recovered.

CXCVII. And for the better enforcing the Payment of the several Rates to be made by virtue of this Act, be it enacted, That if any Person liable to pay any such Rate shall at any Time begin to remove his Goods or Furniture from the House in his Occupation, or to sell or dispose of such Goods or Furniture therein by public Auction, or to sell or dispose of or carry away his Goods or Furniture, without paying all Arrears then due or rated in respect of such House in which the current Quarter shall be considered as due, then and in any of the said Cases it shall be lawful for the Collector to collect and levy such Rate, and all Arrears due thereon, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party so beginning to remove, sell, or take away any such Goods or Furniture as aforesaid; and if within Five Days next after such Distress shall be made the said Rate, and all Arrears due thereon, together with the reasonable Charges of taking and keeping the said Distress, shall not be paid, the said Collector shall cause the said Goods and Chattels to be appraised and sold, or such Part thereof as shall be sufficient to pay such Rate, together with all Arrears due thereon, and the reasonable Charges of making such Distress, and of keeping and selling the same, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner of such Goods and Chattels respectively.

Actions may be brought for Rates exceeding 20*l.*

CXCVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think it expedient so to do, to bring, in the Name of their Clerk, any Action of Debt or special Action on the Case in any of the Superior Courts for any Rate to be made by virtue of this Act which shall exceed in Amount the Sum of Twenty Pounds, in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to declare that the Defendant is indebted to the Plaintiff in such Sum of Money as the Commissioners shall suppose to be due; and if the Plaintiff shall recover such Sum so declared for, or any Part thereof, he shall have full Costs, to be levied and recovered as other Monies upon Judgments are now by Law levied and recovered.

Actions or Suits not to abate by the Death or Removal of the Clerk.

Clerk to be reimbursed all Expenses.

CXCIX. And be it enacted, That no Action or Suit to be commenced or prosecuted under the Authority of this Act in the Name of the Clerk to the Commissioners for the Time being shall abate or be discontinued by the Death, Suspension, or Removal of the Clerk, or by the Act of the Clerk without the Consent of the Commissioners, but that the Clerk shall always be deemed Plaintiff or Defendant in such Action or Suit, as the Case may be: Provided always, that the Clerk shall be reimbursed out of the Monies to be raised by virtue of this Act all such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as he shall be put unto or become chargeable with by reason of his being so made Plaintiff or Defendant.

Rates may be remitted on account of Poverty or otherwise.

CC. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time, on Complaint of any Person subject to the Payment of any Rate made under the Authority of this Act who shall think himself aggrieved thereby or incompetent to pay the same, to mitigate, reduce, or lessen the same as they in their Discretion shall think just and reasonable, and also to remit or excuse the Payment thereof or any Part thereof for any Cause which they shall deem sufficient, or for or on account of the Poverty or Indigence of any Person liable to pay the same, so complaining.

Money collected to be paid into the Chamberlain's Office.

CCI. And be it enacted, That every Collector of Rates to be appointed by the Commissioners shall from Time to Time pay the Monies arising therefrom, as he shall receive the same, to the Chamberlain of the City, and upon every such Payment the Chamberlain or one of his Clerks shall, without Fee or Reward, give a Receipt in Writing to such Collector for the same; and if such Collector shall at any Time keep and retain in his Hands of the Monies so to be collected by him the Sum of Fifty Pounds or upwards above Two Days (the Chamber of London being within that Time open to receive the same), then and so often such Collector shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for every Day he shall retain the said Sum of Fifty Pounds or upwards beyond the said Two Days.

Collectors to deliver in an Account in Writing under their Hands to the Commissioners.

CCII. And be it enacted, That every Collector shall, upon Three Days Notice in Writing, given to or left for him at his usual Place of Abode by the Clerk to the Commissioners, attend the Commissioners at such Time and Place as shall be appointed in such Notice, and then and there, if required, deliver to the Commissioners a true, exact, and perfect Account in Writing under the Hand of such Collector of all Sums of Money which he shall then have received by reason of the said Office, and also a true List of the Names of all Persons within the District or Ward wherein he collects who shall have refused or neglected to pay their said Rates, with a true Account of the several Sums of Money which such Persons shall respectively be in arrear, to the Intent that the same may be speedily got in and recovered; and if any Collector, after such Notice given as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to attend or deliver in his Accounts as aforesaid, or to produce and deliver in the Vouchers relating to the same, or to account for any Sum or Sums of Money by him collected or received, and to pay the same and every Part thereof as is herein-before directed, then and in every such Case such Collector shall for every such Refusal or Neglect forfeit and pay such Sum of Money as the Rates which he shall have been intrusted or authorized to collect shall amount unto, after deducting the Amount of the Sum by him actually paid Penalty on Collectors in case of Refusal, &c.

to the Chamberlain, which Forfeiture shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of the Superior Courts, to be commenced and prosecuted in the Name of the Clerk of the Commissioners.

Collectors refusing to account may be summoned before a Justice, who may cause Amount to be levied by Distress.

CCIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Collector shall have in his Hands any Monies collected by him, and shall refuse to account for and pay the same as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Justice, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Collector to be brought before him, and to hear and determine the Matter of such Complaint in a summary Way; and if upon the Confession of such Collector, or the Testimony of any credible Witness upon Oath (which Oath such Justice is hereby empowered and required to administer), it shall appear to him that any of the Monies which shall have been collected and raised by virtue of this Act shall then be in the Hands of such Collector, and that he refuses to pay the same, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the said Justice is hereby authorized and required, by a Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Money to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Collector; and if no Goods or Chattels of such Collector can be found sufficient to answer and satisfy the said Money, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, then the said Justice may and shall commit such Collector to the House of Correction for the City, there to be detained and kept, without Bail or Mainprize, until he shall pay the same, or such Composition as the Commissioners shall agree to accept in full, which Composition the Commissioners are hereby empowered to make.

If no sufficient Distress, Offender may be committed.

Commissioners to summon, &c. Collectors.

CCIV. And be it enacted, That every Collector shall, upon Three Days Notice in Writing under the Hand of the Clerk given to him or left for him at his usual Place of Abode, attend the Commissioners at such Time and Place as shall be appointed in such Notice, and then and there, if required, answer touching any Neglect of Duty or other Matter of Complaint against him; and if any such Collector shall refuse or neglect to attend on such Notice as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of any Three or more of them, to cause such Collector to be brought before them, and to hear and determine the Matter of such Complaint in a summary Way; and if such Collector shall not show good Cause of Excuse to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners for his neglecting or refusing to attend on such Notice as aforesaid, he shall for every such Neglect or Refusal forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Collector; and if no Goods and Chattels of such Collector can be found sufficient to answer and satisfy the same, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, then the Commissioners, by their Warrant as aforesaid, may commit such Collector to the House of Correction for the City, there to be detained and kept for any Time not longer than One Month nor less than Fourteen Days.

Collectors refusing to attend may be taken by Warrant.

Penalty on Collector not showing good Cause for not attending.

Chamberlain to pay all Money ordered by Commissioners, and make Entries, which may be inspected.

Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

CCV. And be it enacted, That the Chamberlain of the City shall, out of the Monies collected and paid into the Chamber pursuant to this Act, pay all Sums of Money which the Commissioners shall from Time to Time draw upon him for or order him to pay; and the Chamberlain of the City shall keep regular and clear Entries, in Books to be provided for that Purpose, of all Receipts and Payments on account or in pursuance of this Act, to which Books every Person liable to the Payment of the said Rates shall have free Access at all convenient Times, with full Liberty to inspect and take Copies of or Extracts from the same, without Fee or Reward; and the Chamberlain of the City shall once in every Year have the said Accounts audited and passed by the Commissioners, and shall deliver Copies of the said Accounts to each House of Parliament within Three Months after the opening of every Session.

Rate Books to be received as Evidence.

CCVI. And be it enacted, That the Rates or Copies thereof herein-before directed to be delivered, and also the Books herein-before directed to be kept, and all Entries duly made therein, shall be received as Evidence of the Rates imposed by virtue of this Act, and of the Payment of such Rates, or such of them or such Part thereof as shall by such Entries appear to have been paid to the Collector.

Money may be borrowed on the Security of the Sewer Rate.

CCVII. And in order to raise Money to defray the Expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Commissioners in carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act as to the Sewerage and Drainage of the City, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby authorized to borrow or to take up at Interest on the Credit of the Rate herein-before authorized to be made and levied, and called the Sewer Rate, of and from any Persons who shall be willing to advance the same, the Sum or Sums of Money necessary for defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in making and carrying into effect the Sewerage and Drainage of the City; and for securing the Repayment of such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, the Commissioners may mortgage and assign over the said Sewer Rate or any Part thereof to the Persons who shall advance such Money, or their Trustees, as a Security for the Money to be borrowed, together with Interest for the same.

Money may be borrowed on the Security of the Consolidated Rate.

CCVIII. And in order to raise Money for defraying the Expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Commissioners in carrying into effect such Improvements within the City as they are or shall from Time to Time be authorized or empowered to make and carry into effect, and the other Provisions of this Act, and all other Expenses which are not expressly charged on the Sewer Rate, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and they are hereby authorized to borrow and take up at Interest on the Credit of the Rate herein-before authorized to be made and levied, and to be called the Consolidated Rate, of and from any Persons who shall be willing to advance the same, the Sum or Sums of Money necessary for defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred and to be incurred by them in the Sewerage and Drainage of the City, and in carrying such Improvements within the City, and the other Purposes of this Act, into full and complete Effect; and for securing the Repayment of such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, the Commissioners may mortgage and assign over the Consolidated Rate or any Part thereof to the Persons who shall advance such Money, or their Trustees, as a Security for the Money so to be borrowed, together with Interest for the same.

Form of Mortgage.

CCIX. And be it enacted, That every such Mortgage shall be by Deed duly stamped, in which the Consideration shall be truly stated; and every such Deed shall be under the Hands and Seals of Seven of the Commissioners, and may be according to the Form in Schedule (E.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect.

Mortgages to be without Preference.

CCX. And be it enacted, That all Persons to whom such Mortgages shall be made, or who shall be entitled to the Monies thereby secured, shall be entitled one with another to their respective Proportions of the Rates or other Property comprised in such Mortgages, according to the respective Sums mentioned in such Mortgages to have been advanced by such Mortgagees respectively, and to be repaid the Sums so advanced, with Interest, without any Preference one above another by reason or in respect of the Priority of advancing such Monies, or of the Dates of any such Mortgages respectively.

Commissioners may raise Money by Annuity.

CCXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to raise all or any Part of the Money which may be borrowed under the Authority of this Act by granting Annuities for Lives instead of Mortgages as aforesaid, and for that Purpose for the Commissioners to charge the Rates granted by this Act, or either of them, with an Annuity, to determine on a Life or Lives in being, in favour of any Person who shall advance to the Commissioners any Sum of Money for the Purchase of the same.

Form of Grant of Annuity.

CCXII. And be it enacted, That every such Grant of Annuity shall be by Deed duly stamped, in which the Consideration shall be truly stated, and shall be made under the Hands and Seals of Seven of the Commissioners, and may be in the Form in Schedule (F.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect.

For preventing improvident Grants.

CCXIII. And for preventing improvident Grants of Annuities, be it enacted, That the Price to be paid for any such Annuity shall not be less than the Price of a similar Annuity paid by Law for such Annuity granted by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

Annuities to rank after Mortgages.

CCXIV. And be it enacted, That every Annuity so granted shall be paid out of the Rate on which the same shall be charged, according to the Grant of such Annuity, and shall have Priority after any Mortgages of the same Rate granted under this Act.

Expenses of Mortgages, &c.

CCXV. And be it enacted, That the Expenses of every Mortgage and Grant of Annuity shall from Time to Time be defrayed by the Commissioners out of the Money raised by the same.

Register of Mortgages and Annuities to be kept, and to be open to Inspection.

CCXVI. And be it enacted, That a separate Register of Mortgages on the Sewer Rate, and a like Register of Mortgages on the Consolidated Rate, and a like Register of Annuities, shall be kept by the Clerk of the Commissioners, and within Fourteen Days after the Date of any such Mortgage or Annuity an Entry or Memorial, specifying the Number and Date thereof, and the Sum secured thereby, and the Names of the Parties thereto, with their proper Additions, shall be made in the proper Register; and every such Register may be perused at all reasonable Times by any Mortgagee or Annuitant, or by any Person interested in such Mortgage or Annuity, without Fee or Reward.

Assignment of Mortgages and Annuities.

CCXVII. And be it enacted, That from Time to Time any Party entitled to any such Mortgage or Annuity may transfer his Right and Interest therein to any other Person by Deed duly stamped, wherein the Consideration shall be truly stated; and any such Transfer may be according to the Form in Schedule (G.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect.

Register of Transfers to be kept.

CCXVIII. And be it enacted, That within Thirty Days after the Date of every such Transfer, if executed within the United Kingdom, or otherwise within Thirty Days after the Arrival thereof in the United Kingdom, it shall be produced to the Clerk to the Commissioners, and thereupon such Clerk shall cause an Entry or Memorial thereof to be made in the proper Register, in the same Manner as in the Case of the original Mortgage or Annuity, and for such Entry the Clerk may demand a Sum not exceeding Five Shillings; and after such Entry every such Transfer shall entitle the Transferee, his Executors and Administrators, to the full Benefit of the original Mortgage or Annuity in all respects; and no Party, having made such Transfer, shall have Power to make void, release, or discharge the Mortgage or Annuity so transferred, or any Money thereby secured.

Interest on Mortgages to be paid half-yearly.

CCXIX. And be it enacted, That, unless otherwise provided by any Mortgage, the Interest of the Money borrowed upon every such Mortgage shall be paid half-yearly to the Party entitled thereto, out of the Rate or other Funds on the Credit of which such Money shall have been borrowed.

Power to borrow Money at a lower Rate of Interest, to pay off Securities at a higher.

CCXX. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners can at any Time borrow or take up any Sums of Money for any of the Purposes of this Act at a lower Rate of Interest than any Securities given by them, and which shall then be in force, shall bear, then from Time to Time it shall be lawful for them to borrow such Sums of Money as they shall think proper at such lower Rate as aforesaid, in order to pay off and discharge the Securities bearing such higher Rate of Interest, and to charge the said respective Rates or other Property, or any Part thereof, with the Payment of such Sum and such lower Rate of Interest, in such Manner and subject to such Regulations as are herein contained with respect to other Monies borrowed on Mortgage.

A Sinking Fund to be formed to pay off Monies borrowed on the Sewer Rate.

CCXXI. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of providing a Fund for paying off the Principal Monies for the Time being by virtue of this Act, or any Mortgage granted in pursuance thereof, charged upon and owing to the Credit of the Sewer Rate, the Commissioners shall once in every Year out of the said Rate set aside such Sum as they shall think proper, being not less than Five Pounds per Centum Centum nor more than Ten Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the Principal Monies by this Act raised, and any Mortgage granted in pursuance thereof, charged upon the said Rate; and the Sum so from Time to Time set aside, and also all other Monies which shall be applied by the Commissioners in augmentation of the said Fund, shall be applied, in the Manner herein-after directed, in Payment, so so far as the same will extend, of the Principal Monies charged upon and owing on the Credit of the said Rate, or the same shall be invested in the Public Funds, or on Government or Real Security, in the Name of "The Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London—The Sewer Rate;" and the Dividends and Interest of the Monies so invested, when and as the same shall become due, shall from Time to Time be received and invested in like Manner, in order that the said Monies so set aside and invested may accumulate at Compound Interest; and when such accumulated Fund shall amount to a Sum which in the Opinion of the Commissioners can be conveniently applied for that Purpose, the Stocks, Funds, or Securities whereon the same shall be invested shall be sold or otherwise converted into Money; and the Monies arising from any such Sale and Conversion shall be applied, in the Manner herein-after directed, in Payment, so far as the same will extend, of the Principal Monies charged upon and owing on the Credit of the said Rate, and so from Time to Time until the whole of the said Principal Monies shall be discharged.

Sinking Fund to be formed to pay off Monies borrowed on Consolidated Rate.

CCXXII. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of providing a Fund for paying off the Principal Monies for the Time being by virtue of this Act, or any Mortgage granted in pursuance thereof, charged upon and owing on the Credit of the Consolidated Rate, the Commissioners shall once in every Year out of the said Consolidated Rate set aside such Sum as they shall think proper, being not less than Five Pounds per Centum nor more than Ten Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the Principal Monies borrowed upon the said Consolidated Rate; and the Sum so from Time to Time set aside, and also all other Monies which shall be applied by the Commissioners in augmentation of the said Fund, shall be applied, in the Manner herein-after directed, in Payment, so far as the same will extend, of the Principal Monies for the Time being charged upon and owing on the Credit of the said Consolidated Rate, or the same shall be invested in the Public Funds, or on Government or Real Security, in the Name of "The Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London—The Consolidated Rate;" and the Dividends and Interest of the Monies so invested, when and as the same shall become due, shall from Time to Time be received and invested in like Manner, in order that the said Monies so set aside and invested may accumulate at Compound Interest; and when such accumulated Fund shall amount to a Sum which in the Opinion of the Commissioners can be conveniently applied for that Purpose, the Stocks, Funds, or Securities whereon the same shall be invested shall be sold or otherwise converted into Money; and the Monies arising from any such Sale and Conversion shall be applied, in the Manner herein-after directed, in Payment, so far as the same will extend, of the Principal Monies charged upon and owing on the Credit of the said Consolidated Rate, and so from Time to Time until the whole of the said Principal Monies shall be discharged.

Mode of paying off Mortgages.

CCXXIII. And in order that no undue Preference may be given in paying off any Mortgage, be it enacted, That when and as often as the Commissioners shall be enabled and think it expedient to pay off One or more out of the Number of Mortgages of the Sewer Rate or of the Consolidated Rate, they shall cause the several Numbers of the Mortgages on such Rate to be written upon distinct Slips of Paper of an equal Size, and all such Slips shall be rolled or folded up in similar Form, and put into a Box, and the Clerk of the Commissioners shall, in the Presence of Seven or more of the Commissioners, draw separately out of the said Box One of the said Slips, and thereupon the Mortgage corresponding with the Number so drawn shall accordingly be paid off by the Commissioners; and after every such Ballot the Commissioners shall cause a Notice, signed by the Clerk, to be given to the Person entitled to the Money to be paid off pursuant to such Ballot, and such Notice shall express the Principal Sum proposed to be paid off, and that the same will be paid, together with the Interest due thereon, at a Place to be specified in such Notice, at the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of giving such Notice, and at the Expiration of such Period the Interest of the Principal Money to be paid off shall cease, unless such Principal Money and Interest be not paid, on Demand, pursuant to such Notice, but such Principal Money, and the Interest thereof to the End of the said Six Months, shall nevertheless be payable on Demand.

No Transfer or Release necessary from Mortgagee.

CCXXIV. And be it enacted, That from and after the Payment or Satisfaction of all the Principal and Interest Monies secured by any Mortgage made under the Powers of this Act, all the Estate, Property, Right, and Interest by such Mortgage vested in the Mortgagee, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall, without any Transfer or Release, or any other Act or Deed whatsoever, immediately cease and determine.

Repayment of Money borrowed at a Time and Place agreed upon.

CCXXV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may, if they think proper, fix a Period for the Repayment of all Principal Monies borrowed on Mortgage under the Provisions of this Act, with the Interest thereof, and in such Case the Commissioners shall cause the Period to be inserted in the Mortgage Deed, and upon the Expiration of such Period the Principal Sum, together with the Arrears of Interest thereon, shall, on Demand, be paid to the Party entitled to receive such Principal Money and Interest; and if no other Place of Payment be inserted in such Mortgage Deed, such Principal and Interest shall be payable at the Office of the Commissioners.

Repayment of Money borrowed when no Time or Place

CCXXVI. And be it enacted, That if no Time be fixed in the Mortgage Deed for the Repayment of the Money borrowed, the Party entitled to receive such Money may, at the Expiration or at any Time after the Expiration of Twelve Months from the Date of such Mortgage, demand Payment of the Principal has been agreed upon.

Principal Money thereby secured, with all Arrears of Interest, upon giving Six Months previous Notice for that Purpose; and in the like Case the Commissioners may at any Time pay off the Money borrowed on giving the like Notice; and every such Notice shall be in Writing or Print, or both, and if given by a Mortgagee or Creditor shall be delivered to the Clerk, or left at the Offices of the Commissioners, and if given by the Commissioners shall be given either personally to such Mortgagee or Creditor, or left at his usual or last known Place of Residence in England, or if such Mortgagee or Creditor be unknown to the Commissioners, or cannot be found after diligent Inquiry, such Notice shall be given by Advertisement in the London Gazette.

Mortgages in arrear may be enforced by the Appointment of a Receiver.

CCXXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Mortgagee or other Person entitled to receive Payment of the Money secured by any Mortgage to enforce the Payment of the Principal Money and Interest due on any such Mortgage authorized by the Provisions of this Act by applying for the Appointment of a Receiver in the Manner herein-after mentioned; but in order to authorize the Appointment of such Receiver the Amount of Money owing to the Mortgagee or Creditor by whom the Application is made shall not be less than One thousand Pounds.

Receiver may be appointed, if Arrear remains unpaid for the Time prescribed.

CCXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if within Six Months after the Principal Money or any Interest owing upon any such Mortgage has become payable, and after Demand thereof in Writing, the same be not paid, the Mortgagee or other Creditor as aforesaid (without Prejudice to his Right to sue for such Principal Money, together with all Arrears of Interest, in any of the Superior Courts,) may, if his Debt amount to the Sum of One thousand Pounds, alone, or if his Debt does not amount to that Sum he may in conjunction with other Mortgagees (whose Debts, being so in arrear after Demand as aforesaid, shall together with his Amount to the said Sum), require the Appointment of a Receiver, by an Application to be made as herein-after provided.

Mode of appointing Receiver.

CCXXIX. And be it enacted, That every Application for a Receiver shall be made to Two Justices, and on any such Application it shall be lawful for such Justices, by Order in Writing, after hearing the Parties, to appoint some Person to receive the whole or a competent Part of the Rate or other the Property or Monies liable to the Payment of such Interest, or Principal and Interest, as the Case may be, until such Interest, or Principal and Interest, as the Case may be, together with all Costs, including the Charges of receiving the Rates or other Property or Monies, be fully paid; and upon such Appointment being made all such Rates, Property, and Monies as aforesaid shall be paid to and received by the Person so to be appointed, who is hereby empowered to give good and sufficient Discharges for the same; and the Money so to be received shall be so much Money received by or to the Use of the Party to whom such Interest, or such Principal and Interest, as the Case may be, shall be then due, and on whose Behalf the Receiver shall have been appointed; and after such Interest and Costs, or such Principal, Interest, and Costs, shall have been so received, the Power of such Receiver shall cease.

Proof of Debts in Bankruptcy.

CCXXX. And be it enacted, That if any Person against whom the Commissioners may have any Claim or Demand shall become bankrupt, or take the Benefit of any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, it shall be lawful for the Clerk, in all Proceedings against the Estate of such Bankrupt or Insolvent, or, under any Fiat, Sequestration, or Act of Insolvency, against such Bankrupt or Insolvent, to represent the Commissioners, and act in their Behalf in all respects as if such Claim or Demand had been the Claim or Demand of the Clerk, and not of the Commissioners.

Service of Notice on Commissioners.

CCXXXI. And be it enacted, That any Summons, Notice, Writ, or other Proceeding at Law or in Equity required to be served upon the Commissioners may lawfully be served by delivering the same personally to the Clerk, or by leaving the same at the Office of the Commissioners.

Service of Notice on other Persons.

CCXXXII. And be it enacted, That any Notice which by this Act, or by any Act incorporated herewith, may be required to be given to any Person, may lawfully be served by delivering the same to such Person, or by delivering the same to his Wife or Servant, or any Inmate, at his usual Place of Residence or Business, or in case such Place is not known, by affixing or leaving the same on or at his last known Place of Residence or Business.

Authentication of Notices.

CCXXXIII. And be it enacted, That every Summons, Demand, or Notice, or other like Document given under the Provisions of this Act, may be in Writing or Print, or partly in Writing and partly in Print, and shall be sufficiently authenticated if signed by the Clerk.

Releases to Witnesses.

CCXXXIV. And be it enacted, That in all legal Proceedings under this Act it shall be lawful for the Clerk, by Order of the Commissioners, to grant general or other Releases for the Purpose of qualifying any Person in the Service of the Commissioners to give Evidence as a Witness; and every such Release or Discharge shall be under the Hand and Seal of the Party giving the same.

Tender of Amends.

CCXXXV. And be it enacted, That if any Party shall have committed any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding in the Execution of this Act, or by virtue of any Power or Authority hereby given, and if before Action brought in respect thereof such Party make Tender of sufficient Amends to the Party injured, such last-mentioned Party shall not recover in any such Action; and if no such Tender shall have been made it shall be lawful for the Defendant, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall be pending, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such Proceedings shall be had as in other Cases where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Provision for Damages not otherwise provided for.

CCXXXVI. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Amount of any Damages, Costs, or Expenses is by this Act directed to be ascertained or recovered in a summary Manner, or any Damages, Costs, or Expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, and the Method of ascertaining the Amount or enforcing the Payment thereof is not provided for, such Amount, in case of Dispute, shall be ascertained and and determined by any Justice; and if the Amount so ascertained be not paid by the Commissioners or other Party liable to pay the same within Seven Days after Demand, the Amount may be recovered by Distress of the Goods of the Commissioners or other Party liable as aforesaid, and any Justice, on Application, shall issue his Warrant accordingly.

Where Two or more Persons are to do any Act or pay any Sum of Money, Commissioners may apportion the same.

CCXXXVII. And be it enacted, That where under the Authority of this Act Two or more Persons are or may be directed by the Commissioners to do or join in doing any Act, or to pay or join in paying any Sum of Money, Costs, or Expenses, or, where the Commissioners are authorized or shall think proper to permit Two or more Persons to join together in doing any Act, or paying any Sum of Money, Costs, or Expenses, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to apportion the Matter to be done, or the Sum of Money, Costs, or Expenses to be paid between such Persons, in such Manner as they the Commissioners shall consider just and reasonable.

Occupier may recover from Owner or deduct from his Rent.

CCXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Sum of Money which, under the Provisions of this Act, or by the Decision of the Commissioners, ought to be paid by the Owner of any House or Building or other Property, shall be paid by the Occupier of such House, Building, or other Property, or be levied on his Goods and Chattels, then the Person who shall be the Owner of such House or Building or other Property at the Time of such Payment or Levy shall reimburse the Occupier; and it shall be lawful for such Occupier to deduct the Sums paid or levied, together with the Costs of the Distress (if any), paid by him, from any Rent due or to become due from him in respect of such House, Building, or Property, and the Payment shall be a good and sufficient Discharge to such Occupier against such Owner for so much Money as he shall have paid in the Manner directed by this Act or by the Commissioners, or shall have sustained the Loss of by reason of any Distress made under this Act, or such Occupier may recover the same from such Owner as aforesaid by Action of Debt or on the Case, to be brought in any of the Superior Courts or in any Court whatsoever: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special Contract made or to be made between any Owner and Occupier of any House, Building, or other Property whereof it is or may be agreed that the Occupier shall pay and discharge all Rates, Dues, and Sums of Money payable in respect of such House, Building, or other Property.

Method of proceeding before Justices in Questions of Damages.

CCXXXIX. And be it enacted, That where in this Act any Question of Compensation, Expenses, Charges, or Damages is referred to the Determination of any One Justice or more, it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon the Application of either Party, to summon the other Party to appear before One Justice or before Two Justices (as the Case may require), at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and upon the Appearance of such Parties, or, in the Absence of them, upon Proof of due Service of the Summons, it shall be lawful for such One Justice or such Two Justices (as the Case may be) to hear and determine such Question, and for that Purpose to examine such Parties, or any of them, and their Witnesses, on Oath; and the Costs of every such Inquiry shall be in the Discretion of such Justice or Justices, and he or they shall determine the Amount thereof.

Publication of Penalties.

CCXL. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall publish the short Particulars of the several Offences for which any Penalty is imposed by this Act, or by any Rule or Regulation of the Commissioners, affecting other Persons than the Officers or Servants of the Commissioners, and of the Amount of every such Penalty, and shall cause such Particulars to be painted on a Board, or printed upon Paper pasted thereon, and shall cause such Board to be hung up or affixed in some conspicuous Place in the Office of the Commissioners, and where any such Penalties are of local Application shall cause such Boards or Papers to be affixed in some conspicuous Place in the immediate Neighbourhood to which such Penalties are applicable or have reference, and which Particulars shall be renewed as often as the same or any Part thereof shall be obliterated or destroyed; and no such Penalty shall be recoverable unless it shall have been published and kept published in the Manner herein-before required.

Penalty for defacing Boards used for such Publications.

CCXLI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall pull down or injure any Board put up or required by this Act for the Purpose of publishing any Rule or Regulation or Penalty, or shall obliterate any of the Letters or Figures thereon, he shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and shall defray the Expenses attending the Restoration of such Board.

Penalties to be summarily recovered before One Justice.

CCXLII. And be it enacted, That every Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act, or by any Rule or Regulation made in pursuance thereof, the Recovery of which is not otherwise provided for, may be recovered by summary Proceeding before any Justice; and on Complaint being made to any Justice he shall issue a Summons requiring the Party complained against to appear on a Day and at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and every such Summons shall be served on the Party offending either in Person or by leaving the same with some Inmate at his usual Place of Abode; and on the Appearance of the Party complained against, or in his Absence, upon Proof of the due Service of such Summons, it shall be lawful for any Justice to proceed to the hearing of the Complaint, and that although no Information in Writing or in Print shall have been exhibited before him; and upon Proof of the Offence, either by the Confession of the Party complained against or upon the Oath of One credible Witness or more, it shall be lawful for such Justice to convict the Offender, and upon such Conviction to adjudge the Offender to pay the Penalty or Forfeiture incurred, as well as such Costs attending the Conviction as such Justice shall think fit; and all such Proceedings by Summons, without Information, shall be as good, valid, and effectual as if an Information in Writing was exhibited.

Penalties may be levied by Distress.

CCXLIII. And be it enacted, That if upon any such Adjudication as aforesaid, the Amount of the Penalty or Forfeiture, and of such Costs as aforesaid, be not forthwith paid, the Amount of such Penalty and Costs may be levied by Distress, and any Justice may issue his Warrant of Distress accordingly.

CCXLIV. And

Justices may, until Return of Warrant of Distress, commit Offender to Prison, unless he gives Security.

CCXLIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Justice to order any Offender so convicted as aforesaid to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to the Warrant of Distress to be issued for levying such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs, unless the Offender give sufficient Security, by way of Recognizance or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Justice, for his Appearance before a Justice on the Day appointed for such Return, such Day not being more than Eight Days from the Time of making such Security; but if before issuing such Warrant of Distress it shall appear to the Justice, by the Admission of the Offender or otherwise, that no sufficient Distress can be had within the Jurisdiction of such Justice whereon to levy such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs, he may, if he shall think fit, refrain from issuing such Warrant of Distress; and in such Case, or if such Warrant shall have been issued, and upon the Return thereof such Insufficiency as aforesaid shall be made to appear to the Justice, then such Justice may, by Warrant, cause such Offender to be committed to Gaol, there to remain without Bail for any Term not exceeding Three Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs be sooner paid and satisfied.

Distress how to be levied.

CCXLV. And be it enacted, That where in this Act any Sum of Money, whether in the Nature of Penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by Distress, such Sum of Money shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party liable to pay the same; and the Overplus arising from the Sale of such Goods and Chattels, after satisfying such Sum of Money, and the Expense of the Distress and Sale, shall be returned, on Demand, to the Party whose Goods shall have been distrained.

Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

CCXLVI. And be it enacted, That no Distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser ab initio on account of any Irregularity afterwards committed by him, but all Persons aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action upon the Case.

Application of Penalties.

CCXLVII. And be it enacted, That the Justice by whom such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be imposed shall, where the Application is not otherwise provided for, award the same to the Commissioners, to be by them used and applied to any of the Purposes of this Act, as to them shall appear fit, and shall order the same to be paid over to the Chamberlain of the City.

Penalties to be sued for within Six Months.

CCXLVIII. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be liable to the Payment of any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by virtue of this Act for any Offence made cognizable before a Justice, unless the Complaint respecting such Offence shall have been made before such Justice within Six Months next after the Commission of such Offence.

Damages to be made good, in addition to Penalty.

CCXLIX. And be it enacted, That if through any Act, Neglect, or Default on account whereof any Person shall have incurred any Penalty imposed by this Act any Damage to the Property of the Commissioners shall have been committed by such Person he shall be liable to make good such Damage as well as to pay such Penalty; and the Amount of such Damage, in case of Dispute, shall be determined by the Justices by whom the Party incurring such Penalty shall have been convicted; and on Nonpayment of such Damages, on Demand, the same may be levied by Distress, and such Justices, or any One of them, may issue their or his Warrant accordingly.

Transient Offenders.

CCL. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer or Servant of the Commissioners, and for any Police Constable, and all Persons called by him to his Assistance, to seize and detain any Person who shall have committed any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, or any Rule or Regulation made in pursuance thereof, and whose Name and Residence shall be unknown to such Officer or Servant or Police Constable, and convey him with all convenient Despatch before some Justice, without any Warrant or other Authority than this Act; and such Justice shall proceed with all convenient Despatch to the hearing and determining of the Complaint against such Offender.

Form of Conviction.

CCLI. And be it enacted, That the Justice before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up according to the Form in the Schedule (H.) to this Act annexed.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form.

CCLII. And be it enacted, That no Act, Order, or Proceeding in pursuance of this Act, or in relation to the Execution thereof, shall be quashed or vacated for Want of Form, nor shall the same be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of the Superior Courts, except as herein specially provided.

Parties allowed to appeal to Quarter Sessions, on giving Security.

CCLIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall feel aggrieved by any Adjudication or Determination of any Justice with respect to any Penalty or Forfeiture under the Provisions of this Act, such Party may appeal to the General or Quarter Sessions, but no such Appeal shall be entertained unless it be made within Four Months next after the making such Determination or Adjudication, nor unless Ten Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Nature and Grounds thereof, be given to the Party against whom the Appeal shall be brought, nor unless the Appellant forthwith after such Notice enter into Recognizances, with Two Sureties, before a Justice, conditioned duly to prosecute such Appeal, and to abide the Order of the Court thereon.

Court to make such Order as they think reasonable.

CCLIV. And be it enacted, That at the General or Quarter Sessions for which such Notice shall be given the Court shall proceed to hear and determine the Appeal in a summary Way, or they may, if they think fit, adjourn it to the following Sessions, and upon the hearing of such Appeal the Court may, if they think fit, mitigate any Penalty or Forfeiture, or they may confirm or quash the Adjudication, and order any Money paid to the Appellant, or levied by Distress upon his Goods, to be returned to him, and may also order such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured as they may judge reasonable, and they may make such Order concerning the Costs, both of the Adjudication and of the Appeal, as they may think reasonable.

and

Penalty on giving false Evidence.

CCLV. And be it enacted, That if any Person upon his Examination upon Oath before any Court or Justice shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, or if any Person shall take or make any false Oath or Affidavit with respect to any Matter or Thing relating to this Act, every such Person so offending, and being duly convicted thereof, shall be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law in force Persons guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Penalty on interrupting Workmen, &c. in Execution of Duties.

CCLVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall at any Time obstruct, hinder, or molest any Commissioner, or any Surveyor, Inspector, Collector, or other Officer, Workman, or Person whomsoever, who shall be employed by virtue of this Act, in the Performance or Execution of his Duty, every such Person so offending shall for the First Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings, for the Second Offence the Sum of Twenty Shillings, and for the Third and every other Offence the Sum of Five Pounds.

Penalty on Persons assaulting Collectors.

CCLVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall obstruct, assault, molest, or hinder any Collector or other Person employed to collect any Rate made under the Authority of this Act, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

For compelling Attendance of Witnesses.

CCLVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before any Justice touching any Complaint for any Offence against this Act, either on the Part of the Prosecutor or of the Person accused, or if any Person shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence upon any Appeal, or any Adjournment thereof, by virtue of this Act, either on the Part of the Appellant or Respondent, and any such Person shall refuse or neglect to appear from Time to Time at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for his Refusal or Neglect, or appearing shall refuse to be examined upon Oath (which Oath such Justice is hereby authorized and required to administer) and to give Evidence before such Justice, or upon such Appeal or any Adjournment thereof, then and in either of the said Cases every such Person shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

Inhabitants may be Witnesses.

CCLIX. And be it enacted, That in all Actions, Prosecutions, Informations, Causes, and Proceedings relating to or concerning the Execution of this Act any Inhabitant within the City shall be a competent Witness, and be admitted to give Evidence, notwithstanding such Inhabitant is charged with or liable to pay any Rate by virtue of this Act.

Commitments to be made to Giltspur Street Prison, &c.

CCLX. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which under the Authority of this Act any Person shall be ordered to be committed to Prison, such Person shall, unless the Justice shall otherwise direct, be committed to the Giltspur Street Prison, or to the House of Correction for the City.

Act not to prejudice the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers Act.

CCLXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prejudice the Provisions of any Act passed or to be passed in the present Session of Parliament for consolidating the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, in relation to Sewers within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and the Provisions of such Act as last aforesaid with reference to the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London therein mentioned shall take effect with reference to the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London constituted under this Act, instead of the said first-mentioned Commissioners.

THE STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni VICTORIÆ, Britanniarum Reginæ, Duodecimo & Decimo Tertio.

'AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the Eighteenth Day of November, Anno Domini 1847, in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith: And from thence continued by several Prorogations to the First Day of February 1849; being the Second Session of the Fifteenth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.'

CAP. I.

An Act to consolidate the Boards of Excise and Stamps and Taxes into One Board of Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to make Provision for the Collection of such Revenue.

[27th February 1849.]

'WHEREAS by Her Majesty's Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland certain Persons therein named have been constituted and appointed, and now are, Commissioners of Excise for the Collection and Management of the whole of Her Majesty's Revenue of Excise arising in and throughout the whole of the said United Kingdom, and the Islands and Territories thereunto respectively belonging, and by the same Letters Patent the same Persons have also been constituted and appointed, and now are, Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes: And whereas it is expedient that the several Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things under the Care and Management of the said Commissioners of Excise and of the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively should be and remain under the Care and Management of One consolidated Board of Commissioners, to be called "The Commissioners of Inland Revenue:"' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the several Persons so as aforesaid appointed and now being Commissioners of Excise and Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively shall, without any further Commission or Authority than this Act, become and be One consolidated Board of Commissioners, and be called "The Commissioners of Inland Revenue;" and from henceforth all the several Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things which at the Time of the passing of this Act are collected by or are under the Care and Management of the said Commissioners of Excise and of the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively shall respectively be collected by and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue constituted by this Act, or to be appointed as herein-after directed, in the same Manner as such Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things respectively have heretofore been collected by or have been under the Care and Management of the said Commissioners of Excise and of the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively; and all such Revenues and Duties shall be denominated and be deemed to be Inland Revenue.

The Boards of Commissioners of Excise and Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes to be One Consolidated Board of Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, whenever She or they shall signify Her or their Will and Pleasure that the several Persons by this Act constituted Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall cease to be such Commissioners, and from Time to Time afterwards, to appoint, under the Great Seal of the said United Kingdom, such Persons as She or they shall think fit to be Commissioners of Inland Revenue; and that as well the said Commissioners to be appointed by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, as aforesaid, as the said Commissioners by this Act constituted Commissioners of Inland Revenue, shall respectively be and remain Commissioners of Inland Revenue during Her Majesty's Pleasure, and no longer.

Her Majesty to appoint Commissioners of Inland Revenue, who are to hold their Offices during Her Majesty's Pleasure.

Powers and Authorities vested in the Commissioners of Excise and Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively to be exercised by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall have, use, and exercise all such Powers and Authorities, judicial and otherwise, as are now given to or vested in or as might be used and exercised by the whole or any Number of the said Commissioners of Excise or of the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act; and all such Powers and Authorities shall be and are hereby given to and vested in the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Powers and Authorities, and all Clauses, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures in any Act or Acts relating thereto respectively, were severally repeated and re-enacted in this Act and made Part thereof; and all Rules, Orders, Regulations, Acts, Matters, and Things which shall be made or done by the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and which by any Act or Acts in force as aforesaid are or were required or authorized to be made or done, or which might be made or done by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or any Number of such Commissioners respectively, shall be and be deemed to be as good, valid, and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as if made or done by the said Commissioners of Excise or the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or any Number of such Commissioners respectively, under or in pursuance of any such Act or Acts as aforesaid; and all Persons shall be subject and liable to the same Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, for doing or omitting to do any Act, Matter, or Thing contrary to any Rules, Orders, or Regulations of the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue, as such Persons respectively would have been subject and liable to for doing or omitting to do the same Act, Matter, or Thing contrary to any Rules, Orders, or Regulations of the Commissioners of Excise or the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force as aforesaid; and all Rules, Orders, and Regulations heretofore made by the said Commissioners of Excise or the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively, in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, and which are not altered or varied by this Act, or contrary to any of the Provisions thereof, shall respectively remain and continue in full Force and Effect until the same shall be abrogated, annulled, altered, or varied by the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Powers given by this Act may be exercised by any Three or other prescribed Number of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

IV. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities which by this Act are given to or vested in the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or which shall or may at any Time hereafter be given to or vested in the said last-mentioned Commissioners, shall be and the same are hereby given to and vested in, and shall and may lawfully be used, exercised, and put in force by, any Three or more of the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue: Provided always, that where by any Act or Acts of Parliament or otherwise any Act, Matter, or Thing is expressly directed or authorized to be done by any particular or prescribed Number less than Three of the Commissioners of Excise or of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or where any Act, Matter, or Thing shall at any Time hereafter be so directed or authorized to be done by any such Number less than Three of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, every such Act, Matter, or Thing being done by such particular or prescribed Number of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall be good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Chief Office of Inland Revenue, where to be held.
7 & 8 G. 4. c. 53.

V. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall sit and keep their Chief Office at such Place as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall in that Behalf from Time to Time appoint, within the Limits described, designated, or referred to as the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise throughout Great Britain and Ireland; and such Office of the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall be deemed and called "The Chief Office of Inland Revenue;" and the said Limits shall be deemed to be the Limits of the said Chief Office of Inland Revenue for all the Ends, Intents, and Purposes for which they are described, designated, or referred to as the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in or by the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts now in force.

Offices of Receiver General of Excise and Receiver General of Stamps and Taxes consolidated into One Office of Receiver General of Inland Revenue.

VI. 'And whereas the Two several Offices of Receiver General of Excise and Receiver General of 'Stamps and Taxes are now vested in One and the same Person, and it is expedient to consolidate such 'Offices into One Office:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Two several Offices of Receiver General of Excise and Receiver General of Stamps and Taxes shall be and they are hereby consolidated into One Office of Receiver General of the said respective Revenues and Duties, and such consolidated Office shall be and the same is hereby vested in the Person in whom the said Two several Offices at the Time of the passing of this Act are vested as aforesaid; and such Person, as well as every other Person who shall at any Time hereafter be appointed to the said consolidated Office of Receiver General, shall be termed "The Receiver General of Inland Revenue," and shall hold his said Office during the Pleasure of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, and no longer.

Offices of Accountant General of Excise and Accountant and Comptroller General of Stamps and Taxes consolidated into One Office.

VII. 'And whereas the Two several Offices of Accountant General of Excise and Accountant 'and Comptroller General of Stamps and Taxes are now vested in One and the same Person, and it is 'expedient to consolidate the said last-mentioned Offices into One Office:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Two several Offices of Accountant General of Excise and Accountant and Comptroller General of Stamps and Taxes shall be and they are hereby consolidated into One Office of Accountant and Comptroller General of the said respective Revenues and Duties, and such consolidated Office shall be and the same is hereby vested in the Person in whom the said last-mentioned Two several Offices at the Time of the passing of this Act are vested as aforesaid; and such Person, as well as every other Person who shall at any Time hereafter be appointed to the said consolidated consolidated Office of Accountant and Comptroller General, shall be termed "The Accountant and Comptroller General of Inland Revenue," and shall hold his said Office during the Pleasure of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, and no longer.

Powers and Authorities to be exercised by the Receiver General and Accountant and Comptroller General of Inland Revenue respectively.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the said Receiver General of Inland Revenue shall have, use, and exercise all such Powers and Authorities as are now given to or vested in the Receiver General of Excise and the Receiver General of Stamps and Taxes respectively, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, or otherwise howsoever; and the said Accountant and Comptroller General of Inland Revenue shall have, use, and exercise all such Powers and Authorities as are now given to or vested in the Accountant General of Excise and the Accountant and Comptroller General of Stamps and Taxes respectively under or by virtue of any such Act or Acts as aforesaid, or otherwise howsoever; and all such respective Powers and Authorities shall be and are hereby given to and vested in the said Receiver General of Inland Revenue and the said Accountant and Comptroller General of Inland Revenue respectively, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Powers and Authorities, and all Clauses, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, were severally repeated and re-enacted in this Act, and made Part thereof.

Office of Comptroller and Auditor of Excise may be abolished, and the Accounts of the Excise Revenue be passed before the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, whenever they shall think fit, to abolish the Office of Comptroller and Auditor of Excise created under or by virtue of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to alter and amend certain Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Duties of Excise; and when and so soon as the said Office shall be so abolished so much of the said recited Act as directs that the Accountant General of Excise shall annually prepare and pass before the said Comptroller and Auditor of Excise Accounts of the Produce of the Revenue of Excise shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and the Accounts of the Revenues and Duties of Excise commencing from and after the Abolition of the said Office shall be rendered to and passed before the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, in like Manner as other Public Accounts are now rendered and passed under and by virtue of the Laws and Regulations now in force; and the said Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts shall, for the Purposes aforesaid, have all the Powers and Authorities now possessed and exercised by them as Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts.

All Commissions, &c. of Officers under the Commissioners of Excise and the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes to remain in force, and the Persons holding the same to be Officers of Inland Revenue.

X. And be it enacted, That all Commissions, Deputations, and Appointments at any Time heretofore granted to any Officers of or under the Commissioners of Excise or of or under the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall respectively remain and continue in full Force and Effect until the same shall be revoked or recalled by lawful Authority; and the Persons holding such Commissions, Deputations, and Appointments shall have full Power and Authority to execute the Duties of their respective Offices and Appointments, and to enforce all Laws, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures relating to the Revenues and Duties for which they have respectively been appointed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as they might or could do before or at the Time of the passing of this Act; and all Officers who at the Time of the passing of this Act hold their respective Offices during the Will and Pleasure of the Commissioners of Excise or of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes shall hereafter hold such Offices subject to the Will and Pleasure of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and all such Officers shall be deemed to be Officers of Inland Revenue, and be under the Control and Authority of the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Bonds and Securities to remain in force, and to extend to the Duties under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

XI. And be it enacted, That all Bonds and Securities to Her Majesty, or to the Commissioners of Excise, or the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or to any Officer or Person in their respective Employ, which have been heretofore given or entered into by any Persons whatsoever, either as Principals or Sureties, for securing the due accounting for or the Payment of any Duties or other Monies under the Care or Management of the Commissioners of Excise or of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or for the good Conduct of any Officer, Clerk, or other Person, or for any other Purpose whatever relating to the said Duties or Monies or any of them respectively, shall remain and continue in full Force and Effect until the Conditions of such Bonds or Securities, or the Purposes for which the same were given or entered into, shall have been duly performed, fulfilled, or accomplished; and all such Bonds and Securities, and the Conditions thereof respectively, shall extend and be deemed and construed to extend, and shall be applied, to all or any other of the Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things which under or in pursuance of this Act are or shall be placed under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, as well as to the particular Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things mentioned in such Bonds and Securities, or the Conditions thereof respectively.

Provisions of 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 28. and 1 & 2 Vict. c. 61. to extend to Revenues, &c. placed under Management of Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

XII. 'And whereas an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King 'William the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable Persons to make Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills 'in lieu of giving Security by Bond to the Postmaster General and Commissioners of Land Revenue, 'Customs, Excise, Stamps, and Taxes, and an Act was passed in the Second Year of Her present 'Majesty's Reign to amend the said last-mentioned Act:' Be it enacted, That the Provisions of the said recited Acts shall extend and be deemed and construed to extend to all and singular the Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things which now are or at any Time hereafter shall be placed under the Care or Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; and that any Public Stock or Exchequer Bills which shall at any Time hereafter be required to be transferred or deposited by way of Security in pursuance of the said recited Acts, with relation to any of the Revenues, Duties, Matters, or Things aforesaid, may respectively be transferred in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or deposited in the Bank of England, by or on behalf of the Person or Persons or Body Corporate from whom Deposits of Stock, &c. as Securities in lieu of Bonds to be made in the Name of Chairman of Inland Revenue.

whom such Security may be required, into or in the Name of the Chairman for the Time being of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and into or in the Name or Names of such Person or Persons or Body Corporate, or of any Person or Persons appointed by him or them.

Chairman of Inland Revenue empowered to transfer Stock deposited in the Name of the Chairman of Excise and of Stamps and Taxes respectively.

XIII. And with regard to any Public Stock or Exchequer Bills which at the Time of the passing of this Act may be standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or deposited in the Bank of England, in pursuance of the said recited Acts or either of them, in the Name of the Chairman for the Time being of the Commissioners of Excise or of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and of any other Person or Persons, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Chairman for the Time being of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and he is hereby fully authorized and empowered to sell and transfer, or re-transfer or deliver up, all or any of such Stock or Exchequer Bills respectively, upon the Certificate of any Two or more of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, to the Purport or Effect in the said Acts respectively mentioned in that Behalf, in such and the like Cases and in like Manner as the Chairman for the Time being of the Commissioners of Excise or of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes might lawfully have done if this Act had not been passed.

Lands and Buildings now vested in the Secretary of Excise in trust for the Public Service to be vested in the Secretary of Inland Revenue upon the like Trusts.

XIV. And be it enacted, That all Manors, Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in the United Kingdom which have heretofore been purchased, acquired, or taken for the Use and Service of the Revenue of Excise, together with the Rights, Members, Easements, and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, and which at or immediately before the passing of this Act are or were vested in the Secretary for the Time being of the Commissioners of Excise, in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use and Service of the Revenue of Excise, shall from and immediately after the passing of this Act become and be and remain and continue vested in the Secretary for the Time being of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and his respective Successors, as such Secretaries as last aforesaid, according to the Nature and Quality of the said Manors, Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively, in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use and Service of the Inland Revenue, with, under, and subject to the like Powers for the selling, exchanging, letting, demising, or otherwise disposing of the said Manors, Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments as are expressed and contained with relation thereto in any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue may appoint Officers to be Collectors and Receivers of several Branches of Inland Revenue.

XV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to nominate and appoint from Time to Time such of the Persons appointed or to be appointed Collectors or Officers for the Receipt of any Branch or Description of the Revenues or Duties under the Care or Management of the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall think proper to be also Collectors or Officers for the Receipt of any One or more or all of the other Branches or Descriptions of the Revenues or Duties aforesaid within and for such Counties, Districts, or Circuits of Receipt as the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall appoint in that Behalf; and all such Collectors and Officers so to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid for the Receipt of Two or more Branches or Descriptions of the said Revenues or Duties shall have, use, and exercise all the Powers and Authorities vested by Law in the several Collectors and Officers for the Receipt of the same Revenues and Duties respectively.

Licences how to be granted and signed.

XVI. ‘ And whereas under and by virtue of divers Acts of Parliament now in force certain Licences ‘ are required to be taken out and obtained from the Commissioners of Excise and the Commissioners of ‘ Stamps and Taxes respectively by Persons using, exercising, or carrying on certain Trades, Professions, ‘ Callings, Occupations, or Businesses, or trading or dealing in, or vending, selling, or retailing, certain ‘ Goods, Wares, or Commodities, or keeping or using certain Articles, and by other Persons and for other ‘ Purposes in the said Acts specified; and it is expedient to provide for the granting and signing of such ‘ Licences:’ Be it enacted, That all or any of such Licences as aforesaid shall and may lawfully be granted and signed by such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall appoint or authorize in that Behalf; and every such Licence which shall be so granted and signed shall be as valid and effectual for all Purposes whatsoever as it would have been if the same had been granted or signed by or under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or any Number of them, anything in any Act or Acts contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Terms used in former Acts, and in written Documents, relating to the Revenues of Excise or Stamps and Taxes, how to be construed after the passing of this Act.

XVII. And for the better effectuating and carrying out the Purposes and Objects of this Act, be it enacted, That wherever in any Act of Parliament, or in any Bond or Security, or in the Condition thereof respectively, or in any Deed or other Instrument or Writing, or in any Rules, Orders, or Regulations relating to or concerning the several Revenues or Duties of Excise or Stamps and Taxes, or any Matter or Thing which at the Time of the passing of this Act is under the Care or Management of the Commissioners of Excise or the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, the several Terms and Expressions hereinafter mentioned, or any of them, occur, such Terms and Expressions, so far as the same or any of them may relate to any Duties or Sums of Money, or any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, which shall accrue or be incurred or be or become payable or in arrear, or to any Act, Matter, or Thing to be done or omitted to be done, or which shall take effect at any Time after the passing of this Act, shall respectively be construed and read (where such Construction shall be necessary for or shall tend to effect or promote the Purposes and Objects aforesaid, and shall not be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Facts of the Case, or the Matter which may be in question,) as if the substituted Terms and Expressions hereinafter mentioned were respectively inserted in such Act, Bond, Security, Condition, Deed, Instrument, or Writing, Rules, Orders, and Regulations respectively, in lieu of the said several other Terms and Expressions which have been used and do occur therein respectively; (that is to say,) for and in lieu of the several several Terms and Expressions "Commissioners of Excise," "Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes," "Commissioners of Stamps," and "Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes" respectively, or any other Term or Expression by which the said respective Commissioners, or any of them, are designated, the Term "Commissioners of Inland Revenue" shall be read and substituted; and for and in lieu of the several Terms and Expressions "Secretary of the Commissioners of Excise" and "Secretary of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes" respectively, or any other Term or Expression by which the said several Offices of Secretary are respectively designated, the Term "Secretary of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue" shall be read and substituted; and for and in lieu of the several Terms and Expressions "Solicitor of Excise," "Solicitor of Stamps and Taxes," and "Solicitor of Stamps" respectively, or any other Term or Expression by which the said several Offices of Solicitor are respectively designated, the Term "Solicitor of Inland Revenue" shall be read and substituted; and for and in lieu of the several Terms and Expressions "Receiver General of Excise," "Receiver General of Stamps and Taxes," and "Receiver General of Stamp Duties" respectively, or any other Term or Expression by which the said several Offices of Receiver General are respectively designated, the Term "Receiver General of Inland Revenue" shall be read and substituted; and for and in lieu of the several Terms and Expressions "Accountant General of Excise" and "Accountant and Comptroller General of Stamps and Taxes" respectively, or any other Term or Expression by which the said several Offices of Accountant General and Accountant and Comptroller General are respectively designated, the Term "Accountant and Comptroller General of Inland Revenue" shall be read and substituted; and for and in lieu of the several Terms and Expressions "Chief Office of Excise," "Head Office for Stamps and Taxes," and "Head Office for Stamp Duties" respectively, or any other Term or Expression by which the said several Chief or Head Offices are respectively designated, the Term "Chief Office of Inland Revenue" shall be read and substituted; and in all Proceedings at Law or in Equity touching or concerning the said Revenues, Duties, or Sums of Money, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, or any other of the several Matters or Things aforesaid, every such Act, Bond, or Security, or the Condition thereof respectively, and every such Deed, Instrument, or Writing, Rule, Order, or Regulation as aforesaid respectively, may, if necessary for the Purposes and Objects aforesaid, be pleaded as if such substituted Terms and Expressions respectively were inserted therein for and in lieu of the said other Terms and Expressions which may have been used therein respectively.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. II.

An Act to continue, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, an Act of the last Session,* for empowering the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to apprehend and detain such Persons as he or they shall suspect of conspiring against Her Majesty's Person and Government. [27th February 1849.]

* 11 & 12 Vict. c. 35.

CAP. III.

An Act to apply the Sum of Eight Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine. [9th March 1849.]

CAP. IV.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Appointment of Vice Guardians of Unions in Ireland. [9th March 1849.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, and by a further Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her said Majesty, intituled An Act to make further Provision for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland are authorized and empowered, in certain Cases in the said Acts specified, to dissolve the Board of Guardians of any Union in Ireland, and in lieu thereof to appoint paid Officers to carry into execution the Provisions of the said Acts; and it is by the said Acts further provided, that such paid Officers when appointed shall, unless the Commissioners shall sooner revoke or determine their Appointment, hold their Offices for the Time of One Year from the Date of their Appointment, and thenceforth till the Time of the next Election of Guardians for such Union, and no longer: And whereas the said Commissioners did, before the Twenty-fifth Day of March which was in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, dissolve the Boards of Guardians of certain Unions in Ireland, and did before the said Day in the said Year appoint paid Officers to carry into execution the Provisions of the said Acts in each of the said Unions respectively, and the Powers of the said paid Officers, or their Successors, as the Case may be, will under the Provisions of the said Acts cease and determine on the Twenty-fifth Day of March next, in this present Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine: And whereas it is expedient that in certain of the said Unions the paid Officers so appointed as aforesaid, or their Successors, as the Case may be, should continue in Office for a Period subsequent to the 1 & 2 Vict. c. 56. 10 & 11 Vict. c. 31.

'Twenty-

'Twenty-fifth Day of March next, as herein-after is provided, and that the Re-election of a Board of 'Guardians in each of the said last-mentioned Unions should be postponed for such further Period:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases in which the Board of Guardians of any Union in Ireland shall have been dissolved, and paid Officers shall have been appointed to carry into execution the Provisions of the said Acts, before the Twenty-fifth Day of March which was in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by an Order under their Seal, to direct the Continuance in Office of the said paid Officers or of their Successors, as the Case may be, until the First Day of November in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and on the Issue of such Order in the Case of any Union or Unions the paid Officers of each such Union or their Successors, as the Case may be, shall continue in Office until the said First Day of November in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, unless their Appointment be sooner revoked and determined by the said Commissioners, and no longer, and shall have all the same Powers and Authorities as are given to such paid Officers during their Continuance in Office under the Provisions of the said Acts, anything in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

In Cases in which Boards of Guardians have been dissolved, and paid Officers appointed, Commissioners empowered to continue them for a certain Time.

As to Elections of Guardians in certain Cases.

II. And be it enacted, That no Election of Guardians of any Union in regard to which any such Order under Seal of the said Commissioners shall have been issued shall take place at the annual Period for the general Election of Guardians in the said first-recited Act provided, that is to say, on the Twenty-fifth Day of March in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, or in Fourteen Days thereafter, and that all Notices of such Election, and all other Proceedings therein, shall on the Issue of such Order under Seal of the said Commissioners be abated and discontinued, and be of no Validity or Effect whatever; but in all Cases in which the Commissioners shall not issue such Order under their Seal the annual Election of Guardians shall take place, and the Powers of the paid Officers shall cease and determine as in the above-recited Acts is provided, that is to say, on the Twenty-fifth Day of March in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

Commissioners may discontinue paid Officers in certain Cases.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners at all Times, in any Case in which the Board of Guardians of a Union shall have been heretofore or shall be at any Time hereafter dissolved, and in which paid Officers shall have been or shall be appointed as aforesaid, to issue an Order under their Seal directing the Discontinuance in Office of such paid Officers, and the Re-election of a Board of Guardians, and on the Issue of such Order under the Seal of said Commissioners such Election of a Board of Guardians shall take place according to the Directions of the said Commissioners, and all the Powers and Authorities of such paid Officers shall cease and determine at the Time fixed for that Purpose in the Order of the said Commissioners; provided that in the Case of any Union the Board of Guardians of which shall have been dissolved, and in which paid Officers shall have been appointed as aforesaid, before the Twenty-fifth Day of March which was in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, the said Commissioners shall by Order under their Seal direct such Election of Guardians to take place, and shall direct the Discontinuance of such paid Officers to take effect on some Day not later than the First Day of November in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

Act may be amended, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. V.

An Act to authorize an Advance of Money for the Relief of certain distressed Poor Law Unions in Ireland. [9th March 1849.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize an Advance of Money for the Relief of certain distressed 'Poor Law Unions in Ireland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, to issue out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Fifty thousand Pounds, for affording Relief to certain distressed Poor Law Unions in Ireland, which Sum or Sums shall be paid to such Person or Persons, at such Time or Times, and under such Conditions and Restrictions, as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct.

Treasury may issue Fifty thousand Pounds for Relief of distressed Poor Law Unions in Ireland.

CAP. VI.

An Act to repeal an Act of the Twenty-first Year of George the Second, for holding the Summer Assizes at Buckingham; and to authorize the Appointment of a more convenient Place for holding the same. [9th March 1849.]

21 G. 2. c. 12.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Twenty-first Year of the 'Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for holding the Summer 'Assizes for the County of Buckingham at the County Town of Buckingham, it was enacted, that from 'and after the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and forty-eight all the Commissions of 'Assize and Nisi Prius, and all General Commissions of Oyer and Terminer, and all Commissions of 'General

'General Gaol Delivery, which should thereafter be appointed to be held and executed for the said 'County next after the Term of Holy Trinity, should be held and executed in each Year at and in the 'said Town of Buckingham, and at no other Place within the said County of Buckingham, any Law, 'Statute, Usage, Matter, or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas by an Act passed in 'the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty 'King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Appointment of convenient Places for the holding 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 71. 'of Assizes in England and Wales, after reciting that the Places at which the Assizes were then held 'in various Counties in England and Wales were inconvenient to the Inhabitants thereof, and that it 'would conduce to the more cheap, speedy, and effectual Administration of Justice to appoint other 'Places instead thereof for the holding of Assizes, it was amongst other things declared and enacted, 'that His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have Power 'from Time to Time to order and direct at what Place or Places in any County in England or Wales 'the Assizes and Sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery, and other Commissions for the 'Despatch of Civil and Criminal Business, should be holden: And whereas since the passing of the 'first above-recited Act up to the present Time the Summer Assizes for the said County have been 'regularly held in the Town of Buckingham: And whereas the holding of the said Assizes at the said 'Town is inconvenient to the Inhabitants of the said County at large; and it would conduce to the more 'cheap, speedy, and effectual Administration of Justice if some other Place or Places were appointed for Provisions of the first-recited Act requiring the Summer Assizes to be held in the Town of Buckingham repealed. 'the holding of the said Assizes, but by reason of the said first above-recited Act that Object cannot 'be effected under the Provisions of the secondly above-recited Act:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said first above-mentioned Act as is herein-before recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions of the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth shall extend and apply to the said County of Buckingham, and every Place therein, any Law, Statute, Matter, or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding. Provisions of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 71. extended to the County of Buckingham.

CAP. VII.

An Act to authorize the Inclosure of certain Lands in pursuance of the Fourth Annual General Report of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales. [9th March 1849.]

'WHEREAS the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales have in pursuance of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate 8 & 9 Vict. c. 118. 'the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons and Lands held in common, the Exchange of Lands, 'and the Division of intermixed Lands; to provide Remedies for defective or incomplete Executions, 'and for the Non-execution of the Powers of general and local Inclosure Acts; and to provide for the 'Revival of such Powers in certain Cases, issued Provisional Orders for and concerning the several 'proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, and have, in the annual General Report 'of their Proceedings, certified their Opinion that such Inclosures would be expedient; but the same Inclosures mentioned in Schedule may be proceeded with. 'cannot be proceeded with without the Authority of Parliament:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said several proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act be proceeded with.

II. And be it enacted, That in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Annual Inclosure Act, 1849." Short Title.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to remove Doubts as to the Appointment of Overseers in Cities and Boroughs. [22d March 1849.]

'WHEREAS Doubts have been entertained as to the proper Authority for the Appointment of Overseers of the Poor of the Parishes comprised within certain Cities and Boroughs under the Provisions of the Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every City, Town Corporate, or Borough the Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction therein shall have the exclusive Right of appointing the Overseers of the Poor of the several Parishes, Townships, or other Places separately maintaining their own Poor, or of any Parts thereof, within the said Cities, Towns Corporate, and Boroughs respectively, in like Manner and with the same Effect as the Justices of any County now have in respect of the Overseers of the Poor of any Parish within such County, and they are hereby required from Time to Time to make such Appointments accordingly.

43 Eliz. c. 2. Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in certain Cities and Boroughs to have the exclusive Right of appointing Overseers.

II. And be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as renders the Mayor, Alderman, and head Officer of any City, Town, or Place Corporate liable, upon the Default of the Nomination of Overseers therein, to lose and forfeit for every such Default Five Pounds, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repeal of Part of the 43 Eliz. c. 2. s. 10.

III. And be it enacted, That the Appointments of any Overseers of the Poor in such Cities, Towns Corporate, or Boroughs heretofore made by Justices of the Peace therein, without the Concurrence of the Mayor or other head Officer thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be valid, and that every Rate or Assessment made or to be made, and every other Act and Thing done or to be done by any Overseers so appointed, shall, if otherwise lawful, be valid for all Purposes.

Appointments of Overseers in Cities, &c. by Justices rendered valid.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That this Act shall not apply to the City of London, nor to any of the Parishes comprised therein, nor to the Appointment of the Overseers of any Parish, Township, or Place where such Appointment is regulated by the Provisions of any Local Act.

Saving London and Places under Local Acts.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. IX.

An Act to indemnify such Persons in the United Kingdom as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments, and to extend the Time limited for those Purposes respectively until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty. [3d April 1849.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates, as 10 & 11 Vict. c. 19.]

CAP. X.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters. [3d April 1849.]

[Number of Forces, 103,254. This Act is the same, except as to Dates, the Number of Forces, and the Sections here inserted, as 11 & 12 Vict. c. 11.]

President of Court-martial.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the President of every Court-martial shall be appointed by the Authority convening such Court, and shall in no Case be the Officer commanding in chief or Governor of the Garrison where the Offender shall be tried, nor Commander of the Regiment or Body of Troops composed of Detachments of different Regiments to which the Prisoner belongs; nor in the Case of a General

General Court-martial under the Degree of a Field Officer, unless a Field Officer cannot be had; nor in any Case whatever under the Degree of a Captain, save in the Case of a Detachment General Court-martial holden out of Her Majesty's Dominions, or of a Regimental or Detachment Court-martial holden on the Line of March, or on board any Transport Ship, Convict Ship, Merchant Vessel, or Troop Ship not in Commission, or on any Foreign Station where a Captain cannot be had.

Swearing and summoning Witnesses.

XV. And be it enacted, That all General and other Courts-martial shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby required, to administer an Oath to every Witness or other Person who shall be examined before such Court in any Matter relating to any Proceeding before the same; and every Person, as well Civil as Military, who may be required to give or produce Evidence before a Court-martial, shall, in the Case of General Courts-martial, be summoned by the Judge Advocate General, or his Deputy, or the Person officiating as such, and in the Case of all other Courts-martial, by the President of the Court; and all Persons so summoned and attending as Witnesses before any Court-martial shall, during their necessary Attendance in or on such Courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from Arrest, and shall, if unduly arrested, be discharged by the Court out of which the Writ or Process issued by which such Witness was arrested, or if such Court be not sitting, then by any Judge of the Superior Courts of Westminster or Dublin, or the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or elsewhere, according as the Case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such Court or Judge, by any Affidavit in a summary Way, that such Witness was arrested in going to or returning from or attending upon such Court-martial; and all Witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such Courts, or attending shall refuse to be sworn, or being sworn shall refuse to give Evidence or not produce the Documents under their Power or Control required to be produced by them, or to answer all such Questions as the Court may legally demand of them, shall be liable to be attached in the Court of Queen's Bench in London or Dublin, or the Court of Session, or Sheriff Depute or Stewarts Depute, or their respective Substitutes, within their several Shires and Stewartries, in Scotland, or Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, Garrisons, or Dominions in Europe or elsewhere respectively, upon Complaint made, in like Manner as if such Witness, after having been duly summoned or subpœnaed, had neglected to attend in a Trial in any Proceeding in the Court in which such Complaint shall be made.

Previous Convictions to be put in Evidence.

XVI. And be it enacted, That after a Prisoner has been found guilty of any Charge or Charges, the Court before which any such Prisoner shall have been tried may, before passing Sentence on such Prisoner, and for the Purpose only of affixing Punishment, receive in Evidence against him any previous Convictions by Courts-martial, and in like Manner and for the like Purpose the Court shall receive in Evidence any previous Conviction of such Prisoner by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, where the Offence charged in the Indictment was of a felonious, fraudulent, or unnatural Nature; and in the Case of Convictions by Courts-martial a Certificate, which shall purport to contain a Copy of the Charges, Finding, and Sentence of the Court, and of the Minute of the Infliction or Remission of all or any Part of such Sentence, made from the original Minutes of such Court, or from the Court-martial Book, and which shall further purport to be signed by the Judge Advocate General or by his Deputy, or by the Officer officiating as such, or by the Officer confirming the Proceedings, or by any competent Staff Officer, in case such Copy be taken from the original Minutes, or by the Commanding Officer, Adjutant, or other Officer having the Custody of the Court-martial Book, in case such Copy be taken from the said Book, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in any such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender; and in the Case of a Conviction by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, any Certificate transmitted as herein-before provided to the Officer commanding a Regiment by the Clerk of any such Court or other Officer having Custody of the Records of such Court, or the Deputy of such Clerk, containing the Substance and Effect of any Indictment, omitting the formal Part, together with the Judgment of the Court thereon, and purporting to be signed by such Clerk or other Officer, or by the Deputy of such Clerk, shall be sufficient Evidence of such last-mentioned Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such last-mentioned Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender: Provided always, that before any such Evidence shall be received it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the said Prisoner had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence against him; and provided also, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any other Punishment or Punishments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War be awarded for the Offence of which he shall have been so found guilty.

Power to commute Corporal Punishment.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which Corporal Punishment shall form the whole or any Part of the Sentence awarded by any Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or for the General or other Officer authorized to confirm the Sentences of Courts-martial, to commute such Corporal Punishment to Imprisonment, either solitary or with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days; provided that such Commutation of Punishment to solitary Confinement shall in no Case exceed the Period herein-after prescribed.

Stoppages.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That, in addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good—

Any Loss or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein-before specified:

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Horse or to the Horse of any other Soldier, or any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries, or any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries of any other Soldier, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct:

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss or Destruction of Accoutrements and Regimental Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Destruction, Damage, or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his Messing and Washing, so much only of the Pay of the Soldier may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

Power of Imprisonment by different Kinds of Courts-martial.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That a General, Garrison, or District Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, nor Eighty-four Days in any One Year, with Intervals between the Periods of solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and that any Regimental or Detachment Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, and may also direct that such Soldier may be kept in solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, with an Interval between them of not less Duration than such Periods of solitary Confinement; provided that when any Court-martial, whether General, Garrison or District or Regimental, shall direct that the Imprisonment shall be solitary only, the Periods shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Days.

Apprehension of Deserters in the United Kingdom.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That upon reasonable Suspicion that a Person is a Deserter it shall be lawful for any Constable, or if no Constable can be immediately met with then it shall be lawful for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the County or Borough wherein such Place is situate, or for the County adjoining such first-mentioned County or such Borough; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to inquire whether such suspected Person is a Deserter, and if it shall appear by the Testimony of One or more Witnesses, taken upon Oath, or by the Confession of such suspected Person, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, or by Evidence sufficient to satisfy such Justice, that there are reasonable Grounds for believing that such suspected Person is a Deserter, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in Civil Custody to the Head Quarters or Depôt of the Regiment to which he belongs, if stationed within Five Miles of the Place of Apprehension, or if such Head Quarters or Depôt shall not be stationed within Five Miles, then to the nearest or most convenient public Prison (other than a Military Prison set apart under the Authority of this Act), whether such Prison be in the County or Borough in which such suspected Person was apprehended or in which he was committed or not; or if the Deserter shall have been apprehended by a Party of Soldiers of his own Regiment in charge of a Commissioned Officer, such Justice may deliver him up to such Party, unless the Officer shall deem it necessary to have the Deserter committed to Prison for safe Custody; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary at War, specifying therein whether such Deserter was delivered to his Regiment or to the Party of his Regiment in order for his being taken to the Head Quarters or Depôt of his Regiment, or whether such Deserter was committed to Prison, to the end that the Person so committed may be removed by an Order from the Office of the said Secretary at War, and proceeded against according to Law; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary at War a Report, stating the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured; and the Secretary at War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to such Persons of such Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings as the Secretary at War shall be satisfied they are entitled to, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and for such Information, Commitment, and Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more; and every Gaoler and other Person into whose Custody any Person charged with Desertion is committed shall immediately upon the Receipt of the Person so charged into his Custody pay such Fee of Two Shillings, and also upon the Production of a Receipt from the Medical Practitioner who may have been required to examine such suspected Person a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and shall notify the Fact to the Secretary at War, and transmit also to the Secretary at War a Copy of the Commitment, to the end that such Secretary at War may order Repayment of the same; and that when any Person shall be apprehended and committed as a Deserter in any of Her Majesty's Colonies the Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison, if the Regiment to which he is suspected to belong shall not

not be in the Colony, or, if the Regiment be in the Colony, the Justice may, if within reasonable Distance, deliver him into Custody at the nearest Military Post, although the Regiment to which such Person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such Military Post; and such Justice shall in every Case transmit to the General or other Officer commanding in the Colony a Description Return in the Form prescribed, to the end that such Person may be removed by Order of such Officer, and proceeded against according to Law.

Soldiers not to be taken for Debts under 30*l.*

LII. And be it enacted, That no Person whatever enlisted into Her Majesty's Service as a Soldier shall be liable to be arrested or taken therefrom, by reason of the Warrant of any Justice or other Process, for not supporting, or for leaving chargeable on any Parish, Township, or Union, any Wife or any Child or Children, legitimate or illegitimate, or (except in the Case of an Apprentice) on account of any Breach of Contract or Engagement to serve or work for any Employer; and no Person enlisted as a Soldier or serving as a Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer on the permanent Staff of the disembodied Militia shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service by any Process, Order, or Execution issued out of or from any County or inferior Court, or by any Judge or Officer thereof, either for Contempt of Court or otherwise, or by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some Criminal Matter, unless an Affidavit shall be made by the Plaintiff or some one on his Behalf, for which no Fee shall be taken, before some Judge of the Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, of which Affidavit a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, that the original Debt for which the Action has been brought or Execution sued out amounts to the Value of Thirty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions on which the same shall be grounded; and any Judge of such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Soldier, or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Soldier without Fee, he being shown to be duly enlisted, and to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Soldier, or left at his last Quarters or Place of Residence before such Listing, may file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, and proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and have Execution other than against the Body.

Enlistment and Re-enlistment abroad.

LIX. 'And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for enlisting and attesting of 'Soldiers desirous of re-enlisting and others desirous of enlisting abroad:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Warrant signed by the Secretary at War in that Behalf, to authorize the Governors of Colonies, and of the several Presidencies in India, to appoint any Person, not being a General Officer nor holding any Regimental Commission, to enlist and attest, out of Great Britain or Ireland, any Soldiers or Persons desirous of enlisting or re-enlisting into Her Majesty's Service; and any Person so appointed shall have the same Powers in that Behalf as are given to Justices in the United Kingdom for all such Purposes of Enlistment and Attestation; and any Person so enlisted or re-enlisted shall be deemed to be an attested Soldier; and as often as any Corps shall be relieved or disbanded at any Station beyond the Seas it shall be lawful for any Officers thereunto authorized by the Officer commanding in chief at such Station to receive as Transfers as many of the Soldiers belonging to the Corps leaving the Station as shall be willing and fit for Service for any Corps appointed to remain; and every Soldier so transferred is hereby deemed to be discharged from his former Corps, and an attested Certificate of Transfer shall be delivered to the Soldier; and every Infantry Soldier consenting to be transferred to the Cavalry or Artillery shall upon such Transfer become liable to serve the limited Period prescribed for the Cavalry or Artillery, as the Case may be, notwithstanding his original Engagement to serve in the Infantry for a shorter Period.

Allowance to Innkeepers.

LXX. And be it enacted, That the Innholder or other Person on whom any Soldier is billeted in England shall, if required by such Soldier, furnish him for every Day on the March, and for a Period not exceeding Two Days when halted at the intermediate Place upon the March, and for the Day of the Arrival at the Place of final Destination, with One hot Meal in each Day, the Meal to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as may be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper, and for such Meal the Innholder or other Person furnishing the same shall be paid the Sum of Ten-pence; and all Innholders and other Persons on whom Soldiers may be billeted in England, except when on the March and entitled to be furnished with the hot Meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such Soldier with Candles, Vinegar, and Salt, and shall allow them the Use of Fire, and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem for each Soldier; and the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person on whom any of the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Forces shall be billeted in England, for Hay and Straw, shall be Nine-pence per Diem for each Horse; and in Ireland the Sum to be paid for Forage to the Innholder or other Person for Horses billeted by virtue of this Act shall be the Rate established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland; and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, when such Horses are provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of the Houses on which they are billeted, the Sum of Four-pence per Week for each Horse shall be paid; and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay for any Officers or Soldiers shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to them respectively; and if any such Officer shall not pay the same as aforesaid, then upon Complaint, and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses, before Two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place where such Quarters were situated, sitting in Quarter or Petty Sessions, the Secretary at War is hereby required (upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath was made of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing,) to give Orders to the Regimental Agent to pay the said Sums, and to charge the same against such Officers; and in case of any Soldier being suddenly ordered to march, and that the respective Commanding Officers are not enabled to make Payment of the Sums due for the Lodging of the Men and Stabling for the Horses, every such Officer shall, before his Departure, make up the Account with every Person upon whom such Soldier may have been billeted, and sign a Certificate thereof; which Account and Certificate shall be transmitted to the Agent of the Regiment, who is hereby required to make immediate Payment thereof, and to charge the same to the Account of such Officer.

Supply of Carriages.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That for the regular Provision of Carriages for Her Majesty's Forces, and their Baggage, in their Marches in Great Britain and Ireland, all Justices of the Peace within their several Jurisdictions, being duly required thereunto by an Order from Her Majesty, or the General of Her Forces, or the Master General or Lieutenant General of Her Majesty's Ordnance, or other Person duly authorized in that Behalf, shall, on Production of such Order, or a Copy thereof certified by the Commanding Officer, to such Justices, by some Officer or Non-commissioned Officer of the Regiment so ordered to march, issue a Warrant to any Constable having Authority to act in any Place from, through, near, or to which the Troop shall be ordered to march, (for each of which Warrants the Fee of One Shilling only shall be paid,) requiring him to provide the Carriages, Horses, and Oxen, and Drivers therein mentioned, and allowing sufficient Time to do the same, specifying the Places from and to which the said Carriages shall travel, and the Distance between the Places, for which Distance only so specified Payment shall be demanded, and which Distance shall not, except in Cases of pressing Emergency, exceed a Day's March prescribed in the Order of Route, and shall in no Cases exceed Twenty-five Miles; and the Constables receiving such Warrants shall order such Persons as they shall think proper, having Carriages, to furnish the requisite Supply, who are hereby required to furnish the same accordingly; and when sufficient Carriages cannot be procured within the proper Jurisdiction, any Justice of the next adjoining Jurisdiction shall, by a like Course of Proceeding, supply the Deficiency; and in order that the Burden of providing Carriages may fall equally, and to prevent Inconvenience arising from their being no Justice near the Place where Troops may be quartered on the March, any Justice residing nearest to such Place may cause a List to be made out once in every Year of all Persons liable to furnish such Carriages, and of the Number and Description of their said Carriages, (which Lists shall at all seasonable Hours be open to the Inspection of the said Persons,) and may by Warrant under his Hand authorize the Constable within his Jurisdiction to give Orders to provide Carriages, without any special Warrant for that Purpose, which Orders shall be valid in all respects; and all Orders for such Carriages shall be made from such Lists in regular Rotation as far as the same can be done.

Supply of Carriages in Cases of Emergency.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governors of Ireland, by Her or their Order, distinctly stating that a Case of Emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary at War, or if in Ireland by the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, or the First Clerk in the Military Department, to authorize any General or Field Officer commanding Her Majesty's Forces in any District or Place, or to the Chief Acting Agent for the Supply of Stores and Provisions, by Writing under his Hand, reciting such Order of Her Majesty or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor aforesaid, to require all Justices within their several Jurisdictions in England and Ireland to issue their Warrants for the Provision, not only of Waggons, Wains, Carts, and Cars kept by or belonging to any Person and for any Use whatsoever, but also of Saddle Horses, Coaches, Post Chaises, Chaises, and other Four-wheeled Carriages kept for Hire, and also of Boats, Barges, and other Vessels used for the Transport of any Commodities whatsoever upon any Canal or navigable River, as shall be mentioned in the said Warrants, therein specifying the Place and Distance to which such Carriages or Vessels shall go; and on the Production of such Requisition, or a Copy thereof certified by the Commanding Officer, to such Justice, by any Officer of the Corps ordered to be conveyed, or by any Officer of the Commissariat or Ordnance Department, such Justice shall take all the same Proceedings in regard to such additional Supply so required on the said Emergency as he is by this Act required to take for the ordinary Provision of Carriages; and all Provisions whatsoever of this Act, as regards the procuring of the ordinary Supply of Carriages, and the Duties of Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, Justices, Constables, and Owners of Carriages, in that Behalf, shall be to all Intents and Purposes applicable for the providing and Payment, according to the Rates of Posting or of Hire usually paid for such other Description of Carriages or Vessels so required on Emergency, according to the Length of the Journey or Voyage in each Case, but making no Allowance for Post Horse Duty, or Turnpike, Canal, River, or Lock Tolls, which Duty or Tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable for such Carriages and Vessels while employed in such Service or returning therefrom; and it shall be lawful to convey thereon, not only the Baggage, Provisions, and Military Stores of such Regiment or Detachment, but also the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children, and other Persons of and belonging to the same.

XCV. And

XCV. And be it enacted, That all Offences for which any Penalties and Forfeitures are by this Act imposed, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, over and above any Forfeiture of Value or Treble Value, shall and may be determined, and such Penalties and Forfeitures and Forfeiture of Value or Treble Value recovered, in every Part of the United Kingdom, by One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions, within England and Wales, with respect to summary Convictions and Orders: Provided always, that in all Cases in which there shall not be sufficient Goods whereon any Penalty or Forfeiture can be levied, the Offender may be committed and imprisoned for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months; which said recited Act shall be used and applied in Scotland and in Ireland, for the Recovery of all such Penalties and Forfeitures, as fully to all Intents as if the said recited Acts had extended to Scotland and Ireland, anything in the said recited Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such Offences committed in the British Isles, or in any of Her Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, may be determined, and the Penalties and Forfeitures and Forfeiture of Value or Treble Value recovered, before any Justices of the Peace, or Persons exercising like Authority, according to the Laws of the Part of Her Majesty's Dominions in which the Offence shall be committed; and all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed exceeding Twenty Pounds shall be recovered by Action in some of the Courts of Record at Westminster or in Dublin, or in the Court of Sessions in Scotland, and in no other Court in the United Kingdom, and may be recovered in the British Isles, or in any other Parts of Her Majesty's Dominions, in any of the Royal or Superior Courts of such Isles or other Parts of Her Majesty's Dominions.

Recovery of Penalties.

CAP. XI.

An Act to amend the Laws in England and Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith. [3d April 1849.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, it was among other things enacted, that every Person convicted of Simple Larceny, or of any Felony thereby made punishable like Simple Larceny, should (except in the Cases therein-after otherwise provided for) be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be otherwise punished as by the said Act provided: And whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, it was among other things enacted, that every Person convicted of Simple Larceny, or of any Felony thereby made punishable like Simple Larceny, should (except in the Cases therein-after otherwise provided for) be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be otherwise punished as by the same Act provided: And whereas it is expedient to abolish the Punishment of Transportation for the Offence of Simple Larceny, and for Felonies by the said Acts made punishable like Simple Larceny:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine so much of the recited Provisions of the said Acts respectively as makes any Person convicted of Simple Larceny, or of any Felony by such Acts respectively made punishable like Simple Larceny, (except in the Cases therein-after otherwise provided for,) liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, shall be repealed, but every Person so convicted shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be otherwise punished as by the said Acts respectively is provided.

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 29.

9 G. 4. c. 55.

Punishment of Transportation taken away in the Case of Simple Larceny.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Chattel or Fixture let to be used by him or her in or with any House or Lodging, whether the Contract shall have been entered into by him or her, or by her Husband, or by any Person on behalf of him or her or her Husband, in case the Value of the Article or Articles stolen shall exceed the Sum of Five Pounds, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished as if this Act had not been passed.

Tenants, &c. stealing from Houses, &c. if the Value exceed 5*l.*, punishable as before.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That where any Person has been twice convicted of any of the Offences punishable upon summary Conviction under the Provisions contained in the said recited Acts, or an Act of the Eleventh Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the more speedy Trial and Punishment of Juvenile Offenders, or an Act of the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the more speedy Trial and Punishment of Juvenile Offenders in Ireland, or an Act of the Eighth Year of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to malicious Injuries to Property, or an Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to malicious Injuries to Property, (whether each of the Convictions has been in respect of an Offence of the same Description or not, and whether such Convictions, or either of them, be before or after the passing of this Act,) if the Person so twice convicted shall afterwards commit the Offence of Simple Larceny, or any Offence by the said firstly and secondly recited Acts respectively made punishable like Simple Larceny, such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished as if this Act had not been passed.

Larceny, &c., after Two previous summary Convictions, punishable as before.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 59.

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 30.

9 G. 4. c. 56.

IV. And be it enacted, That in any Indictment against any Person who shall have been twice convicted of Offences punishable upon summary Conviction as aforesaid it shall be sufficient to state that such Person

In Indictments against Persons twice convicted, it shall be sufficient to state the Fact, and certified Copies of Convictions to be Evidence.

Person was at certain Times and Places so twice convicted as aforesaid, without otherwise describing the Offences of which such Person was so convicted as aforesaid, and a Copy of any such Conviction, certified by the proper Officer of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions to which such Conviction shall have been transmitted or returned, or proved to be a true Copy, shall be sufficient Evidence to prove such Conviction, and such Conviction shall be presumed to be unappealed against unless the contrary be shown.

CAP. XII.

An Act for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on shore.

[3d April 1849.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates and the Sections here inserted, as 11 & 12 Vict. c. 15.]

Swearing and summoning Witnesses.

XVII. And be it enacted, That all General and other Courts-martial shall have Power and Authority and are hereby required to administer an Oath to every Witness or other Person who shall be examined before such Court in any Matter relating to any Proceeding before the same; and every Person, as well Civil as Military, who may be required to give or produce Evidence before a Court-martial, shall, in the Case of General Courts-martial, be summoned by the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, and in the Case of all other Courts-martial, by the President of the Court; and all Persons so summoned and attending as Witnesses before any Court-martial shall, during their necessary Attendance in or on such Courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from Arrest, and shall, if unduly arrested, be discharged by the Court out of which the Writ or Process issued by which such Witness was arrested, or if such Court be not sitting, then by any Judge of the Superior Courts of Westminster or Dublin, or the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or elsewhere, according as the Case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such Court or Judge by any Affidavit in a summary Way that such Witness was arrested in going to or returning from or attending upon such Court-martial; and all Witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such Courts, or attending shall refuse to be sworn, or not produce the Documents being under their Power or Control required to be produced by them, or, being sworn, shall refuse to give Evidence or to answer all such Questions as the Court may legally demand of them, shall be liable to be attached in the Court of Queen's Bench in London or Dublin, or the Court of Session, or Sheriff Depute or Stewarts Depute or their respective Substitutes within their several Shires and Stewartries, in Scotland, or Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, Garrisons, or Dominions in Europe or elsewhere respectively, upon Complaint made in like Manner as if such Witness had, after being duly summoned or subpœnaed, neglected to attend on a Trial in any Proceeding in the Court in which such Complaint shall be made.

Previous Convictions to be put in Evidence.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That after a Prisoner has been found guilty of any Charge or Charges the Court before which any such Prisoner shall have been tried may, before passing Sentence on such Prisoner, and for the Purpose only of affixing Punishment, receive in Evidence against him any previous Convictions by Courts-martial, and in like Manner and for the like Purpose the Court shall receive in Evidence any previous Conviction of such Prisoner by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, where the Offence charged in the Indictment was of a felonious, fraudulent, or unnatural Nature; and in the Case of Convictions by Courts-martial, a Certificate, which shall purport to contain a Copy of the Charges, Finding, and Sentence of the Court, and of the Minute of the Infliction or Remission of all or any Part of such Sentence, made from the original Minutes of such Court or from the Court-martial Book, and which shall further purport to be signed by the Judge Advocate, or by the Officer officiating as such, or by the Officer confirming the Proceedings, in case such Copy be taken from the original Minutes, or by the Commanding Officer, Adjutant, or other Officer having the Custody of the Court-martial Book, in case such Copy be taken from the said Book, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in any such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender; and in the Case of a Conviction by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, any Certificate transmitted as herein-before provided to the Officer commanding by the Clerk of any such Court or other Officer having Custody of the Records of such Courts, or the Deputy of such Clerk, containing the Substance and Effect of any Indictment, omitting the formal Part, together with the Judgment of the Court thereon, and purporting to be signed by such Clerk or other Officer, or by the Deputy of such Clerk, shall be sufficient Evidence of such last-mentioned Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such last-mentioned Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender: Provided always, that before any such Evidence shall be received it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the said Prisoner had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence against him; and provided also, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any other Punishment or Punishments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War be awarded for the Offence of which he shall have been so found guilty.

Power to commute Corporal Punishment.

XXX. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which Corporal Punishment shall form the whole or any Part of the Sentence awarded by any Court-martial, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or for the Officer authorized to confirm the Sentences of Courts-martial, to commute such Corporal Punishment to Imprisonment, either solitary or with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days; provided that such Commutation of Punishment to solitary Confinement shall in no Case exceed the Period herein-after prescribed.

Forfeiture of Pay on Conviction of Desertion or Felony.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That every Marine who shall be found guilty of Desertion by a Court-martial, such Finding having been duly approved, or of Felony in any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or of any Crime or Offence in any Court of Criminal Judicature in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would, if committed therein, amount to Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award.

Stoppages.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That, in addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good—

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein specified:

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries, or any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries of any other Marine, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct:

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss, Disposal of or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, Accoutrements and Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing or repairing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Disposal, Destruction, Damage, or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his messing and washing, so much only of the Pay of the Marine may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

Power of Imprisonment by different Kinds of Courts-martial.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That a General or District or Garrison Court-martial may sentence any Marine to Imprisonment with or without hard Labour, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, nor Eighty-four Days in any One Year, with Intervals between the Periods of solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and that any Divisional or Detachment Court-martial may sentence any Marine to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, and may also direct that such Marine may be kept in solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, with an Interval between them of not less Duration than such Periods of solitary Confinement: Provided that when any Court-martial, whether General, Garrison, or District or Divisional, shall direct that the Imprisonment shall be solitary only, the Period shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Days.

Apprehension of Deserters.

L. And be it enacted, That upon reasonable Suspicion that a Person is a Deserter it shall be lawful for any Constable, or if no Constable can be immediately met with, then it shall be lawful for any Officer or Marine in Her Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the County or Borough wherein such Place is situate, or for the County adjoining such first-mentioned County or such Borough, and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to inquire whether such suspected Person is a Deserter, and if it shall appear by the Testimony of One or more Witnesses taken upon Oath, or by the Confession of such suspected Person, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, or by Evidence sufficient to satisfy such Justice that there are reasonable Grounds for believing, that such suspected Person is a Deserter, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in Civil Custody to the Head Quarters or Depôt of the Division to which he belongs, if stationed within Five Miles of the Place of Apprehension, or if such Head Quarters or Depôt shall not be stationed within Five Miles, then to the nearest or most convenient public Prison (other than a Military Prison), whether such Prison be in the County or Borough in which such suspected Person was apprehended or in which he was committed or not; or if the Deserter shall have been apprehended by a Party of Marines in charge of a Commissioned Officer, such Justice may deliver him up to such Party, unless the Officer shall deem it necessary to have the Deserter committed to Prison for safe Custody, and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, specifying thereon whether such Deserter was delivered to a Party of Marines in order for his being taken to the Head Quarters or Depôt of his Division, or whether such Deserter was committed to Prison, to the end that the Person so committed may be removed by an Order from the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, and proceeded against according to Law; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary of the Admiralty a Report stating the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, and the Secretary of the Admiralty shall transmit to such Justice an Order upon the proper Department for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings as a Reward to the Person so certified to be entitled thereto; and for such Information, Commitment, and Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more; and every Gaoler and other Person into whose Custody any Person charged with Desertion is committed shall, immediately upon the Receipt of the Person so charged into his Custody, pay such Fee of Two Shillings, and also, upon the Production of a Receipt from the Medical Practitioner who may have been required to examine such suspected Person, a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and shall notify the Fact to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and transmit also to the Secretary of the Admiralty a Copy of the Commitment, to the end that the Secretary of the Admiralty may order Repayment of the same; and that when any Person shall be apprehended and committed as a Deserter in any of Her Majesty's Colonies the Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison, if the Detachment to which he is suspected to belong shall not be in the Colony, or if the Detachment be in the Colony, the Justice may, if within reasonable Distance, deliver him into Custody at the nearest Military Post, although the Detachment to which such Person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such Military Post; and such Justice shall in every Case transmit to the Officer commanding in the Colony a descriptive Return in the Form prescribed, to the end that such Person may be removed by the Order of such Officer, and proceeded against according to Law.

Marines not to be taken for Debts under 30*l.* or for not supporting Family.

LVI. And be it enacted, That no Person whatever enlisted into Her Majesty's Service as a Marine shall be liable to be arrested or taken therefrom by reason of the Warrant of any Justice or other Process for not supporting or leaving chargeable on any Parish, Township, or Union any Wife or any Child or Children, legitimate or illegitimate, or (except in the Case of an Apprentice) on account of any Breach of Contract or Engagement to serve or work for any Employer; and no Person enlisted as a Marine shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service by any Process, Order, or Execution whatsoever, or by the Order or Decree of any Court or of any Judge or Officer thereof, for Contempt, or on any Account whatsoever, other than for some Criminal Matter, unless an Affidavit shall be made by the Plaintiff or some one on his Behalf, for which no Fee shall be taken, before some Judge of the Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, of which Affidavit a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, that the original Debt for which the Action has been brought or Execution sued out amounts to the Value of Thirty Pounds at least over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions on which the same shall be grounded; and any Judge of such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Marine or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Marine without Fee, he being shown to be duly enlisted, and to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Marine, or left at his last Quarters or Place of Residence before such listing, may file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, and proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and have Execution other than against the Body.

Allowance to Innkeepers.

LXX. And be it enacted, That the Innholder or other Person on whom any Marine is billeted in England shall, if required by such Marine, furnish him for every Day on the March, and for a Period not exceeding Two Days when halted at any intermediate Place upon the March, and for the Day of the Arrival at the Place of final Destination, with One hot Meal in each Day, the Meal to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as may be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previously to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper, and for such Meal the Innholder or other Person furnishing the same shall be paid the Sum of Ten-pence; and all Innholders and other Persons on whom Marines may be billeted in England, except when on the March, and entitled to be furnished with the hot Meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such Marines with Candles, Vinegar, and Salt, and shall allow them the Use of Fire and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the Sum of a Halfpenny per Diem for each Marine; and the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person on whom any of the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces shall be billeted, in England, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ninepence per Diem for each Horse, and in Ireland the Sum to be paid for Forage to the Innholder or other Person for Horses billeted by virtue of this Act shall be the Rate established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland; and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, when such Horses are provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of the Houses in which they are billeted, the Sum of Four-pence per Week for each Horse shall be paid; and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay and Subsistence of the Officers and Men shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons on whom such Men are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to them respectively; and if any such Officer shall not pay the same as aforesaid, then upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses Witnesses before Two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place where such Quarters were situate, sitting in Quarter or Petty Sessions, the Secretary of the Admiralty is hereby required, upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath shall be made of the Sum due to Complainant, to order Payment of the Amount which shall be charged against such Officer, and in case of any Marines being suddenly ordered to march, and of the Commanding Officer not being enabled to make immediate Payment of the Sums due on account of Billets, every such Officer shall before his Departure make up the Account with every Person upon whom any such Marines may have been billeted, and sign a Certificate thereof; which Account and Certificate, on being transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty, shall be immediately paid and charged to the Officer's Account.

Supply of Carriages.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That for the regular Provision of Carriages for the Royal Marine Forces and their Baggage on their Marches in Great Britain and Ireland, all Justices of the Peace within their several Jurisdictions, being duly required thereunto by Order of the said Lord High Admiral, or Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, or any Colonel Commandant or Commanding Officer of a Division of Royal Marines, shall, on the Production of such Order, or a Copy thereof certified by the Commanding Officer, to them, or any One or more of them, by the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer of the Party of Marines so ordered to march, issue a Warrant to any Constable having Authority to act in any Place from, through, near, or to which such Marines shall be ordered to march, (for each of which Warrants a Fee of One Shilling only shall be paid,) requiring him to provide the Carriages, Horses, Oxen, and Drivers therein mentioned, (allowing sufficient Time to do the same,) specifying the Places from and to which the said Carriages shall travel, and the Distance between the Places, for which Distance only so specified Payment shall be demanded, and which Distance shall not, except in Cases of pressing Emergency, exceed the Day's March prescribed in the Order of Route, and shall in no Case exceed Twenty-five Miles; and the Constables receiving such Warrant shall order such Persons as they shall think proper, having Carriages, to furnish the requisite Supply, who are hereby required to furnish the same accordingly; and in case sufficient Carriages cannot be procured within the proper Jurisdiction, any Justice of the next adjoining Jurisdiction shall, by a like Course of Proceeding, supply the Deficiency; and in order that the Burden of providing Carriages may fall equally, and to prevent Inconvenience arising from there being no Justice residing near the Place where Marines may be quartered on the March, the Justice or Justices residing nearest to such Place shall cause a List to be made out, at least once in every Year, of all Persons liable to furnish such Carriages, and of the Number and Description of their said Carriages, which List shall at all seasonable Hours be open to the Inspection of the said Persons, and shall by Warrant under his Hand authorize the Constables within his Jurisdiction to give Orders to provide Carriages without any special Warrant from him for that Purpose, which Orders shall be valid in all respects; and all Orders for such Carriages shall be made from such Lists in regular Rotation, so far as the same can be done.

Providing for Supply of Carriages, &c. in Cases of Emergency.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governors of Ireland, by their or his Orders distinctly stating that a Case of Emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary of the Admiralty, or, if in Ireland, by the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, or the First Clerk in the Military Department, to authorize any Commanding Officer of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces in any District or Place, or to the chief acting Agents for the Supply of Stores and Provisions, by Writing under his Hand, reciting such Order of the Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners, or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governors aforesaid, to require all Justices within their several Jurisdictions in England and Ireland to issue their Warrants for the Provision, not only of Waggons, Wains, Carts, and Cars kept by or belonging to any Person and for any Use whatsoever, but also of Saddle Horses, Coaches, Post Chaises, Chaises, and other Four-wheeled Carriages kept for Hire, and also of Boats, Barges, and other Vessels used for the Transport of any Commodities whatsoever upon any Canal or navigable River as shall be mentioned in the said Warrants, therein specifying the Place and Distance to which such Carriages or Vessels shall go; and on the Production of such Requisition, or a Copy thereof certified by the Commanding Officer, to such Justice, by any Officer of the Corps ordered to be conveyed, such Justice shall take all the same Proceedings in regard to such additional Supply so required on the said Emergency as he is by this Act required to take for the ordinary Provision of Carriages; and all Provisions whatsoever of this Act as regards the procuring of the ordinary Supply of Carriages, and the Duties of Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, Justices, Constables, and Owners of Carriages in that Behalf, shall be to all Intents and Purposes applicable for the providing and Payment according to the Rates of Posting or of Hire usually paid for such other Description of Carriages or Vessels so required on Emergency, according to the Length of the Journey or Voyage in each Case, but making no Allowance for Post Horse Duty, or Turnpike, Canal, River, or Lock Tolls, which Duty or Tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable for such Carriages and Vessels while employed in such Service or returning therefrom; and it shall be lawful to convey thereon not only the Baggage, Provisions, and Military Stores of such Detachment, but also the Officers, Marines, Servants, Women, Children, and other Persons of and belonging to the same.

Recovery of Penalties.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That all Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture not exceeding Twenty Pounds, over and above any Forfeiture of Value or Treble Value, is by this Act imposed, shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and Forfeiture of Value and Treble Value, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders; provided always, that in all Cases in which there shall not be sufficient Goods whereon any Penalty or Forfeiture can be levied, the Offender may be committed and imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months; which said recited Act shall be used and applied in Scotland for the Recovery of all such Penalties and Forfeitures as fully to all Intents as if the said recited Act had extended to Scotland, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such Offences committed in the British Isles, or in any of Her Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, may be determined, and the Penalties and Forfeitures of Value or Treble Value recovered, before any Justices of the Peace or Persons exercising like Authority, according to the Laws of Her Majesty's Dominions in which the Offence shall be committed; and all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed exceeding Twenty Pounds shall be recovered by Action in some of the Courts of Record at Westminster or in Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other Court in the United Kingdom, and may be recovered in the British Isles, or in any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, in any of the Royal or Superior Courts of such Isles or other Parts of Her Majesty's Dominions.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to provide a more effectual Regulation and Control over the Maintenance of poor Persons in Houses not being the Workhouses of any Union or Parish. [11th May 1849.]

'WHEREAS poor Persons are sometimes lodged and maintained under Contracts or Agreements for certain Payments in Houses and Establishments not being the Workhouses of any Union or Parish, nor subject to the effective Control of any Guardians or Overseers or other parochial Authorities, and no sufficient Powers are vested in any Authority to regulate the Houses or Establishments wherein such Persons are lodged and maintained, and it is expedient that such Powers should be given:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in England, and they are hereby required, from Time to Time as they shall see Occasion, to make and issue all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the Management and Government of any House or Establishment wherein any poor Person shall be lodged, boarded, or maintained, for Hire or Remuneration, under any Contract or Agreement entered into by the Proprietor, Manager, or Superintendent of such House or Establishment, or on his Behalf, with any Guardians, Overseers, or other Persons having the ordering or Management of the Poor in any Union or Parish, or for the Education of any poor Children therein, in like Manner and to the same Extent as the said Commissioners are by Law empowered to do in the Case of any Workhouse belonging to any Union or Parish; and all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations shall have the like Effect as other Rules, Orders, and Regulations of the said Commissioners, and shall be obeyed accordingly, with the like Penalties on any Neglect or Disobedience thereof, to be enforced upon summary Conviction, as Penalties under the Act of the Fifth Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in England and Wales, may now be enforced.

The Poor Law Board to issue Rules and Regulations to Houses where the Poor are maintained under Contract.

4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to any County Lunatic Asylum or Hospital registered or House licensed for the Reception of Lunatics, nor to any Hospital, Infirmary, School, or other Institution supported by public Subscriptions, and maintained for Purposes of Charity only.

Act not to extend to Lunatic Asylums and Hospitals.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may direct their Rules, Orders, and Regulations to any Person being or acting as the Proprietor, Manager, or Superintendent, or as an Officer or Assistant, in any such House or Establishment as aforesaid, and the same shall come into operation so soon as the said Commissioners shall therein declare, and shall be binding upon the Person named therein, and, if they shall so direct, upon every Person who shall afterwards succeed to him in the same Capacity.

Rules and Regulations to be directed to the Manager or Officer of the Establishment.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall be empowered, if at any Time they shall see just Cause, to prohibit, by Order under their Seal, the Reception or Retention of any poor Person, or any Class of poor Persons, in any such House or Establishment, and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any such Proprietor, Manager, or Superintendent, or other Officer or Assistant, to receive or retain any poor Person therein, contrary to the Terms of such Order, so long as it shall be in force, nor for any Guardians, Overseers, or other such Persons as aforesaid to send any poor Person to such House or Establishment, contrary to such Order, provided that no such Guardians, Overseers, or other such Persons as aforesaid, nor any Officer of any Union or Parish, shall incur any legal Responsibility in respect of the Neglect of such Order, until a Copy thereof shall have been sent to the Guardians of the Union or Parish, or to the Overseers of the Parish, or other such Persons as aforesaid, in the Manner in which Orders of the said Commissioners are now sent to Guardians or Overseers.

Poor Law Board may prohibit the Reception or Retention of Poor in any such House.

V. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may, by Order under their Seal, remove from his Office or Service any Officer, Servant, or Assistant in any such House or Establishment whom they shall deem unfit or incompetent to discharge the Duties of his Situation, or who shall at any Time refuse or wilfully neglect to obey and carry into effect any of the Rules, Orders, or Regulations issued by the said Commissioners under their Seal for the Regulation of such House or Establishment, or of the Officers or Inmates Poor Law Board may remove any Officer of such House.

Inmates thereof; and thereupon such Officer, Servant, or Assistant shall forthwith cease to act in his Office, Service, or Employment, and shall be entitled to claim and recover a rateable Proportion of his Salary, Wages, or other Remuneration up to the Time of his being so removed, but no more, from the Person liable to pay the same, subject to any Defence at Law which may then be open to the Person from whom the same shall be claimed.

Poor Law Board may regulate Contracts.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may from Time to Time issue any Order which they may deem necessary for regulating the Mode in which any Contract shall be entered into for the lodging, boarding, or Maintenance of any poor Person, with the Proprietor, Manager, or Superintendent of such House or Establishment as aforesaid, or the Terms or the Duration of any such Contract; and if after the issuing of any such Order any Contract or Agreement be entered into with such Proprietor, Manager, or Superintendent, or any Person on his Behalf, not in accordance with such Order, the same shall be voidable, and, if the said Commissioners shall so direct, the same shall be void and of no Effect; and all Payments made under or in pursuance of any Contract or Agreement not made and entered into in conformity with such Order as aforesaid, at any Time after the said Commissioners shall have declared the same to be void as aforesaid, and shall have given Notice of such Declaration to the Guardians, Overseers, or other such Persons as aforesaid, shall be disallowed in the passing and auditing of their Accounts, or the Accounts of any of their Officers by whom such Payments shall have been made or charged.

Persons may be appointed to inspect Houses, &c. Remuneration to such Persons.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may, if they think fit, appoint a Person either temporarily or permanently to visit any such House or Establishment, and to inspect the same, and the poor Persons received and maintained therein, and to make a Report to such Commissioners upon any Visit and Inspection; and such Person shall be paid by the Guardians or Overseers, as the Case may be, of the several Unions or Parishes from which poor Persons shall have been sent, and shall be at the Time of such Visitation maintained therein, such Remuneration as the said Commissioners shall by Order under their Seal direct.

Power to Justices to visit Houses.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace acting in and for the Jurisdiction in which such House or Establishment shall be situated to visit, inspect, and examine the same, at such Times as he shall think proper, for the like Purpose and with the same Power as any Justice has now by virtue of the Act herein-before mentioned of the Fifth Year of His late Majesty in respect of the Workhouse of any Union or Parish; and it shall be lawful for the General Board of Health, where they shall think proper, by Order under the Seal of the said Board and the Hands of any Two or more Members thereof, to authorize a Superintending Inspector to visit and inspect from Time to Time, or at such Time or Times as such Board shall direct, any such House or Establishment, and to ascertain the State and Condition of the same, and of the poor People therein, and to report thereon to the Board; and it shall be lawful for such Superintending Inspector accordingly so to visit and inspect, and to ascertain such State and Condition, and to examine any Officer, Servant, Assistant, or Inmate of such House or Establishment in relation thereto; and the Powers and Provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the Examination of Persons for the Purposes of an Inquiry under such Act by a Superintending Inspector, shall extend and be applicable to the Examination of such Officers, Servants, Assistants, and Inmates.

Power to General Board of Health to appoint a Superintending Inspector to visit Houses, and examine Officers, &c.

Interpretation of Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That the several Words used in this Act shall be construed in the same Manner as in the said Act of the Fifth Year of His late Majesty, and the Statutes explaining and amending it, and all the Provisions, Enactments, and Regulations contained in the said Act and the said subsequent Statutes shall be extended to this Act, so far as the same may be applicable, and subject to the Provisions herein contained.

Extent of Act.

X. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend only to England and Wales.

Act may be amended, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session.

CAP. XIV.

An Act to enable Overseers of the Poor and Surveyors of the Highways to recover the Costs of distraining for Rates. [11th May 1849.]

43 Eliz. c. 2. 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 50.

'WHEREAS Provision is already made by Law for the Recovery of the Sum or Sums at which any Person is rated or assessed to the Relief of the Poor, or is rated or assessed in any Rate for the Highways, in England or Wales, by Distress and Sale of his Goods and Chattels, and in default of such Distress by Commitment to Prison until the same shall be paid; but no Provision is made for levying the Costs and Expenses incurred by the Overseers of the Poor or the Surveyors of Highways in the Recovery of the same respectively:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful hereafter for all Justices of the Peace, if in their Discretion they shall so think fit, in any Warrant of Distress they shall make and issue for the levying of any Sum or Sums to which any Person or Persons is or are now or may hereafter be rated or assessed in or by any Rate or Assessment for the Relief of the Poor or for the Highways in England or Wales, or in or by any other Rate or Assessment which by Law now or hereafter is or shall be directed to be enforced or recovered in the same Manner as a Poor Rate, or in any Warrant for the levying of any Arrears of the same, to order that a Sum, such as they may deem reasonable, for the Costs and Expenses which such Overseers or Surveyors,

Where a Warrant of Distress is granted for a Poor Rate or Highway Rate, &c. the Costs of obtaining it may also be levied.

Surveyors, or the Persons applying for such Warrant, shall have incurred in obtaining the same, shall also be levied of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons against whom such Warrant shall be granted, together with the reasonable Charges of the taking, keeping, and selling of the said Distress.

Imprisonment in default of Distress. 43 Eliz. c. 2.

II. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor, it is amongst other things enacted, that in default of Distress for a Poor Rate it shall be lawful for Two Justices of the Peace to commit the Party against whom the Distress Warrant shall have issued to the Common Gaol of the County, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until Payment: And whereas it is desirable to limit the Time within which a Person assessed to a Poor Rate, or any other of the Rates or Assessments aforesaid, may be imprisoned for Nonpayment of the same:' Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the Commitment of any Person to the County Gaol for Nonpayment of any Poor Rate, or for Default of Distress whereon to levy the same, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and every Person now undergoing any such Imprisonment under or by virtue of the said recited Act shall be discharged from such Imprisonment so soon as he or she shall have been imprisoned Three Calendar Months, or shall sooner pay the Sum or Sums with which he or she is charged; and that hereafter, when to any Warrant of Distress for the levying of any Sum or Sums to which any Person or Persons is or are now or may hereafter be rated or assessed in or by any Rate or Assessment herein-before mentioned it shall be returned by the Constable or Person having the Execution of such Warrant that he could find no Goods or Chattels, or no sufficient Goods or Chattels, whereon to levy such Sum or Sums, together with the Costs of or occasioned by the levying of the same, it shall be lawful for any Two or more Justices of the Peace before whom the same shall be returned, or for any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place, if in their Discretion they shall so think fit, to issue their Warrant of Commitment against the Person with relation to whom such Return shall be so made as aforesaid, in the Form (D.) in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in any Form to the like Effect, and thereby order such Person to be imprisoned in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless the Sum or Sums therein mentioned shall be sooner paid; and every such Warrant of Commitment made or issued for Default of Distress as aforesaid shall be made as well for the Nonpayment of the Costs and Expenses so as aforesaid incurred in obtaining such Warrant of Distress, if the same shall be so ordered as aforesaid, and the Costs attending the said Distress, and also the Costs and Charges of taking and conveying the Party to Prison, (the Amount of such several Costs, Expenses, and Charges being stated in such Warrant of Commitment,) as for the Nonpayment of the Sum or Sums alleged to be due for the said Rates respectively.

So much of 43 Eliz. c. 2. as relates to Commitments for Nonpayment of Rates, or for Default of Distress, repealed. Power to order Imprisonment not exceeding Three Months in default of Distress.

One Warrant of Distress may be issued against several Rate-payers, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That for the saving of Expense in the levying of any Sum or Sums for Rate and Costs as aforesaid it shall be lawful to make and issue One Warrant of Distress against any Number of Persons neglecting or refusing to pay the same, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed; but nothing herein shall be deemed or construed to authorize Justices in like Manner to grant or issue One Warrant of Commitment against several Persons in default of Distress as aforesaid.

To whom Warrants of Distress or Commitment to be directed.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Warrants aforesaid may be directed to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or the Overseers of the Poor, or the Surveyors of the Highways, respectively, and to the Constable of the Parish or Township, and to any other Person or Persons, or to any One or more of them, as by the Justices granting the same shall be deemed fit.

Summons, and how served;

V. And be it enacted, That every Summons to be issued against any Person for Nonpayment of any Sum for which he or she is or shall be so rated or assessed as aforesaid shall be directed to such Person, and may be in the Form (B.) in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in any Form to the like Effect; and the same may be served by any Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor, or Surveyor of the Highways, respectively, or Constable or other Person, to whom it shall be delivered for that Purpose, upon the Person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the Party personally or by leaving the same with some Person for him or her at his or her last Place of Abode; and the Person who shall serve the same in manner aforesaid shall attend at the Time and Place and before the Justices in the said Summons mentioned, to depose if necessary to the Service of the said Summons; and if, upon the Day and at the Place appointed in and by the said Summons for the Appearance of the Party so summoned, such Party shall fail to appear accordingly in obedience to such Summons, then and in every such Case, if it be proved upon Oath or Affirmation to the Justices then present that such Summons was duly served as aforesaid a reasonable Time before the Time so appointed for his or her Appearance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace in their Discretion, if they shall so think fit, to proceed ex parte, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if such Party had personally appeared before them in obedience to the said Summons.

if not obeyed, the Justices may proceed ex parte.

On Payment or Tender of Rate and Costs Proceedings to cease.

VI. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Proceedings have been or shall hereafter be taken to compel Payment of any Sum for which any such Person is or shall be so rated or assessed as aforesaid, if at any Time before such Person shall be committed to and lodged in Prison for Nonpayment thereof, or for or by reason of its being returned to such Warrant of Distress as aforesaid that there are no Goods or Chattels or no sufficient Goods or Chattels of such Person whereon the same may be levied as aforesaid, such Person shall pay or tender to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, or any of them, or to the Surveyor of Highways respectively, or other Person authorized to collect or receive such Rate, the Sum so sought to be recovered, together with the Amount of all Costs and Expenses up to that Time incurred in the Proceedings so taken to compel Payment thereof as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Person to whom such Sum and Costs shall be so paid or tendered shall receive receive the same, and thereupon no further Proceedings for the Recovery of the same shall be had or taken.

Costs already recovered or proceeded for deemed legal.

VII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where such Costs and Expenses as aforesaid shall have been paid and received, or any Proceedings taken or Imprisonment had for Nonpayment of the same, such Payment and Receipt, and such Proceedings or Imprisonment, shall be deemed legal to all Intents and Purposes, and no Action or other Proceeding shall be had or proceeded in for or in respect of the same.

Forms in Schedule valid.

VIII. 'And whereas it may be convenient, and save Expense and Litigation, if Forms to be used 'for the Purpose of levying the Sums aforesaid should be given:' Be it enacted, That the Forms in the Schedule to this Act contained, or Forms to the same or the like Effect, shall be deemed good, valid, and sufficient in Law.

Imprisonment for Nonpayment of Church Rate limited.

IX. 'And whereas it is desirable to limit the Time within which a Person assessed to a Church Rate 'may be imprisoned for Nonpayment of the same:' Be it enacted, That every Person now undergoing any such Imprisonment shall be discharged from such Imprisonment so soon as he or she shall have been imprisoned Three Calendar Months, or shall sooner pay the Sum or Sums with which he or she is charged; and that hereafter no Person shall be imprisoned for the Nonpayment of any Church Rate for any Time exceeding Three Calendar Months.

CAP. XV.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty-fourth Year of King George the Third, for the Recovery of small Sums due for Wages in Ireland. [11th May 1849.]

54 G. 3. c. 116.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King 'George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the several Laws for Recovery of small Sums due 'for Wages in Ireland, and to make other Provisions for Recovery of such Wages, Justices of the Peace 'and Chief Magistrates within their respective Jurisdictions are authorized to hear Complaints respecting 'the Nonpayment of Wages not exceeding Six Pounds, and to adjudicate thereon by summary Process: 'And whereas Doubts have been entertained how far the Sums recoverable by Servants, Artificers, or 'Labourers, as defined by said Act, working by Task or by the Job or by Contract, come within the 'Provisions of the said Act, and it is expedient that such Sums should be recoverable in like Manner as 'Wages under the said Act, and also that the Amount of Sums recoverable under the said Act or this 'Act, whether for Wages, Damages, or Compensation for the Detention thereof, or Costs, should be 'extended to the Amount of like Sums as in the said Act mentioned of the present Currency of the 'United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Amount of Sums recoverable under the Provisions of the said Act, whether for Wages, Damages, or Compensation for the Detention thereof, or Costs, shall be extended to the Amount of like Sums as in the said Act mentioned,

Sums recoverable under recited Act or this Act extended to like Sums of the present Cur-tioned of the present Currency of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and further, that all Sums due or payable in Ireland to any Servant, Artificer, or Labourer, as defined by the said Act, whose Demand, whether originally greater or not, shall not exceed Six Pounds of the present Currency, for any Labour done or performed by Task or by the Job or by Contract, shall be recoverable by summary Process, in the same Manner and subject to the same Conditions and Limitations as are contained in the said herein-before recited Act, as amended by this Act, in respect to Wages.

rency; and Wages for Task Work to be recoverable before Justices as other Wages for Labour.

II. And be it enacted, That all Sums due or payable in Ireland for the Hire of any Horse, Ass, Mule, Bullock, or other Animal for Draught, or of any Cart, Dray, Car, Plough, Harrow, or Vehicle drawn by any Horse, Ass, Mule, Bullock, or other Animal, for the Purpose of any labouring Work, (not being for the Carriage of any Passenger or Passengers,) where the Demand (whether consisting wholly of any such Sums as last aforesaid, or partly of any such Sums and partly of Wages, or whether originally of greater Amount or not,) shall not exceed Six Pounds of the present Currency, shall be recoverable by summary Process, in the same Manner and subject to the same Conditions and Limitations as are contained in the said herein-before recited Act, as amended by this Act, in respect to Wages.

The Hire of Horses, Carts, &c. to be recoverable in like Manner.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Party be desirous of appealing to the Quarter Sessions against the Decision of the Justice or Justices or Chief Magistrate, either in any of the Cases in this Act provided for, or in any of the Cases in the said recited Act mentioned and provided for, such Appeal shall not be entertained unless it be made within One Week next after the making of such Decision, nor unless within Four Days after so appealing Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Nature and Grounds thereof, be given to or left at the Place of Abode of the Party against whom such Appeal shall be brought, nor unless the Appellant at the Time of or forthwith after making such Appeal enter into Recognizances, with Two sufficient Sureties, before a Justice, conditioned duly to prosecute such Appeal, and to abide the Order of the Court thereon.

Proceedings required for an Appeal.

IV. And be it enacted, That, subject to the Alterations hereby made, the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

This and recited Act One.

V. ‘ And whereas by an Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An ‘ Act to facilitate the Recovery by summary Process of small Sums due to the Teachers of Schools in ‘ Ireland, it is provided that Sums due or payable to any Teacher of a School in Ireland for Instruction ‘ given therein shall be recoverable in the same Manner and subject to the same Conditions and Limit- ‘ ations as are contained in the said first-recited Act in respect to Wages :’ Be it enacted, That the Provisions of this Act for amending the said first-recited Act in relation to the Amount of the Sums recoverable under the same, and in relation to Appeals, shall be extended and applied to Proceedings for the Recovery of Sums due or payable to Teachers of Schools under the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year of Her Majesty's Reign.

Provisions of this Act extended to Proceedings for Sums due to Teachers of Schools under 7 & 8 Vict. c. 8.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to protect Justices of the Peace in Ireland from vexatious Actions for Acts done by them in the Execution of their Office. [11th May 1849.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to protect Justices of the Peace in Ireland in the Execution of their ‘ Duty :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Action hereafter to be brought against any Justice of the Peace in Ireland in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law at Dublin for any Act done by him in the Execution of his Duty as such Justice, with respect to any Matter within his Jurisdiction as such Justice, shall be an Action on the Case as for a Tort; and in the Declaration it shall be expressly alleged that such Act was done maliciously, and without reasonable and probable Cause; and if at the Trial of any such Action, upon the General Issue being pleaded, the Plaintiff shall fail to prove such Allegation, he shall be nonsuit, or a Verdict shall be given for the Defendant.

For an Act by a Justice of Peace in Ireland within his Jurisdiction the Action shall be on the Case, and it shall be alleged to have been done maliciously, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That for any Act done by a Justice of the Peace in a Matter of which by Law he has not Jurisdiction, or in which he shall have exceeded his Jurisdiction, any Person injured thereby, or by any Act done under any Conviction or Order made or Warrant issued by such Justice in any such Matter, may maintain an Action against such Justice in the same Form and in the same Case as he might have done before the passing of this Act, without making any Allegation in his Declaration that the Act complained of was done maliciously, and without reasonable and probable Cause : Provided nevertheless, that (in any Case where a Conviction may be quashed either upon Appeal or upon Application to Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench) no such Action shall be brought for anything done under such Conviction or Order until after such Conviction or Order shall have been quashed, either upon Appeal or upon Application to Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench; nor shall any such Action be brought for anything done under any such Warrant which shall have been issued by such Justice to procure the Appearance of such Party, and which shall have been followed by a Conviction or Order in the same Matter, until after such Conviction or Order shall have been so quashed as aforesaid; or if such last-mentioned Warrant shall not have been followed by any such Conviction or Order, or if it be a Warrant upon an Information for an alleged indictable Offence, nevertheless if a Summons were issued previously to such Warrant, and such Summons were served upon such Person, either personally

For Act done without or exceeding his Jurisdiction, an Action may be maintained without such Allegation; but not for an Act done under a Conviction or Order, till after Conviction or Order quashed; nor for an Act done under a Warrant to compel Appearance, if a Summons were previously served and not obeyed.

sonally or by leaving the same for him with some Person at his last or most usual Place of Abode, and he did not appear according to the Exigency of such Summons, in such Case no such Action shall be maintained against such Justice for anything done under such Warrant.

If One Justice make a Conviction, &c., no Action to be brought against another granting Warrant on it.

III. And be it enacted, That where a Conviction or Order shall be made by One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and a Warrant of Distress or of Commitment shall be granted thereon by some other Justice of the Peace bonâ fide and without Collusion, no Action shall be brought against the Justice who so granted such Warrant, by reason of any Defect in such Conviction or Order, or for any Want of Jurisdiction in the Justice or Justices who made the same, but the Action (if any) shall be brought against the Justice or Justices who made such Conviction or Order.

No Action against Justices for issuing Distress Warrant for Poor Rate by reason of Defect, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That where any Poor Rate shall be made, allowed, and published, and a Warrant of Distress shall issue against any Person named and rated therein, no Action shall be brought against the Justice or Justices who shall have granted such Warrant by reason of any Irregularity or Defect in the said Rate, or by reason of such Person not being liable to be rated therein; and that in all Cases where a discretionary Power shall be given to a Justice of the Peace by any Act or Acts of Parliament, no Action shall be brought against such Justice for or by reason of the Manner in which he shall have exercised his Discretion in the Execution of any such Power.

If a Justice refuse to do an Act, the Court of Queen's Bench may by Rule order him to do it, and no Action shall be brought against him for doing it.

V. And whereas it would conduce to the Advancement of Justice, and render more effective and 'certain the Performance of the Duties of Justices, and give them Protection in the Performance of 'the same, if some simple Means, not attended with much Expense, were devised by which the Legality 'of any Act to be done by such Justices might be considered and adjudged by a Court of competent 'Jurisdiction, and such Justice enabled and directed to perform it without Risk of any Action or other 'Proceeding being brought or had against him:' Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall refuse to do any Act relating to the Duties of his or their Office as such Justice or Justices, it shall be lawful for the Party requiring such Act to be done to apply to Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland, upon an Affidavit of the Facts, for a Rule calling upon such Justice or Justices, and also the Party to be affected by such Act, to show Cause why such Act should not be done; and if after due Service of such Rule good Cause shall not be shown against it, the said Court may make the same absolute, with or without or upon Payment of Costs, as to them shall seem meet; and the said Justice or Justices upon being served with such Rule absolute shall obey the same, and shall do the Act required; and no Action or Proceeding whatsoever shall be commenced or prosecuted against such Justice or Justices for having obeyed such Rule, and done such Act so thereby required as aforesaid.

After Conviction, &c. no Action for anything done under a Warrant upon it.

VI. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where a Warrant of Distress or Warrant of Commitment shall be granted by a Justice of the Peace upon any Conviction or Order which, either before or after the granting of such Warrant, shall have been or shall be confirmed upon Appeal, no Action shall be brought against such Justice who so granted such Warrant for anything which may have been done under the same by reason of any Defect in such Conviction or Order.

If an Action be brought where Act prohibits, a Judge may set aside the Proceedings.

VII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where by this Act it is enacted that no Action shall be brought under particular Circumstances, if any such Action shall be brought it shall be lawful for a Judge of the Court in which the same shall be brought, upon Application of the Defendant, and upon an Affidavit of Facts, to set aside the Proceedings in such Action, with or without Costs, as to him shall seem meet.

Limitation of Action.

VIII. And be it enacted, That no Action shall be brought against any Justice of the Peace for anything done by him in the Execution of his Office, unless the same be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the Act complained of shall have been committed.

Notice of Action.

IX. And be it enacted, That no such Action shall be commenced against any such Justice of the Peace until One Calendar Month at least after a Notice in Writing of such intended Action shall have been delivered to him, or left for him at his usual Place of Abode, by the Party intending to commence such Action, or by his Attorney, in which said Notice the Cause of Action, and the Court in which the same is intended to be brought, shall be clearly and explicitly stated; and upon the Back thereof shall be endorsed the Name and Place of Abode of the Party so intending to sue, and also the Name and Place of Abode or of Business of the said Attorney if such Notice have been served by such Attorney.

Venue.

Defendant may plead General Issue, &c.

X. And be it enacted, That in every such Action brought in any of the Superior Courts of Law, the Venue shall be laid in the County where the Act complained of was committed; and the Defendant shall be allowed to plead the General Issue therein, and to give any special Matter of Defence, Excuse, or Justification in Evidence under such Plea, at the Trial of such Action.

Tender, and Payment of Money into Court.

XI. And be it enacted, That in every such Case after Notice of Action shall be so given as aforesaid, and before such Action shall be commenced, such Justice to whom such Notice shall be given may tender to the Party complaining, or to his Attorney, such Sum of Money as he may think fit as Amends for the Injury complained of in such Notice; and after such Action shall have been commenced, and at any Time before Issue joined therein, such Defendant, if he have not made such Tender, or in addition to such Tender, shall be at liberty to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he may think fit, and which said Tender and Payment of Money into Court, or either of them, may afterwards be given in Evidence by the Defendant at the Trial under the General Issue aforesaid; and if the Jury at the Trial shall be of opinion that the Plaintiff is not entitled to Damages beyond the Sum so tendered or paid into Court, or beyond the Sums so tendered and paid into Court, then they shall give a Verdict for the Defendant, and the Plaintiff shall not be at liberty to elect to be nonsuit, and the Sum of Money, if any, so paid into Court,

Court, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay or satisfy the Defendant's Costs in that Behalf, shall thereupon be paid out of Court to him, and the Residue, if any, shall be paid to the Plaintiff; or if, where Money is so paid into Court in any such Action, the Plaintiff shall elect to accept the same in satisfaction of his Damages in the said Action, he may obtain from any Judge of the Court in which such Action shall be brought an Order that such Money shall be paid out of Court to him, and that the Defendant shall pay him his Costs to be taxed, and thereupon the said Action shall be determined, and such Order shall be a Bar to any other Action for the same Cause.

In what Cases nonsuit, or Verdict for Defendant.

XII. And be it enacted, That if at the Trial of any such Action the Plaintiff shall not prove that such Action was brought within the Time herein-before limited in that Behalf, or that such Notice as aforesaid was given One Calendar Month before such Action was commenced, or if he shall not prove the Cause of Action stated in such Notice, or if he shall not prove that such Cause of Action arose in the County or Place laid as Venue in the Declaration, then and in every such Case such Plaintiff shall be nonsuit, or the Jury shall give a Verdict for the Defendant.

Damages.

XIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Plaintiff in any such Action shall be entitled to recover, and he shall prove the levying or Payment of any Penalty or Sum of Money under any Conviction or Order as Parcel of the Damages he seeks to recover, or if he prove that he was imprisoned under such Conviction or Order, and shall seek to recover Damages for any such Imprisonment, he shall not be entitled to recover the Amount of such Penalty or Sum so levied or paid, or any Sum beyond the Sum of Two-pence as Damages for such Imprisonment, or any Costs of Suit whatsoever, if it shall be proved that he was actually guilty of the Offence of which he was so convicted, or that he was liable by Law to pay the Sum he was so ordered to pay, and (with respect to such Imprisonment) that he had undergone no greater Punishment than that assigned by Law for the Offence of which he was so convicted, or for Nonpayment of the Sum he was so ordered to pay.

Costs.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if the Plaintiff in any such Action shall recover a Verdict, or the Defendant shall allow Judgment to pass against him by Default, such Plaintiff shall be entitled to Costs in such Manner as if this Act had not been passed; or if in such Case it be stated in the Declaration that the Act complained of was done maliciously and without reasonable and probable Cause, the Plaintiff, if he recover a Verdict for any Damages, or if the Defendant allow Judgment to pass against him by Default, shall be entitled to his full Costs of Suit, to be taxed as between Attorney and Client; and in every Action against a Justice of the Peace for anything done by him in the Execution of his Office the Defendant, if he obtain Judgment upon Verdict or otherwise, shall in all Cases be entitled to his full Costs in that Behalf, to be taxed as between Attorney and Client.

Extent of Act.

XV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend only to Ireland.

Commencement of Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect on the Second Day of October in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

After Commencement of this Act the following Statutes or Parts of Statutes repealed.

XVII. And be it enacted, That from and after the Time this Act shall so commence and take effect as aforesaid the following Statutes and Parts of Statutes, except so far as they may repeal other Statutes, shall be and shall be deemed and taken to be repealed; that is to say, so much of an Act of Parliament made and passed in Ireland in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the First, intituled An Act for Ease in pleading against troublesome and contentious Suits prosecuted against Sheriffs, Justices of Peace, Mayors, Constables, and certain other Officers, for the lawful Execution of their Office, as relates to Actions against Justices of the Peace; and so much of an Act made and passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the rendering Justices of the Peace and Governors and Deputy Governors of Counties and Places in Ireland more safe in the Execution of their Office; and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in obedience to the Warrants of such Justices of the Peace, Governors, and Deputy Governors respectively, as relates to Actions against Justices of the Peace; and a certain other Act made and passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to render Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Duty; and all other Act or Acts or Parts of Acts which are inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act; save and except so much of the said several Acts as repeal any other Acts or Parts of Acts, and also except as to Proceedings now pending, to which the same or any of them may be applicable.

Act to apply to Persons protected by the repealed Statutes.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall apply for the Protection of all Persons for anything done in the Execution of their Office, in all Cases in which, by the Provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, the several Statutes or Parts of Statutes herein-before mentioned, and by this Act repealed, would have been applicable if this Act had not passed.

Act may be amended, &c.

XIX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XVII.

An Act to continue for Five Years so much of an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, as enables Justices to grant Warrants for entering Places in which Spirits are sold without Licence in Ireland. [11th May 1849.]

2 & 3 Vict. c. 79.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Prevention of the Sale of Spirits by unlicensed Persons in Ireland, 'it is amongst other things enacted, "that if during the Space of Five Years from the passing of the ‘ “ said Act any Officer or Constable of Police shall make Oath in Writing, to be by him taken and ‘ “ subscribed before a Justice of the Peace within his Jurisdiction, (which Oath every such Justice is ‘ “ thereby empowered to administer and receive,) that he, the said Officer or Constable, has good Reason ‘ “ to believe that Spirits are retailed or sold without a Licence, or kept for Sale without Licence, in any ‘ “ Room, House, or other Place within the said District, at or over the outer Door of which Room, ‘ “ House, or Place no Sign or Notice is posted or written, importing that the Owner or Occupier thereof ‘ “ is licensed to sell Spirits, it shall be lawful for such Justice, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to ‘ “ authorize and empower, within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis any Justice or Superintendent ‘ “ Inspector of Police, and in any other Part of Ireland any Justice or Sub-Inspector or Chief Constable

‘ “ of Police, to enter into any such Room, House, or other Place as aforesaid at or over the outer ‘ “ Door of which no such Sign or Notice shall be posted or written:” And whereas certain other ‘ Provisions of the like temporary Nature are contained in the said recited Act imposing Penalties on ‘ Persons who shall be convicted of having been found in such unlicensed Premises, and to have been ‘ drinking or tippling therein, or who shall delay to admit Justices and others seeking to enter such ‘ Premises for the Purposes of executing such Warrant, or who shall maliciously or without probable ‘ Cause make such Oath, or enter such Premises, or apprehend Persons who shall not be or shall not have ‘ recently been tippling therein, and also to define what shall be sufficient Evidence for the Purpose of ‘ such Conviction in the Manner in the said Act specified: And whereas the said recited Provisions of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 82. ‘ the said Act were by an Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty
‘ continued in force for the further Period of Five Years, and will expire on the Twenty-fourth Day of ‘ August in this present Year, and it is expedient to continue the same:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Recited Provisions of said Act continued for Five Years. Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Provisions of the said Act shall be and continue in force for the further Period of Five Years from the said Twenty-fourth Day of August in this present Year.

Recited Act to apply to this Act, save, &c. II. And be it enacted, That in every respect, save where it is expressly altered by this Act, the said first-recited Act, and every Clause, Matter, and Thing therein contained, shall be and remain in full Force, and shall apply to this Act, as if the same were herein re-enacted.

Act may be amended, &c. III. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for the holding of Petty Sessions of the Peace in Boroughs, and for providing Places for the holding of such Petty Sessions in Counties and Boroughs. [11th May 1849.]

‘ WHEREAS certain Meetings of Justices of the Peace called Petty Sessions of the Peace are holden
‘ in and for certain Divisions of the several Counties of England and Wales called Petty Sessional ‘ Divisions, and important Duties have lately been assigned to the Justices attending at such Petty ‘ Sessions, and to their Clerks, by certain Acts of Parliament, and it is desirable to declare and enact
‘ that the Sittings of Justices of the Peace, or of a Stipendiary Magistrate, in and for every City, Borough,
‘ or Town Corporate having a separate Commission of the Peace, or for any Part thereof, shall be deemed ‘ a Petty Sessions of the Peace within the Meaning of such Acts, and that Buildings or Places at which ‘ such Petty Sessions may be holden shall, where necessary, be provided:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Petty Sessions of the Peace in Boroughs. Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Sitting and Acting of Justices of the Peace, or of a Stipendiary Magistrate, in and for any City, Borough, or Town Corporate having a separate Commission of the Peace, or any Part thereof, within England and Wales, at any Police Court or other Place appointed in that Behalf, shall be deemed a Petty Sessions of the Peace, and the District for which the same shall be holden shall be deemed a Petty Sessional Division, within the Meaning of any Acts of Parliament, already made or hereafter to be made, having relation to such Petty Sessions, or to any Business to be transacted thereat.

Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, or the Council in Boroughs, may provide Places for holding Petty Sessions. II. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where at present there are not, or where hereafter there shall not be, any fit or proper Place for the holding of such Petty Sessions within any such Petty Sessional Division as aforesaid, in any County, Riding, Liberty, or Division within England and Wales, or within any City, Borough, or Town Corporate within the same, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for any such County, Riding, Liberty, or Division, in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, and for the Council or other governing Body in any such City, Borough, or Town Corporate having a separate Commission of the Peace, respectively, if they shall respectively think fit, from Time to Time to direct that fit and proper Places be hired or otherwise provided for the holding of such Petty Sessions of the Peace within any such Petty Sessional Division as aforesaid, and that the Expenses thereof and attendant thereon be paid out of the County Rate or Borough Fund respectively, as the Case may be: Provided always, that no such Direction for hiring or otherwise providing any Place for the holding of such Petty Sessions shall be given by the Justices for any such County, Riding, Liberty, or Division, so assembled as aforesaid, unless an Application in Writing for that Purpose, signed by the Justices of the Peace acting in such Petty Sessional Division, or the major Part of such Justices, shall have been transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace Six Weeks at the least before the holding of the General or Quarter Sessions at which such Direction shall be given; and the Clerk of the Peace shall cause Notice of such Application to be published published in some Newspaper circulating in the same County, Riding Liberty, or Division, and in which the Advertisements of County Business are usually inserted, Fourteen Days at the least before the holding of such General or Quarter Sessions: Provided always, that in every such Case when it may be so required to provide a fit and proper Place for the holding of such Petty Sessions as aforesaid, if it shall appear to the Justices so assembled as aforesaid, or to the Council of such City, Borough, or Town Corporate respectively, that the County Court for the District is holden in any Building or Place which would be appropriate for the holding of such Petty Sessions, it shall be lawful for such Justices or Council respectively, to contract with the Treasurer of such County Court for the Use and Occupation thereof or of so much thereof as may be needed for the Purposes of such Petty Sessions, for such Time or Times, weekly or otherwise, and at such annual Rent, and subject to such Conditions as to Repairs, Alterations, or Improvements of such Building or Place, as may be agreed upon.

The Justices or Council may agree for the Use of the County Court for that Purpose.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where Justices of the Peace, acting as such for Two or more adjoining Counties, Ridings, Liberties, or Divisions, hold Petty Sessions on or near the common Boundaries of such Counties, Ridings, Liberties, or Divisions, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of each of such Counties, Ridings, Liberties, or Divisions, upon such Application as herein-before provided, to agree with the Justices of the Peace of the other or others of such Counties, Ridings, Liberties, or Divisions, that a Place for the holding of such Petty Sessions be hired or otherwise provided within either of such Counties, Ridings, Liberties, or Divisions, and that the same be so hired or otherwise provided at the joint Expense of such Counties, Ridings, Liberties, or Divisions, in such Manner and Proportions as in the said Agreement shall be specified; and all the Provisions of an Act of the last Session, intituled An Act to provide for the Expenses of erecting and maintaining Lock-up Houses on the Borders of Counties, concerning the Appointment and re-assembling of Committees, filling up Vacancies in Committees, the Proceedings of Committees, the Agreement to be drawn by them (except so far as respects the Appointment and Salary of a Superintendent Constable), and the Powers of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions and of Committees in relation to such Agreement, and the executing the same, and doing all necessary Acts consequential upon such Agreement, shall extend and be applicable to every Agreement to be made under this Act by and between the Justices of Two or more such Counties, Ridings, Liberities, or Divisions as aforesaid, as if such Provisions had been here repeated, and the Agreement to be made as aforesaid under this Act, and the Place to be provided for the holding of such Petty Sessions as aforesaid, had been substituted in such Provisions for such Agreement and Lock-up House as in the said Act mentioned.

Justices of the Peace of different Counties may provide Places for holding Petty Sessions at the joint Expense of such Counties.

CAP XIX.

An Act to make perpetual an Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her present Majesty, for authorizing the Removal of Prisoners from the several Gaols in Ireland in Cases of Epidemic Diseases. [11th May 1849.]

[10 & 11 Vict. c. 45. made perpetual.]

CAP. XX.

An Act for raising the Sum of Seventeen millions seven hundred and eighty-six thousand seven hundred Pounds by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine. [11th May 1849.]

CAP. XXI.

An Act to confirm certain Acts of the Legislature of Newfoundland respecting the rebuilding of the Town of Saint John's Newfoundland, and to enable the said Legislature to make other Provisions respecting the rebuilding of the said Town. [24th May 1849.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First Year of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the rebuilding of the Town of Saint John's in Newfoundland, and for indemnifying Persons giving up Ground for that Purpose, it was enacted, that certain Streets and Cross Streets in the said Town should be respectively of the Width specified in the said Act: And whereas by an Act of the Legislature of Newfoundland passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the rebuilding of the Town of Saint John's and the Drainage and Sewerage of the same, and to repeal certain Acts therein mentioned, and by another Act of the said Legislature of Newfoundland passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, entitled 'An Act to regulate the rebuilding of the Town of Saint John's and the Drainage and Sewerage of the same, and to repeal certain Acts therein mentioned,' certain Provisions are made respecting the Boundaries, Width, and Direction of certain Streets and Cross Streets or Fire Breaks in the said Town of Saint John, and such Provisions may conflict with the Provisions of the said Act of the First Year of King George the Fourth: And whereas it is expedient that the said Acts of the Legislature of Newfoundland should be confirmed, and that such Legislature should be enabled from Time to Time to make other Regulations concerning the rebuilding of the said Town:' Be it therefore enacted

1 G. 4. c. 51.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 3. (Newfoundland Act.)

10 Vict. c. 1. (Newfoundland Act.)

enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Legislature of Newfoundland shall be deemed to have been, from the passing of such Acts respectively, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes; and it shall be lawful for the said Legislature of Newfoundland, by any Act or Acts made in the Manner and subject to the Conditions which may be by Law required in respect of Acts made by such Legislature, from Time to Time to make such Provision as to such Legislature shall seem meet concerning the rebuilding or building of the said Town of Saint John's, and all or any of the Matters and Things mentioned and provided for in and by the said Act of the First Year of King George the Fourth, and in and by the said recited Acts of the said Legislature respectively, anything in the said Act of the First Year of King George the Fourth or any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Acts of the Legislature of Newfoundland confirmed, and such Legislature empowered to make further Provisions, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to remove Doubts concerning the Validity of certain Grants of Land in the Colony of New South Wales. [24th May 1849.]

'WHEREAS by a Proclamation bearing Date the Eighth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, made and published by his Excellency Lieutenant General Ralph Darling, then Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Colony of New South Wales, reciting that much Inconvenience had been occasioned by the Want of sufficient Titles for Allotments of Land in the Town of Sydney, and that such Titles had not been issued by the Government, except in a few Instances, since the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, in order to remedy the said Inconvenience, and to give the necessary Security to private Property, it was thereby ordained and proclaimed, that, on Application being made, a Grant in Fee Simple should be issued, under the Conditions in the said Proclamation specified, to every Person, or his lawful Representative, who on or before the said Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three was bonâ fide in possession, by Lease from the Government, whether such Lease was then expired or not, or by mere Right of Occupancy, of any Allotment of Land in the Town of Sydney which had not theretofore been alienated by the Crown, and not specified in a certain Order of the Government bearing even Date with the said Proclamation Number Thirty, or otherwise notified theretofore as being required for public Purposes, reserving, however, and keeping harmless, all Rights of other private Individuals which might be lawfully established at any Time thereafter: And whereas since the issuing of the said Proclamation Grants in Fee Simple of Allotments of Land in Sydney which had been before leased by the Government have from Time to Time been made and issued to divers Persons claiming the said Land under the Terms and Conditions set forth in the said Proclamation: And whereas at the Time of the making and issuing of divers of the said Grants Leases which had been issued by the Government of Lands comprised in such Grants were unexpired, and the said Leases were not surrendered nor cancelled, nor recited nor mentioned in the said Grants: And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether such Grants are valid; and it is expedient that such Doubts as aforesaid should be removed by Authority of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Grants made and issued after the Date and Publication of the said Proclamation, and before the Seventeenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, by or in the Name of the Governor or Person administering the Government of the said Colony for the Time being, or by or in the Name of either of Her Majesty's Predecessors King George the Fourth and King William the Fourth, or by or in the Name of Her Majesty, of any Lands situated in Sydney, shall (notwithstanding that the Leases which had been issued of the same Lands were at the Time of the making and issuing of such Grants unexpired, and that such Leases were not recited in the said Grants,) be and be deemed and taken to have been from the respective Dates thereof as valid and effectual in the Law to grant and convey such Lands to all Intents and Purposes as if such Leases had been recited and set forth in such Grants.

Grants of Lands in Sydney confirmed.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or taken to affect or prejudice the Rights of any Person or Persons to any Lands or Hereditaments which have been erroneously or wrongfully granted to any Grantee thereof, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Proclamation, anything in any such Grant or in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Saving as to Lands erroneously granted.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act to authorize further Advances of Money for the Improvement of Landed Property, and the Extension and Promotion of Drainage and other Works of public Utility, in Ireland. [24th May 1849.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Improvement of Landed Property in Ireland, whereby the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds was authorized to 10 & 11 Vict. c. 32.

'be advanced by way of Loan out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain 'and Ireland, for the Improvement of Landed Property in Ireland: And whereas it is expedient to 'authorize the Advance of a further Sum of Money for the said Purpose:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to issue and advance out of the growing Produce of the said Consolidated Fund, in addition to the Sum by the said recited Act authorized, such further Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole Three hundred thousand Pounds, as may from Time to Time be required for facilitating the Improvement of Landed Property in Ireland by the Owners thereof, the same to be applied for the Purposes and under the Provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act in force authorizing Loans to be made for that Purpose.

Treasury may advance 300,000*l.* for Landed Improvements.

II. And be it enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Matters, and Things contained in the said recited Act, or applicable to the Loans thereby authorized to be made, shall extend to this Act and the Loans herein-before authorized to be made.

10 & 11 Vict. c. 32. extended to this Act.

III. 'And whereas by another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to 'provide additional Funds for Loans for Drainage and other Works of public Utility in Ireland, and 'to repeal an Act of the last Session for authorizing a further Issue of Money in aid of public Works 'of acknowledged Utility, the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds was authorized to be 'advanced by way of Loan out of the said Consolidated Fund, for the Extension and Promotion of 'Drainage and other Works of public Utility in Ireland: And whereas it is expedient to authorize the 'Advance of a further Sum of Money for the said Purposes:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to issue and advance out of the growing Produce of the said Consolidated Fund, in addition to the Sum by the last-recited Act authorized, such further Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, as may from Time to Time be required for the Extension and Promotion of Drainage and other Works of public Utility in Ireland, the same to be applied for the Purpose of the Loans which the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland may be called upon to make under the Provisions of the Acts now in force authorizing Loans to be made for those Purposes.

Treasury may advance 200,000*l.* for Drainage, &c.

10 & 11 Vict. c. 106.

IV. And be it enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Matters, and Things, of what Nature or Kind soever, contained in or referred to by the said last-recited Act, or any Act authorizing Loans to be made for the Extension and Promotion of Drainage and other Works of public Utility in Ireland, shall extend to this Act, and to Loans hereby authorized to be made for those Purposes.

An Act to make Provision, until the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty, for a General Rate in Aid of certain distressed Unions and Electoral Divisions in Ireland. [24th May 1849.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient, for a limited Time, to make further Provision for the Relief of the 'destitute Poor chargeable on certain Unions and Electoral Divisions in Ireland:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, with the Approval of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, during each of the Years ending the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine and the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty, to fix and declare from Time to Time the Amount of such Sum as the said Commissioners shall deem it necessary should be raised for the Purpose aforesaid, and to assess the same upon the several Unions in Ireland in proportion to the annual Value of the Property in each Union rateable to the Relief of the Poor, according to the Valuation thereof for Poor Rates in force for the Time being; provided that the Sum so to be levied in any Union, in each of the said Two Years, shall not exceed Sixpence in the Pound on such annual Value; and the said Commissioners shall transmit to the Guardians of each Union an Order under their Seal, stating the Amount so assessed on such Union, and the Amount thereof which shall be leviable on each Electoral Division of such Union, according to the net annual Value of the rateable Property in such Electoral Divisions respectively.

Poor Law Commissioners in Ireland may authorize the levying a Rate in Aid.

II. And be it enacted, That the Guardians of each Union shall, in the Rate to be made on each Electoral Division of the Union next after the Receipt of such Order, provide for the Sum leviable on such Division, according to the Order of the Commissioners as aforesaid; and from and after the making of the Rate on such Division next after the Receipt of such Order the Treasurer of the Union shall, out of all Lodgments made with him of such Rate, or any subsequent Rate, on account of such Division, reserve One Moiety of all such Lodgments, and place the same to the Credit of such Division in an Account to be entitled "The Union Rate in Aid Account," until the whole Sum leviable on such Division under the said Order shall have been reserved and placed to such Account as aforesaid; and the Treasurer of such Union shall pay over from Time to Time all Sums so reserved as aforesaid on account of the Proprortion leviable

Upon Receipt of Order from the Poor Law Commissioners for the Levy of such Rate, the Amount leviable on each Electoral Division to be levied, and paid into the Bank of Ireland.

leviable on each Electoral Division into the Bank of Ireland, to be there placed to a separate Account in the Name of the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland, to be entitled "The General Rate in Aid Account."

Commissioners of the Treasury to direct Disposal of Monies arising from the Rate in Aid.

III. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall be empowered to order the Payment of the Sum standing in such separate Account at the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid, or of any Part thereof, to such Person or Persons, at such Time and Times, and under such Conditions and Restrictions, as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think fit, for the Purpose of affording Relief to destitute poor Persons in any Union or Electoral Division in Ireland, or of assisting the Emigration of such destitute poor Persons, or for the Purpose of repaying any Advance which may have been made as herein-after provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for any of the Purposes aforesaid.

Commissioners of the Treasury may advance 100,000*l.*

IV. And be it enacted, That for the more speedy affording of such Relief it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct that any Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole One hundred thousand Pounds shall be issued and paid, out of the growing Produce of the said Consolidated Fund, to such Person or Persons and at such Time and Times as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct; and such Sum or Sums shall be charged on and be repayable out of the Produce of any Rate or Rates to be levied in any Union or Unions in Ireland under the Provisions and in pursuance of this Act.

Account to be made up in Form in Schedule, and laid before Parliament.

V. And be it enacted, That an Account shall be made up, of the Sums received and expended under this Act by means of the said Rate in Aid, to the Thirty-first Day of December in the present Year, and also a similar Account to the same Day in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed; which Accounts shall be laid before Parliament within Ten Days after the first Sitting of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of December in each of the said Years.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for giving effect to the Stipulations of a Treaty between Her Majesty and the Queen of Portugal for the Apprehension of certain Deserters. [26th June 1849.]

'WHEREAS by the Sixteenth Article of a Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Her Majesty and the Queen of Portugal, signed at Lisbon on the Third Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, the Ratifications whereof were exchanged at Lisbon on the Thirtieth Day of the same Month, it was agreed "that if any Apprentices or Sailors should desert from Vessels "belonging to the Subjects of either of the High Contracting Parties while such Vessels were within "any Port in the Territory of the other Party, the Magistrates of such Port and Territory should be "bound to give every Assistance in their Power for the Apprehension of such Deserters, on Application "to that Effect being made by the Consul of the Party concerned or by the Deputy or Representative "of the Consul, and no public Body, civil or religious, should protect or harbour such Deserters;" and by the Nineteenth Article of the said Treaty it was further agreed, "that the said Treaty should be in "force for the Term of Ten Years from the Date thereof, and further until the End of Twelve Months "after either of the High Contracting Parties should have given Notice to the other of its Intention to "terminate the same, each of the High Contracting Parties reserving to itself the Right of giving such "Notice to the other at the End of the said Term of Ten Years, or at any subsequent Time; and it was "thereby agreed between them that at the Expiration of Twelve Months after such Notice should have "been received by either Party from the other the said Treaty and all the Provisions thereof should "altogether cease and determine:" And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for carrying the said Treaty into effect:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in case any Apprentice or Sailor shall desert from any Vessel belonging to any Portuguese Subject or Subjects while such Vessel shall be within any Port in any of Her Majesty's Dominions, or the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, all Justices of the Peace and other Magistrates and Officers of Justice within their several Jurisdictions

Deserters from Portuguese Vessels to be apprehended on Jurisdictions shall, on Application being made by a Portuguese Consul, or his Deputy or Representative, according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, aid in apprehending such Apprentice or Sailor; and upon any such Application it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, or other Magistrate or Person having Power to commit for Trial Persons accused of Crimes against the Laws of that Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or Territories in which such Apprentice or Sailor shall be found, to issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of such Apprentice or Sailor, and, upon due Proof of such Desertion as aforesaid, to order such Apprentice or Sailor to be conveyed on board the said Vessel, or to be delivered to the Master, Mate, or Owner of such Vessel, or his Agent, for the Purpose of being so conveyed; and it shall be lawful for such Master, Mate, Owner, or Agent, or any other Person, in pursuance of the Order in that Behalf, to convey such Apprentice or Sailor accordingly. Application of Consul.

II. And be it enacted, That no Person shall protect or harbour any Apprentice or Sailor who shall have deserted as aforesaid, knowing or having reason to believe such Apprentice or Sailor to have so deserted, and every Person so offending shall for every such Apprentice or Seaman so protected or harboured forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds, and such Penalty shall be recovered, paid, and applied in like Manner as the Penalty imposed by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to Merchant Seamen, and for keeping a Register of Seamen, upon a Person harbouring or secreting a Seaman or Apprentice having deserted from his Ship; and the Provisions of such Act applicable to such last-mentioned Penalty, and to the Proceedings for the Recovery thereof, shall be applicable to the Penalty imposed by this Act and to the Proceedings for the Recovery thereof. Penalty for protecting Deserters. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112.

III. And be it enacted, That if by any Law or Ordinance to be hereafter made by the local Legislature of any British Colony or Possession abroad Provision shall be made for carrying into complete Effect within such Colony or Possession the Objects of this present Act by the Substitution of some other Enactment in lieu thereof, then it shall be competent to Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, (if to Her Majesty in Council it shall seem meet, but not otherwise,) to suspend the Operation within any such Colony or Possession of this present Act, so long as such substituted Enactment shall continue in force there, and no longer. Limits of the Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue in force during the Continuance of the said Treaty. Continuance of the Act.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for granting Relief against Defects in Leases made under Powers of Leasing in certain Cases (a). [26th June 1849.]

'WHEREAS, through Mistake or Inadvertence on the Part of Persons granting Leases, and through Ignorance on the Part of Lessees of the Titles of Persons from whom Leases are accepted, Leases granted by Persons having valid Powers of Leasing are frequently invalid as against the Successors in Estate of such Persons by reason of the Nonobservance or Omission of some Condition or Restriction, or by reason of some other Deviation from the Terms of such Powers: And whereas Leases granted in the intended Exercise of such Powers are sometimes invalid as against the Successors in Estate of the Persons granting the same by reason that at the Time of granting the same the Person granting the Lease could not lawfully grant such Lease, although at a subsequent Time, and during the Continuance of his Estate in the Hereditaments comprised in such Lease, he might have granted the same in the lawful Exercise of such Power: And whereas it is expedient that Provisions should be made for granting Relief in the Cases aforesaid, in manner after mentioned:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in construing this Act Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number shall include the Singular Number, and Words importing Males shall extend to Females, and the Word "Person" shall include Corporations aggregate or sole, unless in any of the Cases aforesaid there be something in the Context repugnant to such Construction. Interpretation of Terms.

II. And be it enacted, That where in the intended Exercise of any such Power of Leasing as aforesaid, whether derived under an Act of Parliament or under any Instrument lawfully creating such Power, a Lease has been or shall hereafter be granted, which is, by reason of the Nonobservance or Omission of some Condition or Restriction, or by reason of any other Deviation from the Terms of such Power, invalid as against the Person entitled, after the Determination of the Interest of the Person granting such Lease, to the Reversion, or against other the Person who, subject to any Lease lawfully granted under such Power, would have been entitled to the Hereditaments comprised in such Lease, such Lease, in case the same have been made bonâ fide, and the Lessee named therein, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, (as the Case may require,) have entered thereunder, shall be considered in Equity as a Contract for a Grant, at the Request of the Lessee, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, (as the Case may require,) of a valid Lease under such Power, to the like Purport and Effect as such invalid Lease as aforesaid, save so far as any Variation may be necessary in order to comply with the Terms of such Power; and all Persons who would have been bound by a Lease lawfully Leases invalid owing to Deviation from Terms of the Power to be deemed Contracts in Equity for such Leases as might have been granted under the Power.

(a) See post, Cap. 110.

Proviso where the Grantor or Reversioner is willing to confirm.

granted under such Power shall be bound in Equity by such Contract: Provided always, that no Lessee under any such invalid Lease as aforesaid, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled by virtue of any such equitable Contract as aforesaid to obtain any Variation of such Lease, where the Persons who would have been bound by such Contract are willing to confirm such Lease without Variation.

Acceptance of Rent, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That the Acceptance of Rent under any such invalid Lease as aforesaid shall, as against the Person so accepting the same, be deemed a Confirmation of such Lease.

Leases invalid at the granting thereof may become valid if the Grantor continue in the Ownership.

IV. And be it enacted, That where a Lease granted in the intended Exercise of any such Power of Leasing as aforesaid, is invalid by reason that, at the Time of the granting thereof, the Person granting the same could not lawfully grant such Lease, but the Estate of such Person in the Hereditaments comprised in such Lease shall have continued after the Time when such or the like Lease might have been granted by him in the lawful Exercise of such Power, then and in every such Case such Lease shall take effect, and be as valid as if the same had been granted at such last-mentioned Time, and all the Provisions herein contained shall apply to every such Lease.

What shall be deemed an intended Exercise of a Power.

V. And be it enacted, That when a valid Power of Leasing is vested in or may be exercised by a Person granting a Lease, and such Lease (by reason of the Determination of the Estate or Interest of such Person or otherwise) cannot have Effect and Continuance according to the Terms thereof, independently of such Power, such Lease shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed to be granted in the intended Exercise of such Power, although such Power be not referred to in such Lease.

Saving the Rights of the Lessees under Covenants for Title and for quiet Enjoyment, and the Lessor's Right of Re-entry for Breach of Covenant, &c.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to prejudice or take away any Right of Action or other Right or Remedy to which, but for the passing of this Act, the Lessee named in any such Lease as aforesaid, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, would or might have been entitled, under or by virtue of any Covenant for Title or quiet Enjoyment contained in such Lease on the Part of the Person granting the same, or to prejudice or take away any Right of Re-entry or other Right or Remedy to which, but for the passing of this Act, the Person granting such Lease, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or other the Person for the Time being entitled to the Reversion expectant on the Determination of such Lease, would or might have been entitled, for or by reason of any Breach of the Covenants, Conditions, or Provisoes contained in such Lease, and on the Part of the Lessee, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to be observed and performed.

Act not to extend to certain Leases.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to any Lease by an Ecclesiastical Corporation or Spiritual Person, or to any Lease of the Possessions of any College, Hospital, or Charitable Foundation, or to any Lease where, before the passing of this Act, the Hereditaments comprised in such Lease have been surrendered or relinquished, or recovered adversely by reason of the Invalidity thereof, or there has been any Judgment or Decree in any Action or Suit concerning the Validity of such Lease, Pending Suits not to be prejudiced.

and shall not prejudice or affect any Action or Suit already commenced and now pending in any Court of Law or Equity, but every such Action and Suit may be proceeded with, and such Relief had therein, as if this Act had not passed.

Extent of Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to Scotland.

Act may be amended, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act to remove Doubts concerning the Transportation of Offenders under Judgment of Death to whom Mercy may be extended in Ireland. [26th June 1849.]

'WHEREAS Doubts have arisen as to the Power of the Crown to mitigate the Punishment of Offenders under Judgment of Death for Treason in Ireland: Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall be pleased to extend Mercy to any Offender under Judgment of Death in Ireland for any Offence whatsoever by Law punishable with Death, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, or for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, by Warrant signed by such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, to order the Transportation of such Offender for the Term of the natural Life of such Offender, or for any Term of Years (as in such Warrant shall be expressed); and such Warrant shall be as effectual in the Law, and shall be carried into execution by the Transportation of such Offender to any Place beyond the Seas to which Offenders may be transported, in the same Manner as if such Warrant had been a Sentence and Order for the Transportation for the like Term of such Offender pronounced, made, and recorded in respect of an Offence in respect of which such Sentence and Order might have been pronounced and made by a Court of competent Jurisdiction.

Her Majesty or the Lord Lieutenant may order the Transportation of any Offender under Judgment of Death to whom Mercy may be extended.

Warrants to be recorded.

II. And be it enacted, That every such Warrant shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Crown or Clerk of the Peace acting for the Court where the Judgment of Death hath been or shall be pronounced or recorded, to be kept among the Records of such Court.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to enable the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital to regulate and manage the Markets held at Greenwich in the County of Kent. [26th June 1849.]

'WHEREAS His Majesty King William the Third by His Letters Patent, dated at Westminster the Eighteenth Day of July One thousand seven hundred, did give and grant to the Right Honourable Henry Earl of Romney, his Heirs and Assigns, free, lawful, and absolute Right, Power, Licence, and Authority, for him, his Heirs and Assigns, to have, keep, and enjoy, at the Villa of East Greenwich in the County of Kent, Two Markets upon Wednesday and Saturday in every Week for ever, for the buying and selling all Goods and Wares whatsoever commonly bought and sold in such Markets, together with free Liberty of erecting and keeping a Court of Piepowder, with all Liberties, free Customs, Powers, Customs, Tolls, and other Profits and Commodities thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, as mentioned in the said Letters Patent: And whereas by an Indenture dated the Ninth Day of December One thousand seven hundred, made between the said Henry Earl of Romney of the one Part, and the several Persons therein named of the other Part, and by virtue of Two several Acts of Parliament passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third and the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, relating to the Property of the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, the said Two Markets and Court of Piepowder in and by the said recited Letters Patent granted, together with the said Letters Patent, and all Tolls, and other Profits, Benefits, Advantages, and Appurtenances whatsoever to them belonging or appertaining, or that should come or accrue by the same, became vested in the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital and their Successors, in trust for and as Part of the Estates and Property of the said Hospital: And whereas the said Commissioners have at considerable Expense erected on certain Ground, forming Part of the Estates and Property of the said Hospital, a commodious Market Place, with suitable Buildings, in which the said Markets are now carried on: And whereas the said Markets are of great Benefit and Advantage to the Inhabitants of the Parish of Greenwich, and it is expedient that the said Commissioners should be empowered to make proper Rules and Regulations for the better Management thereof:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act, except so far as the same is inconsistent therewith or may be hereby varied or altered.

10 & 11 Vict. c. 14. incorporated with this Act.

Coasting Trade.

Coasting Trade of U. K. and Isle of Man.

II. And be it enacted, That no Goods or Passengers shall be carried Coastwise from one Part of the United Kingdom to another, or from the United Kingdom to the Isle of Man, or from the Isle of Man to the United Kingdom, except in British Ships.

Trade with the Channel Islands.

III. And be it enacted, That no Goods or Passengers shall be imported into the United Kingdom from any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, nor shall any Goods or Passengers be exported from the United Kingdom to any of the said Islands, nor shall any Goods or Passengers be carried from any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man to any other of the said Islands, nor from one Part of any of the said Islands to another Part of the same Island, except in British Ships.

Coasting Trade of the British Possessions.

IV. And be it enacted, That no Goods or Passengers shall be carried from one Part of any British Possession in Asia, Africa, or America to another Part of the same Possession, except in British Ships.

Queen in Council may regulate Coasting Trade of Colonies on their Address.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Legislature or proper legislative Authority of any such British Possession shall present an Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to authorize or permit the Conveyance of Goods or Passengers from one Part of such Possession to another Part thereof in other than British Ships, or if the Legislatures of any Two or more Possessions, which for the Purposes of this Act Her Majesty in Council shall declare to be neighbouring Possessions, shall present Addresses or a joint Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to place the Trade between them on the Footing of a Coasting Trade, or of otherwise regulating the same, so far as relates to the Vessels in which it is to be carried on, it shall thereupon be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, so to authorize the Conveyance of such Goods or Passengers, or so to regulate the Trade between such neighbouring Possessions, as the Case may be, in such Terms and under such Conditions, in either Case, as to Her Majesty may seem good.

Coasting Trade of India to be

VI. And with regard to the Coasting Trade of India, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to make any Regulations authorizing or permitting the Conveyance veyance of Goods or Passengers from one Part of the Possessions of the East India Company to another Part thereof in other than British Ships, subject to such Restrictions or Regulations as he may think necessary; and such Regulations shall be of equal Force and Effect with any Laws and Regulations which the said Governor General in Council is now or may hereafter be authorized to make, and shall be subject to Disallowance and Repeal in like Manner as any other Laws or Regulations made by the said Governor General in Council under the Laws from Time to Time in force for the Government of the British Territories in India, and shall be transmitted to England, and be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in the same Manner as any other Laws or Regulations which the Governor General in Council is now or may hereafter be empowered to make.

regulated by Governor General in Council.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Ship shall be admitted to be a British Ship unless duly registered and navigated as such; and that every British-registered Ship (so long as the Registry of such Ship shall be in force, or the Certificate of such Registry retained for the Use of such Ship,) shall be navigated during the whole of every Voyage (whether with a Cargo or in Ballast) in every Part of the World by a Master who is a British Subject, and by a Crew whereof Three Fourths at least are British Seamen; and if such Ship be employed in a Coasting Voyage from one Part of the United Kingdom to another, or in a Voyage between the United Kingdom and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or from one of the said Islands to another of them, or from one Part of either of them to another of the same, or be employed in fishing on the Coasts of the United Kingdom or of any of the said Islands, then the whole of the Crew shall be British Seamen: Provided always, that if a due Proportion of British Seamen cannot be procured in any Foreign Port, or in any Place within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, for the Navigation of any British Ship, or if such Proportion be destroyed during the Voyage by any unavoidable Circumstance, and the Master of such Ship make Proof of the Truth of such Facts to the Satisfaction of the Collector and Controller of the Customs at any British Port, or of any Person authorized in any other Part of the World to inquire into the Navigation of such Ship, the same shall be deemed to be duly navigated: Provided also, that every British Ship (except such as are required to be wholly navigated by British Seamen) which shall be navigated by One British Seaman for every Twenty Tons of the Burthen of such Ship shall be deemed to be duly navigated, although the Number of other Seamen shall exceed One Fourth of the whole Crew.

British Ships.

No Ship British unless registered and navigated as such.

Proviso.

VIII. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be deemed to be a British Seaman, or to be duly qualified to be Master of a British Vessel, except Persons of One of the following Classes; (that is to say,) natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty; Persons naturalized by or under any Act of Parliament, or by or under any Act or Ordinance of the Legislature or proper legislative Authority of One of the British Possessions, or made Denizens by Letters of Denization; Persons who have become British Subjects by virtue of the Conquest or Cession of some newly acquired Country, and who have taken the Oath of Allegiance to Her Majesty, or the Oath of Fidelity required by the Treaty or Capitulation by which such newly acquired Country came into Her Majesty's Possession; Asiatic Sailors or Lascars, being Natives of any of the Territories, Countries, Islands, or Places within the Limits of the Charter of the East India Company, and under the Government of Her Majesty or of the said Company; and Persons who have served on board any of Her Majesty's Ships of War, in Time of War, for the Space of Three Years.

What Persons to be British Seamen.

IX. And be it enacted, That if Her Majesty shall at any Time by Her Royal Proclamation declare that the Proportion of British Seamen necessary to the due Navigation of British Ships shall be less than the Proportion required by this Act, every British Ship navigated with the Proportion of British Seamen required by such Proclamation shall be deemed to be duly navigated, so long as such Proclamation shall remain in force.

Proportion of Seamen may be altered by Proclamation.

X. And be it enacted, That in case it shall be made to appear to Her Majesty that British Vessels are subject in any Foreign Country to any Prohibitions or Restrictions as to the Voyages in which they may engage, or as to the Articles which they may import into or export from such Country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty (if She think fit), by Order in Council, to impose such Prohibitions or Restrictions upon the Ships of such Foreign Country, either as to the Voyages in which they may engage, or as to the Articles which they may import into or export from any Part of the United Kingdom or of any British Possession in any Part of the World, as Her Majesty may think fit, so as to place the Ships of such Country on as nearly as possible the same Footing in British Ports as that on which British Ships are placed in the Ports of such Country.

Reciprocity.

Queen may restrict the Privileges of Foreign Ships in certain Cases;

XI. And be it enacted, That in case it shall be made to appear to Her Majesty that British Ships are either directly or indirectly subject in any Foreign Country to any Duties or Charges of any Sort or Kind whatsoever from which the national Vessels of such Country are exempt, or that any Duties are imposed upon Articles imported or exported in British Ships which are not equally imposed upon the like Articles imported or exported in national Vessels, or that any Preference whatsoever is shown either directly or indirectly to national Vessels over British Vessels, or to Articles imported or exported in national Vessels over the like Articles imported or exported in British Vessels, or that British Trade and Navigation is not placed by such Country upon as advantageous a Footing as the Trade and Navigation of the most favoured Nation, then and in any such Case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty (if She think fit,) by Order in Council, to impose such Duty or Duties of Tonnage upon the Ships of such Nation entering into or departing from the Ports of the United Kingdom, or of any British Possession in any Part of the World, or such Duty or Duties on all Goods, or on any specified Classes of Goods, imported or exported in the Ships of such Nation, as may appear to Her Majesty justly to countervail the Disadvantages to which British Trade or Navigation is so subjected as aforesaid.

and may impose additional Duties.

XII. And

Order in Council to specify Ships to which it applies.

XII. And be it enacted, That in every such Order Her Majesty may, if She so think fit, specify what Ships are to be considered as Ships of the Country or Countries to which such Order applies, and all Ships answering the Description contained in such Order shall be considered to be Ships of such Country or Countries for the Purposes of such Order.

Orders may be revoked.

XIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time to revoke any Order or Orders in Council made under the Authority of this Act.

Orders to be published in "Gazette," and laid before Parliament.

XIV. And be it enacted, That every such Order in Council as aforesaid shall, within Fourteen Days after the issuing thereof, be Twice published in the London Gazette, and that a Copy thereof shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the issuing the same, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, then within Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Penalties.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any Goods be imported, exported, or carried Coastwise contrary to this Act, all such Goods shall be forfeited, and the Master of the Ship in which the same are so imported, exported, or carried Coastwise shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, except where any other Penalty is hereby specially imposed.

Penalties, how to be recovered.

XVI. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under this Act shall be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, or shall be mitigated or restored, in like Manner and by the same Authority as any Penalty or Forfeiture can be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, or may be mitigated or restored, under an Act passed in the said Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Prevention of Smuggling; and that the Costs of all Proceedings under this Act shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Duties of Customs.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 87.

Registry.

Who may be Owners of British Vessels.

XVII. And be it enacted, That all natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty, and all Persons made Denizens by Letters of Denization, and all Persons naturalized by or under any Act of Parliament, or by or under any Act or Ordinance of the Legislature or proper legislative Authority of any of the British Possessions in Asia, Africa, or America, and all Persons authorized by or under any such Act or Ordinance to hold Shares in British Shipping, shall, on taking the Oath of Allegiance to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, be deemed to be duly qualified to be Owners or Part Owners of British-registered Vessels, anything in the said recited Act for the registering of British Shipping to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Form of Certificate of Registry.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the following Form of Certificate shall be substituted for the Form of Certificate prescribed by the said Act for the registering of British Shipping:

'THIS is to certify, That [here insert the Names, Occupations, and Residence of the subscribing Owners], having made and subscribed the Declaration required by Law, and having declared that [he or they], together with [Names, Occupations, and Residence of non-subscribing Owners], is [or are] sole Owner [or Owners] in the Proportions specified on the Back hereof of the Ship or Vessel called the [Ship's Name] of [Place to which the Vessel belongs], which is of the Burthen of [Number of Tons], and whereof [Master's Name] is Master, and that the said Ship or Vessel was [when and where built, or condemned as Prize, referring to Builder's Certificate, Judge's Certificate, or Certificate of last Registry, then delivered up to be cancelled, or (if the Vessel was Foreign built, and the Time and Place of building not known,) was Foreign, and that he or they did not know the Time or Place of building], and [Name and Employment of Surveying Officer] having certified to us that the said Ship or Vessel has [Number] Decks and [Number] Masts, that her Length from the inner Part of the Main Stem to the fore Part of the Sternpost aloft is [Feet Tenths], her Breadth in Midships is [Feet Tenths], her Depth in Hold at Midships is [Feet Tenths], that she is [how rigged] rigged with a [standing or running] Bowsprit, is [Description of Stern] sterned, [Carvel or Clincher] built, has [whether any or not] Gallery, and [Kind of Head, if any,] Head, that the Framework and planking [or plating] is [state whether of Wood or Iron] and that she is [state whether a Sailing Vessel or a Steamer, and if a Steamer, state whether propelled by Paddle Wheels or Screw Propellers]; and the said subscribing Owners having consented and agreed to the above Description, and having caused sufficient Security to be given as required by Law, the said Ship or Vessel called the [Name] has been duly registered at the Port of [Name of Port]. Registry.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the following Declaration shall be substituted for the Declaration by the said Act directed to be made by the Owner or Owners of any Vessel previous to the Registry thereof: Form of Declaration.

'I A.B. of [Place of Residence and Occupation] do truly declare, That the Ship or Vessel [Name] of [Port or Place], whereof [Master's Name] is at present Master, being [Kind of Build, Burthen, et cætera, as described in the Certificate of the Surveying Officer], was [when and where built, or, if Prize or forfeited, Capture, and Condemnation as such, or, (if the Vessel be Foreign built, and the Owner does not know when and where she was built,) that the said Vessel is Foreign built, and that I do not know the Time and Place of her building], and that I the said A.B. [and the other Owners Names and Occupations, if any, and where they respectively reside,] am [or are] sole Owner [or Owners] of the said Vessel, and that no other Person or Persons whatever hath or have any Right, Title, Interest, Share, or Property therein or thereto; and that I the said A.B. [and the said other Owners, if any,] am [or are] truly and bonâ fide a Subject [or Subjects] of Great Britain, and that I the said A.B. have not [nor have any of the other Owners, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief,] taken the Oath of Allegiance to any Foreign State whatever [except under the Terms of some Capitulation, describing the Particulars thereof], or that since my taking [or his or their taking] the Oath of Allegiance to [naming the Foreign States respectively to which he or any of the said Owners shall have taken the same] I have [or he or they hath or have] become a Denizen [or Denizens, or naturalized Subject or Subjects, as the Case may be,] of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by Her Majesty's Letters Patent [or by an Act of Parliament, or by or under or by virtue of an Act or Ordinance of the Legislature of or have been authorized by an Act or Ordinance of the Legislature of to hold Shares in British Shipping within the said Colony, and since the passing of such Act or Ordinance I have [or he or they hath or have] taken the Oath of Allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria] [naming the Times when such Letters of Denization have been granted respectively, or the Year or Years in which such Act or Acts of Naturalization, or such Colonial Acts or Ordinances, have passed respectively], and that no Foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any Share or Part Interest in the said Ship or Vessel:'

Provided always, that if it shall become necessary to register any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Corporate Body in the United Kingdom, the following Declaration, in lieu of the Declaration hereinbefore directed, shall be made and subscribed by the Secretary or other proper Officer of such Corporate Body; (that is to say,)

'I A.B., Secretary or Officer of [Name of Company or Corporation], do truly declare, That the Ship or Vessel [Name] of [Port] whereof [Master's Name] is at present Master, being [Kind of Build, Burthen, &c., as described in the Certificate of the Surveying Officer], was [when and where built, or, if Prize or forfeited, Capture and Condemnation as such], or [if the Vessel be Foreign built, and that such Secretary or Officer does not know when and where built,] that the said Vessel is Foreign built, and that I do not know the Time and Place of the building, and that the same doth wholly and truly belong to [name the Company or Corporation].'

Proviso for Vessels under Fifteen Tons Burthen in Inland Navigation, and for Vessels under Thirty Tons Burthen for the Newfoundland Fishery.

XX. And be it enacted, That notwithstanding that by the said recited Act for the registering of British Vessels it is enacted, that in case any Ship, not being duly registered, shall exercise any of the Privileges of a British Vessel, the same shall be forfeited, nevertheless all Boats or Vessels under Fifteen Tons Burthen, wholly owned and navigated by British Subjects, although not registered as British Ships, shall be admitted to be British Vessels in all Navigation in the Rivers and upon the Coasts of the United Kingdom or of the British Possessions abroad, and not proceeding over Sea, except within the Limits of the respective Colonial Governments within which the managing Owners of such Vessels respectively reside; and that all Boats or Vessels wholly owned and navigated by British Subjects, not exceeding the Burthen of Thirty Tons, and not having a whole or fixed Deck, and being employed solely in fishing on the Banks and Shores of Newfoundland and of the Parts adjacent, or on the Banks and Shores of the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, or New Brunswick adjacent to the Gulf of Saint Lawrence, or on the North of Cape Canso, or of the Islands within the same, or in trading Coastwise within the said Limits, shall be admitted to be British Boats or Vessels, although not registered, so long as such Boats or Vessels shall be solely so employed.

Commencement of Act.

XXI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall come into operation on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Act may be amended, &c.

XXII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for the better Preservation of Sheep, and more speedy Detection of Receivers of stolen Sheep, in Ireland. [26th June 1849.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make Provision for the more speedy Detection of the Receivers of stolen Sheep in Ireland:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any credible Witness shall prove on Oath before a Justice of the Peace for any County in Ireland that there is reasonable Cause to suspect that the Carcass of any Sheep or Lamb stolen from any Person, or any Mutton, Fat, Skin, or Fleece of such Sheep or Lamb, is concealed in any Dwelling House, Outhouse, Garden,

Power to Constables to search suspected Houses for Sheep, &c. supposed to have been stolen, and apprehend Parties, &c.

Garden, Yard, or other Place or Places, and if the Carcass of any Sheep or Lamb, or any Mutton, Mutton Fat, Skin, or Fleece, so suspected to have been stolen, shall, by virtue of any Search Warrant issued by such Justice, be found in the Possession of any Person with his Knowledge in or at such Dwelling House, Outhouse, Garden, Yard, or other Place or Places specified in such Warrant, or on any Premises specified in such Warrant, of any Person, with his Knowledge, it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices before whom such Person shall be brought (unless such Person shall satisfy such Justice or Justices that he came lawfully by the same) to commit such Person to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, in order that he may be brought forward for Trial at the next Court of Petty Sessions, unless he enter into such Bail, with One or more solvent or sufficient Securities, as may be required for his Appearance before such Court; and if such Person so apprehended, after Proof upon Oath of such finding of such Carcass, Mutton, Mutton Fat, Skin, or Fleece as aforesaid, shall not satisfy the Justices sitting at Petty Sessions that he came lawfully thereby, he shall be held guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall forfeit and pay any Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, which to such Justices shall seem fit, together with the Charges previous to and attending his Conviction, which such Justices are hereby authorized to award; and upon Nonpayment thereof, either immediately after the Conviction or within such Period as such Justices at the Time of such Conviction shall appoint, (which they are hereby empowered to appoint,) such Justices shall commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County in which such Offence shall have been committed, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, with or without hard Labour, as the said Justices may see fit, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless the Penalty and such Charges, if so awarded, shall be sooner paid; such pecuniary Penalty to be divided, by the Justices before whom such Conviction has been made, into equal Portions, one Portion to be given to the nearest Dispensary, and the other to be paid and applied according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session held in the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual levying of Fines, Penalties, Issues, Deodands, and Amerciaments, and of forfeited Recognizances estreated, in Ireland, and for the Application and Distribution thereof, or of any Act or Acts amending the said Act.

Penalty if Carcasses, &c. not proved to have been lawfully come by.

On Nonpayment of Penalty, Committal for Time therein specified.

Application of Penalty.

1 & 2 Vict. c. 99.

If Case fit for Indictment for Felony, Justice not to adjudicate in a summary Way.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Justices before whom such Person shall be so brought or shall so appear shall find the Evidence given against such Person before such Justices to be such that in the Opinion of such Justices the Case is one in which there ought to be a Prosecution by Indictment for Felony, it shall be lawful for such Justices to abstain from adjudicating in a summary Manner thereon, and to deal with the Case as one to be prosecuted at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions.

Parties punished under this Act exempt from further Proceedings.

III. And be it enacted, That in case any Person convicted under this Act shall have paid the Sum adjudged to be paid, together with Costs, if awarded under such Conviction, or shall have received a Remission thereof from the Crown, or shall have suffered the Imprisonment awarded for Nonpayment thereof, in every such Case he shall be released from all further or other Proceedings for the same Cause.

Limitation of Prosecutions.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence punishable on summary Conviction by virtue of this Act shall be commenced within Two Months after the Commitment of the Offence and not otherwise.

Interpretation of Terms.

V. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act every Word importing the Singular Number only shall extend and be applied to several Persons or Things as well as one Person or Thing; and every Word importing the Masculine Gender only shall extend and be applied to a Female as well as a Male; and the Word "County" shall extend to and include County of a City, County of a Town or City, or Town and County.

Act may be amended, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for requiring the Transmission of the annual Abstracts and Statements of Trustees of Turnpike Roads and Bridges in Scotland to the Secretary of State to be laid before Parliament. [26th June 1849.]

1 & 2 W. 4. c. 43.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for amending and making more effectual the Laws concerning Turnpike Roads in Scotland, by which it was enacted, that the Trustees of every Turnpike Road should and they were thereby required, either by themselves or some Committee of their Number, annually to examine the Vouchers and audit and settle the Accounts of the respective Clerks and Treasurers appointed by them, and to examine into the State of the Revenues and Debts, distinguishing bonded from floating Debts, of the several Roads for which they should act as Trustees, and to make up Abstracts of such Accounts, which Abstracts should contain a Statement of the Revenues and Debts of the Trust, and also an Account of all Bonds given by the Trustees, and the Dates thereof, and which said Abstracts of Accounts and Statements should be signed by not less than Three of the Trustees; and it is expedient that such annual Accounts and Statements, and also similar annual Accounts and Statements of Bridge Trusts, should be transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Purpose of being revised and afterwards laid before both Houses of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several and respective Clerks to such Trustees,

Trustees, by whom or by whose Committees such Abstracts of Accounts and Statements of Revenues and Debts of the respective Turnpike Trusts under the Charge of such Trustees are directed to be made and signed as aforesaid, and also the several and respective Clerks to the Trustees acting under any Act or Acts of Parliament for building or maintaining any Bridge in Scotland, shall, on or before the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, transmit to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State Abstracts and Statements made up and signed as in the said recited Act prescribed and according to the Form contained in the Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act, or as nearly in the said Form as Circumstances will permit, for the Period of a Year preceding the Term of Whitsunday One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and shall in like Manner upon the First Day of October in all future Years transmit to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State the like Abstracts and Statements made up and signed in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, and in the Form of the said Schedule (A.), or as nearly in the said Form as Circumstances will permit, for the Year ending at the preceding Term of Whitsunday; and if any Clerk to such Trustees shall refuse or neglect to transmit such annual Abstracts and Statements within the Time herein-before prescribed, then and in every such Case every Clerk so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, at the Discretion of the Sheriff of the County within which the larger Proportion of the Turnpike Roads comprehended within such Turnpike Trust are situated or within which such Clerk resides.

Clerks of Road Trusts, &c. to transmit to Secretary of State Abstracts of Accounts and Statements of Revenues and Debts.

II. And be it enacted, That the Secretary of State to whom such annual Abstracts and Statements shall be transmitted shall cause the same to be revised, abstracted, and arranged, and laid before both Houses of Parliament, together with any Observations which he may think proper to make respecting the State, Condition, and Repair of the Roads and Bridges or any of them, or respecting the Debts, Revenues, Expenditure, and Management of any such Turnpike and Bridge Trusts.

Secretary of State to cause Abstracts to be laid before Parliament.

III. And be it enacted, That when and as often as the Trustees of any Turnpike Road or Bridge shall have entered into a Resolution to apply to Parliament for any new Turnpike Road or Bridge Act, or for the Continuation of the Term and Powers of the Act under which any Turnpike Road or Bridge is regulated, or for the Alteration or Enlargement of the Powers and Provisions of such Act, or any of them, or for an Alteration of the Tolls or Pontages to be levied on such Turnpike Road or Bridge, the Clerk of such Trustees shall immediately thereupon transmit a Copy of such Resolution to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, together with a Copy of any special Clauses proposed to be inserted in the intended Act, and also a Statement of the Alteration of Tolls or Pontages intended to be made.

If Road Acts proposed to be amended Clerk to transmit Resolution and Particulars to Secretary of State.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Penalties hereby imposed shall be recovered and applied in such and the like Manner as the Penalties imposed by the said recited Act are directed to be recovered and applied.

Penalties how recovered, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act to continue to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one certain temporary Provisions relating to the Collection of Grand Jury Cess in Ireland. [26th June 1849.]

11 & 12 Vict. c. 26. s. 4.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to remove Difficulties in the Appointment of Collectors of Grand Jury Cess in Ireland in certain Cases, and to remove Doubts as to the Jurisdiction of the Divisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis relating to the Recovery of Poor Rates, and other Cases, it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury at any Assizes in Ireland held after the passing of the said Act, and before the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, if they shall think fit, in Cases where Difficulties shall occur in the Collection of the public Monies as therein mentioned, to present, without previous Application to Presentment Sessions, a Sum not exceeding One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of the Collection of such Monies from such Barony or Baronies where such Difficulties shall occur, to be paid to any High Constable or Collector for his Trouble in collecting the same: And whereas it is expedient that the said Provision should be further continued:'

Provision of recited Act enabling Grand Juries to present increased Poundage where Difficulties occur in the Collection of public Monies, further continued.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Provision of the said recited Act shall be continued and be in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 32.

II. 'And whereas by another Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to facilitate the Collection of County Cess in Ireland, it is amongst other things provided, that in case it should appear to the Grand Jury of any County assembled at the Summer Assizes of that present Year, or to the Magistrates assembled at a Special Sessions of the Peace, as therein-after directed, that a Collector could not be procured to collect Grand Jury Cess for an entire Barony, then it might be lawful for such Grand Jury, or for the Magistrates at such Special Sessions, to appoint duly qualified Persons for such convenient Districts as to them might seem fit, provided that such Districts together comprise the whole Barony; and further Provision is thereby made relating to the Collectors of such Cess, and the Payment of the same: And whereas all the said Provisions being temporary it is expedient to continue the same for a limited Time:' Be it therefore enacted, That the last-recited Act shall be extended and continued to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and that the Provisions of the said Act, and the respective Powers and Authorities by the said Act given to Grand Juries at the Assizes, and to Magistrates at any Sessions, shall be respectively applied and extended to Grand Juries at any Assizes and to Magistrates at any Sessions respectively, as the Case may be, within the Period for which the said Act is hereby extended and continued.

Provisions of recited Act continued to the End of the Year 1851.

Act may be amended, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act for regulating the Carriage of Passengers in Merchant Vessels. [13th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate, and for that Purpose to repeal, the existing Laws relating to the Carriage of Passengers by Sea, and in certain respects to make other Provisions in lieu thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Carriage of

of Passengers in Merchant Vessels, also an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to exempt Ships carrying Passengers to North America from the Obligation of having on board a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, also an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Passengers Act, and to make further Provision for the Carriage of Passengers by Sea, and also an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to make further Provision for One Year and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, for the Carriage of Passengers by Sea to North America, shall from and after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine be severally repealed, and that from that Date this Act shall take effect and have the Force of Law: Provided nevertheless, that all Acts and Provisions repealed by the said recited Acts or any of them shall remain repealed; and provided also, that any Fine, Forfeiture, or Penalty to which any Person may have become liable under the said recited Acts or any of them shall and may be sued for and recovered, and that any Right of Action which may have accrued to any Person by virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them, and that any Bond which may have been given thereunder to Her Majesty, shall and may be enforced hereafter in such and the same Manner in all respects as if this present Act had not been passed; provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall be held to invalidate any Order in Council which may have been made by Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance of the Powers given by the said last-recited Act, but the same shall remain in force until altered or revoked by any Order in Council made under the Provisions of this Act.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 107.; 8 & 9 Vict. c. 14.; 10 & 11 Vict. c. 103.; 11 & 12 Vict. c. 6.

Commencement of Act.

Saving of existing Liabilities;

and Orders in Council.

II. And be it enacted, That in other Acts of Parliament, and in all legal or other Proceedings, it shall be sufficient to cite this Act by the Title of the "Passengers Act, 1849."

Short Title of Act.

III. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act, the following Terms, whenever they occur, shall respectively have the following Significations; (that is to say,) the Term "United Kingdom" shall signify Great Britain and Ireland, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, Scilly, and Man, the Term "North America" shall signify and include the Bermudas, and all Ports and Places on the Eastern Coast of the Continent of North America, or in the Islands adjacent or near thereto, or in the Gulf of Mexico; the Term "West Indies" shall signify the West India Islands, the Bahamas, British Guiana, and Honduras; the Term "Governor" shall signify the Person who for the Time being shall be lawfully administering the Government of any British Colony in which he may be acting; the Term "Ship" shall signify any Description of Sea-going Vessel, whether British or Foreign; the Term "Passenger Ship" shall signify every Description of such Ship carrying upon any Voyage to which the Provisions of this Act shall extend a greater Number of Passengers than in the Proportion of One Passenger to every Twenty-five Tons of the registered Tonnage of such Ship; the Terms "Passage" and "Passenger" shall include all Passages and Passengers, except the Class of Passages and Passengers, commonly described as Cabin Passages and Cabin Passengers; and the Term "Master" shall signify the Person who for the Time being shall be in Charge or Command of any such Ship or "Passenger Ship;" and that, unless there be something in the Subject Matter or Context repugnant thereto, every Word importing the Singular Number or the Masculine Gender only shall include several Persons, Matters, or Things, as well as one Person, Matter, or Thing, and Females as well as Males respectively; and that every Word importing the Plural Number shall include one Person or Thing as well as several Persons or Things.

Definition of Terms:
"United Kingdom;"
"North America;"
"West Indies;"
"Governor;"
"Ship;"
"Passenger Ship;"
"Passage" and "Passenger;"
"Master;"
Number and Gender.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend to every "Passenger Ship" proceeding on any Voyage from the United Kingdom to any Place out of Europe, and not being within the Mediterranean Sea, and on every Colonial Voyage as herein-after described, but shall not extend to any of Her Majesty's Ships of War, nor to any Ships in the Service of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, nor to any Ship of War or Transport in the Service of the East India Company, nor to any Steam Vessel carrying the Royal Mails or carrying Mails under Contract with the Government of the Country to which such Steam Vessel may belong.

To what Vessels and Voyages this Act shall extend.

V. 'And whereas by a Warrant under Her Majesty's Sign Manual, bearing Date on the Twenty-seventh 'Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, Her Majesty was pleased to appoint cer-'tain Persons therein named to be, during Her Majesty's Pleasure, Commissioners in the United Kingdom 'for the Sale of the Waste Lands of the Crown in Her Majesty's Colonies, and for superintending the 'Emigration of the poorer Classes of Her Majesty's Subjects to such Colonies: And whereas it is ex-'pedient that such Commissioners should be empowered to carry this Act into execution:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Commissioners, and their Successors for the Time being, shall and they are hereby empowered to carry this Act into execution; and that for all legal Purposes it shall be sufficient to describe such Commissioners by the Style of the "Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners."

Commissioners of Emigration to carry this Act into execution.

VI. And be it enacted, That in the United Kingdom the said Commissioners acting under the Sanction of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad the respective Governors thereof, may from Time to Time appoint, and that the said Commissioners and Governors may at pleasure from Time to Time remove, such Emigration Officers and Assistant Emigration Officers as they may respectively think necessary, for the Purpose of carrying this Act into execution, under the Directions of the said Commissioners or Governors, as the Case may be: Provided nevertheless, that all existing Appointments of Emigration Officers and of their Assistants, as well in the United Kingdom as in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, shall continue in force under this Act until duly revoked.

Emigration Officers and Assistants to act under the Commissioners, &c.

Existing Appointments to continue in force until duly revoked.

VII. And

Duties of Emigration Officer may be performed by his Assistant, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That all Powers, Functions, and Duties to be exercised or performed by any such Emigration Officer shall in his Absence be exercised and performed respectively by his Assistant, or, at any Port where there shall be no such Emigration Officer or Assistant, by the Chief Officer of Customs for the Time being at such Port.

Facilities to be given to the proper Officers for the Inspection of all Ships fitting for Passengers.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Master of every Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, fitting or intended for the Carriage of Passengers, or which shall carry Passengers upon any Voyage to which this Act extends, shall afford to such Emigration Officer as aforesaid at any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Dominions, and, in the Case of British Ships, to Her Majesty's Consul at any Foreign Port or Place at which such Ship shall be or arrive, every Facility for inspecting such Ship, and for communicating with the Passengers, and for ascertaining that the Provisions of this Act, so far as the same may be applicable to such Ships, have been duly complied with.

No "Passenger Ship" to be cleared out without Certificate from Emigration Officer.

IX. And be it enacted, That no "Passenger Ship" shall be allowed to clear out or proceed on any Voyage to which this Act extends until the Master thereof shall have obtained from the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance a Certificate under his Hand that all the Requirements of this Act, so far as the same can be complied with before the Departure of such "Passenger Ship" have been duly complied with.

Number of Passengers to be limited both by Tonnage and Space.

X. And be it enacted, That no Ship shall be allowed to clear out or shall proceed on her Voyage with a greater Number of Persons on board (including the Master and Crew, and Cabin Passengers, if any,) than in the Proportion of One Person to every Two Tons of the registered Tonnage of such Ship, nor, whatever may be the registered Tonnage of such Ship, with a greater Number of Passengers on board, exclusive of bonâ fide Cabin Passengers, than in the following Proportions to the Space occupied by such Passengers and appropriated for their Use, and unoccupied by Stores, not being their personal Luggage; (that is to say,) on the Main Deck, and on the Deck immediately below the same, or in any Compartment of either, appropriated as aforesaid, One Passenger for every Twelve such clear Superficial Feet; or if such Ship is destined to pass within the Tropics, and the Duration of the intended Voyage, computed as herein-after mentioned, exceeds Twelve Weeks, One Passenger for every Fifteen such clear Superficial Feet: Provided always, that no Passenger shall in any Case be carried on an Orlop Deck; and if there shall be on board of any Ship at or after the Time of Clearance a greater Number either of Persons or of Passengers than in the Proportions respectively herein-before mentioned, the Master of such Ship shall be liable, on such Conviction as herein-after is mentioned, to the Payment of a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Two Pounds Sterling for each Person or Passenger constituting any such Excess.

Penalty for Excess of Persons on board.

Computation of Children.

XI. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act Two Children, each being under the Age of Fourteen Years, shall be computed either as One Person or as One Passenger, as the Case may require, except in the Case herein-after mentioned, but that Children under the Age of One Year shall not be included in such Computation.

Two Lists of Passengers to be made out in the Form in Schedule (A.), and delivered in every Case before Clearance.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Master of every Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, carrying Passengers on any Voyage to which this Act extends, shall, before demanding a Clearance for such Ship, sign Two Lists, made out according to the Form contained in Schedule (A.) hereto annexed, setting forth in the Manner therein directed the Name and other Particulars of the Ship, and of every Passenger on board thereof; and the said Lists, when signed, shall be delivered to the Officer of the Customs from whom a Clearance of the said Ship shall be demanded, and such Officer shall thereupon countersign and return to the said Master One of such Lists, herein-after called "The Master's List;" and the said Master shall exhibit such last-mentioned List, with any Additions which may from Time to Time be made thereto, as herein-after directed, to the Chief Officer of Her Majesty's Customs at any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Possessions, or to Her Majesty's Consul at any Foreign Port at which the said Passengers or any of them shall be landed, and shall deposit the same with such Chief Officer of Customs, or such Consul, as the Case may be, at the final Port or Place of Discharge.

Lists of additional Passengers taken on board after Clearance to be made out, and signed by Master.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if at any Time after such Lists shall have been signed and delivered as aforesaid there shall be taken on board any additional Passenger, in every such Case the Master shall, according to the Form aforesaid, add to "The Master's List" the Names and other Particulars of every such additional Passenger, and shall also sign a separate List, made out according to the Form aforesaid, containing the Names and other Particulars of every such additional Passenger; and such last-mentioned List, when signed, shall, together with "The Master's List" to which such Addition shall have been made, be delivered to the Chief Officer of Customs as aforesaid, and thereupon such Officer shall countersign "The Master's List," and shall return the same to the said Master, and shall retain the separate List; and so on in like Manner whenever any additional Passenger or Passengers may be taken on board; or if no Officer of Customs shall be stationed at the Port or Place where such additional Passenger or Passengers may be taken on board, the said Lists shall be delivered to the Officer of Customs at the next Port or Place at which such Vessel shall touch or arrive and where any such Officer shall be stationed, to be dealt with as herein-before mentioned.

All Passenger Ships to be surveyed.

XIV. And be it enacted, That no "Passenger Ship" shall be allowed to clear out or proceed on her Voyage unless she shall have been surveyed, under the Direction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, but at the Expense of the Owner or Charterer thereof, by One or more competent Surveyors, to be duly authorized and approved of by the said Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners for each Port at which there may be an Emigration Officer, and for other Ports by the Commissioners of Customs, nor unless it shall be reported by the same, or by some other Surveyor to be appointed as aforesaid, that such such "Passenger Ship" is in their Opinion seaworthy, and fit in all respects for her intended Voyage: Provided always, that the Precautions for ascertaining the Seaworthiness of Ships and their Fitness for their intended Voyages respectively shall be the same for Foreign as for British Ships.

Construction of Decks and Berths in "Passenger Ships."

XV. And be it enacted, That in every "Passenger Ship" every Deck on which Passengers may be carried shall be at least One Inch and a Half in Thickness, and shall be supported by Beams of adequate Strength, forming Part of the permanent Structure of the Ship, and firmly secured with hanging and lodging Knees, and shall be properly laid upon such Beams, or substantially secured thereto, at least Three Inches clear above the Bottom thereof, to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and that between every such Deck and the Deck immediately above it there shall be a Height of at least Six Feet; and further that there shall not be more than Two Tiers of Berths on any One Deck in any such "Passenger Ship," and that the Interval between the Floor of the Berths and the Deck or Platform immediately beneath them shall not be less than Six Inches, and that the Berths shall be securely constructed, and of Dimensions not less than after the Rate of Six Feet in Length and Eighteen Inches in Width for each Passenger; and that Persons of different Sexes above the Age of Fourteen, unless Husband and Wife, shall not be placed in the same Berth; and that no Berths occupied by Passengers during the Voyage shall be taken down until Forty-eight Hours after the Arrival of such Ship at the Port of final Discharge, unless all the Passengers shall have voluntarily quitted the Ship before the Expiration of that Time.

Height between Decks.

Arrangement of Berths.

Berths not to be removed till Passengers landed.

Light and Ventilation.

XVI. And be it enacted, That, for the Purpose of ensuring a proper Supply of Light and Air in every "Passenger Ship," the Passengers shall at all Times during the Voyage (Weather permitting) have free Access to and from the Between Decks by the whole of each Hatchway situate over the Space appropriated to the Use of such Passengers: Provided always, that if the Main Hatchway be not one of the Hatchways appropriated to the Use of the Passengers, or if the natural Supply of Light and Air through the same be in any Manner unduly impeded, it shall be lawful for the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance to direct such other Provision to be made for affording Light and Air to the Between Decks as the Circumstances of the Case may, in the Judgment of such Officer, appear to require; and in case of Noncompliance with any such Directions the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship shall be liable, on such Conviction as herein-after is mentioned, to the Payment of a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds Sterling: Provided also, that no "Passenger Ship" having on board as many as One hundred Passengers shall clear out or proceed on her Voyage without having on board an adequate and proper ventilating Apparatus, to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and fitted to his Satisfaction.

Penalty on Owner for Non compliance with Directions of Emigration Officer as to Light, &c.

Passenger Ships shall carry Boats.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every "Passenger Ship" shall carry a Number of Boats according to the following Scale; (that is to say,)

Two Boats for every Ship of One hundred Tons and upwards:

Three Boats for every Ship of Two hundred Tons and upwards, in case the Number of Passengers shall exceed Fifty:

Four Boats for every Ship of Five hundred Tons and upwards, in case the Number of Passengers shall exceed Two hundred:

Life Boat.

Life Buoys.

Provided always, that One of such Boats shall in all Cases be a Long Boat, and One shall be a properly fitted Life Boat, and that each of such Boats shall be of a suitable Size, to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and shall be seaworthy, and properly supplied with all Requisites for Use; provided also, that there shall likewise be on board Two properly fitted Life Buoys, kept ready at all Times for immediate Use.

"Passenger Ship" to be properly manned.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That no "Passenger Ship" shall be cleared out or proceed to Sea until it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Officer from whom a Clearance of such Ship may be demanded that she is manned with a proper Complement of Seamen for the intended Voyage.

Certain Articles prohibited as Cargo.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed on her Voyage if there shall be on board as Cargo any Gunpowder, Vitriol, Guano, green Hides, or any other Article likely to endanger the Safety of the Ship or the Health or Lives of the Passengers, or if any Part of the Cargo shall be on Deck.

Computation of Voyages.

XX. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the following shall be the Number of Weeks deemed to be necessary for the Voyage of any Ship carrying Passengers from the United Kingdom to the under-mentioned Places respectively; (that is to say,)

To North America, except the West Coast thereof, Ten Weeks:

To the West Indies, Ten Weeks:

To any Part of the East Coast of the Continent of Central or South America Northward of the Twenty-fifth Degree of South Latitude, except British Guiana, Twelve Weeks:

To the West Coast of Africa, Twelve Weeks:

To the Cape of Good Hope or the Falkland Islands, or to any Part of the East Coast of South America Southward of the Twenty-fifth Degree of South Latitude, Fifteen Weeks:

To the Mauritius and to the Western Coast of America South of the Equator, Eighteen Weeks:

To Ceylon, Twenty Weeks:

To Western Australia Twenty Weeks:

To any other of the Australian Colonies, Twenty-two Weeks:

To New Zealand and to the Western Coast of America North of the Equator, Twenty-four Weeks:

Provided

Provided nevertheless, that for the like Purposes it shall be lawful for the said Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, acting by and under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time, by any Notice in Writing issued under the Hands of any Two of such Commissioners, and published in the London Gazette, to declare what shall be deemed to be the Length of Voyage from the United Kingdom to any of the said herein-before mentioned Places, or to any other Port or Place whatsoever, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provisions, &c. to be provided by Owners, &c. and approved by Emigration Officers.

XXI. And be it enacted, That no "Passenger Ship" shall be allowed to clear out or to proceed on her Voyage until there shall be supplied, by and at the Expense of the Owner or Charterer thereof, and properly stowed away on board under Hatches for the Use of the Passengers during the Voyage, pure Water, and wholesome Provisions in a sweet and good Condition, of a Quality to be approved by the Emigration Officer, and in Quantities sufficient to afford the Allowances to each Passenger as hereafter prescribed; and if any Person shall fraudulently obtain a Clearance for any "Passenger Ship" which shall not be then stored with the requisite Quantities of such Water and Provisions as aforesaid, he shall be liable, on such Conviction as herein-after is mentioned, to the Payment of a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Fifty Pounds Sterling.

Penalty on obtaining fraudulent Clearance.

Water Tanks or Casks.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in every "Passenger Ship" the Water to be laden on board, as herein-before required, shall be carried in Tanks or Casks to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance: Provided always, that all such Casks shall be sweet and tight, of sufficient Strength, and properly charred inside, and shall not be made of Fir or soft Wood Staves, nor be capable severally of containing more than Three hundred Gallons each.

Provisions and Water to be surveyed before clearing out.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That before any "Passenger Ship" shall be cleared out the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance shall survey or caused to be surveyed by some competent Person the Provisions and Water herein-before required to be placed on board for the Consumption of the Passengers, and shall ascertain that the same are of good Quality and in a sweet and good Condition, and shall also ascertain that over and above the same there is on board an ample Supply of Water and Stores for the Victualling of the Crew of the Ship and all other Persons, if any, on board: Provided nevertheless, that if any "Passenger Ship" shall be destined to call at any intermediate Port or Place during the Voyage for the Purpose of taking in Water, and if an Engagement to that Effect shall be inserted in the Bond herein-after mentioned, then it shall be sufficient to place on board at the Port of Clearance such Supply of Water as may be requisite, according to the Rate herein-after mentioned, for the Voyage of the said Ship to such intermediate Port or Place, subject to the following Conditions; (that is to say,)

Proviso for touching at intermediate Ports to fill up Water.

First, That the Emigration Officer signify his Approval in Writing of the Arrangement, to be carried amongst the Papers of the Ship, and exhibited to the Chief Officer of Customs, or to Her Majesty's Consul, as the Case may be, at such intermediate Port or Place, and to be delivered to the Chief Officer of Customs, or to Her Majesty's Consul, as the Case may be, on the Arrival of the said Ship at the final Port or Place of Discharge:

Secondly, That if the Length of either Portion of the Voyage, whether to such intermediate Port or Place or from such intermediate Port or Place to the final Port or Place of Discharge, be not prescribed in or under the Provisions of this Act, the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance shall in every such Case declare the same:

Thirdly, That the Ship shall have on board at the Time a Clearance is demanded Tanks or Water Casks of the Description herein-before mentioned, sufficient for stowing the Quantity of Water required for the longest of such Portions of the Voyage as aforesaid.

Dietary Scale for the Voyage.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in addition to and irrespective of any Provisions of their own which any Passengers may have on board, the Master of every "Passenger Ship" shall make to each Passenger during the Voyage, including the Time of Detention, if any, at any Port or Place before the Termination of such Voyage, the following Issues of pure Water and sweet and wholesome Provisions; (that is to say,) of Water at least Three Quarts daily, and of Provisions after the Rate per Week of Two and a Half Pounds of Bread or Biscuit, not inferior in Quality to what is usually called Navy Biscuit, One Pound of Wheaten Flour, Five Pounds of Oatmeal, Two Pounds of Rice, Two Ounces of Tea, Half a Pound of Sugar, and Half a Pound of Molasses: Provided always, that such Issues of Provisions shall be made in advance, and not less often than twice a Week, the first of such Issues to be made on the Day of Embarkation: Provided also, that Potatoes, when good and sound, may be substituted for either the Oatmeal or Rice, in the Proportion of Five Pounds of Potatoes to One Pound of Oatmeal or Rice; and that in Ships clearing out from the Port of Liverpool or from Irish or Scotch Ports, Oatmeal may be substituted in equal Quantities for the whole or any Part of the Issues of Rice.

Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners empowered to substitute other Articles of Food for those before mentioned.

XXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners for the Time being, acting under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time, by any Notice for that Purpose, issued under the Hands of any Two of such Commissioners, and published in the "London Gazette," to substitute for any of the Articles of Food herein-before mentioned any other Articles of Food, as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet, and any such Notice from Time to Time to alter, amend, or revoke, as Occasion may require: Provided always, that all the Requirements and Provisions in this Act contained respecting the Articles of Food herein-before mentioned shall extend and are hereby extended to the Case of such substituted Articles.

Cook and cooking Apparatus to be approved

XXVI. And be it enacted, That no "Passenger Ship" carrying as many as One hundred Passengers shall clear out or proceed on her Voyage unless there shall be on board a seafaring Person who shall be rated in the Ship's Articles as Passenger's Cook, to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of of Clearance, and engaged for the Purpose of cooking the Food of the Passengers, nor unless a convenient Place for that Purpose shall have been set apart on Deck, and a sufficient cooking Apparatus, properly covered in and arranged, shall have been provided to the Satisfaction of the said Emigration Officer, together with a proper Supply of Fuel adequate in his Opinion for the intended Voyage. by Emigration Officer.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any "Passenger Ship" having on board as many as Fifty Persons, if the Length of the intended Voyage, computed as herein-before mentioned, shall exceed Twelve Weeks, nor, whatever may be the computed Duration of the Voyage, for any "Passenger Ship," having on board as many as One hundred Persons, except she be bound to North America, (including in both Cases the Master and Crew, and Cabin Passengers, if any,) to clear out or proceed on her Voyage, unless there shall be on board, and rated on the Ship's Articles, some Person duly authorized by Law to practise in the United Kingdom as Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and whose Name shall have been notified to the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and not objected to by him; and further, that no "Passenger Ship" bound to North America having on board as many as One hundred Persons, exclusive of the Master and Crew, and Cabin Passengers, if any, shall clear out or proceed on her Voyage without having on board, and rated on the Ship's Articles, such duly authorized Medical Practitioner, whose Name shall have been notified to the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and not objected to by him: Provided nevertheless, that if in any Ship bound to North America there be appropriated on every Deck on which Passengers may lawfully be carried, instead of Twelve clear Superficial Feet as herein-before required, Fourteen clear Superficial Feet unoccupied by Stores not being the personal Luggage of the Passengers, for each Passenger on board, counting for this Purpose each Child above the Age of One Year as One Passenger, then and in such Case, but not otherwise, it shall be lawful for such Ship to clear out and proceed to Sea without having on board a Medical Practitioner as aforesaid.

No Ship carrying a certain Number of Passengers to proceed on her Voyage without having a Medical Practitioner on board.

Proviso in case of Ships bound to North America.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in every "Passenger Ship" there shall be furnished and laden on board, at the Expense of the Owner or Charterer thereof, a Medicine Chest containing a Supply of Medicines, Instruments, and other Things proper and necessary for Diseases and Accidents incident to Sea Voyages, and for the Medical Treatment of the Passengers during the Voyage, including an adequate Supply of disinfecting Fluid or Agent, together with printed or written Directions for the Use of the same respectively; and that such Medicines and other Things shall be good in Quality, and, in the Judgment of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, sufficient in Quantity for the probable Exigencies of the intended Voyage, and shall be placed under the Charge of the Surgeon, when there is one on board, to be used at his Discretion.

As to Supply of Medicines.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That, except as herein-after provided, no "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed on her Voyage until some Medical Practitioner, to be appointed by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, shall have inspected the Medicine Chest of the said Ship, and also all the Passengers about to proceed in her, and shall certify to the said Emigration Officer that the said Ship contains a sufficient Supply of Medicines, disinfecting Fluid or Agent, Instruments, and other Things requisite for the Medical Treatment of the Passengers during the intended Voyage, and that none of the Passengers appear to such Medical Practitioner likely, by reason of being affected by any infectious or other Disease, to endanger the Health of the other Persons about to proceed in such Vessel: Provided always, that such Medical Inspection of the Passengers shall take place either on board the Vessel, or, at the Discretion of the said Emigration Officer, at such convenient Place on shore before Embarkation as he may appoint; and that the Master, Owner, or Charterer of the Ship shall pay to such Emigration Officer, on account of such Medical Examination, a Sum at the Rate of Twenty Shillings for every Hundred Persons examined: Provided also, that in case on any particular Occasion the Emigration Officer shall be unable to obtain the Attendance of such Medical Practitioner, it shall be lawful for the Master of any such Ship to clear out and proceed on her Voyage, on receiving from the said Emigration Officer written Permission for the Purpose.

Medical Inspection of Passengers and Medicines.

Proviso where no Medical Practitioner can be obtained.

XXX. And be it enacted, That in case any such Medical Practitioner shall notify to the Emigration Officer at the original Port of Clearance, or at any other Port or Place in the United Kingdom into which the Vessel may subsequently put, or in case the said Emigration Officer shall be otherwise satisfied, that any Person about to proceed in any such "Passenger Ship" as aforesaid is likely, by reason of being affected by any infectious or other Disease, to endanger the Health of the other Persons on board, it shall be lawful for such Officer to reland or cause to be relanded any such Person, and such Members of his Family, if any, as may be dependent on him, or as may be unwilling to be separated from him, together with their Clothes and Effects; and no "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed on her Voyage so long as any such diseased Person shall be on board.

Diseased Passengers may be relanded.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That any Person being a Passenger who shall be so relanded as aforesaid, or any Emigration Officer on his Behalf, shall be entitled to recover, by summary Process, in manner herein-after provided, the whole of the Monies which have been paid by such Person or on his Account for his Passage in such "Passenger Ship," from the Party to whom the same may have been paid, or from the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship.

Passengers so relanded may recover Passage Money.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Passenger or Person acting on his Behalf, shall have contracted with the Owner, Charterer, or Master of any Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, or with any Person acting on behalf of such Owner, Charterer, or Master, for a Passage for such Passenger, or for him and his Family in any Ship proceeding on any Voyage to which this Act extends, and such Passenger, or such Passenger and his Family, (as the Case may be,) shall be at the Place of Embarkation at the Time appointed for that Purpose in and by such Contract, and such Passenger shall Return of Passage Money and Compensation to Passengers where Passages not provided for them according to Contract.

shall apply for such Passage, and shall, on Demand, pay or tender such Part of the Passage Money not already paid as shall be payable under such Contract previously to Embarkation, and if, owing to the previous Departure of the Ship in which such Passage shall have been engaged, or to the Want of Room therein, or to the Neglect, Refusal, or other Default of the Owner, Charterer, or Master thereof, or of the Party with whom such Passage shall have been contracted for, such Passenger shall not obtain a Passage in such Ship, or shall not, together with all the immediate Members of his Family who may have contracted for a Passage as aforesaid, obtain, within Forty-eight Hours from the Expiration of the Day named in such Contract, a Passage in some other equally eligible Ship to the same Port, and in the meantime be paid Subsistence Money, at the Rate herein-after mentioned, such Passenger shall be entitled to recover, in manner herein-after provided, all Monies which shall have been paid by or on his Account for such Passage, from the Party to whom the same may have been paid, or from the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, and also such further Sum, not exceeding Ten Pounds in respect of each such Passage, as shall, in the Opinion of the Justices of the Peace who shall adjudicate on the Complaint, be a reasonable Compensation for the Loss or Inconvenience occasioned to such Passenger or his Family by the Loss of such Passage.

Subsistence in case of Detention.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship," or otherwise, shall not actually put to Sea and proceed on her intended Voyage on the Day appointed for sailing in and by any Contract made by the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or by his or their Agent, with any Passenger who shall on that Day be on board the same, or ready to go on board and proceed on such intended Voyage, then and in every such Case the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or his or their Agent, shall pay to every such Passenger, or if such Passenger shall be lodged and maintained in any Establishment under the Superintendence of the said Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, then to the Emigration Officer at the Port of Embarkation, Subsistence Money after the Rate of One Shilling for each Passenger in respect of each Day of Delay, until the actual clearing out and final Departure of such Ship on such Voyage, and the same may be recovered in manner herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that if any such Ship be unavoidably detained, either by Wind or Weather, and the Passengers be maintained on board in the same Manner as if the Voyage had commenced, no such Subsistence Money shall be payable.

In case of Wreck, &c., Passengers to be provided with a Passage by some other Vessel;

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That in case any "Passenger Ship" shall be wrecked or otherwise destroyed, or shall by any other Cause whatsoever be prevented from landing her Passengers at the Place they may have respectively contracted to land, or in case such Ship shall put into any Port or Place in a damaged State, and shall not, within a reasonable Time, according to the Circumstances of each Case, but not exceeding Six Weeks in any Case, be ready to proceed with her Passengers on her intended Voyage, after having been first efficiently repaired, and in all respects put into a sound and seaworthy Condition, then and in any of such Cases such Passengers respectively shall be provided with a Passage by some other equally eligible Vessel to the Port or Place at which they respectively may have originally contracted to land; and in default thereof such Passengers respectively, or any Emigration Officer on their Behalf, shall be entitled to recover, by summary Process, as herein-after mentioned, all Monies which shall have been paid by or on account of such Passengers or any of them for such Passage, from the Party to whom the same may have been paid, or from the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, and also such further Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds in respect of each such Passage, as shall in the Opinion of the Justices of the Peace who shall adjudicate on the Complaint be a reasonable Compensation for any Loss or Inconvenience occasioned to any such Passenger, or his or her Family, by reason of the Loss of such Passage: Provided always, that no Policy of Assurance effected in respect of such Passages, or of such Passage and Compensation Monies, by any Person hereby made liable in the Events aforesaid to provide such Passages, or to pay such Monies, shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of the Nature of the Risk or Interest sought to be covered by such Policy of Assurance.

in default, Passengers may recover Compensation by summary Process.

Wrongfully landing Passengers.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the Master of any Ship, whether "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, shall not land or cause to be landed any Passenger, without his previous Consent, at any Port or Place other than the Port or Place at which such Passenger may have contracted to land.

Passengers to be maintained for 48 Hours after Arrival.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That every Passenger in a "Passenger Ship" arriving at the End of his Voyage shall be entitled for at least Forty-eight Hours next after his Arrival to sleep in such Ship, and to be provided for and maintained on board thereof, in the same Manner as during the Voyage, unless in the further Prosecution of her Voyage such Ship shall quit the Port or Place within the above-mentioned Period.

Passengers Right of Action preserved.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall take away or abridge any Right of Suit or Action which may accrue to any Passenger in any Ship, or to any other Person, in respect of the Breach or Nonperformance of any Contract made or entered into between or on behalf of any such Passenger or other Person, and the Master, Charterer, or Owner of any such Ship, or his or their Agent, or any Passage Broker or Passage Dealer.

Ships putting back to replenish Provisions, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any "Passenger Ship" shall, after having obtained her Clearance, be detained in Port for more than Seven Days, or, shall, after having been to Sea, put into or touch at any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, it shall not be lawful for any such "Passenger Ship" to proceed on her Voyage until there shall have been laden on board, at the Expense of the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, such further Supply of pure Water, wholesome Provisions of the requisite Kinds and Qualities, and Medical Stores, as may be necessary to make up the full Quantities of those Articles herein-before required for the Use of the Passengers during the whole of the intended Voyage, nor until the Master of the said Ship shall have obtained from the Emigration Officer or his Assistant,

Assistant, or, where there is no such Officer, or in his Absence, from the Officer of Customs at such Port or Place, a Certificate to the same Effect as the Certificate herein-before required to enable the Ship to be cleared out; and in case of any Default herein the said Master shall be liable, on Conviction, as herein-after mentioned, to the Payment of a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Fifty Pounds Sterling; and further, if the Master of any "Passenger Ship" so putting into or touching at any Port or Place as aforesaid shall not within Twenty-four Hours thereafter report his Arrival, and the Cause of his putting back, and the Condition of his Ship and of her Stores and Provisions, to the Emigration Officer, or, as the Case may be, to the Officer of Customs at the Port, and shall not produce to such Officer the official or "Master's List" of Passengers, such Master shall for each Offence be liable to the Payment of a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Two Pounds Sterling.

Penalty on falsifying or forging Forms of Application for Passages, or the Certificates in support thereof.

LI. 'And whereas certain Forms are from Time to Time issued by the said Colonial Land and 'Emigration Commissioners for the Use of Persons applying to them, or to Persons acting under their 'Authority, for Passages from the United Kingdom to the British Colonies wholly or partially at the 'Expense of British or Colonial Funds: And whereas it is expedient to afford additional Security 'against false Representations in such Forms, and in any Certificate of Marriage, Baptism, or otherwise, 'adduced in support thereof, and against the forging or fraudulently altering of any Signature or State-'ment in such Forms or Certificates:' Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully make any false Representation in any such Form or Certificate as aforesaid, or shall forge or fraudulently alter any Signature or Statement in any such Form or Certificate, such Person shall be liable for and in respect of each and every such Offence, on such Conviction as herein-after mentioned, to the Payment of a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

Recovery of Penalties, &c.

LII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall and may be sued for and recovered, with Costs, in the Manner herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) in the United Kingdom by any Emigration Officer or his Assistant, or by any Collector or Comptroller of Her Majesty's Customs, or by any other Officer of Her Majesty's Customs authorized in Writing by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs to sue for Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, and in any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad by any Government Emigration Agent, or by any such Collector or Comptroller of Customs, or other Officer of Customs so authorized as aforesaid, or by any Officer authorized to sue for Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act by Writing under the Hand and Seal of the Governor of any such Possession, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs and every such Governor are hereby respectively empowered to grant such Authority as aforesaid; and that all Sums of Money made recoverable by this Act as Return of Passage Money, Subsistence Money, or Compensation shall and may be sued for and recovered as herein-after mentioned by and for the Use of any Passenger entitled thereto under this Act, or by any of such Officers as aforesaid, for and on behalf and to the Use of any such Passenger or any Number of such Passengers respectively, and either by one or several Complaints; and that all such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Sums of Money as aforesaid shall and may be sued for and recovered before any Two or more Justices of the Peace acting in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or Possessions in which the Offence shall have been committed or the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, or in which the Offender or Party complained against shall happen to be; and upon Complaint made before any One Justice of the Peace acting as aforesaid, he shall issue a Summons requiring the Party offending or complained against to appear on a Day and at an Hour and Place to be named in such Summons; and every such Summons shall be served on the Party offending or complained against, or shall be left at his last known Place of Abode or of Business, or on board any Ship to which he may belong; and if such Party shall not appear accordingly, then (upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons by delivering a Copy thereof to the Party, or by delivering such Copy at his last known Place of Abode or of Business, or on board any Ship to which he may belong to the Person in charge of any such Ship as aforesaid, and stating the Purport thereof to the Person in charge of such Ship,) any Two of such Justices so acting as aforesaid may either hear and determine the Case in the Absence of the Party, or either of them may issue his Warrant for apprehending and bringing such Party before them or any Two Justices so acting as aforesaid, or the Justice before whom the Charge shall be made, if he shall have Reason to suspect from Information upon Oath that the Party is likely to abscond, may issue such Warrant in the first instance without any previous Summons; and either upon the Appearance of the Party offending or complained against, or in his Absence as aforesaid, any Two of such Justices so acting as aforesaid may hear and determine the Case either with or without any written Information; and upon Proof of the Offence or of the Complainant's Claim (as the Case may be), either by Confession of the Party offending or complained against, or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath such Justices are hereby authorized to administer), it shall be lawful for such Justices so acting as aforesaid to convict the Offender or adjudicate upon the Complaint, and upon every such Conviction to order the Offender to pay such Penalty or Forfeiture as they may think proper, not exceeding the Penalties and Forfeitures herein-before imposed, and upon every such Adjudication to order the Party complained against to pay to the Party suing for the same the Sum of Money sued for, or so much thereof as such Justices shall think the Complainant justly entitled to, together with, in every such Case as aforesaid, the Costs of the Proceedings; and if the Monies mentioned in such Conviction or Order be not paid immediately or within the Time limited thereby, it shall be lawful for any Two of such Justices so acting as aforesaid, by Warrant, to cause the Party offending to be committed to Gaol, there to be imprisoned with or without hard Labour, according to the Discretion of such Justices, for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Monies and Costs ordered to be paid be sooner paid and satisfied.

Recovery of Passage, Subsistence, and Compensation Monies.

LIII. And

Application of Penalties.

LIII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned in this Act shall, when recovered, be paid to the Party at whose Suit the same shall have been recovered, for the Use of Her Majesty and Her Successors; and such Penalties and Forfeitures, if recovered in the Colonies, shall be paid over by the Party receiving the same into the Colonial Treasury, and shall form Part of the general Revenue of the Colony, and if recovered in the United Kingdom shall be paid over to the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners if the Party at whose Suit the same shall have been recovered be an Emigration Officer, or his Assistant, and to Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs if the Party at whose Suit the same shall have been recovered be an Officer of Customs, to be by such Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners and Commissioners of Customs respectively duly accounted for; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures as may be recovered in the United Kingdom shall be appropriated to such Purposes and in such Manner as the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, may from Time to Time direct and appoint: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace who shall impose any such Penalty or Forfeiture at the same Time to direct, if they shall think fit, that a Part, not exceeding One Moiety thereof, be applied to compensate any Passenger for any Wrong or Damage which he may have sustained by the Act or Default in respect of which such Penalty or Forfeiture shall have been imposed.

Justices may direct Compensation out of Penalties to Party aggrieved.

Burden of Proof to be on Persons claiming Exemption from Act.

LIV. And be it enacted, That if in any Suit, Action, Prosecution, or other legal Proceeding under this Act any Question shall arise whether any Ship was or was not exempted from the Provisions of this Act, or any of them, the Burden of proving that such Ship was so exempted shall lie on the Party claiming the Benefit of the Exemption, and failing such Proof it shall for any such Purpose as aforesaid be taken and adjudged that the Ship did come within the Provisions of this Act.

Proof of a Party being an Emigration Officer, &c.

LV. And be it enacted, That if in any Proceeding before any Justice of the Peace under this Act, or upon any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding whatsoever, against any Person for anything done either contrary to or in pursuance of this Act, a Question should arise whether any Person is an Emigration Officer or Assistant Emigration Officer, or an Officer of Customs, vivâ voce Evidence may be given of such Fact, and shall be deemed legal and sufficient Evidence.

Passengers suing not incompetent Witnesses.

LVI. And be it enacted, That any Passenger suing, as herein-before is mentioned, for any Sum of Money made recoverable by this Act as Passage Money, Subsistence Money, or Compensation, shall not be deemed an incompetent Witness in any Proceeding for the Recovery thereof, notwithstanding the same, if recovered, shall be applicable to his own Use and Benefit.

Tender of Amends.

LVII. And be it enacted, That no Plaintiff shall recover in any Action against any Person for anything done in pursuance of this Act if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made before such Action brought, or if, after Action brought, a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court, with Costs, by or on behalf of the Defendant.

Limitation of Actions.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person for anything done in pursuance of or under the Authority of this Act until Ten Days Notice has been given thereof in Writing to the Party or Person against whom such Action or Suit is intended to be brought, nor after Three Calendar Months next after the Act committed for which such Action or Suit shall be so brought; and every such Action shall be brought, laid, and tried where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not in any other Place; and the Defendant in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and any special Matter in Evidence at any Trial which shall be had thereupon; and if the Matter or Thing shall appear to have been done under or by virtue of this Act, or if it shall appear that such Action or Suit was brought before Ten Days Notice thereof given as aforesaid, or if any Action or Suit shall not be commenced within the Time herein-before limited, or shall be brought or laid in any other Place than as aforesaid, then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant therein; and if a Verdict shall be found for such Defendant, or if the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit shall become nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of such Action, or if upon any Demurrer in such Action Judgment shall be given for the Defendant thereon, then and in any of the Cases aforesaid such Defendant shall and may recover full Costs of Suit as between Solicitor and Client, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant may have for his Costs in any other Case by Law.

Defendant may plead the General Issue, &c.

Costs.

In Scotland Sheriffs, &c. to act in the same Manner as Justices of the Peace in England.

LIX. And be it enacted, That every Sheriff or Steward and Sheriff Substitute or Steward Substitute of a County or Stewartry in Scotland shall, within his own County or Stewartry, have such and the like Powers and Privileges and be entitled to exercise such and the like Jurisdiction under this Act as any Justice or Two Justices, or Justices at Petty Sessions, have or is or are entitled to exercise under the Provisions of this Act; and all Acts, Matters, and Things competent to be done under the Provisions of this Act by or before any Justice or Two Justices, or Justices at Petty Sessions, or otherwise, may be done in Scotland by and before any Sheriff or Steward or Sheriff Substitute or Steward Substitute within his own County or Stewartry, and, unless where otherwise specially provided, it shall not be necessary in any Proceedings under this Act before such Sheriff or Steward or Sheriff Substitute or Steward Substitute to follow or observe the Forms prescribed by this Act in the Case of Proceedings before any Justice or Justices, or Justices at Petty Sessions, but all such Proceedings before such Sheriff or Steward or Sheriff Substitute or Steward Substitute may be conducted in the same Way and Manner as any summary Proceedings before any Sheriff or Steward Court in Scotland may be lawfully conducted at the Time of the passing of this Act, or at the Date of such Proceedings; and every Deliverance, Judgment, Sentence, and Conviction of any Sheriff or Steward or Sheriff Substitute or Steward Substitute under this Act shall be final, and not subject to any Review whatever.

Colonial Voyages defined.

LX. 'And whereas it is expedient to provide in certain Cases for the Carriage of Passengers by Sea 'from Her Majesty's Possessions abroad:' Be it therefore enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the the Term "Colonial Voyage" shall signify any Voyage from any Port or Place within any of such Possessions (except the Territories under the Government of the East India Company) to any other Port or Place whatever, of which the Duration, computed as herein-after mentioned, shall exceed Three Days.

Extension of the Act to Colonial Voyages. Certain Parts of the Act not to extend to Colonial Voyages.

LXI. And be it enacted, That, except as herein-after excepted, the Provisions of this Act shall apply, so far as the same are applicable, to all Ships carrying Passengers on any such "Colonial Voyage:" Provided always, that as to Ships carrying Passengers on any "Colonial Voyage," the Provisions of this Act shall not extend or apply so far as they relate exclusively to Passages from the United Kingdom to North America, and so far as they relate to the following Matters; (namely,)

The giving of a Bond to Her Majesty:

The keeping on board Copies of the Act, and Abstracts of any Order in Council:

The Return of Passage Money and Compensation in case the Party cannot be forwarded by the appointed Ship, or in case of Wreck:

The Payment of Subsistence Money in case of Detention:

Proviso as to Colonial Voyages shorter than Three Weeks.

Provided also, that as to Ships carrying Passengers on any "Colonial Voyage," whereof the Duration computed in the Manner herein-after mentioned shall be less than Three Weeks, in addition to the Matters lastly herein-before excepted, the Provisions of this Act shall not extend or apply so far as they relate to the following Subjects; (namely,)

The Construction or Thickness of the Decks:

The Berths:

The Height between Decks:

Light and Ventilation:

Manning:

Passengers Cook and Cooking Apparatus:

The Surgeon and Medicine Chest:

The Maintenance of Passengers for Forty-eight Hours after Arrival:

Provided also, that in the Case of such last-mentioned Voyage, whereof the computed Duration is less than Three Weeks, the Requirements of this Act respecting the Issue of Provisions shall not, except as to the Issue of Water, be applicable to any Passenger who may have contracted to furnish his own Provisions.

Governor of Colonies may, by Proclamation, declare Length of Voyage, and substitute other Articles of Food and Medicine.

Proclamations for Her Majesty's Confirmation, &c.

Attested Copy to be received as Evidence in the Colony.

LXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor of any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, by any Proclamation to be by him from Time to Time issued for that Purpose (which shall take effect from the issuing thereof), to declare the Rule of Computation by which the Length of the Voyage of any Ship carrying Passengers from such Possession to any other Place whatsoever shall be computed for the Purposes of this Act, and to substitute for the Articles of Food and Provisions specified in this Act such other Articles of Food and Provisions as shall be a full Equivalent for the same, and also to declare what Medicines, Medical Instruments, and other Matters shall be deemed necessary for the Medical Treatment of the Passengers during such "Colonial Voyage:" Provided always, that every such Proclamation shall be transmitted by the Governor by whom the same may have been issued to Her Majesty, through One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for Her Majesty's Confirmation or Disallowance: Provided also, that on the Production in any other of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad of an attested Copy of any such Proclamation as aforesaid under the Hand of the Governor of the Colony wherein the same may have been issued, and under the public Seal of such Colony, such attested Copy shall, in the Colony wherein the same shall be so produced, be received as good and sufficient Evidence of the issuing and of the Contents of any such Proclamation.

Provisions for Survey of Ships in the Colonies, and for appointing Surgeons thereto.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governors of any such Possessions respectively to authorize such Person or Persons as they may think fit to make the like Survey and Examination of "Passenger Ships" sailing from such Possessions respectively as is herein-before required to be made by Two or more competent Surveyors in respect of "Passenger Ships" sailing from the United Kingdom, and also to authorize any competent Person to act as Medical Practitioner on board any "Passenger Ship" proceeding on a "Colonial Voyage" in those Cases where a Medical Practitioner would be required by this Act if the Ship were a "Passenger Ship" proceeding from the United Kingdom.

Power to the Governor General of India in Council to adopt this Act, with certain Exceptions, in India;

LXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall apply to any of the Territories or Places under the Government of the East India Company, or to any of the Governors appointed by the said Company, nor shall anything herein-before contained affect the Powers now vested in the Governor General of India in Council to make Laws and Regulations whereby the Provisions of this Act, or such of them as to the said Governor General of India in Council shall seem expedient, shall or may be extended to the Territories and Places under the Government of the said Company, or for or in respect of which the said Governor General in Council has now by Law a Power of Legislation, but it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts to be passed for that Purpose, to declare that this Act, or that any Part thereof, shall extend and apply to the Carriage of Passengers upon any Voyage from any Ports or Places within the Territories of the East India Company, to be specified or described in such Act or Acts, to any other Places whatsoever, to be also specified or described in such Act or Acts, and also in like Manner to authorize the Substitution, as respects such Voyages of other Articles of Food and Provisions for those herein-before enumerated, and to declare the Rule of Computation by which the Length of any such Voyage shall be estimated, and to determine the Persons or Officers who shall be entitled to exercise or perform the Powers, Functions, or Duties herein-before given to or imposed upon the Emigration Officers and Officers of Customs in the United Kingdom, and to authorize the Employment on board any Ship of a Medical Practitioner duly qualified qualified by Law to practise as a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary within such Territories or Places as aforesaid; and to declare for the Purposes of this Act the Space necessary for Passengers in Ships that may clear out from any Port or Place within the Territories or Places under the Government of the East India Company, and the Age at which Two Children shall be considered equal to One Passenger in Ships that may clear out from any Port or Place as aforesaid, and also to declare in what Manner, and before what Authorities, and by what Form of Proceedings the Penalties imposed and the Sums of Money made recoverable by this Act shall be sued for and recovered within any Places or Territories under the Government of the East India Company, and to what Uses such Penalties shall be applied; and from and after the passing of such Indian Act or Acts, and whilst the same shall remain in force, all such Parts of this Act as shall be adopted therein shall apply to and extend to the Carriage of Passengers upon such Voyages as in the said Indian Act or Acts shall be specified: Provided always, that the said Indian Acts shall be subject to Disallowance and Repeal, and shall in the same Manner be transmitted to England to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, as in the Case of any other Laws or Regulations which the said Governor General in Council is now by Law empowered to make.

and to declare the Space to be allotted to Passengers, &c.; and the Mode of proceeding for Recovery of Penalties in India.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act to make Provision, during the present Year, and to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, relating to the Collection of County Cess in Ireland, and to the Remuneration of the Collectors thereof. [13th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland, it is amongst other things provided, that no Person shall act as High Constable or Collector of County Cess, as therein mentioned, unless he shall have given Security, by Two sufficient Sureties joining with him in executing a Bond and Warrant of Attorney, without Stamp, to confess Judgment, to the Treasurer of the County, conditioned for his duly collecting and paying to such Treasurer, on or before the First Day of the next Assizes, all such public Money as he is or shall be required to collect: And whereas, on account of the Distress now prevailing in certain Counties or Baronies more heavily than in others, it is expedient in certain Cases to alter and modify the Condition of any such Bond and Warrant of Attorney to be given as such Security as aforesaid:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by any Order to be published in the Dublin Gazette, from Time to Time to order and declare that in and for any County or Barony in such Order specified the Provision herein-after contained relating to the Security to be given by any High Constable or Collector of Grand Jury Cess for the due Collection of the same shall be in force during the then current Year; and a Copy of such Order shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of such respective County; and from the making of such Order thenceforth as to any such County or Barony it shall be and be deemed valid and sufficient, for the Purposes of the said recited Act, that any such Bond and Warrant of Attorney to confess Judgment to the Treasurer in the said Act directed to be given, and so given and entered into during the then current Year in which such Order shall have been made, shall be conditioned for any such High Constable or Collector duly collecting and paying to the County Treasurer all such public Money so required by him to be collected as he shall receive, or as he without Neglect or wilful Default might have received; and any such last-mentioned Bond and Warrant, without any Stamp, shall be as valid and effectual for the Purposes of the said Act, or any Act amending the same, and shall be deemed to be within the Meaning and subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act, or any Act amending the same, as fully and effectually as any such Bond and Warrant as is by the said recited Act prescribed.

6 & 7 W 4. c. 116.

Power to Lord Lieutenant, by Order to be published in Dublin Gazette, to continue Security given by Collectors of Grand Jury Cess for the then current Year.

II. And be it enacted, That in every County in which or in any Barony of which the Provision of this Act last aforesaid shall be in force in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Grand Jury of such County and he is hereby required, by Notice under his Hand to be posted at the usual Places for posting public Notices in each Barony next herein-after mentioned, to convene a Special Sessions for the Examination of the Collector's Accounts, to be holden in each Barony in which such last-mentioned Provision shall be so in force at the usual Place for holding Presentment Sessions, on a certain Day not more than Ten Days previously to the First Day of the assembling of the Grand Jury at each Assizes, at which said Special Sessions respectively the several Justices of the County shall be entitled to attend and take a Part in the Proceedings, and also such Cess-payers as were associated with the Justices at the Presentment Sessions held for such respective Barony after the then last Assizes; and

A Special Sessions to be held to examine Collector's Accounts, and to certify the Amount he might without Neglect or wilful Default have received.

and at such Special Sessions in each such Barony the High Constable or Collector of the same is hereby required to attend and produce his Accounts, Books, and Vouchers relating to the Collection of Grand Jury Cess in such Barony before such Justices and Cess-payers, who shall examine the same; and after due Examination of the same, and after Examination of such High Constable or Collector or other Person or Persons upon Oath relating to the same, which Oath any such Justice shall be empowered to administer, such Justices and Cess-payers shall determine and ascertain the Amount of the Sums which such High Constable or Collector shall have received or without Neglect or wilful Default might have received and collected of the Amount of the Grand Jury Cess required to be collected by him since the then last Assizes, and shall cause the Chairman of such Special Sessions to certify under his Hand the Amount thereof which without Neglect or wilful Default might have been so collected, and also the Amount actually collected, together with a List of the Persons and Lands from whom or which such Cess has not been collected, and also a List of the Persons and Lands, if any, from whom or which the same might have been so collected and has not been collected; and such Certificate and Lists shall by the Secretary of the Grand Jury be laid before the Grand Jury at the then next Assizes, who shall take the same into their Consideration; and if they shall pass a Resolution approving of such Certificate, or approving thereof subject to any Modification, and if such High Constable or Collector shall duly pay or shall have paid over to the respective Treasurer of the County the whole Amount which it shall appear by such Certificate, so approved or modified, might without Neglect or wilful Default have been collected, such High Constable or Collector in such Case shall receive and be paid his Poundage as in the said first-recited Act, or any Act amending the same, and this Act, provided, upon the Amount so collected and paid over to the Treasurer.

Certificate and Lists to be laid before Grand Jury, and if approved and Money paid over, Collector to be entitled to Poundage.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That as regards any such County or Barony specified in such Order as aforesaid, where a Collector has not yet been appointed for any Barony to collect the County Cess payable before the Summer Assizes of this Year, in such Case, at any Time previous to the Summer Assizes of this Year, the Appointment of any such High Constable or Collector may be made for such Barony by the Treasurer of such respective County, and such Security as aforesaid may be given before such Treasurer, and such Appointment and Security so made and given shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, and subject to like Provisions and Powers, as if such High Constable or Collector had been duly appointed by the Grand Jury or any Quarter Sessions or Special Sessions, and such Security had been duly given in the Manner in the said recited Act or any Act amending the same directed: Provided always, that in such last-mentioned Case the Examination of the Accounts, Books, and Vouchers of the High Constable or Collector, instead of being held and had before a Special Session as herein-before provided, shall be held and had before any Three Members of the Grand Jury of such County at the said Summer Assizes, in like Manner and with like Powers, who may grant a like Certificate, which shall be laid before the said Grand Jury and shall be dealt with in like Manner and deemed and taken as if the same had been made and given at a Special Session as herein-before mentioned.

Provision for appointing a Collector in any County or Barony specified in the Order before the Summer Assizes of this Year.

IV. And be it enacted, That any such High Constable or Collector shall, on or before the First Day of every Month, or so often as he shall have received One hundred Pounds, pay into the County Bank, to the Credit of the Treasurer of the County, the Sums he may have received up to such Period, and shall furnish to the Treasurer of the County an Account of the Sums so received and paid in.

Collector shall pay monthly to County Bank, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That the Proceedings, Powers, and Authorities and Provisions by this Act authorized and provided may (save when hereby otherwise declared) be had, taken, and exercised during the present Year, and to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

Powers of Act exercised to the End of 1851.

VI. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act, unless the Subject or Context require another Construction, the Word "County" shall extend to a County of a City or County of a Town, and the Word "Barony" shall extend to any District for which any such Collector may be or may have been appointed under the Powers by Law given in that Behalf.

Interpretation of Terms.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act for further continuing, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, certain temporary Provisions concerning Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in England. [13th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Law as to Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in England, by which it was enacted, that certain of the Provisions therein contained should continue until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and, if Parliament were then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament; and such Provisions have, by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, been continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Provisions should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Provisions of the said firstly-recited Act shall continue until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament. 10 & 11 Vict. c. 98. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 67. Certain Provisions of first-recited Act further continued.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XL.

An Act to continue, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, certain of the Allowances of the Duty of Excise on Soap used in Manufactures. [13th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks of Excise on Soap, and to grant other Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks in lieu thereof, certain Allowances of the Duties of Excise paid on Soap were granted in respect of Soap used in certain Manufactures and Processes set forth in the said Act, and which Allowances were to cease at the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five: And whereas by subsequent Acts, and particularly by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, the said Allowances (except the Allowance for the whitening of new Linen in the Piece for Sale) were continued until the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight: And whereas it is expedient that the said Allowances (except as aforesaid) should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Allowances (except the Allowance of the Duty on Soap used, employed, or consumed in the whitening of new Linen in the Piece for Sale) shall continue and remain payable until the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty, in like Manner as if the same had been made payable until that Time by the said first-recited Act. 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 16. 10 & 11 Vict. c. 41. Certain Allowances of the Duty on Soap continued.

CAP. XLI.

An Act to extend an Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of King George the Third, for providing for a new Silver Coinage, and for regulating the Currency of the Gold and Silver Coin of this Realm. [13th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled An Act to provide for a new Silver Coinage, and to regulate the Currency of the Gold and Silver Coin of this Realm: And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act, so far as regards the Silver Coin of the Realm, should be extended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty's Master and Worker of the Mint at Her Majesty's Mint in London to coin or cause to be coined any Silver Bullion which at any Time before or after the passing of this Act shall have been or shall be brought to or delivered or deposited at the said Mint into Silver Coins of a Standard and Fineness of Eleven Ounces Two Pennyweights of fine Silver and Eighteen Pennyweights of Alloy in the Pound Troy, and in Weight after the Rate of Sixty-six Shillings to every Pound Troy, whether the same be coined in Crowns, or in any Pieces of a lower Denomination; anything in any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland respectively immediately before the passing of this Act, or anything in any Indenture with Her Majesty's Master or Worker of the said Mint for the Time being, or any Law, Usage, or Custom whatsoever, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that all and every Silver Coin, not being of a Denomination which is authorized to be coined by the said recited Act, but being of a Denomination which is authorized to be coined by this Act, which shall be issued after the passing of this 56 G. 3. c. 68. The Pound Troy of Standard Silver, &c. may be coined into Crowns or Pieces of a lower Denomination.

this Act, shall be deemed and taken to have been coined after the passing and under the Authority of this Act, and shall be subject to all and every the Rules, Regulations, and Provisions relating to Silver Coin to be coined in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act.

Former Acts relating to Silver Coin extended to this Act.

II. And be it enacted, That all and every Act and Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act respecting the Coin of this Realm, or the clipping, diminishing, or counterfeiting of the same, or respecting any other Matters relating thereto, and all Provisions, Proceedings, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Punishments therein contained or directed, and not repugnant or contradictory to the Provisions of this Act, shall be and continue in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied and put in execution with respect to the Silver Coin to be coined or issued in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

CAP. XLII.

An Act to provide for the Execution for One Year of the Office of Sheriff in the County of Westmoreland. [13th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS Henry Earl of Thanet, deceased, was in his Lifetime and at the Time of his Death Hereditary High Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland: And whereas the said Henry Earl of Thanet died on or about the Twelfth Day of June in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, without Issue: And whereas it is alleged that he first duly made and published his last Will and Testament in Writing, bearing Date the Twenty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and duly executed the same, whereby the said Henry Earl of Thanet devised and bequeathed the said Office of Sheriff to one Richard Tufton for Life, with divers Remainders over: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the said Office of Sheriff passed by the said Will, or whether the same became on the Death of the said Henry Earl of Thanet vested in his Heir or Heiress at Law, or whether the same became escheated to the Crown; and such Doubts and Rights cannot conveniently be settled and ascertained within the Time necessary for executing and performing the said Office of Sheriff within the said County: And whereas it is necessary, for the Administration of Justice within the said County of Westmoreland, that a Sheriff for the said County should forthwith be appointed until such Doubts and Rights shall be settled and ascertained:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, from and after the passing of this Act, to nominate and to appoint, in such Manner and Form as is provided by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, for, amongst other things, "facilitating the Appointment of Sheriffs," such Person to be Sheriff for One Year of the County of Westmoreland as She shall by the Advice of Her Council think fit; and such Person so to be nominated and appointed shall hold, use, and execute the said Office of Sheriff within the said County of Westmoreland during One Year from the Date of such Appointment, or for any shorter Period, in case Her said Majesty shall by an Order in Council so order and direct, and upon taking the Oath of Office by the said Act prescribed shall from thenceforth have and exercise all Powers, Privileges, and Authorities whatsoever hitherto usually exercised and enjoyed by the Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland, or any other Sheriff, now or heretofore appointed under and by virtue of the said Act, and shall be subject to the same Duties and Liabilities as the Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland has hitherto been subject and liable to, and to all the Liabilities imposed upon Sheriffs in England and Wales by the said recited Act.

Power to Her Majesty to appoint a Sheriff for One Year for the County of Westmoreland in manner provided by 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 99.

Her Majesty may order, from and after a certain Day, that all Powers, &c. conferred shall cease, save that the Sheriff shall be liable to all Suits, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for Her said Majesty, by any Order in Council to be hereafter made, to order and direct that from and after a certain Day to be therein named all the Powers, Authorities, Rights, Privileges, and Liabilities by the said recited Act or this Act conferred or imposed upon the said Person so to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid shall from and after such Day cease and determine, save and except that the said Sheriff so to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid shall be liable and amenable to all such Suits, Actions, and Proceedings, and to make all such Returns, as any other Sheriff for any other County of England or Wales is now subject or liable to.

Nothing herein to prejudice the Rights of Her Majesty, nor of other Persons.

III. Provided always, That, subject only to the Power by this Act professed to be given to Her Majesty to appoint a Person to the Office of Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland for One Year as aforesaid, nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect any Title in Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in respect of the said Office, or the Title, Rights, or Interests of any Person or Persons claiming or to claim, by Descent, Devise, or otherwise, the said Office of Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland.

CAP. XLIII.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion of Officers and Soldiers in the Service of the East India Company, and for regulating in such Service the Payment of Regimental Debts and the Distribution of the Effects of Officers and Soldiers dying in the Service. [28th July 1849.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 37.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for punishing Mutiny and Desertion of Officers and Soldiers in the Service of the East India Company, and for providing for the Observance of Discipline in

'in the Indian Navy, and to amend the Laws for regulating the Payment of Regimental Debts and the 'Distribution of the Effects of Officers and Soldiers dying in Service: And whereas it is expedient that 'the said Act be amended; and it being requisite, for retaining the Forces of the East India Company in 'their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, 'or shall desert the said Company's Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment 'than the usual Forms of the Law will allow:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to make Articles of War for the better Government of the East India Company's Forces, and from Time to Time to renew, alter, add to, or amend the same, as to Her Majesty shall appear fit, and all Articles of War to be so made shall be judicially taken notice of by all Judges and in all Courts whatsoever, and Copies of the same, printed by the Queen's Printer, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been made and established by Her Majesty, be transmitted by Her Majesty's Secretary at War to the Judges of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, Edinburgh, and in India respectively, and also to the Governors of Her Majesty's Dominions abroad and of the Territories under the Government of the said Company; provided that no Person within the Territories which are or may be under the Government of the said Company, and within One hundred and twenty Miles Distance from the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay respectively, shall by such Articles of War be subject to be transported as a Felon, or be subject to any Punishment extending to Life or Limb, except for Crimes or Offences which are by this Act expressly made liable to such Transportation or to such Punishment as aforesaid, nor shall be subject, with reference to any Crimes made punishable by this Act, to be punished in any Manner which shall not accord with the Provisions of this Act; provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner impeach or affect any Articles of War or other Matters made, enacted, or in force, or which hereafter may be made or enacted or in force, under the Authority of the Government of India, respecting Officers or Soldiers being Natives of the East Indies or other Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter; and that on the Trial of all Offences committed by any Native Officer or Soldier, or Follower, Reference shall be had to the Articles of War framed by the Government of India for such Native Officers, Soldiers, or Followers, and to the established Usages of the Service.

The Queen may make Articles of War, of which all Courts shall take judicial Notice, and Copies to be transmitted to Judges and Governors.

Trial of Native Officer or Soldier.

II. And be it enacted, That the Provisions of this Act shall apply to all Persons belonging to any of the Forces of the East India Company who are or shall be commissioned or in Pay as Officers, or who are or shall be listed or in Pay as Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers, or who are or shall be serving or hired to be employed in the Artillery or any of the Trains of Artillery, or as Master Gunners or Gunners, or as Conductors of Stores, or who are or shall be serving in the Department of Engineers, or in the Corps of Sappers and Miners or Pioneers, or as Military Surveyors or Draftsmen, or in the Ordnance and Commissariat Departments, and to all Storekeepers and other Civil Officers employed under the Ordnance, and to all Apothecaries, Veterinary Surgeons, Medical Storekeepers, Hospital Stewards, and others serving in the Medical Department of the said Forces, and to all licensed Sutlers and Followers in or of any of the said Forces, and that all such Persons shall be at all Times subject to all the Penalties and Punishments mentioned in this Act, and shall in all respects whatsoever be holden to be within the Intent and Meaning of every Part of this Act.

Persons subject to this Act.

III. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act, and of any Articles of War to be made under the same, the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal shall be deemed and taken to comprise under and within it all the Territories which by Law are divisible between the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal and Agra respectively, and such Territories shall for all the Purposes aforesaid be taken to be the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

For Purposes of this Act, Presidency of Fort William to comprise that of Agra.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Officers and Soldiers of any Troops, being mustered and in Pay, which shall be raised and serving in any of the Possessions or Territories which are or may be under the Government of the said Company, or in Places in possession of or occupied by Persons subject to the Government of the said Company, or by any Forces of the said Company, and being under the Command of any Officer having a Commission immediately from the Government of any of the Presidencies of the said Company, shall be liable to Martial Law, in like Manner as the Company's other Forces are.

Officers, &c. in Places under Government of the Company liable to same Law as Company's other Forces.

V. And be it enacted, That all Officers and Soldiers who shall be enlisted in or transferred to the Service of the said Company, and all Officers in the said Company's Service who may proceed in charge of or be appointed to do Duty with such enlisted or transferred Officers and Soldiers, shall from and after their Embarkation to go abroad to such Place whereto they shall be sent in the Service of the said Company be during their Passage subject to all the Provisions and Regulations of this Act, and to all such Provisions and Regulations as Officers and Soldiers in the Pay of the said Company shall from Time to Time be subject to at the Garrison or Place to which such Officers and Soldiers shall be sent; and in all Cases in which it may happen that Offences shall be committed by the said Officers and Soldiers after their Embarkation, and before their Arrival at their Place of Destination abroad, which cannot be tried and punished during their Passage in such Manner as such Offences ought to be tried and punished, every such Officer or Soldier may and shall after his Arrival at his Place of Destination abroad be tried and punished for every Offence committed after his Embarkation and before his Arrival, in the same Manner as he would have been liable to be tried and punished if such Offence had been committed in any Place where the Offender might have been tried by Court-martial held under the Authority of this Act.

After Embarkation all Officers and Soldiers subject to Provisions of this Act.

Offences committed during Passage cognizable after Arrival.

Commanders in Chief at the several Presidencies empowered to convene Courts-martial.

VI. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of bringing Offenders to Justice it shall be lawful for the General or other Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, or the Forces within the Presidency of Fort William, and also for each of the Generals or other Officers respectively commanding in chief the Forces within the Presidencies of Fort Saint George and Bombay respectively, from Time to Time, as Occasion may require, to convene Courts-martial for the Trial of any Officer or Soldier under his Command who is or shall be charged with any Offence liable to be tried by Court-martial, whether such Offence shall have been committed before or after such Officer shall have taken upon himself such Command; and it shall also be lawful for each of the said Officers commanding in chief respectively to direct his Warrant to any Officer, not under the Degree of a Field Officer, having the Command of any Body of Forces, authorizing him to convene Courts-martial for the Trial of Offences committed by any Officer or Soldier under his Command, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such Officer shall have taken upon himself such Command; and it shall also be lawful for each of the said Officers commanding in chief respectively, when and as often as any Sentence is given and passed by a Court-martial, legally constituted, upon any Officer or Soldier under his Command, to confirm such Sentence, and to cause the same to be put into execution, or to suspend, mitigate, or remit the same; and it shall also be lawful for each of the said Officers commanding in chief respectively to give his Warrant to any Officer, not under the Degree of a Field Officer, having the Command of any Body of Forces, to confirm Sentences of Courts-martial passed upon Officers or Soldiers under the Command of the Officer to whom such Warrant shall be given (always excepting in any such Warrant the Confirmation of any Sentence of Death, Transportation, or Cashiering, upon any Commissioned Officer), and to cause the same to be put into execution, or to suspend, mitigate, or remit the same; and the said Officers commanding in chief respectively may (where they shall think fit) authorize any such Officer to confirm any such Classes of Sentences only, or Sentences passed for any such Class of Offences only, or on any such Classes of Persons only, as they may think fit; and it shall also be lawful for Her Majesty to grant Commissions or Warrants under the Royal Sign Manual to any General or other Officer having the Command of any Body of Forces, as well in the Possessions or Territories which are or may be under the Government of the East India Company as elsewhere, for convening Courts-martial, and for authorizing any Officer under their respective Commands to convene Courts-martial, as Occasion may require, for the Trial of Offences committed by any of the Forces under their several Commands, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such Officer shall have taken upon himself such Command, the Officer so authorized not being, however, below the Degree of a Field Officer; and any Person subject to the Provisions of this Act who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, or the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, or elsewhere, commit any Offence for which he may be liable to be tried by Court-martial, may be tried and punished for the same in any Part of the Territories which are or may be under the Government of the said Company, or elsewhere, where he may have come after the Commission of the Offence, in the same Manner as if the Offence had been committed where such Trial shall take place.

The Queen may grant Commissions or Warrants for convening of Courts-martial for trying Offences against Articles of War.

Composition and Constitution of General Courts-martial.

VII. And be it enacted, That all General Courts-martial held under the Authority of this Act shall consist of not less than Thirteen Commissioned Officers (except in Cases where the same shall be holden in any Place out of Her Majesty's Dominions and of the Territories which are or may be under the Government of the said Company, or where the same shall be holden in any African Colony, the Australian Colonies, the Settlements on the Coast of China, Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, or Malacca, in which Cases such General Courts-martial may consist of any Number not less than Five), and shall have Power to sentence any Officer or Soldier to suffer Death, Transportation, or any other Punishment which shall accord with the Provisions of this Act.

Composition and Powers of District or Garrison Courts-martial.

VIII. And be it enacted, That a District or Garrison Court-martial shall consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers, and such Court-martial shall have the same Power as a General Court-martial to sentence any Soldier to such Punishments as shall accord with the Provisions of this Act; provided that such Court-martial shall not have Power to try a Commissioned Officer, nor to pass any Sentence of Death or Transportation.

Regimental and Detachment Courts-martial.

IX. And be it enacted, That a Regimental or Detachment Court-martial shall consist of not less than Five Officers, unless it is found to be impracticable to assemble that Number, when Three may be sufficient, and shall have Power to sentence any Soldier to Corporal Punishment, to Imprisonment, and to Forfeiture of Pay, in such Manner as shall accord with the Provisions of this Act.

Courts-martial on Line of March or in Troop Ships.

X. And be it enacted, That in Cases of Mutiny and gross Insubordination or other Offences committed on the Line of March or on board any Ship or Vessel the Offence may be tried by a Regimental or Detachment Court-martial, and the Sentence confirmed and carried into execution on the Spot by the Officer in the immediate Command of the Troops; provided the Sentence shall not exceed that which a Regimental Court-martial is competent to award.

Officers in command of Troops in Foreign Countries not in alliance with the East India Company may assemble Courts-martial.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer commanding any distinct Detachment or Portion of the said Company's Troops which may at any Time be serving in any Place out of Her Majesty's Dominions and of the Possessions or Territories which are or may be under the Government of the said Company, upon Complaint made to him of any Offence committed against the Property or Person of any Inhabitant of or Resident of any such Countries, by any Person serving with or belonging to the Company's Army being under the immediate Command of any such Officer, to convene a Detachment General Court-martial, which shall consist of not less than Three Officers, for the Purpose of trying any such Person; and every such Court-martial shall have the same Powers in regard to Sentence upon Offenders as are granted by this Act to General Courts-martial: Provided always, that no Sentence of any

any such Court-martial shall be executed until the General commanding the Army to which the Division, Brigade, Detachment, or Party to which any Person so tried, convicted, and adjudged to suffer Punishment shall belong shall have approved and confirmed the same.

Proceedings on Mixed Courts-martial how to be regulated.

XII. And be it enacted, That, where necessary or expedient, Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces, or Officers of Her Majesty's Royal Marines, or Officers of both such Services, may sit on Courts-martial together with Officers in the Service of the East India Company; and where the Person to be tried shall belong to Her Majesty's Land Forces, then the Proceedings of the Court shall be regulated to all Intents and Purposes as if the Court was composed of Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces only, and the Provisions of the Act which shall exist at the Time for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion in Her Majesty's Forces shall be applicable to the Proceedings of such Court; and where the Person to be tried shall be in the Service of the East India Company the Provisions of this Act shall be applicable, notwithstanding any Officer, though in the actual Service of the said Company, may hold a Commission from Her Majesty or any of Her Royal Predecessors; and where it shall happen that Officers in the Service of the said Company cannot conveniently be had to compose the whole or Part of a Court-martial, then any Officer or Soldier or Person subject to the Provisions of this Act may be tried by a Court-martial composed of Officers in Her Majesty's Service alone: Provided always, that the Officer convening such Court-martial shall specify in his Warrant or Order convening the Court that no Officer in the Service of the said Company could be conveniently had.

Courts-martial in some Cases may be wholly composed of Queen's Officers.

President of Court-martial.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the President of every Court-martial shall be appointed by the Authority convening such Court, and shall in no Case be the Officer commanding in chief or Governor of the Garrison where the Offender shall be tried, nor Commander of the Regiment, or Body of Troops composed of Detachments of different Regiments, to which the Prisoner belongs, nor, in the Case of a General Court-martial, under the Degree of a Field Officer, unless a Field Officer cannot be had, nor in any Case whatever under the Degree of a Captain, save in the Case of a Detachment General Court-martial holden in the Countries of Foreign Powers, or of a Regimental or Detachment Court-martial holden on the Line of March, or on board any Ship or Vessel, or on any Foreign Station, where a Captain cannot be had; and it shall be lawful for any Officer by whom any Court-martial shall be convened (where it may be necessary so to do) to authorize some fit Person to execute the Office of Judge Advocate at and for the Purpose of such Court-martial.

Proceedings at Trial.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in all Trials by Courts-martial to be held by virtue of this Act, as soon as the President and other Officers appointed to serve thereon shall be assembled, their Names shall be read over in the Hearing of the Prisoner, who shall thereupon be asked if he objects to being tried by the President, or by any of such Officers; and if the Prisoner shall then object to the President, such Objection shall be referred to the Decision of the Authority by whom such President shall have been appointed; but if he object to any Officer other than the President, such Objection shall be decided by the President and the other Officers appointed to form the Court; and when the Place of the President or of any other Officer in respect of whom any Challenge shall have been made and allowed shall be supplied by some Officer in respect of whom no Challenge shall have been made and allowed, or if no Challenge shall have been made, or, if made, not allowed, the President and the other Officers composing the Court shall take the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the Judge Advocate or his Deputy, or Person officiating as such, or before the President of such Court, who are hereby respectively authorized to administer the same; and any sworn Member may administer the Oath to the President; and as soon as the said Oaths shall have been administered to the respective Members, the President of the Court is hereby authorized and required to administer to the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and no Proceeding or Trial shall be had upon any Offence but during seasonable and convenient Hours of the Day, to be appointed by the Officer commanding where the Court-martial is held, except in Cases which require an immediate Example.

Swearing and summoning Witnesses.

XV. And be it enacted, That all General and other Courts-martial shall have Power and Authority and are hereby required to administer an Oath, or, in case of Natives of India, an Oath or solemn Declaration, as Circumstances may require, to every Witness or other Person who shall be examined before such Court in any Matter relating to any Proceeding before the same; and every Person, as well Civil as Military, who may be required to give or produce Evidence before a Court-martial shall, in the Case of General Courts-martial, be summoned by the Judge Advocate General or his Deputy, or the Person officiating as such, and in the Case of all other Courts-martial, by the President of the Court; and all Persons so summoned and attending as Witnesses before any Court-martial shall during their necessary Attendance in or on such Courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from Arrest, and shall, if unduly arrested, be discharged by such Court-martial, or by any Court of Law, or Judge of any such Court, according as the Case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such Court-martial, Court of Law, or Judge, by Affidavit, in a summary Way, that such Witness was arrested in going to or returning from or attending upon such Court-martial; and all Witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such Courts, or attending to be sworn, or being sworn, shall refuse to give Evidence, or not produce the Documents under their Power or Control required to be produced by them, or refuse to answer all such Questions as the Court may legally demand of them, shall be liable to be attached in any Court of Justice, upon Complaint made, in like Manner as if such Witness, after having been duly summoned or subpœnaed, had neglected to attend on a Trial in any Proceeding in the Court in which Complaint shall be made.

Previous Convictions to be put in Evidence.

XVI. And be it enacted, That after a Prisoner has been found guilty of any Charge or Charges the Court before which any such Prisoner shall have been tried may, before passing Sentence on such Prisoner, Prisoner, and for the Purpose only of affixing Punishment, receive in Evidence against him any previous Convictions by any Courts-martial, and in like Manner and for the like Purpose the Court shall receive in Evidence any previous Conviction of such Prisoner by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, where the Offence charged in the Indictment was of a felonious, fraudulent, or unnatural Nature; and in the Case of Convictions by Courts-martial a Certificate which shall purport to contain a Copy of the Charges, Finding, and Sentence of the Court, and of the Minute of the Infliction or Remission of all or any Part of such Sentence, made from the original Minutes of such Court, or from the Court-martial Book, and which shall further purport to be signed by the Judge Advocate General or by his Deputy, or by the Officer officiating as such, or by the Officer confirming the Proceedings, or by any competent Staff Officer, in case such Copy be taken from the original Minutes, or by the Commanding Officer, Adjutant, or other Officer having the Custody of the Court-martial Book, in case such Copy be taken from the said Book, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Conviction, and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in any such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender; and in the Case of a Conviction by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, any Certificate transmitted to the Officer commanding a Regiment by the Clerk of any such Court, or other Officer having Custody of the Records of such Court, or the Deputy of such Clerk or of such other Officer, containing the Substance and Effect of any Indictment, omitting the formal Part, together with the Judgment of the Court thereon, and purporting to be signed by such Clerk or other Officer, or by the Deputy of such Clerk or other Officer, shall be sufficient Evidence of such last-mentioned Conviction, and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such last-mentioned Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied, from all the Circumstances of the Case, that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender: Provided always, that before any such Evidence shall be received it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the said Prisoner had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence against him; and provided also, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any other Punishment or Punishments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War for the Government of the East India Company's Forces be awarded for the Offence of which he shall have been so found guilty.

Report of Proceedings of General and District Courts-martial.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every Judge Advocate or Person officiating as such at a General Court-martial, and the President of every District or Garrison Court-martial, shall transmit, with as much Expedition as the Opportunity of Time and Distance of Place will admit, the original Proceedings and the Sentence of such Court-martial to the Judge Advocate General of the Army in which such Court-martial shall be held, in whose Office they are to be carefully preserved; and any Person tried by a General Court-martial, or any Person in his Behalf, shall be entitled, on Demand, to a Copy of such Sentence and Proceedings (paying reasonably for the same), whether such Sentence shall be approved or not, at any Time not sooner than Three Months, if the Trial took place on the Continent of India, or Six Months if beyond Seas; provided that such Demand as aforesaid shall have been made within the Space of Three Years from the Date of the Approval or other final Decision upon the Proceedings before such General Court-martial.

No Second Trial to be had for the same Offence, and no Revision more than once.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That no Officer or Soldier, being acquitted or convicted of any Offence, shall be liable to be tried a Second Time by the same or any other Court-martial for the same Offence; and that no Finding, Opinion, or Sentence given by any Court-martial, and signed by the President thereof, shall be liable to be revised more than once, nor shall any additional Evidence be received by the Court on any Revision.

Crimes punishable with Death.

XIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person subject to this Act shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act begin, excite, cause, or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in the Land or Marine Forces of Her Majesty or of the said Company, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress the same, or, coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not without Delay give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer, or shall correspond with or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, either by Letters, Messages, Signs, or Tokens, in any Manner or Way whatsoever, or shall relieve with Money, Victuals, or Ammunition, or knowingly harbour or protect, any such Rebel or Enemy, or shall treat or enter into any Terms with such Rebel or Enemy without the Licence of the said Company or of the said Company's Governor General in Council, or of the Governor in Council at One of the Presidencies, or of the General or Chief Commander, or shall cast away his Arms or Ammunition or otherwise misbehave himself before the Enemy, or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to his Charge or which he shall be commanded to defend, or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same, or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer or others to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend, or shall desert the said Company's Service, or shall leave his Commanding Officer, or his Post or Colours, to go in search of Plunder, or shall leave his Post before relieved, or shall be found sleeping on his Post, or shall treacherously make known the Watchword, or shall intentionally occasion false Alarms in Action, Camp, Garrison, or Quarters, or shall do Violence to any Person bringing

Provisions

Provisions or other Necessaries to the Quarters of the Forces; or shall force a Safeguard, or shall break or enter into any House or Store or Cellar, or other Place, for Plunder, or shall strike, or shall draw or offer to draw or lift up any Weapon, or use or offer any Violence, against his Superior Officer, being in the Execution of his Office, or shall disobey any lawful Command of his Superior Officer, or who, being confined in a Military Prison, shall offer any Violence against a Visitor or other Officer being in the Execution of his Office, all and every Person and Persons so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within the Dominions of Her Majesty or the Territories which are or may be under the Government of the said Company, or in Foreign Parts, and whether upon Land or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court-martial shall be awarded.

Judgment of Death.

XX. And be it enacted, That no Judgment of Death by a Court-martial shall pass unless Two Thirds at least of the Officers present shall concur therein.

Commutation of Death for Transportation.

XXI. And be it enacted, That whensoever any Court-martial by which any Soldier shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in the said Company's Forces, and in any Country or Place (such Country or Place being within the Limits of the said Company's Charter and under the said Company's Government) which the Officer commanding in chief the Forces with which the Offender may have been serving at or previously to the Time of the Offence shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps of the said Company's Forces which the Officer commanding in chief as aforesaid shall direct; provided, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a Court-martial it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer having Authority to confirm the Sentence, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, as shall seem meet to such Officer.

Embezzlement punishable by Transportation.

XXII. And be it enacted, That every Paymaster or other Commissioned Officer, or any Person employed in the Ordnance or Commissariat Department, or in any Manner in the Care or Distribution of any Money, Provisions, Forage, or Stores, who shall embezzle or fraudulently misapply, damage, or be concerned in or connive at the Embezzlement, fraudulent Misapplication, or Damage of any Money, Provisions, Forage, Arms, Clothing, Ammunition, or other Military Stores belonging to the East India Company, or for the Use of the East India Company's Forces or Her Majesty's Forces, may be tried for the same by a General Court-martial, which may adjudge any such Offender to be transported as a Felon for Life or for any certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Punishment of Fine, Imprisonment, Dismissal from the East India Company's Service, and Incapacity of serving the East India Company or Her Majesty in any Office, Civil or Military, as such Court shall think fit, according to the Nature or Degree of the Offence, and every such Offender shall, in addition to any other Punishment, make good at his own Expense the Loss and Damage sustained which shall have been ascertained by such Court-martial, and in every such Case the Court is required to ascertain by Evidence the Amount of the Loss or Damage incurred, and to declare by their Sentence that such Amount shall be made good by such Offender, and the Loss and Damage, so ascertained as aforesaid, shall be a Debt to the East India Company, and may be recovered accordingly in any of the Courts of Law in the East Indies, or any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster or in Dublin, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or in any Court in Her Majesty's Colonies where the Person sentenced by such Court-martial shall be resident, after the said Judgment shall be confirmed and made known; and every Officer sentenced to be transported as a Felon, when such Sentence shall be duly confirmed, shall thereupon cease to belong to the East India Company's Service, and forfeit any Commission held from Her Majesty, and for ever be incapable of serving the said Company or Her Majesty in any Military Capacity.

Execution of Sentences of Transportation.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That Her Majesty may, by any Order or Orders to be by Her from Time to Time made with the Advice of Her Privy Council, appoint, or by any such Order or Orders in Council authorize the Governor General of India in Council and the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George and Bombay respectively to appoint, any Place or Places beyond the Seas within Her Majesty's Dominions to which Felons and other Offenders may be conveyed; and that when any such Offender shall be about to be transported from any of the said Presidencies to a Place of Transportation, the Governor of such Presidency shall give Orders for his intermediate Custody and Removal to the Ship to be employed for his Transportation, and shall empower some Person to make a Contract for the effectual Transportation of the Offender to the Place so appointed, and shall direct Security to be given for such Transportation.

Transports to be subject to the Convict Laws of the Place of Transportation.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every Offender who shall be transported as aforesaid shall undergo the Sentence of Transportation which has been passed upon him in the Colony or Place to which he shall be removed or sent, and whilst such Sentence shall remain in force shall be liable to be there imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, and otherwise dealt with under such Sentence, in the same Manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned with hard Labour during the Term of his Transportation by the Judgment of a Court of competent Jurisdiction in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent.

Power to inflict Corporal Punishment.

XXV. And be it enacted, That any Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, for Immorality, Misbehaviour, or Neglect of Duty; provided that no such Sentence of Corporal Punishment exceed Fifty Lashes.

XXVI. And

Corporal Punishment and Imprisonment.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any General, District, or Garrison Court-martial, in addition to any Sentence of Corporal Punishment, or without such Sentence, to award Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour.

Power to commute Corporal Punishment.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which Corporal Punishment shall form the whole or any Part of the Sentence awarded by any Court-martial, it shall be lawful for the General or other Officer authorized to confirm the Sentences of Courts-martial to commute such Corporal Punishment to Imprisonment, either solitary or otherwise, and either with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days; provided that such Commutation of Punishment to solitary Confinement shall in no Case exceed the Period herein-after prescribed.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service, or might accrue from future Service, according to the Nature of the Case; and that any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion or for disgraceful Conduct,

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other Soldier, whether at the Instance of such other Soldier or not, with Intent to render himself or such other Soldier unfit for Service;

In tampering with his Eyes, with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for Service;

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating any Disease or Infirmity, or delaying his Cure;

In malingering or feigning Disease;

In stealing, or embezzling Stores the Property of the East India Company or of the Crown, or in receiving them knowing them to have been stolen;

In stealing any Money or Goods the Property of a Comrade, of a Military Officer, or of any Military or Regimental Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen;

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made, or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent;

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Money intrusted to him belonging either to the East India Company or to the Crown;

Or in committing any Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of or with Intent to injure any Person, Civil or Military;

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

Forfeiture of Pay on Conviction of Desertion or Felony.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That every Soldier who shall be found guilty of Desertion by a Court-martial, such Finding having been duly approved, or of Felony by any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, or of any Crime or Offence by any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction in the United Kingdom, or in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty or the East India Company, or by a Court-martial, which would if committed in the United Kingdom amount to Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award.

Forfeiture of Pay when in Confinement under Sentence, or during Absence or Commitment under a Charge;

XXX. And be it enacted, That if any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, by reason of his Imprisonment, whether under Sentence of a Court-martial or of any other Court duly authorized to pass such Sentence, or by reason of his Confinement for Debt, or by reason of his Desertion, or, being an Apprentice, by reason of his being allowed to serve out his Time with his Master, shall have been absent from his Duty during any Portion of the Time limited by his Enlistment or Re-engagement or Prolongation of Service, such Portion of his Time shall not be reckoned as a Part of the limited Service for which such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier was enlisted or re-engaged or for which his Term of Service may have been prolonged; and no Soldier shall be entitled to Pay, or to reckon Service towards Pay or Pension, when in Confinement under a Sentence of any Court, or during any Absence from Duty by Commitment or Confinement under any Charge of which he shall be afterwards convicted, either by Court-martial or by any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, or whilst in Arrest for Debt; and that when any Soldier shall be absent as a Prisoner of War he shall not be entitled to Pay or to reckon Service towards Pay or Pension, for the Period of such Absence; but upon rejoining the Service due Inquiry shall be made by a Court-martial, and unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Court that the said Soldier was taken Prisoner through wilful Neglect of Duty on his Part, or that he had served with or under or in some Manner aided the Enemy, or that he had not returned as soon as possible to the Service, he may thereupon be recommended by such Court to receive either the whole of such Arrears of Pay or a Proportion thereof, and to reckon Service during his Absence; and that any Soldier who shall be convicted of Desertion, or of Absence without Leave, shall, in addition to any Punishment awarded by the Court, forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days during which he was in a State of Desertion, or during his Absence without Leave; and if any Soldier shall absent himself without Leave for any Period not exceeding Five Days, and shall not account for the same to the Satisfaction of the Commanding Officer, or if any Soldier shall be guilty of any other Offence which the Commanding Officer may not think necessary to bring before a Court-martial, the Commanding Officer may order that such Soldier shall be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding One hundred and sixty-eight Hours, with or without hard Labour, or with or without solitary Confinement, as the said Commanding Officer or in arrest for Debt;

or when Prisoner of War;

or when convicted of Desertion or of Absence without Leave, or when absent without Leave not exceeding Five Days.

Officer may think fit, and such Soldier shall forfeit his Pay for any Day or Days on which he may be so imprisoned; and the said Commanding Officer may moreover order, that in addition to or instead of such Imprisonment and Forfeiture, or any other Punishment which he has Authority to inflict, any Soldier who shall have so absented himself as aforesaid shall forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days on which he shall have so absented himself, and in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid the Pay of the Soldier shall be accordingly forfeited: Provided always, that such Soldier shall not be liable to be afterwards tried by a Court-martial for any Offence for which he shall have been so punished, or ordered to suffer Imprisonment, Punishment, or Forfeiture as aforesaid; provided also, that any Soldier who shall be so ordered to suffer Imprisonment or Forfeiture of Pay shall, if he so request, have a Right to be tried by a Court-martial for his Offence, instead of submitting to such Imprisonment or Forfeiture; provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Government under which any Soldier is serving to order or withhold the Payment of the whole or any Part of the Pay of any such Soldier during the Period of Absence by any of the Causes aforesaid.

Forfeiture of Pay for Drunkenness on Duty.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That any Court-martial may sentence any Soldier, for being drunk when on or for Duty or Parade or on the Line of March, to be deprived of One Penny or Eight Pice a Day of his Pay for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court may award.

Forfeiture of Pay and Liquor for habitual Drunkenness.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That any General, Garrison, or District Court-martial before which any Soldier shall be convicted of habitual Drunkenness shall, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court is competent to award, deprive such Soldier of such Portion of his Pay, for such Period not exceeding Two Years, and under such Restrictions and Regulations, as may accord with Her Majesty's Articles of War for the Company's Troops, subject to Restoration on subsequent good Conduct; and, in addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, every Regimental or Detachment Court-martial shall deprive a Soldier convicted of a Charge of habitual Drunkenness of such Portion of his additional or regular Pay or Allowance, for such Period not exceeding Six Months, and under such Restrictions and Regulations, as may accord with Her Majesty's Articles of War for the Company's Troops, subject to Restoration on subsequent good Conduct: Provided always, that a Soldier so sentenced to the Forfeiture of Pay who shall be quartered at or removed to a Station where Liquor forms Part of his Ration, and is issued in Kind, shall be deprived of his Liquor in Kind, instead of being deprived of One Penny or Eight Pice of his daily Pay, for so long a Time as he shall remain at such Station and such Sentence of Forfeiture of Pay shall remain in force.

Stoppages.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That, in addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good,

Any Loss or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein-before specified;

Any Loss or Destruction of or Damage or Injury to any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct;

Any Loss or Destruction of or Damage or Injury to his Horse, or to the Horse of any other Soldier, or to any Beast used in Indian Warfare, or any Loss or Destruction of or Damage or Injury to his Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries, or any Loss or Destruction of or Damage or Injury to the Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries of any other Soldier, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct;

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct:

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss or Destruction of Accoutrements and Regimental Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court; provided also, that, after satisfying the Charges for his Messing and Washing, so much only of the Pay of the Soldier may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny or Eight Pice a Day.

Discharge with Ignominy.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That whenever any Soldier shall have been convicted of any such disgraceful Conduct as aforesaid, and the Court in respect thereof shall have made the Forfeiture of all Claim to Pension on Discharge a Part of the Sentence passed on such Soldier, such Court may further recommend that he be discharged with Ignominy from the Service.

Marking Deserters.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That on the First and on every subsequent Conviction of Desertion the Court-martial, after awarding such Punishment as it may think fit, may order the Offender to be marked on the Left Side, Two Inches below the Armpit, with the Letter D, such Letter not to be less than an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with some Ink or Gunpowder or other Preparation, so as to be visible and conspicuous, and not liable to be obliterated.

Power of Imprisonment by different Kinds of Courts-martial.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That a General, Garrison, or District Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, nor Eighty-four Days in any One Year, with Intervals between the Periods of solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and that any Regimental or Detachment Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, and may also direct that such Soldier may be kept in solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, with an Interval between them of not less Duration than such Periods of solitary Confinement: Provided always, that when any Court-martial, whether General, Garrison, or District or Regimental, shall direct that the Imprisonment shall be solitary only, the Period shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Days.

Imprisonment of Offenders already under Sentence for previous Offence.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That whenever Sentence shall be passed by a Court-martial on a Person already imprisoned under Sentence of a Court-martial for any former Offence, it shall be lawful for the Court to award Imprisonment for the subsequent Offence to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment to which such Person shall have been previously sentenced; and where such Person shall be already under Sentence either of Imprisonment or Transportation, the Court, if empowered to pass Sentence of Transportation, may award such Sentence for the subsequent Offence, to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment or Transportation to which such Person shall have been previously sentenced, although the aggregate of the Terms of Imprisonment or Transportation respectively may exceed the Term for which either of those Punishments would be otherwise awarded.

Term of Imprisonment.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That, save as herein-before specially provided, every Term of Imprisonment under the Sentence of a Court-martial, whether original or revised, shall be reckoned as commencing on the Day on which the original Sentence and Proceedings shall have been signed by the President.

Place of Imprisonment.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Place of Imprisonment under the Sentence of General Courts-martial shall be appointed by the Officer commanding in the District, Garrison, or Place, and, under the Sentence of any other Court-martial, shall be appointed by the Officer confirming the Proceedings of such Court-martial, and in default of such Appointment then the Place of Imprisonment shall be appointed by the Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which the Offender belongs or is attached.

Keepers of Prisons to receive Military Offenders.

XL. And be it enacted, That every Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper of any public Prison, House of Correction, or other Place of Confinement in any Part of the Territory under the Government of the East India Company, or of Her Majesty's Dominions, shall receive into his Custody any Military Offender under the Sentence of Imprisonment by a General or other Court-martial, upon Delivery to him of an Order in Writing in that Behalf from the Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which the Offender belongs or is attached, which Order shall specify the Period of Imprisonment which the Offender is to undergo, and the Day and Hour of the Day on which he is to be released; and such Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper shall keep such Offender in a proper Place of Confinement, with or without hard Labour, and with or without solitary Confinement, according to the Sentence of the Court, and during the Time specified in the said Order, or until he shall be discharged, or delivered over to Military Custody before the Expiration of that Time under an Order duly made for that Purpose.

Orders as to Removal of Prisoners to be obeyed.

XLI. And be it enacted, That in the Case of a Prisoner undergoing Imprisonment under the Sentence of a Court-martial in any public Prison or Gaol or House of Correction, or other Place of Confinement, it shall be lawful for the Officer who confirmed the Proceedings, or for the Officer commanding in the District or Garrison or Place, to give, as often as Occasion may arise, an Order in Writing directing that the Prisoner be discharged, or be delivered over to Military Custody, whether for the Purpose of being removed to some other Prison or Place, there to undergo the Remainder or any Part of his Sentence, or for the Purpose of being brought before a Court-martial, either as a Witness or for Trial, or other Purpose, and such Prisoner shall accordingly on the Production of such Order be discharged or be delivered over, as the Case may be: Provided always, that the Time during which any Prisoner under Sentence of Imprisonment by a Court-martial shall be detained in Military Custody shall be reckoned as Imprisonment under the Sentence, for whatever Purpose such Detention shall take place.

Diet of Prisoners.

XLII. And be it enacted, That the Gaoler or Person having the immediate Inspection of any Prison, Gaol, House of Correction, or other Place of Confinement shall diet and provide every Soldier imprisoned by the Sentence of a Court-martial, or as a Deserter, with Fuel and other Necessaries, according to the Regulations of such Place of Confinement, the Expense of which shall be paid in the same Manner as the other Expenses of such Prison, or as may be provided by any Laws or Regulations to be made in that Behalf.

Notice to be given of the Expiration of Imprisonment.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That every Gaoler or Person having the immediate Inspection of any public Prison, Gaol, House of Correction, or other Place of Confinement, to whom any Notice shall have been given, or who shall have Reason to believe or to know that any Person in his Custody for any Offence, Civil or Military, is a Soldier liable to serve the East India Company on the Expiration of his Imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice of the Period of such Expiration of Imprisonment, or, if there shall not be a sufficient Time for a Month's Notice, then the longest practicable Notice thereof to the Adjutant General of the Army, or to the nearest Military Authority to whom such Notice may conveniently be given.

Musters and Punishment for false Musters.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That Musters shall be taken of every Regiment, Troop, or Company in the East India Company's Service at such Times as shall be appointed, and no Soldier shall be absent from such Musters, unless properly certified to be employed on some other Duty of the Regiment, or to be sick, or in Prison, or on Furlough; and every Officer who shall make any false or untrue Muster of Man or Beast, or shall wittingly or willingly allow or sign the Muster Roll wherein such false Muster is contained, or any Duplicate thereof, or who shall directly or indirectly take or cause to be taken any Money or Gratuity for mustering any Soldiers, or for signing any Muster Rolls or Duplicates thereof, or shall knowingly muster any Person by a wrong Name, or shall give or procure to be given any untrue Certificate, Certificate, whereby to excuse any Soldier for his Absence from any Muster or any other Service which he ought to attend or perform, upon Proof thereof, upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a General Court-martial, shall for such Offence be forthwith cashiered, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, or in the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or in the Service of the said Company or of Her Majesty.

Trials for Desertion after subsequent Enlistment.

XLV. And be it enacted, That every Soldier shall be liable to be tried and punished for Desertion from any Corps into which he may have enlisted, or from the East India Company's Service although he may of right belong to some Corps from which he shall originally have deserted; and that whether such Soldier shall be tried for deserting from the Corps into which he originally enlisted, or for deserting from the Corps into which he may have subsequently enlisted, or for any other Desertion, every Desertion previous or subsequent to that for which he may be so tried may, if duly stated in the Charges, be given in Evidence against him on such Trial.

Apprehension of Deserters.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall voluntarily deliver himself up and confess himself to be a Deserter from the East India Company's Forces, or who while serving in any of the said Company's Forces shall to any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer thereof confess himself to be a Deserter as aforesaid, or who, upon being apprehended for any Offence, shall, in the Presence of the Magistrate or of the Commanding Officer of the Place, confess himself to be a Deserter as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted and to be a Soldier, and shall be liable to serve in any such Corps of the said Company's Forces as the Officer commanding in chief at any of the said Presidencies shall appoint, whether such Person shall have been actually enlisted as a Soldier or not, and he shall be liable to Punishment in the same Manner as if he had actually enlisted and had afterwards deserted.

Punishment for inducing or assisting in Desertion.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall by Words or by any other Means whatsoever, directly or indirectly procure any Soldier to desert, or shall, by Words or by any other Means whatsoever, attempt to procure or persuade any Soldier to desert, and any Person who, knowing that any Soldier is about to desert, shall aid or assist him in deserting, or, knowing any Soldier to be a Deserter, shall conceal such Deserter, or aid or assist such Deserter in concealing himself, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall on Conviction thereof be liable to be punished by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, as the Court before which such Conviction shall take place may adjudge.

Enlisting and attesting Recruits.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justices of the Peace within the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, and for any Person holding the Office of British Resident, or performing the Duties of such Office, within the Territories of any Foreign State, to enlist and attest any Persons desirous of enlisting, or any Soldiers or others desirous of re-enlisting, into the Service of the said Company; and the said Justices of the Peace shall have the same Powers in that Behalf as by the Mutiny Act passed in the present Year for Her Majesty's Forces are given to Justices in the United Kingdom for the Purposes of Enlistment, and any Person so enlisted or re-enlisted shall be deemed to be an enlisted Soldier in the Service of the said Company.

Recruits concealing Infirmities punishable.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall enlist into the East India Company's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service, or unfit for the Service for which he shall have been enlisted, by reason of any Infirmity which shall have been concealed by such Person or not declared at the Time of his Attestation, and mentioned at the Foot thereof, may be tranferred into any Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion or Company, or into any of the said Company's European Forces, or into Her Majesty's Land Forces or Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment or any particular Service, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as shall be allowed by the said Company by any Regulation made in that Behalf, in lieu and instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, anything in any Act or Acts or any Rules or Regulations relating to Soldiers to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Paymaster to receive Fees, or to make unusual Deductions out of Pay, or to detain Pay.

Punishment for so doing.

L. And be it enacted, That no Paymaster or other Person shall receive any Fees or make any Deductions whatsoever out of the Pay or Allowance of any Officer or Soldier in the East India Company's Service, or from their Agents, other than the usual Deductions or such other necessary Deductions as shall from Time to Time be required to be made, according to the Regulations of the Service; and every Paymaster or other Person having received any Officer's or Soldier's Pay and Allowances, who shall unlawfully detain the same for the Space of One Month or refuse to pay the same when it shall become due, according to the several Rates and agreeably to the Regulations established by the Rules of the Service, shall, upon Proof thereof before a Court-martial, be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit One thousand Company's Rupees, and be liable to such further Punishment as shall by the Court-martial be awarded, One Moiety of such Fine to be paid to the Informer; and should such Informer be a Soldier, he shall, if he demand it, be discharged from any further Service: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council or the Governor in Council at the said Presidencies respectively to give Orders for withholding the Pay of any Officer or Soldier for any Period during which such Officer or Soldier shall be absent without Leave, or improperly absent from his Corps and from his Duty.

Penalty for procuring false Musters.

LI. And be it enacted, That every Person, not having any Military Commission, who shall give or procure to be given any untrue Certificate whereby to excuse any Soldier for his Absence from any Muster or any other Service which he ought to attend or perform, or who shall directly or indirectly take or cause to be taken any Money or Gratuity for mustering any Soldiers, or for signing any Muster Rolls or Duplicates thereof, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Company's Rupees; and any Person who shall falsely be mustered or offer himself to be mustered, or lend or furnish any Horse or other Beast to be falsely mustered, shall, upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before some Magistrate residing near the Place where such Muster shall be made, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Company's Rupees; and the Informer, if he belong to the Company's Service, shall, if he demand it, be forthwith discharged the said Service.

Penalty on purchasing Soldiers Necessaries, Stores, &c.

LII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly detain, buy, exchange, or receive from any Soldier or Deserter, or any other Person, on any Pretence whatsoever, or shall solicit or entice any Soldier, or shall be employed by any Soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell any Arms, Ammunition, Clothes, or Military Furniture, or any Provisions, or any Sheets or other Articles used in Barracks, provided under Barrack Regulations, or Regimental Necessaries, or any Article of Forage provided for any Horses or other Beasts belonging to or used in the East India Company's Service, or who shall have in his or her Possession or Keeping any such Arms, Ammunition, Clothes, Furniture, Provisions, Spirits, Articles, Necessaries, or Forage as aforesaid, and shall not give a satisfactory Account how he or she came by the same, or shall change the Colour of any Clothes as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Two hundred Company's Rupees, together with the Treble Value of all or any of the several Articles of which such Offender shall so become possessed; and if any Person, having been so convicted, shall afterwards be guilty of any such Offence, and shall be convicted thereof by One or more Justices of the Peace, every such Offender shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Two hundred Company's Rupees but not less than Fifty Company's Rupees, and the Treble Value of all or any of the several Articles of which such Offender shall have so become possessed, and shall, in addition to such Forfeiture, be liable to be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months, as the convicting Justice or Justices shall think fit; and upon any Information against any Person for a Second or any subsequent Offence a Copy of the Conviction, certified by the proper Officer having the Care or Custody of such Conviction, or any Copy of the same, proved to be a true Copy, shall be sufficient Evidence to prove a Conviction of the former Offence; and if any credible Person shall prove on Oath or solemn Declaration before a Justice of the Peace, or Person exercising the like Authority, a reasonable Cause to suspect that any Person has in his or her Possession, or on his or her Premises, any Property of the Description hereinbefore described, with respect to which any such Offence shall have been committed, the Justice, or Person exercising like Authority, may grant a Warrant to search for such Property as in the Case of stolen Goods; and if upon Search any such Property shall be found the same shall and may be seized by the Officer charged with the Execution of such Warrant, who shall bring the Offender in whose Possession the same shall be found before such Justice or other Person, to be dealt with according to Law.

Soldiers entitled to Discharge may claim to be sent home free of Expense.

LIII. And be it enacted, That every Soldier entitled to his Discharge, either upon the Expiration of any Period for which he shall have engaged to serve, or otherwise, shall be entitled to be sent to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expense, and be entitled on his Return to have and receive Marching Money from the Place of his being landed to the Parish or Place in which he shall have been originally enlisted, or at which he shall at the Time of Arrival in Great Britain or Ireland decide to take up his Residence, such Place not being at a greater Distance from the Place of his landing than the Place of his original Enlistment, such Marching Money being at the Rate and Reckoning per Diem fixed for victualling Soldiers in Her Majesty's Service on the March: Provided always, that every such Soldier entitled to and claiming his Discharge, and to be sent to Great Britain or Ireland, as aforesaid, as also any other Soldier in the Service of the East India Company entitled to be sent to Great Britain or Ireland shall, until his Arrival and Debarkation in Great Britain or Ireland, be subject to the Provisions of this Act, and the Articles of War framed or to be framed by Her Majesty for the better Government of the Company's Forces; and Her Majesty may by such Articles of War provide for the Punishment of any such Soldier who in the Passage shall be guilty of Drunkenness, or of any dishonest, disorderly, cruel, indecent, or disgraceful Conduct, by Sentence of a Court-martial, to be held under the Mutiny Act and Articles of War for the Time being in force for Her Majesty's Forces, and may direct that for the Purposes of such Court-martial and Punishment he shall be considered as belonging to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, and be punishable in the same or the like Manner as if the Offence had been committed whilst serving with such Regiment, and as if any Advantages he may be entitled to by Service were Advantages arising from Service in Her Majesty's Forces.

Punishment of Offences on the Voyage.

Indian Government may stay Proceedings.

LIV. And be it enacted, That the Government of any of the said Presidencies in India may suspend the Proceedings of any Court-martial which may at any Time be holden within such Presidencies respectively.

Power to appoint General Courts-martial beyond 120 Miles from Presidencies (except Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca,) for the Trial of Capital and other Offenders.

LV. And be it enacted, That any Officer or Soldier who shall be serving in the Territories of any Foreign State, or in any Country under the Protection of Her Majesty or the said Company, or at any Place (other than Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca,) in the Territories under the Government of the said Company, and situated above One hundred and twenty Miles from the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay respectively, and who shall be accused of having committed Treason or any other Crime which if committed in England would be Felony, or of having committed any Offence against the Person or Property of any Subject of Her Majesty, or any other Person entitled to the Protection of Her Majesty or of the Government of the East India Company, or of any State in alliance with the said Company, may be tried by a General Court-martial to be appointed by the General or other Officer commanding in chief in such Place for the Time being, and if found guilty shall suffer Death, or be liable to Transportation for Life or for a Term of Years, or other Punishment, Punishment, according to the Nature and Degree of the Offence, as by the Sentence of any such General Court-martial shall be awarded: Provided always, that no Sentence of a General Court-martial for any such Offence shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been confirmed by the General or other Officer commanding in chief as aforesaid; and such Officer may, if he shall think fit, suspend, mitigate, or remit the Sentence, or, in the Case of a Sentence of Death, commute the same, by directing the Offender to be transported as a Felon for Life or for any certain Term of Years; provided also, that any Person who may have been so tried as aforesaid shall not be tried for the same Offence by any other Court whatsoever.

Proviso for Confirmation by the Governor in Council in certain Cases.

LVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any Officer or Soldier shall under the Clause lastly herein-before contained have been found guilty of any such Offence as therein mentioned, committed at any Place within the Territories under the Government of the said Company situated above One hundred and twenty Miles from the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay respectively, and the Offender shall have been tried within such Territories, no Sentence of Death or Transportation in respect of such Offence, whether original, revised, or commuted, shall be carried into execution until such Sentence shall have been approved by the Governor General in Council, or Governor in Council of the Presidency in the Territories subordinate to which the Offender shall have been tried.

Such Offenders, if apprehended by Civil Authorities, to be delivered over for Trial by Court-martial.

LVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person liable under the Provisions herein-before mentioned to be tried by a Court-martial for any Crime or Offence alleged to have been committed within the Territories of any Foreign State, or in any Country under the Protection of Her Majesty or the said Company, or at any Place (other than Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, or Malacca,) in the Territories under the Government of the said Company, situate above One hundred and twenty Miles from the said Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay respectively, or upon the High Seas, and for which no Proceeding shall have been commenced in any Court of competent Jurisdiction, shall be apprehended by the Authority of or brought before any Magistrate for any such Offence, such Magistrate shall deliver over such accused Person to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Corps, or Detachment to which such accused Person shall belong, or to the Commanding Officer of the nearest Military Station, for the Purpose of his being tried by a Court-martial for such Offence as is herein-before provided in that Behalf.

The ordinary Course of Law not to be interfered with.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Officer or Soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law; and any Commanding Officer who shall neglect or refuse, when Application is made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Soldier under his Command accused of any Crime or Offence against the Person, Estate, or Property of any of Her Majesty's Subjects, or any other Person entitled to the Protection of Her Majesty or of the respective Governments of the East India Company, or of any State in alliance with the said Company, which is punishable by the ordinary Course of Law, or shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist the Officers of Justice in apprehending any Officer or Soldier under his Command so accused as aforesaid, such Officer shall, upon Conviction thereof on any Prosecution in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record in the United Kingdom or in India, be deemed to be ipso facto cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in the said Company's Service in the East Indies; and a Copy of the Record of such Conviction, subscribed and attested by the Clerk of the Crown or other proper Officer of the Court in which such Conviction shall take place, shall within Two Months from the Time of such Conviction be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General of the Army to which such Offender shall belong; provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to require the Delivery over to the Civil Magistrate of any such Person accused of any Offence who shall have been tried for such Offence by any Court-martial under the Provisions herein-before in that Behalf contained, or against whom any effectual Proceeding shall have been taken or ordered to be taken for the Purpose of bringing such Person to Trial by Court-martial under the Provisions herein-before in that Behalf contained; provided also, that no Person or Persons, being acquitted or convicted of any Crime, Violence, or Offence by the Civil Magistrate or the Verdict of a Jury, shall be liable to be punished by a Court-martial for the same, otherwise than by cashiering; and whenever any Officer or Soldier shall have been tried before a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, the Clerk of the Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of such Court, or the Deputy of such Clerk, shall, if required by the Officer commanding the Regiment to which such Officer or Soldier belongs, transmit to him a Certificate containing the Substance and Effect only, omitting the formal Part, of the Indictment, Conviction, or Acquittal of such Officer or Soldier, and shall be allowed for such Certificate a Fee of One Company's Rupee and Eight Annas; and every such Certificate, containing the Substance and Effect of the Indictment and Conviction, and purporting to be signed as aforesaid, shall be sufficient Evidence before a Court-martial of such Conviction, and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied, from all the Circumstances of the Case, that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender.

Soldier not to be arrested for Debt unless amounting to 300 Company's Rupees.

LIX. And be it enacted, That no Person whatever enlisted into the East India Company's Service as a Soldier shall be liable to be arrested or taken therefrom by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some Criminal Matter, unless an Affidavit shall be made by the Plaintiff, or some one on his Behalf, (for which no Fee shall be taken,) before some Judge of the Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit a Memorandum without Fee shall be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, that the original Debt for which which the Action has been brought or Execution sued out amounts to the Value of Three hundred Company's Rupees at the least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions on which the same shall be grounded; and any Judge of such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Soldier or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Soldier, without Fee, he being shown to be duly enlisted, and to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Party by whom the Action shall have been brought or Execution sued as aforesaid: Provided always, that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Soldier, or left at his last Quarters or Place of Residence before listing, may file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, and proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and have Execution other than against the Body.

Persons employed under Articles of War to collect Effects of Officers dying in Service abroad may do so without Probate or Letters of Administration.

LX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Officers or other Persons who by or under the Authority of any Articles of War in force for the Time being for the European Officers or Soldiers in the Service of the said Company may be authorized or required to take care of or collect or superintend, or direct the Collection, of the Effects or any Part of the Effects of any Officers or Soldiers dying in the Service of the said Company out of the United Kingdom to ask, demand, and receive any such Effects to which his Authority shall extend, and to commence, prosecute, and carry on any Actions or Suits for the Recovery thereof, and to sell and dispose of or otherwise deal with the same, without taking out any Letters of Administration, either with any Will annexed or otherwise, in every respect as if such Officers or Persons employed or required as aforesaid had been appointed Executors, and had proved the Will, or had taken out Administration of such Effects; and no Registrar of any Court in the East Indies, or any Person acting under the Appointment or Authority of such Court ad colligenda or otherwise, shall in any Manner interpose in relation to any such Effects, unless required and authorized so to do by any such Officer or Person so authorized or required as aforesaid, any Act or Acts, Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

What Debts to be deemed Regimental Debts, and to have Priority accordingly.

LXI. And be it enacted, That all Sums of Money due by deceased Officers and Soldiers in respect of any Military Clothing, Appointments, and Equipments, Servant's Wages due, and Household Expenses, during the current Month, or in respect of any Quarters, or of any Mess or Band or Regimental Accounts, and all Sums of Money due to any Agent or Paymaster or Quartermaster, or any other Officer, upon any such Account, or on account of any Advance made for any such Purpose, and also any Charges or Expenses attending or relating to the Illness or Funeral of any such Officer or Soldier, shall be deemed and taken to be Regimental Debts, and shall be paid out of any Arrears of Pay or Allowances, or out of any Prize or Bounty Money, or the Equipage, Goods, Chattels, and Effects of any Officer or Soldier dying out of the United Kingdom while in the Service of the said Company, in preference to any other Debts, Claims, or Demands whatsoever upon the Estate and Effects of such Officer or Soldier; and if Doubt shall arise as to whether any Claim or Demand made in relation to any Officer or Soldier is a Regimental Debt or not, or whether such Charges or Expenses attending or relating to the Illness or Funeral of such Officer or Soldier are proper to be allowed, or whether any such Regimental Debts remain due, such Question shall be decided and concluded by any Order or Certificate to be made either by the Military Secretary to the Government of the Presidency to which such Officer or Soldier shall have belonged, or, in case where, for Convenience, such last-mentioned Military Secretary shall authorize or request the Military Secretary to the Government of any other Presidency to act on his Behalf, then by such last-named Military Secretary; and all such Payments shall be good and valid in Law, and every Person who shall make any such Payment out of any such Arrears of Pay, Effects, or Proceeds as aforesaid, under the Provisions of this Act, or in pursuance of any such Order or Certificate of such Military Secretary, or into whose Hands any such Money shall come, shall be and are hereby indemnified for and in respect of such Payments, and all other Acts, Matters, and Things done in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Order or Certificate of the said Military Secretary in relation to the Distribution of such Assets, anything in any Act or Acts, or Law or Laws, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Regimental Debts to be paid without Probate or Letters of Administration, &c.

Military Secretary to administer such Surplus, when not exceeding 1,000 Company's Rupees, without Probate or Administration, and Duty free.

LXII. And be it enacted, That all such Regimental Debts shall and may be paid without Probate of any Will being obtained, or any Letters of Administration, or any Confirmation of Testament, or Letters Testamentary or Dative, being taken out by any Person, and the Surplus only of such Arrears of Pay or Allowances, Prize or Bounty Money, Equipage, Goods and Chattels, or the Proceeds thereof, shall be deemed the Personal Estate of the Deceased for the Payment of any Duty which may be claimable in respect of the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Military Secretary to the Government of the Presidency to which the Deceased shall have belonged to order and direct the Payment or Distribution of any such Surplus to any Amount not exceeding One thousand Company's Rupees, without any Probate or Letters of Administration, or Confirmation of Testament, or Letters Testamentary or Dative, or Payment of any Duty; and it shall also be lawful for any Paymaster or other Person to issue any Sum, not exceeding the Value of One thousand Company's Rupees, which may be due to any deceased Officer or Soldier, unto the Widow or Relative of any Officer or Soldier deceased, or unto the Representative or Representatives of any such Officer's Widow, or Relative in India, in like Manner, without any Probate or Letters of Administration, or Confirmation of Testament, or Letters Testamentary or Dative, or Payment of any Duty, the same to be paid to the Person who shall be notified by the said Military Secretary as aforesaid as being entitled thereto, or as being a proper Person to receive the same; and all such Payments respectively shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been made by or to any

any Executor or Administrator, or under the Authority of any Probate or Letters of Administration, or Confirmation of Testament, Letters Testamentary or Dative, anything in any Act or Acts, or Law or Laws, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Effects remitted not to be deemed Assets in the Place to which remitted so as to render Administration necessary.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That any Effects, or the Proceeds or Surplus of any Effects, which shall be collected or received under the Authority of any Articles of War as aforesaid, when remitted to any Person, under any Order of the Military Secretary to the Government of any of the said Company's Presidencies, or to such Military Secretary, shall not, by reason of coming to the Hands of such Person or Military Secretary, be taken to be Assets or Effects in the Place to which such Proceeds or Surplus may be remitted so as to render it necessary that Administration should be taken out in respect thereof; and it shall be lawful for the Military Secretary to the Government of the Presidency to which the deceased Officer or Soldier shall have belonged to order that such Effects, or the Proceeds or Surplus of any such Effects, shall be remitted to any other Place in India, Person or Persons, by whom the same can more conveniently be paid over to the Person or Persons entitled thereto; and the Obedience to the Orders of such Military Secretary in respect to the Payment and Disposal of any such Effects, Proceeds, or Surplus of such Effects shall be a sufficient Discharge from all Actions, Suits, and Demands in respect thereof, to all Persons to whose Hands any such Effects, Proceeds, or Surplus shall have come, and by whom the same shall have been paid and disposed of under the Order of such Military Secretary.

Military Secretary authorized to order Remittance of Effects to any other Place in India.

Mode of administering Surplus prescribed.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That the Effects, or the Proceeds or Surplus of the Effects, collected or received under the Authority of any Articles of War as aforesaid, which shall remain after satisfying such Regimental Debts as aforesaid, and subject to such Payment or Distribution as is herein-before authorized, shall with all convenient Speed be transmitted to such Military Secretary as aforesaid by the Officer or Person employed or required to take care of, collect, and receive the same; and such Military Secretary shall cause the same, or the Surplus thereof remaining after satisfying such Debts, and subject to such Payment and Distribution as aforesaid, to be paid to the Executor or legal Representative (if in India) of such Officer or Soldier; or if there shall be no such Executor or legal Representative in India, or no such Executor or legal Representative shall within Twelve Months from the Death of such Officer or Soldier claim such Surplus, then and in that Case such Military Secretary shall remit the said Surplus to the Court of Directors of the East India Company in London, to be by them paid to the Executor or legal Representative of such Officer or Soldier so deceased; and such Remittance at the End of Twelve Months as aforesaid shall be a Discharge to such Military Secretary from all Actions, Suits, and Demands in respect of such Surplus: Provided always, that the Registrar of Her Majesty's several Supreme Courts in India shall not be required or entitled to take out Letters of Administration with the Will annexed, or otherwise, in respect of such Surplus, nor in any Manner to interpose in relation thereto, unless expressly authorized so to do by the said Military Secretary, and in all Cases in which the Surplus so to be remitted by the said Military Secretary to the said Court of Directors in London shall not exceed One hundred Pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Directors to order and direct the Payment and Distribution thereof to the Parties entitled thereto, without any Probate, Letters Testamentary or Dative, or Payment of any Duty.

Registrar of Supreme Courts to take out Administration to Surplus.

The Queen may make Provision for the Collection, &c. of the Effects of Deserters.

LXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Articles of War to be made by Her as aforesaid, to make Provision for collecting any Effects of Deserters, and for Payment out of the same of any Regimental Debts and Quarters of the Deserters, and for carrying the Balance to the Credit of the East India Company, for the Use of the said Company; and that all Questions respecting any such Regimental Debts may be determined and concluded in such Manner as herein-before is provided.

Where Troops are serving beyond the Jurisdiction of the Court of Requests, Actions of Debt not exceeding 400 Rupees to be cognizable by a Military Court.

Composition and Constitution of the Court prescribed;

LXVI. And be it enacted, That in all Places where the said Company's Forces now are or may be employed, or where any Body of Her Majesty's Forces may be serving with the Forces of the said Company, situate beyond the Jurisdiction of any Courts of Requests or other Courts for enforcing small Demands established at the Cities of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, Actions of Debt, and all personal Actions against Officers, all Persons licensed to act as Sutlers to any Corps or Detachments or at any Station or Cantonment, Persons resident within the Limits of a Military Cantonment, or other Persons amenable to the Provisions of this Act, not being Soldiers, shall be cognizable before a Court of Requests composed of Military Officers, and not elsewhere, provided the Value in question shall not exceed Four hundred Company's Rupees, and that the Defendant was a Person of the above Description when the Cause of Action arose, which Court the Commanding Officer of any Camp, Garrison, or Cantonment is hereby authorized and empowered to convene; and the said Court shall in all practicable Cases consist of Five Commissioned Officers, and in no instance of less than Three; and the President thereof shall in all practicable Cases be a Field Officer, and in no Case be under the Rank of a Captain; and every Member shall have served Five Years as a Commissioned Officer; and the President and Members assisting at any such Court, before any Proceedings be had before it, shall take the following Oath, which Oath shall be administered by the President of the Court to the other Members thereof, and to the President by any Member having first taken the Oath; (that is to say,)

'I swear, That I will duly administer Justice according to the Evidence in the Matters that shall be brought before me. So help me GOD.'

and its Powers defined.

And all Witnesses before any such Court shall be examined in the same Manner as in the Case of a Trial by Court-martial; and it shall be competent for such Court, upon finding or awarding any Debt or Damage, either to award Execution thereof generally, or to direct specially that the whole or any Part thereof shall be stopped, and paid over to the Plaintiff, out of any Part not exceeding One Half of any Pay or Allowance, or out of any other public Money which may respectively be coming to the Defendant

in

in the current or any future Month or Months, or to direct the same to be so paid by Instalments; and in all Cases where the Execution shall be awarded generally, the Debt, if not paid forthwith, shall be levied by Seizure and public Sale of such of the Defendant's Goods and Property as may be found within the Camp, Garrison, or Cantonment, under a written Order of the Commanding Officer, grounded on the Judgment of the Court; and all Orders of such Commanding Officer as to the Manner of such Sale, or the Person by whom the same shall be made, or otherwise respecting the same, shall be valid and binding; and any Goods and Property of the Defendant found within the Limits of the Camp, Garrison, or Cantonment to which the Defendant shall belong at any subsequent Time shall be liable to be seized and sold in like Manner, in satisfaction of any Remainder of such Debt or Damages; and if any Question shall arise whether any such Effects or Property are liable to be taken in Execution as aforesaid, the Decision and Order of the said Commanding Officer shall be final and conclusive with respect to the same; and if sufficient Goods shall not be found within the Limits of the Camp, Garrison, or Cantonment, then any public Money, or any Part, not exceeding One Half, of the Pay or Allowances accruing to the Defendant, shall be stopped, in liquidation of such Debt or Damage; and if such Defendant shall not receive Pay as an Officer or from any public Department, but be a Sutler, Servant, or Follower, he may be arrested by like Order of the Commanding Officer, and imprisoned in some convenient Place within the Military Boundaries for any Period not exceeding Two Months, unless the Debt be sooner paid; and the said Commanding Officer shall not, nor shall any Person acting on his Orders in respect of the Matters aforesaid, incur any Liability to any Person or Persons whomsoever for any Act done by him in pursuance of the Provisions aforesaid; and in Cases where the said Court shall direct specially that the whole or any Part of the Debt or Damages shall be stopped and paid out of Part of any Pay or Allowances, or out of any public Money, the same shall be stopped and paid accordingly, in conformity with such Direction: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall enable any such Action as aforesaid to be brought in the said Court by any Officer or Soldier against any Officer.

Term and Limitation of Actions.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That any Action which shall be brought against any Person for anything to be done in pursuance of this Act shall be brought within Six Months; and it shall be lawful for every such Person to plead thereunto the General Issue of Not Guilty, and to give all special Matter in Evidence to the Jury which shall try the Issue; and if the Verdict shall be for the Defendant in any such Action, or the Plaintiff therein become nonsuited, or suffer any Discontinuance thereof, the Court in which the said Matter shall be tried shall allow unto the Defendant Treble Costs, for which the said Defendant shall have the like Remedy as in other Cases where Costs are given to Defendants; and every Action against any Person for anything to be done in pursuance of this Act, or against any Member of a Court-martial in respect of any Sentence of such Court, or of anything done by virtue or in pursuance of such Sentence, shall be brought in some of the Courts of Record at the Presidencies in India, or in the Courts of Record at Westminster or in Dublin, or the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other Court whatsoever.

Modes of Procedure.

Mode of recovering Penalties.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed may and shall be sued for and be recoverable in any Court of Record at the said Presidencies, or in any other Court in India in which under any Laws made or to be made in India the Penalty would be recoverable if the same had been incurred by the Offender in breach of any other Law: Provided always, that no Action shall be brought or Prosecution carried on or by virtue of this Act for any such Penalties or Forfeitures as aforesaid unless the same be commenced within Six Months after the Offence is committed.

One Moiety to Informer; Remainder to Military Secretary of the Presidency.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That One Moiety of any Penalty, not including any Treble Value of any Articles adjudged or recovered under the Provisions of this Act, shall go to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same; and the Remainder of the Penalty, together with the Treble Value of any Article, or, where the Offence shall be proved by the Person who shall inform, the whole of the Penalty, shall be paid to the Military Secretary of the Government of the Presidency to which the Court by whom the Penalty shall be adjudicated shall be subject, and shall abide the Disposal of such Military Secretary; and the Court which shall adjudge any Penalty under this Act shall immediately report the same to the said Secretary.

Punishment for giving false Testimony.

LXX. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Oath is hereby required to be taken, or any Person is hereby required to be sworn, a solemn Declaration or Affirmation may be substituted, if by the Laws for the Time being in force in India such Declaration or Affirmation would be allowed to be substituted in the Place of an Oath in case the Party were about to depose as a Witness in a Civil Action in any of the Supreme Courts at the Presidencies; and that any Persons wilfully and knowingly giving false Testimony on Oath, or solemn Declaration or Affirmation in any Case wherein such Oath or solemn Declaration or Affirmation shall have been made for the Purpose of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and being thereof duly convicted shall be liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law in force in England, or by any Law in force in India, any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to; and every Commissioned Officer convicted before a General Court-martial of Perjury shall be cashiered; and every Soldier or other Person amenable to the Provisions of this Act found guilty thereof shall be punished at the Discretion of a General or other Court-martial.

Offences against former Mutiny Acts and Articles of War, and all existing Proceedings, continued.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That all Crimes and Offences which have been committed against the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, herein-before mentioned, or against any of the Articles of War made and established by virtue of the same, may be inquired of and punished in like Manner as if they had been committed against this Act, and every Warrant for holding any Court-martial under the said Act shall remain in full Force notwithstanding the Repeal of such Act, and all Proceedings of any Court-martial upon any Trial begun under the Authority of such former Act shall not not be discontinued by the Repeal of the same: Provided always, that no Person shall be liable to be tried and punished for any Offence against the said Act or this Act, or the Articles of War made or to be made by virtue of the same Acts or either of them, which shall appear to have been committed more than Three Years before the issuing of the Commission or Warrant for such Trial, unless the Person accused, by reason of his having absented himself, or of some other manifest Impediment, shall not have been amenable to Justice within that Period, in which Case such Person shall be liable to be tried at any Time not exceeding Two Years after the Impediment shall have ceased.

Act not to affect Queen's Prerogative.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner affect Her Majesty's Royal Prerogative of Mercy.

Not to affect Provisions of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 18.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall affect the Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to remove Doubts as to the Power of appointing, convening, and confirming the Sentences of Courts-martial in the East Indies, and that all the Provisions thereof shall after the passing of this Act apply and be in full Force and Effect, unless and except so far as the Provisions thereof may in any respect be inapplicable.

Commencement of this Act, and Repeal of former Act.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and that from and after such Day all Powers and Provisions contained in the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, except as herein-after is particularly provided, shall cease and determine, and that from and after the same Day the Articles of War made by Her Majesty in pursuance of the said Act shall cease and determine: Provided nevertheless, that full Effect shall be given to the Provisions herein-before contained respecting the Punishment of Offences against the said former Act, and otherwise, as herein-before is mentioned; and that, so far as may be necessary to give full Effect to such Provisions, the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, and the Articles of War made in pursuance of the same, shall be deemed to be in full Force; and provided also, that all the Powers and Provisions contained in the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty concerning or in any way relating to the Indian Navy shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, in the same Manner as if this Act had not passed; and provided also, that the Repeal of the same Act shall not operate to revive any former Act.

Act may be amended, &c.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

FORM of OATH to be taken by the PRESIDENT and MEMBERS of COURTS-MARTIAL.

YOU shall well and truly try and determine according to the Evidence in the Matter now before you. So help you GOD.

I A.B. do swear, That I will duly administer Justice according to the Rules and Articles for the better Government of the Forces of the East India Company, and according to an Act of Parliament now in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion of the said Forces, and other Crimes therein mentioned, without Partiality, Favour, or Affection, and if any Doubt shall arise which is not explained by the said Articles or Act, according to my Conscience, the best of my Understanding, and the Custom of War in the like Cases; and I further swear, that I will not divulge the Sentence of the Court until it shall be duly approved, neither will I, upon any account, at any Time whatsoever, disclose or discover any Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court-martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness by a Court of Justice or a Court-martial in due Course of Law. So help me GOD.

FORM of OATH to be taken by the JUDGE ADVOCATE (or Person officiating as such).

I do swear, That I will not, upon any account whatsoever, disclose or discover any Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court-martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness by a Court of Justice or a Court-martial in a due Course of Law, and that I will not, unless it be necessary for the due Discharge of my official Duties, disclose the Sentence of the Court until it shall be duly approved. So help me GOD.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to apply the Sum of Three Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine. [28th July 1849.]

CAP. XLV.

An Act to amend the Procedure in Courts of General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in England and Wales, and for the better Advancement of Justice in Cases within the Jurisdiction of those Courts. [28th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS, in Cases of Appeal to Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, it is expedient that the Law should be more uniform:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every Case of

of Appeal (except as herein-after mentioned) to any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace Fourteen clear Days Notice of Appeal at least shall be given, and such shall be sufficient Notice, any Act or Acts, or any Rule or Practice of any Court or Courts, to the contrary notwithstanding; and such Notice of Appeal shall be in Writing, signed by the Person or Persons giving the same, or by his, her, or their Attorney on his, her, or their Behalf, and the Grounds of Appeal shall be specified in every such Notice: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Appellant or Appellants, on the Trial of any such Appeal, to go into or give Evidence of any other Ground of Appeal besides those set forth in such Notice.

Notice of Appeal to be in Writing, and signed.

Grounds of Appeal to be stated.

Act not to affect Appeals against Orders of Removal, Orders of Bastardy, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That none of the Provisions herein-before contained relating to Notices of Appeal shall be construed to affect or alter the Law as to Notice of Appeal against a summary Conviction, or against an Order of Removal, or against an Order under any Statute relating to Pauper Lunatics, or against an Order in Bastardy, or against any Proceeding under or by virtue of any of the Statutes relating to Her Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs, Stamps, Taxes, or Post Office, but the Law with regard to Notices of all such Appeals shall be deemed and taken to be the same as if the Provisions herein-before contained had not been enacted.

Defects in Statement of Grounds of Appeal.

III. 'And whereas a Statement of the Grounds of Appeal, when required by this or any other 'Statute, is for the Purpose of enabling the Party receiving it to inquire into the Subject of such State-'ment, and, if need be, to prepare for Trial:' Be it therefore enacted, That upon the Hearing of any Appeal to any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace no Objection on account of any Defect in the Form of setting forth any Ground of Appeal shall be allowed, and no Objection to the Reception of legal Evidence offered in support of any Ground of Appeal shall prevail, unless the Court shall be of opinion that such Ground of Appeal is so imperfectly or incorrectly set forth as to be insufficient to enable the Party receiving the same to inquire into the Subject of such Statement, and to prepare for Trial: Provided always, that in all Cases where the Court shall be of opinion that any Objection to any Ground of Appeal, or to the Reception of Evidence in support thereof, ought to prevail, it shall be lawful for such Court, if it shall so think fit, to cause any such Ground of Appeal to be forthwith amended by some Officer of the Court, or otherwise, on such Terms as to Payment of Costs to the other Party, or postponing the Trial to another Day in the same Sessions or to the next subsequent Sessions, or both Payment of Costs and Postponement, as to such Court shall appear just and reasonable.

Amendment of Grounds of Appeal.

Frivolous Grounds of Appeal.

IV. And be it enacted, That if in any Notice of Appeal the Appellant or Appellants shall have included any Ground or Grounds of Appeal which shall in the Opinion of the Court determining the Appeal be frivolous or vexatious, such Appellant or Appellants shall be liable, if the Court shall so think fit, to pay the whole or any Part of the Costs incurred by the Respondent or Respondents in disputing any such Ground or Grounds of Appeal, such Costs to be recoverable in the Manner herein-after directed as to the other Costs incurred by reason of such Appeal.

Sessions to have a general Power to give Costs in all Cases of Appeal.

V. And be it enacted, That upon any Appeal to any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace the Court before whom the same shall be brought may, if it think fit, order and direct the Party or Parties against whom the same shall be decided to pay to the other Party or Parties such Costs and Charges as may to such Court appear just and reasonable, such Costs to be recoverable in the Manner provided for the Recovery of Costs upon an Appeal against an Order or Conviction by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

Frivolous Appeals.

VI. And for the more effectual Prevention of frivolous Appeals, be it enacted, That any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, upon Proof of Notice of any Appeal to the same Court having been given to the Party or Parties entitled to receive the same, though such Appeal was not afterwards prosecuted or entered, may, if it so think fit, at the same Sessions for which such Notice was given, order to the Party or Parties receiving the same such Costs and Charges as by the said Court shall be thought reasonable and just to be paid by the Party or Parties giving such Notice, such Costs to be recoverable in the Manner last aforesaid.

Amendment of Orders or Judgments of Justices on Appeal or Return to Certiorari.

VII. 'And whereas in many Cases, where Justices of the Peace are by Law empowered to make 'Orders or to give Judgments, great Expense and frequent Failures of Justice have been occasioned by 'reason that such Orders or Judgments have, on Appeal to the General or Quarter Sessions of the 'Peace, or on Removal by Certiorari into the Court of Queen's Bench, been quashed or set aside upon 'Exceptions or Objections to the Form of the Order or Judgment, irrespective of the Truth and Merits 'of the Matters in question:' For Remedy thereof be it enacted, That if upon the Trial of any Appeal to any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace against any Order or Judgment made or given by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or if upon the Return to any Writ of Certiorari any Objection shall be made on account of any Omission or Mistake in the drawing up of such Order or Judgment, and it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Court that sufficient Grounds were in Proof before the Justice or Justices making such Order or giving such Judgment to have authorized the drawing up thereof free from the said Omission or Mistake, it shall be lawful for the Court, upon such Terms as to Payment of Costs as it shall think fit, to amend such Order or Judgment, and to adjudicate thereupon as if no such Omission or Mistake had existed: Provided always, that no Objection on account of any Omission or Mistake in any such Order or Judgment brought up upon a Return to a Writ of Certiorari shall be allowed unless such Omission or Mistake shall have been specified in the Rule for issuing such Certiorari.

Rule for Certiorari to state Objections.

VIII. 'And

VIII. 'And whereas the Statutes giving a Right of Appeal against Orders or summary Convictions frequently require a Recognizance or Recognizances to be entered into as a Condition of such Appeal; and Appellants are liable to be prevented from trying their Appeals upon the Merits, in consequence of Imperfections in the taking of such Recognizances:' Be it enacted, That where any Recognizance or Recognizances which shall have been entered into within the Time by Law required before any Justice or Justices for the Purpose of complying with any such Condition of Appeal shall appear to the Court before which such Appeal is brought to have been insufficiently entered into, or to be otherwise defective or invalid, it shall be lawful for such Court, if it shall so think fit, to permit the Substitution of a new and sufficient Recognizance or new and sufficient Recognizances to be entered into before such Court in the Place of such insufficient, defective, or invalid Recognizance or Recognizances, and for that Purpose to allow such Time, and make such Examination, and impose such Terms as to Payment of Costs to the Respondent or Respondents, as to such Court shall appear just and reasonable; and such substituted Recognizance or Recognizances shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been duly entered into at any earlier Time or Times as required by any Statute or Statutes for that Purpose. Amendment of Recognizances.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Decisions of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace upon the Hearing of any Appeal, as to the Sufficiency of the Statement of any Ground or Grounds of Appeal, and as to the amending or refusing to amend any Order or Judgment of a Justice or Justices appealed against, or the Statement of any Ground or Grounds of Appeal, and as to the Substitution of any new Recognizance or Recognizances as aforesaid, shall be final, and shall not be liable to be reviewed in any Court, by means of a Writ of Certiorari or Mandamus, or otherwise. Decisions of Sessions, when final.

X. And be it enacted, That every Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, on the Trial of any Offence within its Jurisdiction, whenever any Variance or Variances shall appear between any Matter in Writing or in Print produced in Evidence and the Recital or setting forth thereof in the Indictment, shall have the same Power in all respects to cause the Indictment to be amended which is given to Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery with regard to Offences tried before such last-mentioned Courts by virtue of an Act of the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Removal of Defects in the Administration of Criminal Justice; and after such Amendment the Trial shall proceed in the same Manner in all respects, both with regard to the Liability of Witnesses to be indicted for Perjury and otherwise, as if no such Variance or Variances had appeared. Amendment of Indictment. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 46.

XI. And be it enacted, That at any Time after Notice given of Appeal to any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace against any Judgment, Order, Rate, or other Matter, (except an Order in Bastardy, or a Proceeding under or by virtue of any of the Statutes relating to Her Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs, Stamps, Taxes, or Post Office,) for which the Remedy is by such Appeal, it shall be lawful for the Parties, by Consent, and by Order of any Judge of one of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, to state the Facts of the Case in the Form of a Special Case for the Opinion of such Superior Court, and to agree that a Judgment in conformity with the Decision of such Court, and for such Costs as such Court shall adjudge, may be entered on Motion by either Party at the Sessions next or next but one after such Decision shall have been given; and such Judgment shall and may be entered accordingly, and shall be of the same Effect in all respects as if the same had been given by the Court of General or Quarter Sessions upon an Appeal duly entered and continued. Power to state a Special Case without going to the Sessions previously.

XII. 'And whereas by a Statute passed in the Tenth Year of King William the Third, intituled An Act for determining Differences by Arbitration, Provision was made for rendering more effectual the Awards of Arbitrators in the Case of Controversies and Disputes for which there is no other Remedy but by personal Action or by Suit in Equity: And whereas it is expedient in like Manner to facilitate and render more effectual References to Arbitration of Controversies and Disputes for which the Remedy is by Appeal to a Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace:' Be it enacted, That at any Time after Notice given of Appeal to any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace against any Order, Rate, or other Matter, (except a summary Conviction, or an Order in Bastardy, or any Proceeding under or by virtue of any of the Statutes relating to Her Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs, Stamps, Taxes, or Post Office,) for which the Remedy is by such Appeal, it shall be lawful for the Parties, by themselves or their Attornies, and by Order of a Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, to submit the Matter or Matters of such Appeal to the Award or Umpirage of any Person or Persons, and to agree that such Submission should be made a Rule of the said Court of Queen's Bench, and to insert such Agreement in their Submission or the Condition of the Bond or Promise whereby they oblige themselves respectively to submit to the Award or Umpirage of such Person or Persons; and thereupon such and the like Proceedings in all respects shall and may be taken with regard to Submissions under this Act, and to enforcing Awards or Umpirages thereupon, and to setting aside the same, as are authorized by the said Act of King William the Third with regard to the Cases therein provided for; and every Award or Umpirage duly made under this Act shall be as binding and effectual to all Intents as if the same had been a regular Judgment of the said Court of General or Quarter Sessions, and shall and may, on the Application of either Party, be enrolled among the Records of the said Court of Sessions. References to Arbitration. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 15.

XIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace before which any Appeal (except against a summary Conviction, or an Order in Bastardy, or any Proceeding under or by virtue of any of the Statutes relating to Her Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs, Stamps, Taxes, or Post Office,) shall be brought, to order, with Consent of the Parties or their References by Order of Court of Sessions.

Attornies, that the Matter or Matters of such Appeal be referred to Arbitration to such Person or Persons and in such Manner and on such Terms as the said Court shall think reasonable and proper; and such Order may be made a Rule of the Court of Queen's Bench, on the Application of either Party; and the Award of the Arbitrator or Arbitrators, or Umpirage of the Umpire, may, on Motion by either Party at the Sessions next or next but one after such Award or Umpirage shall have been finally made and published, or after the Decision of the Court of Queen's Bench on any Motion for setting aside the same, be entered as the Judgment of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions in the Appeal, and shall be as binding and effectual to all Intents as if given by the said Court: Provided always, that the Court of Queen's Bench may, if it think fit, on Application within the Term next after the making and Publication of such Award or Umpirage, either refer the Case back again to the same Arbitrator, Arbitrators, or Umpire, or wholly set aside the Award or Umpirage already made, and may in the latter Event order the Court of General or Quarter Sessions to enter Continuances and hear the Appeal.

Where Reference abortive, Queen's Bench may order Sessions to hear the Appeal.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if upon any Reference to Arbitration under this Act it shall be made to appear to the Court of Queen's Bench that, either from the Death of the Arbitrator or Arbitrators or Umpire, or from any other Cause, it has become impossible that an Award or Umpirage can be made, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to enter Continuances and hear the Appeal.

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 42. to be applicable to References under this Act. Arbitrators to have Power of Amendment.

XV. And be it enacted, That the several Provisions relating to Arbitrations contained in an Act of the Fourth Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the further Amendment of the Law and the better Advancement of Justice, shall be deemed and taken to be applicable to Arbitrations under this Act; and in every such Arbitration the Arbitrator or Arbitrators or Umpire shall have the same Powers of Amendment which the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace would have had on the Trial of the Appeal.

Recognizances for Prosecution and Trial of Appeal.

XVI. And be it enacted, That no Recognizance entered into pursuant to any Statute or Statutes for the Prosecution and Trial of any Appeal shall be deemed to be forfeited by such Agreement as aforesaid for the Statement of a Special Case without previously going to the Court of General or Quarter Sessions, or by any Submission to Arbitration under the Provisions of this Act.

3 G. 4. c. 46. Levying and Recovery of Fines, Issues, and Amerciaments.

XVII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, 'intituled An Act for the more speedy Return and levying of Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and 'Recognizances estreated, Provision is made for authorizing the levying and Recovery of Fines, Issues, 'Amerciaments, and forfeited Recognizances set, imposed, lost, or forfeited by or before any Justice or 'Justices of the Peace in England: And whereas it is expedient that the subsequent Proceedings in such 'Cases should be uniform:' Be it enacted, That the Proceedings subsequent to such Authority given for so levying and recovering as aforesaid shall and may be the same in all respects in the Case of such Fines, Issues, and Amerciaments as are by the said Act provided, permitted, and required in the Case of such forfeited Recognizances.

Enforcing Orders of Sessions.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Order shall be made by any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace it shall be lawful for the Court of Queen's Bench, or for any Judge of that Court at Chambers, either in Term or Vacation, upon the Application of any Person entitled to enforce such Order, and upon the Production of a Copy of such Order under the Hand of the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, and upon Proof of Refusal or Neglect to obey such Order, to order and direct such Order of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions to be removed into the said Court of Queen's Bench, and thereupon such Order shall be of the same Force and Effect, and may be enforced in the same Manner, as a Rule made by the said Court of Queen's Bench; and all the reasonable Costs and Charges attendant upon such Application and Removal shall be recoverable in like Manner as if the same were Part of such Order.

Extent of Act.

XIX. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Commencement of Act.

XX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall come into operation on the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

Act may be amended, &c.

XXI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XLVI.

An Act to facilitate the Union of Turnpike Trusts. [28th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient, for the better and more economical Management of Turnpike Trusts, 'that all which can be conveniently managed together should be united where the same can be 'effected without Injury to the Creditors of any of the said Trusts:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where the General Annual Meetings of the Trustees of Two or more Turnpike Roads have for Three Years next preceding such Notice as next herein-after mentioned been held at the same Place or at Places distant not more than Ten Miles from each other, Two or more of the Trustees of each of such Roads may call a joint Meeting of the Trustees of such several Roads, at a Place to be specified in the Notice of such Meeting, for the Purpose of taking into consideration a Proposition for the Union of the Trusts of such several Roads, of which Meeting and of the Purpose thereof Twenty-one Days Notice shall be given, in like Manner as Notice of the General Annual Meeting of the Trustees of such respective Roads is by Law required to be

Trustees of several Turnpike Roads may hold joint Meetings, and if deemed expedient to Two Thirds of Trustees present, be given; and if at such Meeting it shall appear to a Majority, being not less than Two Thirds of the Trustees of each of the Trusts so proposed to be united then present, that such Union is expedient, and that the same can be effected without Injury to the Interests of any of the Creditors of any of the said Trusts, the said Trustees may resolve to unite the same, and shall in such Case, within Twenty Days after such Meeting, send Notice of such Resolution, together with a Report of the Reasons for which the said Union is considered by them expedient, and a Statement of the Income and Expenditure of all the Trusts proposed to be so united, and of the Debts of every such Trust, to all the Creditors of the same, such Notice and Report to be delivered at the usual Place of Abode of every such Creditor, or at the Bank or other Place where the Interest on the Debt due to such Creditor is usually paid, with Instructions to forward the same to such Creditor; and whenever the Assent in Writing to the proposed Union of the Creditors of each of the said Trusts to whom Three Fifths in Amount of the Debts due from such Trust shall be owing, or of Persons legally qualified to assent in behalf of such Creditors, shall have been obtained, the Union of the said Trusts, together with the Assents and the Reports and Accounts on which such Union is founded, shall be registered in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace in every County through which the Roads of such united Trusts pass; and from and after the Date of such Registration the said Trusts shall become and continue One united Trust, and all the Trustees of every Trust so united shall be Trustees of the said united Trusts.

Trusts may be united, on Assent being obtained from Creditors.

II. And be it enacted, That every such Trust shall be called and known as "The United Trust of ——— Roads," and shall be subject to all the Liabilities of each Trust so united, and be entitled to all the Tolls, Profits, and other Property of each such Trust, and all Payments shall be made from the common Fund of the said Trusts so united; and all the Provisions of the General Turnpike Acts shall be applicable to such united Trust.

United Trust subject to Liabilities, &c.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all special Provisions in any of the said Acts as to the Amount of Tolls or Exemptions, or other Arrangements respecting any particular Portion of any One of such Roads, shall be held to apply to that Road only, and not to the whole united Trust.

Special Provisions limited.

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect, destroy, or alter any Right or Interest of any Person to or in any Office under any Turnpike Trust to which such Person may have been lawfully entitled before the passing of this Act.

Nothing to affect existing Rights, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That any Trust so united may hold its subsequent Meetings at any Place at which any of the said Trusts might have held its Meetings prior to such Union, and that after the Expiration of Three Years may in like Manner and under the same Conditions unite with any other Trust, Trusts, or united Trust meeting at the same.

Meetings of united Trusts.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act to continue certain Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in Ireland. [28th July 1849.]

'WHEREAS certain Acts for making, amending, and repairing the Turnpike Roads in Ireland were, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, amended and continued for a Time therein limited: And whereas the said Acts were further continued from Time to Time, save as specially excepted: And whereas, under the Provisions of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, the said Acts, save as therein excepted, are further continued, and will remain in force until the Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the several Acts for making, amending, or repairing Turnpike Roads in Ireland should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Act for making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road or Roads in Ireland which will expire on the said Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or at or before the End of the present or next ensuing Session of Parliament, shall be and the same is hereby continued, as amended by the said recited Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament.
